Benjamin Zacks, Benny's comptroller from first store until a month ago

PROVIDENCE — Benjamin Zacks of Butler Avenue, comptroller of Benny's automotive stores from 1933 until retiring four weeks ago, died Saturday at the Jane Brown unit of Rhode Island Hospital after a four-month illness. He was the husband of Maria (Mogal) Zacks.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Wolf and Fannie Zacks, he lived in Taunton before settling in Providence in 1933.

Mr. Zacks was with Benny's from the firm's original store on Fountain Street. He studied accounting at Boston University. He was on a number of boards and committees in the Greater Providence area. He was a member of Temple Beth-El and its Brotherhood, the Miriam Hospital Association, the Touro Fraternal Association, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Rhode Island Philharmonic Association, the Rhode Island School of Design Museum and the Providence Hebrew Free Loan.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Richard W. Zachs, a Providence lawyer; a sister, Anne Klaiman of Andover, Mass., and five grandchildren.

A funeral service was to be held today at 2 p.m. in Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue, with burial in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.
