Ewa Zabner

WARWICK — Ewa Zabner, 67, of Hedgerow Drive died Friday at Kent County Memorial Hospital. She was the wife of Adolf Zabner.

Born in Warsaw, Poland, a daughter of the late Maximilian and Anna (Gotreich) Korngold, she lived in Warwick since 1966. She previously lived in Montreal.

Mrs. Zabner was a dress designer in Warsaw and Paris, France, for more than 20 years. She was among the Jewish people who participated in the Warsaw Uprising against Nazis troops in World War II. She was a survivor of the Holocaust.

Besides her husband she leaves two daughters, Anita Demers of Cranston and Marilyn Gray of North Conway, N.H.; a sister, Sophie Arm of Paris, and four grandchildren.

A private funeral service was held yesterday at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

ZABNER, EWA

EB 8-3-87