OBITUARY

The Providence Sunday Journal, March 13, 1977/ 1

Saul Zarchen

PAWTUCKET — Saul Zarchen, 63, of 45 Cambria Court, president of Eastern Supply Co., died yesterday at home after illness. He was the husband of Lee (Shapiro) Zarchen.

Born Nov. 17, 1913, in Central Falls, he was the son of the late Max and Myrtle Zarchen. He was a member of Temple Beth-El in Providence and Congregation Ohawe Sholom in Pawtucket. Mr. Zarchen was also a member of Jenks Lodge, F&AM, Pawtucket Royal Arch Chapter and Palestine Temple, and was past president of Brotherhood of Temple Beth-El.

Survivors besides his wife are two sons, M. Gary Zarchen of Cranston and Bernard Raisman of Warwick; a daughter, Nancy B. Zarchen of Provincetown, Mass.; two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Segal of Pawtucket and Mrs. Marie Klibanoff of Providence, and five grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. in Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave.

ZARCHEN, SAUL