PJB 11-13-10 ZASLOFF FRANK

HOPKINTON

ZASLOFF, FRANK E., 62, of Hope Valley, died Friday, Nov. 12, 2010, at home, following a year-long battle with leukemia. He was the beloved husband of Etta Lee (Orr) Zasloff.

Born in Clarksburg, WV, a son of the late Joseph and Louise (Spangberg) Zasloff, he had lived in Fairmont, WV for 28 years before moving to Rhode Island 7 years ago to be closer to his children and grandchildren.

Frank was a sales representative for the Rhode Island Jewish Voice & Herald until his illness. He was a vice president of the Rhode Island 4-H Foundation Board, a 4-H volunteer in RI and Fairmont, WV, a past president of Fairmont State University Alumni Association and past president of Alumni Lettermen's Association. Frank was a member of the 1967 Fairmont State NAIA National championship football team. Frank was a member of the B.P.O.E., the Fairmont Jaycees, Fairmont Rotary Club, and Downtown Fairmont Businessmen's Association. He owned Zasloff's Jewelry Palace in Fairmont.

Devoted father of Julie Zasloff Lindstrom and her husband Casey of Newton, MA and Zachary E. Zasloff and his wife Lori of Somerville, MA. Dear brother of JoAnn Melkus of Bridgeport, WV. Loving grandfather of Evan and Emily Lindstrom.

Open house visitation will be held at his RI residence on Sunday, Nov. 14, from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m. A West Virginia farewell will be held at R.C Jones Funeral Home in Fairmont, with visitation on Friday, Nov. 19, 2010 5:00-8:00 PM and a Celebration of Life Memorial Service on Saturday, Nov. 20, 2010 at 10 AM, followed by immediate burial at Brideport Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the 4-H Foundation through the University of RI, Marion County 4-H Camp Mar-Mac, the Jewish Voice & Herald Patronage Campaign, or to the Joe and Louise Zasloff Memorial Scholarship Fund at Fairmont State University. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, Cranston.
