ZATLOFF
IRVING

ELSEWHERE

ZATLOFF, IRVING, 93, of West Orange, NJ, a former resident of Providence, Warwick and Delray Beach, Fl., died Tuesday, Mar. 13, 2012, at the Daughters of Israel Nursing Home in West Orange. He was the beloved husband of the late Mildred (Tragar) Zatloff. They were married for 51 years.

Born to Celia and Charles Zatloff in Shederivka, Russia, he immigrated to America in 1923 with his late brother Morris and late sister Leah, settling in Providence. He started out in his father's custom peddling business Charles Zatloff & Son, and successively owned Harold's Men Store in Warren, Reliable Furniture in Pawtucket, and Blanchard Furniture of Warwick. He maintained a very close and special relationship with many of his customer's families throughout his life. He retired from business in 1990, moving to Delray Beach Fl. During WW II, he served in the Army Signal Corp. in France and England. As a radio operator, he was able to keep tabs on his Providence Olympic Club friends and report on their whereabouts to loved ones at home. He was an early member of the Olympic Club, a member of Touro Fraternal Organization, Temple Emanu-El in Providence, and an active member of Temple Am David in Warwick. He enjoyed golf, bowling and table tennis, as well as his weekly card game with his very good friends.

He is survived by his sons Shneor (Steven), Errol and Michael, and 10 grandchildren Shmuel, Akiva, Zipporah, Yaacov, Yosef, Menachem, Jesse, Hanan, Alexander and Timothy.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 8:30 a.m. in the PRIEST CHAPEL in Lincoln Park Cemetery, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick. Donations may be made to the EZ Fund, c/o Temple Am David, 40 Gardner St., Warwick RI 02888. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, Cranston.
