Mrs. Eunice Zeidman

CRANSTON — Mrs. Eunice Zeidman, 54, of 12 Iris Drive died Wednesday at home after a five-year illness. She was the wife of Rubin Zeidman.

She was born in Chelsea, Mass., Feb. 9, 1923, a daughter of the late Edward M. and Sarah (Miller) Cutler. She had lived in Cranston 17 years, and before that had lived in Warwick for 10 years.

One of the founders of Temple Beth-Am, along with her husband, she helped lay the cornerstone for the temple. She was a member of the temple's board of directors and a past president of its Sisterhood.

Mrs. Zeidman was a member of the Cranston-Warwick chapter of Hadassah, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Miriam Hospital Women's Association and B'nai B'rith.

She was the Rani of the Simcha Santha of Rhode Island.

Beside her husband she leaves a son, Arthur M. Zeidman of Greenville; a sister, Mrs. Jean Goldberg of Kendall Lake, Fla., and a grandchild.

A funeral service will be held today at 10:30 a.m. at Temple Beth-Am, 40 Gardiner St. Burial will be in Pride of Brockton Cemetery, Brockton, Mass.
