RUBIN ZEIDMAN, 81, of Shannon Drive, owner-operator of Rhody Records from the mid-1970s until he retired in the late 1980s, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital, Providence. He was the husband of May-Ronny (Sarenson) Zeidman and the late Eunice (Cutler) Zeidman.

Born in Quincy, Mass., a son of the late Joseph and Sarah (Sugarman) Zeidman, he had lived in Warwick for 20 years. Mr. Zeidman previously worked for Beacon Records, Providence, for many years.

He was a founding member of Temple Am David as well as a lifetime member of the Temple's board. Mr. Zeidman founded the Eunice Zeidman Pre-school at Temple Am David and was a member of the board of the Chased Schel Amess Association, a member of Overseas Lodge of the Mason, Knights of Pythias, and the Jewish War veterans. He was an Air Forces veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife, he leaves five sons, Arthur Zeidman in Mississippi, Garrett and Mason Sock, both of Warwick, and Jeffrey Sock and Arthur Richter, both of Barrington; three daughters, Patsy Zeidman in Mississippi and Sharon Sock and Laura Sock, both of Warwick; two sisters, Ruth Greenspan and Shirley Rovner, both of Randolph, Mass.; and three grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Morris Zeidman.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Temple Am David, 40 Gardner St. Burial will be in Plymouth Rock Cemetery, Brockton, Mass.
