STEVEN ZETTEL, 53, of 156 Rangeley Rd., an engineer and quality-planning director, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence.

He was the husband of Gerrie (Kimmelman) Zettel; they had been married for 28 years. Born in Providence, a son of Eleanor (Factor) Zettel of Cranston, and the late Coleman Zettel, he had lived in Cranston for 29 years.

He was a graduate of Hope High School and Roger Williams University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in engineering.

Mr. Zettel was director of advanced quality planning for ACS Industries Inc., in Woonsocket, where he had been working for 25 years.

He held several patents for automotive parts he had designed.

Mr. Zettel was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Kulanu. He was a former member and past vice president of Temple Torat Yisrael, where he was a past president of the Men's Club and a past member of the religious committee.

He was a member of the Ledgemont Country Club.

Besides his wife and his mother, he leaves a son, Craig Zettel at home; and a sister, Paula Mattera, also of Cranston. He was the father of the late Heather Zettel.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon in Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue and Sessions Street, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
