Oscar Zetter, 71, Retired Merchant

Oscar Zetter, 71, of 3 Oak Hill Ave., Pawtucket, a retired downtown Pawtucket merchant, died Tuesday. He was the husband of Pauline (Krasnov) Zetter.

Mr. Zetter operated Zetter's Furs and later Zetter's Inc., a women's apparel store. Prior to opening his own store, he was a fur buyer for Peerless. He retired in 1972.

He was born in Boston, a son of the late Benjamin and Yolan (Fixler) Zetterbaum. He had resided in Pawtucket for more than 30 years.

Mr. Zetter was a member of Temple Beth El, Touro Fraternal Association, the area Hebrew Free Loan Association and the Pawtucket-Blackstone Valley Chamber of Commerce.

He was a past lieutenant governor of the New England Toastmasters and a past president of Henry Friedman Lodge of B'nai B'rith.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Dr. Bruce R. Zetter of San Francisco; a daughter, Lois C. Zetter of New York City, and two sisters, Mrs. Frances Mordecai of Rockport, Mass., and Mrs. Charlotte Berger of Sharon, Mass.

A funeral service will be held Thursday at 1 p.m. at Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence.
