ZEXTER, ELEANOR MARKS
74, died peacefully on June 29th, surrounded by her family in Santa Monica, California after a heroic, unwavering fight to overcome her illness.

Formerly of Providence, R.I., she was the daughter of the late Anna Cantor Marks and the late Morris Marks, M.D, and was the beloved wife of D. Ronald Zexter for over 50 years. She is also survived by her daughter F. Deborah Zexter, Esq. and her husband, Ian Strano and her daughter Judith Blair Zexter and her husband, Gregory Ginter. She was a devoted grandmother to Alana Jade Ginter and Cole Alexander Ginter.

A source of strength and support to many, there were no bounds to her efforts in helping others to succeed.
