DOROTHY ZIMMERING, 73, of 12 Chapin Rd., a family counselor in Barrington, died Sunday at home. She was the wife of Dr. Stanley Zimmering.

Born in Nashville, Tenn., a daughter of the late Jack and Bertha (Turest) Davis, she moved from Indiana to Barrington in 1962.

In 1950, Mrs. Zimmering graduated from the University of Missouri with a degree in journalism. She received a master of arts degree in 1952 from the university.

Mrs. Zimmering was a former president of the state affiliate of the American Civil Liberties Union. She was a member of the Rhode Island Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, and a member of the Democratic State Central Committee. She served on the advisory board at the Dorcas Place Parent Literacy Center, and was a member of the Academy of Family Mediators.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Dr. Paul Zimmering of Cheshire, Conn.; a daughter, Joslyn Buchanan of Santa Fe, N.M.; a brother, Carl Davis of New Orleans, La; and two grandchildren. She was the mother of the late Jonathan Mark Zimmering.

A memorial service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Swan Point Cemetery Chapel, Blackstone Boulevard, Providence.
