JH 10-15-82

ABRAHAM ZISKIND

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. — Abraham Ziskind, 77, of 3850 Washington St., died Monday at the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. He was the husband of Rose (Scolnick) Ziskind.

Born in Lowell, Mass., a son of the late David and Rose (Elkin) Ziskind, he lived in Fall River and Newport many years before moving to Hollywood 13 years ago. He was a graduate of Dartmouth College.

Ziskind and his late brothers, Jacob and Edward, formerly owned and operated the Crescent Corporation, a leader in the international machinery textile market, located in Fall River, New York City, and Spartanburg, S.C.

He was a member and director of Temple Beth-El, Fall River, and a member of the B'nai B'rith and the board of directors of the Union Hospital, Fall River. He was a trustee of the Friends of Touro, Newport and a 32nd Degree Mason.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Diana C. Glashow of Barrington; two sons, David Ziskind of New York City, and Jay Ziskind of Miami, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. Esther Weltman of Cambridge, Mass., and Mrs. Frances Goldman of Hallandale, Fla., and two grandchildren.

The funeral service was held Wednesday at the Riverside Chapel, 2230 Hollywood Blvd., Hollywood, Fla. Graveside services were held Thursday at the Montefiore Synagogue Cemetery, Pelham, N.H.

ZISKIND, ABRAHAM