M. Morton Zisquit

EAST PROVIDENCE — M. Morton Zisquit, 73, of Four Seasons Apartments, 1194 South Broadway, vice president of sales for 48 years for Kestenman Brothers, a Providence jewerly manufacture, before retiring in June, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Saralee (Miller) Zisquit.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Nathan and Rose (Cohen) Zisquit. He moved to East Providence in 1962.

He was a 1936 graduate of the former Rhode Island State College, now the University of Rhode Island.

Mr. Zisquit was an Army captain during World War II and served in the South Pacific Theater.

He was a past president of the Providence Jewelers Club, a member of Temple Beth-El, Providence, and its Brotherhood, the Roger Williams Lodge of B'Nai B'rith, and the former Edward Affiliates.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Nancy Grando of West Hollywood, Calif., and two sisters, Ruth Kestenman and Selma Andelman, both of East Providence.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

ZISQUIT, M. MORTON