Martin M. Zucker, at 75; practiced law for 50 years

PAWTUCKET — Martin M. Zucker, 75, a practicing lawyer for more than 50 years, died yesterday in Miriam Hospital, Providence.

Born in Pawtucket, he was a son of the late Samuel H. and Mary E. (Goldberg) Zucker. Mr. Zucker lived in Pawtucket most of his life, spending summers in Narragansett.

He was a graduate of Pawtucket High School, class of 1924, and Brown University, class of 1928, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He graduated from Harvard Law School, class of 1931, and received his doctor of law degree at Harvard in 1969..

He was past president of Temple Emanu-El of Providence, its Men's Club and received its Man of Emanu-El Award.

Mr. Zucker was a member of Temple Beth David in Narragansett. Recently, he was awarded an honorary membership in the Rhode Island Bar Association and received a certificate attesting to his 50 years of practice in the state. Last November, Mr. Zucker was honored by the Pawtucket Bar Association.

He was a World War II Army veteran with the rank of lieutenant and was a member of the Jewish War Veterans, Reback-Winston Post, and the Jewish Home for the Aged. Mr. Zucker was also a past president of the Pawtucket Bar Association.

He was a life member of Redwood Lodge, F & AM. Among the many benefactors of his philanthropy were Brown University, Rhode Island Hospital, the Pawtucket Boys' Club, Memorial Hospital, Pawtucket, and the Pawtucket Public Library.

He is survived by a brother, Dr. Joseph M. Zucker of Providence.

A funeral service will be held today at 1 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue at Sessions Street, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
