Norman was born in New York on August 1, 1933. He received his Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctoral Degrees from Rutgers University. He taught Political Science at Rutgers, Northeastern, Tufts, and for over 40 years at the University of Rhode Island. His areas of focus included American government, American refugee policy, and religion and politics in Israel. He wrote multiple books, some co-authored with his wife Naomi Flink Zucker, and mentored many students. Always quick with a witticism or to offer a roll of duct tape, Norman was the quintessential mensch.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a funeral service on Thursday, February 6, 2025, at 10 AM at Stanetsky Memorial Chapel, 475 Washington Street, Canton, MA. Burial will follow at Temple B'nai Brith cemetery in Peabody, MA. In lieu of flowers, donations in Norman's name may be made to HIAS at www.act.hias.org or the Yiddish Book Center at www.yiddishbookcenter.org
