GOVT. PROMISES TO ENFORCE ORDER

Premier Summarizes Outbreaks in 1936

Warsaw (WNS)—In a plain attempt to distract Jewish attention for the time being from the sensational scheme to force the emigration of 3,000,000 Jews, the Polish Government took the offensive against the anti-Jewish violence with a vigorous pro-Jewish speech in the Sejm by Premier Skladkowski.

Warning the anti-Semites that the government would employ every force at its command to put down attacks on the Jewish population, the Premier announced that every anti-Semite convicted of attacks on Jews would be sent to concentration camps.

Addressing himself to Deputy Budzinski, one of the anti-Jewish leaders, Skladkowski said that he should be in an insane asylum, and not in Parliament.

The Premier read a long list of anti-Jewish outbreaks during 1936 and declared that in the Bialystok region alone there were 348 of them. He concluded his address by emphasizing that the government was determined to utilize all its resources to put an end to anti-Jewish disturbances.

BNAI BRITH UNIT CONCLAVE SUNDAY

More than one hundred men and women delegates from Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island are expected to attend the all-day conference next Sunday of the Central New England B'nai Brith Council, to be held at the Narragansett Hotel.

These delegates will represent lodges and auxiliaries from more than 25 cities in central New England. Registration will begin on Saturday night, followed by a meeting of the executive committee. Sessions will begin on Sunday at 10 o'clock with a luncheon at one o'clock. Afternoon sessions will start at 2 o'clock.

Benjamin J. Shoolman of Boston is president of the Council, and H. David Falk of this city, vice president. It was announced that sessions of the conference and the luncheon will be open to all members of B'nai Brith.

Many District officers and leaders will attend the Conference, including District President Wilfred B. Feiga of Worcester; Past District President Frank Goldman of Lowell, Judge Jacob Asher of Worcester, Judge David A. Rose of Boston, Judge Isreal Cherry of Boston, Leo J. Lyons of Brookline.

Delegates representing Roger Williams Lodge of this city are Dr. Joseph Smith, Joseph M. Finkle, Sydney Hanzel, and H. David Falk.

It is emphasized that all sessions of the conference including the luncheon are open to members of B'nai Brith.

Pope Thanks Jews for Prayers in His Behalf

Pressburg, Czechoslovakia (WNS)—The Catholic clergy of Pressburg have conveyed to the leaders of the Pressburg Jewish community the official thanks of Pope Pius because of their action in ordering special prayers in the local synagogue for the recovery of the Pope.

Women Pioneers Arrange Chamisha Oser Reception

Mrs. Bebe Idelson will be guest speaker at the Chamisha Oser party, which is being held by the Women Pioneers in conjunction with their installation luncheon on January 27 at Zinn's Restaurant.

Every effort has been exerted to inject a true Palestinian spirit into the party. Mrs. Joshua Ebel, who spent an extended period in Palestine, is chairman, assisted by Mrs. William Strong as co-chairman; Mrs. Strong recently returned from Palestine after a prolonged visit. Mrs. Louis Smira, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Rose Marcenson, installing officer, have also visited Palestine, and have at various times reported on conditions there.

Mrs. Idelson, the Palestinian delegate from the Women's Council, is serving as member of the Secretariat in the National Office. She has spent many years in the Yishuv, having been exiled from Russia for her Zionist activities. She brings with her an authoritative account of the Arab-Jewish difficulties in Palestine, a problem which she believes will be eventually settled to the mutual satisfaction of both Jew and Arab.

Mrs. Morris Beeber is in charge of the menu; Mrs. Arthur Korman, reservations, assisted by Mrs. Har-

Residential Districts to Be Canvassed

United Palestine Appeal reports that close to eight thousand dollars has been collected to date and that the workers are still active in soliciting hundreds of prospects from whom contributions are expected to be forthcoming within the next few days. A general committee has been formed at a luncheon held last Saturday night to reach the residential districts of the city.

The following organizations have sent in their contributions in addition to those listed last week: So. Providence Ladies' Aid, $10; Order Hebraic Comradeship, $5; Temple Beth Israel Men's Club, $5; Providence Fraternal Association, $10; R. I. Workingmen's Association, $12.50; Ladies Hebrew Free Loan, $5.

WAAD HACASHRUTH ELECTS OFFICERS

A meeting of the Waad Hacashruth of Providence, R. I., was held on January 12 at the Sons of Zion Synagogue on Orms St., at which time Harry Leach was unanimously elected president for the seventh consecutive term. Other officers elected are: L. Garfinkel, vice-president; Ph. Abraams, vice-president; Harry Kopit, treasurer; Morris Feinberg, chairman of Finance, and Jacob Gellman, executive secretary.

The Finance Committee comprises Morris Feinberg, chairman; Samuel Michaelson, Harry Tannenbaum, Samuel Gereboff, C. P. A., is auditor.

JEWISH REFUGEE GETS SWISS POST

Geneva (WNS)—Prof. Friedrich Dessauer, eminent physicist and German emigre, has been appointed to the faculty of the University of Fribourg as director of the institute of physics. Professor Dessauer was one of the large number of German Jewish professors given posts at the new University of Istanbul, Turkey, three years ago, but left there because he could not endure the anti-Semitic provocation of the students.

Herald Correspondent To Address Zionists

Pierre Van Paassen, Jewish Herald and Seven Arts staff correspondent, whose comments have appeared frequently in columns of The Herald, will address the local Zionist District on January 31 in the foyer of the Biltmore Hotel. Mr. Van Paassen is a well-known figure in the ghettos of Europe, and is one of the few non-Jews who is an honorary citizen of Tel-Aviv. He passed into the hearts of the Jewish people of

"Sissy" Fight Fatal Youth Battles Tormenter; Dies of Beating

Philadelphia, Pa.—The boys gathered around nine-year-old Richard Weiner, taunting him. "You're a sissy," they challenged him. "I'm not a sissy," he said. "I'll fight any one of you." There was a fight, shoes scuffling the Blaine School yard, boyish fists flailing the air.

Yesterday Richard died in Jewish Hospital. He had been punched in the abdomen and peritonitis set in. An operation failed to save his life.

Richard's aunt, Mrs. Esther Edelstein, told police he had fought with a Negro boy. They arrested Joseph Prescott, 9. Mrs. Edelstein said Richard, who lived at 3222 Arlinton street, told her about the schoolyard scrap.

It happened during recess on Wednesday. After the fight Richard returned to class, apparently none the worse. But he became ill at home that afternoon and was taken to the hospital where the operation was performed on Thursday.

New Paper to Combat Canadian Jew-Baiting

Montreal (WNS)—To combat the anti-Semitic agitation of certain French-Canadian papers, the Unity and Good Will Association of Canada has started a publication of Le Droit de Vivre (The Right to Live), a magazine edited in French by Arthur Larose. In addition to its title the periodical carries the slogan, "men are born free and equal in their rights," and "liberty and democracy are indivisible."

the world with his courageous stand against governmental indifference and intrigue in Palestine during the riots of 1929. Every Zionist in America read his stirring account of the heroism of the Yishuv at that time in the New Palestine.

In February and March, 1933, Mr. Van Paassen visited Germany and was arrested by the Nazis on the suspicion of aiding several Jews in escaping from the Hitlerite house of bondage. Every newspaper using his articles in America has been barred from entry into Germany on the ground that "Van Paassen is a Dutch Jew, who uses a false name, and whose real name," according to the Angrif, "is Pinchus Pascovitz, an ex-Rabbi from the Ukraine." In addition to crossing and re-crossing Germany since the Hitler regime came into power, Mr. Van Paassen visited the Soviet Union several times for a study of Jewish conditions.

His rise in newspaper work was rapid. Feature writer for the Detroit News and the Atlanta Constitution, successively, he was called to New York by the publishers of the late New York World, who after a short period in the metropolitan area, sent him to Europe as feature writer and columnist for the Evening World. He was the personal guest of Benito Mussolini for three weeks and toured the country of facism in the company of the Duce's brother, Arnaldo.

TELL COMMISSION PEACE IMPOSSIBLE

Commission to Leave For England

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—There can be no peace in Palestine until justice has been done to the Arabs. This was the challenge flung to the British Royal Commission by Auni Bey Hadl, veteran leader of the Arab Independence Party and member of the Arab Higher Committee.

The witness denied the existence of a Government in Palestine, acknowledging only that Great Britain was there by virtue of the Mandate of the League.

Offering his own interpretation of Arab rights in Palestine, Auni Bey was ruled out of order by Chairman Lord Peel when the Arab leader began discussing the meaning of the pledge made to Hussein, then Sheriff of Mecca, by Sir Henry McMahon, British High Commissioner in Egypt during the War.

During his testimony, Auni Bey referred to the use made of the argument that Jews were dispersed throughout the world and loved Palestine. Loud laughter rang through the hearing chamber when Lord Peel interjected "too much."

The witness continued that it was impossible to ask his people to accept anything that deprived them of their natural rights. "Under the Ottomans we lived as Moslems. Now we live as animals," he declared.

NAZI PAGANS HIT VERSION OF BIBLE

Berlin (WNS) — The official Nazi Protestants who have issued an anti-Semitic version of the Gospel According to St. John as part of their plan to re-edit the entire Bible from a Nazi viewpoint now find themselves at odds with the Nazi pagans, who want the Bible completely eliminated as "the work of Jews."

While Bishop Weidemann of Bremen, editor of the new version of the Gospel, described Jesus as "the first great opponent of the Jews" and denied that he was a Jew, General Erich von Ludendorff, spokesman for the pagans, asserts that "we call the Bible what it is—a deceptive work of man for Jews, Rome and an ambitious priesthood."

Congress to Get Bills Cutting Immigration 90%

Washington, D. C. (WNS)—Reduction of existing immigration quotas by 90 per cent., deportation of all aliens on relief, prohibition of the employment of aliens by any Federal agency and denial of entry to any alien who leaves his family abroad are proposed in a series of bills to be introduced in Congress by members seeking to curb immigration. These measures, which are backed by various patriotic societies, will be offered by Senator Robert F. Reynolds of North Carolina and Representative Joe Starns of Alabama.

British Jews Protest Agitation in Manchester

London (WNS)—A protest against anti-Semitic agitation in the Japanese-controlled State of Manchukuo has been filed with the Japanese ambassador here by the Board of Deputies of British Jews.

BOYCOTT CREATES MANY NEW JOBS

Industries Produce Boycotted Goods

New York (WNS)—The anti-Nazi boycott created in the United States industries which did not exist here before the advent of the Nazi regime in Germany, among them being the manufacture of artificial flowers, certain Christmas ornaments and numerous celluloid products, according to a survey made by the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League of the benefits accruing to American industry from the boycott.

Emphasizing that only a shortage of skilled labor in certain categories has prevented a more considerable inroad by American manufacturers into fields once controlled by Germany, and that there are employment opportunities for skilled workers in those fields in which American firms are making items formerly imported from Germany, the League announced it intends to establish an employment service which will endeavor to place unemployed skilled German refugee workers trained in those fields.

Hockey Party Planned This Month by O. H. C.

At a meeting of the Order of Hebraic Comradship, held last week at the club headquarters, 37 Weybosset street, plans were completed for a hockey party to be held on January 27 at the R. I. Auditorium. In addition to club members and wives, a number of guests have been invited to attend.

The date for the annual O. H. C. dance has been set for April 6 this year. The place will be announced at a later date. The following committee will be in charge of both affairs: Dr. Daniel H. Kouffman, chairman, Newell Smith, Joseph Waldman, Jack Alprin, James Winicour and Albert Greenblatt.

Nazis Convicted For Assaulting Aged Jew

New York (WNS) — George Sandfuchs and Reinhold Brenner, the two Nazis who were arrested last July for assaulting Solomon Shapiro in a subway train after he had tried to protect an aged bearded Jew from them, were found guilty of assault and battery in Special Sessions Court and released on bail pending the imposition of sentence next week. Shapiro had the two Nazis arrested at the Grand Central Station when they attempted to flee after beating him up.

Reform Judaism Tends Towards Orthodoxy

Adopt Resolution to Use Ancient Customs

New Orleans (WNS)—American Reform Judaism took a good-sized step back toward the old forms of traditional Judaism when the final joint session of the 35th biennial council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and its affiliated National Federations of Temple Sisterhoods and Brotherhoods adopted a resolution recommending to Reform congregations the more extensive use of ancient symbols, ceremonies and customs of Judaism.

In a formal resolution the lay leaders of Reform Judaism urged Reform congregations to use only Jewish music in the Sabbath services; to employ a cantor, as Orthodox synagogues do; to chant the Kiddush; and to use only Jewish singers in synagogue choirs where practical; the singing of traditional Jewish hymns; and the institution of "such traditional observances as are wise, practicable and expedient in each congregation."

WARSAW EDITORS ARE THREATENED

Told to Cease Criticizing Government

Warsaw (WNS) — Suspension of all Jewish newspapers in Warsaw and the imprisonment in concentration camps of their editors were threatened by Governor Yoroshevitch of Warsaw after he had summoned all Jewish editors and publishers to a press conference.

The Governor's threats were designed to intimidate the Jewish press which has been sharply critical of the government's action in appointment of a special commissioner to run the affairs of the Warsaw kehillah.

Yoroshevitch warned the editors not to speculate on the name of the commissioner nor to mention the name of M. Meiseles, a Zionist who is said to have been given the commissioner's job.

Excited by the Governor's threat, the Jewish editors sent a delegation to the vice-minister of the interior to protest.

"3 Smart Girls"

Man proposes and woman disposes of him with swift dispatch, especially if he is a millionaire susceptible to the wiles of an international beauty who has her eyes on his bank roll. That, with amusing embroidery, is the theme of Universal's comedy drama, "Three Smart Girls," which opens at the Majestic theatre today. Three sisters, living on the Riviera with their mother, hear that their wealthy father, divorced for ten years, is paying ardent atten-

A thrill-packed melodrama of flying aces, foreign spies and modern romance, "Crack-Up," which, as second feature, is pulse-quickening entertainment that keeps spectators on the edges of their seats, with its fast-action and suspense, right up to the exciting surprise climax.

The story opens at the christening of a giant plane, designed to pioneer trans-Atlantic travel service. Ralph Morgan, builder of the plane; Brian Donley, famous ace who is to fly it; Thomas Beck, his co-pilot; and Peter Lorre, half-mad cripple, mascot of the airport, are present.

player, in "The Plough and The Stars," which opens today at the R. K. O. Albee.

Foster portrays a man of the Dublin slums who must choose between the call to dangerous service and his wife's pleas that he remain with her. The story sweeps to near tragedy as he is made a commander of one of the idealistic regiments of the story.

The dramatic force of the picture lies in its romantic theme and that distinctive blending of tragedy with comedy for which Sean O'Casey is world famous.

Betty Furness starring in "They Wanted to Marry," as second feature and Edgar Kennedy in the comedy hit, "Hill-Billy Goat" complete the program.

URGE BAPTIST NOT TO TOUR GERMANY

New York (WNS)—A plea to the Rev. Dr. William H. Jarnegen, president of the National Sunday School and Baptist Youth Congress, to cancel plans for a tour of Germany by members of his organization while they are attending the second Youth International Baptist Congress in Zurich, Switzerland, has been communicated to him by the Joint Boycott Council.

Dr. Jarnegen's attention is called to persecution of the Christian religion in Germany and he is urged not to give comfort to those who are assailing Christianity by taking Baptists into Germany. It is understood that Dr. Jarnegen has received similar protests from many prominent American Christian groups.

HADASSAH ONEG SHABBAT JAN. 30

Dramatic Recital in Costume on Program

The vestry of Temple Emmanuel, will be the scene, on January 30th, of Senior Hadassah's Oneg Shabbat (Sabbath celebration). Several hundred guests are expected to attend.

While Hadassah's participation in the reconstruction of the national homeland, of necessity, demands a program of various fundraising devices, the organization is yet alive to the need of an educational curriculum. Funds alone cannot accomplish the true renaissance of the Jewish people, any more than could propaganda, along strictly educational lines.

Hadassah has instituted the inclusion of at least one Oneg Shabbat on her yearly calendar, and members and friends of the Chapter anticipate with much pleasure, these Sabbath celebrations, knowing them to be "high spots" in the organization's cultural activities.

Mrs. David R. Brodsky is general chairman, and will be assisted by Mrs. Nathan Bolotow, as co-chairman. Mrs. Brodsky has announced that Mrs. Martin Selverston will give a dramatic recital, in costume, of "The Song of Songs;" Mrs. Celia Parvey will sing the incidental vocal score, and Frederick Very will accompany at the piano. The program further includes Miss Grace Calver, in a group of songs. Miss Hope Bigney will assist Miss Calver at the piano.

A tea and social hour will conclude the affair.

On Thursday afternoon, at 3 o'clock in the Biltmore Hotel, Rabbi Schussheim will resume his lecture series on "Currents in Jewish Life."

A. & P. Discloses Benefit for All Employees

Details of the policy of higher wages, shorter hours, vacations and sick benefits announced Saturday by the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company were disclosed this week in a letter from John A. Hartford, president of the company, to employees.

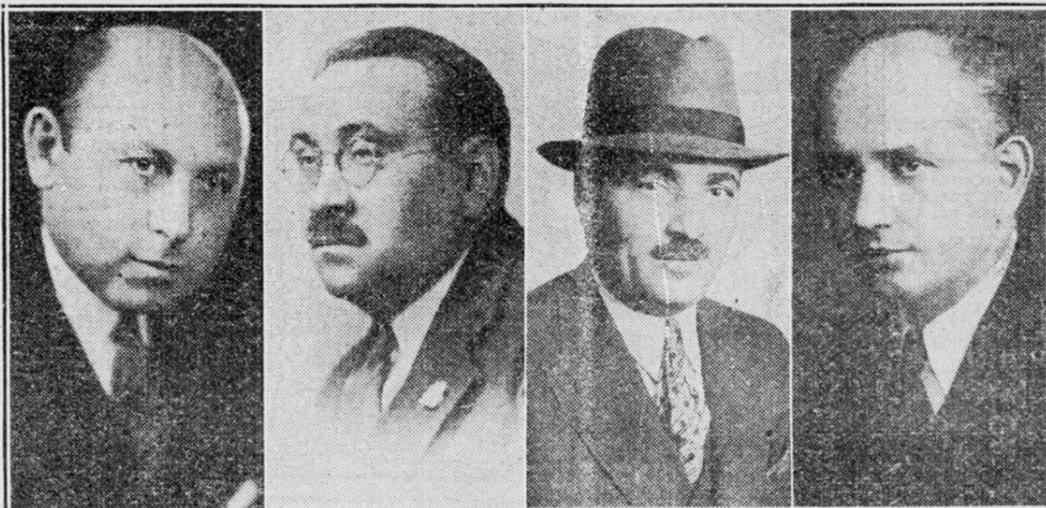

The letter said that last year more than $1,200,000 was voted to increase clerks' wages, and that the corporation was gradually installing a plan of giving managers and clerks who work store hours a half holiday each week. Minimum wage scales voted last year will have no effect on employees receiving more than the minimum, it was added.

Under the vacation plan, clerks as well as managers will receive one-week holidays with pay after a year's service with the company, and two-week vacations after three years' service.

Sickness and accident benefits provide two-thirds of the employees' average weekly wage for thirteen weeks and one-third for the second thirteen weeks in the case of managers, and two-thirds pay for thirteen weeks for full-time clerks with six months' service.

The letter expressed the conviction that high wages and short hours would not add to the cost of food in the long run because of increased efficiency resulting from the program.

of these artists is a member of the Society.

Refreshments will be served after the entertainment. Mrs. Sarah O. Webber is president of the organization.

DEAD RABBI TO RECEIVE RE-TRIAL

Was Executed in 1920 As Russian Spy

Warsaw (WNS)—An echo of the Russo-Polish war of 1920-21 was heard here when the Supreme Military Tribunal of Poland agreed to grant a new trial posthumously to Rabbi Chaim Shapiro of Plotsk who in 1920 was executed by the Poles on the charge of being a Russian spy. Polish Jewry in general and the family of Rabbi Shapiro in particular have been trying to clear his name for more than 15 years. Rabbi Shapiro was tried and found guilty by a court martial after witnesses had testified that they had seen him sending signals to the invading Russian army on September 18, 1920. The so-called signals were actually the waving of his arms while garbed in talith and tefillin and praying from his balcony. On this flimsy evidence he was convicted. In 1922 the Supreme Military Tribunal retried the case but upheld the court martial's verdict.

Urges Jews to Cling to Liberal Ideas

Rabbi Israel Newman of the Congregation Rodeph Shalom, New York, speaking before the 15th annual banquet of the Men's Club of Temple Beth-El last Tuesday evening, said that Jews will be safe in the United States only so long as liberal ideas continue to triumph.

Rabbi Newman, a graduate of Brown University, was introduced by Samuel H. Workman, with whom he attended Providence public school some years ago. Others who spoke were Irving L. Shein, chairman of the dinner committee; Dr. James Krasnoff, president of the club, and Rabbi William G. Braude of the temple.

Rabbi Newman praised the attitude of Roger Williams toward the Jewish race, and said he hoped to write of the Rhode Island founder's liberalism in a book he is now preparing.

Roumania Raises Ban on Zionist Activities

Bucharest (WNS)—The ban on Zionist fund collections in Roumania has been lifted by order of Minister of the Interior Duca. After conferring with a Jewish delegation headed by Joseph Singer, Zionist leader, Duca sent word to all police officials not to interfere with Zionist activities.

The ban on fund-raising had been ordered by local officials. A similar prohibition on the work of training chalutzim and on Zionist meetings was also removed.

MUST FIGHT IN EVENT OF WAR

All of German Origin Threatened, is Claim

New York (WNS)—German aliens and naturalized American citizens of German origin, including Jews, are being coerced by German consular officials in the United States to fill out questionnaires in anticipation of their being called to fight for Germany in the next war, it was charged here by Representative Samuel Dickstein.

Displaying a copy of the questionnaire, Mr. Dickstein said that threats and pressure of one sort or another are being employed to force compliance.

To meet this situation, which he says violates treaty rights and has been going on for two months, Mr. Dickstein has introduced a bill in Congress to forfeit the citizenship of naturalized aliens who fight for a foreign power in any war in which the United States is not a party.

New "Angel" Revives Hungarian Nazis

Budapest (WNS)—Having acquired a new financial backer in the person of Laszle Levatic, a rich real estate promoter, the Hungarian Nazis have resumed public activity with an announcement that they have banned the works of H. G. Wells, Thomas Mann and Sinclair Lewis.

The proscription of these works was approved by the Uj Magyar-sag, reactionary daily, and the Fascist Youth Union. Levatic is credited with the wide distribution of Nazi anti-Semitic tracts in Hungary. This literature is published in Hungarian but printed in Germany.

Film Director Adopts Lucky Number Fetish

By LOUIS PEKARSKY

With the return of Edward G. Robinson to Hollywood after a five month's trip abroad, the arrival of Benny Rubin from the East, the return of George Burns and Gracie Allen from New York, Phil Harris taking his orchestra on a tour of one-night stands besides playing on Jack Benny's broadcasts; Benny Baker helping Benny capture "Cactus-Face Elmer;" Walter Winchell and Ben Bernie making a picture together; Al Jolson and Eddie Cantor kibitzing with each other on the radio lanes; Milton Berle in possession of a movie contract there seems to be great activity among the stars.

The same cannot be said for the Jewish female stars. They are conspicuous by their inactivity at the present time and we find little to write about the women celebrities. Sophie Tucker is due here soon for a part in a movie.

There is a possibility that Max Reinhardt will direct Edward G. Robinson and Ruby Keeler in two of the stellar roles in "Casino," which is to be produced as a super-musical film. Mr. Stollerman will be presented to the congregation by Jacob Licht, president of the Temple Beth Israel.

known in Europe before coming to Hollywood.

MERVYN LEROY'S LUCKY NUMBER

The Warner Bros. producer and director Mervyn LeRoy, has adopted "62" as his lucky number, he tells us. These figures are used in every picture he makes. No LeRoy film made in the last ten years has failed to present "62" in one way or another. The number appears twice in "The King and the Chorus Girl"—once as an address for Joan Blondell's apartment, and again on an automobile license plate.

JUNE TRAVIS' HOBBY

We hear that June Travis, Chicago socialite, is spending a lot of time at her principal hobby, which is wood carving. During the filming of her latest screen effort, she whittled out likenesses of a number of Hollywood celebrities, including Mazie Rosenbloom, who made King Levinsky look silly when they met in the fight ring in Los Angeles recently.

June is also busy trying to figure out a plan to move her family, the Harry Grabiners, from Chicago to California; (right now it is anything but sunny and warm in California). The telephone company will lose a small fortune in long distance calls if the Grabiners move to Hollywood. The gist of these numerous long distance calls from June to her folks is "Well, June, and how are you getting on?" It takes an hour or more to ask the question and answer it.

Madagascar for Jews

Add to your list of proposed Jewish territories the French-owned island of Madagascar off the East coast of Africa. From time to time we have been stirred or amused, as the case may be, by the suggestion of this or that corner of the globe as a refuge for those hounded hundreds of thousands of Jews who must emigrate.

Virtually all of these so-called "Jewish homelands" have turned out to be valueless.

We hesitate to pass judgement on the Madagascar proposal because it differs from its fore-runners in that it emanates from an official of the French government, Colonial Minister Moutet.

Details of M. Moutet's suggestion are still meager, but it is reported that he has sounded out Jewish organizations regarding a scheme for throwing Madagascar open to Jewish colonization on a small scale as a preliminary to later mass settlement.

It is also said that France would be willing to pay a small part of the cost of the project, but the major financial backing will have to come from Jews.

Now Madagascar is no stranger to Jewish news. It was considered by Zangwill's Jewish Territorialist Organization. Two years ago another French minister of colonies advanced its claims.

And a few weeks ago spokesmen for the Polish government suggested Madagascar as an outlet for hundreds of thousands of Polish Jews.

It is this latter incident that intrigues.

Poland would scarcely suggest that Jews should go to a French colony if she had not previously sounded out France. And now France makes the same proposal.

It does appear as if there may be something potentially worth while behind the Madagascar talk—but we are reserving decision until we know more about it.

Credit Due

Credit the World Jewish Congress with its first practical achievement.

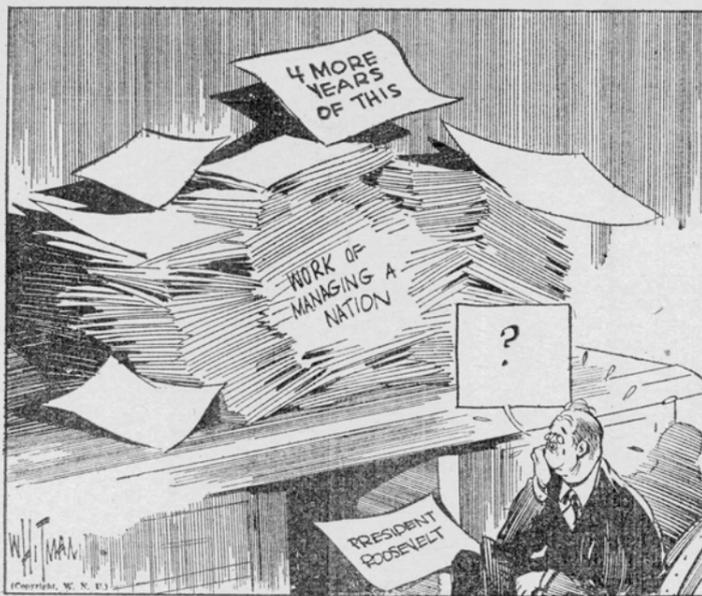

It was this body—which its critics declared to have no raison d'être and to constitute a danger to already existing Jewish rights—which succeeded in bringing about an amelioration of the plight of German Jewish refugees caught in the Spanish civil war.

Through its London office the Congress called to the attention of the Spanish ambassador the fact that the Loyalist government regarded German Jews and German Nazis in the same light and treated both with equal severity.

In response to the request of the Congress spokesman the Spanish government has agreed to permit all German Jewish refugees vouched for by the Congress and the Refugee High Commissioner to leave Spain if they so desire.

The Congress also succeeded in obtaining permission to send a representative to Spain to supervise relief work for the Jewish refugees. This, we submit, is constructive action of a high order.

Lucky Mr. Landon!

Social and Personal

The engagement of Miss Jane Ellen Gundersheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Gundersheimer of "Windsor Mills," Baltimore, Md., to Samuel H. Levy, son of Judge and Mrs. Max Levy of Newport, was recently announced. No date has been named for the wedding, which will take place next spring.

Miss Gundersheimer is a graduate of Wheaton College with the class of 1932, and is at present a technician at the Johns Hopkins Medical School at Baltimore.

Mr. Levy is a graduate of Brown University, class of 1928, where he was prominent in undergraduate activities, and of the Harvard Law School, class of 1932. After receiving his law degree, he was connected with a Providence law firm for several years before being called to Washington for Federal legal work last year. He is now on the general legal staff of the Securities Exchange Commission at Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ginsberg celebrated their 14th wedding anniversary last Saturday night at the Stork Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marston, of Reservoir avenue, entertained on Sunday for their niece, Miss Reva J. Blumenthal, of Portland, Maine, whose engagement to Russell Mack, also of Portland, was recently announced.

Miss Evelyn Perry of 1 Algonquin street has just returned from a month's stay at Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gordon of 94 Babcock street announce the birth of a son on January 15. Mrs. Gordon is the former Miss Muriel Freisinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Laventman of 40 Sackett street announce the marriage of their daughter, Rose, to Louis Bergman, of this city, on January 17. Approximately fifty guests were present at the wedding ceremony, which was held at the home of the bride's parents.

After a wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Bergman will make their home at 40 Sackett street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Levy of 64 Eaton street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Barbara Lee, on January 6 at the Homeopathic Hospital. Mrs. Levy was formerly Sylvia Schaffer of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Cerel of Bogman street celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary last Sunday at Weinstein's restaurant. Guests were present from New York, Boston, Brockton, Fall River, and this city.

Mrs. G. Lubin of 150 Byfield street entertained the New Deal Bridge Club at her home last week. Seated at the guest table were Mrs. E. Kalus, Mrs. Berman, Mrs. I. Mandell, Mrs. Bloomfield and Mrs. B. Mandell.

First prize winner was Mrs. G. Snyder. Mrs. B. Schleifer was second prize winner. Winners at the guest table were Mrs. Kalus and Mrs. Bloomfield. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Kravetz of Willard avenue held open house last Sunday in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. Approximately 200 guests were present from Boston and Winthrop, Mass., Woonsocket and this city.

A dance, under the sponsorship of the Ladies Hebrew Aid Association of Pawtucket and Central Falls, will be given next Tuesday evening at 8.30 o'clock in the vestry of the Synagogue on High street. Drawing of prizes will be held.

Miss Jeanette Wexler was surprised at a personal shower and bridge, given last Monday evening by Mrs. Ruth Peskin and Miss Lillian Wexler, at the home of Mrs. Peskin, 104 Alvin street. Twenty guests were present. Miss Wexler will be married in March to Max Broomfield.

Mrs. J. Slefkin and daughter, Pauline, of Pawtucket, have returned from a two week's stay in Chicago where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Slefkin's nephew William Leiter, formerly of Providence, to Miss Miriam Silberman of Chicago.

While in Chicago, Mrs. Slefkin and her daughter were entertained at the Palmer House, and the Edgewater Beach Hotel.

Miss Hannah Scoliard left Saturday on the Queen of Bermuda for a two weeks cruise to the West Indies. Her itinerary includes Jamaica, Havana, Bermuda and Nassau.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Bernard of Blackstone boulevard have announced the engagement of Mrs. Bernard's cousin, Miss Julie Hyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hyman of El Paso, Texas, to Leo J. Bernstein, of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. Saul Bernstein of Hartford.

Miss Hyman is a graduate of Radford School for Girls in El Paso. She has been visiting in the North for the past six months. Mr. Bernstein is a graduate of New York University and a member of Phi Alpha Fraternity.

After their marriage next Fall the couple will take up residence in this city.

Sweden Considers Immigration Curbs

Stockholm (WNS)—The Swedish government is considering legislation to establish strict curbs on immigration. The proposed legislation provides for a special immigration bureau to keep guard on foreign entries, to tighten border controls and to regulate the type of immigrants admitted. The anti-alien move would apply also to persons coming into Sweden under the category of political refugees.

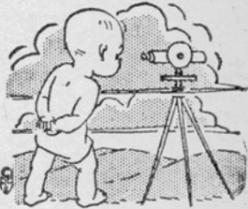

PLAN ACTION

Cairo, Egypt (WNS) — The Jews of Tunis, French colony in North Africa, are planning to institute action against the Italian authorities in Tripoli before the League of Nations for their action in forcing Tripolitan Jews to violate the Sabbath, it is reported in Israel, Official organ of Egyptian Jewry.

Through the Eyes OF ARCHIE SMITH

STORM WARNING

It all started this way, says Baruch Lumet, Yiddish actor giving an excellent interpretation of a fable by Peretz at the Community Center—it all started when an innocent young fellow tried to look ahead—Dust got in his eyes . . . And that's how the world began (anew)—and that's how love began . . . And if it hadn't been for that "soris" yo and I wouldn't have "tsoris" . . .

Few men could have portrayed such a delicate piece and not invited criticism. Baruch Lumet, doing it in his clever and inimitable way yet evidenced an intelligence rare in most Jewish actors . . . We did not realize fully the actor's ability until we spoke with him after the performance. When we first caught sight of him as the unlucky tailor "mit a nodl—ohn a nodl" we thought it a natural role . . . Afterwards we realized it was because he performed so well . . . To present "Fishke the Lame" to a sophisticated audience and still receive long applause is in itself an achievement. Lumet did it with excellent make-up, with unusually good character portrayal, with understanding interpretation and kept his performance from becoming cheap and vulgar. A timely piece of peace propaganda in Peretz's "Brotherly Love" deserves commendation.

And to complete an evening's entertainment, Lumet's accompanist treated an appreciative audience to a display of excellent technique and facile movement at the piano. Incidentally Lumet's son, Sydney, has an important role in "The Eternal Road." Among those we spotted were the Berger sisters from Pawtucket, Leo Cohen, Esther Goldsmith with her Dad, Irvey Brainson, and Joe Marcus, just returned from the Furniture Exhibit in Grand Rapids.

NOTABLES

Pierre Van Paassen, Jewish Herald Correspondent, will address the Zionists at a meeting at the Biltmore on the last Sunday of the month . . . Arthur Kornstein of Woonsocket reports that he is quickly getting over his illness and that he will soon be among us again with a complete new line of puns . . . When Cab Calloway was in Narragansett last year, several people obtained autographs from him . . . Mrs. Joe Smith got his autograph on a membership application for the Zionist Organization of America . . . She's expecting him to send in his dues any day now . . .

ON THE ROAD

Anent the hobo who was found sleeping beneath Haven's lunch cart the other night and explained that it was the only manner in which he could sleep comfortably . . . Sid Hanzel is on a southern cruise. Sam Magid is well on his way to Miami . . . Milt Sapinsky will leave for the warmer climate next week as will the Jack Felders . . . Sam Young, lonesome for his wife and sweet little daughter Barbara, is hurrying back from the southern resort after a short vacation.

Incidentally has little Barbara ever shown you her operation . . . Paul Rosenthal reports that one of the Southern Yehudim greeted him with "Vas macht ier alle arunter darfen?" . . .

ALL FOR A SONG

Judge Brandeis, a Jew, was the only member of the United States Supreme Court to have a Christmas tree. His explanation was "in deference to my grandchildren." And they tell me the Bulletin cut the story after one edition . . . At least two Jewish names appear among the new crop of Rhodes Scholars: Leslie Epstein of St. Louis and Norman Davidson of Chicago . . . Toscanini, guest conductor of the Palestine Symphony got an orange grove in Ramath HaOvesh for a song . . .

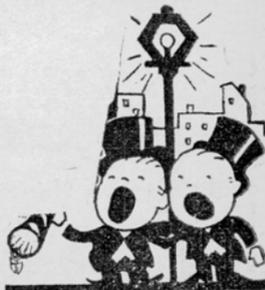

ON THE POTOMAC

Among those who went down to Washington for the inauguration were Isaac Moses, who hasn't missed an inauguration in years, and Mrs. Jack conceded to be champion Talmudic scholar and Sefer . . . Rep. William Houser of Connecticut is handball champion of the House . . . The death of Col. Daniel McCormack, noted for his intensely humanitarian approach as Commissioner of Immigration in the Department of Labor will make even more difficult the fight for approval of the Kerr-Coolidge bill to stop "hardship" deportation of aliens . . . He was rated by anti-Semites high on their list of "pro-Jewish officials" . . .

YOU GUESS

Reports are that a special poll of Youth Groups in Boston reveal a sweeping majority of American Youth in favor of a Kosher home . . . Perhaps that is why the Albert Goldmans of Newton gave Boston Hebrew Teachers' College a complete set of the very rare "Pachod Yitzchok," Yitzchok Lampronti's early eighteenth century encyclopedia of the sources of all Jewish laws . . .

Joe Gartner has returned from the furniture shows. We weren't supposed to know about it but Abe Lisker was parted on his twenty-sixth at the Chateau Dreyfus . . . The Jack Leichters made quite an evening of it celebrating their second wedding anniversary—we don't blame them; it's an accomplishment these days. But they weren't alone—the Bill Torgens were also celebrating their anniversary on the same evening . . . Governor Lehman commuted the sentences of three Brooklyn youths . . . Batting average for Sam Leibowitz, criminal lawyer—still one hundred percent . . .

S. AFRICA PASSES ANTI-ALIEN BILL

Bill Affects Jewish Immigration

Capetown, South Africa (WNS)—After hearing Premier J. B. M. Hertzog warn that bloodshed might result from the continued influx of Jews, the South African House of Assembly voted 83 to 28 in favor of a new aliens bill which virtually cuts off all Jewish immigration to South Africa.

The vote was on the second reading of the measure, which was introduced by the government to offset more stringent legislation proposed by the Nationalist Party. The bill will set up an immigration board which will have final and complete control over the type, number and country of origin of immigrants to be admitted.

The underlying feature of the bill is that only such people are to be admitted as can be assimilated in South African life.

Former Premier Jan Christiaan Smuts, now minister of justice, made a plea that South Africa "welcome all good workmen, Jews or otherwise," but his appeal was futile.

The government's bill is designed to allay the alarm, real or simulated, which anti-Semitic and Nationalist leaders and newspapers have been echoing over the recent arrival of several hundred German Jewish refugees.

Insufficient Dowry Wrangle May Postpone Wedding

Although invitations have already been mailed inviting the members of the Men's Club of Temple Beth Israel and lady guests to the wedding of Simone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Vill Shpringinbett to Yankele Telerlecker, it seems, that unless a substantial increase in dowry is forthcoming, there will be no ceremony.

Arthur Galkin, in charge of the mock marriage, is exerting all his efforts to reconcile the prospective groom and the marriage broker who have had a dispute over the commission, and it is rumored that a haunted house will be thrown in by the bride's relatives in order that the show go on.

The wedding is scheduled for Monday evening in the lower vestry of Temple Beth Israel. Admission will be by invitation only although non-members of the Men's Club may attend by contributing one dollar per couple towards a gift for the bride. Dancing will follow the ceremony.

Mr. Galkin is being assisted in making arrangements for this "Ladies' Night" by Messrs. Joseph Schlossberg, George Diamond,

Fined for Tampering With "Made-In-Germany" Labels

New York—(WNS)—Fines of $100 each were imposed by Federal Judge Francis G. Caffey upon the Well Known Glove Company and upon David Zanft and Hyman Haspel, who pleaded guilty to the charge of having unlawfully obliterated the words "made in Germany" from boxes, labels and gloves which had been imported from Germany by Julius Kayser & Co., and which were properly marked at the time of importation.

The case originated through a shipment by the defendants to the Dress Accessory Shop of Detroit, Julius Kayser & Co., importers of the gloves in question, recently informed the League that they had stopped importing from Germany and were now obtaining goods from Czechoslovakia and their own factory in New York.

Aid Diabetic Cat

Insulin Treatment Prevents Death of Pets

New York (WNS)—The first recorded treatment of a diabetic cat with insulin is being carried on in the animal hospital of Veterinary Dr. Frank Bloom of Flushing, L. I., who recently treated a dog in the same way.

While the cat now under his care is only the second in veterinary annals known to have diabetes, Dr. Bloom believes that the disease is comparatively common among both cats and dogs, and that the proper treatment could often prevent the death of pets thus afflicted.

Grocery Shower Given by Natl. Council Women

The annual grocery shower for the benefit of the Jewish Family Welfare Society was given last Tuesday afternoon by the Providence Section, National Council of Jewish women, at Temple Beth-El. The shower was under the direction of the social service committee, Mrs. Coleman Zimmerman, chairman of the shower, was assisted by Mrs. Max Goldin and Mrs. Hy Galkin.

Mrs. Benjamin Sharp, chairman of the Literary Group introduced Miss Ruth Kaplan, the guest of the afternoon, who reviewed several outstanding books. Tea and refreshments were served.

Young People's League to Meet At Emanuel

The Young People's League of Temple Emanuel are planning an interesting program for its second meeting on Sunday evening at 8.15 o'clock. Among the items of business will be the election of officers for the coming year, which will be followed by a symposium on "The Advisability of Jewish Universities in America."

The discussion will be led by Miss Norma Gouse, Miss Dorothy Nutman, Maurice Beck and Howard Blazar. The meeting will be concluded with dancing and refreshments.

Says Weared People Accept Any Change

Princeton, N. J.—An explanation of why Germany turned to Fascism, which presented a vivid picture of the German people hypnotized into submission to dictatorial rule, has been offered by Dr. Heinrich Bruening, former Chancellor of Germany, in an address at Princeton.

Dr. Bruening said the German people, mentally weary and ready for any kind of change that promised better things, turned to Fascism because it offered them a glimpse of the old German national glory, and a promise that it might be restored.

There is nothing new, he said, about mankind in a state of exhaustion being prepared to be deluded and ruled by force.

Collect Anti-Nazi Nobel Prize Winner's Money

Oslo, Norway (WNS) The Nobel Peace Prize money due to Carl von Ossietzky, anti-Nazi German pacifist now said to be in a German sanitarium recuperating from the effects of over two years in Nazi concentration camps, has been paid into a German bank following the appearance of a German woman before the Nobel committee with credentials that the committee accepted. The identity of the woman was not disclosed, but several hundred of the approximately $37,000 awarded to Ossietzky were paid over to her.

High School Bans Sale of Souvenirs

New York (WNS)—Sale of German-made souvenirs at basketball games of the Abraham Lincoln High School in Brooklyn has been discontinued, the Joint Boycott Council was informed by Dr. Abraham Hirschberg, acting principal. Sale of the German souvenirs was called to Dr. Hirschberg's attention and after an investigation he issued instructions prohibiting their sale. The souvenirs were old merchandise dating from before the time the Nazis came into power.

Toscanni Will Return to Palestine Yearly

Tel Aviv (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The friends of music lost to him in various lands because of dictatorships have been replaced by new friends in Palestine, Arturo Toscanini, Italian conductor, declared at an official reception tendered at the Municipal Council of Tel Aviv. "The music lovers of several great countries have been lost to me, but I have found a new country to replace them," he said, adding: "I want to return here every year."

The honorary title of "Farmer" was conferred upon Signor Toscanini by a group of admirers in an orange plantation in the Sharon Valley, which he visited.

High Commissioner Wauchope has accepted the honorary presidency of the Palestine Symphony Orchestra, composed mainly of German Jewish exiles, which brought Toscanini to Palestine as its first conductor.

CABINET APPROVES BAN ON SABBATH

Action Nullifies Hope of Repeal By Il Duce

Rome (WNS)—The official report of the last meeting of the Italian cabinet reveals that Premier Mussolini approved the law adopted by Italian officials in Tripoli which forces Jews to keep their places of business open on Saturdays.

It was hoped that an appeal to Il Duce might result in the repeal of the law, but the cabinet's action ends all prospects of a change except the recent modification by which the Jews were permitted to keep closed until noon that they might attend morning services in the synagogue.

SUICIDE EPIDEMIC SWEEPS POLAND

Burial in Consecrated Ground Banned

New York (WNS)—The plight of Polish Jewry has led to so many suicides among the Jewish population that in an effort to stop the wave of self-destruction the Jewish community has passed laws forbidding the burial of suicides in consecrated ground. Dr. Benjamin Tabachinsky, a representative of the Polish Ort Federation, reported to the annual membership meeting of the American Ort.

Mr. Tabachinsky said that in Lublin, just before he left, he witnessed a dramatic debate in which a number of Jews protested against such an edict against suicides.

According to Mr. Tabachinsky one shopkeeper said that "we, the future suicides, demand that this decision not be carried out."

Judge Cries Shame! Refuses Cohen Right to Change His Name

New London, Conn. (WNS)—A Jew's attempt to adopt legally a Christian-sounding name came to grief here when a Christian jurist rebuked the Jew for seeking to abandon his Hebrew patronymic. The Jew was Herman Cohen, who petitioned for the right to call himself Albert Connely because it would be "more convenient and advantageous."

But Judge Erwin C. Dickenson of Superior Court turned down the petition, declaring that the change would ultimately not be advantageous either to the applicant or his fellowmen, for "patently the applicant would lose the respect of Gentile and Jew alike."

Consider Jewish Colony on Madagascar

FRANCE PROPOSES NEW SETTLEMENT

"Jewish Homeland" is Not Intended

Paris (WNS)—Colonization of Jews on the French island of Madagascar, off the East Coast of Africa, and also in the New Hebrides and New Caledonia, French insular possessions near Australia, and in French Guiana in South America is being considered by the French government, the ministry of colonies has announced.

It was indicated that France might be willing to advance part of the funds needed to underwrite such a project but would expect interested Jewish groups to furnish most of the money needed.

Not a Homeland

Whatever comes of the plan, M. Moutet, an old friend of the Jews and a leading member of the French Pro-Palestine Committee, made it clear that it is not intended to establish another "Jewish homeland." He said the settlement of Jews in Madagascar or other French colonies would have to be done on a small scale at first in order to avoid any political differences with the natives, but he added: "I want to say it is impossible to make an effort to build up a substantial colony."

Although only speculations can be made, some observers profess to see in this plan a link with the scheme inspired by the Polish government to settle a substantial number of Jews in Madagascar.

Youth Prefers Illegitimacy to Being Called Son of Jew

Berlin (WNS)—The stain of illegitimacy is preferable in Germany today to being called the son of a Jew, it was disclosed when a German child went to court to establish legally that the man heretofore considered his father was not his father.

The defendant, a Jew, had married the boy's mother in 1929, a few months before the child was born, and had always recognized the boy as his legal son.

The boy argued that it was considered a mongrel, which he tail to his future that he be not would be as the son of a Jew. The court found for the plaintiff, ruling that the husband of the boy's mother was not to be considered the boy's father.

SISTERHOOD WILL PRESENT PLAYLET

An evening of entertainment will mark the meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Israel on Monday, February 1. A playlet will be presented by Sisterhood members, under the direction of Mrs. Selma Smira Newman.

In addition, there will be vocal selections by Miss Hadassah Waldman, of Boston and Cantor Harry Bettman, of Providence. Meyer Bazar, well-known violinist, will render violin selections. Mrs. Singer, will preside.

The program is arranged by the program chairman, Mrs. Samuel R. Finegold.

Daughterhood Arranges Bridge, Cake Contest

The Daughterhood of Temple Beth-Israel held a special meeting last Friday evening, at the home of the president, Miss Eve Tanenbaum, following the Temple Sabbath services. Rabbi Schusheim was guest speaker.

Final arrangements were made for the bridge and cake contest which is to be given at the Temple, February 9.

The following committees are in charge: chairman, Miss Jean Silver; tickets, Ruth Tanenbaum; cake contest, Miss Hannah Rakusin; entertainment, Miss Anne Tanenbaum; refreshments, Miss Frances Lang and Mrs. Jake Wolfe.

DR. SACHAR WILL SPEAK AT TEMPLE

To Discuss "Five Patterns of Jewish Life"

Dr. Abram L. Sachar of Chicago will be the lecturer before the Institute of Jewish Studies at Temple Emanu-El this Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. Sachar will speak on the subject "Five Patterns of Jewish Life."

This is the third year in succession that Dr. Sachar has been invited to lecture at Temple Emanu-El. Mrs. Carl Hyman will preside.

Born in New York in 1899 and educated at Washington and Harvard Universities, followed by three years of post graduate research at the University of Cambridge, England, Dr. Sachar received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy for his work upon the Victorian House of Lords.

In 1923 he joined the faculty of the University of Illinois, instructing in the field of modern European and English history. He has recently become the National Director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundations which are established in the leading universities of the country, and he is therefore at the heart of the youth movement.

TRADE DELEGATION

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Al Liwa, Arabic daily, reports that a trade delegation from Germany is on its way to Palestine to do business with Arabs and to remove such business now in the hands of Jews.

To Defy Boycott

Schmeling Will Make Tour of Country

New York (WNS) — Defying the move to boycott the Schmeling-Braddock bout, Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's Jewish manager, has announced that, beginning in Philadelphia on March 1st, he will take his Nazi fighter on a five-weeks' tour of 22 cities in the South and Middle West. Boasting that the Braddock-Schmeling fight will be held and that "the boycott has turned into a boomerang," Jacobs said: "Old world hatreds and retaliations at the expense of American sport have no place this side of the Atlantic. I'm confident the majority of fans will insist on fair play. Even my Jewish friends have come to me and confessed the boycott was all wrong. They were beginning to suffer from the backlash."

Hospital Association Hold Annual Meeting

With a record attendance of over two hundred, the annual luncheon meeting of the Miriam Hospital Association took place last Monday afternoon at Zinn's Banquet Hall.

At the head table on which pale rose tapers flanked a colorful centerpiece of fresh seasonal flowers, were seated the chairman of the luncheon, Mrs. Oscar Klemmer; the president, Mrs. Joseph Smith; the installing officer, Mrs. Caesar Misch, and all other officers, departmental chairmen and board members.

WELCOMES GUESTS

After welcoming the members and guests, Mrs. Klemmer called upon Mrs. Isaac Woolf one of the charter members of the organization to give the invocation. After luncheon she presented Mrs. Smith who succeeded herself as president.

Mrs. Smith conducted a business session at which annual reports were presented by Mrs. Charles M. Hoffman, sewing chairman; Mrs. Max Temkin, treasurer; Mrs. Samuel Markoff, linen shopper; Mrs. Joseph Shukovsky, corresponding secretary, who reported a paid up membership of seven hundred; Mrs. David Kahnovsky, library chairman, who reported 456 volumes in the hospital library; Mrs. Morris Berry, chain bridge chairman; Mrs. Bernard Goodman, publicity chairman; Mrs. Jacob Ernstof, Happy day chairman; Miss Irene Finklestein, Intermediates councillor who presented Mrs. Harry Tolchinsky, president of that group.

Mrs. Isaac Woolf, hospital visiting chairman; Mrs. Oscar Klemmer, membership chairman who reported 55 new members for 1936; Mrs. Nathan Bolotow, program chairman, who gave a resume of the past year's programs; Mrs. Leo Cohen, auditor; Mrs. Charles C. Brown, past president, who reported as a member of the Miriam Hospital Corporation on the new nurses' home which the Miriam Hospital Association was active in purchasing; she also gave highlights of happenings at the hospital in 1936; Mrs. John Brownstein, linen stock chairman; Mrs. Maurice Felder, social service chairman; Mrs. Joseph Smith who gave her presidential report. Mrs. John L. Myers, recording secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting.

Cantor Harry Bettman of Temple Emanu-El accompanied by Mrs. David R. Brodsky sang three songs.

INSTALLS OFFICERS

Mrs. Smith called upon Mrs. Charles C. Brown to present Mrs. Caesar Misch, who in installing the officers for 1937 called attention to the wonderful work the organization was doing. She installed Mrs. Isaac Woolf as honorary treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Smith as president; Mrs. Bernard Goodman, Mrs. Maurice Felder and Mrs. Oscar Klemmer as the three vice presidents respectively; Mrs. Max Temkin as treasurer; Mrs. Harry R. Rosen, as financial secretary; Mrs. John L. Myers as recording secretary; Mrs. Joseph Shukovsky as corresponding secretary; Mrs. Morris Berry and Mrs. David Goldman as assistant corresponding secretaries; and Mrs. Leo Cohen as auditor.

Death Rate Exceeds Roumanian Birth Rate

Bucharest, (WNS)—The Jewish death rate exceeded Jewish birth rate in Roumania during 1936, according to official statistics. In the 20 largest cities Jewish deaths averaged 460 a month as compared with 330 Jewish births a month. In Bucharest Jewish deaths totalled 105 a month as against 75 births. On the basis of these statistics there were 5,520 Jewish deaths during 1936 as compared with 3,960 births.

Pleads For Unity

JACOB W. MACK

Warning that Jewish unity must be spiritual as well as practical and asserting the right of the individual Jew to do his own thinking, Jacob W. Mack of Cincinnati, chairman of the Executive Board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, opened the Thirty-Fifth Council of the Union in New Orleans Friday (January 15). Mr. Mack, who found "cause for new faith" in the gathering he addressed, declared, "Your presence here speaks of the Jewish will to live—let those who are discouraged take heart."

PAWT. HADASSAHS ARRANGE MEETING

A board meeting of the Pawtucket and Central Falls chapter of Senior Hadassah was held last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Samuel Farber, 58 Lyons street, Pawtucket. Mrs. Charles Shoolman presided.

Plans were completed for the meeting to be held jointly with the Junior Hadassah next Monday evening in the vestry of the Synagogue on High street. Mrs. Sophia Baraban of Brighton, Mass., will be the guest speaker. She will have as her subject "Hadassah's Achievements in Palestine, and its Purpose Here." The Junior group will present a skit. Mrs. Jack Percelay will be in charge of the evening.

A donor's luncheon, scheduled for April, is being arranged by Mrs. S. K. Goodman, assisted by an able committee.

Intermediate Unit Has Election of Officers

At a meeting of the Intermediate Miriam Hospital Association held at the Nurses Home on Parade street last Monday evening Miss Irene Finklestein, Miss Josephine Horowitz and Mrs. Paul Goldstein presented the following slate of officers which was elected unanimously:

Mrs. Harry Tolchinsky, president; Mrs. Matthew Fishbein, first vice-president; Mrs. Sidney Backman, second vice-president; Miss Sylvia Goldman, treasurer; Miss Elita Pulner, recording secretary; Miss Lilyan Shoenberg, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Milton Shoenberg, publicity chairman.

Plans were made for a membership drive to begin on February 1.
