Z O A MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Goal of 1500 Members Set for District

The membership campaign, dedicated to Justice Louis Brandeis in reverence and gratitude on his 80th birthday, will be intensified here, according to a statement made today by Herman Priest, Zionist field secretary. It is intended, Mr. Priest said, to raise the state membership to 1500 which would then enable the state of Rhode Island to be recognized as a Zionist Region.

Samuel Michaelson, chairman of the membership committee, endorsed this latest Zionist ambition with the words, "No higher tribute can be paid our great leader, a product of New England, revered and beloved by all Jewry, than registering as a Zionist member."

Dr. Ilie Berger, honorary president of the local district, emphasized these statements. "Every Jew in Rhode Island," he said, "should aid in building up Zionist numerical strength to maintain and advance the Jewish position in Eretz Yisroel."

In a public statement, discussing current Zionist membership drives being held throughout the country, Rabbi Stephen Wise said, "Nothing is of greater importance at this time than the enrollment of tens of thousands of American Jews who thus would register their identification with the insistence of Zionist leadership that no unjust Arab demand be conceded and that the Mandatory Power at last inaugurate the long deferred era of fulfillment."

"Cold Pogrom" of Polish Jews Will be Protested

Firm in the belief that a boycott against German made goods could be made effective in Providence, delegates attending the meeting of the Providence unit of the American Jewish Congress last Sunday appointed Frank Golemba as chairman of a committee of nine to further the plans of the Congress.

PRAISES MEDICAL AID OF PHYSICIAN

Madrid (WNS) — The invaluable services to the wounded in the loyalist army by the American surgical unit headed by Dr. Edward Barsky, former associate surgeon at Beth Israel Hospital, New York, has drawn unstinted praise from the Spanish government.

Working under tremendous handicaps, the unit, which consists of 16 physicians, nurses, ambulance drivers and technicians, has been rendering yeoman service in an improved hospital and at the front. Other Jewish members of the unit sent here by American Friends of Spanish Democracy are Dr. Nathan Bloom, Rose Freed, laboratory technician, and Sally Kahn, nurse.

MONEY TRANSFER CONCESSION MADE

Berlin (WNS)—Jews emigrating from Germany may now obtain abroad the equivalent of 40 or even more pfennigs for every registered mark they leave in Germany, an increase of 20 over the previous exchange rate.

The increase was made possible through a special provision inserted by foreign creditors of Germany in the new standstill agreement on Germany's frozen short term foreign debts.

Details of the provision were not disclosed but it was learned that wealthy foreign Jews have agreed to underwrite the cost of the plan through the Intra-International Trade and Investment Agency.

STUDENT EXCHANGE FOUGHT BY RABBI

Plan Denounced as Nazi Propaganda

Cleveland, Ohio (WNS) — A student exchange plan between German and Greater Cleveland high school pupils sponsored by the Berlin board of education and pushed by Carl O. Ahrendt, Cleveland manager of the Hamburg-American and North German Lloyd steamship companies appears to have gone on the rocks as the result of a vigorous protest launched by Rabbi Barnett R. Brickner of the Euclid Avenue Temple.

After Rabbi Brickner had denounced the plan in an open letter to newspapers and superintendents of Greater Cleveland schools as a Nazi propaganda stunt seeking to "poison the minds of American students," presidents of boards of education in Greater Cleveland indicated opposition to the move.

In a poll of superintendents most of them indicate no interest in the plan or outright opposition. Opposition was expressed by Ray C. Miller of the Cleveland school board, Thomas F. McDonald of the Lakewood school board, and B. B. Wickham of the East Cleveland school board. Other school officials declined to comment. Ahrendt said 150 Cleveland students had expressed a desire to make the trip.

REFUGEE TEACHER QUILTS HIS POST

Prague (WNS)—Unable to endure any longer the repeated insults of his German students, Dr. Hans Kelsen, professor of international law at the German University in Prague, has announced his resignation at the end of this semester. One of the distinguished German-Jewish refugees, Dr. Kelsen was appointed professor last fall by the ministry of education. His lectures have often been interrupted by anti-Semitic disturbances.

New Reich Styles Lack "Jewish Tricks"

Berlin (WNS)—Blaming "Jewish business tricks" for foreign styles in men's clothing, the German Tailors Guild's chairman, Herr Schaeffer, announced that hereafter fashions in men's clothing would be adapted to the German race and not guided by "Jewish stylists".

Youth Aliyah Advocate to Speak Before Hadassah

Frau Yetka Levy-Stein of Berlin, Germany, will be the principal speaker at a meeting under the auspices of Providence Chapter of Hadassah, to be held Tuesday at the Biltmore Hotel, at 2 o'clock.

This visitor from the Reich is in America at the invitation of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, which is the American agency of the Youth Aliyah, the project for settling German-Jewish children in Palestine.

She was in Palestine last year and saw at first hand the process of the rehabilitation of German-Jewish children. Young and dynamic, Frau Levy-Stein awakened such a keen interest in the Youth Aliyah movement during her visit here last year, that Hadassah, in response to repeated requests from groups throughout the country, was impelled to invite her for the present three month speaking tour, which will take her to all sections of the country.

Frau Levy-Stein, who is the lin, has been prominently active for years in social service work and in organizing and leading youth groups in Germany. Her experience with the youth of Germany fitted her for the Youth Aliyah work which she undertook when it was launched three years ago.

Hadassah has completed its first year of participation in the Youth Aliyah movement, raising approximately $125,000 for the work. To date, nearly 1500 German boys and girls between the ages of 15 and 17 have been settled in cooperative colonies. Hadassah is eager to have Polish children included in the Youth Aliyah program and has petitioned the Palestine government for the extension of immigration to these children.

Mrs. Morris Schussheim will present Frau Levy-Stein. Current events will be discussed by Dr. Clara Loitman-Smith. A reception will be tendered Frau Levy-Stein by the executive board of the Chapter, in the Biltmore

Vilna Students In Stand-Up Strike

Fears Mass Pogroms

DR. BERNARD KAHN

Paris (WNS)—Mass pogroms in Poland on a scale comparable with those in Czarist Russia in the 1880s and first decade of the present century are possible unless the Polish government changes its attitude toward the Jews, it was declared here by Dr. Bernard Kahn, European director of the Joint Distribution Committee, on his return from a trip to Warsaw. "Never during my 20 years of relief work for the European Jewish population have I seen more misery or greater despair among Jews than in my recent trip," he said.

PROTEST AGAINST GHETTO SEATING

Students Insist On Equality

Warsaw (WNS) — Standing firm in their refusal to occupy the special seats set aside for them or to attend the so-called ghetto laboratory classes, Jewish students at the University of Vilna have organized a boycott of such classes and a stand-up strike in lecture rooms.

Braving the wrath of anti-Semitic students and professors, the Jews are now standing up during all classes despite threats of expulsion. With the growing support of numbers of Christian students, the Jews are fighting to preserve not only their own rights but those of Jewish students in all the Polish universities.

It is a generally accepted fact that on the outcome of the struggle in Vilna depends the fate of the Jewish students throughout the country. Sensing this, the Vilna Jewish students have pledged themselves not to give up the strike or the boycott until their equality is guaranteed.

Hitler's Men Stunned!— Jew Is "Fuehrer" of Unit

Belgrade (WNS)—The leader of the Yugoslavian Nazis is a Jew and they are proud of it and not even Hitler himself can force them to ditch the non-Aryan.

When M. Diamenstein, Jewish fuhrer and secretary of the Yugoslavian Nazis approached the German Nazis with a plan for creating a Yugoslav-German economic union, the Nazis in Berlin were stunned to learn that a non-Aryan was the boss of a Nazi party.

They wasted no time in demanding that the Yugoslavs oust Diamenstein.

But the Yugoslav Nazis are not anti-Semitic and they replied in the following vein to Berlin: "We are no anti-Semites. We fight only Jewish capitalists and Communists, but we will accept with pleasure the help of talented Jews."

Apparently Diamenstein is a "talented Jew" for his party has defied Berlin and refuses to bow to its demand.

SOCIAL SECURITY FOR RABBIS ASKED

Pittsburgh (WNS)—Social security for rabbis was advocated by Mrs. Samuel Spiegel of New York in her presidential message to the convention of the Women's League of the United Synagogue, the first to be held independent of the parent body.

Revealing that rabbis in England enjoy security for life, Mrs. Spiegel said that "if we left more time to the rabbi for spiritual leadership instead of burdening him with the finances of the synagogue, there might be more true reverence for the teachings which he represents."

"The United States has just passed a Social Security and Old-Age Pension law. How many of us thought of such a law for the spiritual leaders in America. We have a united synagogue here, but not a united treasury, which would leave time for the rabbi to do the work he loves and which he has been trained for."

BACKS MEMORIAL

Chicago (WNS)—Sinclair Lewis and the Chicago Round Table of Jews and Christians have endorsed the project of the Patriotic Foundation of Chicago to erect the Lorado Taft memorial to George Washington and his patriots Robert Morris and Hayn

King Carol Cracks Down on Iron Guard

Bucharest (WNS) — Cracking down on the anti-Semitic Iron Guard with unaccustomed vigor, King Carol forced Premier Tatarescu to accept the resignations of Minister of the Interior Demeter Luoa and Minister of Justice Diuvara because of their tolerant attitude toward the Iron Guard, which has been running wild.

The cabinet changes, in which Tatarescu took the interior portfolio himself, are regarded as only temporary but are generally interpreted as indicating the King's determination to put a stop to the terrorism of the Iron Guard. Measures have already been taken to stamp out the Iron Guard in Bucharest and the campaign of repression will be extended to the rest of the country later.

Passover Furloughs Granted for Jews

Washington, D. C. (WNS)—Jews serving in the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard and those attached to C. C. C. camps or domiciled in veterans' hospitals will be granted Passover furloughs beginning at noon of March 26th and ending at midnight of March 28th, and ending at midnight of March according to announcements by the

OFF MY CHEST - - ARAB PROPAGANDA

Arabs "Explaining" Incidents in Palestine

By PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

Half a dozen Arab intellectuals have been assigned the task of "explaining" the Palestinian situation to non-Jewish audiences in the United States. In addition to that an Arab propaganda bureau now functions full-blast in New York. This bureau sends a circular letter each week to tens of thousands of addresses all over the land; to heads of forums, leaders of debating societies, political clubs, persons noted for their liberal views and also to the animators of franky anti-Semitic movements; in short, the Arab news letter goes where its sponsors feel that it will do the most good.

Well Received

On the whole, it seems, this Arabic propaganda is rather well received. It is nothing less than amazing what a profound interest some persons and organizations suddenly display in Palestine now that a presentation is available from a non-Jewish point of view. Amazing, but not surprising! The Arab propagandists are even invited to debate in Jewish temples and centers.

"Eyes Opened"

Some individuals, who were at one time counted among the proponents of the Jewish National Home idea, have written me of their satisfaction upon hearing the Palestinian situation presented by "the other side." One man, the president of a Midwestern college, wrote that his eyes had been opened while attending a meeting addressed by one of the Mufti's apostles. He had discovered, he said, to his "astonishment," that "not the Jews but the poor Arab peasants are the real sufferers in that clash of interests in the Holy Land."

The question is: What are we, the friends of Eretz Israel and of the Jewish national ideal, going to do about the blasts of adverse propaganda? Is it not time to bring our case to the notice of the non-Jews otherwise than in a negative way, in the form of a denial of this or that anti-Palestinian article or series of articles in this or that publication?

Tired of Slurs

Some of us non-Jewish liberals, I say it frankly, at the same time are sick and tired of the repeated slurs and aspersions cast upon the enterprise in Palestine, and we particularly resent the unwarranted accusations of chauvinism and reaction launched against the Histadruth by gentlemen who are clamoring for a united front of all true democrats over here and in Europe. The Histadruth has made Palestine an integral and important link in the world-front of democracy. The finest and most worth-while contributions in the world towards Socialism are being made today by labor in Palestine.

We have had enough "objective" reports on Arabic-Jewish relations by fly-by-night "experts" who blow into The Nation's office on the day before sailing for Europe. We would like some day to see Palestine discussed calmly by our liberal press, in terms of a great new civilization in the making and as a world-wide Jewish problem, not merely on occasions when Arabs are shooting Jews from ambush. And discussed, of course, by men who really know what is going on over there.

Failing that, Jews must simply launch a national publication of their own, a publication that will be read by the non-Jewish liberal elements in America. There is none at present.

Fires Workers Who Asked Rosh Hashanah Holidays

New York (WNS) — Objecting to a union contract that calls for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur holidays for his Jewish employees, Joseph Lang, owner of the Lang News Company on Long Island, and himself a Jew, has fired three of his Jewish employees. The dismissals resulted in a strike called by the Bookkeepers', Stenographers' and Accountants' Union, A. F. of L., and pleas from the Jewish employees to Jewish organizations to bring pressure to bear on Mr. Lang. Lang has announced

Jersey City Jewry Split; Center Ousts Synagogue

Jersey City, N. J. (WNS)—Long smoldering bitter feeling between two elements of Jersey City Jewry burst into open flame when Congregation Emanu-El, the city's only Conservative synagogue, received notice to vacate its quarters in the Jewish Community Center after May 23.

The ouster order by the Center's board of directors was officially attributed to the Center's lack of room to house its expanded activities but spokesmen for the synagogue pointed out that lack of room was only the excuse cloaking the real reason since the congregation used its quarters in the Center only on Friday night and Saturday morning when the Center was closed. Apart from its synagogue room, an office and a classroom, the synagogue occupies no other space. It pays an annual rental of $3,000.

Spokesmen for the synagogue charged that the ouster was due to fear on the part of the Center and its leaders that the outspoken liberal view of Rabbi Benjamin Plotkin, spiritual leader of the synagogue, were antagonizing powerful political forces in the city.

Rabbi Plotkin's forces on various public issues had clashed with the attitude of Mayor Frank Hague and many of the city's prominent Jews who are active in Democratic affairs.

Harry Goldowsky, former president of the Center and now chairman of its house committee and president of the N. J. Federation of Y. M. & Y. W. H. A.'s published an advertisement in the local press denying that the request to the synagogue to move is due to anything else than a need for more room. He also said the synagogue would be given sufficient time to find new quarters.

At the Theatres

"GREEN LIGHT"

"Green Light," that stirring story of heroism, sacrifice and love, which had many hundreds of thousands of readers in its book form a couple of years ago, comes as a photoplay to the Majestic Theatre today—a faithfully made, splendidly-cast Cosmopolitan production, released by First National.

Errol Flynn, the young Irishman who made sensational hits in "Captain Blood," and "Charge of the Light Brigade" is the masculine star of Lloyd C. Douglas' gripping tale. He plays Dr. Paige, the scientist who almost gives his life in researches destined to alleviate human suffering.

The girl he wins, after much misunderstanding and unhappiness, is the lovely little blonde Anita Louise, who had a recent triumph of her own as the mother of "Anthony Adverse," in the film version of that book, and shares stellar honors with Flynn.

"FAIR WARNING"

The whine of a high-power rifle bullet, a trace of a nameless, subtle poison, a forbidding waste supposedly tamed—such is the setting when murder and romance meet thrillingly in the desert and an embarrassed detective goes to the aid of love, as Death Valley lives up to its name in the Twentieth Century-Fox film, "Fair Warning," opening today at Fays Theatre.

The unusual story of secret murder and sudden romance in Death Valley's millionaire playground, with J. Edward Bromberg as a naive detective faced by a startling crime and just sure he can't solve it at all, features Betty Furness and John Howard Payne as the romantic pair whose love comes under the strange spell of the Great Desert. Victor Kilian and young Billy Burrud also have important roles in the film.

On the stage is the unusual revue "Parisienne Creations."

"MICHAEL STROGOFF"

Bringing to life on the speaking screen the exciting adventures and desperate struggles of Jules Verne's immortal hero, "Michael Strogoff," now at the Albee. RKO Radio is said to have produced one of the most unusual films of modern times in its picture of that name with the new continental sensation, Anton Walbrook, in the title role.

Dealing with the efforts of Strogoff, a courier of the Tsar to reach a besieged Russian army at Irkutsk during a sudden rebellion of the Tartar hordes, the picture abounds in breathless occurrences.

The second feature attraction is "Two Wise Maids" with Alison Skipworth and Polly Moran.

ORGAN DEDICATION SERVICE PLANNED

Emanuel is Installing Kimball Organ

Temple Emanuel-El announces that plans are now complete for the Organ Dedication Service and the Concert of Sacred Jewish Music to be held on Sunday evening, April 11 (Rosh Hodesh Iyar).

The organ dedication committee, of which Mrs. Philip C. Joslin is chairman, is making this event, not only of significance to the Congregation, but one of interest to the Jewish community.

As guest artists for this occasion there will be presented Cantor Itzo Glickstein, famous Cantor of Temple Mishkan Tefla, Boston, and Prof. S. Braslavsky, choirmaster and organist of the same Temple. Cantor Harry Bettman and Arthur Einstein are both preparing a special program of Jewish music for this occasion.

The organ now being installed is a Kimball organ; it possesses registers of all the orchestral tone colors, as well as the usual foundational stops as generally found in the Organ. It will be located in two chambers on each side of the choir gallery.

The installation of the organ is in charge of the well-known organ designer and organist, George W. Stanley, Jr.

The organ committee consists of Mrs. Philip C. Joslin, chairman, Mrs. Charles Strasmich, Mrs. Esther Pritsker, Mrs. Nat C. Cohen, Mrs. Herman Bernstein, Mrs. Joseph L. Coplan, Mrs. Minna Blazar, and Mrs. Abraham H. Rotman.

DEEP FAITH TO FASCISM PLEDGED

Rome (WNS)—Deep faith in the Fascist cause and a pledge of the fullest loyalty to the royal and imperial house of Savoy are pledged by the Jews of Italy in a summons made public on the occasion of the annual elections for the Union of Italian Jewish Communities.

The statement denounces Communism and Bolshevism as the "negation of every principle of Judaism" and declares that it is the fundamental duty of all Jewish leaders to defend the honor of their constituents against "the false belief in the existence of an alleged international solidarity of Jewry."

University Rector

DR. HUGO BERGMANN

Dr. Hugo Bergmann, Rector of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, will arrive in March for a six weeks stay in this country as the guest of the American Friends of the Hebrew University. An announcement of Dr. Bergmann's forthcoming visit was made by Dr. A. S. W. Rosenbach, president of the American Friends of the University.

During his stay in the United States Dr. Bergmann will visit a number of the larger cities to enable friends of the University to hear first hand reports on the progress made during the past few years in building up a Jewish cultural and educational center in Palestine, as well as the ambitious plans for further growth of this, the first Jewish University in the world, Dr. Rosenbach explained.

EXILE DECREED FOR AGITATORS

Haifa (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Moving to curb increasing inflammatory agitation, the District Commissioner for Haifa sentenced fifteen Arab inciters to one year's exile from Haifa. They will be sent to various parts of Palestine and will be required to post bonds ranging from $500 to $2,500 to insure their good behavior during the period of their exile.

The campaign of terrorism assumed a new form when Arabs seen coming into the city of Tel Aviv to make purchases were stopped and assaulted by the gangs. Haifa was again the scene of terroristic activity when the city Town Clerk's home was bombed and damaged. No casualties occurred, however.

Expose Streicher's Picture Falsifying

Barcelona (WNS)—Pictures of dead Spanish children published in the notorious Nazi anti-Semitic paper, Der Stuermer, with the caption, "murder lust of Talmud Jews" were officially branded as forgeries by the generalidid of Barcelona in a statement proving that the children were the victims of a Fascist air raid on loyalist territory. The pictures had been taken from government material and given the lying caption by the Nazi paper.

Have you read "Speaking of Women" on page six, a digest of fashions and news for women only?

Gerald Smith Launches National Fascist Group

New York (WNS) — Denying any connection with the Silver Shirts, Ku Klux Klan or Nazi agents, the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, Louisiana preacher and heir of the late Huey Long's "Share-the-Wealth," embarked on the first public step toward what many believe is a Fascist movement when he announced at a mass press interview in the Hotel Pennsylvania the organization of the "Committee of 1,000,000."

National in scope and not based upon racial or religious bigotry, the organization will fight Communism and all groups tainted with Communism, he said.

Refusing to reveal the names of his backers other than to say

"about a hundred friends had contributed," including the president of a state federation of labor, Smith explained that his movement would be organized on quasi-military lines with himself as "national leader."

Group leaders - have been in secret training for some time, he declared. Units of the organization are being formed in New Orleans, New York, Atlanta, Denver, Chicago, San Francisco, and St. Louis. All leaders will be appointed by and responsible to Smith. The New York leader is Patrick A. Powers of Queens. Preston Delcazel heads the work in New Orleans and in Atlanta the leader is J. Ira Harrellson.

Bermuda Hotels Announce Jews No Longer Desired

New York (WNS) — Virtually all hotels in Bermuda, British-owned island resort in the Caribbean Sea now enforce the Aryan law, it was revealed here when the Bermuda Hotels, Inc. agents for the Princess, Coral Island, Belmont Manor and Inverurie Hotels, announced that Jews will not be admitted any longer. Jews are also barred at the Elbow Beach Hotel.

Hotels to which Jews are admitted are the Bermuda Hamilton, the St. George and the Bermudania.

A spokesman for the Bermuda Hotels Inc., refused to give reasons for the new anti-Jewish policy but said it had been developing for some time and was now in effect as a complete ban.

The New York agents will be assigned the task of determining whether a prospective patron is a Jew.

"I suppose it is the privilege of any hotel outside the United States to formulate its own policy," he said and was on the point of discussing similar practices in the United States when he thought better of it.

Over 20,000 Radio Fans in Palestine

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—That radio fans in Palestine are mostly Jews is shown in figures issued by the Broadcasting Service authorities, who report that last year an additional 8,216 licenses were granted and that the total number of instruments authorized for reception of wireless programs was 20,388.

Over sixty per cent of the 8,216 licenses last year were given to Jewish residents. Only ten per cent were issued to Arabs.

Holland Jewry Honors Huberman

Amsterdam (WNS) — Dutch Jewry expressed its appreciation to Bronislaw Huberman, eminent violinist and founder of the Palestine Symphony Orchestra, for his efforts on behalf of German emigre musicians, by presenting him with a deed to a garden in Tel Aviv after he had received an ovation at a concert given by the Concertgebouw under the auspices of the Society for Art for All.

PRISON CHAPLAINS HOLD CONFERENCE

Type of Services Are Outlined by Rabbis

New York (WNS)—The part religion can play in breaking down the intransigent attitudes of Jewish prisoners, helping to restore them to a normal place in society and rehabilitating them was the keynote of discussions and addresses at the first conference of Jewish prison chaplains ever held in the United States.

Under the sponsorship of the Jewish Board of Guardians, more than 50 chaplains from city, state and federal penal institutions in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Washington, D. C. and other communities gathered for an all-day study of their functions and to evaluate their work as an integral part of the treatment program in prisons.

The Histadruth is urging another thousand to join the mobilization in order to conclude the orange picking season. Building operations in Tel Aviv and Haifa have been suspended to permit workers to join in the rural activity.

ZIONISM DEPENDS ONLY ON JEWS

Is Opinion of Henrietta Szold

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—That the success of Zionism depends only on the efforts of the Jews themselves was asserted by Henrietta Szold, founder of Hadassah, at a twenty-fifth anniversary celebration by the Palestine Jewish community of Hadassah's establishment.

Following a broadcast on the Palestine radio station devoted to the achievements of the organization of American Zionist women, there was a representative gathering at the Jewish Agency Hall at which the speakers included United States Consul General Geo. Wadsworth, Menahem Ussishkin, president of the Jewish National Fund, Leib Jaffe, director of the Palestine Foundation Fund and Miss Szold.

The veteran Zionist woman leader, who directs the youth aliyah work as well as the social service department of the Jewish Agency, pointed out in her closing remarks that all seven members of the original Hadassah Executive are now in Palestine. ## Disillusionment

The Nazis, whose olfactory senses are so acute that they can smell a "Jewish plot" in every movement that doesn't dovetail with Nazi ideology, must be greatly alarmed. Nazism has been regarded as the acme of anti-Semitism. Jews and Nazis would seem to have as little in common as fire and water. Yet even the Nazis must be wondering whether their political ideas, too, are not after all another "Jewish plot."

First they are shocked to learn that a Jewish professor in Italy has "proved" that the Talmud provided the ideological basis for Fascism, which was the political godfather of Nazism. Then they are annoyed by the disclosure that the leader of the Hungarian Nazis is really a Jew, and, what's worse, the adopted son of a rabbi. And now as a climax comes the crushing news that the Fuehrer of the Yugoslavian Nazis is not only a Jew but a few who stands high in the favor of his party, which has defied a Berlin order to get rid of him.

We are not privy to the small talk that goes on in high Nazi circles, but we'd like to bet that some of the Nazi master minds are beginning to think that perhaps it mightn't be a bad idea to drop Nazism, which has won so much ill will for Germany, and accuse the Jews of foisting it on the world.

Free Speech Unwanted

A deplorable example of chaos in American Jewish communal life has just come to light in Jersey City. Congregation Emanu-El, a Conservative synagogue which rented quarters in the Jewish Community Center, has been given notice to vacate by May 23rd. The excuse is that the Center's expanding program requires additional room. These are the bald facts; behind them is a strange story.

The spiritual leader of Congregation Emanu-El, Rabbi Benjamin Plotkin, has long been a thorn in the side of the reactionary political powers-that-be in Jersey City. He has spoken out often and bravely against injustice.

Rabbi Plotkin's plain-speaking has made enemies for him not only in political circles but among Jewish leaders, many of whom are opposed to his political views. More than once Jewish spokesmen in Jersey City have indicated that Rabbi Plotkin's stand on public questions is displeasing to them because it might affect the position of the Jewish community.

It is this situation rather than the Center's need for more room that is responsible for the ouster of Congregation Emanu-El. It is no mere coincidence that the ouster order came from a board of directors headed by a man who is the acknowledged Jewish political leader of Jersey City. We believe that this incident should not be ignored.

It involves not only a rabbi's right to free speech but, by implication, the future of democracy in Jewish life. The Jersey City incident is a real challenge. We know that many members of the Jersey City Center's board oppose the ouster. To our mind this matter must not go unanswered.

What with the box-office success of "After the Thin Man," we can expect Mr. Deeds to go to another town most any day now.—Kansas City Star.

Rothschilds Expect War; Ludwig Lewisohn Writes New Book

By PHINEAS J. BIRON

One of the by-products of Maurice Levin's purchase of the Adams-Flanigan department store in the Bronx was the disappearance of German goods from the shelves of that emporium. . . . A couple of Nazi agents who tried to sell Aryanism to the Indians on the Navajo reservation barely escaped with their scalps intact. . . . Order No. 6 issued by Fritz Kuhn, Fuehrer of the Nazis in America, to members of the "Ordnungsdienst," the uniformed ushers who guard Nazi meetings, informs that "badges and epaulettes will be made so that they can be removed easily in order that men who walk alone to and from meetings may look like civilians."

ETHEREAL FLASHES

Helen Granitsch, president of the Austrian Women's League, is suing Dr. Kurt Sonnenfeld, author of her authorized biography, because he refuses to delete certain passages indicating that her mother was a Jewess. . . . The well-informed Rothschilds appear to be so certain that the next war will start in Central Europe that they have moved millions of dollars worth of securities from their Vienna branch to London. . . . The frantic efforts at unification between Zionists and assimilationists in Austria is due to the report that anti-Semitic legislation is impending.

NOTES ON THE MILITARY

We have just learned that the late President Paul von Hindenburg, the gentleman who appointed Hitler chancellor, was the nephew of a Jew. . . . It appears that the sister of Hindenburg's father was married to Cohen Van Baren. . . . When Frau Van Baren died, her younger sister married Van Baren. . . . It was in this Jewish home that Hindenburg's father and mother met for the first time. . . . And while we're on the subject of generals we ought to pass this story on to you. . . . General Eric Von Ludendorff was at his favorite pastime of blaming the Jews for the loss of the war. . . . This time he was chatting with a French general. . . . "You're right," said the Frenchman. . . . "If it weren't for the Jews, and especially the Jewish generals, Germany would have won." . . . "But," protested Ludendorff, "we never had any Jewish generals!" . . . "That's just it," countered the Frenchman, "the Allies did."

ABOUT PEOPLE

If Dadaism drives you nuts blame it on John Heartfield, German-Jewish cartoonist. . . . Heartfield now lives in Prague where he makes a living illustrating the proletarian books published by the Malik Publishing House in London, which is owned by his brother, Wieland Herzfeld. . . . One of our snoopers has discovered that the flagpole in the center of New York's Union Square, the hangout of radicals, has the hatchet and bundle of rods, the Fascist insignia, at its base. . . . But before you start protesting we might as well tell you the flagpole is older than Fascism. . . . Ludwig Lewisohn's new book will be called "Trumpet of Jubilee," and it's having a heavy ad-

Adolph J. Sabath of Illinois is one of the nine men elected to 15 consecutive terms since the first Congress met in 1789. . . . Congressman William I. Sirovich has authorized a play based on the life of Spinoza. . . . Will some Talmudic scholar please tell us whether the fellow who told Winchell that the Patriarch Isaac was the first to contact a child-marriage because he married Rebecca when she was only three years old is correct? . . . Our Bible is strangely silent on this. . . . Did you know that there is a Jewish Temperance Association functioning in New England.

SPEAKER WARNS OF DICTATORSHIP

Rev. Charles H. Temple, of the Church of the Transfiguration, was the guest speaker Monday evening, at the joint meeting of the Sisterhood and the Congregation of Temple Beth Israel. Mrs. Isadore Singer, president of the Sisterhood and Jacob Licht, president of the Congregation, presided.

Rev. Temple, who was introduced by Rabbi Morris Schusheim, spoke on "America, the Land for the Brave and the Free," and warned of the possibility of a dictatorship in America. He exhorted each religious group to practice its own fundamental teachings, rather than try to ape any other, thereby making its finest contribution to the "symphony of American life."

Samuel R. Finegold was appointed chairman for the Bazaar which is to take place in May and Dr. Ilie Berger was appointed chairman of the 15th anniversary banquet to be held in April. Refreshments were served by a Sisterhood committee, headed by Mrs. William H. Smira.

Burial Society Tries to "Hold Up" American Kin

Warsaw (WNS) — The high-handed methods of officials of a local Jewish burial society in refusing to allot a burial plot for the body of Louis Stillman, American Jew from Buffalo who died here, unless his family paid a steep price have created a scandal here.

Stillman's body lay unburied for four days while the officials wrangled with his kinsmen. Intervention of the American consul failed to move the society and Stillman's family in Buffalo finally sent cabled instructions to ship the body home for burial there.

Through the Eyes OF ARCHIE SMITH

PULLING STRINGS

Last Sunday nite versatile Tony Sarg completely captivated an audience of people, who appreciated his dashing humor and ingenuity. . . . A good sport was Saul Abrams, who posed for a caricature, while his chic looking wife watched intently. . . . The Jack Fains—Molly wearing an ensemble of black with an application of mink that must have hid a Paris label. . . . Phil Lieberman seated next to Sophie Ellis. . . . The Dave Dwares. . . . Mac Golden and his wife, who is as refreshing as a sea breeze—with the Ned Blackmans. . . . Arthur Kaplan and wife, who, sleek in black made a gracious hostess. . . . the Harry Pinkersons. . . . Bud Lewis. . . . Distinct in taste, wearing that intriguing new shade of thistle was Helen Bernhardt. . . .

Those ambitious Zionists, who tended Louis Lipsky a dinner in honor of his birthday last Saturday nite, were keenly disappointed, 'tis said, by his attitude. . . . After the candles on the birthday cake were lit, and Happy Birthday was sung, Mr. Lipsky was pretty open in his criticism. . . . Apparently our friend Mr. Lipsky was not interested in being sung Happy Birthday to—and candles only made him feel like Yahrzeit. . . .

ODD ITEMS ABOUT PEOPLE

Glad to hear that Sam Steiner is on the road to recovery. . . . Handsome Hap Woolf has some pretty definite ideas about optometry. . . . His pal Toody Lisker is back from Florida, and doesn't find it hard at all to buckle down to work again. . . . Pete Botvin takes a canter every Sunday morning to reduce. . . . Hy Diwinsky plays hand ball to take it off. . . . Gabriel Salk will be coming home from the hospital soon, minus three inches of appendix. . . . Eunice Goldsmith and Bea Gross, leaving the Biltmore where they dined. . . . Frances Rabinowitz at the Agawam Hunt. . . . Lou Silverman is planning big things in his wallpaper store for the coming Passover. . . . And if you're looking for Passover wine, Beery's Liquor Store is handling a full line. . . . Al Gilstein is doing a fine job at Baird North's on radios and he wants his friends to know they are at liberty to bring all their radio troubles to him at any time. . . .

Lester Emers has a book that everyone is trying to get. . . . Who is the young lawyer who's going up to New York this week end to "finagle" himself a pile of mazuma, and incidentally, a wife? . . .

A MATTER OF WEIGHTS

A certain complacent and pert young school teacher will make public announcement of her engagement to a local M. D. now interning in the Windy City when he returns for an Easter vacation. . . . And almost simultaneously will come a most surprising engagement announcement concerning a local scrivener and a fetching young lady from out of the state. . . . We wonder who is the attraction that takes a State College graduate out of our fair city almost every week-end. . . .

Jean Shepard surrounded by three politicians and a gentleman in the Westminster Street "See-ry." . . . Frank Barad makes stirring radio speeches but after seeing what he gets people to pay good money for at Republican auctions we don't trust him any more. . . . Lou Adler, eleventh ward councilman, sings the song in praise of minorities. . . .

SLIGHTLY REVEALING

The Indian Room on Saturday night was a gathering place for many of our brethren who count. In fact the place was just full of the brethren and Eddie McEntee. And since he represents more Jews in the legislature than any other duly elected officer we can't consider him an entire stranger. . . .

Sidney Hanzel chose the Indian Room to tell his friends of his engagement to Beatrice Reis from the Big City. And Sidney sure has chosen a very charming girl. Mazel Tov! . . . There too were the Morris Coopers cavorting in gay fashion. How do you do it Morris? Only last week we spotted you two night in succession—once at the Stork Club and once at the Narragansett—and even if you were celebrating your twentieth wedding anniversary. . . .!

The Al Rosens back from their honeymoon looked very happy. . . . Phil Glanzman reminded me of a candy cordial sandwiched in between Hy Rosen and Saul Feinberg. . . . The Lennie Blaus were in another corner of the wigwam as were Sam Spiegel and Mac Kovitch. Betty Proctor and Tessie Rodin looked refreshing. Joe Pulver had a very cute little girl with him. Lou Davis and Harry Moskoll won't give up the dance. . . . Gert Rosenhirsh nodded as did the Leo Logans. . . . Sam Cushner, gas station operator took the night away from his studio where he has been entertaining lately. . . . The Sam Steins, the Norman Feinbergs, Joe Finkle with his fiancée, Esther Bass, in from Boston. . . . They tell me the date is about July. . . .

A friend writes that in Bombay, India, the electric railway sells special tickets on Friday, with the inscription "For Jews Only." . . . These tickets are purchased by Orthodox Jews, who ride on the Sabbath, but believe it irreligious to handle

Bombs and Stones Terrorize Communities

GANGS OF ARABS ROB COLONISTS

Worshippers in Synagogue Are Bombed

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—With bombing, robbing and stoning, Arab terrorists spread the network of their anti-Jewish acts. Just after midnight a bomb was hurled at the Hadrath Kodesh synagogue in Haifa while several aged worshippers were still studying. Observers remarked that it was a miracle that the men escaped unhurt. The door of the structure was badly damaged.

An autobus traveling from the Haifa railway station toward Hadar Hacaramel, hillside suburb, was heavily stoned, resulting in injuries to a Mrs. Schramm and her small child. A gang of fifteen armed Arabs yesterday stole a valuable lot of sheep representing a considerable portion of the property of a colonist near Mizpah outside of Tiberias. Jewish watchmen in the vicinity fired at the gang but failed to drive them off until they had seized the flock. A posse of neighboring watchmen and police pursued the bandits.

REVISIONISTS RIOT AT POLISH PARLEY

Warsaw (WNS) — After beating up Dr. Isaac Gruenbaum, former member of the Polish parliament and now a member of the World Zionist Executive, in the street, a band of Zionist Revisionists invaded the hall where the annual convention of the Polish Zionists was in progress and created a panic by a barrage of stench bombs.

Battling their way into the hall while Dr. Gruenbaum was speaking, the Revisionists created an uproar with their stench bombs and the release of a flock of pigeons carrying literature attacking the Zionist Executive.

Rabbi Goldman to Speak at Hope Street Church

Rabbi Goldman will deliver an address at a special Lenten service at the Hope Street Congregational Church on Thursday evening. He will speak on the subject, "Room for All". Dr. J. J. Russell is minister of the church. Last Sunday morning the Rabbi addressed the Central Baptist Church on the subject "If I were a Christian".

ENTERS AGREEMENT

Saloniki (WNS)—The text of the new transfer agreement between Palestine and Greece, just made public in the official gazette, indicates that it will now be possible for Zionist funds to be sent from here to Palestine. Exchange restrictions had held up these funds for some months. The agreement also opens the way for improved trade relations with Palestine.

Physician is Second Jew Murdered Within a Week

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The second Jew to meet death by violence within the week was a Beisan physician murdered during the night by three Arabs. The victim was Dr. Joseph Lehrs, 55 years old, the only Jewish resident in the town, which is near the Transjordan frontier.

At the beginning of the disturbances last year, Dr. Lehrs had left Beisan which is in the heart of an Arab section. But recently he had returned at the request of Arab inhabitants who had valued his medical services.

The police report on the latest murder states that at 2:45 in the morning three men knocked at the bedroom of Dr. Lehrs' home and when he came to the door two shots were fired through the woodwork, hitting him in the stomach and killing him instantly.

A police patrol saw three Arabs running from the house and fired but the murderers escaped. A £500 reward has been offered by the Government for the information leading to the arrest of the assailants.

Another £500 reward was offered by the Government for the apprehension of the murder of Haim Bruk, 21-year-old German-Jewish immigrant who was stabbed to death on February 22nd by an Arab. Dr. Lehrs had immigrated to Palestine from Germany.

Plan Educational Drive Against Marital Strife

New York (WNS)—Alarmed by the increase in the number of estrangements, separations, desertions and divorces among Jews as well as the mounting seriousness of rebellion against parental authority, the revolt of women against husband domination and the restlessness of husbands under the obligations of family life, a committee of rabbis and Jewish laymen has been organized here to undertake a nation-wide program of education in the art of family living. The program will be launched first in New York with a series of weekly lectures on marriage and the family at the Synagogue House of the Free Synagogue.

Lecture themes will include "The Jewish Aspects of Marriage and the Family," "The Jewish Concepts of Marriage," "The Jewish Attitude Toward Divorce," "The Jewish Ideal of the Family" and "The Jewish Teaching on Inter-marriage."

Game Gives Children Palestine Background

Hartford, Conn. (WNS)—"Oasis" or "The Romance of the Promised Land" is the name of a new game invented by Mrs. Morris Silverman and Aaron Dubitsky of this city, which is being employed for Jewish educational purposes. Played like "Monopoly", the game employs paper discs as coins called Shekolim.

A map of Palestine is in the center of the playing board, together with an explanation of the Hebrew names used. Teachers of Jewish schools are reported to be permitting children to play "Oasis" during instruction periods.

SUES FOR LIBEL -- LOSES OWN JOB

Nazi Officials Beyond Legal Justice

Berlin (WNS) — Libel suits against Nazi officials and the Nazi publishing house for issuing works containing statements that a man is of Jewish origin, are an insult against the Nazi state, even if the statements are untrue.

Such was the ruling in the case of Dr. Herman von Wehner, son of a former Bavarian minister of culture, who sued a Storm Troop commander and Hitler's publishing firm for libeling him by publishing a book in which he was charged with being a baptized Jew.

The ruling admitted the libel but argued that the author of the book, Hans Zoerberlien, was a Nazi hero and therefore "to be protected from people brazen enough to proceed against men within our ranks who have fought for 15 years for the Fuehrer and the nation." Von Wehner has been suspended from his government post and the lawyer who took his case is to be disbarred.

Schmeling's tour is due to open in Newark on March 8th, and the Jewish War Veterans are planning a boycott of his exhibition in that city as well as in other cities throughout the country.

Speaking of Women

Clothes for Spring; Mrs. Low Relates Highlights of Her Trip Abroad

By EDYTHE JAY

With the suit established as this year's pet on Fashion Avenue, smart women need only decide what kind of suit to wear, for there are many new versions, and no end to their variety.

"Riding coat" suits, with youthful flaring peplums at the back, slightly exaggerated shoulders, nipped-in waistlines and swinging skirts, suggest themselves to the woman who adores being feminine. Longer coat suits, with tunics, are especially good looking for the older woman, and have the slenderizing lines she prefers. Bolero jacket suits, with colorful blouses showing, and long sashes are liked by the younger fashion clientele. For travel or country wear, the very mannish suit is chosen, made of typical men's-wear fabrics, in solid colors, stripes or small checks. And a tip for your tailored suit—see that it sports a gay flower—there are all sorts of bright boutonnières this Spring. The smartest lapels will be wearing them.

For the woman who can afford more than one suit this Spring, the cape ensemble may well be recommended. Capes this year hang free from the shoulders, in almost severely straight lines. They fall to the fingertips or to just above the knees. Shorter fox-trimmed capes are high fashion, and dressy enough to go to afternoon functions. Separate foxes are the smart thing to wear with the spring suit. Silver for scarfs, one and two-skin lengths bring glamour to any suit; while for color effect, the red fox or cross fox is a smart choice and may be worn with black, brown or navy. March 21, you know, is just around the corner, so if you're wise you'll forget about the cloths you've been wearing through this freakish winter, and start planning for the brilliant Spring season just ahead.

BETTY WYMAN FASHION MODEL

Betty Wyman, New York model, whose photos appear monthly in the better known women's fashion magazines, recently went to Hollywood from New York, where she was the apple of the eye of manufacturers of expensive feminine garments. She seems likely to break the unwritten law that no advertising model can become a movie star, for Miss Wyman has passed screen tests with flying colors. Her beauty will adorn "Vogues of 1938," filmed by Walter Wanger.

Going to New York from Kansas City some years ago, Miss Wyman placed herself under the tutelage of Arthur O'Neill, noted fashion photographer, who not only made her a $50 an hour model, but married her. While this link proved fragile, Miss Wyman's popularity with advertisers was more enduring, and her services have never gone begging at the figure named. She is at present married to another photographer. Neither blonde nor brunette, Miss Wyman is distinguished by her poise, rather than by beauty of face and form, though she has a due measure of both. Attired in the latest creations of New York clothing manufacturers, she leaves an unforgettable impression with observers. She is believed by her intimates to have reached the ripe old age of 29.

SEEING THE MEDITERRANEAN

I chatted this week with Mrs. Isadore Low, who with her husband, recently went on a five weeks' cruise along the Mediterranean. They've been back in our town for two weeks, and are just coming "down to earth." The first week in January they left on the Italian liner "Saturnia" from New York. Their ports of call included the Azores, Lisbon, Portugal, Gibraltar. Some excitement was caused when, passing directly by the Spanish frontier, a rebel plane flew over their ship.

They saw practically all of Italy, having visited Sicily, Sorrento, the Isle of Capri, Naples, Rome, the Vatican, Venice and Trieste. The latter was the coldest spot of the trip, being very near Switzerland. In Italy people live in every available inch of space—in the valleys, and right up the mountain sides to the highest parts. Their homes are made of brick or stucco; trees are few, so timber is scarce. Business buildings are now being constructed along modernistic lines, and create a striking contrast to the ancient structures.

In each city, they looked up the Jewish people, and visited the Jewish synagogues. The Italian Jews are Orthodox only to a certain extent, Mrs. Low told me. They never work on Saturdays. They do not use Jewish meat because they cannot obtain it. Strange to say, they do not speak Jewish, nor do they understand it. They converse mostly in the native tongue, and in some cases use Hebrew.

They took dozens of pictures on the trip. Out of the boxful Mrs. Low showed me, I picked two I thought you'd like to see. They made the return trip on the Conte de Savoie. Incidentally, coming back on the same ship was Wally Simpson's aunt, whom Mrs. Low thought was a lovely person.

At this time of year, it seems there are not many Americans travelling. It must have been grand "rubbing elbows" with so many Europeans. The whole trip was wonderful, and something she'll never forget, but like all other Americans, Mrs. Low said "Give me good old America."

THE ART OF MAKE-UP

The return to style of beige calls for special make-up. This shade is likely to drain every bit of color from your face unless your hair is coal black, real gold or honest-to-goodness red. Therefore, just as important as the lovely beige ensemble, are cosmetics to make your skin alive.

Think first of rouge. The trend seems to be toward bluish and purplish red tones—away from orange types. Although, if you are one of the daring few using orange make-up, it's probably because it's really becoming. Once you've found a rouge that harmonizes with your coloring, learn to get it on correctly. It should be kept high on the cheekbones—not too near your nose, and never dragged down below the imaginary line from corner of mouth to tip of ears.

Really set your powder. Experts agree that it should be pressed on lavishly (with a piece of clean cotton), allowed to set, then the excess whisked off with the reverse side of the cotton. Get a shade that gives your skin a healthy, transparent glow. Rosy-toned powder counteracts the dull flat yellowish light which beige generally throws upward over your face and chin. The beige and suntan shades are being used mostly now by the women who have just returned from cruises, to harmonize with their acquired complexions.

Lipsticks must necessarily be brilliant this season to make friends with the new dusky tones now so important on the Fashion front. Whether your lipstick is light or dark, it should have a vivid brightness about it.

RECIPE FOR COOKIES

In many articles in newspapers and magazines we read that we should keep the cookie jar filled for the children. If this be so, then many of us have never grown up. Cookies are more tempting, and can be used on more occasions than almost any other kind of sweet. I think you'll want to try the recipe printed below:

CHOCOLATE DROP COOKIES

- 1/2 cup butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 eggs
- 1/4 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 cup Heinz apple butter
- 1 cup chopped nuts
- 2 cups sifted cake flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3 ounces chocolate, melted

Melt the chocolate over boiling water and cool to lukewarm. Cream the butter and the sugar until light. Add the vanilla and the eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly. Mix the baking soda with the apple butter and add to the butter mixture. Add the nuts. Sift together the flour, baking powder, and the salt, and add to the first mixture. Mix the melted chocolate. Drop by heaping teaspoonsfuls on a greased cookie sheet and bake in a moderate oven for about fifteen minutes, or until they spring back when touched by the finger.

White and Black Jews; A Modern Circe; and Life Expectancy Low

Strange old colonies of White and Black Jews, dating from the time of Nebuchadnezzar, exist in Cochin, North India. The White Jews have a beautiful synagogue, floored with willow-pattern tiles.

The Black Jews have a charter, engraved on copper, and said to date from A. D. 400, giving the title of Prince to one Joseph Rabban, and allowing him to use trumpets, dulcimers, to have an umbrella carried over him, to ride an elephant, and to collect taxes.

Both colonies worship separately and do not intermarry. The only thing they have in common is elephantiasis, which causes swelling of the limbs and other parts of the body.

VERSATILE TAXI DRIVER

It was at the first traffic light on Broad street, the other evening, when the driver of my cab turned his head and said, "Would you like for me to entertain you, sir?"

"What's that?" I asked, wondering if the cab drivers found competition so keen they found it necessary to keep their fares amused.

"Well," the driver explained, "I can sing—have a fair baritone voice, my friends tell me—and I can give short lectures on twenty-one different subjects. I can quote almost anything from the Bible and I know a few off-color stories."

I only had time to sample a few of his talents; but he was no amateur—the meter did the mile from down town in record time. Under questioning the driver admitted using his capabilities—a modern Circe—to lull the passenger so that he wouldn't notice the route taken to his destination.

KOSHER KISSES

A young lady, raised among orthodox surroundings, has asked the question, "May lipstick, powder and rouge be used during Pass-over?" After exhaustive investigations it was learned that lipstick might be "chometz" unless certain ingredients were made under rabbinical supervision—which is quite improbable.

But a sympathetic Rabbi has advanced the following solution which would prevent the sudden rising of countless female ghosts. "Use boiled beet juice," he said. "I'm certain that it will cause male hearts to beat." But what an opportunity for an enterprising manufacturer: "Lipstick and rouge, kosher 1' Pesach."

HERRINGBONER

It must have been a Litvak, the police of a neighboring town concluded when they discovered that a burglar, in entering a grocery store, had tumbled into a big barrel of pickled herring. It was suggested that a pack of cats be turned loose instead of bloodhounds to solve this "fishy" case.

Overheard: Your husband seems to be a very intelligent man; bet he knows plenty. "Don't be silly," was the retort, "he doesn't suspect a thing."

A Yugoslavian Robert Taylor has plunged that country into a strange turmoil. A certain gentleman was so handsome that the girls in his town would not look at any other man. The wall-flower swains in desperation banded together and pulled lots to decide who would rid the town of this menace to happiness and posterity. A few days later the body of the "man with a thousand loves" was found by the roadside. A number of arrests were made but all were acquitted—the judge received a fee for every marriage.

MEN DULL, WOMEN CATTY

Three investigators who made a study of 604 conversations during an intermission at symphony summarized their conclusions like this:

Women devote 30 per cent of their conversation to talking to women about women, the remaining 70 per cent is devoted to men, music and weather in that order.

Men's conversations were 25 per cent about music, 4 per cent about weather, and the rest about money and women, in that order.

LIFE EXPECTANCY LOW

A German prison is not a place for insurance agents peddling life insurance, according to Eric Jansson, a Swedish sailor who returned home today after serving seventeen months of a four-year prison sentence for passing out two copies of a radical newspaper. All inmates, Jansson declared, must pay advance installments on their coffins.

SEEK FORMATION OF JEWISH LEGION

New York (WNS) — Immediate establishment of a Jewish legion in Palestine to defend the Jewish community and sharp criticism of the Jewish Agency for its alleged failure to allot immigration certificates to chalutzim affiliated with the Brith Trumpeldor were voiced in resolutions adopted at the third annual conference of the Zionist Revisionist Organization of America.

The American section of Brith Trumpeldor, meeting simultaneously, moved to launch a campaign against Communism among Jewish youth and to attract them to Zionism.

The Jewish Dietary Laws

By RABBI J. WERNER

The Jewish Dietary Laws occupy a foremost place in the religion of Israel. They have accompanied Israel in all his wanderings and struggles and can be traced back to hoar antiquity. Their origin is to be found in the Bible and their full meaning and significance in the Talmud and Our Law-Books. Like all the other Biblical Ordinances they are regarded as divinely ordained.

The faithful and observant Jew therefore never questioned their wisdom and complied with them willingly and gladly. He accepted them as the standard of his life, and considered them a badge of honor and glory, proclaiming him a son of the Chosen People, a member of a Holy Nation of Priests, and differentiating him sharply from all other peoples.

The annals of Israel tell no story of imperial pomp and military conquest. It is a poor history judged by the standards of the nations who built up vast empires and made the world ring with their fame. But they tell thrilling stories of men suffering for ideals, of people sacrificing themselves for God's principles, of heroes undergoing hunger, starvation and fiendish agonies for keeping their bodies clean and their souls pure.

Daniel, Chanania, Mishael and Azaria dare refuse to defile themselves with the animal food provided for them by the king of Babylon and prefer to live on pulse. Queen Esther similarly refuses the dainties of the king of Persia and subsists on lentils. Abravanel refuses to partake of wine of King Ferdinand and many a Jew in all generations chooses starvation and suffering rather than let anybody force a piece of Treifa, meat through his teeth. The Maccabees revolt when Antiochus attempts to force upon them the violation of the dietary and a few other laws.

And if the Jew is still living, if his brains are still functioning, it is mainly due to his unflinching devotion to these food laws, to his uncompromising observance of these so-called kitchen laws. For these laws have served many an ideal purpose in the life and history of our people.

They have served in teaching Israel self-control, in training him in self mastery, in habituating him to temper and curb his sensual cravings and desires and to subjugate his own will before the will of the Most High. They have thus been instrumental in strengthening, ennobling and refining his character, and as long as self-restraint and self-conquest is a virtue, so long will these laws be worth preserving and obedience to them be a mark of nobility.

Daniel Frohman Reminisces

Dean of American Theatre Describes the Beginning of His Career

By DANIEL FROHMAN

From this first job as advance agent for a traveling minstrel, I moved ahead until finally I became business manager for a New York theatre. The first theatre I was connected with was the old Madison Square Theatre at West 24th Street. "Hazel Kirke," my first production there, made a record run of 486 nights—the longest of any play up to that time.

BUILT THEATRE

Some time later I founded and organized the famous Lyceum Theatre Stock Company at 23rd and 4th Avenue. After a few years, when the old Lyceum was to be torn down, I took over Augustin Daly's theatre. After that my brother Charles and I built the present Lyceum on 45th Street, where I have been producing plays ever since.

RELIGION AND TOLERANCE

For many years now I have been the president of the Actor's Fund of America, of which position I am very proud. It is an organization that extends help and financial aid to all old and indigent actors, regardless of their religious beliefs and creeds. It is that which makes me proud to be at the head of it. For although I have often been active as a Jew in various societies and charities, I have never allowed myself to be affected by a spirit of intolerance towards any other religion. I believe in all religions that can be of moral and spiritual help to their followers. To my way of thinking, a man needs only tolerance and understanding to make him good—either as Jew or Christian.

NO RACIAL DIFFICULTIES

In my experience in the theatre I have never come across a spirit of intolerance or prejudice directed at me—or at any other—because I am a Jew. The theatre is perhaps one of the broadest and most universal of all the professions. A man need only be a good actor and a good friend to be accepted into the brotherhood of the stage. What his background is no one knows or cares.

RELATES EXPERIENCE

Several years ago I had one of my very few experiences with anti-Semitism. A dear friend of mine wanted to become a member of the very exclusive and wealthy Lido Country Club. While she was up for membership, she invited me out there one day for dinner. As we were about to start the meal, the head waiter came up and asked her to step into the director's office. The director very politely asked her if she was a relative of Mr. Frohman's. She told him she was not. He then proceeded to explain that they did not wish to have Jews at the Club, and would we please dine elsewhere. Indignant, the lady left his office and the two of us went to the famous old "Feltner's," which was not far away.

There, much to her surprise, I was introduced to the people present and enthusiastically greeted. My friend was intrigued with the warmth and friendliness of the other guests, and made up her mind to join a club such as this, rather than the snooty Lido. I couldn't resist the temptation to write a note to the manager of the Club, in which I told him: "I am glad Christ and St. Peter were not along with me. For Christ was a Jew and you should have been forced to put him out. If you remember, St. Peter's background was also Jewish. It would have been most embarrassing for you." I never received a reply.

KOSHER INCIDENCE

Then there was another time when I had just the opposite sort of experience. Some friends of mine had been up to my studio in the Lyceum and given a party. They had brought me a lot of pot cheese, which I am very fond of. There was some pot cheese left over, so I wrapped it up and took it down with me when I went for my dinner. I always ate in a little Hungarian-Jewish restaurant, where I was well known. I would occasionally bring in my own food and have them prepare it for me as I did no cooking in my studio.

Well, I ordered some chopped chicken liver and set out my pot cheese on an extra plate. No sooner did I do this than an irate owner came up, threw the cheese onto a newspaper, smashed the plate, then threw the knife after the cheese. I had forgotten that this was a Kosher restaurant!

OLD COLONY BANK HOLDS MEETING

Gain in Resources for Year Reported

"Despite all the confusing elements that the country and world had to contend with, the year 1936 was one of general business recovery," Edward W. Weeks, president of Old Colony Co-operative Bank told shareholders at the annual meeting held last week.

"The Old Colony Co-operative Bank had its full share of this recovery," Mr. Weeks further said. "The total gross income for the year was $1,341,964 as compared with $1,207,399 during the previous year.

"After providing for payment of all dividends and operating expenses, we had excess earnings of $131,068.

"Part of the excess earnings was used to write off all premiums paid for purchase of bonds. We also wrote down the value of our banking house properties, as well as adding a little over $9000 to undivided profits.

"Total resources for the year ending December 31, 1936, were $22,630,108, an increase of $1,475,273 for the year."

Mr. Weeks expressed the hope that shareholders would visit the new branches opened during the past year.

In concluding his report, Mr. Weeks compared the financial statements of seven years ago, at the start of the depression, and the statements of today showing the continued progress of the institution.

Directors and officers were re-elected for the ensuing year.

REHEARSALS FOR MINSTREL BEGIN

A promising assemblage of talent was present at the opening of the Minstrel to be held March 29 under the auspices of the Men's Club of Temple Beth Israel. This year's affair, as last year, is under the direction of Tom Mulgrew who introduced a completely novel idea to the realm of Minstrelsy which met with enthusiastic reception.

Rehearsals are held every Thursday and Monday in the lower vestry of the Temple on Niagara street. There are several openings in the chorus for young men and women as well as opportunities for specialty numbers. Participation is open to all and those who would like to participate either in the chorus, as end men, or with specialties are requested to report to the Temple on Monday night at 8:30, the date of the next rehearsal.

Goldwyn Raps Bill Against Alien Stars

Hollywood—A bill intended to keep America safe from foreign ham actors was called "ridiculous" by Samuel Goldwyn.

He declared that foreign governments are subsidizing their own film industries by placing stringent quota laws against American-made pictures.

"Now," he said, "this Dickstein bill would add an American menace to American-made films.

"The advent of foreign talent into Hollywood has been one of the biggest boons toward building up the American film industry. We must not forget that American motion pictures have great markets in every other part of the world."

A bridge set will be given away to the holder of the lucky ticket, to be drawn on June 1.

Plans were made to send a delegation of ten members to a special meeting of the Loyal Family Circle, Inc., of New York, which is to be held on March 7. The
