Palestine Appeal

There is but one answer that can be given to the solicitors, when they approach the Jewish citizens of Rhode Island for their contributions to the United Palestine Appeal.

We can best express this by quoting from Dr. Chaim Weizmann's message, concerning the importance of this annual drive. "Response to the United Palestine Appeal '5" said Dr. Weizman, "represents the concrete contribution which American can make toward the consolidation of the Jewish National structure in Palestine.

"Our brethren there are now the vanguard. They are capable of holding their position, only if they are supported from the rear, and only if we in the Diaspora provide them with the necessary moral and material help on which they can rely.

"I know that our American friends will follow through their expressions of solidarity by responding generously to the United Palestine Appeal."

5-Star Act

Although members were reluctant, to discuss the affair, a noble deed was uncovered this week.

A member of the Ladies Union League for Consumptive was notified recently that a sixteen-year-old girl required immediate attention, if her life was to be saved.

Although the nationality of this young girl seemingly placed her out of the jurisdiction of the organization, the members unanimously voted that it was their duty, as Americans, to see to it that the case be given the same attention as others they had supported.

Such an act in the face of present-day cruelty and intolerance towards our fellow man, deserves commendation. The Union League has set a splendid example.

Boycott Overtones

A discord is detected in the indignant chorus of protests against Nazi Germany's and Fascist Italy's attacks on Jewish citizens. From this disapproval of their anti-Semitic creeds, has come a hatred of all things associated with the country — even to their countrymen.

From boycott of German and Italian goods, we now have demands that the German and Italian people be boycotted. We hear daily of incidents of Jews here in Providence refusing to patronize German and Italian Stores. German labor in many instances has not been acceptable.

Can anything be more unjust? Germans and Italians in this country by no means are all supporters of their fatherland's decrees. Their organizations and leaders have decried Mussolini's and Hitler's attempts to ghettoize the Jews. Even the Jews themselves fleeing from intolerance insist that the majority of Germans and Italians would like to be rid of the Barbaric regime which has unsettled economic conditions and earned for them the ridicule and scorn of the entire civilized world.

The attitude of many Germans is reflected in the statement of the editor of the "Cincinnati Freie Press," — German-language newspaper, who was recently named to receive the Second-Class Nazi Eagle award. He refused to accept the citation, saying "I am not interested in any country except the United States. I want our citizens to know that our policy

Form R. I. Committee to Aid Nazi Oppressed Minorities

Charter Members

U. S. Senator Theodore Francis Green this week was named a charter member of a new organization to combat anti-Semitism in the United States, it was announced in New York City. The Provisional Council against Anti-Semitism with 52 charter members, proposes to analyze anti-Semitism and publicize its findings through forums and other channels.

The Rhode Island Committee for Relief of Oppressed Minorities in Germany, the first organization of its kind in the nation, will formally launch its campaign, to raise money "for the immediate and urgent needs of Jewish, Protestant and Catholic groups in the Reich, who are the victims of severe persecution by the State," with a mass meeting, to be held in the Metropolitan Theatre on Sunday afternoon, December 11. The goal has been set at $150,000 in the State-wide appeal for funds addressed to all elements of the population. Offices have been opened by the committee in the Lederer Building, 139 Mathewson street.

Roused by "the Nazi policy of direct governmental persecution of so-called non-Aryans," the committee has already arranged to transfer with the greatest dispatch all money obtained to the National Conferences of Jews and Christians for allotment to several relief agencies now operating in Germany.

Rev. Earl H. Tomlin, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, is general chairman of the committee; Joseph H. Gainer, co-chairman of the Rhode Island Seminar of Human Relationships, treasurer; R. Franklin Weller, field representative of the Providence (Continued on page 2, Col. 5)

British Polls Reveals Nazis Lose Good Will

LONDON. — The London News Chronicle published this week a survey of the British Institute of Public Opinion, which included the following questions and answers:—

Is Germany's persecution of the Jews an obstacle to good understanding between Britain and Germany? Seventy-three per cent answered Yes and 15 per cent No. Twelve per cent offered no opinion.

Would you favor a new grouping of all parties led by Anthony Eden? Forty per cent answered Yes, 39 per cent No and 21 per cent refrained from voting.

Are you satisfied with Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain? Forty-nine per cent voted Yes, 40 per cent No and 11 per cent refrained from expressing an opinion.

RIOT ENDS MEETING

CHICAGO. — The action of 2,000 anti-Fascists in trying to carry an American flag into a hall where 1,000 members of the German-American Bund were meeting precipitated a riot that required 150 police to quell. The invaders were halted at the entrance to the hall and fist fights ensued. Police forced the flag-bearers to retreat.

U. S. Jews in Germany Face Retaliation for Boycott Here

BERLIN.— American Jews may be forbidden to reopen their shops in retaliation for anti-German agitation in the United States informed quarters said this week.

The Nazi Government has never replied to the American note which requested a definition of its attitude toward American Jews in business in Germany. The note was based on the principle of equal treatment of all Americans, regardless of race.

Informed observers believe that restrictions against American Jews would result if any high United States official advocated a tightening of the boycott on German goods in America.

Except for reports of occasional arrests, the anti-Semitic campaign for the moment at least, has become a matter of steady liquidation of Jewish enterprises and real estate and a gradual tightening of social restrictions.

Erika Mann Says Nazi Youth Disgusted

ATLANTIC CITY. — Books are neglected in German schools while even ten-year-old children are given rigorous military drills, according to Miss Erika Mann, daughter of Thomas Mann, writer and teacher, in an address entitled "Children in Lock-Step."

"Youth in the universities, who yesterday were enthusiastic members of Hitler youth organizations, are disgusted and disillusioned," she said. "They even protest. Storm leaders and Nazi great men, disguised as professors, preach before empty seats."

Jews Make Gains in Polish Election

WARSAW. — The government claimed a major victory this week in Parliamentary elections on the basis of a huge vote among the nation's 34,000,000 persons.

A total of 208 Deputies was elected. The national minorities, as in earlier elections, returned their own candidates. The Ukrainians obtained fourteen seats as

Charge Ambassador Kennedy Obstructed Refugee Relief

NEW YORK. — That Joseph P. Kennedy American Ambassador to England, is not the defender of the German Jews which he purports to be is the charge made in the current issue of The Nation.

They also charged is that he is abetting the pro-Nazi British program.

A responsible and well informed London correspondent, anonymous from necessity, accuses that Ambassador Kennedy entirely disregarded efforts of George Rublee, director of the International Committee on Refugees, to spur action. According to the Dispatch, Kennedy told Rublee that he "was unwilling to endanger" other and undisclosed causes "in which he was interested and which he deemed more essential."

The Nation's correspondent relates that Ambassador Kennedy refused to act until after "early blegram which Mr. Roosevelt dispatched to Mr. Kennedy for delivery to Mr. Chamberlain."

"It will seem a pity," the correspondent continues, "that Mr. Kennedy was prevailed upon to help close the barn door only after the Nazi runaway horse had bolted and left in its path a broad sweep of ruin and anguish."

The ambassador's failure to act in the crisis is a further indication, The Nation's correspondent charges, of his activities aimed at subordination of American to British foreign policy. Mr. Chamberlain himself has consistently opposed letting the refugees impair an improvement in Anglo-German relations," the dispatch concludes. "And Ambassador Kennedy, in his eight and a half months in London, has time and again demonstrated convincingly his slightly grim determination to coll-

To Discuss British Colonization Plans Dinner Meeting Sun. at Narra.

Screwballs Warn Hitler of Laughter

After turkey sandwiches had been served and an accordion player had furnished the music, the gathering dispatched a cablegram to Adolf Hitler in Berlin. It read:—

AT THE THEATRES

MAJESTIC

A stirring story of the seas is "Submarine Patrol," with Richard Greene and Nancy Kelly, the feature this week at the Majestic Theatre. It tells of the finest ship that ever saw action, fighting angry seas, to do a task she was never meant to do. And in the whirling waters, her civilian crew of odds and ends learns what it takes to be men. Others in the cast are Preston Foster, George Bancroft, Slim Sumnerville and John Carradine. The second picture at the Majestic is "Road Demon," with Henry Arthur and Joan Valerie.

FAYS

"Hard To Get," starring Olivia DeHavilland and Dick Powell, is the screen attraction at Fays. The picture keeps up a merry pace, with Charles Winninger, Allen Jenkins and Bonita Granville completing the cast. On Fay's stage is America's outstanding cowboy sextet and favorites of radio, stage and screen, Texas Jim Lewis and his Lone Star Cowboys. It's an interesting show for young and old.

ALBEE

The RKO Albee Theatre has two revivals on its screen this week. "Star of Midnight," with William Powell and Ginger Rogers, tells of the life of an actress, with a clever mystery theme woven through the film. William Powell is suave as always. The second feature is "The Lost Patrol," with Victor McLaglen and Boris Karloff. It's about twelve men lost to the word, lost to themselves and lost to the women they love. Walt Disney's "Ferdinand, the Bull," has been held over for a second week.

Nazis Insist Jews Leave Penniless

Wrecks Work of Refugee Board

BERLIN. — The Evian refugee conference's projects to facilitate the emigration of German Jews with at least part of their possessions, which would enable them to make a new start in a new land, appeared this week to have been definitely wrecked by the new German policy of "liquidating" the Jewish question by the Germans' own methods.

But a deeper reason for this attitude is frankly explained today by the Essener National Zeitung, Field Marshall Hermann Goering's mouthpiece, which notifies the world that henceforth Germany, like the Pharaohs, will no permit any part of the Jewish possessions to leave the country.

The government, it is understood, is perfectly willing to negotiate for the emigration of Jews from Germany without their possessions with any authority or any country willing to accept them as penniless refugees, but on no other terms.

A FOOL IN LOVE

You're silly, insane, and you're quite unintelligent
You're probably a case of arrested development
You're stupid and flighty — the type I despise
But reason departs when I look in your eyes!

You're childish and petty — you've a youngster's mentality

But dumb as you are, you've a certain morality
And I wonder in vain that I love you — and then
I look at your face and I'm helpless again!

Those R. I. Reds

By BASS K. ATWOOD

Reprinted by permission of the publishers of Connecticut Nutmeg

The man sold them to me as Rhode Island Reds, but gravely do I suspect that they are Trotskyites. At any rate sabotage goes on in the hen house from which there has come not a single egg. Tomorrow I shall address all thirteen pullets and deliver my ultimatum — "Lay or get liquidated."

For Study Purposes

In fairness to the fowl I must admit that I gathered them for study and not for stewing. It has been my purpose to conduct an investigation into the problem of whether the seeds of collectivism can be identified among the lower orders of animal life. And a chicken, even with his head on, ranks well down the ladder of civilization, Ancient Rome was saved by geese but until recently no empire owed anything in particular to the strident crowing of a rooster.

Are They Politically Minded?

At the moment I am presenting nothing more than a few scattered and preliminary notes. I am not yet prepared to decide whether my Rhode Island Reds are Marxists or Social Democrats. Are they communistically inclined? As far as the research has preceded the answer is "Yes" and "No" The spirit of cooperation is evident only after sundown when the birds huddle together sharing their bodily heat. And when winter comes I am told that they will increasingly be actuated by the principle of to each according to his needs and from each according to his ability.

Cut-Throat Competition

At feeding time an ugly spirit of cutthroat competition develops. My experiments have been made with bran, some sort of seed guaranteed to make canaries sing, and bread crumbs. I have been using one of the standard white flour loaves which has been widely publicized. According to billboards along our beautiful New England highways children cry for this particular brand of bread. The hens turn up their noses .

It is true, to be sure, that I have been asking them to live by bread alone without benefit of gravy or butter or crushed shrimp, spread But this serves to prove the point which I had hoped would not come up. Consumers' cooperation is rejected by the Rhode Island Reds. They want special service. Not only are they devoted to indolence but also to laissez faire. Thus if I lay the bread crumbs in the very center of the pullets' circle they disdain the nourishment. But just let me throw a pellet into a far corner of the run and the nearest hen will make after it as if she were a forward pass receiver eager to die for dear old Yale in the last ten seconds of the football game.

Not only will the offensive player seize upon the hunk of un-buttered bread but she will strut about holding it aloft to taunt her comrades. Her joy is not a star-shy diet but in the diadem of private ownership. And the lucky bird will mince around seeming to say, "Look what I've got that the rest of you haven't got."

It is all very sad. I hate to see Rhode Island Reds behaving just like the economic royalists of Newport. In fact I am not going to stand for it. There must and will be democracy throughout the roost. These birds are suffering from delusions of grandeur. They seem to think that they are nightingales. And they are not. In time these russet reactionaries must learn the lesson that one and all they are the children of the melting pot.

Local German Groups Denounce Nazi 'Acts'

Say German People Innocent

A "public declaration" denouncing persecution of the Jews in Germany, was made last Saturday night by the Central Union of German Societies of Rhode Island, through its secretary, Rudolf Kiliansky.

"This barbarity," the statement said, "has damaged the good name and reputation of Germans in all parts of the world who do not approve of the frightful measures of vengeance. Therefore, the German Central Union of Rhode Island, incorporated under the laws of our State, with which all German societies in Rhode Island are affiliated, at a meeting on Nov. 17 condemned and deplored these wanton and gruesome acts committed by certain groups in Germany with the connivance and approval of the German government."

The declaration further stated that these acts "are a stigma and a moral blemish of the good name of a majority of the German people, who do not approve of them either, insofar as they contradict the international sense of justice usually subscribed to and observed by all civilized nations and governments."

An "authorized committee," comprising Martin Wendl, Herman Bonat and Bruno Haupt, had signed the statement.

Organization History

Mr. Levy, who writes as active president and will assume the newly created office of honorary president, has been president of the Society since its beginning and was its founder in 1929. The Society was organized to take over the work which had been carried on previously for nearly a century by Ladies Montefiore Hebrew Benevolent Association and for more than a quarter of a century by South Providence Ladies Aid Society. The Society was organized at the request of Providence Community Fund Inc., in order to bring to the work of these old societies modern social work practice including administration by trained social workers. Since that time and since the establishment of the Francis W. Carpenter Memorial Building, the headquarters of the Society have been at 100 North Main Street, in the building of the Providence Community Fund.

Refugee Problem

In addition to detailed care and attention to the needs of several hundred local families annually who have been required to seek its aid during the depression, for several years the Society has had to devote much effort to the problems arising out of the German refugee situation, a task taxing its resources almost beyond capacity. This task is in process of being taken over by a local co-ordinating committee.

Mr. Temkin, the nominee for president, has served the Society for many years as its counsel, chairman of its very active case committee, which acted in an advisory capacity in respect to the care of families, and is a member of its Executive Committee. He has had a thorough training in the tasks of Jewish Family Welfare Society and is regarded, according to the nominating committee, as being eminently capable of becoming its president.

Goldman to Discuss Colonization Plans

(Continued from page 1, Col. 5) Goldman will be most unusually equipped to present an authoritative survey of the immigration possibilities in Palestine as contrasted with the limited colonization opportunities in other parts of the world.

Dr. Goldman's visit here coincides with the launching throughout the United States of an emergency campaign for German Jewish settlement in Palestine, under the auspices of the United Palestine Appeal, which is headed by Dr. Abba Hillel Silver of Cleveland who is national chairman, and Dr. Stephen S. Wise of New York who is chairman of the executive committee.

The dinner on Sunday evening will mark the official opening of the campaign the Jewish community of Providence to raise a maximum sum for the settlement in Palestine of homeless and oppressed Jews from Germany, Austria, Poland, Czechoslovakia and other lands.

The local campaign is being conducted under the leadership of the following officers: Benjamin N. Kane, chairman; Saul Abrams, chairman of special gifts committee; Samuel M. Magid, treasurer. These officers are assisted by Dr. Ilie Berger, director, and Archibald Silverman, honorary chairman.

In view of the fact that many years of preparations and vast expenditures of money would be required before any undeveloped areas in Africa or South America could be made ready for refugee settlement, American Jewry is now determined to take full advantage of the unique possibilities for mass settlement in Palestine through widespread financial support of the United Palestine Emergency Campaign.

Palestine Only Solution, Say Drive Leaders

Initial Gifts Head Says Palestine Quick Solution for Refugees

"Palestine is the only country in which a quick solution for the Jewish Refugee problem can be found," Saul Abrams, chairman of the Initial Gifts Committee for the United Palestine Appeal, said this week.

"Immediate rescue is essential. The only country that can absorb a large number of refugees at the present time is Palestine. We do not appeal for ourselves, but for the millions of unfortunate Jews who are without means of even daily sustenance. They are the ones that require immediate succor. In order to grapple with this emergency situation, we need the support of every Jew in Rhode Island. Your answer can be given in one material way. When you are approached by a solicitor, given as much as you can."

Drive Chief Confident All Will Do Duty

"It is with indescribable feeling that I appeal, as chairman of the United Palestine Appeal drive in Rhode Island, to our fellow Jews to aid this splendid and necessary cause, said Benjamin M. Kane in a statement this week.

"Although it is difficult for us to conceive that there does exist in this day and age any person or group of persons whose barbaric tendencies have plunged hundreds of thousands into depths of human degradation, sympathy alone will not ameliorate the position of the persecuted Jew. Each one of us should recognize the responsibility to contribute as much as he can to further the work of Palestine.

"I feel certain that the Jewish residents of Rhode Island will get behind the drive when it opens this coming week-end, and help reach the goal that has been set."

Co-operation Will Speed Refugee Work Declares Silverman

"The unspeakable brutality of Nazi Germany has aroused the entire world," Archibald Silverman, honorary chairman of the United Palestine Appeal stated this week. "It is now the duty of the Jews to help solve this terrible emergency.

"Although the problem is a gigantic one, much can be done through established agencies to relieve the misery and suffering of our fellow Jews. Organized groups that have been dealing with this problem for twenty years, are more qualified to cope with the situation if they have the support of Jewry.

"The United Palestine Appeal is organized for this fine work, and deserves to be supported more so during these crucial days. During the coming weeks, the U. P. A., in its drive here, will ask your support. It is the duty of Rhode Island Jewry to pledge their aid and give as much as they can to help the persecuted, the weak, and the unfortunate.

Grant Urges All to Help Zionist Drive

Heartbroken and nerve shattered, - pillaged and robbed, - confiscated and desecrated, - massacred and harrassed, - the plight of the Jew in Europe presents a nightmare, the horrible specter of which must shock and grieve and resolve us to come to their immediate assistance! Max Grant Zionist leader declared today.

Lives there a Jew in this community who cannot contribute something toward their relief?

Dare there live a Jew in this community who will not contribute his most toward their relief?

By our contributions to the Palestinian drive which commences here on Sunday, December 4th, let us all prove ourselves worthy of the happy circumstance which has placed us over here instead of over there!

Free Men Must Protect Liberty of Others, Says Magid

The shadow of recent events has become even darker because of the utter helplessness within Germany and the apparent inability of the free people left of the world to make any impact on German authorities, Samuel Magid, treasurer, of the U. P. A. drive stated today.

Relief for refugees from lands of persecution can best take place, Mr. Magid said, in the rebuilding of Palestine where man has the right to chose his own religion, occupation, residence and way of living. Free men best protect their own liberty by defending the liberty of others.

It is readily seen therefore, that in order that the possibilities created for absorbing stricken refugees may be utilized to the utmost, it is necessary for Rhode Island Jewry to contribute every possible penny to the United Palestine Drive. The persecuted Jews of the world earnestly require your support.

Dr. Weizman says we have place in Palestine immediately for 100,000 German refugees and 10,000 German children. But, we must supply the money. Our duty is clear.

GIVE, GIVE, GIVE UNTIL IT HURTS.
