Sees Holyland Peace By Federal System

Sovereign State Plan Outlined

New York—The way to a restoration of peace and prosperity in Palestine is the creation of a United States of Palestine to be made up of Arab, Jewish and English states to be linked in a federal system of government under the presidency of a British high commissioner, it was declared by Bernard Rosenblatt, Zionist leader, who came back to America from a long stay in Palestine to win support here for his plan.

According to this plan the three states would be sovereign and have their own territorial boundaries and autonomous local governments, but the whole country would have a single currency, a unified defense system, a single foreign policy.

Under such an arrangement, Rosenblatt said, the Jewish state would have complete freedom to determine such matters as immigration. A federal senate in which all three states would have equal representation would be the national legislature.

Congress to Observe Twentieth Anniversary

New York—The American Jewish Congress, founded by the Louis D. Brandeis, Julian W. Mack, Dr. Stephen Wise, Professor Felix Frankfurter, Louis Lipsky, among others, will mark the Twentieth Anniversary of its establishment on Sunday, June 12, with a dinner to take place at the Hotel Commodore.

It is expected that more than two thousand persons, representing every walk of life, will attend. The function, which will review twenty years of the defense of Jewish rights, will also serve as a rallying point or a renewed effort to protect the Jewish status now gravely jeopardized in so many sections of the world.

Nazi Boycott Show Planned for Fair

New York—Erection of a pavilion at the World's Fair for the display of American merchandise which might be substituted for goods made in Germany was voted by the women's division of the Joint Boycott Council of the American Jewish Congress and the Jewish Labor Committee.

Members of the division's executive committee, meeting in the Hotel Paramount, also voted to extend the boycott against German goods to products imported from Austria.

Seven Jews Injured in Clash with Nazis

Vienna—What is believed to be the first instance of Jewish resistance to Nazi persecution in the Third Reich occurred in the Wohlmutgasse district of Vienna when seven Jews were injured in a clash with uniformed Nazi storm troopers. Fighting grew out of the resistance of Jewish merchants who refused to permit the storm troopers to enter their stores for an investigation.

J. D. C. Receives $100,000 Bequest To Aid Refugees

New York—A bequest of $100,000 to aid refugees and immigrants coming from Germany, which was made from a hospital bed at midnight by Jacob Fox, president of the Owners and Tenants Electric Co., shortly before his death, was presented to the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee and the National Coordinating Committee for Aid to Refugees and Immigrants Coming from Germany.

Catholic Organ Assails Einstein; Asks Deportation of Scientist

New York: Deportation of Prof. Albert Einstein to Germany is proposed in the current issue of the Brooklyn Tablet, official publication of the Roman Catholic diocese of Brooklyn, in an article in which the managing editor calls on the National Conference of Jews and Christians and the various interfaith and brotherhood movements to "take up effective steps against the Gersons, Isaacs, Rabbi Stephen Wises, Einsteins, etc., etc."

Precipitated by Einstein's action in urging the United States government to repeal its embargo on arms shipments to Spain, the outburst in the Tablet said it was "impertinent and arrogant" for Einstein to tell "our government how to run its business" after he had been "given sanctuary in this land" at "a time of personal peril," and added that "what is worse is to have him endorsing a move to shoot down and continue the persecution of Christians in Spain."

The paper declared that "Einstein is a type. He seems to think that to his kind belongs the world, and the rest are put on it merely to be trampled over."

Wouldn't you think as long as this country took Einstein in out of the storm, he would at least wait a few years before dictating to the government. The Einsteins think every government, every country is particularly theirs, that it is to be run for their benefit and the devil with the rest."

Organizations Pledge Support to Congress

Conference Held At Crown Hotel

BULLETIN

New York—Bowling to widespread criticism, the American Jewish Congress has altered the form of its June plebiscite.

According to decision reached the ballot will contain but one question:

"Do you favor a union of all American Jewish groups engaged in safeguarding the equal rights of Jews, which shall undertake to create for defense of such rights, a single, all-inclusive agency organized on a democratic, representative basis, in accordance with American ideals."

Over 300 guests, representing virtually every Jewish organization in Providence and vicinity, pledged support to the American Jewish Congress at a conference held at the Crown Hotel last Monday night.

Judge Nathan D. Perlman of New York, guest speaker, in telling of his own personal experiences as a member of Congress and in his private practice as an attorney, reminded the Jews that because of the lack of unity and cohesion in their ranks, they are an easy target for the vicious attacks of anti-Semitism here in this country.

Brandeis' Daughter Boomed for Judgeship

New York—Legal and political circles in Manhattan, the Bronx and the lower Hudson River counties, comprising the Southern New York Federal District, are awaiting anxiously today President Roosevelt's signing of the Judicial bill to learn whether Miss Susan Brandeis, daughter of Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Brandeis, will be the first woman to be named a federal judge for this district.

Miss Brandeis' friends are exerting every effort in her behalf and they consider her chances of becoming a member of the judiciary excellent.

Italy Rebuffs Hitler's Proposal Against Jews

Rome—Nazi efforts to make anti-Semitism an important feature of the Rome-Berlin axis were rebuffed by Italy during Hitler's recent visit to Mussolini. During Hitler's stay it was widely reported that joint propaganda activities by the Nazi Party and the Fascist Party were discussed but the question of anti-Semitism created an insuperable snag. It is now disclosed that Il Duce gave Hitler a blunt refusal on the Jewish question by permitting the Regime Fascista, organ of the Fascist Party, to publish an article declaring that anti-Semitism is a good thing for Nazis in Germany but not for Italians and that since "there is no Jewish danger in Italy there is no place for anti-Semitism."

Camp Emoh, Boys' Camp, Lists Activities, Directors for Season

Judging from the number of applications already received, Camp Emoh, situated on the shores of beautiful Lake Bunganut at Alfred, Maine, expects a banner summer for its ninth season as a non-profit Jewish boys' camp.

The camp is under the direction of Alan S. Cohen, A. B., M. S., a teacher in the Cambridge High and Latin School. A graduate of Harvard College, Mr. Cohen was active in basketball, tennis, track, glee club, and fraternal affairs. A member of the teaching profession, he is keenly aware of the character-building, cultural and physical needs of the growing boy. He will be assisted by his wife, Minna Askowith Cohen, a Radcliffe graduate, whose experience as a children's librarian and a camp counselor, makes her a valuable asset.

Mindful of the welfare of the campers, Mr. Cohen has surrounded himself with a staff of mature and experienced counselors. A counselor to each group of five campers insures individual care.

In arranging a program at Emoh,

Reich Jews Change Places With German Americans Via An Agency

New York—With the approval of the Hitler government, German-born Americans who yearn for the Nazi Reich are exchanging their properties and residences with German Jews who want to come to the United States, it was learned this week.

A Nazi-approved agency, Herman Graen & Company, operate their properties and residences with German Jews, with whom it is correlating some 2,300 applications from Germans with 400 from American "Rueckwanderers" ("people who want to go back").

By this exchange plan the Reich-conscious American gets from three to five times the amount he would receive for his property if forced to sell at the present depressed real estate market, Mr. Graen said this week.

The exchanges are made through a Jewish organization recognized by the German government, said Mr. Graen, "a very fine organization, but better not to tell you the name."

One beneficiary of an exchange is Frederick Kruse, 73, formerly a well-to-do dry goods merchant in Portland, Ore., who is now on his way to Germany for permanent residence.

Mr. Kruse lived in this country forty-eight years, but he told a reporter before sailing, he "could not stand this country any more; there are too many Jews." He did not work through the Graen agency but advertised in a German newspaper for an exchange while visiting there two years ago. The next day 420 replies arrived.

As a result he has exchanged his Portland property, for which he could not get $40,000 on the market, for 200,000 marks, worth $89,000 at the present legal rate, waiting for him in a German bank. The marks belong to a Jewish physician who came to New York, where he is now studying for his State medical board exams. The physician gets the Portland property, which he hopes will pay sufficient income to keep him going until his practice is established.

Most of the exchanges are handled by the Graen company, which must get the approval first of the German Consulate and then a permit from a branch of the Reichsbank. American offers are obtained through German language newspapers and Vereins throughout the country, according to Mr. Graen, who has run a brokerage office, handling transfers of money to and from Germany.

Need of Land for Colonies is Stressed by Pioneer Speaker

With the partition commission now in Palestine to determine the limits of the Jewish State, it is imperative that the link of colonies be extended, Mrs. Israel Goldstein, wife of Rabbi Goldstein, national chairman of the Jewish National Fund, told members of the Women Pioneer's at their annual donor luncheon last Sunday night in the Narragansett Hotel.

"If you will trace the recommendation of the first commission for the boundaries of the Jewish State," Mrs. Goldstein said, "you will notice that it follows the outline of Jewish Colonies in Palestine. By only the purchase of more and more land for colonies can the possible Jewish State be enlarged."

Speed is essential, Mrs. Goldstein continued. "We must out-strip our persecutors."

She contrasted "hopeful" reactions of the Jews in the National Homeland with those Jews, who, trapped in Austria by Hitler force, are turning despairingly to suicide as their only way out.

She warned that Germany is bombarding the United States with Nazi propaganda, and mentioned recent riots in the Yorkville section of New York as evidence that Nazis are active in this country.

Mrs. Goldstein said that since the rise of Hitler, 71 per cent. of all European Jewish emigration has been absorbed by Palestine.

Mrs. Goldstein was introduced by Mrs. Barnet Silverman, toastmistress. Mrs. Harry Schleifer was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Henry Lazarus and Mrs. Louis Port, co-chairmen. Others who spoke included Mrs. Altar Boyman, Pioneer president; Max Berman, Worker's Alliance president; and Altar Boyman, president of the Poale Zion.

Impotence at Geneva

The League of Nations as an instrument for maintaining peace has long since been discredited but there was still some hope that it could prove useful in dealing with such humanitarian matters as aid to refugees or in protecting the rights of minorities.

The recent meeting of the League Council proved that even this hope was vain. The Council did agree to coordinate the High Commission for German Refugees with the Nansen Passport Bureau but it failed to act on a proposal to give the High Commission authority to extend its protection to refugees from Austria.

It hailed President Roosevelt's plan for inter-governmental aid to refugees and offered its cooperation, probably in the hope that the international committee set up at America's suggestion may relieve Geneva even of responsibility for dealing with the refugee problem.

With regard to the minorities problem the Council was even more impotent. Protests against the treatment of Jews in Austria, Rumania and Hungary, all of which are bound by minority treaties, were shelved. When the League cannot function even on such issues, it is no exaggeration to say that the League has lost its power to carry out the obligations it has assumed.

Wolf in Sheep Clothing

An editorial in the Boston American calls attention to the exclusion from this country of William Gallacher as "fraternal delegate" to the Congress of the American Communist Party which opens on May 26.

Barred by our immigration laws, says the editorial, he should stay out. He, Gallacher, is pledged to the overthrow of governments by force and violence and has no place in our democratic house—and rightly so.

But while political bosses and newspapers are drawing a red herring across the headlines, they are ignoring the wolf in sheep clothing—FASCISM. The latter, through effective propaganda is undermining democracy wherever its agents are settled.

In cleaning house, let us not forget these fascist termites whose internal boring is more dangerous than the red scare.

Court Releases Anti-Semite To Avoid Aiding Oppression

New York—It is wiser to bear with scandal mongering, in General Sessions Judge James Wallace's opinion, than to make the criminal law an instrument of oppression.

So holding, Judge Wallace dismissed three indictments charging Robert Edward Edmondson with libeling Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins, Dean Virginia C. Gildersleeve of Barnard College and the Jewish religion.

Edmondson, who is sixty-four, was accused of circulating the alleged libels in pamphlets distributed in 1936.

"We must suffer the demagogue and the charlatan," Judge Wallace ruled in a nineteen-page decision, "in order to make certain that we do not limit or restrain the honest commentator on public affairs.

"And when one realizes how many forms of religion might consider themselves libeled and seek legal redress, were our laws so extended, and when we reflect on how our courts might, in such event, find themselves forced into the position of arbiters of religious truth, it is apparent that more would be lost than could be gained by attempting to protect the good name of a religion by an appeal to the criminal law."

Poetic Justice - Mandl's Property Taken by Nazis Whom He Helped

Vienna—Poetic justice caught up with Fritz Mandl, the Jewish-born Austrian munitions magnate and industrialist who was one of the principal financial agents of the anti-Semitic Fascist Heimwehr as well as of the Austrian Nazis, when the Nazi authorities ordered the confiscation of his personal and real property and all other assets which were once said to be worth $60,000,000.

Now 38, Mandl is the son of a Jewish iron-dealer and munitions manufacturer who embraced Catholicism shortly before the turn of

Report $15,637 at JDC Victory Dinner

A total of $15,637 raised was reported at the Victory dinner held last Wednesday night by the local district of Joint Distribution Committee.

Those who spoke congratulating workers on their fine work were Samuel Kaplan, general chairman, Archibald Silverman, Adolph Mellor and Saul Abrams. Bertram Bernhardt was chairman for the evening. Members of the stage show at Fays Theatre provided entertainment for the evening.

New York—A scroll of honor as one of the "distinguished citizens who have made significant contributions to American life," was presented to Prof. Felix Frankfurter of the Harvard Law School at the annual dinner of the National Institute of Immigrant Welfare.

Nuremberg Laws Affect Austria

Berlin—The official Reichsgesetzblatt today published a decree dated May 20 enforcing the so-called Nuremberg racial laws in former Austria.

These laws which Hitler proclaimed at the Nazi party convention at Nuremberg in September, 1935, deny Jews full citizenship rights under "protection of German blood and honor."

They forbid marriage between Jews and Germans or persons of similar blood, and, in case such marriages were contracted abroad, render them void, prohibit the engaging by Jews of Aryan domestics under forty-five years of age, and make it unlawful for Jews to fly the Nazi flag.

Severe penalties are provided for violations.

Mandl is now in Brazil where he has transferred most of his munitions interests. Not trusting his Nazi allies after the downfall of the Heimwehr a few years ago, he sold out most of his Austrian war factories and bought Brazilian munitions factories.

Suicides Increase

Meanwhile, the suicide epidemic among Jews broke out anew with the disclosure that dozens of prominent non-Aryans, including Stefan von Mueller, a baptized Jew who was formerly managing editor of the Neue Freie Presse, had taken their own lives. Other suicides were Herr Kuranda, a former member of the staff of the Wiener Tageblatt, and his father.

Scene Around Town

The kids today are clever
But they're pretty darned precocious
They think that dolls are silly
And that most toys are atrocious!

Turned her little nose up
And reached for this month's "Esquire!"

The LEDGEMONT COUNTRY CLUB opens the season Sunday with a full day program, winding up with a dinner dance... BURLEIGH GREENBERG is in charge of the festivities... The inside story on the coming gubernatorial campaign from the G. O. P. angle, places an ITALIAN of high social prestige, with a moniker preceding his surname, as running mate with BILL VANDERBILT... This week's favorite gag: She—"Before we were married, you used to call me long distance just to hear my voice."... He—"Well, now you won't let me get far enough away to use long distance."...

BITS ABOUT PERSONALITIES

The ARTHUR CARTERS have returned to this city, after a nine month honeymoon in the sunny Pacific coast state... MORT SMITH is on a holiday jaunt to Maine... The MORRIS CHUMIRS celebrated their twenty-second wedding anniversary last Saturday nite at one of the better-known nightclubs... Spotted in the party were the ILIE BERGERS, the LEWIS WATTMANS, MRS. ANNA GOLDENBERG—and a lot of other people we couldn't recognize from where we sat... The ARKIE WEINERS celebrated their paper anniversary last Sunday... Among the jells in the near future are RUTH DAVIS and PAUL GERSHMAN, PAULINE MELLER and PERRY BERNSTEIN... LAURA LEICHTER and PETE KATZMAN...

HERE AND THERE

I wonder how many suckers are falling for that new "Who's Who" racket that's being peddled around this vicinity... This classified advertisement recently appeared in a New York morning paper:—"Former Federal agent, supervisor, accountant, unusual qualifications; take any thing", and that's going the whole hog... This little ditty was submitted by Hy Cohen, who takes to writing things in his spare moments:

Hi-ho, hi-ho I'll join the C. I. O.

If I can pay my dues, with ladies' shoes

Hi-ho, hi-ho...

Then there are the seven sons of a Chinatown family in San Francisco who are named WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT MOY, JAMES JEFFERSON MOY, THEODORE ROOSEVELT MOY, ABRAHAM LINCOLN MOY, WILLIAM MCKINLEY MOY, ULYSSES SIMPSON GRANT MOY and GEORGE WASHINGTON MOY... ("Come, come, PAPA MOY; can't we have a FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT MOY, too?")...

A DIGEST OF SMALL FACTS

That liquor salesman ought to do a lot of business in and around Rhode Island, seeing as how he has such a good foundation—garment... Does anyone know the occupant of that East Side home that sports a large Swastika as decoration?... Part of the audience at "HIGH TOR" one night last week:—The MAX GRANTS... SOPHIE ELLIS and PHIL LIEBERMAN... MOLLIE WEINBERG and SELMA SLAVITT... RUTH SILERMAN and SAM PRITZKER... ITZ KORN... LINDY'S continues to be one of the best bets for getting good food—and meeting old friends... We may be in a recession, as Wall Street wails and economists moan, but recent United States Treasury figures for amusement taxes show folks are still flocking to the movies like nobody's business...

NUTSY NAZIS

The arrest of the six officials of that Nazi camp organization has been very bad medicine for the concessionaires at the camps... The attendance at the camps has fallen off by half... Pro-and anti-Nazis are engaged in a hot battle in Washington... The pros are turning the heat on SECRETARY ICKES to get him to sell helium to Germany... The antis are strengthening ICKES' hand and also taking pot shots at certain officials of the State Department for allowing the sale of munitions to Naziland... A hot series of articles exposing Nazis in America is being readied by the ASSOCIATED PRESS...

Britain May Drill For Palestine Oil

Jerusalem—A large-scale oil industry may be created in Palestine to help supply Great Britain's needs in war-time.

It is estimated that there are at least 200,000,000 tons of bituminous limestone in the lower Judean hills from which oil could be extracted to provide the nearest available supply for the United Kingdom within the British Empire in the event the pipelines from Iraq to the Mediterranean were cut during war.

The oil content of the limestone deposits is estimated to be from 5 to 25 per cent.

BOYCOTT ENDS

Jerusalem—Arab boycott of the Technical Commission on Partition now in Palestine virtually came to an end this week when a conference of leaders of the Nashashibi Party at Ramleh decided that while the party would not officially appear before the Commission, Arabs would be able to testify, in their personal capacity.

Intelligent disagreement is preferred to unintelligent agreement.

50 Congressmen Back Nazi Probe

To Demand Power For Bedrock Quiz

New York—A thorough Congressional investigation of all Nazi and Fascist organizations and propaganda in this country was forecast by Representative Sacuel Dickstein, head of a committee investigating un-American activities in general.

At least fifty members of Congress, he said, are prepared to go before the House Rules Committee to make personal pleas for appointment of a committee with more power than the present Dickstein group, and some fifty more already have lined up in support of the proposal.

He repeated his charge that $4,000,000 had been sent here from abroad to finance Fascistic propaganda and espionage.

Fish Aids Fight

In Washington, Representative Hamilton Fish and the American Civil Liberties Union, generally at odds, joined in sponsoring a bill to outlaw "private armies" such as Nazi organizations are believed to maintain.

With certain exceptions to protect veterans' groups, the bill defines a "private army" as any group of five or more persons organized for the purpose of drill or parade with dangerous weapons or imitations of dangerous weapons.

Dog Summons Wife; Hubby Slashes Self

New York—Mrs. George H. Rosenthal of 35 East Ninth Street was awakened at 7:15 o'clock by the frantic barking of her poodle.

The dog ran to the living-room and when she followed she found her husband, a fifty-five-year-old broker, lying in his pajamas, unconscious and bleeding profusely from a deep wound in his throat which he had inflicted with poultry shears.

Mrs. Rosenthal called an ambulance, and her husband was taken to Bellevue Hospital.

Physicians there said he had slashed himself about three hours before his wife found him, and they said his chances of recovery were slight.
