Nazi Candidate for Senate In Kansas Alarms Liberals

Winrod, Secretly Financed Has Opportunity to Win

TOPEKA, Kansas, Flaming Kansas is flaming again this election year—this time over the first Nazi candidate for the United States Senate to appear in the country, the New York Post reported this week.

He is Rev. Gerald B. Winrod, of Wichita, a paunchy, bald, thirty-nine-year-old Bible shouting revivalist who knows all the tricks of the demagogue and is pulling them all in his campaign.

Alarmed ministers of the cloth, liberals, Catholics, unionists, Jews and even regular Republicans are calling him many other things. Mysteriously financed by an apparently huge campaign fund and with his opposition fortuitously split up among three other candidates, he is roaring over the States well out in front for the G. O. P. nomination.

An Easy 3 to 2 Bet

Today, Winrod is an easy 3 to 2 bet as the winner. Whether he will continue to hold this lead in the remaining fiery weeks of the campaign remains to be seen.

After months of bewilderment and unbelief the forces of democracy in the State are finally bestirring themselves.

It is a desperate last-minute offensive and its chances of success are none too promising.

National Chairman John Hamilton has also raised his voice against Winrod's nomination saying: "If Winrod is nominated our party in Kansas will be on the wrong side of that vital issue of intolerance and opposed to our party policies in other States."

Seek to Narrow Opposition

The fight against Winrod would

Franklin's Prophecy Termed 'Fabrication'

Propaganda, Says Institute Librarian

Leaflets containing Benjamin Franklin's prophecy in regard to the Jewish race, which have flooded Providence in recent weeks, and the original of which it has been said is in The Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, were termed "fabrication" this week by Alfred Rigley, librarian of the Institute.

Franklin's statement was supposed to have said, "There is great danger for the United States of America. This danger is the Jew, Gentlemen; in every land where the Jews have settled, they have depressed the moral level and lowered the degree of commercial honesty."

In his letter concerning Franklin's statement, Mr. Rigley asserted that the original is not in possession of the Franklin Institute, and no one has ever been able to find Charles Pinckney's diary, in which the speech is supposed to have been recorded.

"In a broadcast from Germany last Saturday evening," Mr. Rigley went on, "Franklin's speech was quoted, and it therefore seems quite evident that it is German propaganda. There was no Jewish problem in this country in the time of Franklin. All immigrants were welcome and it was, therefore, not likely that Franklin made any such statement as is credited to him."

ARREST REFUGEES

PRAGUE.—Forty-two Jewish refugees from Austria have been arrested at Bruenn on charges of crossing the frontier illegally. All of those arrested had registered with the refugee committee and had been supported by the committee or relatives.

Ethel Merman Swings Song That Makes Engine Stagger

NEW YORK.—An enterprising photographer, handed, a signal lantern to Ethel Merman, Hollywood and Broadway hot-cha singer, as she stood on the steps of the Twentieth Century Limited in Grand Central.

"Swing it," directed the photographer.

Miss Merman, a vision in gray just in from Hollywood yelled:—

"Okay, now I'm a swingin' brake-man," and she burst into the lyrics of "She started a heat wave, by making her seat wave," accompanying the words with gay, appropriate gestures, also swinging the lantern.

The engineer on the switch engine, which was waiting for the signal to drag the Twentieth Century out to the yards, caught the swinging, and opened up his throttle.

With a lurch, the train started up.

Miss Merman's song ended in a squeal of terror.

A trainman ran after the departing train, grabbed one lantern and started signaling frantically. By the time he got the train stopped Miss Merman was near enough a state of collapse that she was unable to tell the assembled interviewers anything further about her trip from Hollywood, and the opening of her new picture "Alexander's Ragtime Band" at the Roxy Theatre, in Sixth Ave., on August 5, with an all-star cast, featuring the songs of Irving Berlin, and being a musical cavalcade, which promises to be a big hit.

U. S. Jews Turning Backs on Palestine

WASHINGTON.—The tide of American Jewish emigration to Palestine is ebbing back to the United States.

Officials give two reasons. One, the unsettled state of Palestine; the other, better economic conditions here.

Consular reports on the last twelve months give the number of American Jews resident in Palestine at 9,500, compared with 10,000 last year. Figures show that 1,826 American Jews went to Palestine in 1935 and only 357 in 1936.

Rabbi Seized as Unlicensed Peddler of Ice Cream

BRONX.—Rabbi David S. Savitz, head of the Jewish Community Center of Hunts Point, the Bronx, was still dazed this week as the result of a series of events that began with his obtaining a gift of ice cream for the children of his Simpson avenue day camp. Rabbi Savitz, with George Goldstein, 28 athletic director of the camp, and Murray Ortoff, 19, assistant head of the Junior division, both of the Bronx, went to the ice cream distribution depot for retail dealers the other day. They were given 180 boxes of ice cream for the 150 children of the camp.

"Since July 6, the ice cream has been delivered to us every day," the rabbi said. "Yesterday I was called on the phone and told the plant would be unable to deliver the ice cream, but that we could come to the depot and get it. "As we left the depot I suggested that we take a cab, and as we were getting in a police-ing told us we were under arrest.

"Why? I asked."

"The officer said for peddling without a license."

"He called a patrol wagon and we were taken to the police station and booked. I told them who I was and what we were doing. They discussed the situation for a few minutes and decided they had better follow the instructions of the Deputy Inspector to arrest anyone leaving the depot with a package unless he had a peddler's license.

"Again we were put into the patrol wagon, and then taken to Magistrate's Court. We were locked up about an hour and a half. I finally was permitted to make two telephone calls, one to a director of our camp, and the other to my lawyer."

"Of course, when we were taken before Magistrate Louis Brodsky and he heard the charge and was told what had happened,

SIDNEY HILLMAN

Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, is sponsoring a new W. P. A. program to remove ten million dollars worth of surplus clothing stock for distribution among relief families.

Mr. Hillman was mentioned recently as a possible candidate for United States Senator from New York.

Rabbi Wise Lauds Refugee Conference

NEW YORK.—The recent intergovernmental refugee conference at Evian, France, was declared a success by Rabbi Jonah B. Wise, of the Central Synagogue upon his return last week.

The conference, which concerned itself with the welfare of emigrant victims of religious and racial prejudice in Austria and Germany especially, considered the problem of the distribution of these emigrants and retention of some of their possessions, he said.

At present, Rabbi Wise explained, refugees were lucky if they left Germany with 10 per cent of their personal property. He said the "general opinion of the delegates was that the German government would co-operate."

Brazilian Chief Visits Refugees

RIO DE JANEIRO.—Rozendo, an agricultural colony of Jewish refugees in the state of Rio de Janeiro, had the personal approval of President Getulio Vargas after he had made an unannounced inspection visit. Vargas showed his pleasure when one of the younger colonists who was asked if he was a Hungarian, replied proudly, "I am a Brazilian." The colony has 300 settlers who bought land on easy terms. Each colonist works his own land for agricultural purposes only. The colony has sufficient land to accommodate several thousand people.

Synagogue Ouster Termed 'High-handed'

JERSEY CITY.—Action of authorities of the Jersey City Jewish Community Center in ousting the Congregation Emanuel from the Center building was described as "outrageous" and "high-handed." At the same time an appeal was made for funds for another synagogue.

Rabbi Benjamin Plotkin, speaking for the congregation, characterized the action as "perhaps unequalled for its callousness and arrogance in the whole history of the American Israel."

The Community Center ordered the congregation last spring to vacate the building, saying that his activities against Mayor Frank Hague was alienating supporters of the center.

2,000 Refugees to be Admitted into Mexico

MEXICO CITY.—Two thousand Austrian Jews who have applied for immigration visas to Mexico will shortly be admitted to Mexico as political refugees under conditions outlined in an official decree issued by the ministry of interior it is reported in Der Weg, Yiddish paper.

Wagner Pushes Bill Outlawing Bigotry

ALBANY, N. Y.—A constitutional ban against racial and religious discrimination in New York moved toward final approval in the New York State Constitutional Convention after Senator Robert F. Wagner, minority leader in the convention, appealed for the passage of the bill.

In urging favorable action on the proposal, Senator Wagner said that "when this principle takes firm root in social institutions there will come the dawn of a new and better day for all minority groups which ask only for the right to contribute their full measure toward building a better America."

Press Urged To Analyze Propaganda

"Hysteria-Producing" News Methods Hit Should Include Editorial Comment

NEW YORK.—Asserting that "great harm is done by the dissemination of Nazi libels against Jews through the American press without concurrent analysis of these diatribes, of the reason they are uttered, of the phobias involved," Prof. Clyde R. Miller, secretary of the Institute of Propaganda Analysis, urged the press to "increasingly apply analysis to its own news stories."

Speaking on "The Propaganda of Prejudice" before a conference on intercultural education for teachers, convened under the auspices of the New York Round Table of the National Conference of Jews and Christians, Dr. Miller said:

"What I have in mind is this: some official in Germany will make a statement reviling Jews. The statement will be picked up by American news agencies and released as a news story to newspapers in every city and state in the union. The statement comprises utter untruth and outright libel. There is every reason for printing it as news because not to do so would violate that freedom of speech without which analysis is impossible. Few newspapers however, and few news agencies go to the trouble at the time these statements are issued to include in the news story from reputable sources analyses which would go far toward undoing the evil effect of the hysteria-producing libel.

I have no objection to American newspapers repeating Nazi diatribes against Jews and other non-Nordics. I do say that without concurrent analysis of these diatribes, of the reasons they are uttered, of the phobias they involve, great harm is done by their dissemination. With an adequate analysis accompanying such statements in the form of editorial comments, it is likely that few persons of normal intelligence will be duped by them."

$2,000,000 Cost of N. Y. Jewish Education

NEW YORK.—Jewish parents in New York spend more than $2,000,000 a year to give their children a Jewish education, Harry H. Liebovitz, president of the Jewish Educational Association, told the association's annual meeting last week. He also reported that registration in the Jewish religious schools of the city had increased by about 1,000 during the past year. The association's board of licenses granted 102 licenses to teachers in 1937, he said.

The best reducing exercise is to shake the head violently from side to side when offered a second helping.

Noted Scientist Poses for Exiled News Photographer

PRINCETON, N. J.—Situating at No. 112 Mercer street is a typical tree-shaded suburban home, and sitting inside in a broad stuffed chair is an elderly gentleman taking his ease in a typical suburban way.

His feet, stockingless, are slipped into a well-worn and friendly pair of shoes. Beneath his big, loose, leather windbreaker, he has on only an undershirt. Puffing away at a pipe, he rests a pad of paper on his knee, and with a fountain pen makes thoughtful and desultory scratches. Every now and then he has to get up and quiet two giddy kittens who love to race through the crockery on a corner cabinet.

John Suburbanite at Home? Taking his ease over a crossword puzzle? No—hardly! From the lion's mane of silver hair that sweeps back from a broad and quizzical forehead, you know at once that it's Professor Albert Einstein, mathematician and physicist, author of the Theory of Relativity.

Those little scratches on the pad are new little explorations into the universe, journeys that take his mind a million light years away from the pleasant house near the campus of Princeton University.

It was early afternoon. He had just finished a lunch of soup and boiled halibut. He was doing a spell of thinking at the moment in his work room on the second floor, which has pens, pencils, books, writing paper, a globe, and two cats in it.

Frau Helene Dukas, his secretary, who prepares his lunch, came to shunt him away for his daily hour and a half nap. But the doorbell rang, and a New York newspaper photographer begged permission to take a few pictures of the professor. All the way from Princeton station, people had said "Impossible. He won't do it."

And now, shyly but firmly, the professor himself said, No, I don't pose for pictures." The photographer had just landed from Vienna, a refugee from the Hitler seizure of Austria.

But, Professor," said the photographer, "You are an exile and I am an exile. I am trying to establish myself here and they told me that the only way was to do something that nobody else could do."

"Please don't take it for unkindness," said the Professor, but after all I am not a photographer's model." Nevertheless, he invited the photographer into his study for a chat about Germany and Austria.

And finally—"After all, a few pictures more or less cannot make a difference any more . . ." And so, like a kind, good-natured shaggy pet, he obeyed all the photographer's demands for an hour, by which time Frau Dukas insisted sternly, "But now you must really go to bed, Professor."

And so, with a shake of his hand, the Professor went obediently to his room. . .

Wants Refugees Sent to Palestine

NEW YORK.—A resolution adopted by the United Palestine Appeal asks the Inter-Governmental Conference at Evian, France, when it resumes sessions in London, August 3, "to give primary consideration to Palestine as a foremost haven for the many thousands whom the pagan hatemongers and worshippers of false creeds racial prejudice have reduced to the status of wanderers."

The resolution, stressing the availability of Palestine as a major center of Jewish immigration, was adopted at a conference, held in the Hotel St. George, Brooklyn, last night, attended by 500 rabbis and Jewish leaders representing more than 300 Brooklyn synagogues.

BAN SWASTIKA

BERNE, SWITZERLAND.—The use of the swastika and other foreign national or party emblems in conjunction with the Swiss flag was banned by the Swiss Federal Council in its latest move to halt the spread of Nazi and Fascist movements. The council had previously forbidden the wearing of party uniforms.

Hungary Bans Kosher Ritual

BUDAPEST.—Stunning of cattle before slaughter was decreed by the Hungarian government in an order which bans kosher slaughtering since Jewish ritual forbids stunning before slaughter. The order, however, was debated at a special conference of the Hungarian Union of Rabbis and the Hungarian Rabbinical Seminary at which it was declared that stunning was permissible after the severing of the animal's jugular vein.

Yaphank Firemen Ask Nazi to Quit

YAPHANK, L. I.—Henry Hauck, one of the six convicted Nazi leaders of Camp Siegfried, has been asked to resign from the Yaphank Volunteer Fire Department, and has refused to comply, it was disclosed by Chief Edward N. Davis.

The decision to ask for Hauck's resignation was reached at a meeting on Monday night, and a formal request was made. Hauck failed to comply, Chief Davis said, and the organization will consider further steps at a meeting August 1.

German Immigration Here Below Quota

NEW YORK.—James G. McDonald formerly League of Nations High Commissioner for Refugees from Germany doubts that the exodus of political minorities from Germany and Austria to this country will reach such proportions as to lead to a change in American Immigration laws.

Before sailing to participate in the International Conference on Refugees at Evian Les Bains, France, Mr. McDonald cited statistics on comparative immigration and emigration of Germans to support his contention.

Pope Pius Condemns Distorted Nationalism

Fear Difficulties For Italy's Jews

CASTEL GANDOLFO, ITALY.—Pope Pius, in a speech to a group of French nuns, condemned exaggerated and erroneous nationalist ideals as contrary to the doctrine of Christian religion. Many quarters saw a connection between the Pope's address and the race policy issued the day before under the sponsorship of the Italian Ministry of Popular Culture.

The Pope referred to the "great question at present agitating the world under the name of nationalism, a nationalism in many ways exaggerated—an ill-conceived nationalism which we have already had painful occasion to denounce as erroneous and dangerous."

NEW YORK.—The Pope is not inclined to compromise with racial theories in Italy, Arnaldo Corresi, New York Times correspondent, said in his Castel Gandolfo dispatch. "It is easy, moreover, to foresee that the race problem is a matter on which the Holy See and the Italian government may join issue at some not very distant date," he added.

At Rome dispatch said the Secretary General of the Fascist Party has called the attention of provincial secretaries to the new race doctrine in a way which, the Times correspondent said, "will be interpreted as instructions to make life difficult for the Jews."

Revive Cuza Party Under Cultural Guise

BUCHAREST.—Suppressed under the new authoritarian constitution, the anti-Semitic National Christian Party of Prof. Alexander Cuza was revived under the guise of a new cultural organization called the League of National Consciousness, which was formed at a secret meeting in Cuza's home in Jassy.

The meeting took place after a memorial meeting for the late Premier Octavian Goga, Cuza's co-leader in the suppressed party, who headed an anti-Semitic government for 43 days.

Cuza was named honorary president of the League and his son, George, who was minister of labor in the Goga cabinet, was elected general secretary. Istrate Micescu, Gog's foreign minister, was elected president.

Anatole Friedland, Song Writer, Dies

Heart Attack Causes Death

ATLANTIC CITY.—Anatole Friedland, the producer and song writer who became known as "the Ziegfeld of vaudeville," died of heart attack last week in the Ritz-Carlton, where he had lived the last two years.

At his bedside were his wife, the former Rosalind Schiff, of New York City, and their 9-year-old daughter, Gloria.

He once said in an interview:—"It's a hard life. A good song is worth from $75,000 to $200,000, but not even the composer himself can tell when he has found that magic melody which the man in the street is going to whistle from coast to coast. Often he risks all he has on a song which just lacks that little something which makes the world sing. Often he fails to appreciate the simple tune, which, once started, knows no stopping.

Melodies Go On

"The public likes sentiment. Sentiment in the music. Sentiment in the lyric. And the public never tires of melody. Jazz may come and go, but melody goes on forever. Once a year is as often as a song writer can count on a hit, and that is a high average."

Austrians Seek Kenyan Colony

VIENNA.—High Austrian Jewish authorities have been negotiating for weeks to establish a large scale colony in the British East African colony of Kenya, it was reported reliably today.

Advocates of the plan reportedly pointed out to the British authorities that the emigration of Jewish refugees to Kenya would assure Britain that any plebiscite in the colony on a proposal to return colonies to Germany, would be defeated.

90% of Germans in U. S. Declared Hostile to Nazis

NEW YORK.—Ninety per cent of all German-Americans resent Nazi interference in their affairs and will appreciate American support in resisting it, is the estimation of Gerhart H. Seger, former member of the German Reichstag.

"These German-Americans," said Mr. Seger, author, lecturer and editor of the Neue Volkszeitung, "are silent and cautious now because they are afraid of what may happen to them here and to their relatives and friends in Germany if they frankly express disapproval of Hitler and his ways. They would be more independent, although still anxious about their people in Germany, if the United States Government made it clear that they would be protected. It might help if the Secretary of State would tell the German Ambassador, publicly, how and where Hitler's representatives are interfering over here."

At the close of a recent lecture in a university town of the Middle West, Mr. Seger was told by the hall attendant that a man wished to speak with him. Accompanied by an attendant, Mr. Seger was brought to a dark corner, where he could scarcely see the man. Pointing out the need for caution in his own case, Seger refused to enter in a discussion there. The man identified himself as head of the university's German department, and said that German exchange students watched him constantly and would report to Germany, where his relatives would suffer, if he were caught talking with Seger. Said Mr. Seger this week, "I consider that really touching. A professor, head of a department in a great American university, 4,000 miles from Berlin, is afraid to be seen with a critic of Hitler."

Coughlin Publishes Protocols of Zion

Compares New Deal to Articles

NEW YORK.—The Protocols of the Elders of Zion, notorious forgery of a Jewish world conspiracy, are prominently featured in the July 18 issue of Social Justice, weekly magazine published by Father Charles E. Coughlin.

In a signed full-page article, the radio priest presents Protocol No. 6 dealing with monopolies, taxation, labor, and wages and attempts to show the similarity between the New Deal policies and the world economic collapse predicted and planned by the so-called "Elders of Zion".

Declaring that the "vast masses of Jewry know little or nothing" about the Protocols and entertain no hostility to Christians, Father Coughlin points to statements of Theodore Herzl and Walter Rathenau as proof that some Jews have uttered thoughts highly reminiscent of the statements in the Protocols.

The full text of Protocol No. 6 is then quoted after which Father Coughlin compares it to the alleged attempts of the New Deal to raise wages while at the same time raising the cost of living, to destroy agriculture and production, and to promote industrial anarchy under the pretense of benefitting labor.

Seger favors the boycott of German products not so much for any economic effect as because it is to Germans within Germany the sole indication of foreign disapproval of Nazi ways. But he regrets any Jewish boycott of German-Americans and any German-American boycott of Jews, feeling that thus bitterness grows on both sides.

"Increase in American friendship for Germany was steady from the end of the war up to the time Hitler got control," said Mr. Seger. "Now, ill feeling grows, and if German-Americans wish to end it they will do what they can to show they disapprove of Hitler and are independent of him. It is up to them to show that 'Nazi' is not a synonym for 'German.'"

In 1934 Seger predicted that if Hitler lasted through that winter he would dominate Germany for several years more. Today, Seger predicts that his authority will continue if he succeeds in getting back the German colonies and in getting a foreign loan.

Faced With Prison Merchant Kills Self

VIENNA.—George Strakasch, 45, the Jewish husband of the former Renee Bullard of Boston, American opera singer, killed himself after losing his fortune and being faced with loss of liberty under Austria's Nazi regime. His wife, who is now in Boston, has been waiting for him to join her.

The Strakasch concern was placed under a Nazi commissar in the early days of Anschluss. Strakasch himself was held for five days and was under daily fear of arrest.

Dime for Refugee Children Travels to Coast and Back

NEW YORK.—Little Lorraine Neft, of Elizabeth, N. J., is the recipient of a hearty "thank you" from Eddie Cantor, well-known radio and screen star for a much traveled dime which she sent the actor "to help the unfortunate Jewish children of Europe."

Mr. Cantor is now on his way to London, where he will arrive July 11 to attempt to raise $100,000 for the Youth Aliyah (immigration) movement which transfers Jewish children from Germany, Austria and Poland to Palestine.

Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, sole agency in this country for Youth Aliyah reported Lorraine's contribution, revealing that Mr. Cantor sprinted to the national headquarters of the organization in this city a few hours before sailing on the Queen Mary, Wednesday, to add the dime to the $87,000 he has already raised for the movement. He had carried it in a special envelope from Hollywood.

Four weeks ago Lorraine heard of Mr. Cantor's work for Jewish children in Europe and was anxious to contribute her mite to what she considered a good cause. In no way nonplussed by the tens of thousands of dollars other Americans were contributing, Lorraine decided to mail her ten cent weekly allowance to Mr. Cantor in Hollywood.

"It is the spirit of the thing which matters," Mr. Cantor said at Hadassah headquarters before he sailed. "The Jewish children of Europe who must leave their native lands need every bit of good-will they can get from Americans who live in the freest country in the world."

"The Youth Aliyah movement has helped transfer 2,200 children from Germany, Austria and Poland," said Mrs. David B. Greenberg, chairman of the Youth Aliyah committee of Hadassah.

Hitler Created, Not Solved, Jewish Problem, Says Shaw

LONDON.—George Bernard Shaw regards Hitler's anti-Jewish program as "despicably unscientific" it is revealed in a copyrighted interview given out to the London correspondent of the New York Times.

Asked if "Hitler has solved the Jewish problem in a satisfactory way," Shaw said, "He has not solved it at all. He has created it. It has damaged his intellectual credit to an extraordinary extent. Europe could hardly have been more disagreeably surprised if he had revived witch burning. The exiling of Professor Albert Einstein and the confiscation of his property was Hitler's stupidest single act, and Einstein may yet be the winner."

Unscientific

"What do you think of the Nazi contention of 'race pollution'?"

"It is despicably unscientific. The amazing thing about it is that the anti-Semites do not see how intensely Jewish it is. The fault of the Jew is his enormous arrogance, based on his claim to belong to God's chosen race. The Nordic nonsense is only an attempt to imitate the posterity of Abraham."

"What of your personal sympathies of antipathies of Hitler?"

Liked Book

"I have never met him. His book made a favorable impression on me, though it is a great pity that he did not read my works instead of Huston Chamberlain's (Chamberlain is one of the first writers to preach the supremacy of the Aryan and attack the Jews as an inferior race).

Naturally, I appreciate the political sagacity and courage with which he has rescued Germany from the gutter and placed her once more at the head of Central Europe."

"Has Britain or France anything to fear from Germany?"

All the powers have everything to fear from their own armaments and their own folly. If Hitler loses his head and is confronted by enemies who have not any heads to lose, the consequences may be appalling. But sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof, so let us drop the subject."

Analysis of Propaganda

An analysis of news stories originating from propaganda bureaus was advocated at the recent Round Table of the National Conference of Jews and Christians. With the increasing vilification of all individuals and groups not in sympathy with Nazi or Fascist beliefs, it becomes important to separate truths from hysteria-producing libel.

Many of the stories originating in Germany or Italy are pure fiction, and unless the reader is to be swayed, the news story should include an analysis of the story from a reputable source, which would have facts and figures available, concerning the story itself.

Such a bureau established for this purpose in cooperation with large news services would prevent news from appearing in its unadulterated form. With an adequate analysis accompanying such statements, it is likely that few persons of normal intelligence would be duped.

Nazism in Kansas

Kansas' No. 1 Nazi, Rev. Gerald B. Winrod of Wichita, is ruling the state Senatorial nomination. According to recent figures, Winrod is a three to two bet as the winner. After months of bewilderment and unbelief, the forces of democracy in the state have finally bestirred themselves and have launched a militant counter attack against the Nazi champion. But Rev. Winrod, anticipating public outcry against his Nazi ideology, has dampened his free-handed mouthings.

However, the record proves otherwise. For years he has publicized the "Protocols of the Elders of Zion," a notorious forgery of the Czarist police to stir up bloody pogroms.

In the 1936 campaign, Winrod conducted a Julius Streicher vendetta against President Roosevelt and members of the New Deal. From the President down, whether they were Jews or not, Winrod branded them with that label. He published an elaborate chart, professing to demonstrate "that the President's ancestors were Jews."

It would be much simpler if his field could be narrowed down, but those aspirants who have little chance to win have shown no disposition to giving up possible political careers, in order to strengthen the fight against Winrod.

The Nazi hermit prospers in situations like this, and unless the opposition combines to defeat Winrod, Kansas may have the doubtful honor of sending the first Nazi Senator to Congress.

Apply Aryan Laws To Vienna Parks

VIENNA. — Vienna's police chief has prohibited Jews from entering the city's principal parks—Schoenbrunn, Lainz, the City Park and the so-called Turken-schanz.

Alleged provocative behavior of Jews toward Aryans is given as the reason for this measure, which in hot weather is a serious blow to Vienna's Jewish population of almost 200,000.

The Mayor of Moedling, a town near Vienna visited daily by thousands of hikers, has prohibited Jews from wearing Alpine costumes, following similar action by Salzburg. A fifty-mark fine or three weeks' imprisonment will be imposed on those wearing the traditional white stockings and Tyrolean hat, which according to the Mayor, are reserved for "Aryans."

U. S. Consul to Aid Refugees in Reich

To Assemble Data For London Parley

BERLIN.—George Brandt, a consul in the foreign service of the United States, who served as technical adviser on immigration to the American delegation at the Evian refugee conference, has arrived in Germany as an official observer sent by the United States to assemble data to be used by the American representatives when the newly-organized inter-governmental refugee committee meets in London on August 3rd.

Brandt will seek to gather material on how to approach Germany regarding steps to persuade her to let refugees take out their possessions. He will not meet with German officials but will explore the question through American diplomatic channels while conveying to American consulates in Berlin, Vienna, Hamburg, and Stuttgart the American government's policy on refugee visa policy.

Voting Cards Taken From Montreal Jews

MONTREAL.—An attempt to disfranchise hundreds of Montreal Jews was disclosed here when Alderman Max Siegler, one of the two Jewish members of the Montreal City Council, charged that the authorities were discriminating against Jews in the issuing of civic identity to residents of the city qualified to vote in the municipal elections.

Only card holders may vote. Discrimination is directed particularly against Jews with odd sounding or continental European names.

Pressed for an explanation, Mayor Adhemar Raynault, denied that Jews as such were being discriminated against but admitted that special scrutiny was made in the case of all applicants for cards who are of foreign origin.

Imber Retires as Masada President

Cleveland.—After serving for five years as president of Masada, since its inception in 1933, Isaac Imber, founder of the youth section of the Zionist Organization of America, retired from office at the Fifth Anniversary Convention of the organization here. The convention unanimously voted to name him honorary president of Masada. Eleazar Lipsky was elected president for the coming year.

AIDS RELATIVES

NEW YORK.—Celebrating her 102nd birthday, Mrs. Henrietta Wimpfheimer is helping two distant German Jewish relatives to immigrate to the United States by signing necessary papers and providing financial aid. The contemarian, who came from Mainz, Germany, 82 years ago, is an honorary member of Hadassah.

LAMENTATIONS

I'll take the wintertime with all its biting breezes
The colds with the coughs and the sniffles and the sneezes

I'll take the snow and the sleet and the ice
In fact, I'll take the wintertime at almost any price

The heat and the humidity
The asinine stupidity
Of fools who watch me working when I'm pretty badly "Shot"

Who mop their perspiration
And in making conversation
Look at me and yodel 'till I'm frantic "Aren't you hot?"

Now I hate the summertime with all its compensations
The bathing and the beaches and the week-ends and vacations

The beaches may be marvelous for stunning girls, or cute
But I detest the water, and I look lousy in a suit!

With something like neuralgia
I long (ah, sweet nostalgia)
For shorter days and cooler winds to blow my misery clear
And wickedly I pray in vain
That Sunday be a day of rain
So that I don't have to spend it down at Narragansett Pier!

ON RUMORS

Came Monday with the rains abating, so off to see Harry Rosen, and talked a while of many local pioneers, who have since gone to their reward . . . From there to Sam Samson's gas emporium, and listened to a vicious tale of Anti-Semitism too horrible to relate . . . In connection with the latter, let me remind you that the spreading of false and malicious rumors concerning a firm and Anti-Semitism, can do a great deal of damage . . . For example a number of calls reached us telling us that the manufacturers of Chesterfield cigarettes have contributed funds to Nazi organizations . . . And these self-gone people, who have stopped buying Chesterfields, have stated that Walter Winchell and Boake Carter had made certain statements over the radio about the Liggett & Meyers Tobacco Company in connection with the Nazi cause . . . I have seen a telegram from Mr. Carter and a letter from Mr. Winchell, denying emphatically that they ever made any statements, verbal or written, connecting the company or its products in any way with the Nazi movement . . . I believe that our readers will agree that such whispering campaigns deserve the denunciation of all good people . . .

FLOOD RESCUE

When a call for volunteers to help in the flooded district in Woonsocket came over the radio last Sunday, that intrepid sextette, comprising Adolph Reich, Sid Shepard, Jesse and Archie Abromowitz, Al Bartlett and Nate Novgrad, who make Riverside their summer home, rounded up a large life-saving boat from one of their neighbors, and with the boat on a trailer--trailing along behind them, they drove at God speed down to the endangered Woonsocket area, and with other volunteers, rescued many a marooned family . . . Remind us, fellas, to tell you that was nice work . . . Although at the outset of the Ethiopian conquest, Mussolini assured all Italians, that once that land was subdued, it would be self-sustaining, shipload after ship load of food has since been dispatched there from the Motherland . . . Long felt wants:—A Wisconsin genius has recently patented and placed on the market, a reversible shirt that can be turned inside out a second wearing, after it's been soiled once—and save on laundry bills . . .

SEEN AT "BROTHER RAT"

An enthusiastic audience saw the presentation of "Brother Rat," at the Albee last Monday nite . . . From our seats on the aisle, we saw the Kossoves, the Saltzmans, the Falks, the Robinsons, the Goldsmith family, and I. Press, Frank Barad, Archie (minus his camera) Finkle, the Golditch sisters three, Evelyn Josephson, Nissie Perlman, the Morris Cowens, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Forbes, and Harold Dick . . . Al Salk is recovering from a recent appendectomy . . . Ruth Cohen is convalescing from the same ailment . . . Down at Camp Annisquam, we saw Ida Fain, who is just two shades lighter than a negress, and Dora Friedman who is having a wonderful time . . . This week's favorite gag:—Patient:—"Why does so small a cavity feel as large to the tongue, doctor?" Dentist:—"Just a natural tendency of the tongue to exaggerate, I suppose." . . .

PERSONALIA

An oddity that's going over big at the amusement parks this summer is wooden figures of Hitler and Mussolini for the customers to throw baseballs at, with appropriate prizes for smacking them in the puss, or knocking them over . . . Some facts about Cardoza:—Did you know that Justice Benjamin N. Cardoza never got a law degree? That he was sixty before he saw his first movie? And he knew so little about the films that once, during a trial, he asked from the bench, "What is a paramount picture?" . . . Nor, could he understand why movies don't play return engagements as legitimate shows do . . . The furniture in Cardoza's apartment was old-fashioned it was almost moth-eaten . . . He hated bawdy jokes and knew so little of cocktails that he once asked what was in them . . . His memory was prodigious . . . He could cite volume and page of several cases and often named the exact page of a reference in a volume decades old . . .

Stork priming in Nazi-land . . . Some German factories now require their single employees to sign a contract to get married with a specified time and have at least two children—or a penalty of forfeiting their job . . . Note from Russia:—Less than one half of one per cent of Soviet Russia's population today is Jewish, and anti-Semitism is a punishable crime in that land . . . Bon mot by a diplomat just returned from Europe . . . "Nobody can pull the British lion's tail nowadays, because the tail is between its legs." . . .

"Yes, My Darling Daughter" at Albee

"Yes, My Darling Daughter," the comedy which will be presented at the Albee Theatre the week of Monday evening, August 1st, with matinees Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, is by Mark Reed, author of "Petticoat Fever," and proved to be a success in New York, where it scored a run of a solid year, a second company being sent on a coast-to-coast tour.

In three merrily mischievous acts, the story tells how Ellen Murray, a streamline daughter of today, informs her mother of the facts of life and incidentally that she is about to elope before her sweetheart departs for a two-years' job abroad. Like all good parents, Mrs. Murray tries to stop what purports to be a week-end adventure. But daughter knows that mother's past had been slightly unconventional and uses that fact as her argument.

A distinguished cast has been assembled for "Yes, My Darling Daughter" and includes Marie Paxton, Ruth Gilbert, Jack Hartley, Dorothy Elder, Winifred St. Claire and David Morris.

Its two lavish settings, showing a wealthy home on the Connecticut shore, Long Island Sound, were designed by Raymond Sovey.

Golf Tournament at Tarleton Sat.

Ben Schlossberg of Providence will play in the first of a series of eighteen-hole kicker's golf tournaments, to take place on Lake Tarleton's Golf Course, next Saturday afternoon.

Activities at the Pike, N. H. resort this week have included a hiking picnic to Mount Piermont, a concert in the Lounge of the club, and an old-fashioned weiner roast on the dock of the club.

On Sunday evening, The Yankee Troupers, the Summer Straw Hat Group at Tarleton, will present a new play, "The March of Thine," by Milton Goldberg.

Agency Executive Member is Dead

JERUSALEM.—Dr. Fischel Rotenstreich of the Jewish Agency Executive, is dead here after a brief but severe illness. Dr. Rotenstreich, who was well-known as an expert in economic matters, was born in Columbia in 1882.

Match-making Profession Is Interesting Business

NEW YORK.—When summer comes, many a headache is suffered by professional match-makers, known also as Schatchens. And is it the heat that causes their misery? No! It's merely the fact that most of their clientele is away at camps on the Borscht circuit or elsewhere, trying their luck independently.

However, Mrs. Dorothy Jaffe, who since 1924 has arranged about 3,000 marriages, said the other day that Cinderella romance of the millionaire diamond importer and the divorcee with the three children has more than made up for the summer depression.

"He was the only millionaire I ever had," she said at her Bronx apartment-office, where, under a picture showing Othello and Desdemona in a clinch, she conducts her professional matchmaking.

"We're not the kind of Schatchen, with a beard and an umbrella," Mrs. Jaffe. "In fact, we don't like that word. We are matrimonial consultants." They have married off two judges, any number of lawyers and school teachers, and their latest prospectus lists a 55-year-old widower who owns ten apartment houses. "Most of the women, especially the older ones are worth up to $250,000, and the young ones are beautiful," said Mr. Jaffe, the lawyer-husband. "If Ziegfeld were alive today, he could pick a chorus from our girls."

The divorcee with the three children, who met the diamond broker through them, was like that—beautiful. "A woman with three kids is difficult material," said Mr. Jaffe, "but as soon as I laid my eyes on her, I looked at Mrs. Jaffe and we both thought of the diamond broker. He had come up one day in a $5,000 car, looking like a French count, with a chauffeur and a footman. He had met a lot of women on the Riviera, but nobody appealed to him until he met this lady."

After four weeks they took a boat to Europe, got married on the boat, and now they are honeymooning. They sent the kids to camp.

"And he is going to give me a diamond bracelet," Mrs. Jaffe said. "It was so lovely all through."

Most of the paying clients are grateful like that. One lady moved into the Jaffe's neighborhood, and every September 27, her anniversary, has breakfast with them.

Rabbis Visit Reno; Not For Divorces

CINCINNATI, O.—Reno, Nev. is host to five young men this week. But the five young men are not there for the usual reason. They are all un-married and are in Reno as emissaries of the Union of American Hebrew

Congregations on the "Jewish Religious Caravan of 1938."

With their car and trailer parked in the Nevada town they are prepared to address the local Jewish community of some two hundred persons, help the local religious school authorities with their curriculum and plans for the Fall, and preach in the name of good will at local churches.

Report Wholesale Arrest of Jews

Refugees Seek Vienna Barracks

VIENNA.—Well-informed Jewish quarters asserted that all Jewish women and most Jewish families still living at Mattersdorf and Burgenland were rounded up and imprisoned at Eisenstadt by police and Nazi Party officials this week-end.

Meanwhile, Vienna Jews are negotiating with Reich authorities for permission to use the wartime wooden barracks in the outlying districts of the city as temporary living quarters for Jewish refugees from Burgenland and other parts of Austria as well as Jews evicted from their Vienna homes.

It was also announced today that forty-two Catholic workers' and employees' organizations had been dissolved in connection with the Nazi drive to eliminate "superfluous" non-Nazi organizations.

Well-informed quarters said Guido Schmidt, Foreign Minister in Chancellor Schuschnigg's last Cabinet, would soon be appointed head of Austria's largest munitions factories at Hirtenberg.

Radio Speaker

Rabbi Beryl D. Cohon of Boston, who will speak Saturday on the coast-to-coast NBC Blue Network broadcast of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, "The Call to Youth." The program is on the air every Saturday at 12 noon, Eastern Daylight Saving Time (11 A. M., EST). Rabbi Cohon's subject will be "Building Men."

Diversified Program at Wunnishaunta

A diversified program of athletics and dramatics offered by Camp Wunnishaunta, as planned by Phil Shulman and the Brickmans, is delighting the many guests vacationing at Wunnishaunta.

During the past week a "Vice-versa Masquerade" night was held. Gilbert Harbe of New York took pictures of everyone, and each camper was presented with a snapshot.

A fine vaudeville show was presented on Saturday night, with Reina Fritz of Revere as star. Another feature of the evening was the French Dancing Girls. After the entertainment, dancing followed.

BARNEY ROSS

Barney Ross, welterweight champion, was once a member of the Catholic Youth Organization.

Enrollment Goes Up at Center Camp

Varied Activities Interest Children

Judged by the increase in enrollment, the second week of the Jewish Center Day Camp has proved to be more successful than the first. The staff, also increased, now includes, Roslyn Garfinkle, Bessie Barbar, Abraham Lobel, Joel Feldman, and several N. Y. A. Counsellors.

The Center Camp is trying to duplicate outdoor camp activities in every respect, weather permitting. The children are being taught to weave baskets, to work in metal, and to make other artful novelties, which will be exhibited at the end of the season. With the improved weather, the children now play baseball, basketball, volleyball, and make use of the outdoor facilities of the playground such as swings, slides, dandles, a may pole, a sand box, and a merry-go-round.

The hours from ten to five o'clock are supervised like those of an outdoor camp. The children are divided into groups from six to fourteen years, and their activities are in accordance with the group they are in. Each week a visit of interest and enjoyment will be made. Last week's program included a visit to a theatre. This week's program includes a visit through a milk plant.

Enrollment for the last three weeks may now be made at the Jewish Center, 65 Benefit street or by calling Dexter 6730.

Nazi Candidate Alarms Kansas

One of the three candidates running against him, former Governor Clyde Reed, would make an excellent standard bearer for the democratic forces to rally around. He is liberal-minded, sympathetic to labor and has a record of courageous battling against bigotry.

But the other two aspirants, the Rev. Jesse Clyde Fisher, a well-known Methodist pastor in Western Kansas, and State Senator Dallas Knapp, have shown no disposition to give up their empty chances in order to strengthen the fight against Winrod.

Last Saturday twenty-one ministers of the leading Protestant Churches of Wichita, Winrod's home town, issued a public statement solemnly denouncing his candidacy and charging that he never worked with the organized Christian forces of that city and for years has been engaged in stirring up racial and religious hatreds.

DISCOVER MANUSCRIPT

ROME.—Discovery of a hitherto unknown manuscript believed to be the "Talmud of the Falashes," the black Jews of Ethiopia, is reported by Carlo Viterbo in the Year Book of the Italian Rabbinical Seminary. Viterbo discovered the manuscript on his recent visit to Ethiopia where he had gone as an official emissary of the Federation of Italian Jewish Communities.

we were dismissed." Rabbi Savitz, explained the camp has two groups of children, mostly from families in straitened circumstances, ranging from 2½ to 6, in the preschool group, and from 7 to 12 in the other group.

"They come mostly from families on home relief," the rabbi said. "We have little money and get little support. I have to get a lot of things gratis. I look for good-hearted people who will give the children luxuries they know little about, such as ice cream. You know how kids like ice cream."
