

The "White Book"

Last week a "Jewish White Book" was made public bringing to light a series of heretofore unknown documents on the extermination of Jews under Nazism since the beginning of the war.

The figure of 250,000 Jews perishing in Nazi-invaded territories since the beginning of the war — a figure exceeding several times that of the actual war casualties — will seem staggering even in the eyes of those who have long since learned to associate the word Nazism with the word savagery.

On the other hand, the fact disclosed that the pogroms scheduled immediately after the recent attempt upon Hitler's life in Munich were prevented only by the intervention of the Soviet Ambassador, raises the question which was propounded by William Green, A. F. of L. leader, at the Madison Square Garden meeting of the Jewish Congress: If the Soviets do exercise such restraining influence over Hitler, "why didn't Stalin stipulate as a condition of the unholy alliance that Hitler could only have his support in the event he ceased his persecution of the Jewish race."

At this time this question remains unanswered. But we cannot overlook the fact that the "White Book" provides information that can be utilized for subsequent propaganda and defense work.

A Job Well Done

A news item last week relating an attempted hold-up by five children who envisioned the perfect crime from an idea elaborated by a children's radio program is further evidence of the appreciation due Mrs. Harold V. Milligan, radio chairman of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who succeeded in eliminating five "blood and thunder" children's programs from the national networks in America.

Other crime and violence offerings are said to be doomed; but young listeners are not to be deprived of radio entertainment. The Radio Council of the Federation is wisely endeavoring to substitute a humorous and more wholesome type of program.

Freedom in Art

The dismissal of Howard Rushmore, motion picture reviewer for the Daily Worker, because of his refusal to condemn unqualifiedly the film "Gone With the Wind," is probably a bone in the throat to Communism sympathizers who have argued for academic and artistic freedom in this country.

Mr. Rushmore believed that the acting deserved credit and that the treatment of the story was not unhistoric. But adherence to the "party line" called for nothing less than blistering denunciation of the picture for giving a pleasant impression of prewar conditions in the South and for sequences unfavorable to Negroes.

And now Mr. Rushmore's job is gone — gone because he refused to compromise his ideals of criticism with political expediency.

If the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City is sold to the Metropolitan Opera Association for $1,970,000, as planned, there will be no doubt about its being bought for a song. — Monitor.

Radio Program Trials Denounced by Justice Upsets Award By Jewish Court

NEW YORK. — Supreme Court Justice Henry G. Wenzel, Jr., in Brooklyn last week denounced radio programs which feature "courtroom trials" for the arbitration and settlement of disputes among listeners.

Justice Wenzel's attack on the radio courts was made as he denied the application of Max Blake, a butcher's assistant, for confirmation of an award of $100 against his former employer, Isaac Liff, butcher, of White Lake, N. Y. The award was recommended by the Jewish Court for Peace and Justice, presented over Station WLTH after Mr. Liff's daughter had agreed to arbitrate his consent.

Justice Wenzel declared that any one who has listened to such radio "courts" knows "the sketchy character of the testimony, the impatience of the master of ceremonies, and even the arbitrators, due to the exigency of the shortness of the time allotted for each trial."

"I have listened to a number of such programs on the air and the ignorance of those in charge of the commonest principles of law was appalling."

Soviet Policies in Poland Distasteful

NEW YORK. — Reports of Soviet activities in Russian Poland in the last three months of Soviet occupation have been filtering into Rumania. These bits of information, pieced together, give a clear picture of Russian domination of Poland, in the opinion of Sonia Tomara, in a Budapest dispatch to the New York Herald Tribune.

From the reports brought out by the refugees, closely scrutinized and purged of exaggeration, it appears that even the Ukrainians and Jews, who welcomed the Soviet troops with enthusiasm when they marched in, are now deeply disillusioned.

Ukrainian Jews, who had at first obtained jobs in the new administration have, according to refugee reports lost their main livelihood with the Sovietization of trade.

Orange Growers To Federate

PETACH TIKVAH.—At a meeting held here citrus growers in Petach Tikvah, premier Jewish plantations colony founded in 1878, decided to organize in order to protect their interests. The establishment of this organization is to be notified to the Government.

The growers concerned are anxious to maintain their share in the shipments to be made from Palestine during wartime. The number of growers affected is about half of all those in the colony and adjacent plantations centers.

Zionists Peeved At Baltimore Rabbi

WASHINGTON. — Zionists throughout the country are piqued over the recent address of Rabbi Morris Lazaron, of Baltimore, who warned American Jews to have nothing to do with the forthcoming visit of Dr. Chaim Weizman. Rabbi Lazaron said that the Jews of this country cannot afford to get mixed up with the political ramifications of political Zionism at this time.

Louis Lipsky, national chairman of the United Jewish Appeal and the United Palestine Appeal, will be guest of honor at a Victory Dinner and Reception, to be held at Weinstein's Banquet Hall on Thursday evening, January 4, 6:30 o'clock.

Mr. Lipsky, for over thirty-five years, has been a dominant figure in the American movement for the rebuilding of the Jewish National Home.

A musical program is being arranged. Mrs. Saul Abrams, chairman of the Women's Division will submit her report. Additional reports will be given by Claire Ernstof, chairman of Youth Division; Dorothy Nutman, for Young Peoples' League of Temple Emanuel; Dorothy Robinson, for Alumni Association of Temple Emanuel; Beatrice Oloff, for Junior Haddassah; Ruth Fishbein for Young Peoples' League of Ahavath Shalom Synagogue; Max Meller, for Young People of Temple Beth El; Ruth Aden, for Hashomer Hatzair; Milton Scribner and John Marks, for Masada.

The banquet will serve as the closing rally of the Providence campaign, and all workers are invited to attend.

Food Parcels From U. S. Seized by Nazis

NEW YORK. — Nazi seizure of food packages sent from America to Jews in Germany was revealed by a refugee here. The refugee said he had sent a parcel of food to relatives in the Reich and had received a letter from them which said that upon receiving it they had "donated" it to the Nazi Winter Relief Organization.

This the refugee took to mean that the authorities had delivered the parcel and then forced the recipients to give it up.

Estimate 250,000 Killed in Conquest

Remaining Jews Poverty Stricken

PARIS. — The World Jewish Congress has issued a Jewish White Book in which it estimates that 250,000 Jews have been killed by military operations, executions, disease and starvation in Nazi-occupied Poland. The document, reciting the darkest chapter in Jewish history, records the ravages of anti-Semitism since the outbreak of the war.

Pogrom Halted

The fifteen-page record, which included five pages of documentary evidence, revealed, among other things, that after the Munich bomb attempt on Hitler, Nazi leaders were dissuaded by the Soviet Ambassador from carrying out completed plans for large-scale anti-Jewish pogroms throughout the Reich.

Reduced to Beggary

The White Book charged that at least 80 per cent of the remaining 1,250,000 Jews in Nazi territory had been reduced to complete beggary. The document estimated that the majority of 40,000 Jews who attempted to escape from Warsaw during the Nazi bombardment were killed in addition to 30,000 more who perished in the city before and after the Nazi occupation.

400 Executed

In the township of Lukow, it was charged, Nazis executed 400 Jews in the public market place, and similar massacres took place in other towns. Cities populated chiefly by Jews were burned down completely and uncounted numbers of Jews died on forced labor projects.

Turkey Curbs Jews in Army

LONDON. — It is reported here that the Turkish Government has decided to exclude Jews from combatant army units. In the future Jews will not drill with arms but will merely be placed with Turkish officers as attendants and orderlies. They will be given the option of serving with the forces for six months only instead of 18 if they are willing to pay a special military tax.

Tremendous Trifles: Here's Our Review Of the Most Unimportant Events of 1939

Well, the first snow has fallen, and the year wanes. Comes the time for a casting of accounts. Thursday — and the whole office ruminated on the most unimportant happenings during 1939. Contributions from various desks gave us these ingredients for a time capsule:

Hens

Diplomats

They've been heard to lament that nobody will trust anybody long enough anymore to allow for a double-cross.

VLADIMIR JABOTINSKY

Says Recognition of Jewish State Due

LONDON. — The Allies will have to recognize a Jewish State "from Dan to Berrsheba and on both sides of the Jordan," it was declared here last week by Vladimir Jabotinsky, head of the New Zionist Organization.

Addressing a memorial meeting for Colomon Jacobi, Revisionist leader who died in Paris last month, the world Revisionist leader declared the Allies were fighting for noble aims and they "will have to make room among their war aims for the restoration of a destroyed people." He said the Jews wanted to help in the fight and that it would be a "great day of pride and rejoicing and a useful day for the Allies if a Jewish army were formed."

Biro-Bidjan Funds Returned to ORT Unit

NEW YORK.—Marking formal suspension of its activities on behalf of Biro-Bidjan, autonomous Jewish territory in the Soviet Far East, the American Biro-Bidjan Committee has decided to turn over all of its funds to the American ORT Federation, it was announced here.

The first instalment of the Am-bidjan funds has already been turned over to the ORT. The remainder will be transferred as soon as technical formalities have been arranged.

Transfer of the money was arranged at several meetings of leaders of both groups, initiated a few months ago. The funds, it was announced, will be used for the ORT's various activities in retraining East European Jews in artisanship.

Nazi Buffer State May Be Expanded Curfew Laws Made Mandatory

LONDON. — Mass arrests of Jews in Vienna continue, with thousands already interned in camps on the outskirts of the former Austrian capital, reports reaching here through Switzerland disclose. Jews are forbidden to leave their homes except between 2 and 4 in the afternoon when they are permitted to buy food.

Expulsion of all Jews from Vienna has been set for the first of the year, with deportation to the new buffer state in Poland considered certain. The expulsion decree is being systematically carried out by Gestapo agents.

The London Times said it had received information concerning the deportation of Jews to the Lublin "reservation," pointing out that thousands of Jews have been sent to the ghetto area from various sections of Poland, particularly from towns in the former Polish Corridor in order to make room for repatriated German nationals from the Baltic States.

FINED FOR SOUVENIR

JERUSALEM. — The District Court fined a Jewish refugee who admitted he tried unsuccessfully to chip a piece of stone from the Wailing Wall as a souvenir. The Arab police inspector who appeared to testify against the defendant declared that such acts were likely to cause trouble between Jews and Arabs.

Properties Will Be 'Legally' Confiscated

PARIS. — Jewish property in the Sudetenland will be "legally" confiscated by the Nazis, as "reparation for the damages Jews inflicted upon Sudeten Germans by supporting the former Czechoslovakian Government."

As virtually all the Jews have been forced out of the Sudetenland, they are considered "political emigrants" and the property they left behind, including houses, furniture and banking accounts will be divided among local Nazis as "reparations."

APPEAL TO POPE

NEW YORK. — A Rome dispatch to the New York Times reported that the Pope has received many appeals from Viennese Jews to intercede with Chancellor Hitler to prevent their deportation to the Lublin "reservation" in Nazi Poland. The dispatch voiced doubt as to the efficacy of such action since "the Holy See is having its own difficulties with Herr Hitler these days."

Scene Around Town

By JACOB LEICHTER

CONFUCIOUS SAY . . .
 You build the wall of China
 With a lot of funny tiles,
 And you learn the most peculiar names
 To keep up with the styles—
 You fix your hand and shake the dice
 And then begin to play
 By picking up a tile and then
 By throwing one away!
 It took the town by storm and all
 The woman got excited—
 Instead of playing Bridge it seems
 You're nowadays invited
 To make a third or fourth or fifth
 And wile away the hours
 By playing with the Dots and Bams
 The Dragons and the Flowers!
 Yes, once upon a time you were
 A regular fanatic
 About a Heart, a Spade a Club,
 But now you're so emphatic
 About the game of Mah Jong
 You forget your husband's dinner,
 And glory be! What ecstasy
 In case you are the winner!
 Gone but not forgotten
 Is the Grand or Little Slam,
 It's here a Dragon, there a Flower,
 Crack or Dot or Bam—
 Someone hollers "Mah Jong!"
 At an interval and then
 You break the wall of China
 AND YOU BUILD IT UP AGAIN!
 "It's such a very silly game
 A waste of time to play"—
 So help me Susie, anyhow,
 THAT'S WHAT CONFUCIOUS SAY!

Other officers elected comprise: Abraham Linder, first vice-president; Abraham Heller, second vice-president; Harry Kopit, treasurer, and Morris Feinberg, chairman of finance. Max J. Ritchev was chairman of the nominating committee.

Rabbi Joshua Werner delivered the invocation, and prayers for departed members were chanted by Rev. I. Dinkin and Rev. M. Pressman. The financial report was read by Samuel Gereboff.

In addressing the gathering, Mr. Kaufman indicated that the increase this year in the poultry slaughtering over that of any previous year, proved that the "Waad Hacashruth still holds the loyalty of Orthodox Jewry in Providence."

Rabbis David Werner, Moses I. Spector and Morris G. Silk also spoke before the gathering, and praised the devotion of Mr. Kaufman and his associates to the cause of Kashruth. About 150 delegates attended.

Reds to Tangle With Pittsburgh Hornets

The irresistible force of the Western division will meet the immovable object of the Eastern division in an International-American Hockey league game at the R. I. Auditorium, Sunday night, (New Year's Eve), at 8:30 o'clock.

That's another way of saying that the pestiferous Pittsburgh Hornets, best road club in the Western section of the Inter-Am circuit, will tangle for the second time here this season, with the flashy, new Rhode Island Reds, who have the best home-ice record of victories in the Eastern group.

Reds and Hornets seldom fail to develop a type of red-hot hockey action that literally stands the clients on their collective feet.

If the Reds win the New Year's eve encounter, Hornets can do no better than to tie the Providencians, over the season, even should they take the three other remaining battles.

When an irresistible force meets and immovable body, a police officer comes along and looks over the driver's license.

Hearts were lights, and folks were gay
On Christmas nite, down the Biltmore way
'Cause it was fiesta — the Home Ball variety
"It was over too soon," declared Society . . .

With apologies to Margaret Mitchell, we wish to say here that the annual Home for Aged Charity Ball, given on Monday nite in the Biltmore Ballroom "went with the wind" . . . It seemed as if first it was 9 o'clock, and then it was 1 o'clock — and the period between these hours simply evaporated . . . The reason for this of course — a beautiful evening . . .

It was a time when one renewed friendships with folks one hadn't seen in eons, when one really went to town on one's dacing, and when one made a premature New Year's resolution not to miss next year's affair . . .

During the nite, the whiff of gardenias mingled with the fragrance of roses, while gorgeous pink camellias and orchid orchids lent their colourful beauty to the setting . . . Flowers continue to be worn in the hair, and Juliet caps are still a note to be reckoned with . . . Hoods, too, remain important . . .

Mrs. Jack Rosenblatt was a devotee of the hooded gown . . . Hers was a distinctive crepe thing of turquoise, and the matching hood against her dark hair was marvelous . . . Libby Young was there in gown of swishy white . . . Titian haired Mrs. Abraham Gurwitz, wore a gown of black velvet, and the novel note was the buttons all the way down the front . . . Mrs. Martin Curran appeared in a gown of black, with a top of filmy white material . . .

Ruth Jagolinzer in a dramatic gown of black portrait velvet, banded with ermine . . . In her coiffure, two ermine pom poms . . .

Janice Klein in a smooth gown of black, with a fitted silver lame bodice, featuring the lowered waistline . . . Murial Goldblatt's gown was of white, with a wide gold girdle belt . . . Gish Levin was a charmer in her gown of demure black and white checked taffeta, with dainty black ruching about the neckline . . . Mrs. Archie Smith wore a gown of off-white mousseline-de-soie, and a crocheted Juliet cap . . .

Mrs. Arthur Newman was a dainty dish in a lame gown of diagonal stripes . . . Black faille taffeta, with twinkly rhinestone trim was chosen by Sylvia Salzman . . . Ruth Tarle was captivating in the striking combination of black and red . . . Her gown was of Grecian lines — and her brown locks were piled high on her head . . . Mrs. Isaac Feinstein's becoming gown of acqua satin, was topped by a quilted jacket . . . Mrs. Herman Swartz appeared in a striking gown of black and gold . . . Mrs. Louis Mayberg was a standout in a stunning gown of black, appliqued in front with sequins in a flower design . . .

Reva Novogroski wore a gleaming gown of gold cloth, and looked positively radiant . . . Bernice Cohen in a coquettish white gown, with the decolletage shoulder line . . . A gorgeous shade of acqua in a square-necklined dinner gown was the choice of Ruth Waldman . . . Mrs. Joseph Chernick in a smart Roman-striped affair, topped by a mid-get white angora evening sweater . . . Mrs. Henry Markoff was charming in her gown of soft blue satin . . .

Mrs. Harry Pinkerson's gown was of smartly simple lines in an unusual colour of brownish plum . . . Mrs. George Katz waltzed around in something graceful of black — we weren't close enough to note the material . . . Elegant white lame was worn by Mrs. Morris Espo . . . Mrs. Albert Rosen was darling in a demure gown of black net . . . A graceful gown of hyacinth chiffon was worn by gracious Mrs. Samuel Magid . . . Ruth Greenberg was a sophisticate in her glamorous gown of black, with narrow shoulder straps . . . Muriel Rouslin's dark attractiveness was enhanced by a smooth gown of black satin . . . Chic black tulle, topped by a bodice of black velvet was the becoming choice of Mrs. Isador Low . . .

Mrs. Benjamin Kane had on a stunning frock of white . . . Mrs. Max Klein's black gown had

"Where The Guest Is King"

Calling the First Baby Born in 1940

. . . A contest that "can't be fixed," and one in which nobody knows the number of entrants, is now in progress in Providence. It's the Baby Derby, sponsored by The Jewish Herald in conjunction with many of the leading merchants in the city.

One Jewish baby, the first born in Providence in 1940, and his or her parents, will justify that old axiom, "Winner Takes All," for the following merchants have offered gifts to the contestant who enters in first place:

WASHINGTON. — The majority of non-Jewish college students are friendly in their attitude towards Jews and bitterly hate Hitler's anti-Semitic program, but at the same time oppose inter-marriage, according to a survey conducted among 2,000 Gentile students in 21 different colleges by Rabbi Ralph Blumenthal, of Huntington, W. Va., reported in the December issue of The National Jewish Monthly.

When asked: "Would you marry a Jewish person?" 27 per cent of the Gentile students answered yes; 57 per cent no; and 16 per cent were uncertain. When asked whether they approved of inter-marriage between Jews and Christians, 33 per cent answered yes; 60 per cent no; and 7 per cent were uncertain.

Conducts One-Man Drive for Finland

NEW YORK. — One of the most spectacular volunteer workers for the Finnish Relief Fund is Jack Pollard, Finnish-born Jew, who is secretary of the Garage Washers and Polishers Union. He personally sold $1,000 in tickets to a benefit, contributed $100 of his own, got 75 members of his union to do secretarial work at the Fund's office and says he hasn't begun yet to "really go to work."

Why all this activity? "You see", he says, "I was born in Helsinki in 1885 and I know the people there. No other land has been as sweet to my race as has Finland. This is the first opportunity I have had to do something for them."

Protest Meeting Brings Nazi Warning

LONDON.—Nazi Germany will not discontinue her campaign against the Jews until world Jewry has been destroyed," according to an announcement broadcast over the Nazi-controlled radio station at Breslau in answer to the protest meeting held recently at Madison Square Garden. The Breslau radio, asserting that the anti-Nazi boycott in America was concentrated in the hands of the Jews, warned that the Nazi campaign against the Jews throughout the world would be intensified until they are destroyed.

The soldiers fight and the kings are heroes.
