Yom Kippur

Yom Kippur, or the Day or Atonement, holiest day in the Jewish year, should have, in 1940, profound meaning for humanity as well as for Jews. The holyday opens on Friday evening, October 11 (the eve of the tenth day of Tishri according to the Jewish calendar) and is concluded at sunset the following day.

Unconnected with any historic event, Yom Kippur is a day of atonement and fasting. It is a time set aside for the individual to repent of his sins and to atone for the wrongs he has done to himself and his fellows.

Observed for one day by Orthodox, Conservative, and Reform Jews throughout the world, the day is devoted entirely to prayer and meditation in the synagogue.

Kol Nidre, a prayer first set to music in medieval Germany, seeks remission of vows made during the year and generally opens the synagogue services held on the eve of Yom Kippur.

Important during the days of the second Temple in Jerusalem, Yom Kippur was even then marked with great ceremony and known as "The Great Day."

Europe's Loss— America's Gain

Mass emigration from Europe to America is a thing of the past. But a highly selective form of emigration has been in progress ever since the end of the first World War and has been accelerated by the second one. It is a movement of European writers, natural scientists, scholars, artists, intellectuals of all kinds for whom life in their native countries has become intolerable because of persecution or conquest.

Forced migrations as a result of intolerance are no new things in history, but the present scale of fight from war and dictator-ridden Europe might recall the scattering of Greek scholars among the countries of Western Europe after the fall of Constantinople to the Turks. We may hope that Europe's eclipse is not so lasting as that of the Byzantine Empire and that the day will come when the refugee intellectuals may return to their native lands. Meanwhile their presence means a broadening and an enrichment of cultural life in the United States. This is something that should be especially remembered at a time when a healthy awakening of American national consciousness sometimes produces an undesirable by-product of undiscriminating "anti-alien" prejudice. — Monitor.

Succoth

Succoth, the Feast of Tabernacles which begins this year on Wednesday evening, October 16, is the Jewish Transgiving Festival. The custom of dwelling in booths during Succoth, which gives the holiday its name, stresses the equality of all men, since rich and poor alike inhabit the same kind of structure.

Observed by Jews of Palestine and Reform Jews for eight days of which the first and last are full holidays, Succoth is celebrated by Orthodox and Conservative Jews for nine days, of which the first and last are full holidays. Succoth is the most joyous and the longest holiday in the Jewish calendar.

Albert Lists Fund Team Captains

Needs of Family Welfare Society Stressed by Gandal

Dr. Archie A. Albert, chairman of the Jewish Special Prospects Division of the 1940 Providence-Cranston Community Fund Campaign, has announced that 383 cards were distributed to division captains at the first meeting of the division held last Monday night at the Jewish Community. Each captain is responsible for 35 cards, and selects five workers to carry out the solicitation work.

Needs of Welfare Society

The following persons will serve as captains of teams: Alter Boyman, Irving I. Fain, Arthur Galkin, James Goldman, Sidney Kane, Samuel P. Lazarus, David Meyers, Milton Sapinsley, Samuel Soforenko, Henry Turoff, Max Winograd and Samuel Workman.

Solicitors will include: Saul Abrams, Bertram L. Bernhardt, Benjamin Brier, Pierre Brunschwig, Nat C. Cohen, David Dwares, Morris Feinberg, David Feldman, Max Kestenman, Isadore Korn, Louis I. Kramer, John Silverman, Edwin Soforenko, Meyer Stanzler, Henry Sopkin, Max Stanzler, Frank Swartz, Mrs. Pierre Brunschwig, Joseph Schlossberg, Harry Guny, Harry Kotlen, Mrs. Max Cohen, Mrs. Samuel Markoff, Dr. Ilie Berger and Jacob I. Cohen.

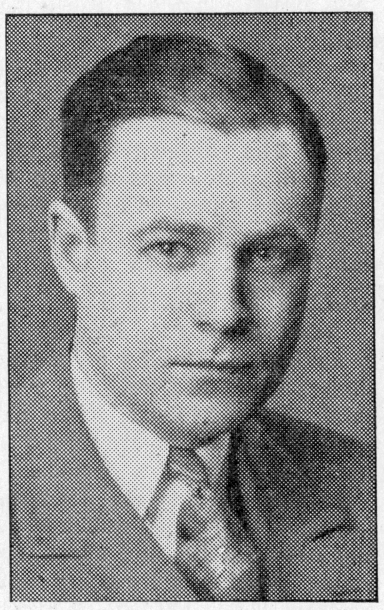

Team Captains

Isadore Gandal, director of the Jewish Family Welfare Society, has emphasized the many urgent needs of the Society, if its services are to be efficient.

"In a community of over 20,000 Jewish people," Mr. Gandal stated, "our Jewish family agency is meeting only a fraction of the needs." He pointed out that the Society has been particular-

New Year Greeting

J. HOWARD McGRATH

Mr. McGrath, Democratic candidate for Governor of Rhode Island, this week issued the following greetings to Rhode Island Jewry: "Please be assured that it is my sincere wish, that you enjoy a Happy and Prosperous New Year. (Signed) J. Howard McGrath."

President Offers Aid to Two Dutch Jewish Children

LONDON. — The identity of the two Dutch refugee children whose passage to the United States and maintenance has been granted by President Roosevelt was revealed here. They are Elisa Klein, 15-years-old, and his sister, Josephine, 14, who arrived in England in an open boat after spending seven days on the high seas. They escaped from Amsterdam the night of the German invasion. Prof. Weintraub of Cornell University has guaranteed passage and maintenance of the children's parents.

President Roosevelt's interest in the children was aroused by a letter to Mrs. Roosevelt from Maurice Lubbock, stationed at the Cheyne Hospital for Children in London, where the two had been sent for hospital care. Mrs. Roosevelt, as honorary chairman of the United States Committee for Care of European Children, referred the letter to the committee.

The President learned of the case and cabled to London offering to pay for their transportation and care. He also asked to be kept informed as to the progress of the measures being taken in behalf of the children.

HIAS Gets Names Of French Refugees

NEW YORK. — The first list of Jewish refugees who succeeded in leaving France for Portugal before being caught in the Nazi trap now spreading over France, was received at the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society (HIAS) headquarters here from its representatives in Lisbon, Portugal.

The registration of the refugees has been undertaken and is being carried on in cooperation with the local Portuguese Jewish Refugee Aid Committee. Although lack of shipping facilities makes more difficult the task of rescuing the stranded men, women and children, possibilities for ultimate emigration depend on the re-establishment of contact between refugees and their relatives and friends abroad.

Zionist District To Elect Officers

According to an announcement received this week from Maurice W. Hendel, president of the Providence Zionist District, a meeting of the organization will be held next Monday night at the Crown Hotel, at which time officers for the ensuing season will be elected.

Reports from various committee heads will be heard, and plans for the approaching year will be discussed.

Late Henry Burt Eulogized At Special Memorial Service

Isaac Hamlin, national secretary of the Gewerkshaften Campaigns in America, brought condolences to the Providence Jewish Community from colleagues of the late Henry Burt, who had known Mr. Burt personally, at memorial services held for Mr. Burt last Tuesday night at the Jewish Community Center, under the auspices of the Affiliated Zionist Organizations.

Mr. Hamlin identified Mr. Burt as part of the golden chain of Jewish tradition, as one of the men who lived and died for the cause of Zionism. "He was not an isolated person," Mr. Hamlin said. "His work was a continuation of that done by other great Jewish martyrs in past years. He was well-known in his lifetime, and his name will be remembered in his death," Mr. Hamlin

It was announced that the name of Henry Burt will be memorialized in Palestine, with a dedication in his name in the very near future.

Eight friends of Mr. Burt, members of the National Workers Alliance, each took out $200 J. N. F. insurance policies on their own lives, in the name of Henry Burt.

Alter Boyman, chairman of the event, eulogized Mr. Burt, as did Mrs. Archibald Silverman. An address in Yiddish was presented by Solomon Lightman, on behalf of the local National Workers Alliance, and Maurice W. Hendel, spoke for the Providence Zionist District.

Mrs. Morris Shoham read a Yiddish peom, "After My Death," by I. I. Schwartz, which was a translation from the Hebrew by

Reorganization Ousts Fritz Kuhn Followers

19 of 69 Posts Are Liquidated

NEW YORK. — "Undesirable elements" are being quietly weeded out of the German-American Bund, according to a report by PM this week.

"Untrustworthiness," was given as a reason for the expulsion of several hundred members, and at least 19 of the 69 Bund posts have been liquidated in a coast-to-coast purge.

"The Bund is being reorganized," snapped its acting chief, G. Wilhelm Kunze, to a question about total membership and dues. "Wilbur V. Keegan, Bund attorney, is doing the reorganizing."

Kunze would say no more but it was easy enough to learn that publicity and Fritz Kuhn had all but wrecked the bund. The Dies Committee helped too.

Up to now the bund has been arrogantly open about its pro-Hitlerism. Today, after the purge, the bund loves everybody except those sympathizing with England. They even would rent Camp Nordland, bund rendezvous, to the Jewish War Veterans.

Keegan, in directing the bund cleansing, was instrumental in expelling a number of Kuhn followers. James Wheeler-Hill, Kuhn's right-hand man, is among the purgees.

Even The Free American and Dictator and Deutscher Weckruf and Beobachter, the bund newspaper, has toned down on Keegan's advice. Keegan also banned open preaching of anti-Semitism, Bund speakers now refer to "a certain minority."

Mexican Workers Clash With Nazis

MEXICO CITY. — Efforts of Nazis to flood the city with anti-Semitic placards have led to street clashes with organized Mexican workers. Nazis posted signs bearing the words, "Out with the Jews." Groups of Mexican laborers tore down the placards, resulting in fist-fights between the conflicting groups.

The Nazis have been conducting a drive to distribute thousands of swastika banners in the capital and provinces. It is reported that taxicab drivers have been offered one peso each to display swastikas on their cars.

Job Agencies Test Anglo-Saxon Issue

NEW YORK. — Paul Moss, Commissioner of Licenses in New York, has ordered employment agencies to give him the names of employers who specify "Anglo-Saxons" exclusively in hiring new employees.

Three agencies have obtained temporary stays of the Commissioner's order suspending their licenses after they have refused to divulge identity of clients who

Ford Denies Anti-Semitism In Circular to Employees

DETROIT. — The Ford Dearborn plant employs more than 5,000 Jews, according to a circular distributed by the Ford company among its agents, which brands as a forgery a letter purportedly written by W. J. Cameron, Henry Ford's right-hand man, to Fritz Kuhn, German-American Bund leader, published by the weekly Friday.

(In New York, Dan Gillmor, publisher of Friday, in a statement said: "We have every reason to believe that the letter to Fritz Kuhn which Mr. Cameron denies having written was written by him" and said Friday had received it from a source "we consider highly reliable.")

Calls Letter Forgery

Cameron himself branded as a forgery the purported letter to Kuhn. The alleged letter, a facsimile of which was printed in Friday and reprinted by the New York newspaper PM, represented Cameron as advising Kuhn that Ford executives were cooperating in keeping from the American press the nature of the Bund leader's former relationship with the Ford company and spoke of meeting Kuhn in New York. The purported facsimile bore the heading of the Anglo-Saxon Society with a Dearborn post-office box number.

Cameron told a correspondent that he had never heard of Kuhn until the latter had gained notoriety for his Bund activities and asserted that he had always given newspapers information concerning Kuhn's employment with Ford. Cameron added that the purported post-office box did not exist and that there was no Anglo-Saxon Society stationery.

The Ford spokesman vehemently assailed the anti-Ford articles in Friday and PM maintaining that Ford was not responsible for the distribution of material ascribed to him. The publications had charged that anti-Semitic propaganda, particularly the book, "The International Jew," was still being distributed under Ford's name.

ly anxious to develop a Visiting Housekeeper Service, to meet child-caring problems, when parents become ill, or are forced to leave home for short periods.

He also stressed the need for financial allotments sufficient to buy new clothing and encourage young people's self-respect and assurance in looking for work. "I hope that everyone will recognize the necessity of a successful Community Fund Campaign, "Mr. Gandal said, "if we hope to biuld up badly needed community services."

Succoth Services At Beth Israel

The Festival of Tabernacles will be observed at Temple Beth Israel, with services on Wednesday evening, 8:15 o'clock, with Rabbi Morris Schussheim and Cantor Joseph Schlossberg conducting the services.

Following the services, the Congregation will be ushered into a Succah, erected in the Temple vestry, where a Kiddush will be served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph Fowler. Rabbi Morris Schussheim will explain the significance of the Succah and the various symbols attached to it.

Services will be conducted on Thursday and Friday mornings at 9 o'clock.

Anti-Jewish Bills Split Yugoslav Cabinet

ZURICH. — The planned introduction of a bill by the Yugoslav Education Minister limiting Jews' attendance in high schools to their proportion in the population has caused a "latent Cabinet crisis," the German wireless reported from Belgrade.

The bill is supported by right-wing members of the government, while Croatian ministers and ministers without portfolio, who are controlled by the Premier, are opposed, the broadcast said. Premier Cvetkovich was said to be avoiding taking sides but trying to bring a compromise in order to avoid an open Cabinet crisis.

NEW YORK. — Edmund I. Kaufmann, recently elected president of the Zionist Organization of America, revealed at a luncheon conference for the Yiddish press that he has given up virtually all his business activities to devote his time to building the Zionist movement in the United States. He defended the moving of part of the Z. O. A. offices to Washington.

Palestine Assembly Approves Budget

JERUSALEM. — For the first time in 18 months, the Jewish Elected Assembly convened here to aprove a budget for the coming Jewish calendar year, beginning October 1, which is expected to total L368,000.

The budget provides for the financing of Hebrew schools and the maintenance of social welfare and health services to which the Palestine administration contributes small grants.

The Assembly discussed also emergency defense measures against air attacks, which have recently taken a heavy toll of life.

Phi Delta Sorority Names Committees

A meeting of the Phi Delta Sorority was held recently at the home of Miss Lynn Taber, at which time the following committee and officers were named: Estelle Port, corresponding secretary; Louise Feldman, Barbara Orkin, Gertrude Krevolin, social committee; Mildred Landy, Selma Simon, Eleanor Greenstein, pledgee; Janet Kapelow, Sylvia Shore, Charlotte Kouffman, welfare committee; Marilyn Yaffe, scrapbook.

Nazis Tax Jews of Nancy for Sabotage

LONDON. — Nazi Germany has imposed a fine of 5,000,000 francs on the community of Nancy, France, in retaliation of alleged "sabotage" of Nazi policies, according to a radio report from Vichy.

The Mayor of Nancy, the report continued, approached the Jewish community and demanded that the Jews contribute 500,000 francs to the necessary sum. Jewish leaders considered the demand unjust since, as taxpayers and purchasers, they will be taxed for the Nazi fine.

Meanwhile, it was learned that Nazi authorities have forbidden "Jews by race", regardless of religion, to return to their homes in the occupied portion of France.

Mrs. Efros is chairman of the annual bridge of the Pioneer Women's club, to be held on Tuesday, October 29 at the Arcadia Building. Proceeds from the affair will be used to benefit the Vocational School for Girls, now under construction in Palestine.

Mrs. Maxwell Carter is co-chairman; Mrs. Albert Sokolow, social chairman, Mrs. Samuel Solkoff, treasurer, and Mrs. Samuel Sugerman, ways and means chairman.

Hoodlums Heckle Synagogue Services

More Than 12 Hurt in Fights

NEWARK. — Police this week were quizzing a group of goose-stepping young hoodlums to see if they had been hired by Nazi sympathizers to break up Rosh Hashonah services at the Congregation Chevri Radfi Sholem synagogue.

An extra large guard was thrown around the synagogue to prevent disorder. The congregation has been heckled by a group of young men, ranging in age from 16 to 24, police said, since the synagogue was moved September 8.

Last Tuesday, when the congregation marched into the synagogue with the sacred scroll used in Rosh Hashonah services, young men marched behind them in goose-step making catcalls and shouting "Heil, Hitler!" A fight resulted from the incident and more than a dozen men were injured, two of them seriously.

Police said they heard the disorders were inspired by members of a German-American colony in Irvington.

Benefit Concert Arranged For Palestine Symphony

NEW YORK.—Bronsilaw Huberman, the eminent Polish violinist and founder in 1936 of the Palestine Symphony Orchestra, is now in New York co-operating with the American Committee of the Palestine Orchestra Fund. They have arranged a benefit probram by the Ballet Russe, to be given Wednesday evening, Oct. 16.

"The Palestine Symphony," Mr. Huberman says, "composed of the cream of Central Europe's great orchestras, is Hitler's gift to the Jews."

Actual figures, which Mr. Huberman, in a likable artistic way, treats vaguely, mean little unless something is known of living conditions in Palestine. But a glance at statistics suffices to show that the orchestra's success is an amazing one.

Each year there is an average of 110 concerts given in Tel Aviv, Haifa and Jerusalem, and the orchestra goes on tour in Egypt.

Of the 280,000 Jews in Palestine, 8,000 are subscribers. The same ratio would give the Philharmonic - Symphony Orchestra an annual subscription list of 200,000!

Destiny Candidate Must Serve 68 Days

NEW YORK. — Joseph E. Mc Williams, leader of the American Destiny Party, must serve 68 days in the workhouse because he "violently violated freedom of speech and assembly in making anti-Semitic and anti-American speeches" in his campaign for Congress.

Magistrate Bromberger handed down the sentence and adjourned until Dec. 18 a hearing on a further charge of disorderly conduct.

About 150 followers of McWilliams, mostly women, shouted their protests when Magistrate Bromberger announced a sentence of 75 days, less seven days already spent in the Bellevue psychiatric ward.

Miss Stanzler Engagement

Mrs. Dora Stanzler of Eaton street, this week announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Helen Ruth Stanzler, to Edward Jay Waldman, son of Mrs. Rose Waldman of New York City. The couple will be married on December 29.

Flink - Lisker

The Parlours of the Narragansett Hotel next Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, will be the attractive setting for the marriage of Miss Rose Lisker, a daughter of John Lisker of Lexington avenue, to Ellis Flink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe V. Flink of Laurel avenue. Rabbi Morris Schussheim of Temple Beth Israel will perform the single-ring nuptials, beneath a bower of white bridal lilies, astors and chrysanthemums.

The bride, to be given in marriage by her father, will wear a bouffant gown of white brocaded lame, fashioned with elbow-length leg o'mutton sleeves, a long train and a sweetheart neckline. She will wear a single strand of pearls. Her finger-tip veil of tulle will be held in place by a headdress of baby orchids and lilies of the valley, and she will carry a white bible, with white orchids and bouvardia.

Miss Fredda Lisker, sister of the bride, will be in attendance as maid of honor. She will be attired in a gown of baby blue satin, made with short puffed sleeves and a heart-shaped neckline. She will wear a necklace of pearls, and will carry an old-fashioned bouquet of gardenias, delphinium and pink roses, and will have a matching headdress.

Alfred Joslin will act as best man. Ushers will be Albert, Hyman, Abraham and Nathan Lisker, brothers of the bride, and Carl Riner, cousin of the bridegroom.

The couple will take a ten-day wedding cruise to Porto Rico and Havana, on the S. S. Kungsholm, and on returning to town will make their home on Waterman street.

Volpe - Levine

The marriage of Miss Lillian Levine, daughter of Isaac Levine of New York City, to Rudolph Volpe, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Volpe of this city, occured on September 28, it was announced this week. Rabbi Morris Silk performed the ceremony in his study.

The bride was dressed in an informal frock of sky blue, contrasted by dubonnet accessories and a grey kidskin jacket. She had a corsage of gardenias. Her attendant, Miss Ceceile Newman of Worcester, Mass., was also outfitted in blue, and had a corsage of roses. Samuel Shlevin of Pawtucket attended the bridegroom as best man.

The newlyweds have taken up residence at 11 Weiss Court.

Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Levy of Brookline, Mass., and Miss Ann Tregar, formerly of this city, spent the holidays with Mrs. Jacob Leibo of 20 Atlantic avenue.

Betrothal Announced

Mrs. Esther Litchman of 133 Oakland avenue announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Fay Litchman, to Samuel Berditch, son of Mrs. Baille Berditch of 221 Oakland avenue.

Son is Born

Mr. and Mrs. G. Sidney Granoff of 22 Balmoral avenue, announce the birth of a son, Bruce Richard Granoff, on September 25 at the Lying-In Hospital. Mrs. Granoff is the former Miss Selma Woodman.

Chusmir Bar-Mitzvah

The Bar-Mitzvah of Leonard Chusmir, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Chusmir of 214 Taber avenue, will be observed at Temple Beth Israel on Saturday morning, October 19. A reception in the vestry will be tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Chusmir, following the ceremony.

Diwinskys Have Son

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Diwinsky of 14 Creston Way, on October 6 at the Miriam Hospital. Mrs. Diwinsky is the former Miss Ann Bernstein.

To Fete Bride-Elect

Miss Frieda Rothstein, bride-elect of this month, will be feted at a shower next Tuesday evening, to be given at Weinstein's Banquet Hall by her two sisters, Mrs. Samuel Bomes, and Miss Mary Rothstein. Dinner will be followed by bridge and mah jong. About 100 guests will attend.

Miss Rothstein, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Rothstein, will become the bride of Arnold White, son of Abraham White, on October 27.

Shower Given

Miss Dorothy Bronstein, a November bride-elect, was feted at a shower on Thursday night at the Old France, given by her cousins, Miss Florence and Miss Beatrice Goldstein.

Miss Bronstein, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bronstein of Gallatin street, will be married to Irwin Rubin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Rubin of this city, on November 24 at the Narragansett Hotel.

He fills his own prescription for the day . . .

Each year, as the leaves begin to turn, there comes the conviction that autumn is the best of all seasons . . Each season has, of course, its outstanding virtues, but in autumn, there seems such a long succession of days with tangy air and brilliant but cool sunlight, that costumes of fall character have an ample period for basking in favor . . .

Versatile as your fall clothes, and just as gay, are the accessories for the coming season . . . Flowers—real ones—are every woman's headdress and they will be pinned to your furs for daytime . . . An old Elizabethan trick was that of pinning natural flowers to the back of gloves . . . One girl likes this idea for her formal wardrobe and has used it twice . . . With a muted pink frock she wore long matching suede gloves, then encircled one wrist with a bracelet of gardenias . . . Vivid blue cornflowers were pinned to the back of one lace evening gown, and another bunch was pinned in her hair . . .

The prominence of pumps or pump influence, and the trend toward closed toes, are two facts of great note in women's shoe collection . . . Brown is experiencing great popularity, with black strong as usual . . .

Costume jewelry is getting more whimsical by the minute . . . Pieces that afford the wearer playful pastime are the newest . . . For instance, there's the little tom-tom lapel pin . . . It has a jewelled rim holding down a taut drum head and attached are tiny ivory sticks for beating . . . Chandelier earrings for evening with their glowing prisms hanging almost to the shoulders are new but an extreme fashion few could wear . . . A small spreading fan or a bowknot is smart clipped to the ears for evening wear . . .

With the most sophisticated milliners using wool lace for fall hats, it may be expected that this fabric, hitherto little used for decorative purposes, will appear in handbags, gloves, scarfs and blouses . . The tailored wool lace blouse is a welcome change from the other types of wool blouses, and with suits increasing in popularity, the wool lace blouse has a definite future . . . The lace evening bag is also an accessory of certain future . . . You will see bags in black laces, and in delicate tinted laces, embroidered entirely with sequins and pearls . . .

Have you one of those precious heirloom lace handkerchiefs, with a softly mellowing ivory tinge, tucked away in the back of a top drawer somewhere? . . . If you have, perhaps you'll want to take it out and appreciate its good points more than you ever have before . . . For this year the lightning fingers of the Belgian and Flemish lace-makers have turned to more hardy tasks, and handkerchiefs edged with real laces — Rose Point, Binche, Duchesse, and Valenciennes — are soaring . . .

When war swept over the lace-makers' cottages in Belgium and

"Funzafire" to Be Shown At Met

Inspired by the Broadway stage hit of Olsen and Johnson, "Funzafire," a comedy and musical will be on the stage of the Metropolitan Theatre for three days, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 18, 19 and 20, according to an announcement this week by the management.

During the show, the company departs from its routine completely, and it is described as a time when anything can and does happen during the performance. Included in the cast are Benny Meroff and his orchestra, Ken and Ray Paige, Al DeVitto and Company, the Four Sailorettes, Billy Morosco, Eight Daughters of Satin, and many others.

In addition to the stage show, the first run RKO picture, "Queen of Destiny," starring Anna Neagle, will be shown on the screen. Supporting Miss Neagle in the film, which is done in techni-

Selective Service Questions

Authoritative and Official Answers Given to Questions Frequently Asked

Major Arthur S. Hassell, of the publicity section, Rhode Island headquarters of the U. S. Selective Service System, has announced that the following is a series of questions most frequently asked by persons interested in Selective Service Registration. The answers are authoritative and official:

Q. Where do I register?

A. Generally speaking, the customary voting place in your community will be used. If not, a notice will be posted there stating the location of the registration place. Your local newspaper also may list registration places. The city or town concerned, too, will announce the location of registration places.

Q. When do I register?

A. Any time between 7:00 A. M., and 9:00 P. M., October 16, 1940. If you are out of the country on October 16, 1940, you must register within five (5) days of your return.

Q. Suppose I am still waiting in line to be registered at 9:00 P. M., will they register me?

A. Yes. All persons waiting to register at the closing hour shall be registered.

Q. How long will it take me to register?

A. It will take 15 minutes, not including waiting time.

Q. What papers will I need to take with me when I register?

A. None. Just be sure of the date and place of your birth.

Q. Do I have to pay any fee to register?

A. No. No fees of any kind are required, and you need not pay anyone to help you with your registration. All possible help will be given to you in connection with registration without cost.

Emanuel Arranges Succoth Services

The Feast of Tabernacles (Succoth) will be welcomed with a harvest festival and congregational succah party, at Temple Emanuel, next Wednesday evening, 8:10 o'clock. At a service, to precede the party, Dr. Israel M. Goldman will preach on the subject, "Two Worlds". Cantor Jacob Hohenemser and the choir, under the direction of Arthur Einstein, will present the musical program. Mrs. Samuel Michaelson will be chairman of hostesses.

On the first day of Succoth, Thursday, services will be conducted at 9 o'clock, with a sermon by Rabbi Goldman on "The Secret of Jewish Survival." On the second day of the festival, services will start at the same time, and the Annual Children's Day service and succah party will be held, under the auspices of the Sisterhood and the Parent-Teachers Association of the Congregation.

To Have Party For Young People

A young people's Succah Party will be held in the Succah of Temple Emanuel on October 20, it was announced this week.

An interesting program is being arranged under the direction of the following committee: Matthew Millman, Irving R. Levine, Sidney Long, Shirley Norman and Hilda Pritsker.

The refreshment committee comprises Tamara Backman, Charlotte Rubin, Doris Fain, Gertrude Weinberg, Charlotte Rakatansky; invitations committee, Betty Plotkin, Charlotte Rubin and Charlotte Rakatansky. Muriel Goldblatt is in charge of decorations.

Way Cleared for Refugee Children

NEW YORK. — The way has been cleared for entrance to this country of non-British child refugees who have fled their native countries before the steamroller of the Nazi invasion, according to Marshall Field, president of the United States Committee for the Care of European Children. Quota restrictions are waived under a new agreement between the U. S. A. and Great Britain.

L'Internationale Song No Longer Popular

Sales Dwindle To Almost Nothing

NEW YORK. — Once "L'Internationale," Russian revolutionary song adopted by Communists throughout the world, sold like hot cakes in New York, but today, well . . .

"Do you know how long it is since we sold a copy, ma?" said Stanley Lefkowitch, at the Metro Music Co.

Mrs. Henry Lefkowitch laughed. "No, I don't know, that's what makes me mad—but it's at least three or four months ago, anyway."

No Communists, the New York Post reports, the Lefkowitches have only a commercial stake in the vocal fervor of American comrades since Henry acquired the copyright to "L'Internationale" back in 1927, when he bought out the musical stock of Joseph P. Katz, also a non-Communist.

"Sales have slowly decreased throughout the years, but during the last year they have dwindled to almost nothing," Mrs. Lefkowitch said.

Bar 3,000 Jewish Soldiers from Homes

BELGRADE. — Three thousand Jewish soldiers, recently demobilized from the Rumanian Army, were barred from returning to their homes in northern Transylvania by the Hungarian Government, it was reported in Belgrade this week. Northern Transylvania was ceded to Hungary by Rumania at the insistence of the Axis Powers. When the Jewish soldiers returned to Transylvania they found Hungarian soldiers at the new border, who turned them back at the point of bayonets.

All Jews engaged in commerce in Bohemia and Moravia have been barred from their posts since October 1, when the provinces were absorbed into the Third Reich, according to a radio report from Prague, picked up in London.

Tighten Boycott Against Germany

NEW YORK. — The Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League announced this week it was intensifying its anti-Nazi boycott.

The league said it would move especially against shipments coming from Portugal, Spain, Russia and Japan and marked as "finished" in these countries but in reality of German origin. The league also will fight against profits being given to Germans from their financial interests in American industries.

Limit Shopping Hours in Prague

LONDON. — German authorities at Prague have ordered Jews to shop in the capital at fixed hours and have forbidden them to place orders by telephone, the newspaper Neuer Tag, published in the Protectorate capital, disclosed.

Shops are not permitted to serve patrons known to be Jews during other hours but are not called upon to ask a customer if he is a Jew. Owners of cafes and inns must inform authorities before this Friday whether their establishments are Jewish or "Aryan". A mixed clientele in a restaurant is forbidden, even where separate rooms are provided.

Fight 'Whispering Campaign'

Bolivia Prepares Bill to Bar Jews

LA PAZ, Bolivia. — The Chamber of Deputies has approved the first reading of a bill which would cancel all immigration permits granted to Jews, including those already granted.

The bill was introduced by a group of "independent" Deputies, who urged passage of the bill on the ground that the "Jews are an unhealthful element" because of their "selfish social, racial and moral principles."

Engineers Explain Wall "Miracle"

JERUSALEM.—Engineers have discovered the prosaic cause of the "miracle of the Wailing Wall" which created a sensation among worshippers.

The worshippers were startled when a stream of water suddenly spouted from between the venerable stones. They immediately proclaimed it "holy water of good omen" and rushed to gather it up.

Engineers traced the water to a well inside the Harem area.

Sicilian Jews were forbidden in the 15th century to migrate to Palestine.

Prohibit Tales That Undermine Morale

Law Directed at Fifth Columnists

JERUSALEM, (Palcor Agency) — The Palestine Government has taken measures against the "Whispering Campaign" by making rumor-mongers and gossips liable to penalties upon conviction.

It was felt that the tendency of certain innocent persons to spread tales originated by the malicious and designed to create consternation and undermine the morale of the populace was rapidly becoming a definite hazard to the security of the country, and that the choice lay between stern repression of such fearsome gossip and gradual disintregation — the latter the aim of the Fifth Columnists responsible for the situation.

Accordingly, a new Defense Regulation provides that persons who publish by word of mouth or otherwise any report or statement relating to matters connected with the war which is likely to cause alarm or despondency will on conviction be liable to a maximum of six months' imprisonment or a fine or both.

Two permissible defenses are provided under the regulation:

1. That the person publishing the report or statement had reasonable cause to believe it true;

2. That publication was not malicious and ought in all fairness to be excused.

Brown Bears Meet Colgate Saturday

The Colgate Red Raiders will inaugurate the Brown major game schedule next Saturday at Providence in a Columbus Day contest which will renew one of the most unusual and colorful rivalries in college football.

The Brown squad and Coach Tuss McLaughry both have special incentives for a triumph over the Raiders and Andy Kerr, because in past years Colgate elevens have thrice deprived Brown of its only three chances for perfect seasons and McLaughry, because Saturday will mark his 14th attempt in 33 years for a triumph over a Kerr-coached team.

Nazis Say Jews Pilot British Planes

LONDON. — The Nazi press, which has informed its German readers that British raiding planes are piloted by Jews, and has consoled hungry Germans by attributing the food shortage to the "Jewish blockade," has now solved the United States destroyers-British bases deal.

The deal was consummated, the Nazi press reported, because of the machinations of U. S. Secretary Treasury Henry Morgenthau.

NEW RESTRICTIONS

THE HAGUE. — A rule will be enforced soon against hiring or promoting Jews or half Jews as civil servants, it was learned this week.

Accident Provides Expensive Omelet

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y. — A $3,000 omelet was ready for the stove on a nearby highway after a truck loaded with 275 crates left the road and overturned. Authorities said the steering mechanism locked.

Aaron Applebaum, the owner, estimated damage at $3,000, but salvaged some unbroken eggs and retrieved most of the occupants of eight chicken cages who were freed in the accident.

ADDRESSES B'NAI B'RITH

Quincy Abrams, regional director of Anti-Defamation of B'nai B'rith, was guest speaker at a meeting of the Henry Friedman Lodge, No. 899, Pawtucket B'nai B'rith, held last Tuesday night at the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue in Pawtucket. Mr. Abrams had as his subject, "Why B'nai B'rith?"

Pavilion World Fair Exhibits are for Sale

Artists Will Receive Proceeds

NEW YORK. — Hundreds of exhibits contained in the Jewish Palestine Pavilion at the Fair, exemplifying the artistic, industrial and cultural achievements of the Jewish community of the Holy Land, have been placed on sale, it was announced by Meyer W. Weisgal, director.

The sale, which includes many of the regular exhibit items as well as the paintings, drawings, etchings and sculptures on display in the Pavilion's Art Gallery, will continue until the close of the Fair on October 27th.

Proceeds to Artists

The proceeds of the sale of art works will go to the Palestinian artists who created them, Mr. Weisgal said, while the sums realized on the rest of the exhibit material will be used to support the work of building the new homeland in Palestine for refugees from persecution.

While the exhibits in the Palestine Pavilion had originally been sent to this country for the duration of the Fair only, the war-time closing of the Mediterranean has made their return to the Holy Land impossible at this time.

German Envoys Held Part of 5th Column

NEW YORK. — Every German diplomatic representative abroad is a regional commander of a certain part of the world-wide Nazi fifth column, Werner Guttman, a German researcher who is becoming a United States citizen, declares in an exhaustive review of the Nazi fifth column organization published in the current Survey Graphic.

The German embassy, which includes representatives of all departments of the Ministry of Propaganda, the Gestapo and the Ribbentrop information bureau, assumes the position of central office for fifth column activities in each country, the writer says.

Volunteers Leave For Middle East

JERUSALEM, (Palcor Agency) —A large group of Jewish volunteers left Palestine last week for service somewhere in the Middle East. They were speeded on their way at the Lydda railway station by Isaac ben Zvi, chairman of the Vaad Leumi, on behalf of the Jewish Agency and of the Yishuv as a whole.

Schurz Foundation Scores Nazi Rule

PHILADELPHIA. — Condemning the brutality of Nazi attacks on London as "a peak of outrage," the executive committee of the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation issued a statement affirming the loyalty to this country of American citizens of German blood.

Nazi Program Banned on Radio

CHICAGO. — The German-American National Alliance of Chicago, whose regular broadcasts over station WHIP wil cease this week by order of the station owners, has used threatening language in the broadcast to induce citizens to join its organization known as the United Front.

B'nai B'rith Spends $58,000 On Relief for War Victims

WASHINGTON, D. C. — B'nai B'rith expended $58,000 for war relief and refugee aid during the first year of World War II through appropriations from its Emergency Relief and German Relief Funds to non-sectarian agencies and B'nai B'rith refugee committees abroad, it was announced here by Henry Monsky, president of the organization.

Reporting on expenditures for these purposes from September 1, 1939 to September 1, 1940, Mr. Monsky pointed out that of the total, $31,500, or more than half, was contributed to such non-sectarian agencies as the American Red Cross, the Finnish Relief Fund and the Queen Wilhelmina Fund.

Red Cross Donations

The Red Cross received contributions totalling $3,500 from B'nai Brith's Supreme Lodge for the emergency war relief drive and the Polish war relief campaign while the individual lodges and auxiliaries throughout the country turned over $15,000 to the Red Cross war relief appeal and the auxiliaries contributed $10,000 in cash and blankets for Polish war refugees.

Additional Gifts

In addition, the A. Z. A., B'nai Brith's youth organization, gave $250 to the Red Cross. The Supreme Lodge also gave $1,000 to the Finnish Relief Fund and the lodges contributed another $1,500.

Among the larger contributions for refugee aid were $3,500 for German-Jewish children, being cared for in England; $8,000 for B'nai Brith refugees from Nazi-occupied countries who are now in Palestine who are now in Palestine and $3,500 to the Youth Aliyah for the transfer of Jewish children from the European lands of persecution to Palestine.

Substantial appropriations were also made to B'nai Brith refugee aid committees in Shanghai, China, Lithuania and Canada as well as for the relief of European Jewish students and writers.

Anti-Nazi Feeling Sweeps S. America

NEW YORK. — Bennett E. Tousley, Jr., "Goodwill Ambassador" chosen by the American Hotel Association, returned by plane from a tour of 22 Latin-American countries with the declaration that "strong anti-Nazi feeling is sweeping South America."

Mr. Tousley, son of an Atlantic City, N. J., hotel man, said the military successes of Germany and the spread of Nazi doctrines were influencing the Latin-American nations to look to the United States for friendship.

Because of the "good neighbor" policy and reciprocal trade treaties, President Roosevelt has gained great admiration in South America, he said.

Mr. Tousley began his tour eight months ago, traveling by automobile and airplane.

Ladies Association Plans Linen Shower

At a board meeting of the Ladies Association of the Jewish Home for Aged, held this week, plans were made for a linen shower, bridge and mah jong, to be held on November 6 at the Home, 99 Hillside avenue.

Mrs. Samuel Rosenfield is chairman; Mrs. Samuel Gan, co-chairman; Mrs. Samuel Ganzer, treasurer; Mrs. Walter Adler, printing; Mrs. Vincent Sorrentino, prizes; Mrs. Al Salzman, refreshments; Mrs. Maurice Felder, pads and pencils, and Mrs. Eli Leavitt, secretary. The entire board is on the committee.

Walt Disney's animated moving picture, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," would have required 250 years to complete if one artist had made all the drawings.

Settlers for San Domingo

Two Groups of European Refugees Arrive at Colony

NEW YORK. — Two new groups of German, Czech and Austrian refugee settlers arrived at the Sosua colony in the Dominican Republic this week. The members of these two groups came from England via New York, under a special arrangement agreed to by the U. S. Department of State and the British Government because there was no direct transportation available between England and the Dominican Republic.

Photo above shows James N. Rosenberg, president of the Dominican Republic Settlement Association which is developing the Sosua colony; and George L. Warren, executive secretary of the President's Advisory Committee on Political Refugees, as they were bidding the new settlers God-speed, aboard the S. S. Cherokee, which sailed from New York harbor for Cuidad Trujillo.

Insert shows the youngest refugee of the group. She is two year old Monica Maas, being taken to her mother who is already in the Dominican Republic. Her father is in an internment camp in Canada. The child was cared for on the journey by 19-year-old Ruth Juris, one of the young women settlers. Monica and Helen sailed with a second group from New York on the S. S. Coamo.

Various Chairmen Report At Beth-Israel Sisterhood Meeting

"Our Work in Days of War" was the topic of an address by Rabbi Aaron J. Tofield, of Woonsocket, to the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Israel at its first meeting of the season, last Monday evening.

Mrs. Aaron Cohen president of the Sisterhood, was the chairman of the evening, and received reports of the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Ira Galkin, New Year Bulletin; Mrs. Mary Wunsch, House Committee; Mrs. Irving Coken, Membership committee; Mrs. Joseph Fowler, Succah Committee; and Mrs. Harry Greenspan, Red Cross Unit.

An outline of meetings planned for the season was given by Mrs. Barney Taber, program chairman. Other reports given were: Mrs. Samuel Brier, sunshine chairman; Mrs. Joseph Fowler, simcha chairman; Mrs. Harold A. Bellin, School for the Jewish Woman; Mrs. Mary Wunsch, United Palestine Appeal Conference; Mrs. Aaron Cohen, Women's League of the United Synagogue of American conference.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Oscar Klemer and Mrs. Benjamin Kane are co-chairmen for the Annual Dinner Dance of the group to be held in December. It was voted that a donation be made to the Community Fund. Current events were presented by Mrs. Benjamin Premack. After the business meeting the gathering listened to a radio program of Yom Kippur music, presented by Rabbi Morris Schussheim, Cantor Joseph Schlossberg and the Temple choir over Station WEAN.

Red Cross work done by the Sisterhood unit was displayed, and refreshments were served by a hostess committee.

Emanuel Sisterhood Makes Dance Plans

At a meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel, held last Monday evening in the vestry of the Temple, announcement was made that Mrs. Henry Sopkin and Mrs. Samuel Rosen are chairman, and co-chairman, respectively, of the Annual Dinner-Dance of the organization, to be held, as in past years, on Thanksgiving night in the Biltmore Hotel Ballroom. A large committee is being appointed, and will be announced at a later date.

During the meeting on Monday night, greetings were extended by Rabbi Israel M. Goldman, and an original skit, entitled "Sisterhood Scores," written by Mrs. Esther Pritsker and Mrs. Harry Fine, was presented. Mrs. Max Temkin, president, presided. A reception followed the business meeting.

Brazil May Admit Diamond Workers

SAO PAULO, Brazil. — The Brazilian Government may admit scores of Jewish diamond cutters from Holland who are now in Portugal, the newspaper Correio Paulistano reports.

It states that the plan originated with Orleans Soares Carvalho, Lisbon representative of the Rio de Janeiro Chamber of Commerce, who suggested to his home office that these craftsmen could create a new industry with Brazil's resources of raw diamonds.

Ten N. Y. Dailies Refuse "Friday" Ad

Article Exposes American Fascists

NEW YORK. — Ten New York City newspapers have rejected more than 100,000 lines of paid advertising offered by Friday magazine, Dan Gillmor, Friday publisher declares.

The ad called attention to a series of three articles on anti-Semitism among American industrial leaders and to a front-cover reproduction of a letter from W. L. Cameron, Ford Motor Co. spokesman, to Fritz Kuhn, convicted embezzler and former fuehrer of the German-American Bund.

The articles, authored by Michael Sayers and A. E. Kahn, name names and reproduce documents to show how anti-Semitism has made inroads among important American leaders.

The newspapers rejecting the ad included the New York Times, Herald Tribune, News, Mirror, Post, Civil Service Leader, Jewish Morning Journal, Jewish Daily Forward, Jewish Day, and the Bronx Home News.

The Times "exercised its right of censorship." The News called it "libelous." "No Comment" came from the Mirror and Post. The Herald Trib wanted "both sides of the story" before accepting the ad. The Jewish press were unanimous that "we have no space."

Rumania Synagogues Closed by New Decree

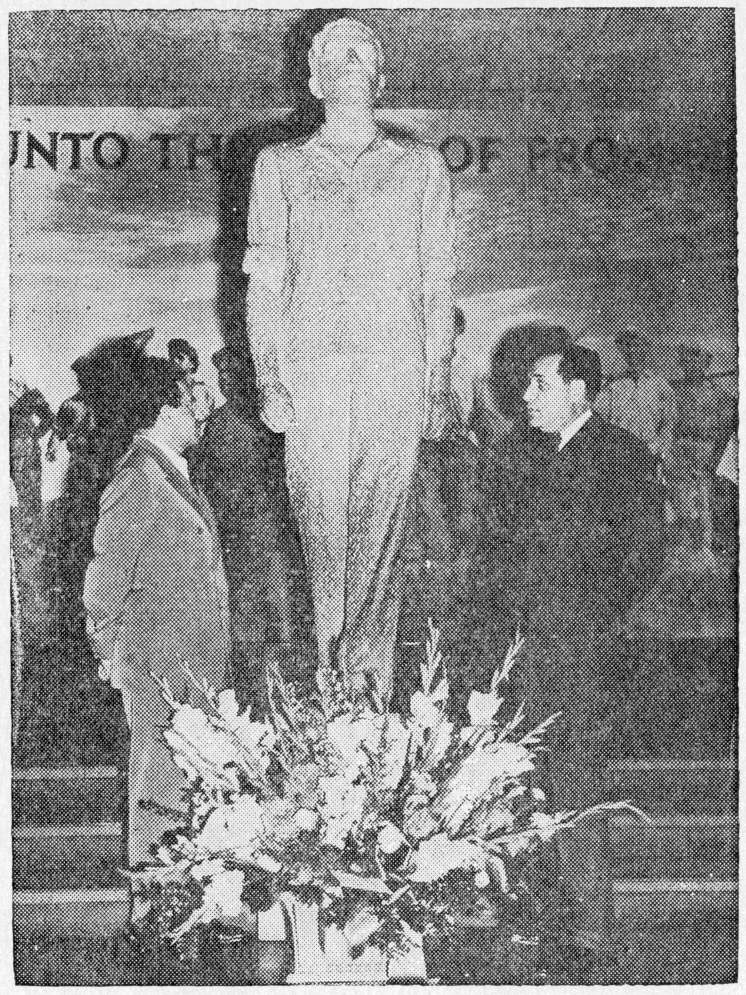

Lawyers Move To Exclude Jews

BUCHAREST. — Ninety per cent of Rumania's synagogues have been closed, according to official estimates under the new decree expropriating Jewish houses of worship except where special permission is granted for continued use.

A number of the synagogues were reopened following a conference between Vice-Premier Horia Sima, and Dr. William Filderman, president of the Union of Rumanian Jews, and Chief Rabbi Safran. Sima said the authorities would "watch and assist peaceful development of the Jewish religion." The minister asked for statistics regarding the number of synagogues and the number of Jews grouped around each in order to change the law to conform to the proportion of Jews in each city.

The Rumanian Bar Association is continuing to eliminate Jews not covered by exemption clauses. The Association of Engineers is ousting all Jews from its ranks. Jewish stockholders and agents were ordered ousted from their positions by a decree of the Economics Ministry.

Scheme for Evacuation of Children

10th Tel Aviv Raid Hastens Preparations

Rural Centers May Take 20,000

TEL AVIV, (Palcor Agency)—The Council of the Smallholdings Settlement and Irgunim (Agricultural Groups) Movement in Palestine which met recently at Kfar Vitkin, with the attendance of representatives of 53 Keren Hayesod villages, Labor groups and other bodies, announced its readiness to accommodate child evacuees from the cities and towns in time of emergency.

It was estimated that the cost of upkeep would be about $10 per head per child. Teachers would be evacuated to those Keren Hayesod centers to which large groups of children would be taken.

In investigating the possibilities of evacuating children from Tel Aviv, which had its tenth bombing raid this week to the rural centers, it was found that the latter could absorb 15,000 to 20,000 children in permanent buildings, apart from tents. The tentative plan provides for the use of school houses, citrus-packing houses and also private houses for the accommodation of the evacuees if necessary.

MEN'S CLUB

A meeting of the Men's Club of the Congregation Sons of Abraham was held on Wednesday night, at which time plans were outlined for Fall activities. Rabbi Taragin addressed the group on the theme, "We Are Prepared."

Italian Press Raves Against Steinbeck

LISBON. — The Italian newspaper, Il Regime Fascista of Cremona, mouthpiece of Italy's more rabid Jew-baiters, has demanded a ban on the "Anti-Christian novels of the Jew, John Steinbeck." (John Steinbeck is not Jewish). The paper mentioned specifically "The Grapes of Wrath" and "Of Mice and Men." The article was one in a series featured in the Italian press in a government-inspired attempt to arouse anti-Jewish sentiments among the populations.

SISTERHOOD MEETS

The Sisterhood of the Congregation Sons of Abraham met last Wednesday night, with Mrs. Harry Davis presiding, at which time plans were formulated for the season's activities. It was announced that a cake sale will be held at the Outlet Company in the near future.
