Community Fund

At this time, more than 3000 men and women, all volunteers in the great cause of relieving human suffering and distress, are in the midst of their unselfish task of approaching thousands of their neighbors for contributions to the Providence-Cranston Community Fund.

Their job is to secure gifts of money which will be used by the firty agencies of the Community Fund to continue their good deeds for another entire year. They offer you this splendid opportunity of helping the men, women and children who need your help at this time. Your gifts will be used to provide nursing, hospital and clinic care — to help families stay together — to give babies a good start in life — to give youth its chance — to make life a little better for the aged, the infirm and the handicapped.

These volunteer solicitors will ask you to give a little more this year — because of the seriousness of our national emergency. Because now, of all times, we must bolster up the courage, the morale, the unity of our weaker citizens, we must safeguard the American way of life — and make it worth while keeping for all of our people.

Providence calls on you to give generously. Before the sun sets on the great Community Fund Campaign, let's all be able to say "I did my share to Help Make America Strong."

The "Chosen People"

The Tract Commission conducted under auspices of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and the Central Conference of American Rabbis, recently issued a monograph entitled "The Jewish Concept of the Chosen People." Its author, Dr. Bernard Heller, most convincingly exposes the mis-interpretation of the word "chosen," which has played so lamentable a part in the spreading of Judaeophobia.

Many, if not most, non-Jews, read into the term "chosen" a tribal and chauvinistic meaning. According to this concept the Jews claim that, in the long ago, they were specifically selected by the Almighty to be His chosen people, and on this premise is based the conclusion that they assume unto themselves a superiority over all the other people.

By convincing quotations from the Bible, the Talmud and other authoritative sources, Dr. Heller demonstrates, that the Jewish people did not consider, and never considered, that they were chosen by God as His favorites; but that they were called by Him, through their leaders, to spread His spiritual message among the pagan peoples who surrounded them. It was not a choice; it was a summons.

They felt themselves to have been called, not in the Napolenic or Hitlerian, but in the Savanarolian or Nazarene sense.

Let it be remembered that the Jewish people did not, at some time in the distant past, hold a convention and pass resolutions that God had decided to make them His favorites. What really happened was that the prophets felt a profound inspiration or "call" to spread the doctrine of God's unity and thus bring to a pagan and materialistic world the ideals of virtue, justice and brotherhood.

It was as the call of Moses, Isaiah and Jesus to banish wrong-doing and corruption

Police to Check All Non-Registrants

Certificate Must Be Shown on Demand

Brig. Gen. Herbert R. Dean, Director of Selective Service for Rhode Island stated today that any young man within the registration ages 21 to 35, inclusive, who through ignorance, misunderstanding, or for any other reason, failed to register on October 16, 1940, must contact his local board and register immediately. He must also obtain his Registration Certificate.

Gen. Dean also said that it is of the greatest importance for those who have registered to always carry their Registration Certificate with them, because the certificate must be shown on demand.

Gen. Dean has requested all state and local police to ask any young man who is stopped for any purpose to show his Registration Ceritficate. The police will forward the names and addresses of all those who fail to show their Registration Certificates to State Selective Service Headquarters. Those persons whose names are sent in will be prosecuted according to law.

WASHINGTON. — Richard Werner, former member of the German-American Bund, testified before a Dies subcommittee that he was given military training by the Nazi Bund in anticipation of "a certain day" when Adolf Hitler would give the word for the overthrow of the United States Government.

"We were told by our leaders," the ex-Nazi said, "that we must be prepared for a certain day and know what to do." "The day" was to see the bund "overthrow the government and establish a Government like they have in Germany."

He left Germany in 1933 when the Nazis came to power and went to England, where he was a lecturer in modern German history at Oxford University.

JAFFA, (Palcor Agency).— This port town, whose trade declined considerably during the period of the disturbances, has now been particularly hard hit by war conditions in the Mediterranean which have further reduced its commerce.

There are many unemployed among the population, the majority of whom are Arabs, for the town lived mainly on its shipping and the developed no industrial projects to speak of. The Municipality is meeting this situation by embarking on a series of relief works to cost $15,000.

WEEKLY BANNED

LONDON. — The German-controlled Dutch wireless reported that police at Amsterdam, Holland, had suppressed the current issue of the anti-Semitic weekly Denoodklok. The broadcast gave no reason for the action.

First Declaration Since War Began

Statement Hailed By Leading Jews

NEW YORK. — The British War Government, through Arthur Greenwood, British Minister without portfolio, extended its assurances that at the end of the present war "the wrongs directed against the Jews will be righted" in a message made public here by the Rev. Maurice L. Perlzweig, head of the European section of the World Jewish Congress.

Great Britain's first public declaration since the outbreak of the war on the Jewish question, the message pledged that "freedom and full equality before the law with every other citizen" will be restored following a British victory.

Dr. Perlzweig, who arrived in the United States from London last week, said that he had brought the message for presentation to the executive of the World Jewish Congress.

Dr. Stephen S. Wise chairman of the executive committee, declared that the message "has wider and farther-reaching implications than the British declaration of Nov. 2, 1917, for Mr. Greenwood's statement has regard to the status of Jews throughout the world, that is, in all lands, after the downfall of Hitler's and Mussolini's regime of lawlessness and destruction."

Restrictions Against Reich Jews Mount

NEW YORK. — As a result of mounting restrictions, all a Jew can do in Germany "is to sit in his room and hope and wait for death," declared Richard O. Boyer, a correspondent of the newspaper PM who recently returned from a visit to Germany.

"Regulations directed against the 187,000 Jews still in Germany —there were never more than 500,000 — have made it literally true that all a Jew in Germany may do is stay in his room and Jews are still in Nazi concentration camps and their treatment can be imagined."

Blackmailing Plot Exposed by Writer

WASHINGTON. — Nazis are blackmailing hundreds of thousands of German Americans into active support of Hitler, it is revealed in a startling expose of German-American Bund activities in the October issue of The National Jewish Monhtly.

The author is Dr. Josef Dunner, former German author and journalist, who is now a writer and lecturer in this country. He himself lives in a Pennsylvania county that is thickly populated with German Americans, and he has obtained first-hand evidence of the blackmail among his neighbors as well as on his coast-to-coast speaking tours.

100,000 Refugees Interned In French Prison Camps

NEW YORK. — Two authentic reports from men who have been inmates of internment camps in France, released by the American Jewish Congress, show that at least 100,000 refugees who have been interned have been made to undergo horrors almost beyond description.

Mass Arrests

Since May, 1940, the French and Nazi police have conducted mass arrests. Since the German offensive, seizures have been made indiscriminately and the dragnet has caught in its grip not less than 100,000, composed of former residents of Poland, Belgium and Germany. At first, they were confined in tiny rooms and were fed on one piece of bread daily.

From this temporary confinement, they were soon escorted to concentration camps on the outskirts of Paris and other French towns. These were the flimsiest structures, subject to the penetration of wind and rain and utterly bereft of anything that even approached sanitary accommodation. Pregnant women were compelled to sleep on uncovered wooden benches and sick men were herded in places unfit for the occupation of human beings.

Families Split Up

Criminals, political offenders, scholars, journalists, were all confined together. Wives in one camp, husbands in another, and children of the same couple in still another camp.

All of the prisoners were forced to work at menial occupations and at the slightest infraction of rules, were maltreated in the most cruel and barbarous fashion.

As for food, it is reported that at 6 a. m. a weak cup of tea or coffee was provided; at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m., a cup of soup, with lentils, rice or macaroni. There were no vegetables, fruit or sugar. There was only polluted water. This has brought on typhoid and diphtheria. There is little or no medical attention.

Opera Singer, Whose Ex-Husband Slugged Nazi's Goebbels, weds again

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Beautiful Gitta Alpar, the German opera singer whose ex-husband, Gustav Froelich, once punched Joseph Goebbels in the nose because of a romance, has a new husband now.

Miss Alpar, "the Jean Harlow of Germany" (before she was discovered to be half Jewish), was married last week to Neils Wessel Bagge, Scandinavian actor. Both gave their ages as 31.

Her ex-husband beat up Germany's Propaganda Minister in 1938. Miss Alpar maintained then that she was not the woman fought for, insisting that the girl was Lida Barova, another actress, who became sweetheart of Froelich, German actor, after Miss Alpar had separated from him. Froelich, she said, punched Goebbels when he found the Nazi official and Miss Barova embracing in a garden.

Search of Jews' Homes Made in Italy

ROME. — A systematic search of the homes of most Italian Jews is being carried out by police in cooperation with the Ministry of the Interior. No explanation has been given for this action but the particular attention paid by the police to private correspondence and books has led to the belief that they are trying to discover whether the Jews are in touch with the enemy or conducting propaganda in his favor. No arrests have been reported thus far.

Polish Jewish refugees are finding it particularly difficult to leave the country although holding valid visas for North or South America. The difficulty lies in the fact that Spanish authorities absolutely refuse transit to Polish citizens or stateless persons.

'Time' Doesn't Want Anti-Semitic Readers

NEW YORK. — The magazine Time has served notice that it "wants no readers who cultivate hatreds."

The announcement was published in the current issue in the form of a reply to a letter by two Pennsylvania readers cancelling their subscriptions with the assertion: "Our poor stomachs are no longer strong enough to handle Time. You can have Jew Beaverbrook, et al. —we still believe America worth saving from this holocaust for Americans—not British."

"Just as neither Franklin nor Wendell Willkie wants anti-Semite votes, so Time wants no readers who cultivate race hatreds," the magazine replied, adding that Lord Beaverbrook was not a Jew but a Presbyterian descended from a long line of Presbyterians.

Laughton - Lombard Film at RKO Albee

Algerian Jews Are Stripped of Rights

VICHY, France. — All native Algerian Jews were stripped of the rights of French citizenship under a decree promulgated this week. The Jews were given the same status as native Moslems.

The decree suppressed a law enacted in 1870 which gave the native Jews citizenship rights. Exceptions under the new ruling were made for certain combatants in the wars of 1914 and 1939 who received decorations for bravery.

Consider Care Of Dependents

JERUSALEM (Palcor Agency) —The directors of the Central Committee for Jewish Soldiers and Welfare, recently established under the auspices of the Jewish Agency for Palestine and the Vaad Leumi (Jewish National Council), have now been appointed, it was announced this week.

The Central Committee is supervising the providing of various comforts and educational facilities for the camps which house Jewish units under the British flag in Palestine and on neighboring fronts. Clubrooms and libraries are being established; lectures and concerts and other entertainments are being arranged.

The Committee is also considering the means whereby the dependants and families of the Jewish soldiers may be assisted. Medical care will be provided for the families, and free schooling for the children. Social and legal advice will be freely given them, and allowances will be made to parents in needy cases.

Berlin Devises "Ghetto Shelters"

LONDON. — Berlin Jews are punished for Royal Air Force raids by being impressed into gangs to clear up the debris, the Jewish Chronicle reported. Jews living near public shelters do not venture into them during air raids because of incidents created by storm troopers, the report said. Those living near the "ghetto shelters" constructed by the Berlin Jewish Community use these.

Ford Spokesman Denies Circular

DETROIT. — Spokesmen for the Ford Motor Co. denied knowledge of the distribution of circulars advising that there are 5,000 Jews employed in their plants. Ford spokesmen said three weeks ago that there were 3,500 Jewish employes. A day later the figure was corrected to 2,600. A Jewish employee who had been with the Ford Motor Co. for 27 years, however, estimated the number of Jews employed there to be from 1,100 to 1,200.

JERUSALEM (Palcor Agency) —High Commissioner Sir Harold Michael is negotiating with Colonial Secretary Lord Lloyd for a system of compensation to benefit victims of enemy attacks. Opposes Curb on Assimilated Jews

VICHY. — Complaints against the alleged "invasion" of certain professions by Jews were scored by Col. Francois de la Rocque, French rightist leader, in the first press comment on the proposed Jewish statute, published in the newspaper Le Petit Journal.

Col. de la Rocque demanded that "fully assimilated" Jews be not treated with discrimination since they belong to "one big family of citizens" and such discrimination would be "unconceivable." He advised Frenchmen to safeguard their positions "not by the way of legal requisition but by strenuous work."

Fund Goal Possible With Increased Work

Public Warned Of Needed Gifts

Approximately half the goal of the Providence-Cranston Community Fund campaign had been reached, as the Herald went to press, according to an announcement by Foster Hunt, general chairman. Mr. Hunt said that after a careful analysis of the returns, he believed the campaign would reach its goal, for the first time in four years.

"However, this can be done only by increased work and effort on the part of solicitors," Mr. Hunt further stated, "and by increased generosity on the part of the public."

"We have a great organization and the people of Providence and Cranston are responding, but to succeed takes time, sacrifice and the expenditure of extraordinary effort."

An appeal was also issued this week by Governor William H. Vanderbilt for the campaign, which read as follows: "Again the time is here when the Providence-Cranston Community Fund makes its annual appeal on behalf of the many welfare, medical and charitable organizations banded together under the name of the Fund.

"One of the thoughts uppermost in all our minds today is National Defense, and this problem of Community Welfare is very much linked with the defense problem. How better can we assure ourselves of a united citizenry, so essential to defense, than through unselfish solicitude for the welfare and health of those less fortunate than ourselves? I am happy to lend my voice and support to the 1940 appeal of the Providence-Cranston Community Fund, and to urge wide and generous response to the drive."

Brown Seeks Win Over Tufts Saturday

Eager to bounce back into the win-column after the Colgate defeat of last week, the Brown grid squad is drilling hard to meet a strong Tufts eleven this Saturday at Providence.

Both teams will enter the game with records of two wins and one loss, Tufts having downed Bowdoin and Middlebury, before bowing to Bates, last week, while Brown conquered Wesleyan and Rhode Island prior to the Colgate defeat.

The Jumbo eleven is one of the strongest assembled in many years and is admittedly hopeful of ending a Brown domination of the series which has lasted 48 years. In the 51-year old series, Brown leads, 21-2, in games won. Tufts elevens scored their only triumps in 1891 and 1892.

Wendell L. Willkie

A Statement of Faith and Purpose

In his acceptance speech, Mr. Willkie said:

"We are here today to represent a sacred cause — the preservation of American democracy. Obviously I cannot lead this cause alone—I need the help of every American — Republican, Democrat or Independent — Jew, Catholic or Protestant — people of every color, creed or race. Party lines are down. Nothing could make that clearer than the nomination by the Republicans of a liberal Democrat who changed his party affiliation because he found democracy in the Republican Party and not in the New Deal Party . . .

"The story of the barbarous and worse than medieval persecution of the Jews — a race that has done so much to improve the culture of these countries and our own—is the most tragic in human history. Today there are millions of refugees who desire sanctuary and opportunity in America. Their misery and suffering makes us resolve to preserve our country as a land free of hate and bitterness, of racial and class distinction. I pledge you that kind of America . . .

"I promise, by returning to these same American principles that overcame German autocracy before, both in business and in war, to out-distance Hitler in any contest he choses in 1940 or after, and I promise that when we beat him, we shall beat him on our own terms, in our own American way."

Statement by Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

On August 6, 1940

The "no-third term" tradition has been vindicated by a century and a half of American experience, and it is particularly important in these days, when the indispensable-one-man-rule is exalted in so many parts of the world at the expense of the democratic faith in laws and institutions rather than in persons, that it should not be repudiated.

Only one consideration would have warranted a change of attitude —if the oposition candidate, in this case Mr. Willkie, would have been an isolationist representing a foreign policy at sharp variance with the sound and courageous one which President Roosevelt has been prosecuting.

In such a case, the vital interests of civilization, now being threatened would have outweighed any other consideration.

Fortunately, Mr. Willkie has expressed himself clearly and unequivocally in favor of tendering maximum aid, short of war, to Great Britain.

WILLKIE REPUDIATES FATHER COUGHLIN

Referring to Father Coughlin, Mr. Willkie said:

"I am not interested in the support of anybody who stands for any form of prejudice as to anybody's race or religion, or who is in support of any foreign economic or political philosophy in this country . . . I have no sympathy for any movement of this kind.

"If I understand his (Father Coughlin's) beliefs, I am not only against them but I don't want the support of anybody like that. If I understand correctly, he is opposed to certain people because of their race or religion.

"There is no place in my philosophy for such beliefs. I don't have to be President of the United States, but I do have to keep my beliefs clear in order to live with myself. I'm not enough interested in being President to compromise my fundamental beliefs."

Steiner - Finberg

At half after eight o'clock last Tuesday night, Miss Phyllis Edna Finberg, daughter of Mrs. Edward Finberg of 185 Gallatin street, was married to Alfred David Steiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Steiner of 41 Elmway street, at a private ceremony performed by Rabbi William G. Braude at the Finberg home. The canopy was made of laurel and white ribbon streamers, and other floral decorations throughout the house were of white chrysanthemums and greenery. A reception for friends followed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Milton Finberg, the bride was most attractive in a regal gown of light blue velvet, fashioned with a very full skirt, short puffed sleeves and a square neckline. She wore a necklace of three-strand pearls. Her finger-tip veil of blue tulle was held in place by a blue cap, and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses.

Miss Lucille Finberg attended her sister as maid of honor. She was gowned in becoming rose lame, cut on simple lines. Her bouquet was of Talisman roses and she had a headpiece of roses to match. Joseph Steiner, brother of the bridegroom, attended as best man.

The bride's mother wore a chic gown of black chiffon, while the mother of the bridegroom chose attractive black, with light blue accent. Both had corsages of gardenias.

After a wedding trip to Washington, and Wilmington, Delaware, Mr. and Mrs. Steiner will make their home at 185 Gallatin street.

Styled

BY EDYTHE JAY

A look in here — and one in there
And a peek in this place, too
So—one gets notes on clothes with a flair
That's how we spotted you . . .

Festive, pleasure-bent folks crowded many spots around town last Saturday nite, and any one of the rendezvous was a fashion writer's paradise, according to the way some of the femmes were dressed . . .

The Indian Room was pleased to present Mrs. Joe Levin in a stunning black outfit, with her black off-the-face hat dramatized by trimming of rust feather . . . Mrs. Norton Nailman, delectable in a purple wool ensemble, with a matching hat and peek-a-boo veil . . Mrs. John Silverman, like a page out of Vogue, in a black frock, and a tiny toque of velvet, with a chin strap . . . Magnificent orchids bloomed at her shoulder . . . A wool frock of grey and black stripes was chosen by Mrs. Hy Cokin, and she had on a chic black tailored felt hat, with a tallish feather . . . A beige and brown costume, with a pretty brown hat was worn by Mrs. Aaron Weiner . . . A black off the face chapeau and well-tailored black dress made Mrs. Herbert Tieman a lovely picture . . . A red, red dress, pleated all the way around was smart on brunette Mrs. Perry Bernstein . . .

At the Beachcomber . . Rhumbaing and conga-ing and zombieing — and everything else that goes with a South Sea atmosphere was the order of the nite . . . In the huge crowd were noted Shirley Levin, vivacious as ever in a green checked outfit . . Selma Slavitt, wearing a two piece black velvet suit, with a whitish, silver metallic top . . . A cute black velvet hat on her titian hair . . . Mrs. Abe Summer in a simple cut frock of black. with a strand of pearls at her throat . . Mrs. Allen Novogroski, in a smooth black crepe dress, with shirred appliqued pockets . . . A black hat, with a tall red feather completed the picture . . . Rhoda Loesberg of Gotham chose a greyish purple as the unique contrast . . Mrs. Herbert Woolf had on a beige wool outfit . . . Mrs. Isador Paisner in a becoming frock of black, with a dainty pearl necklace .

The phone rang at the office on Tuesday A. M. informing us that Harriet Curland a November bride-elect was being feted at the East Side Pheasant Shop that afternoon, in honor of her approaching marriage . . . Made a quick trip up to Cushing street at 2:30, jotted a few notes, and here they are: Harriet, herself, in a stunning black velvet dress . . The square neckline was bound with white lace, sprinkled with rhinestones, and she wore a black velvet bonnet with a Chantilly lace veil . . . Her orchid corsage was most effective . . .

Her mom, Mrs. Nathan Curland, wore a black dress, with an ultra smart torso blouse, trimmed with soutache braid . . A gold twisted chain around her neck . . . Harriet's twin sisters, Vivian and Thelma, were dressed identically alike, making a delightful outfit doubly delightful . . . They had on royal blue corduroy frocks, Princess style, matched by close fitting Calot caps, with tall, tall feathers . . . Both had corsages of white roses . . . Striking as two exclamation points . . .

Mrs. Abraham Horvitz and Mrs. Lou Horvitz were hostesses for the event . . . The former chose a black silk dress, with a red velvet jumper top, while the latter was outfitted in a soldier boy blue crepe frock, with a white sequins collar and a blue hat that matched the frock . . . White rose corsage, too . . . Mrs. Maurice Danin was there, smart in a sea greenish blue wool ensemble, and a black hat . . . Black and green trim were combined for the dress Mrs. Abe Gurwitz wore, and her black felt and velvet bonnet was shaped something like what the good Queen Bess wore . . .

Social soirees are once more cramming the calendar, and a good thing too . . . What better way to temporarily forget this troubled world we live in? . . .

Ban on Propaganda Mail Held Legal

Dickstein to Request Hearing on Measure

German Mail To U. S. Rises

WASHINGTON. — While refusing to reveal any figures on the increase in mail from Germany and other totalitarian states since the outbreak of war, the Postoffice Department said it had no objection to offer to Congressional action on legislation which would bar foreign propaganda for United States mails.

Rep. Samuel Dickstein (Dem. N. Y.), sponsor of a bill barring subversive propaganda of both foreign and domestic origin from the United States mails said he would ask the House Postoffice Committee for a hearing on the measure on the basis of the stand adopted by the Postoffice Department.

Since the outbreak of war, German mail has increased tremendously with most of the increase attributed to shipment of Nazi propaganda formerly brought to this country in German ships. It has been pointed out that under the International Postal Agreement Uncle Sam has carried this mail, directed against himself, at a heavy loss.

Meanwhile, the Dies Committee abruptly halted testimony of Richard Werner, German-born member of the German-American Bund, to go into executive session to hear the witness testify regarding participation of the German Consulate in New York in Bund activities.

Bar Propagandist From Citizenship

PHILADELPHIA. — George Joseph Gerhardi, 37, Nazi propagandist and former German radio announcer on a Philadelphia station, was denied American citizenship by Judge Harry E. Kalodner.

The Judge said the reason for the action was that Gerhardi had been in Germany, since July, 1939, making one year away from this country and thereby losing his residence qualification. Gerhardi was dismissed from radio station WPEN for interpolating pro-Nazi propaganda into his commercial broadcast by ad libbing German propaganda statements.

Why Thorkelson's Against Conscription

WASHINGTON. — The most novel "explanation" of the conscription law comes from Rep. Jacob Thorkelson, Montana "lame duck".

In a three-page insert in the Congressional Record, Thorkelson suggests that the United States is conscripting an army "to battle a unified Europe and Isalm in the Sudan, Egypt, Arabia and Palestine in an attempt to establish a contemplated Kingdom of David with Jerusalem as a capital."

Vichy Gov't Asks Technicians Return

LONDON. — French industries in German occupied France, acting under Nazi pressure to increase their production of war materials, are inviting Jewish technicians formerly employed in these plants to return and resume work, it was learned here.

A Jewish technician, at present a refugee in London, had received a letter from Paris via Lisbon, from an industrial enterprise for which he previously worked, inviting him to return

Hospital Service Suspends Coverage for Drafted Men

Subscribers to the Blue Cross hospital service plan who are drafted under the selective service law or who volunteer for duty in the armed forces of the United States can have their coverage suspended without losing continuity of membership during their term of duty, Kenneth D. MacColl, president of the Blue Cross, announced today.

Men in the armed forces of the United States are provided all necessary hospitalization during their active service at Government expense, Mr. MacColl pointed out. Under ordinary regulations, if these men allowed their Blue Cross memberships to lapse, they would be barred from rejoining upon their return to civil life. The special arrangement makes it possible to suspend their own personal coverage, after proper notification to the plan, and to renew it at the expiration of their service without penalty. Application for reinstatement must be made within 60 days after discharge from military or naval duty.

Men who have subscribed for the husband and wife or family plans may arrange to continue protection for their families during their military service at a reduced rate. In general, a man already enrolled in the plan may continue to protect his wife at the individual rate, rather than the husband and wife rate. A man with one child may protect his wife and child at the husband and wife rate. A man with two or more children must continue his membership at the family rate. Arrangements in specific instances will be made by the Blue Cross, 338 Hospital Trust Building, Providence, upon request.

The following pupils will be called to the Torah during this service: Joyce Brier, Barnet Fain, Stanley Cohen, Harvey Rosenblatt, Robert Fain, Deborah Rosen, Teddy Zitserman, Stephen Espo, Beatrice Temkin, Miriam Goldstein, Kenneth Steingold, Helen Kauffman, Ethel Kauffman, Lester Hyman, Robert Borod, Justin Benharris, Allen Pinkerson, Herbert Abedon, Lawrence Cohen, Frederick Cohen, Larry Waldman, Stanley Rubin, Morton Miller, Judith Oster, Harry Cowen, Donald Jacobs, Jordan Kaplan, Joan Feldman, Gerald Schwartz, Henry Litchman, Noah Temkin and David Rothman.

According to Mrs. Moses P. Epstein and Mrs. Samuel J. Rosensohn, of this city, convention co-chairmen, the plans provide for emergency child welfare, feeding and recreation, public health and hospitalization services and a new "youth conservation plan" to help refugee and native Palestinian boys and girls "weather the conditions brought about by dislocation of economic and social life in the Jewish National Home."

Russia Not Unkown Factor, Says Lore

Will Not Turn Against Nazis

WORCESTER. — Any idea that Russia will turn against its treaty partner, Germany, and join forces with Great Britain and the United States, is purely illusory according to Ludwig Lore, journalist and author, who addressed Worcester Lodge, B'nai Brith at a meeting Tuesday night in Red Men's Hall.

"You are reading now that Russia is negotiating with the English and the Americans, following the treaty between Germany, Italy and Japan," declared the speaker. "I hope that I am wrong, but I predict that what happened a year ago July when Russia suddenly announced her pact with Germany at a time when the British and French military missions were exchanging war plans and secrets, will be repeated this time.

Stalin Practical

"Stalin is a very practical man," continued Mr. Lore. "He may permit German and Italian troops to cross Russia to aid Japan's conquest of China and other territory in the Far East. In return, he may receive a portion of Manchukuo and a part of China so as to ensure himself of an additional source of food to help his starving people. Starvation today in Russia exists but no news of it is allowed to leak out."

U. S. Nearer to War

According to Mr. Lore, the recent linking of Japan with the Axis brings the United States nearer to war. We must give all possible aid not only to England, he declared, but also to China.

The possibility of the United States being invaded was discounted by Mr. Lore, since, in his opinion, invasion will not be necessary. An economic war will be waged so as to exclude the United States from all foreign trade except that which the Axis powers will permit for their convenience.

SIMCHATH TORAH

The Sisterhood of the Sons of Abraham Synagogue will be in charge of the celebration on Simchath Torah eve., October 24, in distributing to the children, American and Hebrew flags, candy and cake, it was announced this week by Mrs. Harry Davis, president.

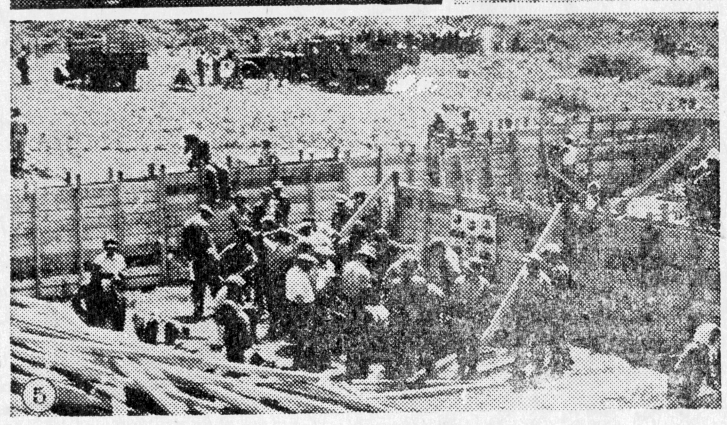

Agencies Carry On Rescue Work

Lack of Funds Is Biggest Obstacle in Rescue Program

Biggest obstacle to the fullest implementation of the rescue programs embraced within the United Jewish Appeal, is not the war, but lack of adequate funds to meet critical emergency needs of Jews in distress zones in Europe and other parts of the world, Jewish refugees settling in Palestine and refugee integration in the United States. With aid of funds received by the Joint Distribution Committee through the United Jewish Appeal, emigration of refugees (1) is continuing from Greater Germany and other parts of Europe. Relief committees have been reconstituted in unoccupied France. in Belgium and Holland, aiding mothers and children (2) made homeless by the war. In Lithuania and Rumania Polish Jewish refugees are being provided with elementary relief assistance (3). In addition, help is furnished to many thousands of Jews in Poland. Food and shelter are provided by the J.D.C. (4). Immigration through alternative channels in continuing into Palestine and new agricultural settlements are being established (5) to absorb new settlers with aid of United Palestine Appeal. Refugee children arriving in the United States (6) receive assistance in adjustment to American life from the National Refugee Service. The far-flung programs carried on by the J.D.C., U.P.A. and N.R.S. now require the most generous support of American Jewish communities through the 1940 United Jewish Appeal.

German Novelist Arrives in Boston

Declares Nazi Victory Impossible

BOSTON. — Not many months ago lingering in a French concentration camp where he had been in custody since the outbreak of the war, Lion Feuchtwanger, German novelist and dramatist, this week arrived here with a heart full of gratitude. In an interview with the Christian Science Monitor, he expressed his personal thanks to the Unitarian Service Committee, for its help in his release from the prison camp.

Sees Hitler Defeat

As head of the Anti-Nazi Right in France, Mr. Feuchtwanger was received at one time by the French President, M. Le Brun; yet when war was declared he was taken to a concentration camp along with thousands of aliens viewed with suspicion by the French Government. His own Government had expatriated him in April, 1933, with the noted German natural scientist, Albert Einstein, and other intellectuals opposed to the Nazi doctrine.

Reached Spain

After experiences in the concentration camp and a tortuous flight across France with more than 2,000 other men and women released by the French Government as the German invaders approached, the German author reached Spain and arrived only last week in New York.

Despite events that have taken place on the Continent of Europe, Mr. Feuchtwanger was confident today that Adolf Hitler cannot win. "It is a mathematical impossibility." he declared in an interview at the Hotel Somerset, "Germany's air superiority over England is lessening and its oil suply is vastly inferior to England's both in quality and quantity."

Under Suspicion

Asserting that only 15 per cent of the German people were strongly for Hitler, 15 per cent vigorously opposed, and the remaining 70 per cent neutral, the German man of letters expressed that belief that a series of major defeats would break the morale of the German people.

"Night Must Fall," Murder Mystery To Be Given by Repertory Oct. 28

"Night Must Fall," the study of a cold-blooded murderer whose deliberate and incredibly arrogant machinations have thrilled many audiences, will be presented by Repertory Players on October 28 at the Barker Playhouse Benefit street, under the direction of William Smith, assisted by Jules P. Goldsmith.

The play was first presented in London, where it ran a year and seven months. So sure were theatrical wiseacres that it would duplicate its triumph in New York that a half-dozen producers besieged Emlyn Williams, its author, for the American rights. Sam Harris was the successful bidder, and he imported the English company intact for the run of the play here. Mr. Williams not only wrote the play, he also directed it, and played its leading part.

Mr. Smith, who is directing the Repertory production, has the leading male role, while female leads are being handled by Harriet Levy and Lillian Greenberg. Others in the cast are Dena Cornfield, Fred Friendly, Irving Gershkoff, Nathan Grossman, Francis Pritsker and Frimette Silverman.

Mr. Goldsmith is ticket chairman; Sidney Long, production; Edith Fink, Arline Sass and Frances Snell, properties; and Ben iVctor, stage.
