Frustration

Extract from a letter from an "evacuated" London schoolteacher as published in News From the Outpost . . .

"My children . . . are wild little creatures 80 per cent of whom have been through the battle of London up-to-date. But they have the Cockney air of defiance. Yesterday we came across the line 'Oh to be in England!' I waited for someone to go on, but no sign. Then I said, 'That is the first line of a famous poem. Do you know who wrote it?'

" ' 'Itler!' someone shouted. There was a wild yell of joy from the whole room.

On Discrimination

Co-incident with the publication of an article that anti-Jewish prejudice was increasing in New England, a letter was received in the Herald offices calling attention to an advertisement in the New York Times in which a Woonsocket firm requested the nationality of applicants for tool designer jobs.

Preliminary check-up of this firm revealed that they were the recipients of a large national defence order. Sadly in need of skilled labor, not available in Rhode Island, they found it necessary to solicit this help out of the State. And from information received it appears likely, though not certain, that in wording the advertisement they chose the word unfortunately, "nationality" in preference to the words "American citizen" which other concerns holding defence program contracts have used.

While it is true that business houses have manipulated the misinterpretation that people have regarding the definition of "nationality" and "religion," it must be emphasized that the use of these words is not aimed at Jews alone. In certain areas, Jews have been the chief victims. But a survey of employment agencies reveals that discrimination is a national pastime affecting every religious and national group. Since the outbreak of the second world war prejudice against Italians and Germans has risen markedly and a blanket boycott against these people, most of whom are loyal American citizens, has been the policy of many firms.

The fight against discrimination must be fought unremittingly. A person's ancestry or his church should not be reasons for disqualification of any job for which he is fitted. And since Jews have been foremost in leading this battle, the name of the Woonsocket firm has been turned over to the proper authorities for a complete investigation. We cannot overlook any opportunity to erase intolerance whether it affects Jews or not.

Counting Chickens

The flood of reports this week that Italy is about to dissovle in civil strife or sue for peace is rightfully deprecated in informed circles as calculated to engender a spurious sense of optimism.

While it is considered a cause for satisfaction that Italy has suffered serious setbacks on land, sea and in the air during the past few weeks, it also should be stressed that a large part of the Italian fleet and the greater part of the Italian land and air forces have not yet been in action. The Italians, therefore, cannot be described as routed.

Jews to Police Ghetto in Warsaw

"Jewish Council" Will Administer

WARSAW. — A Jewish militia, supervised by the Gestapo, will police the Jewish ghetto in Warsaw, it was reported this week. Nazi sources disclosed that the job of herding Warsaw's Jews into the ghetto has been completed. Recruits for the police and for sanitary squads will be taken from Jewish high school graduates.

A postoffice has been opened in the ghetto. All letters must be written in German or Polish.

Permission must be obtained from Nazi authorities for building of new synagogues or schools. The ghetto will be administered by a "Jewish council," the chairman of which will be responsible to Warsaw's Commissioner of Public Order.

No news from outside may be published within the ghetto, and foreign newspapermen are not permitted to visit the district. Jews must purchase only from stores within the ghetto.

U. S. Jewry Asked To Back Endeavor

Rabbi S. Wise Heads Committee

Representatives from Providence will join those from 40 cities this Sunday to initiate action to secure a maximum of American Jewish aid to Great Britain short of war, it was announced this week by Joseph Smith president of the Providence section, American Jewish Congress. The meeting, to be held December 29th, at the Hotel Astor, New York, will be attended by the following delegates, in addition to Mr. Smith: Dr. Ilie Berger, Alter Boyman, Philip V. Marcus, Mrs. Joseph W. Strauss and James Goldman.

The Conference has been summoned by the American Jewish Congress to discuss plans for the establishment of a special agency to register support of Jews in the effort to assist Britain in the present emergency. It is proposed to launch a nation-wide campaign for moral and material assistance to Great Britain, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Congress president said, which will take the form of needed supplies and the funds with which to purchase supplies as cannot be directly contributed.

The agency to be set up will work in co-operation with British War Relief Society.

War Dept. Asked to Use Foreign Trained Doctors

NEW YORK. — A delegation of the American Jewish Congress has discussed with the War Department proposed changes in the present army regulations to permit graduates of foreign universities to be eligible for commissions in the Medical Corps.

Former Judge Robert Patterson, Assistant Secretary of War, received the delegation, headed by Dr. Stephen S. Wise, who pointed out that those affected by the ruling were in the largest proportion Jews who have been refused admission to American universities because of the quota against Jews.

About six thousand graduates of foreign universities would be involved. These physicians have been recognized as qualified, have been passed by state boards and have been practicing in all sections of the country. A memorandum was presented by the delegation and action by the War Department is now awaited.

To Dedicate Plate to Late Sidney Kapland

Rabbi Morris G. Silk will present a sermon on "A Clash of Civilizations" tonight at the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue, during special Chanukah Sabbath services. Cantor David Einstein will chant the hymns. At the close of the worship a memorial plate will be dedicated to the late Sidney Kapland.

A social hour will follow.

British to Intern Illegal Immigrants

LONDON. — Mr. G. H. Hall, Undersecretary of State for the Colonies, announced last week the British Government's decision that illegal immigrants reaching Palestine would be sent to a British colony for the duration of the war.

The Government decided as "an exceptional act of mercy," Mr. Hall added, to permit survivors from the refugee steamship Patria, which sank in Haifa harbor after an explosion last week, to remain in Palestine.

TO CEASE PUBLICATION

NEW YORK. — Die Zukunft, oldest Yiddish monthly in the United States will cease publication with its December issue.

Emanuel Broadcasts Saturday on WJAR

A Chanukah radio program will be presented by Temple Emanuel on Saturday over station WJAR from 5 to 5:30 o'clock, at which time Dr. Israel M. Goldman will deliver a Chanukah message, and a program of music will be sung by Cantor Jacob Hohenemser, accompanied by Arthur Einstein.

Chanukah candles will be lighted, and the children's choir, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Weiser will sing "Haneros Halolu."

Lady Melchett Received into Judaism in N. Y. Synagogue

NEW YORK. — Lady Gwendolyn Melchett was received into the Jewish faith recently at private ceremonies in the Free Synagogue by Rabbi Maurice L. Perlzweig of the Northwest Reform Synagogue of London.

The sole witnesses were Rabbi Stephen S. Wise of the Free Synagogue and her husband, Lord Melchett.

The Melchetts returned recently to England.

Lord Melchett himself was received into the Jewish faith in 1933 by Dr. Perlzweig.

Lord Melchett is the son of the late Lord Melchett (Sir Alfred Mond), a former member of the British Cabinet who was himself, though of Jewish origin, not brought up in the Jewish faith; and of the first Lady Melchett an ardent member of the Church of England.

Have Two Sons

The Melchetts' two sons have been reared as Jews.

Lord Melchett met and married his wife under romantic circumstances during a visit to South Africa. While he was driving alone his car overturned and he was left unconscious. To the home of future Lady Melchett he was taken and she nursed him back to health.

The Marchioness of Reading, sister of Lord Melchett, also followed her brother into the Jewish community. She was received into the Jewish fold by Dr. Perlzweig in London in 1933.

Reared As Christian

Lady Reading, like her brother, was of partly Jewish blood and her father had been an ardent Zionist although they themselves had been brought up by their mother in the Christian faith.

Temple Red Cross Unit Needs Helpers

The Red Cross Unit of Temple Beth Israel, which meets Monday afternoons at the Temple under the chairmanship of Mrs. Morris Schussheim and Mrs. Harry Greenspan, has called for additional volunteers, for the increased duties imposed by Red Cross headquarters. In addition to the sewing and knitting actvities now in full swing, a surgical unit and first aid group will be organized after the first of the year.

No Serious Food Shortage in Palestine

WASHINGTON. — Despite dislocation of communications on the Mediterranean, with all available shipping utilized for the transportation of war material, Palestine is not suffering any serious shortage of staple food products, the Zionist Organization of America reported. The report said Egypt alone was ready to fill Palestine's food demands.

"Egypt is plentifully stocked up with food provisions which it is exporting to Palestine in large quantities," it was stated.

Frankfurter Adopts 3 British Children

WASHINGTON. — Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter has adopted three British children for the duration of the war. The children, who are being sheltered at his Georgetown home, are Ann and Venetia Murray, 12 and 8, daughters of Prof. Filbert Murray of Oxford, and Oliver Gates, 3, son of Mrs. Sylvester Gates of London.

YOUTH ALIYAH

Long before the evecuation of children was thought of in England, Youth Aliyah was rescuing Jewish destitute youth from lands of oppression and bringing them to Palestine where they faced a new life. One of the most constructive phases of contemporary Jewish relief, Youth Aliyah finds homes for these frightened children and provides general and technical information so that they may resume their places in the world as normal, human beings.

COMMITTEE FOR YEMENITE JEWS

A remarkable group of 25,000 Jews living in Yemen where their standard of living approaches that of the poor negro in our southern states. Extremely pious, they maintain themselves by menial work in order that they be permitted to live in Eretz Yisroel. Most of the fine jewelry work, pottery, lace and embroidery coming from Palestine is made by them. The American Committee strives to help as many as possible reach their goal, Palestine, where they constitute a healthy, loyal portion of the Jewish population.

PALESTINE DEFENSE FUND

For many years Jews of Palestine have been preparing for the eventuality of defending the Jewish National Home. Defying the government proscription of arms, the colonists secretly hoarded weapons, trained, and developed a first rate militia which proved its worth in the riots of 1936. Since then, the Palestine Defense Fund has gained semi-official status. This well-trained, disciplined army has now offered its services to Britain in defense of democracy.

Writer Says They Don't All Melt in U. S. Melting Pot

NEW YORK. — When Louis Adamic, the Yugoslav immigrant who became a distinguished writer, talks about America, he becomes excited. Tall, fresh-faced and in his forties, Adamic doesn't like the phrase "melting pot."

"The melting pot was something into which the streams of immigrants were supposed to pour, liquefy gently and be poured out, looking just like the people who had lived in America for generations. Only they didn't all melt. Some of them sizzled and fried in the melting pot, until all the juices were dried out of them.

Second Generation Problem

Mr. Adamic was interviewed at the office of the Common Council for American Unity, of which he is a trustee. "It is not the first generation of the foreign-born who are the acute problem within the land today," he said. "It is their children who are the problem. They have grown up between two worlds and find too often that they belong to neither.

Unity Not Uniformity

"We hear a good deal of talk today of the necessity for unity. But unity is not uniformity. There are close to 40,000,000 of our countrymen who are children of immigrants. The U. S. today is not an extension alone of the British Isles and the Netherlands, but of all Europe and parts of Asia and Africa. We are the heirs of all the world. We must see our diversity, not restrict it or attempt to ignore it."

The Common Council, Mr. Adamic explained, has set itself to the task of counter-propagandizing the propagandists. They are working to the end of emphasizing the concept that all citizens, whatever their nationality or race, are equal partners in American society.

Even forces retreating in Albania appear to be preserving a fair degree of order.

Similarly, although recent resignations certainly denote dissatisfaction in the conduct of the campaign, some authorities see in them evidence of a determination on Italy's part to try to remedy past mistakes. In this connection, the Christian Science Monitor further points out, the suppression of Marshall Pietro Badoglio who is not Fascist, is seen to be counterbalanced by the removal of Admiral Cavagnari, who is.

While it is felt to be too soon to talk of Italy as being on the verge of surrender, it is clear that Italian failures already have caused Adolf Hitler to recast his Balkan propaganda so that if an Italian debalce should come, he may make the best of a bad job.

'Twas Christmas nite at the Biltmore Hotel
Every femme was a charming belle
And the men were so absolutely "right"
In their customary black and white . . .

It looked like the end of the rainbow on Christmas nite fifteen floors up in the Biltmore Hotel Ballroom . . . Gazing down on the city below, one was fascinated by the twinkling and colorful holiday lights, but even more impressing were the sparkling and festive frocks, worn by the women at the annual Christmas Ball of the Jewish home for Aged . . .

According to tradition the crowd was huge, and when one found room on the dance floor, one congaed, rhumbaed, waltzed or just plain danced to Lew Bonick's excellent rhythms . . .

Sitting a couple of dances out, we managed to get the following notes, but the lights were low—so we won't vouch for their absolute authenticity . . .

Mrs. Mowry Lowe wore an effective gown of chalk white crepe, with a jewel-studded jerkin of green . . . Mrs. Isidore Paisner in a unique frock, with black and white stripes . . . An outstanding gown of green and orange diagonal striped taffeta, with a hood, chosen by Mrs. Morris Summer . . . A precious frock of white, with gold sequins, on Mrs. Dave Meyers . . . Eye-catching was Sadye Moskoll in her deep-purple gown, with a rose red top, and a gold belt . . . Long full sleeves and a high neckline, featured the scarlet gown of silk jersey worn by Florence Glantz . . .

Mrs. Louis Hayman was chic in an impeccably tailored gown of white crepe, shirtwaist style, with gold buttons . . . And on the left sleeve, a patriotic gold eagle . . . Mrs. Herman Swartz appeared in becoming black net, while daughter Shirley, was a dream in something drifty black and confection pink . . . Mildred Sack was attractive in her black gown, with its sky blue bodice . . Smart violet crepe was the choice of Mrs. Isador Korn . . . Phyllis Littman was petite in her white satin gown, contrasted by tea roses . . . A bouffant gown of baby blue celanese, worn by Mrs. Milton Scribner . . . Claire Smira was a darling handful in a striped gown of black and silver lame . . .

Cloudrift white chiffon fashioned the gown selected by Ruth Jagolinzer, and in keeping with the South American influence, a mellow orange shawl, with long fringe, worn off her shoulders . . Slim white satin was chic on Mrs. Mrs. George Abrich . . . Mrs. Sidney Ride, smart in black net, with jet sequins . . . Libby Young wore blue chiffon and lame . . . A luscious plum colour in a crepe gown was the smart choice of Celia Topal, and the lowered waistline was accented with gold sequins . . . Warm tones of orange were used for the gown and bolero worn by Mrs. Samuel Young, while the bodice was of royal blue . . . Lucile Finberg was darling in a rose-coloured affair.

Mrs. Al Coken was there in a black satin gown, with a pale pink top . . . A gown of powder blue crepe, with a gold jewelled belt becoming as worn by Mrs. Benjamin Chaset, and a gold necklace was the proper complement . . . Royal purple, dusky rose and pink were used for the stunning gown Mrs. Sam Finegold had on . . . A full skirt of bright red, topped by a black jacket embroidered in red worn by Mrs. Benjamin Bronstein . . . Refreshing, icy blue satin, the choice of Mrs. Leonard White . . . Mrs. Max Namerow wore fluid black silk jersey . . . Figured lame was smart on Mrs. Jack Queler . . .

Mrs. Joe Levin in a portrait-like gown of regal black velvet, and ermine trim . . . A simple and smart frock of white crepe was smooth on Mrs. Edward Deutch . . . Gish Levin was a honey in a

Italy's Richest Jew Proves Illegitimacy

Gets Certificate Of "Aryanization"

ROME. — Italy's wealthiest Jew, Senator Abraham Jacob Isaac Levi, has succeeded in obtaining Government certification that he is an "Aryan," it was learned, under the section of the racial law of 1939 which makes it possible to obtaining "Aryanization," by proving illegitimacy and showing that one's actual father was an "Aryan."

Persons who know Senator Levi find it difficult to understand his action since he is 77 years old, has no children who could benefit by his "Aryanization" and lives alone with his 70-year-old wife, whose maiden name is Cohen. They reside in his showplace palace in Rome which he is rumored to have offered Premier Benito Mussolini as a residence at one time.
