Greek Jews

Together with their non-Jewish fellow-citizens, the 75,000 Jews of Greece are enthusiastically responding to the call to arms in the defense of their country against wanton aggression.

The Greek Jewish community is concentrated for the most part in Salonica, the most important Aegean port which was, and probably will be, the main object of enemy attack.

The Jews of Greece, who in the period following the Balkan war had to suffer a great deal from anti-Semitic propaganda used as a weapon in domestic party strife, live in complete harmony with the rest of the population. Their patriotic attitude has been repeatedly acknowledged by representatives of the Government, including General Metaxas, who have shown much sympathy for the problems of their co-religionists in Nazi-dominated countries.

The spirit that has characterized their resistance against the Fascist steamroller has encouraged the few remaining democracies and has stiffened the backbones of the Balkan countries who were teetering on the edge of Nazism. World freedom is indebted to the Greeks for their magnificent fight.

A World Order

The notion that defense of the "American way" begins only at "the water's edge" still immobilizes too large a body of public opinion in the United States. Some day, and the sooner the better, Americans will awake to implications of Nazi military success which are now only vaguely felt by many.

To understand the "Nazi way" one need only watch the methods by which the "new order" is impossed on much of Europe, including countries which have not been invaded by Nazi armies. What this means to the peoples in the countries which come under the "new order" is tragically illustrated in France The French now have a totalitarian government. Even a plebiscite—after the event—will not express the will of free Frenchmen. For the French people have been, for the moment at least, deprived of the weapons of freedom. Who will debate the questions to be voted on in a plebiscite?

Even in the United States there are groups and individuals who imagine their interests lie in the application of the increasingly authoritarian concepts of government.

Americans would find it increasingly difficult to suppress totalitarian spokesmen if the "new order" for Europe should be seized by world autocracy as a base for the new "world order" envisaged in German-Japanese circles. Subsidies would benefit by every immunity that joint diplomatic pressures could procure.

Americans need not fear such developments if they are awake. They can guard against them. If they see how other peoples have been divided, they can plan defenses of their own unity But they must understand that totalitarianism is a world phenomenon, and is seeking a world, not a single country or even continent, in which to operate.

Rumania to Remove Jews Entering Country After 1919

BUCHAREST. — Premier Ion Antonescu has announced plans to remove from the country all Jews who entered Rumania after 1919 and "reintegrate" all Jews of the old regime into the nation's life in proportion to their number, it was learned. It is understood that 250,000 of Rumania's 340,000 Jews will be allowed to remain. Their numerical proportion to the total population therefore will be approximately two per cent.

Premier Antonescu's plans were stated in a long interview with William Filderman, president of the Rumanian Jewish community. Referring to his recent interview with a correspondent of the Italian newspaper La Stampa, Premier Antonescu reiterated that he would not repeat the mistakes of the short-lived Goga regime in 1938—"attempting to solve all problems at the same time"—but would solve the Jewish problem "only in the course of reorganization of the entire Rumanian State."

Annual Home Ball Date Announced

The annual Home for Aged Charity Ball will be held Wednesday night, December 25, in the Biltmore Hotel, it was announced this week by Harry M. Meyers, general chairman. Jack Marshard's orchestra, under the leadership of Lewis Bonick, will furnish the music. During the evening a buffet supper will be served.

Assisting Mr. Meyers are John Silverman and Benjamin H. Trinkle, co-chairmen. Members of the general committee will be made public shortly.

Vatican Radio Hits French Anti-Semitism

VATICAN CITY. — The Vatican radio has assailed growing racialism in France in a broadcast which stressed the "living connections between Judaism and Christianity."

The broadcast, in French, denounced the "tendency to believe there is a special God for special races."

It pointed out that to support that racial theory the Holy Scriptures had to be censored, the Old Testament eliminated and elements of the New Testament proving the "living connection between Judaism and Christianity" had to be disclaimed.

Unemployed Forced Into Labor Gangs

BUCHAREST. — Adopting Nazi methods, the Rumanian Government has pressed into special labor gangs all unemployed Jews between the ages of 15 and 50 to repair the widespread damage caused by the recent violent earthquakes.

In return for their work, Jews in the special Rumania labor gangs will receive food and lodging. Rumanian Jewish victims of the quake received no relief money from the Government, which spent large sums in alleviating the distress of non-Jewish victims.

It will be observed for eight days by local world Jewry. Channukah gifts of all kinds will be generously given by Jewish

22 Dead, 180 Hurt in Refugee Ship Blast

JERUSALEM. — In a revised report on casualties aboard the refugee steamer Patria which capsized in Haifa Harbor last week, officials reported today at least 22 persons were dead, 21 missing and 180 injured.

They said that 21 of the known dead were caught below decks by the explosion which capsized the steamer and all either were killed outright or drowned.

50,000 Jews Now In Nazi Labor Corps

LONDON. — More than 50,000 Jews have been conscripted into the German Labor Service. They are said to be working in special units, isolated from other workers and distinguished by badges. These laborers represent practically all of the able-bodied Jewish males remaining in Germany.

The work of the Jewish labor units is extremely hard. They are engaged in bridge-building, rail work, hewing wood, iron transport and working in chemical factories and other industries.

Funds to Alleviate Desperate Conditions

List Agencies To Receive Aid

Dr. Israel Goldstein, national co-chairman of the United Jewish Appeal for Refugees and Overseas Needs, and president of the Jewish National Fund, will be guest speaker at a dinner on Saturday night, 7 o'clock, in the Biltmore Hotel Ballroom, which will officially open the United Jewish Appeal campaign in Rhode Island, it was announced today by Saul Abrams, campaign chairman. A cocktail party will be held by Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Silverman for their many friends, preceding the dinner, in celebration of their fortieth wedding anniversary.

The banquet launching the drive, wil mark the culmination of weeks of preparation, in which outstanding Jewish communal leaders have taken an active part.

Distribution of Funds

Funds raised in this campaign will be used in speeding relief to homeless and oppressed Jews in Europe, upbuilding and colonization in Palestine and refugee adjustment in the United States, through the Joint Distribution Committee, the United Palestine Appeal and the National Refugee Service which are included within the United Jewish Appeal for Refugees and Overseas Needs.

The increasingly desperate plight of Jews of Europe, coupled with the need for helping a maximum number to emigrate to Palestine and other havens of refuge, have rallied every section of the Providence Jewish community to the current effort. A record attendance is expected at Saturday's banquet, Mr. Abrams said.

Emphasizes Need

The magnitude of the needs of the United Jewish Appeal agencies was emphasized by Mr. Abrams who urged the support of every section of the community for the life-giving, life-saving work. He pointed out that the continued influx of Jewish refugees to Palestine from Europe makes it imperative that American Jews continue their support of agencies which make this emigration possible. Only last month, Mr. Abrams said, a group of refugees from Rumania arrived in Palestine after traveling overland via Turkey and Syria. The 500,000 Jews of Palestine are, he continued, a "bastion of defense"

Rutenberg Policy Splits Yishuv; Majority Opposed

JERUSALEM, (Palcor Agency) —Flung into discussion at the most critical period of the Yishuv's history, Pinchas Rutenberg's policy of reorganizing the administration of Jewish Palestine through the selection of an "elite" group has split the community, with the great majority opposed to the famous engineer's program of reform.

This was made clear through a series of editorials and party pronouncements issued from the mittee of the General Zionists' Federation adopted a resolution expressing regret at Rutenberg's proposal as representing "a deviation from democratic principles as well as from the fundamental premise that the world Zionist movement and not only Palestine Jewry is the custodian of the Zionist interests involved in the Yishuv's affairs."

The General Zionist declaration asserted that "unity can be

Beneficiaries of the UJA

(Each week The Herald will print a summary of the activities of agencies that will receive funds from the Providence United Jewish Appeal campaign of 1940.)

RHODE ISLAND REFUGEE SERVICE, INC.

The Refugee Service was organized to help those unfortunates who had to flee the persecution of Europe. Friendless, not knowing the language, with no money, they came to the agency. The services offered to these families are many and varied. Homes are furnished and established; money is given until a family becomes self-supporting; jobs are found; some are set up in business; English is taught; medical, dental and legal advice is given; school placements are made for children; summer camps are made available, and information on migration problems is given.

In addition to material assistance given, refugees have also been helped in their personal and psychological adjustment to their new environment. During the past year, there were 200 families who sought assistance of the Rhode Island Refugee Service, Inc.

AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS

On the American scene, the Jewish Congress devides itself into the following program: Defense against propaganda; defense against the effects of anti-Semitic propaganda; law and legislative program to deal with anti-Semitism and the attacks on democracy; boycott, to expose those who evade the boycott and the embargo of Nazi products; political representation, in behalf of the rights of Jews and the amelioration of conditions for refugees, and organization of the Jewish community in all sections of the U. S. to take its part in the carrying out of a local self-defense program.

THE HEBREW UNIVERSITY

The Hebrew University opened in 1925 with representatives of higher institutions of learning from more than 40 countries. Today it houses more than 1200 students and 175 professors from various European countries. The latest addition to the faculties of the University is the School of Higher Agricultural Education, in connection with the Agricultural Experimental Station and the Weizman Institute for Chemistry and the colony of Rechoboth. This addition will afford graduates an opportunity to supplement their theoretical knowledge by practical work in the climate, where they will work as guides and teachers in their future careers.

Refugee Pianist Looks With Confidence to Future Here

By Edythe Jay

A young woman borrowed fifteen minutes of our time on Tuesday afternoon and the story received in exchange was newsworthy five times fifteen minutes

Speaking in a Continent-tinted English—so good to listen to—she introduced herself as Alice Liffman, who with her husband and eleven-year-old son, has come from her native home in Germany, and a later temporary one in England, to take up residence here in Providence . . . Actually, they have been in this country since June, but have been living in town only six weeks . . .

Early Training

Daughter of a famous teacher in Germany, Mrs. Liffman is a music teacher, and renowned concert pianist . . . She was graduated from Dr. Hoch's Conservatory in Frankfort-am-Main, where she received her degree of Bachelor of Music . . . She had specialized in the study of chamber music and preparation for concert work . . . Later she taught at Dr. Hoch's Conservatory, and as a private teacher in Offenbach-am-Main . . . At Duesseldorf and Cologne on the Rhein, she received further training for concert work, and was the master pupil of Willy Huelser and Prof. Michael Wittels . . .

Specialty - Two Piano Work

She told us that she has done extensive concert and radio work in Germany and other parts of Europe, and for many years specialized in two-piano work . . She also held the position of accompanist to famous artists at the Institute of Phonotechnique in Duesseldorf . . . Very significant was the fact that she passed examinations and received acknowledgement in 1932 from the then German state . . .

During recent years, most of her Jewish students emigrated to America, and Mrs. Liffman soon found that she was forbidden to teach Gentiles . . . If we may be trite at this point, things were going from bad to worse . . .

Temporary visas were obtained for England, and the Liffmans lived there for a year and a half . . . Mrs. Liffman taught at St. David's School, Bexhill-on-Sea, England . . .

Via, Canada, she arrived last June in this country . . . In New York she successfully passed a test at Steinway Hall (which is given to all qualified refugee musicians) . . . Later she was presented in two concerts on Park Avenue . . . After the Steinway examination has been completed, the Refugee Service sends refugee musicians to various communities throughout the country, and these communities are urged to patronize them . . .

Plays for Church Group

Providence has already taken Mrs. Liffman to its heart . . She played recently at the Calvary Baptist Church, and last Monday night performed for members of the Temple Emanuel Sisterhood . . . And happily she told us that she has been asked to play for several other groups . . . Coincidentally, while the interview was in session, a member of another Temple Sisterhood came into the Herald office . . . Introductions were made, and it was obvious that the Sisterhood lady was thinking of Mrs. Liffman for groups in which she is active . ..

Mrs. Liffman's very pleasing to look at . . . Of medium height and build, she has dark, softly waved, Titian hair, which peeped out from a veiled-black felt chapeau . . . Her cheekbones are highish, and she has intense blue eyes . . . She wore a simple black frock, and three-quarter length gray coat . . .

Wordly Goods Confiscated

Music, no doubt, is her forte . . . She beams when you talk about it . . . But it was hardly a beam when she told us that her priceless possessions of music and her grand piano had been confiscated in Germany, together with practically all other wordly goods they had had . . . She was reluctant to say more (they still have folks there) . . .

However, she isn't living in the past, nor thinking of it, nor talking of it . . . She's starting completely anew here . . . At her home, 332 Benefit street, she's opened a studio for teaching advanced students and beginners . . "I love teaching as much as—no, really even more than—concert work," she declared . . . It was a sincere statement from a young woman with hope and faith in the future . . .

Miss Klein Betrothed

Mrs. Max J. Klein of 303 Taber avenue has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Janice A. Klein, to Norman Robbins, son of Mrs. Henry L. Robbins of Worcester. The marriage will occur in the late winter.

Brides-Elect Feted

Mrs. Edmund Waldman entertained at her home, 141 Hillside avenue, last Saturday afternoon at a luncheon, in honor of Miss Fredda Lisker and Miss Dorothy Raphael, whose betrothals were recently made known. Decorations throughout the house were of chrysanthemums, while the table was effected with wedding bells and white crepe.

Miss Raphael was dressed in a fitted frock of black velvet, trimmed with white, and Miss Lisker wore a black dress, with a gold beaded top. The hostess presented the honored guests with bridal handkerchiefs made into bridal dolls.

Gershman Bar-Mitzvah

The Bar-Mitzvah of Herbert Allen Gershman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Gershman of 137 Warrington street, will occur on December 14 at Temple Beth El. A reception, following the service, will be held in the vestry from 12:30 to 3 o'clock. No cards are being issued.

Yuloff Bar-Mitzvah

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yuloff of 116 California avenue entertained at a dinner last Sunday evening in the Narragansett Hotel Crystal Ballroom, to honor their son, Abbott Irwin Yuloff, on his recent Bar-Mitzvah at Temple Emanuel.

The Ballroom was attractively decorated with smilax, astors, greenery and other seasonal flowers. Covers were laid for about 250 guests. Catering was by Harry's.

To Fete Miss Genser

Miss Shirley Genser, bride-elect of this month, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Genser of 18 Stadium road, will be guest of honor at a luncheon to be given on December 14 at the Narragansett Hotel, by the Mesdames Max Genser, Anna Goldenberg and Bella Halpert.

Miss Genser will become the bride of Leonard Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cohen of Potters avenue, on Christmas Day at the Narragansett Hotel.

Bernstein - Premack

Miss Sylvia Premack, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Premack of 166 Camp street, and Dr. Donald S. Bernstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bernstein of 45 Woodbine street, will be wed on Sunday evening, 6:30 o'clock, at a ceremony to be performed by Rabbi Morris Schussheim in Weinstein's Banquet Hall.

The bride, to be given in marriage by her parents, will be dressed in a basque gown of bridal satin, made with a full skirt, low heart-shaped neckline, and short puffed sleeves. Her short veil of tulle will fall from a headdress of orange blossoms. She will carry a white bible and white orchids.

Miss Lillian Bernstein, sister of the bridegroom, will attend as maid of honor, wearing a gown of champagne colour, and carrying a Colonial bouquet. Bertram Bernstein will act as best man.

A dinner will follow the ceremony, attended by guests from New York, Boston, Nashua, Pittsfield, Brockton and this city.

On their wedding trip, the couple will visit in New York, after which they will take up residence at 502 Pawtucket avenue, Pawtucket.

Sheftel - Billincoff

The marriage of Miss Sylvia Billincoff, daughter of Mrs. Sadie Billincoff of 194 Orms street, to Benjamin C. Sheftel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheftel of Troy, N. Y., occured last Sunday afternoon, 1:30 o'clock, at the Ahaavth Sholom Synagogue, with Rabbi Morris G. Silk solemnizing the ceremony. A dinner followed in Weinstein's Banquet Hall.

An attractive gown of pink tulle, with a pink lame bodice, was worn by the bride. The square neckline and puffed sleeves were edged in scallops, and the bride wore a single strand of pearls, and a pearl bracelet. Her three-quarter length veil of pink tulle was fastened to a poke bonnet of pink lame, and she carried a white bible, and white orchids with streamers. She was escorted by her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Al Billincoff.

Miss Bessie Katt, maid of honor, was smart in a gown of fuschia taffeta. She carried a Colonial bouquet, and in her hair she wore a fushia ribbon with streamers down the back. Irving Sheftel, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride's mother was attired in a gown of aqua lace, while the mother of the bridegroom wore black lace. Both had corsages of autumn flowers.

Guests were present from Troy, Albany, Brooklyn, Worcester, Boston, Quincy, Fall River and this city.

After a week's wedding trip to New York, the newlyweds will make their home at 23 Dale street, Worcester.

Kitchen Shower

Miss Eva Gordon, who will be married on Sunday to Henry Schultz, was feted at a kitchen shower last Wednesday, given by Mrs. Eva Berger, at the latter's home on Fisk street.

To Honor Sister

Mrs. Ellis Flink will entertain on Saturday afternoon at the Little Red Hen, at a luncheon, to honor her sister, Miss Fredda Lisker, who will be married on December 21 at the Narragansett Hotel, to Harold Corris of Rochester, N. Y. Twenty guests are expected at the luncheon.

Mushlin - Krasner

Miss Beatryce Krasner, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Krasner of 131 Sumter street, became the bride of Myer Mushlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Mushlin of 67 Gallatin street, last Sunday afternoon at the Crown Hotel, with Rabbi Morris Schussheim officiating. Dinner for about 200 guests following the ceremony was catered by Harry's.

Stop us if you've heard this before
The gowns were gorgeous, grand and gay
We've said it, but we'll say it more and more
Smart clothes, somehow, affect us that way . . .

Folks celebrated Thanksgiving nite in diverse ways . . . Some were so stuffed from big dinners, they climbed into the nearest bed, and slept in blissful, oblivious holiday peace . . . Others, who thought they would never look at turkey again, raided the refrig about nine o'clock for cold, sliced sandwiches . . . Still others, in mellow moods, went downtown to see Bette Davis emote in "The Letter." . . .

Emanuel members and friends?" . . . They dinner-danced! . . . Yes, last Thursday nite in the Ballroom of the Biltmore to the excellent music of Lew Bonick, they danced . . . An air of holiday good will hovered about the place, as it always does when good fellows and ladies fair get together—be it holiday or not . . .

Gracious ladies in many flashing colours, and lots of black and white, were to be seen everywhere . . . Fr'instance . . . Mrs. Henry Sopkin, charming chairman of the event, was a vision of loveliness in a white heavy crepe gown, twinkling all over with rhinestones . . The waistline had a crescent-shaped peplum . . . Regal black velvet, trimmed with white was the choice of Mrs. Philip Joslin . . . A warm South American colour combine was the gown of Mrs. Max Grant . . . A blue crepe skirt, with an orangy top . . . Mrs. Harold Kahn wore a picturesque gown of pink grosgrain, silhouetted by black lace . . .

Mrs. William Goldstein was a striking picture in a gown of lipstick red silk jersey, with long tight sleeves and a V-necklace . . Gold bracelet and earrings were the clever contrast . . . Mrs. Mark Goldis chose a bouffant gown of white net, also accentuated with gold . . . A noteworthy gown of aqua velvet top, with a matching skirt of faille was chic on Esther Levitt . . . An orchid was splendid on the aqua . . . Mrs. Moe Borod was a lovely lady in blue crepe . . . Mrs. Morris Espo was eye-catching in toast colored net . . .

Tamara Backman was darling in her square-necklined bouffant gown of silverish metallic cloth . . . Natalie Rosen wore fluid white silk jersey . . . A white and black gown of stiffish material was selected by Gladys Press . . Mrs. Lou Adler had on a gown of charmingly noisy black taffeta . . . Ruth Lewis was a love in her gown of pale pink taffeta . . Frances Cohen in a chic frock of brocaded beige . . .

Ruth Klein's gorgeous gown was of jet net, with a flashing gold sequins bodice . . . Good looking black, with a carmine top was attractive on Mildred Sack . . . Mrs. Haskell Frank appeared in a chic white beaded affair . . . Champagne crepe was most becoming on Mrs. Abe Blackman . . .

Mrs. Eddie Bosler was a delightful picture in white chiffon, covered with black cobweb . . . Sparkling gold beads and sequins figured over the bodice of an attractive white crepe gown, worn by Mrs. Samuel Finegold . . . Black taffeta, accented with American beauty and royal blue, was Evelyn Brown's choice . . .

Mrs. Selig Levine wore a unique frock of black taffeta, with

How to choose a Tender Chicken

Examine the breast. Is it plump and meaty? Press the breast bone. Is it flexible? Then you can count on a fine, tender chicken for dinner.

And here's the test for GOOD COAL

Is it trademarked with RED spots? If so, you've got the best Pennsylvania hard coal—the low ash anthracite—actually laundered to insure as nearly 100% pure coal as money can buy. There's only one Red trademarked coal. It's Famous Reading Anthracite. And that's the coal we sell.

Germany Demands "Favorable" Press

LONDON. — The German-controlled Paris radio has warned the Petain regime that "the whole of France must bear the consequences" if it should again permit publication of an article such as that written by Bernard Lecache, former leader of the French League to Combat Anti-Semitism, in the weekly newspaper Marianne.

The publication of the article, which was followed by the suspension of the paper by the Petain Government provoked grave repercussions. The article which oposed the Petain Government's anti-alien measures was termed the most plain and arrogant since the signing of the armistcie.

a minute pink wool top . . . Creamy beige, with a burnt orange top, was stunning on Dorothy Orleck . . . Mrs. Dave Meyers rustled in tamale red taffeta . . . A gown of blue jersey, dotted with silver sequins, the outfit of Mrs. Harry Goldman . .

Mrs. Max Kestenman's black gown was topped by a jacket of unusual grey sequins . . . Mrs. Alvin Sopkin was there in a gown of white with silver beads . . A shimmering bodice of silver sequins topped Mrs. Ezra Sharp's white net dress . . . Mrs. Sol Rubenstein was eye-catching in her Grecian cut gown of green silk jersey, with gold accent. . . A simple, but stunning gown, of bright red was selected by Mrs. Samuel Garr . . . Mrs. Yvette Mellion came in a pleated dinner gown of heavenly blue . . . Correct black and white was becoming on stately Mrs. Max Winogred . . . Mrs. Arkie Weiner wore a graceful gown of black taffeta, with a darling jacket of blue and pink Roman stripes . . . A midriff gown of white, with green and purple stripes, was "glamourful" on Mrs. Billy Mills . . Mrs. Raymond Cohen's flattering frock was topped by red silk jersey . . . Mrs. Hy Cotton's black crepe skirt, had a chalk white, impeccably tailored blouse . . . Black, with a long sleeved jacket of pink bengalline was no end smart on Mrs. Mac Golden . . .

The affair was definitely on the gala side . . . We like to see women wrapped in holiday glitter . . . And they like it themselves too . . . Why? . . . Because if there's anything a woman prizes above all else, it is the thought of looking really lovely, not just for her family, but also for her public . . .

Women Visit Naval Hospital

A committee of women from the Ladies' Auxiliary Jewish War Veterans, R. I. Post No. 23, visited the Newport Naval Hospital last week and distributed cigarettes, candy, magazines, playing cards and bedroom slippers among 185 patients.

Scene Around Town

BY HENRY DAVIS

LOST ILLUSION

You were debonair and dashing
And you stole my heart away...
What a pity to discover
That your feet were made of clay!

It was nice to have illusions
For a little while or so...
But I wish I weren't a lady
Or I'd tell you where to go!

—NONNY MOUSE

It was a congenial gathering at the party celebrating the Bar-Mitzvah of Benson Baker, son of the Louis Bakers, held at the Indian Room of the Narragansett Hotel last Sunday nite . . . Matthew (Fuzzy) Baker (nine-years-old) stole the show for the nite with his antics at the mike as a master of ceremonies . . . During the evening, the orchestra reminded folks that it was also the thirty-third wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Ilie Berger . . . Another couple complimented, for twelve years of married bliss, were the Irving Kovitch's . . .

Temporary Retirement

Sadly, but with the hope of a new "yera" in 1941, members of Repertory Players last week decided to suspend activities for the next year . . . Non-support by the theatre-going public was the big reason . . . After-meeting-conversation revealed interest in a stock company of twenty or thirty people, who would present plays "on order" for any organization . . . Bill and Carlin Weinstein will be leaving soon for Florida . . . Larry White, secretary of B'nai B'rith, visited town this week, which brings to mind that Archie Smith, B'nai B'rith chief, will be installed as president of the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue, at exercises to be held December 15 . . .

Ladies Lead

Girls captured the baby market this week with the Maurice Chorney's, she the former Berenice Cornfield, the Julius Kravetz's and the Bernard Meyers all proud moms and dads of baby daughters . . . Rabbi William Braude of Temple Beth El, who has been lecturing at Brown University, has authored "Jewish Proselyting," which has been published by Brown University, and released this week . . . More than 1,000 reservations have been received for the McGrath dinner this Sunday nite . . . Because of the number planning to attend, the committee is worrying about getting the words of the speakers to all the diners . . .

Thanksgiving Paragraph

Thanksgiving nite was celebrated by the Saul Hodosh's, Mildred Raden, Sonny Gertz, Mac and Sylvia Feldman, Shirley Halpern at the Studio Club . . . Conscripted as a partner in a rhumba lesson, when volunteers failed to appear, Rabbi Schussheim proved a good sport at the Temple Emanuel dance . . And, when it was all over, the Rabbi was the winner of the first prize—receiving a bottle of champagne as his award . . . At the Indian Room on Saturday nite we spied the Billy Mills . . . Lou Rosenstein . . . Lennie Polinoff . . . Dorothy Selinder . . . Marion Jagolinzer . . . Beatrice Goldstein . . Phil Schwartz . . . Bert Pickar . . . and others . . .

A new scheme that will be inaugurated in Providence next month is "Food-Of-The-Month" club . . . Families with $2,000 annual incomes or better are invited to join and each month they'll receive a package containing five to seven well-known food products on payment of sixty cents . . . It's really a merchandise scheme to acquaint middle folks with luxury and semi-luxury items . . . All is ready for the Temple Beth Israel annual dinner dance at the Narragansett Hotel next Tuesday nite . . . Have you made your reservations? . . That's all for now . . .

Your Hands Can Rescue Them from Doom

The emergencies of a year ago have been converted into an overwhelming catastrophe of war for millions of our fellow Jews in European lands. They need homes - they need food - they need shelter - they need hope. They have been so brutally crushed by tragedy that they can no longer help themselves. Through the 1940 United Jewish Appeal of Providence you can help them. You can provide the material resources to enable the Joint Distribution Committee, the United Palestine Appeal and the National Refugee Service to (1) give emergency relief to hundreds of thousands of Jews in war-torn Poland and provide shelter, medical care and rehabilitation assistance to Jews in other parts of Central and Eastern Europe; (2) help thousands of refugees find a new home in Palestine and promote the upbuilding of the Jewish homeland; (3) aid in the adjustment and integration of refugees in the United States. Through the 1940 United Jewish Appeal of Providence you can extend the hand of sympathy, the hand of hope, the hand of comfort. Your hands can lead them out of darkness and misery.

Please remember that this year twelve important Jewish causes are included in the Providence Campaign.
