In Children's Hands

To the thoughtful citizens who ask "What can we do in this present emergency?" a recent announcement from the Girl Scouts brings word of a practical opportunity to help build the spiritual strength of America.

At a time when freedom of religion is under attack and moral standards all over the world clash with material standards, the training of girls, who are not only future citizens but the mothers and influences of future citizens, becomes particularly important.

The Girl Scout organization provides training for leaders and advisors: it helps them to find the place in Scouting most suited to their talents. It is increasing and intensifying the community service and citizenship work of its members.

Men and women who believe in the spiritual as well as the material importance of democratic citizenship have an opportunity to take part in this undertaking. The voluntary free youth movements of the country are working against time. They cannot be too late.

Catch Phrases

Virginia Gayda, Mussolini's mouthpiece, is having a swell time with that phrase "a more realistic attitude."

Last week he lectured three Swiss newspapers because they "dared" print both Italian and British versions of that "hit and run" battle in the Mediterranean. According to Mr. Gayda, only the Italian story was true.

This reminds us of the advice gangsters offered businessmen a few years ago. While it appeared "a more realistic attitude" at the time, Mr. Dewey later proved its falsity.

In The Same Boat

Low, British cartoonist, made a picture a while back which ought to be distributed among American isolationists and those who believe that the spread of Jewish persecution is not their problem.

It showed a boat that was sinking because of a large hole in its stern. Men in that end of the boat were bailing, valiantly but futilely.

In the bow, which thrust crazily upward, three men sat aloof. One of them was saying: "Phew! That's a nasty leak. Thank goodness, it's not at our end of the boat!"

Maybe the isolationists would say the three should never have got into a leaky boat in the first place. But that would depend on their interpretation of what the boat represented. None of us has any choice about whether or not we'll belong to the human race and whether or not we'll live our lives on this particular planet. — Daily Hawkeye.

Arab Opportunists

News of recent developments in the Near East is alarming. Arab politicians have waited for years for French control to relax. And now the moment appears to have arrived.

Riots have begun in Syria and the French authorities have already been forced to demobilize disloyal Syrian troops. Arab nationalists have declared that after the capitulation of France there is no reason why Syria should not become an independent Arab State.

Nazi and Fascist propagandists are cultivating the seed of dissension. Theirs is the mis-

German Bond Prices Doubled Since June

Fluctuate with Hitler's Triumphs

NEW YORK. — Every day, brokers on the New York Stock Exchange make a market in two German Government bond issues, relics of the Dawes Plan and the Young Plan in the '20's, which were supposed to liquidate the economic consequences of the first World War. Prices vary with the progress of the German armies. Their market value more than doubled after France capitulated late in June.

A moderate decline has set in during the lull of the last three weeks. However, at present prices of about 21 for the 7 per cent Dawes Plan bonds and 17 for the 5½ per cent Young Plan bonds, the two issues command about 75 per cent more than they did three months ago. Prices are still about 80 per cent below par.

No one knows whether a triumphant Nazi Germany would honor bonds issued by a previous regime. So far, Hitler has continued to pay part of the interest on part of each issue.

Couple Says Dancing Formula for Youth

CLEVELAND. — Louis Voelk, 59, and his wife Louise, 58, dance out four nights a week; at home the other nights. They are so good they often have been called professionals.

Voelk, a traveling salesman, often has taken his favorite dancing partner with him, and while "on the road" they have won prizes in 27 states.

Their formula for prolonged youth is simple: "Just dance."

"Most Hated Man" Dies in Nazi Camp

NEW YORK. — The Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League has learned of the death in a German concentration-camp of Dr. Moritz Zalman, who before the Nazi invasion of Austria, was regarded as the man "most hated by the Nazis" in that country. A writer and attorney, he was vice-chairman of the Harand movement, world organization against race hatred and human distress. Dr. Zalman was instrumental in the passage of much social legislation in Austria preceding the occupation by Hitler's army.

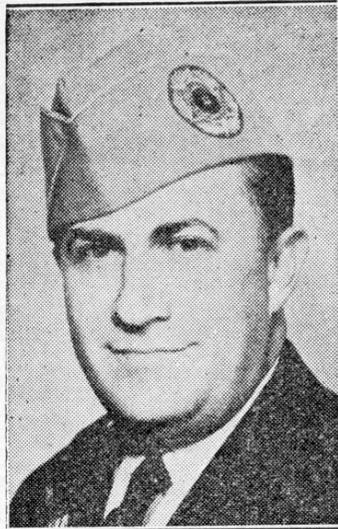

Dr. Zalman was the particular target of Nazi ire because of the high regard in which, despite his being Jewish, he was held by the entire Austrian people.

Mixed Marriages No Longer Allowed

BUCHAREST, Rumania. — Authorities have decided to forbid marriages between Jews and Christians and to stop kosher slaughtering, it was announced this week.

Under a new law "for purification of the Rumanian race," it was announced, applicants for marriage licenses must present evidence of their racial origin and must undergo Wasserman

Hits "Witch-hunting"

BOSTON. — Edgar J. Burman, national commander of the Jewish War Veterans, who will hold their forty-fifth annual encampment in Boston, Aug. 28 until Sept. 1, called for a cessation of "hysterical witch-hunting" in a statement this week.

Wolfsenson to Head State Home, School

Louis B. Wolfsenson of this city will begin his duties as superintendent of the State Home and School on August 1, having accepted a civil service appointment, according to an announcement by Vincent Sorrentino, director of Social Welfare.

Mr. Wolfsenson, who led other competitors in the examination for the post, succeeds Henry S. Proctor. The job pays $3200 annually, plus full maintenance.

Mr. Wolfsenson has been senior interviewer in the Pawtucket office of the Unemployment Compensation Board. He was formerly superintendent of the Jewish Orphanage.

ROZSIKA ROTHSCHILD

LONDON. — Funeral services for Rozsika Rothschild, mother of Lord Rothschild, were held last week. She was the widow of Nathaniel Charles Rothschild, second son of the last Baron Rothschild.

Food, Not Emigration, is Problem Now, Says Troper

NEW YORK. — Emigration under present conditions offers little solution to the European relief problem and the need has reduced itself to one of providing immediate aid to the enormous refugee populations, reported Morris C. Troper, European chairman of the Joint Distribution Committee, arriving on the Yankee Clipper from Lisbon for conferences aimed at revising relief programs and policies to meet the situation.

Vast Camp

"The whole European continent with a few notable exceptions has been converted into a vast concentration camp as a result of the recent occupation of Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg and a large part of France," Troper declared.

Offer Shares at $1,000 Each; Pledge No Gain, Repayment

WASHINGTON. — A registration statement outlining the proposed public sale of 9,569 shares of common stock at $1,000 per share with no promise of any monetary return to those who purchase the securities, was received this week by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the agency that passes upon the validity of representations made by those who offer securities to the public. The statement added that the corporation would seek to conduct its business efficiently and economically and, "if possible, to conserve its assets and pay a modest return on its stock."

Thorkelson Beaten In Congress Primaries

BUTTE. — With but forty precincts still to be heard from, it appears certain that Jeanette Rankin, former Congresswoman, has beaten Jacob Thorkelson, present incumbent, for the Republican nomination by at least 1,000 votes.

Thorkelson, a pronounced anti-Semite, has been perniciously active throughout his one term in putting into the Congressional Record many vile and vicious attacks against the Jews.

Miss Rankin was the first woman ever to be elected to Congress. She was one of the few members who voted against the declaration of war. She has been distinguished as an educator and her family has been prominent in Montana affairs for several generations.

Sidis Case Against Magazine Dismissed

NEW YORK. — The U. S. circuit court of appeals this week upheld dismissal of a $150,000 damage suit begun in 1938 by William James Sidis, one-time boy prodigy at Harvard University, against the F. R. Publishing Corporation, owner of the New Yorker magazine.

Sidis, who, 32 years ago, at the age of 12 spoke several languages and matriculated at Harvard, sought damages on the basis that two articles and a cartoon published in the New Yorker had held him up to ridicule and contempt.

The first of these exiles are already established on the West Indies island.

The proceeds of the stock sale will be used, according to the statement, to provide transportation expenses for settlers, acquire land for them, construct, purchase equipment and finance general supervision.

Rafael Trujillo, former President of the Dominican Republic, offered refuge for the settlement of 100,000 persons and the Dominican Republic Settlement Association, Inc., of 165 Broadway, New York, was organized to carry out the settlement project. The American Jewish Joint Agricultural Corporation has already purchased 300 shares of the association's common stock for $300,000 and has subscribed for an

Cantor to Adopt 100 Refugee Children

OMAHA, Neb. — "Every man, woman and child in the United States must be ready to do voluntarily, freely and cheerfully what the peoples of Germany, Italy and Russia were compelled to do by their dictators by threats, force and terror if we in America are not to be tragically handicapped in mobilizing our defenses for the preservation of democracy," Eddie Cantor told 2,000 delegates and guests at the banquet and closing session of the 72nd annual convention of Dist. No. 6 of B'nai B'rith.

Mr. Cantor disclosed that he is leaving for New York to open his estate at Great Neck, Long Island, where he intends to house and maintain 100 refugee children from England and France.

"Aliens" to Receive Special Treatment

LONDON, (Palcor Agency). — Jews in Palestine who have Palestine citizenship will be regarded as British subjects, while other Jews will be regarded as aliens but subject to special treatment, George H. Hall, Parliamentary Undersecretary for the Colonies, said this week in the House of Commons.

The statement was in reply to a question by Laborite David Adams, who had inquired about the status of Jewish residents of Palestine who had come from

Method for Moving

BRONXVILLE, N. Y. — The public library here has evolved a method of moving its 18,000 volumes without cost or effort from its present quarters to its new quarters. Patrons were urged to borrow an unlimited number of books and keep them, without penalty, until after August 1, when they may be returned to the new quarters.

Marriages Increase

LONDON. — The rush of persons to marry in the first four months of war sent the number of weddings last year to a new high. In December alone, 136,225 couples were married, making a total of 437,406 for the year, an increase of 75,638 as compared to 1938. Whereas only fifteen men and women per thousand of the population married a decade ago, and seventy per thousand in 1937 and 1938, the number last year jumped to twenty-one per thousand.

Constant Job

FORTY FORT, Pa. — The lamp-lighter still has a job here, despite the cheapness of electricity. The Borough Council decided to retain him after residents of two gas-lighted streets voted to keep the picturesque lamps.

U. S. in Good Health

WASHINGTON. — The health of the people of the United States was diagnosed as "excellent" by the Public Health Service last week. For the May 19 - June 15 period, it reported a decline in prevalence of the eight principal communicable diseases compared with previous years.

Long Lost Brothers

OMAHA, Neb. — Two men who for 25 years didn't know they were identical twins visited each other. They are Fred Nester, Omaha, and Edwin Iske, Detroit, who were adopted in babyhood by separate families. They had worked for the same telephone company in Detroit without discovering each other's identity.

LOS ANGELES. — The movie, "Gone With The Wind" earned a gross of $12,402,463 up to June 9 and paid 97 per cent of its original cost of $4,800,000, Assessor John R. Quinn said this week.

Champion Cow

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. — A cow, which has given 230,723 pounds of milk was hailed this week by the Holstein Friesian Ass'n of America as a new all-time champion lifetime producer. She has received exactly the same care as her herd mates, standing in the line-up with them, being milked at the same time in the same way and going to and from the pastures at the same time. She is 13 years and 5 months old.

Jealous of Song

CHICAGO. — Mrs. Lilian Van Krum Cohen, 23 a song writer, has been granted a divorce, after testifying that her husband took exception to a song she had written and deserted her. The song: "That Gray Haired Daddy of Mine."

RABBI S. L. LEWINTHAL and RABBI JACOB M. SHAPIRO Distinguished Rabbis Appeal For Much-Needed Funds

Three distinguished rabbis arrived in Providence this week to make an appeal for funds in the interests of two important Palestine rabbinical colleges — the Yeshiva Meah Shearim and the Chaye Olom Yeshiva, both in Jerusalem.

The guests are Grand Rabbi S. L. Lewinthal, Rosh Yeshiva of the Chaye Olom seminary; Rabbi Jacob Rosenberg of the same Yeshiva, and Rabbi Jacob M. Shapiro of Boro Park, N. Y., who accompanied them to this city.

They are the guests of the local United Orthodox Rabbinate, which has endorsed their mission here, and urges wide support of the two institutions for which they are appealing.

Calling attention to the emergency appeal to save the world-famous Yeshivas, the local Rabbinate has issued the following statement:

"A heart-breaking call comes to us from the Holy City of Jerusalem. The great institutions of the old Yishuv are in danger of destruction. There is a great threat that the hundreds of elderly learned rabbis and the thousands of Jewish children who are supported by these Yeshivas will be left with no means of support. Immediate help is necessary to save our Holy Torah and to feed the hungry children and rabbis. We urge every Providence Jew who holds our Torah dear to do his share in supporting this worthy delegation in their great cause."

Youthful Prodigy Gives First Concert

NEW YORK. — Some 4,000 persons formed the audience at Lewisohn Stadium one night last week to hear Teresa Sterne pianist, of Brooklyn, 12, in her first public appearance.

Playing with surprising musicianship in one so young, and with childlike unaffected grace, Miss Sterne presented Tschaiowsky's Concerto in B flat minor and Chopin's Nocturne in E flat, to the delight of the huge crowd. A noisy airplane flying just overhead didn't distract attention from the youthful artist.

Luise Rainer Aids in Caring for Children

NEW YORK. — Doing her bit for Europe's child refugees is Luise Rainer, who had been working incognito, under an assumed name, with the U. S. Committee for Care of European children. Miss Rainer hasn't heard from her father since he got caught in the Nazi invasion of Belgium, where he was awaiting his visa for America.

Ordered to Turn Over Camp Records

Split between Bund, League Widens

NEW YORK. — The split between the German-American Bund and the German-American Settlement League, which operates Camp Siegfried at Yaphank, L. I., widened as a result of action in Jamaica Supreme Court.

Justice Froessel ordered three former officers of the Settlement League to give the new officers all books and records relating to the camp.

The men against whom the order was signed are August Klappret, former president; G. Wilhelm Kunze, former director, and Gustav Elmer, former secretary. Kunze succeeded Fritz Kuhn as head of the bund and the others are associated with it.

Henry Wagner of Glendale, new president of the Settlement League, and Ernst Mueller of Ridgewood, new chairman, had expressed opposition to the Bund. They were elected after a series of disputes in which it was charged the majority of the league's board were Bund members.

France Moves Against Jews

Decrees Pave Way For Job Restrictions

May Cancel Naturalizations

GRENOBLE, France. — No civil servant may be of foreign birth and the French naturalization of any non-native citizen may be cancelled at any time, according to two new decrees, published in the official French journal at Vichy, last week. The laws are regarded by Marshal Philippe Petain as of the "utmost importance to French administration."

Widely discussed prior to their promulgation, the laws are believed in some quarters to be anti-Semitic and have been regarded as paving the way to bar Jews in France from public office.

This week's official journal published a decree stipulating that in future it will be necessary to be of French origin to hold public office. An office holder's father must have been French, it was explained.

"Magistrates, officials and agents who do not meet this condition are to be dismissed at once," the decree said.

Any functionary of the government whose father was not a native would be considered to have tendered his resignation, the decree said.

Must Defend Race

A second decree said that the French naturalization of any non-native citizen might be cancelled at any time.

"We are compelled to defend the true forces of our race, our blood and our homes," a Grenoble newspaper editorial said.

Lithuania Bans Zionists Groups

WILNO. — The authorities have closed down several newspapers and a number of Jewish religious societies and all Zionist organizations and funds. The action followed registration of all newspapers and organizations, instituted by the regime established following occupation of Lithuania by Soviet troops.

It was explained officially that following the registration some "reactionary bodies" voluntarily discontinued their activities while others were closed by order of the Interior Ministry.

Paris Streets Now Devoid of Jews

LONDON. — Reports reaching here from Paris by way of Switzerland describe the streets of the former French capital as "packed with Gestapo agents and Nazi storm troopers."

Not a store remains open in the Jewish quarter of Paris and Jews are not visible on the streets. At the same time, the reports say, French Jews who have fled their homes are beginning to straggle back.

Ban of WOR Has Boomerang Effect

NEWARK. — Like most censorship gestures, Hitler's ban against WOR and the Mutual network probably will have an effect exactly opposite to the one intended. WOR and Mutual no longer can have short-wave facilities for broadcasts from Berlin.

Commentators from all the belligerent countries are heavily censored. Naturally, comments short-waved from Berlin are likely to be most friendly words Hitler could hear on American radio. Those are the broadcasts that Hitler's ban knocks off the air.

Speeches of President Roosevelt often are omitted from some parts of the various networks. Hitler is objecting because a

Agency Makes Plans For 9,000 Immigrants Have Transport Problem to Solve

TEL AVIV, (Paloor) — The Jewish Agency for Palestine has certificates for 6,000 immigrants and will receive another 3,000 permits shortly, it was announced this week by Eliahu Dobkin, head of the immigration department, at one of the nation-wide rallies held for recruitment of Jews in British Army units.

Since the outbreak of war on September 3rd, 7,250 Jewish immigrants with certificates have arrived in Palestine, he stated. 228 immigrants arrived during the month of June.

Utilization of the immigration opportunities is encountering some difficulties at this time because of communication obstacles, Mr. Dobkin declared, but the Jewish Agency is making vigorous efforts to overcome these handicaps by arrangement of alternative routes for the immigrants.

Frontists Retrial To Occur Sept. 4

NEW YORK. — Federal Judge Robert A. Inch has set Sept. 4 as the tentative date for retrial of the five defendants in the Brooklyn sedition trial on whom the jury disagreed. Meanwhile, 2,000 persons attended a Christian Front rally in Brooklyn with eight of the acquitted defendants as guests of honor.

One of the former defendants, Macklin Boettger, is quoted by the Brooklyn Daily Eagle as stating that ten of the jurors in the trial would join the Christian Front. The magazine Equality calls the trial a "farce" and points out that prospective jurors were not asked whether they were followers of Father Charles E. Coughlin or members of the Front. The magazine predicts a "terrifying campaign of Jew-baiting."

Dressler - Weiner

A picturesque ceremony was the marriage of Miss Bessie Weiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myer Weiner of Vachula, Florida, to Edgar Dressler, son of Mrs. Rose Dressler of Elma street, this city, which took place last Sunday afternoon in the garden at Carvin's Hotel, Sharon, Mass.

An early nineteenth century period gown of white taffeta, was worn by the bride. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a coronet of white net flowers, and she carried a white bible with white orchids. Dainty ribbon streamers ended in small white flowers.

Miss Ruth B. Gilman of Boston attended the bride as maid of honor. She was smartly dressed in a gown of delicate pink net, effectively bordered in contrasting colours of blue and green. She carried a white bible covered with pink and blue flowers.

Shepley Dressler, a brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Ushers included Jerome Dressler, Oscar Dressler, Morris Dressler, all of Providence, Zigmund Berman of Fall River, Harry Ramler of Boston and Samuel Weiner of Florida.

Following the ceremony, a dinner reception was held. About 200 guests were present from New York, Baltimore, Florida, Hartford, Holyoke, and this city.

The couple is on an extended wedding trip through the Mohawk Trail and the Adirondacks, after which they will make their residence in Providence.

Set Marriage Date

Announcement was made this week, that the marriage of Miss Marjorie Cohen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nat C. Cohen of Elton street, to Leonard A. Lerner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lerner of Huntington, West Virginia, will occur on September 10. Rabbi Israel M. Goldman will perform the ceremony at the home of the bride-elect's parents.

Feted at Party

In honor of their betrothal, Miss Florence Glantz, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Glantz of Fifth street, and Leonard Hazen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hazen of Pawtucket, were feted at a dinner party given recently by Mr. and Mrs. Hazen at their summer home in Barrington. Covers were laid for 25 guests, who were in attendance from Boston, New Bedford, Pawtucket and this city.

Palestine Becomes Diamond Center

TEL AVIV, (Palcor Agency)—Four years ago Akiba Weiss of this city took the initiative in founding a Diamond Brokers' Club here with five members, with the object of having it serve as a rendezvous for merchants in the precious-stone industry, on the lines of the clubs in Belgium and Holland.

The first Belgian-Jewish diamond factory was founded three years ago. There are now five, in addition to individual workshops for polishing and setting the gems.

It was not until Jews came from Eastern Europe to Belgium and Holland that the diamond industry really began to flourish.

Under the contract with the Dominican Republic, settlers will be guaranteed religious freedom, equality of opportunities, civil, legal and economic rights and freedom from persecution. Efforts will be made to establish settlers as citizens and to enable them to reimburse the association for its expenses on their behalf.

Settlers will be selected in accordance with their fitness and technical ability for agriculture, industry, manufactures and trades.

Palestine Legion Is Safe in London

LONDON. — Giving the lie to earlier reports that the Palestine Legion, including 460 Jews and 240 Arabs from the Holy Land, stationed in the Maginot Line somewhere in France, had been captured by the Nazi Army, it was announced here that the Palestine Legion had arrived in London.

The Legion, it was said, abandoned the Maginot Line when it became evident that the French Government was about to capitulate to the Nazis, and withdrew to the coast from where they were ferried back to England. No casualties were reported in the Legion.

Styled

BY EDYTHE JAY

A Pleasant Dictator

Although it just started, it's really done
At least as far as Dame Fashion goes
Summer it is — according to the sun
But Autumn — according to clothes . . .

As always when July wanes, the feminine fashion mind, somewhat reluctantly, but nonetheless automatically, shifts from the informality of summer play togs, to the formality of luxurious styles forecast for Fall . . . And paradoxically enough, when the August dog days are the hottest and most wearying, woman the brave shops for furs . . .

Looks like a most interesting season on the fur front, if the photo to the left is any indication . . . Revived last season, the fashion for stoles continues important . . . The one you see pictured is a triple band of silver fox, finger-tip length with deep cape back . . . The hat is matching fox, fastened with a black crepe snood . . .

While on the subject, Mme. Pauline in New York is showing various types of fur hats . . . A silver fox toque with a snug little visor pointing just below the hairline has pink shirred velveteen covering the back of the head . . . A pert little beaver fedora — one of the few hats held on by a hidden elastic — has a narrow band of pink velveteen nestling in the fur . . . A hat created for young the newly launched tone . . . The blues are slightly cloudy; they have the look of an Autumn sky . . . On the other hand, some have a cool slatelike finish . . . Lining up with the favorites are the greens . . . The lighter ones approach the gray-green of tree-moss; they are attractive in sheer woollens . . . The luscious shadowy colour of a ripe olive is achieved by the darkest greens . . .

The whole style scene for Fall is very enticing, but we personally feel that Summer, at best, is all too brief . . . So we're going to carry on with our gingham and lightweight silks, until a cool crisp breath of September air replaces the lovely lazy summer breeze . . .

Extensive Changes Made In Jewish Center Building

A great change is noted in the Jewish Community Center building at 65 Benefit street.

Since the last week in May, carpenters, masons, steam fitters, electricians, plumbers and plasterers have been remodeling the old-fashioned building which was used by the Center for more than a quarter of a century. The old front of the building has been completely demolished and a new modernized front, with the words "Jewish Community Center," over the doorway, has been installed.

The interior of the building has also undergone much change. The old stairway has been removed, and a new fireproof one installed.

By opening up the basement floor, the capacity of the main building has been increased by more than 25 per cent. The building will now contain more than 15 modern rooms that can be used for club rooms, educational classes, games and lounging. The new gymnasium - auditorium was completed in May.

It is expected that the entire building program will be ready early in September, at which time dedication exercises will be held.

Milton C. Sapinsley, chairman of the building committee, and Samuel H. Workman, president of the Center, have urged the prompt remittance of unpaid pledges. Checks should be sent to the Jewish Community Center, 65 Benefit street.

Synagogue to Hold Outing on Sunday

The Congregation Sons of Abraham will hold its annual outing on Sunday at Goddard Park, Field D. Free transportation will be provided at 10 o'clock Sunday morning from the Synagogue, Potters and Prairie avenues.

The committee in charge is as follows: Messrs. Alprin, Bones, Leach, Spaniel, Weintraub, Charney, Gold, Goldstein, Cushing, Wasserman, and the Mesdames Leach, Davis, Eisenstadt, Bomes, Goldstein, Winicour, Silverman, Gold and Berman.

The committee has planned a complete day of games. Favors and prizes will be given.

Second Contingent At Beach Pond

A second contingent of sixty children left last Sunday morning from the Jewish Community Center for Beach Pond Camp. In the group were included children sponsored by the Jewish Welfare Society, Women's Committee of the Jewish Center and several children who registered individually. The group will remain at the camp for two weeks.

Last Friday afternoon a group of 40 and 8 members visited the camp, at which time they presented a new American Flag to the R. I. Camps. J. I. Cohen, executive director of the Center, headed the committee of arrangements for the presentation.

Annenberg Denies Had Fraud Intentions

PHILADELPHIA. — In a front-page statement in his newspaper, the Philadelphia Inquirer, Moe Annenberg, millionaire publisher, en route to federal prison for a three-year term for tax evasion, denied he ever knowingly "had the slightest intention of defrauding the government."

Appeal For Funds For Polish Yeshiva

At the request of Grand Rabbi Joseph Isaac Schneersohn, recently arrived in this country from Poland, Rabbi David Werner of this city has accepted the post of local chairman for the relief of distressed students of the Lubawitz Yeshiva. The object of the drive is to transport as many students as possible to Palestine and the United States.

Rabbi Fortman of Far Rockaway, L. I., and Rabbi Kastel of Brooklyn, have been sent to Providence by the central office, to appeal for this cause. Rabbi Werner has urged all rabbis and communal leaders to cooperate.

Contributions should be sent to Rabbi Werner, or to George Samdperil, treasurer.

Betrothal Announced

Announcement was made recently of the engagement of Miss Lillian Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Saul M. Gordon of 58 Duncan avenue, to Leo Swartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Swartz of 98 Corinth street. No marriage date has been set.

Visitors from Chicago

Miss Frances Izenstein and Miss Ruth Schultz of Chicago are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. William Kessler of Mulberry street. Miss Izenstein is formerly of this city.

Leaving for Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Saslaw of 212 Howell street are leaving this week for Oakland, California, where they will attend the marriage of their son, Abraham, to Miss Shirley Becker of that city. Mr. Saslaw will return to this city in two weeks, while Mrs. Saslaw will stay for the remainder of the summer.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Miller of 363 Reed street, New Bedford, have announced the birth of a second child, a son, on July 20 at St. Luke's Hospital in New Bedford. Mrs. Miller is the former Esther Feinselber of this city.

Visiting

Miss Rose Askins of Gay street is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Morris Kushner of Point Pines, Mass.

Hashomer Hatzair Camp Closes Sun.

Camp Hashomer Hatzair for New England, located in Bridgewater, Mass., will conclude its season on Sunday with the celebration of Blum Colony and J. N. F. Day. Zionists throughout New England are expected to attend.

The camp has followed a full Zionist program, including Hebrew classes and the usual Hebrew singing and Palestinian dancing. Projects included a water tower to supply water to the vegetable garden, and the building of a miniature kibbutz, Kfar Htzofim.

Besides the Hebrew program, there was a regular camp activity program, consisting of sports, hikes, and the usual study groups for dramatics, dancing, cooking, arts and crafts, chemistry and first aid.

Advisor

Ben Brier was this week appointed by Mayor John F. Collins as a member of the Advisory Finance Commission, whose job it is to map a 10-year financial program for the city, to be presented to the incoming administration next January . . . Pursuing the Arts

We hear that Charlotte Long is part of the company at the summer theatre in Clinton, Conn., which is headed by Alexander Kirkland . . . She is playing the role of the daughter in "Ah, Wilderness," this week, which has Sinclair Lewis as its star . . . Evelyn Axelrod, local painter, is due back in town this week, after studying at the Art Students League in New York since the middle of June . . . While there, she received three commissions . . . Thelma Wagner Carter is doing fine as a member of the Lippitt Players in Cumberland. Last week she appeared in "An American Tragedy," and next week will have a role in "Family Portrait," . . . Sarah Pressman is studying at the Julliard School of Music in New York for the summer . . .

Happy Ending

Conimicut had a little excitement last Sunday nite . . . A party of young things had gone over to Green's Island for a hot dog roast . . . While over there, it seems that their skiff drifted away . . . Thus, when it was time to return to the main land, they found themselves without transportation . . . The only alternative was for them to yell for help — which they did . . . In the quiet of the night, someone on shore heard them and called the Conimicut Fire Dept., which sent a boat across and rescued the group . . . No one in the party was any the worse — except for slightly shaken nerves, and terribly upset parents . . .

Did You Know

Things we never noted before: On our travels throughout the city recently, we discovered that there is a Wilkie street . . . The lobby of the Narragansett Hotel is displaying posters on Americanism . . . They are changed every week, and the present one on display compares the "American plan" of living with the "European plan." . . .

We'll be back next week with more news . . . Hope you'll join us . . .

Dissolve German Bund in Texas

HOUSTON, Texas. — The Kkffhauser German - American Bund, recently investigated by the Dies Committee, will be dissolved immediately, Gerhard Stubbe, Bund member, announced this week. The dissolution is "not an admission of guilt," Stubbe said, "but shows an earnest desire to maintain peace and order in the community."

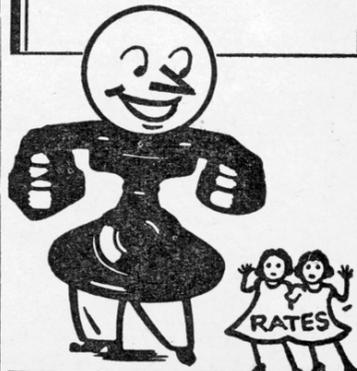

Shaving a Soldier And Currency, Too

PRAGUE. — An example of how Germany treats its "protected" and conquered peoples comes from Slovakia, via a Christian Science Monitor correspondent.

Barbers in Bratislava are stated to have put notices in their windows saying: "German soldiers shaved free of charge."

The reason is that the barbers' usual charge is two crowns. But the Germans are allowed to pay in their own currency. If the soldier puts down one mark, nominally worth 10 crowns, he gets eight crowns change. When the barber goes to the German-controlled banks to change his mark into his own currency, he gets not ten crowns, but only seven. So that the net result of the shaving transaction for the barber is one crown.

Herzl Memorial Unveiled

A BUST OF THEODOR HERZL, which was unveiled last night at the Palestine Pavilion at the New York World's Fair on the occasion of a solemn memorial service for Dr. Herzl, the 36th anniversary of whose death is being commemorated at the Fair in a week of observance. The bust, is the work of the late Dr. Boris Schatz.

Consequences Will Outlast Hitler Rule

People Expect Poverty, Famine

NEW YORK. — The consequences of the new economic order which Hitler would like to impose on 100,000,000 Europeans would be likely to outlast the Nazi Regime, according to Otto Zausmer, correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor. Once Hitler's system were established, poverty and famine may be expected to spread over the continent.

Destruction of national wealth and exhaustion of national resources for all the defeated nations might result from this new order. The prospects are that it would take decades to restore normal conditions, even after the nations regained their national freedom.

The reason for this prospect is partly, according to the Nazi program, the wealth and resources of the continent must be placed at the disposal of the German people regardless of the hardship that may result.

Rulers and Ruled

Moreover, this new order has been built by the sword, and it will be guarded by the sword. That implies that those who have the sword will be the dictators, while those who have been defeated by the sword will be the slaves.

Just what this new economic order will be like can be seen from the official Nazi literature, as well as from the aspect of affairs in countries where Herr Hitler's "smash and carry" system already has been introduced.

That is not so unusual for a defeated country. More important is that the new order makes sure that the German people shall have a permanent advantage.

Christian Front Trial Held "Farce" by N. Y. Magazine

NEW YORK. — The magazine Equality, which has been waging a fight against Father Charles E. Coughlin for the past fifteen months, appeared on the streets this week with an attack on the recent Christian Front trial acquittals.

"Higher-Ups" Available

Calling the Christian Front trial a "farce," the article points out that the "higher-ups" behind the Christian Front were "scrupulously avoided" by the prosecution. In particular, the article declares, the Federal Bureau of Investigation ignored the role of Father Coughlin.

Predicting a renewal of the Christian Front drive in the coming weeks, the article adds: Predicts Rioting

"This then, is what we can now expect — a terrifying campaign of Jew-baiting. Again — the stabbings, the brawls, the subway demonstrations, the garbage-fed propaganda, the street corner demagogues with their black-jack toting bodyguards and strong-arm men. The obstacles have now been removed."

The article also points out that prospective jurors for the Christian Front trial were not asked whether they were followers of Father Coughlin, whether they were members of the Christian Front, or whether they had contributed to the defense fund for the defendants.

"It is conceivable then," it comments, "that some members of the jury may have been members of the Christian Front. The prosecution never bothered asking."

Food, Not Emigration Europe's Problem

Ability to Survive

"It is no longer a question of Jewish refugees, he said, "but rather a question of the ability of Europe to survive. The fate of millions of homeless wanderers today is tied up with the fate of Europe. A final triumph of force will spell the doom of all of these people, while only the success of democracy and liberalism can bring relief and hope to those in utter despair. In the meanwhile they must be assisted in their struggle for survival on a continent where respect for human dignity has lost much of its meaning."
