New Center To Be Dedicated Sunday; Officials Arrange Extensive Program

Editorials

The New Center

It is a cardinal principle that a Center can best function when it is housed in a building that possesses facilities for carrying out a program of activities that will meet the cultural and recreational needs of the Jewish community or supplement the already existing facilities.

Hence, the newly renovated Center building, which will be dedicated Sunday, will aid materially in expansion of services to the community.

As stated in the booklet "Community Life is America's Strength," the Center seeks to serve everyone, in any degree in which it may be called upon. As a vital, living institution it "furthers the cause of democracy and does its share in sustaining and promoting a way of life of which all of us are proud — the American way."

Prophecy

German army officers and men are whistling and humming, "There'll Always Be An England." But it's not fifth column activities in reverse. The Germans, it is claimed, don't even know the tune.

It appears that German prisoners of war, now in Canada, are billeted near the dock of a passenger steamer whose band vigorously plays "There'll Always Be An England." The Nazis unconsciously have taken up the tune.

This touch of subtle irony may be prophetic but we're sure it won't please Adolf.

American Credo

"I believe that democracy is a form of social and political life based on human dignity, and faith in the essential goodness of human nature, upon willingness to share in the benefits of human progress, upon respect for the sanctity of human life, upon sympathy for the aspirations and opinions of one's fellow man and equality of opportunity for the well-being of every individual, regardless of race, creed or class.

"I believe in democracy because it is essentially just to my fellowmen, and therefore just to me. If democracy is to survive I must participate actively and intelligently in moulding its destiny. I must defend democracy, not only against its enemies, but against my own selfish interests. My faith in democracy demands that I recognize its imperfections, not for the purpose of destroying it, but in order to contribute my share towards its protection." — Carol Aronovici in an address at Greenwich, Conn.

Baron Von Spiegel

With the exposure by the New York Post of Fifth Column activities by Baron Von Spiegel, Nazi consul-general at New Orleans, public indignation is demanding that he no longer be permitted to remain in this country.

According to the Post, he has abused our hospitality and violated his consular privileges by attempting to censor an American German-language newspaper and by trying to dictate to American colleges. He has sought to accomplish his purposes by threats and bribes.

This arrogant, active enemy of the American way of life should be given no leeway. There can be only one rule of conduct:

Tel Aviv Death Toll From Air Raid Rises

119 Dead; Red Cross Sends Help

TEL AVIV, (Palcor Agency).—The British Red Cross and the Order of Saint John in Palestine, maintained by the British community under the chairmanship of Lady MacMichael, wife of the High Commissioner, has sent $2,500 for the relief of the victims of the Italian air raid over this city.

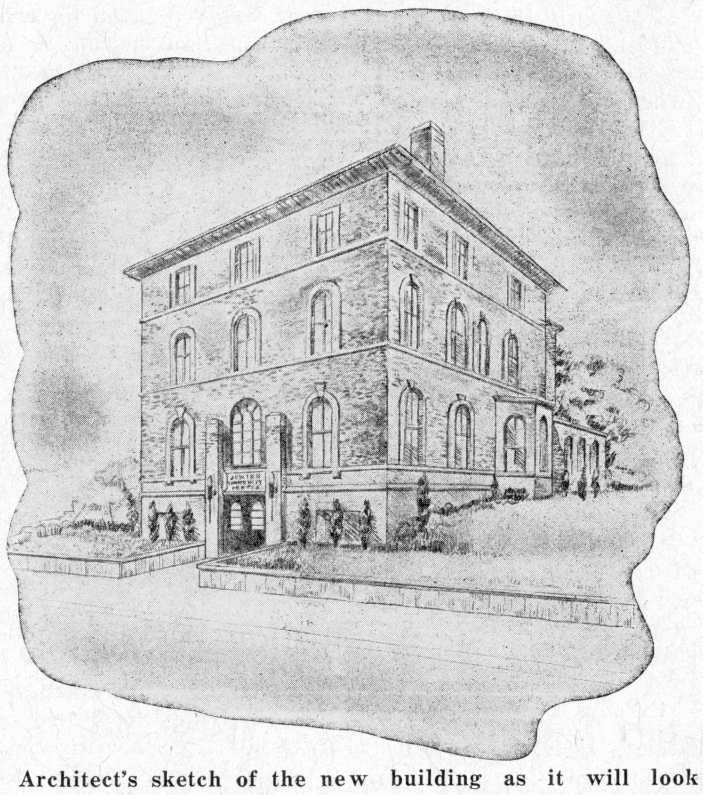

Meanwhile authorities announced that the toll of dead and wounded had risen further as additional bodies were dug from wrecked homes and that some of the wounded had died. The total of dead has now reached 119, of whom 107 are Jews, including 55 children. Among the dead are eight unidentified bodies.

It is established that 40 houses were damaged in the attack, apart from several wooden huts which were destroyed by bombardment and fire. New funerals for additional victims were held here today.

To Organize Jewish Defense Companies

JERUSALEM, (Palcor Agency)—As the British Isles momentarily awaited invasion and Italian troops crossed the western Egyptian frontier for the first time, the executives of the Jewish Agency and the Vaad Leumi announced that permission has now been granted by the British Government for the formation of Palestinian infantry companies in the army.

The announcement came as a climax to a campaign which the Jewish Agency has conducted since the beginning of the present war for the establishment of armed Jewish units which could participate in the struggle alongside other Empire forces.

Center Remodeling Costs $40,000; Changes Described

Extensive changes have been made at 65 Benefit street to the Old Jewish Community Center building, and the result is a completely rebuilt building, from top to bottom, with new additions, new rooms and a new floor.

It is expected that the construction will total about $40,000. The amount raised in the campaign for funds came to $37,000. The building committee has been able to carry through only the building program, and were required to postpone the furnishing and equipping of the building until a later date, in the hope that additional funds would be forthcoming.

The formerly unused basement on the street level has been converted into an additional floor, providing a mixed lounge, men's and women's lounges, boys' and girls' game room, as well as a kitchen and checking facilities.

The second floor houses the administration offices, conference room and an auditorium, with a seating capacity for 175 persons.

Six comfortable club rooms are located on the third floor, and the fourth story has a spacious recreation room and two club rooms.

In the rear building — the gymnasium — the seating capacity has been almost doubled and can now hold 500 persons. To that has been added a stage, suitable for lectures and dramatics, shower rooms, dressing rooms and health rooms.

The old original stairway, which fronted Benefit street, and which lead to the second floor, has been replaced by an attractive doorway, which leads into the new main floor on the street level.

Property surrounding the Center has been beautified with grass and shrubbery, making the building an attractive addition not only to the neighborhood, but to the entire community.

Rabbi de Sola Pool To be Main Speaker

Many Prominent Guests Expected

Elaborate exercises have been arranged for Sunday afternoon and evening at the Jewish Community Center, to dedicate the newly remodelled building at 65 Benefit street.

Bert L. Bernhardt, chairman of the dedication program committee, has announced that open house will be held from 1 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time members of the Community will visit to inspect the new building. In the evening a more formal program will be held, with Rabbi David de Sola Pool, of the Spanish-Portuguese Synagogue of New York, as the main speaker. Addresses and greetings will be given by various other speakers.

Out of town guests expected to attend are Louis Kroft, of the Jewish Welfare Board of New York; Samuel Josolowitz, field secretary of the New England Region, Jewish Welfare Board, and Samuel Rifkind, president of the Associated "Y's" of New England. Many prominent leaders of this community will also be in attendance.

Ushers during the dedication ceremonies will include the following: Edith Abraams, Ruth Abrams, Edith Berger, Ruth Berger, Mrs. Bert L. Bernhardt, Barbara

Oil Tanks in Haifa Fired by Italians

ROME. — Italian planes set large fires in a bombardment of oil tanks and refineries in Haifa, principal port of Palestine and a main British oil terminus in the Near East, the Italian High Command announced last week.

In North Africa, the communique added, Italian air formations bombed the Alexandria-Mersa Matruh Railroad and, when they were attacked by British pursuiters, shot down two planes. Three other British planes were reported "probably shot down."

The text of the communique:

"Oil plants at Haifa were again bombarded by our planes, causing large fires.

McDonald, Former Refugee Commissioner, UPA Speaker

James G. McDonald, president of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences and former League of Nations High Commissioner for Refugees Coming from Germany, will speak at the Rhode Island Palestine Conference, to take place in this city all day Sunday, September 29, at the Narragansett Hotel beginning at 10:30 o'clock. The conference has been called under the auspices of the United Palestine Appeal.

Outstanding Zionist leaders and orators are on the Conference agenda; Dr. Nahum Goldman formerly of Geneva, Louis Lipsky, of New York, noted American Zionist leader; Mrs. Archibald Silverman, Providence leader in Palestine rebuilding; and Henry Montor of New York, Executive Director of the U. P. A.

Mr. McDonald, upon resigning as League of Nations High Commissioner, became associate editor of the New York Times, from

to assume his present post.

Educated in Indianna and Harvard Universities, Mr. McDonald for several years gave courses in

Bund Leader Hits Conscription Bill

NEW YORK. — G. Wilhelm Kunze, national leader of the German-American Bund, attacked the conscription bill as a "damnable . . . vicious . . . congressional declaration of civil war upon all United States citizens of German origin."

The reason for his denunciation, Kunze explained in a letter he said he had sent to the chairman of the congressional conference committee, was that he had been "confidentially informed" that the measure would "exclude members of my organization from places of employment and a right to earn a living in the industries of the United States."

The measure also would ban employment of not only members of the Bund but of Communist organizations, in replacing men who have been drafted into mili-

Five Rothschilds Lose Citizenship

VICHY.—Five members of the famous Rothschild banking family and ten other persons, most of them journalists, were deprived of their French citizenship last week on the accusation that they had left France without the Government's permission.

A number of those named are in the United States.

All of the Rothschild banking fortune left in France, and the property of the others stripped of citizenship, will be confiscated.

Judge Then Sends Candidate to Bellevue

Destiny Party Ticket Routed

NEW YORK. — Joe McWilliams, defeated pro-Hitler candidate for Congress on the American Destiny party ticket by a 2400 to 672 vote, was taken to the psychopathic ward of Bellevue Hospital for observation.

McWilliams, who has had several brushes with the law because of his anti-Semitic utterances, appeared in Harlem Court on a disorderly conduct charge growing out of a near riot that broke up one of his campaign meetings.

Magistrate Bromberger ordered him to the hospital for observation of his mental condition. If he is found sane, he will be returned to the court on Sept. 27 to face the disorderly conduct charge.

Anti-Nazi Riots Occur in Sudetenland

LONDON. — Serious anti-Nazi disorders have been provoked in the Sudetenland by the former followers of Konrad Henlein, German Commissioner for the Sudetenland, according to competent Czechoslovak quarters.

Serious outbreaks occurred at Perk and necessitated the intervention of German troops from Olomue. The Nazi mayor of the town is said to have shot himself because he feared he would be held responsible for the situation. Two hundred Germans were arrested for distributing leaflets demanding the reunion of the Sudetenland with Moravia.

Schools Drop Dictator Salute

PITTSBURGH. — Because of complaints from parents and patriotic societies that the outstretched arm salute duplicated the salute of dictator nations, Pittsburgh public school children have abandoned that gesture in pledging allegiance to the Stars and Stripes.

Dr. E. A. Dimmick, associate superintendent of schools, said a semi-military salute, with the right hand held to the forehead above the right eye, has been adopted as the standard form.

Laval Blames Jews for War

ZURICH. — Vice Premier Pierre Laval of France was quoted by the German wireless this week, in an interview with the German news agency correspondent in Vichy, as declaring that "to work for German-French conciliation in order to destroy for good and all the possibility of war between the two people is my one and only aim."

Laval was quoted as saying that whenever an understanding with Germany was attempted in France, English policy and its "henchmen" in France, such as "Jews and Freemasons," intervened.

Transit for Youth Immigraiton Granted

JERUSALEM, (Palcor Agency) — The Turkish Government granted transit facilities for youth immigration to Palestine from Sweden, it was announced this week. The young people, who will take the Overland route by way of Russian territory, will arrive in Palestine in groups of fifty. The first contingent is expected next week.

Rumania Sanctifies Swastika Emblem

BUCHAREST. — Rumania is not only introducing a number of anti-Jewish laws modelled on the anti-Semitic legislation of Nazi Germany, but is also beginning to sanctify the swastika emblem as the symbol of its new regime.

A number of Rumanian newspapers have begun to appear with the swastika on their front page, and in honour of a visiting party of Hitler Youth, the swastika flag has been hoisted on all public buildings.

The Rumanian anti-Semites greeted the Nazi visitors with the Horst Wessel song and with anti-Jewish slogans. Anti-Semitic newspapers have also in the last few days carried expressions of the highest admiration for Hitler and his anti-Jewish policy, quoting extracts of his "Mein Kampf" and dwelling on the "menace of the Jews" to the Rumanian population.

Religious Education To Be Part Of Woonsocket School Course

Seventy-one per cent of boys and girls in Woonsocket public schools have already signified their intention of attending classes for religious education in conjunction with school activities, according to an announcement by Superintendent Leon M. Farrin of Woonsocket this week.

Mr. Farrin said he thought the average was very good for a beginning, and arrangements are now practically complete to open the classes for the first time next Monday under the supervision of Catholic, Protestant and Jewish clergy.

Final plans approved by the school committee provide for the religious classes in the elementary schools and the junior high school during the last hour on Mondays, and in the senior high school during the last hour on Tuesdays.

Pupils who are entered in the classes will be dismissed early to go to the instruction in their own churches or other places designated by their clergy. Marks will be kept by the instructors, and credits will be given.

Pittsburgh Adopts Religion in Schools

PITTSBURGH. — A fourth "R" in the curriculum of Pittsburgh schools will draw several thousand high school pupils this month, it was reported by the Jewish Outlook. New classes in religious instruction have been incorporated in school schedules for which the Board of Education will give regular credits.

Rabbis have expressed willingness to cooperate in the movement to provide instructors and schedules for Jewish pupils.

Under the plan, worked out by Dr. Ben G. Graham, superintendent of city schools, students will attend regular classes in religious instruction, to be given in religious institutions of their choice, and regularly attend devotional services. One-half a credit will be given each year, or a total of two credits for the four years of high school.

Suicides Increase In Hungarian Army

LONDON. — Scores of Jewish soldiers in the Hungarian army have committed suicide as a result of the severe treatment received at the hands of violently anti-Semitic officers, according to advices reaching here.

The Hungarian army, now in the process of demobilization since the easing of tension connected with the Hungarian-Roumanian dispute over Transylvania, is rife with anti-Semitism. Officers assign Jewish soldiers to the most difficult tasks.

Anti-Semitism is rampant among the pirates, who frequently band together to persecute their Jewish comrades. Hungarian officers are lenient in the disposition of these cases. Jewish soldiers returning from service report that they are served inferior and are generally mistreated.

Jerusalem Has Slight Earthquake

JERUSALEM, (Palcor Agency) — A slight earth tremor was felt in various parts of this city last week. There was no damage reported from the quake.

The last recorded earth shock in Palestine occurred on July 25th when the cities of Haifa and Safed were rocked, although in each case no damage was done.

Alien Registration In P. M. Requested

Dr. Edward F. Carroll, postmaster of the Providence district and in charge of alien registration, has requested this newspaper to ask aliens to register in the afternoon if at all possible because experience during the past three weeks has shown that most of the registrants appear at the Post Office Building in the morning. This fact taxes the staff and then leaves them fairly free in the afternoon.

Dr. Carroll states better service could be given all aliens if they would accept his invitation to appear in larger numbers in the afternoon.

London East End Hard Hit by Bombs

LONDON. — Great Britain's Jews were the hardest hit as wave after wave of Nazi bombing planes rained incendiary bombs on the heavily Jewish-populated East End district of London in the fiercest aerial attack of the war.

The Jewish quarter was virtually destroyed as Nazi raiders, estimated in some quarters as 2,000 planes, dropped their death-dealing missiles in a night-long raid.

The Conference will be open to the public, and New England Jewry has been invited to attend. There will be no solicitation of funds. Luncheon reservations may be made at the U. P. A. headquarters, 214 Strand building, Providence.

Polish Refugees Spread Prejudice

LONDON. — Polish refugees have begun serious anti-Jewish activity in England, the Jewish Chronicle charged this week. Polish anti-Semitic National Democrats, led by Marian Seyda, a member of the Polish National Council, are publishing a weekly called "I Am a Pole," the first issue of which is violently anti-Semitic, the Chronicle declared. Refugees are distributing leaflets violently attacking Jews, while three Poles have been arrested after serious attacks on Jewish refugees at the Norwood Center, it was said.

Mrs. Elman Heads E. Greenwich Club

To Hold Annual Banquet Oct. 23

Mrs. Benjamin Elman was elected president of the East Greenwich Jewish Women's Club, at a meeting of the group held on Monday evening in Legion Hall, East Greenwich. Miss Lillian Abrams presided.

Other officers elected for the ensuing season were: Mrs. John Halsband, vice-president; Miss Dora Waterman, treasurer; Miss Alice Abrams, secretary; Mrs. A. Shapiro, happy day chairman; Mrs. Joseph Fogel, program and social chairman.

Installation will take place at the annual banquet to be held on October 23. Plans were also made during the evening for the annual fall bridge, to be held on November 19 at the Greenwich Inn.

Hostesses were the Mesdames Joseph Fogel, Benjamin Silverman, George Halsband and Joseph Miller.

Army Deports 150 Refugees Held in Canal Zone Prison

WASHINGTON. — A hundred and fifty Jewish refugees at Panama, who several months ago were engaged by army officials for technical work on the canal, will be deported as a precautionary measure, it was learned here last week.

The 150 were placed on an army transport which sailed for Ellis Island last Tuesday. A Dept. of Justice agent visited the Canal Zone, where the refugees have been confined on a prison island, and discovered 90 of them had relatives who were U. S. citizens. These 90, after arriving at Ellis Island, will be sent to live with their relatives. The remaining 60 will be offered a home in the Sosua colony by the Dominican Settlement Association.

In some official quarters criticism was being voiced of the army's drastic action against the refugees. Early in August the plight of Jewish refugees in Panama was brought to public attention when Secy, of War Stimson announced that "80 foreign agents" had been arrested. These 80 were Jewish refugees working on the canal and are included in the 150 being sent to Ellis Island.

Miller - Uloff

Lake Pearl Manor in Wrentham, Mass., will be the setting next Sunday evening, 6:30 o'clock, for the marriage of Miss Beatrice Uloff, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Uloff of 158 Sumter street, to Sendell Charles Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Miller of Dorchester, Mass. Rabbi Morris Schussheim will officiate at the single-ring ceremony, under a canopy of white gladioli and fernery.

The bride, to be given in marriage by her parents, wil wear a full skirted gown of off-white satin, with an extremely long train. The bodice of the gown is of white lace, made with long tight sleeves, and a square neckline. She will wear a single-strand of pearls. Her long veil will fall from a doll hat of meline, and she will carry a shower bouquet of white orchids and bouvardia.

Miss Sylvia Uloff, sister of the bride, will attend as maid of honor, wearing a gown of gold lame, with a blue velvet bodice. She will have a matching hat, and will carry a bouquet of American beauty roses. Miss Esther Rosenberg and Miss Dorothy Wiesel, cousins of the bride, will attend as maids of honor. They will be dressed in like gowns of light blue taffeta, with American beauty velvet caps. They will carry Colonial bouquets. Miss Dorita Ponce will be flower girl, wearing a gown of blue taffeta and a matching hat.

Irving Berenbaum will attend the bridegroom as best man. Ushers will include Edward Braid and Edward Lovitt of Providence, cousins of the bride, and Dr. Ben Clark, John Duberstein, Sidney Rosenthal and James Sodekson, of Boston.

The bride's mother will wear a gown of blue, with silver accent, and a corsage of orchids. The mother of the bridegroom will be outfitted in a gown of rose lace, and will also wear orchids.

About 200 guests are expected to attend the ceremony, and the reception and dinner to follow.

Following a wedding trip to New Hampshire and Maine, the couple will take up residence at 26 Congress avenue.

Feted at Shower

Mrs. Milton Rosen, a summer bride, was feted last Tuesday night at a kitchen shower, given by her twin sister, Miss Belle Axelrod at the Axelrod home, 277 Warrington street. Fourteen guests were in attendance.

Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Israel Rosen of 27 Exeter street will entertain at open house on Sunday afternoon, from 2 o'clock, to honor the recent marriage of their son, Milton Rosen to Miss Evelyn Axelrod.

Levitt - Horvitz

The marriage of Miss Lillian Irene Horvitz, a daughter of Isaac Horvitz of 11 Sparrow street, to Milton Levitt, son of Mrs. Lena Levitt of 145 Adelaide avenue, occured at Temple Beth Israel on September 8. Floral decorations in the Temple were of white gladioli, and small white chrysanthemums, and the canopy was made entirely of chrysanthemums. Rabbi Morris Schussheim officiated.

Given in her marriage by her father, the bride was attractively gowned in a full-skirted model of white faille, fashioned with a heart-shaped neckline, and short puffed sleeves. A halo of seed pearls held her finger-tip veil in place, and she carried a white prayer book with orchids.

Mrs. Saul Hodosh, sister of the bridegroom, attended as matron of honor. She was smartly dressed in a frock of plaid taffeta, contrasted by a bodice of purple velveteen, and her flowers were tea roses. Jack Leavitt, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bridegroom's mother was becomingly attired in a gown of purple crepe and satin, and her flowers were orchids.

The couple has returned from a wedding trip to New York and Washington, and is now at home at 228 Carolina avenue.

To Honor Son

Mr. and Mrs. Israel Resnick of 933 Hope street will entertain at a dinner on Sunday at Cohen's Pleasant Hotel in Millis, in honor of the Bar-Mitzvah of their son, Kenneth Keiva Resnick, which occured on Thursday at Temple Emanuel.

Ollove - Botvin

Miss Fae Botvin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Botvin of 93 Princeton avenue, will become the bride of George Ollove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Ollove of 19 Donelson street, on Sunday afternoon, 5 o'clock, at a private ceremony, to be performed at the home of the bride's parents, by Rabbi Morris Schussheim.

The bride will be attractively dressed in a gown of white brocaded satin, with a full skirt of white tulle. The gown has short puffed sleeves, and a square neckline, and she wil wear a single strand of pearls. Her long veil will be fastened to a white satin Juliet cap, and she will carry a white prayer book with white orchids.

Miss Beatrice Botvin, sister of the bride, will be smartly outfitted in a gown of peach, and will carry roses. Morris Ollove, brother of the bridegroom will act as best man.

A frock of blue printed jersey will be worn by the bride's mother, while the mother of the bridegroom will be dressed in black marquisette. Both will wear gardenia corsages.

After a wedding trip to New York and Atlantic City, the couple will make their home at 93 Princeton avenue.

Phillips - Gomberg

Miss Ruth Beatrice Gomberg, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gomberg of 27 Richter street became the bride of Milton Phillips, son of Dr. and Mrs. Phillip M. Phillips of 194 Calla street at a 2 o'clock ceremony performed last Sunday afternoon at Weinstein's Lake Pearl Manor in Wrentham, Mass. Rabbi Morris G. Silk performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was attractively dressed in a Princess style gown of ivory satin, en train, fashioned with leg o'mutton long sleeves, and a Peter Pan neckline. Her long veil was held in place by a tiara of lilies of the valley. She carried a white Bible, with white orchids and bouvardia.

Mrs. Milton Gomberg attended the bride as matron of honor. She was smartly dressed in a gown of fuschia, with a raisin velvet bodice, and a hat to match. Her flowers were Talisman roses. Milton Gomberg attended his brother as best man.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Sylvia Billincoff, Mildred Gomberg, Ada Himelfarb, Bessie Katt and Ida Stein. Ushers included Arthur Fleisig, Dr. Herman Gentile, Bernard Kramer, Murry Malenment and Eli Phillips.

A gown of black velvet was

September marches on
So does style
Follows another fashion yarn
Linger a while . . .

And still they come — these fall fashions . . . Black by day and evening for all sorts of costumes is a winner . . . There are several navy blue costumes, while brown, beige, magenta, Victorian green, sky blue and other clear colors appear importantly, too . . . Often two fabrics are used together, and there are interesting two colour combinations such as French blue and magenta, wine with emerald green, and fireman red with black like the frock Dorothy Lovett has on in the picture to the left . . .

American women stand a very good chance of becoming "Tweedy" dressers we're told . . . With the flow of styles from Paris stopped, our only other source of fashions from abroad is England . . . There's not only warmth and crisp tailoring in their heathery woolens . . . There's the extra thrill that comes with fashions from afar . . .

We do a nice job of tailored coats, suits and ensembles right here in our own country . . . But fashion is as much in the mind as on the body . . . Distance and difficulty to obtain add to a style's desirability . . . So, as long as the stout heart of England survives, and English woolens continue to be transported here by the British navy, American women will continue to wear them . . . How long more — lies on the lap of the gods . . . Tomorrow is another day . . . But the fine-tailored British fabric clothes, unsparing of hand labor from start to finish, are an endorsement of the stylish tweediness which England has established as a leading American fashion . . .

The style scene this week was brightened by these members of the local "femocracy" . . . A three-piece suit of acqua and tomato red plaid proved most becoming on Mildred Kelman . . . Roslyn Weiner, an ardent devotee of black, was smooth as ever in a fitted black coat, and a coachman's hat on her dark locks . . . Mildred Robinson chatted with us a moment before catching a Hope street car . . . Pretty as a portrait in a beige shirtmaker frock of gabardine, topped by a yellow plaid reefer, and a brown sports hat . . .

A post nuptial party was given in compliment to Evelyn Axelrod Rosen last Tuesday nite by her twin, Belle Axelrod, and it was a chic looking group of friends that attended . . .

Hilda Pritsker's choice of a beige cashmere frock was most becoming, and we liked the red belt and hanky as accents . . . Dorothy Waldman, who's being wed come Sunday, was all aglow and looking her best in a grey jersey dress, with soft blue stripes near the shoulderline . . . A perky bow of the same material tied at the neckline . . . Ruth Berger in one of the season's pet colours, mocha brown . . . 'Twas a crepe dress, pleated and darling . . . Edith Berger, with a becoming new coiffure cut in bangs . . . Her dress was of black velveteen, with a sailor collar bound with white braid . . .

Hostess, Belle, had on a darling black crepe dress, with a square neckline, and two twinkly clips . . . Her hair, George Washington style, with a black bow tied at the back . . . Guest of honor, Evelyn, in a cute dress of blue print, with shirred sleeves, and shirring about the pockets at the waistline . . . Another member of the Axelrod clan, Alice wore a navy skirt, and a boyish blouse of beige, with crisp white collar and cuffs . . . Eva Korenbaum had

PLANNING VISIT

LONDON. — Dr. Chaim Weizmann, accompanied by Dr. Maurice L. Perlzweig, will shortly leave for the United States, it was reported here.

Recommend Army Seize Bund Camp

NEW YORK. — The Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League this week announced that its suggestion for the condemnation by the U. S. Army of former Army Camp Siegfried, at Yaphank, Long Island, now owned by the German-American Bund, to be used in training recruits, has been taken under consideration by the Adjutant General's Office of the War Department.

In a communication to the War Department, the Anti-Nazi League had pointed out that Camp Siegfried during World War days was devoted to the training of recruits for the U. S. Army.

Curb High Holiday Observance in England

LONDON. — Old men, mothers of little children and children should "for obvious reasons" not attend public religious services during the forthcoming High Holidays but should say their prayers at home is the advice given by Chief Rabbi J. H. Hertz in a circular sent to the ministers and honorary officers of Jewish congregations throughout the United Kingdom.

There will be no sounding of the shofar at Neilah, the circular points out, because prayers must conclude before blackout, while the fast does not end until 5:54 p. m. in London. On the other hand, soundings of the shofar during New Year service should on no account be curtailed, the circular states.

No Relief Funds Go Into Germany

NEW YORK. — Funds provided by American Jewry through the United Jewish Appeal enabled the Joint Distribution Committee to carry on urgent emergency relief, activities at the peak of the European conflict during the period from May 10 to August 10, when a total of $910,000 was spent to aid Jews in areas of suffering in Europe, it was revealed by Morris C. Troper, Chairman of the European Council of the J. D. C.

A financial clearance agreement which the J. D. C. has with the German Government made possible the expenditure of this large sum of money even though no American dollars were sent into Germany or German-occupied lands.

Ahavath Sholom to Open Hebrew School

Hebrew School at the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue will commence on Sunday morning, 10:30 o'clock. Old pupils, as well as new pupils of the school, are requested to attend the opening session.

Teachers, Arnold Miller and N. Checkoway, under the supervision of Rabbi Morris Silk, will conduct the classes.

Registration for the new term will continue throughout the week of September 22. Pupils who live a distance from the Synagogue will be furnished with transportation.

ENFORCE CURFEW

JERUSALEM. — A 24-hour curfew was clamped down on the Herzlia colony this week following a clash between members of the Histadrush and Revisionists at Camp Betar in which one person was killed and 19 wounded. It was the second curfew since last Friday.

Scene Around Town

The Fall Openings

This is the sum of a summer's toil
This is the total of all endeavor
This is the measure of months of moil
Hats are as merrily mad as ever . . .

From his photo musical album of singers Joseph Schlossberg, cantor and director of the Temple Beth Israel choir, will bring back to the Temple podium three of the singers that assembled twenty years ago to provide music for the High Holidays . . . Mrs. Benjamin Kane, Mrs. Maurice Gershman and Oscar Klemer have agreed to return to the choir in honor of Mr. Schlossberg's twentieth musical anniversary . . . Incidentally, Joe has been endorsed by his ward for a post on the School Committee . . . Early Thursday morning, the Archie Smiths, she the former Miriam Bell, were the recipients of a bouncing baby boy . . .

This Week's Chatterings

Ellis Flink turned the first curve on the road to marriage, when his engagement to Rose Lisker was announced this week . . . Muriel Rosenberg, of Havana, Cuba, and Murray Abrams of this city, said "I Do" at a quiet ceremony last Thursday afternoon at Temple Emanuel . . . Niagara Falls is probably where the couple is heading for the first phase of their wedding trip . . . Mrs. George J. Ellenzeig, the former Evelyn Alberts, was feted at a party last Wednesday nite in honor of her recent marriage . . . Hostesses were Florence Winograd and Mrs. Hyman Hochman, and the party was given at the latter's home . . . Under the unique name of The Sleep Shop, Charles Miller is preparing for a blitzkrieg on insomnia . . . Every conceivable sleeping aid, including bedding and juvenile furniture, is on display at his shop on Westminster street . . .

Localooks

The Henry Hassenfelds will entertain on Sunday at a cocktail party in honor of their son, Merrill's recent engagement to Sylvia Kay of Allentown, Pa. . . . William Kelman and Sam Silverman are photography fiends . . . Phil Marcus has been re-nominated for councilman from the Second Ward . . . Harold Sydney is convalescing rapidly from a recent appendectomy . . . At the Glen Miller radio broadcast, loads of the younger jive set, were finding much satisfaction in the swingmaster's tempos . . . Mac Margolis is doing very well with his golf down at the West Warwick Country Club . . . The complex situation at Beth David grows increasingly confusing with the approach of the high holidays . . . The so-called "insurgents" have received reinforcements, and at the moment, all attempts to conciliate the differences, have been for naught . . .

Fine First Nite

Clipped from a Boston morning paper: "The Ladies Aid chicken supper at the Congregational Church was hell last night." . . . The Harry Korticks of Arctic are the proud parents of twin sons . . . Johnny Cole and his orchestra opened the season with a bang at the Narragansett Indian Room last Wednesday nite . . . Among the first nite crowd were noted the Max Siegals, the newly-wedded Milton Levitts, the Nat Gerstenblatts, Muriel Botvin and escort, the Harry Mincoffs, and a host of others . . .

Back next week with more notes . . .

Story of the Jewish Center

Executive Director

JACOB I. COHEN

Organized in 1925, the present Jewish Community Center at 65 Benefit street is the outgrowth of the original Hebrew Educational Institute, which was formed in 1915.

Jacob I. Cohen, executive director, has been affiliated with the institution for fourteen years, having taken over the post in 1926, one year after the Center had been founded.

In 1925, but one building was in operation. Although a larger gymnasium was installed, which at the time seemed adequate, it soon became apparent that it would not meet the needs of a community of this size. The educational program continued unabated, but the physical expansion of the Center was greatly hampered because of the lack of facilities.

Officials felt that sooner or later the institution must expand, and in November 1938 decided upon a campaign for building funds. The drive was successfully conducted and concluded in the Spring of 1939, and Sunday's dedication is the culmination of those efforts.

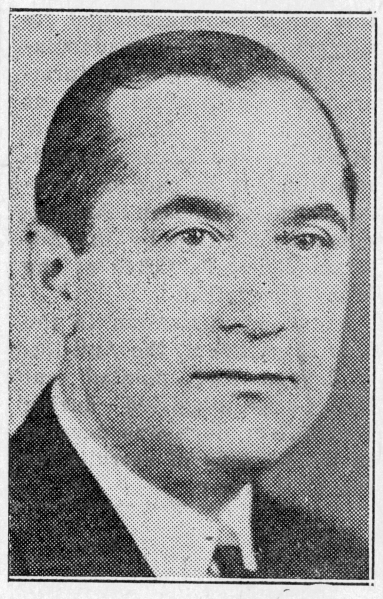

In an interview last Tuesday, Mr. Cohen told a Herald reporter, "While we do not claim to have the most perfect Center in New England, we do feel that the present building program has put us in line with many of the Centers throughout the Country, and will enable us to expand immeasurably the program for young people and adults.

"In these days of storm and stress," Mr. Cohen continued. "Centers are even more important, because they help maintain the morale of young people. As far as the Jewish angle is concerned, the Center endeavors to strengthen Jewish life, and give inspiration to Jewish youth. It provides them with a wholesome Jewish environment."

Activities for young people include: physical education, Sunday school, creative art work, dancing, vocation work and general recreation. For the older young people, there are forums, discussion groups, speaking contests, dramatic programs and social activities.

"The dedication," Mr. Cohen said, "is a dream come true for many persons connected with the Center, and we consider it a step to greater service to the Jewish community."

Issues Invitation

SAMUEL H. WORKMAN
Center President

Communities Asked To Attend Exercises

"I am very happy to add my own invitation to that already issued by the Dedication Committee to join us this coming Sunday afternoon and evening in what I feel should truly be a community wide celebration.

"The occasion is the dedication of a new and modern Jewish Community Center. September 22, 1940 will remain an important date for the Providence community because on that date we will extend the services of another important Jewish agency in this community which together with the agencies already established will become a symbol of service.

"'The present new Center is the result of continuous effort for more than 25 years. In 1915 a group of farsighted elders bought the old building at 65 Benefit Street and dedicated it to the service of youth. In 1925 came a new generation, and a modern Center with a trained staff was established. In 1940 the Center added another chapter to the other glorious pages of its history.

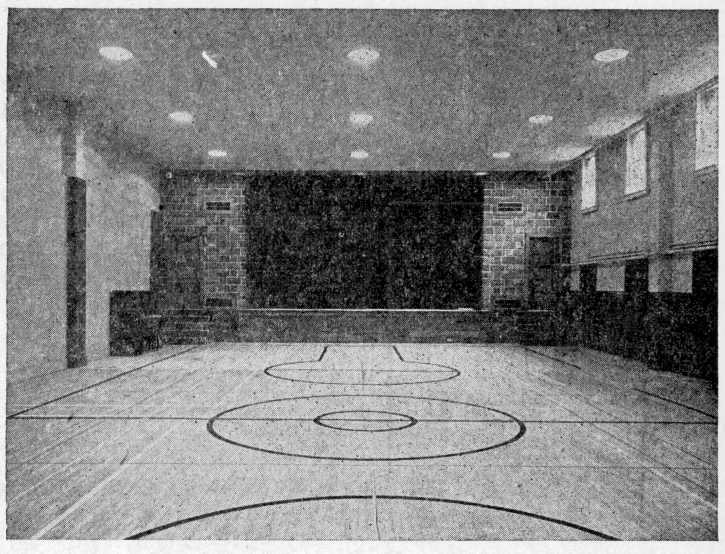

"I invite you to come next Sunday and to see for yourself what we have accomplished by way of physical improvements, to lend your hand of cooperation and help us to continue our efforts for greater service to youth and adult."

Dedication Program

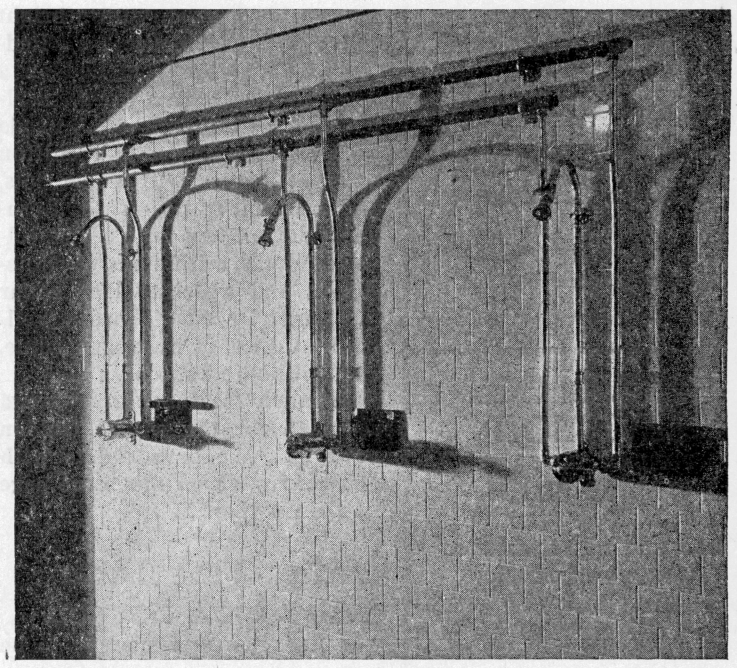

Open House, Sunday afternoon, 1 to 4 o'clock.
Guests will visit to inspect facilities.

Formal Program, Sunday evening, 8:30 o'clock.
Greetings, Bert L. Bernhardt, general chairman of dedication exercises.

Sons of Abraham Announces Schedule

Daily morning services, 7 o'clock; Sunday, 8 o'clock; Saturdays, 9 o'clock. Mincha services fifteen minutes before sunset; Maariv services at 7:10 o'clock. Rabbi Taragin presents a daily lecture on the Babylonian Talmud in the synagogue at 6:45 o'clock, and on Saturdays a short lecture on "The Ethics of Our Fathers" at 6:30 o'clock.

Traditional Slicoth services will be held at the Synagogue on September 28, midnight, with Cantor Arele Bloom and a choir under the direction of Rev. Philip Hews officiating. Rabbi Taragin will preach an English sermon on the subject, "The Synagogue —The Haven of Refuge."

CONTINUE REGISTRATION

Registration for Sunday School at the Congregation Sons of Abraham will continue until September 29, it was announced this week. The Hebrew School at the Synagogue will open on October 27.

Talmud Torah Aux. To Hear Stollerman

Maurice Stollerman will be guest speaker at the season's first meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary, Sons of Zion Talmud Torah, to be held next Tuesday afternoon in the vestry of the Synagogue 49 Orms street.

At a board meeting held last week at the home of Mrs. Ira Robinson, plans were made for the event.

IN DESPERATE SHAPE

HUNGARY. — Jews here are caught in a desperate plight. The anti-Jewish laws of Hungary exceed in their harshness even those in Rumania. Jews in Transylvania have been forced to flee in order to escape compulsory labor or virtual slavery.

B'nai B'rith to Have Meeting for A. Z. A.

To Be Held Mon. at Center

All Jewish boys between the ages of fifteen and twenty-one have been invited to attend the first meeting of the season of the Roger Williams Lodge, B'nai B'rith, to be held next Monday evening at the Jewish Community Center. The meeting will serve to introduce A. Z. A. to Providence.

The program will include an address by Ben Barkin of Washington, D. C., assistant executive director of A. Z. A.; installation of Roger Williams A. Z. A. officers, by Clifford Brauer, of Worcester, past Adleph Godol of District 1; and a demonstration of A. Z. A. ritual, by the Woonsocket A. Z. A.

Other business to be transacted during the meeting will be the final adoption of the constitution, the appointment of committees, and the planning of a program for the balance of the year.

Claessan to Talk At Workmen's Circle

August Claessans, national secretary of the Social Democratic Party, and member of the executive committee of the American Labor Party of New York, will talk at the Workmen's Circle Center, 29 Snow street, on Sunday, 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. Claessans' talk, which will deal with a discussion of the interests of organized labor in the November elections, is the first of a series to be conducted by the Workmen's Circle and the Jewish Verband during the coming season. They will all deal with political, social and economic problems of the day.

The public is invited to attend.

Arbeter School Open For Registration

Registration of new pupils is now in progress at the Arbeter Ring Shul, of which Berel Segal is teacher.

Children of six and older are accepted in beginners' and advanced classes of the school. Pupils are instructed in Yiddish, Hebrew, Jewish history and literature, and labor problems.

Free transportation is provided for all parts of the city, the children being taken to school and brought home in private cars. Classes are open from 4 to 8 evenings, and from 9 to 12 Sundays.

Prohibit Departure Of Skilled Workers

GENEVA. — The Nazi authorities at Cracow, Nazi Poland, were reported last week to have forbidden the departure from the city of Jewish artisans, skilled workers and professionals.

The measure assertedly was taken to protect the economic interests of the city, from which all other Jews have been ordered out. According to the Nazi organ Krakauer Zeitung, all Jews remaining in Cracow without "Normal occupation" will be subject to forced labor.

Jewish Stores in Maine Smeared

BATH, Me.—Police authorities were seeking to establish the identity of vandals who smeared paint on the store fronts and windows of eight Jewish-owned enterprises in this town early yesterday morning. It was the first demonstration of racial conflict recalled here.

The belief prevailed in some quarters that the job was done by persons outside Bath. Similar vandalism was perpetrated in Lewiston a few weeks ago.

Maestro Ben Bernie To Appear in Person

Brown Bears Meet Wesleyan Sept. 28

The Brown Bears will open their 55th gridiron season against Wesleyan, at Middletown, on Saturday, September 28. The last time a Wesleyan football team defeated Brown was in 1912 when the Cardinals were coached to a 7-6 surprise win over the Bruins by Jake High, star Brown fullback from 1908 through 1910.

On this year's edition the chief power runner for Brown will be 210-pound Dick High, son of the 1912 Wesleyan coach. As Brown's leading ground gainer in 1939, Dick reeled off 335 yards and according to the American Football Statistical Bureau, was No. 1 in runbacks of opponents' kickoffs in the East with an average of 28.6 yards per run-back.

10 Years Ago This Week

A very attractive wedding took place Tuesday evening at the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue, in Pawtucket, when Miss Pearl Ethyl Tesler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Tesler of 47 Pacific street, Central Falls, became the bride of Martin Curran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Curran of Providence . . .

Rabbi Abraham I. Schisgal performed the ceremony . . . The couple ascended the palm bedecked altar to the strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus." During the marriage ceremony, Mr. Wilfred Roberts sang "O Promise Me." . . .

The bride wore a gown of white duchesse satin with tulle veil trimmed with chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley . . . Miss Ethel Zarchen attended the bride as maid of honor . . . She wore a gown of yellow moire with shoes to match and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses . . .

Myer Pritsker served as best man, while Hinda Tesler, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl

These Firms Extend Best Wishes To The New Community Center

For the benefit of Herald readers who are considering improvement of their living conditions, and who wish to increase the value of their property, we bring to their attention the advertisements appearing on this page.

These contractors were responsible for the physical remodeling of the Jewish Community Center building, and were selected because of the high quality of their work.

It is wise to check property once a year, and fix the little things that have gone wrong. Give your home a thorough check-up, decide what you want, and then call in these contractors.

Kent Aux. Affair Occurs on Sunday

Arrangements have been completed by the Kent Auxiliary, B'nai B'rith, for the bridge and mah jong to be held on Sunday evening at the West Warwick Country Club, according to an announcement by Mrs. William Deitch, general chairman. Door prizes will be awarded.

Proceeds from the event will be used to continue the work of B'nai B'rith. The Kent Auxiliary comprises groups from East Greenwich, Apponaug and West Warwick.

Mrs. Deitch is being assisted in arrangements by Mrs. Arthur Halband, co-chairman; Mrs. Robert Schectman and Miss Lillian Abrams, tickets; Mrs. Joseph Miller and Mrs. Leonard Shapiro, publicity; Mrs. Benjamin Silverman, refreshments; Mrs. Max Margolis and Miss Alice Abrams, prizes.
