Spirit of Palestine

The Jewish community, nurtured on a spirit arising out of the will to build a Jewish National Home, is proceeding with its daily tasks with no less confidence than the people of England. The Jews of Palestine are fully aware of all the dangers and hardships which they themselves must experience as part of the normal process of a handicapped economy and in relation to specific physical hazards of war. Nevertheless, they are confident that, regardless of the outcome of the war, it would be impossible, under any circumstances, to dislodge 500,000 Jews who are so deeply attached to the land as the Yishuv is.

The experience and history of the past sixty years should remind Jews elsewhere that despite an indifferent or hostile Turkish administration, despite years of cruel disturbances, despite indifference on numerous occasions of the Mandatory Power, the Jews of Palestine have grown in number and in power because of their unique attachment to the soil of the ancient Jewish homeland.

Indicative of the spirit of the Jews of Palestine is the thoroughness with which plans are developed for the continuation of every phase of the country's growth.

Rosh Hashonah

Even in a war-torn world, Jews throughout the globe will welcome Rosh Hashonah, the Jewish religious New Year, which opens this year Wednesday evening, October 2 (the eve of the first day of Tishri, the seventh month in the Jewish calendar.)

As a holyday concerned primarily with the life of the individual, Rosh Hashonah with its message of eternal values will bring new courage to persecuted people and new strength to those called upon to aid their fellow men.

Observed for one day by Reform Jews, the New Year is celebrated for two days by Orthodox and Censervative Jews. The two-day celebration is carried over from the time when uncertain calendar calculations made necessary the two-day observance.

Unconnected with nature or with any specific historic event, Rosh Hashonah was first observed in its present form within two generations of the fall of the second Temple. The only holiday at this season which is mentioned in the Bible is the feast of ingathering at the end of the year.

The blowing of the shofar, a ram's horn, in the synagogue announces the New Year and is a characteristic of the Rosh Hashonah service. In the home, honey is served on the eve of the New Year as a symbol of the wish for a sweet, happy, and prosperous year.

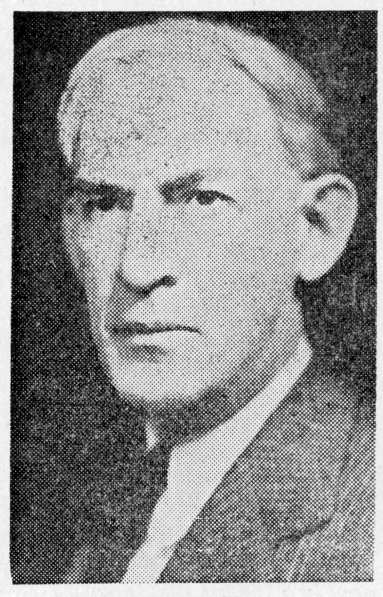

Considered a day of judgement and memorial, Rosh Hashonah inaugurates ten days of penitence, which are concluded on Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. Since Rosh Hashonah was traditionally the day on which the Lord judged each man and determined his future, greetings exchanged on the New Year are often expressed in the wish: "May you be inscribed (in the book of life) for a good year."

Intention to Make Wine Must be Filed

Required By Revenue Law

W. S. Alexander, District Supervisor of the Alcohol Tax Unit, this week called attention to that section of the Internal Revenue Law which requires that notice be filed by anyone intending to produce wine for family use. The notice must be filed at least five days before production of any wine containing one-half of one per cent or more alcohol by volume.

Wine produced for family use is exempt from tax provided proper notice is filed, but such wine must be used by members of the immediate family and it cannot be sold or furnished to other persons.

Anyone producing wine without filing the required notice is liable to heavy penalties, and wine so produced is subject to tax and liable to seizure.

The head of a family may produce not more than 200 gallons of wine each fiscal year, which begins on July 1, if he files notice on forms which will be furnished on request. Anyone living in the State of Rhode Island desiring forms should address communications to the Investigator in Charge, Alcohol Tax Unit, Room 503A Post Office Building, Providence, Rhode Island.

French Hurry to Declare Aryanism

VICHY, France — Windows of some Jewish shops were broken last week. Hitherto the only manifestation of anti-Semitism here had been the writing of anti-Jewish inscriptions on walls.

An important furniture shop was compelled to post this placard: "We are a share company with 80 per cent non-Jewish stockholders. Our manager is Jewish, but a French Jew, dec-

NEW YORK. — "In the interests of tolerance and understanding," the Catholic Information Society this week will mail 5,000 letters and folders, pressing its national drive against anti-Semitism.

Balkan States Move Closer to Germany

LONDON. — The Vienna arbitration conference, which resulted in Rumania's cession of Northern Transylvania to Hungary under pressure from Nazi Germany, has had profound repercussions on Hungarian policy, resulting in changes which place Hungary's Jews in an unprecedentedly critical position.

Hungary's anti-Jewish measures have been harsh but very little publicized, overshadowed by the more violent mouthings and actions taken in Berlin.

Attempt to Muzzle Pulpit Fails; Rabbis Favor Draft

NEW YORK. — A four-point resolution designed to spur American Jewry's defense of democracy in the face of "another World War which threatens the sanity and safety of America" was adopted at the closing session of the two-day convention of the Assembly of Hebrew Orthodox Rabbis at the Hotel Sharon.

Resolution Debated

The resolution was unanimously adopted by more than 100 delegates after a heated two-hour debate behind closed doors which saw two important points in the original text resolution struck out. The defeated points urged that rabbis "refrain from using their office and influence in the turmoil of domestic politics" and that they "shall not seek deferment or exemption from military service for themselves or for rabbinical students."

Pledge Support

In the adopted resolution the rabbis pledge "the moral, material and physical resources of American Jewry in the aid of democracy's fight against Nazism, Fascism and Communism," resolve that Jewish congregations lend additional support by releasing their rabbis from some of their duties "so that they may tender their services as chaplains in military training camps," urge Jewish families "to open their hearts and homes to refugee children fleeing the terrors of war" and announce the rabbis will petition President

Fr. Coughlin Abandons Radio Talks

Big Stations Refuse To Give Him Time

Will Not Back Either Candidate

DETROIT. — The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin has abandoned his plan for a new series of weekly radio talks, which had been scheduled to open on Sunday, October 20.

In an interview in the current issue of "Social Justice," the priest charged that "men powerful in the field of radio and other activities," had "forced the decision upon me."

The article said that in response to Fr. Coughlin's petition for a half hour of time every Sunday for a year, most of the large stations declined "for various reasons," although many stations accepted.

Fr. Coughlin was quoted as saying he would not participate in the presidential campaign.

The paper quoted the priest as saying:

"I am definitely aware of efforts in the past to ostracize me from the air. I am also aware that the sponsors of these efforts —men powerful in the field of radio and other activities—have silence me by one method or another.

"Insofar as they have forced a decision upon me, and with no alternative, I graciously accept it and at the same time extend to them my heartiest congratulations for all that the future holds in store for them."

With regard to the presidential campaign, Coughlin said he "could not in good conscience support either candidate."

He added he would not broadcast again "until we cease to be war-minded — it may be 10 months or it may be 10 years."

Blames Isolationists If Britain Should Fall

PASADENA — Dr. Robert A. Millikan believes that if Hitler destroys the British Empire "those most fully responsible for it will be those Americans who have been most active and successful in creating an isolationist sentiment in the U. S."

The scientist told students at the California Institute of Technology, of which he is the head:

"The world into which you young men are just starting is facing the most appalling crisis in 1,000 years. The only hope which mankind has of creating a warless world lies in the principle of collective security."

and similar soirees . . . You'll get on the merry-go-round, and probably not have time to jump off until after new year's . . .

In what sort of evening clothes will the town's cafe society, glamour girls and smart women, face their fun? . . .

There's the slim, simple, covered-up dress, much like a daytime dress except for its length.

Then there is the great army of gowns shining with beads and sequins — rich, maharanee and Persian embroidery; sequin-bristling bodice; lame skirts, plaided with sequins, topped with rib-knit sweaters . . . Those belong to the gala dinner and night club group . . So do the naughty-naughty dresses with the necklines plunging almost to the waist; bare midriffs; filmy black lace suggestively veiling flesh-coloured linings; skirts slashed to the knee . . .

The designers have concentrated on slenderness, but by no means have they neglected the ball gown — the dream dress. Romantic, bare-shouldered creations in net, velvet, satin, lace, twinkling with brilliants or sequins, delicately embroidered, worn with gorgeously coloured

Scene Around Town

BY HENRY DAVIS

It's press time now
And we haven't got a poem
So we'll just write the column
And then go home . . .

A letter received this week from Lou (Red) Davis from way out in Kansas City, Mo., extended best wishes for the New Year season to all his friends here in town — and there are a lot of them . . . If you notice young Doc Biderman buying sardines by the dozens, it isn't because he has a fondness for the canned canaries, but rather because he always keeps a full supply to feed the fish when he's out on the deep waters . . . Sam Silverman is putting in some extra time at the gymn, after acquiring a few pounds of avoirdupois . . .

Miscellania

Samuel S. Rosen, winner of a production contest for the insurance firm he represents, left by train this week for Omaha, Nebraska, to attend the annual convention . . . He accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bither . . . At the Dannin wedding last Sunday were spotted Mr. and Mrs. John French, whose daughter, you'll remember, is the wife of John Jacob Astor . . . Others seen were Mrs. Tober and her son, Bertram, the Mortyn Zeitz's and many more Providence folk . . . Frieda Rothstein and Arnie White are being married October 27th . . .

Phyllis Berkelhammer celebrated her birthday last week with a party started at Manfredi's and ended up at the Biltmore . . . Her sister, Ruth, is on her way to New York for the week-end . . Merrill Hassenfeld, who soon will be married to Sylvia Kay of Allentown, Pa., is apartment hunting . . .

Around and About

Seen at the Met last week-end, attending George White's scandals — Dr. and Mrs. Leo Cohen and the Billy Mills . . . In attendance at a luncheon of the HIAS, held this past week, were Max Winograd, Irving Brodsky, Abe Heller, Abe Fine and Marshall Marcus . . . During the luncheon, cards were distributed to stimulate the drive for $10,000 . . . Leads in "Night Must Fall," Repertory Players' first major production of the year, are being handled by Lillian Greenberg, Bill Smith and Mrs. Arthur Levy . . . Bill is also directing the play . . .

Pace Slows Up

Conflict between factions in the Congregation Beth David, slowed down to a walk this week, when Walter Adler was appointed by the Court to conduct an election, at which it would be decided whether or not to have the rabbi-elect officiate during the high holidays . . Only members who were in good standing on August 18 (the day when the trouble began) will be permitted to vote . . . We hear that the Beyan twins, Adrienne and Laura, will soon be leaving for New York, where they'll attend the American Academy of Dramatics . . .

The Point

Of one recent marriage out West, some jokster said: "Sure, they're in love . . . The fact that he's a poor boy and she's an heiress is absolutely beside the point — the decimal point . . . " Then there are those chaps he calls leftists: i. e. . . . They always marry on the left side of the decimal point . . . Because right side's the wrong side, and the left side's the right side . . . Oh, this is getting too complicated . . .

'40 Community Fund Goal $650,430

Liaison Committee Chairman Named

Four Jewish Agencies in Fund

Judah C. Semonoff has been appointed chairman of Section B of the Special Prospects Division for the 1940 Providence-Cranston Community Fund campaign, according to an announcement made yesterday by S. Foster Hunt, general chairman. The division is responsible for some 375 cards during the drive.

Mr. Semonoff is chairman of the Jewish Liaison Committee between the Providence Community Fund and the Jewish Federation for Social Service, coordinating center of the four Jewish agencies in the Fund: Jewish Children's Home, Miriam Hospital, Jewish Family Welfare Society and the Jewish Community Center.

True Strength

"Our country is engaged in the most gigantic defense program in its history," states Curtis B. Brooks, president of the Providence Community Fund, "and everyone will agree that, in this program, human welfare is as important as tanks or planes. Even with armies and armaments equal to those of any nations, or group of nations, America's true strength depends upon the welfare, spirit, courage and unity of our people."

40 Social Agencies

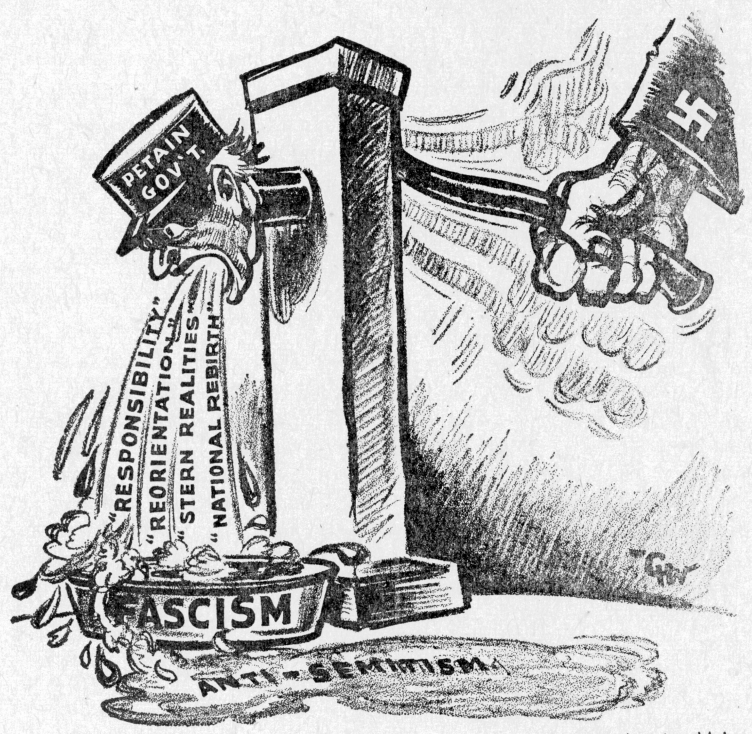

"Here in Providence," Mr. Brooks continues, "we face this task of strengthening our people. We have to fight powerful forces —poverty, disease, unemployment, crime, disunion — which are undermining the health and morale of our citizens. The 40 social agencies of the Community Fund have been ceaselessly fighting these forces by every means at their command, and this coming year it is of greater importance than ever before that this work go on, and that we continue to strive for stronger citizenry."

Announce Goal, Slogan

The goal of the Providence Campaign this year is $650,430, while "Help Make America Strong" will be the slogan. Fifty thousand dollars is sought in new or increased contributions. A portion of this is needed to offset contributions of last year that cannot be expected this year, due to deaths, removals from the city, bankruptcies, etc. The balance is required to make up for drastic cuts in agency allotments in recent years, and to extend and improve the work of many of the agencies.

In the last five years, the Community Fund has reached its goal only once, and as a consequence, agencies have been required to cut expenditures to a minimum, thus neglecting necessary repairs to buildings and being unable to offer services that are needed.

Fascist Official Lauds Coughlin

LONDON. — Robert Farinacci, former secretary general of the Fascist party in Italy, writing in his Cremona newspaper, "Regime Fascista," lauded Father Coughlin's "understanding and sympathy of Fascist principles."

Bombings to Bring Redoubled ZOA Aid

NEW YORK. — Voicing the indignation of American Zionists over the bombing of Tel Aviv by Italian airplanes, Edmund L. In his statement, Mr. Kaufmann said that the Zionist Organization will do everything within its powers to aid in the rehabilitation of the victims of the bombing attack.

To Hear Opinions on School Site

Demand for New School Increases

Only "Interested" Persons to Speak

A private meeting at which "interested parties" may air their views regarding the proposed location of school in South Providence will be held this evening at 20 Summer street, it was announced this week by Dr. James L. Hanley, superintendent of Providence schools.

Since the Point street school was destroyed by fire last winter, children in the neighborhood have been forced to attend double sessions at schools at a distance from their homes. It was believed that the proposed site — the block bounded by Staniford, Hilton, Ash and Pilgrim streets — would be advantageously situated since it would fill the requirements of children of elementary school age who will soon be living at the new South Providence housing project.

Alderman John E. Duggan, chairman of the City Property Committee which secured the option for 90 days more than a month ago at a cost of $5100 to the city said that he believed the site was the best to be had in the district.

Total cost of the property in the block will be slightly more than it is taxed for. This compares favorably with other school sites in the city which were obtained, in some instances, at three times the taxed value.

Agitation on behalf of the school has been increasing by residents and property owners. One owner said that four of her tenants had moved out and two others had refused to pay rent when they learned that the property might be taken over by the city.

Decision on whether the site would be approved will depend on the outcome of this evening's discussions. The meeting will be private in that only interested parties will be permitted to attend.

Obituary

OSCAR ZINN

Funeral services were held on Monday from the Max Sugarman Funeral Home for Oscar Zinn, 52, proprietor of Zinn's restaurant, and one of the city's best known caterers, who collapsed and died late Sunday afternoon while talking with a friend in his recently opened eating place at 38 Exchange Place. Death was from a natural cause. Mr. Zinn had lived at 452 Prairie avenue.

Born in Russia, Mr. Zinn came to this country as a youth, and for the last 21 years had been in the restaurant and catering business in Providence. From a small establishment on North Main street he moved to upper Weybosset street, and later to 133 Mathewson street, where Zinn's restaurant and banquet hall were the scene of hundreds of weddings and other social events during the 10 years of its existence.

Mr. Zinn went into temporary retirement following the death of his wife about a year ago, but early this year resumed business at the Exchange place location.

Surviving him are his son, Max Zinn, a sister, Mrs. Jacob Greenman of this city, and another sister, Mrs. Frank Ferman of Pawtucket.

Thousand People Inspect New Center

Guests Interviewed By Microphone Set

Dr. de Sola Pool Is Main Speaker

More than a thousand persons visited the Jewish Community Center last Sunday afternoon and evening, during dedication exercises in honor of the opening of two new modern buildings.

Guests were escorted through the building by guides, and were interviewed by Jules P. Goldsmith and Dr. Alex Weinberg through a microphone set, on their impressions of the new buildings. A trio headed by Sylvia Premack, furnished music.

Value of Center Stressed

A buffet supper was served to the Board of Directors and guests at 6:30 o'clock. Dr. David de Sola Pool, of New York, delivered the dedication address in the evening, at which time he stressed the value of a Center to Jewish community life. "Your new facilities," he said, "should add to your ability to serve the community more adequately.

Milton C. Sapinsley, chairman of the Building Committee presented the keys to the building to Samuel H. H. Workman, president. In his acceptance speech, Mr. Workman pointed to the expanded program of the Center, saying, "We are beginning a new chapter in our history, a chapter that I know will continue the glorious history of the past."

Bernhardt Presides

Bert L. Bernhardt, in charge of the dedication committee, presided at the exercises. The invocation was given by Rabbi William G. Braude, while Rabbi Israel M. Goldman gave the benediction.

A financial report on the cost of construction was presented by Saul Abrams. Several thousand dollars were contributed. A large room in the main building, with a seating capacity of 175, will now be known as the Sapinsley Assembly Hall. The women's lounge was purchased by the Young Women's Hebrew Association, and will be known as the YWHA lounge.

In charge of the buffet supper were the Mesdames Saul Abrams, Bert L. Bernhardt, Louis I. Kramer and Samuel H. Workman.

Seated on the platform were Rabbi Albert T. Bilgray, Rabbi Nathan Taragin, Rabbi Israel M. Goldman, Dr. David DeSola Pool, Samuel H. Workman, Milton C. Sapinsley, Samuel Soforenko, Reynold Luhn, Samuel Josolowitz, Nathan A. Heller, J. I. Cohen, Saul Abrams, Bert L. Bernhardt, Henry Turoff, and Rabbi William G. Braude.

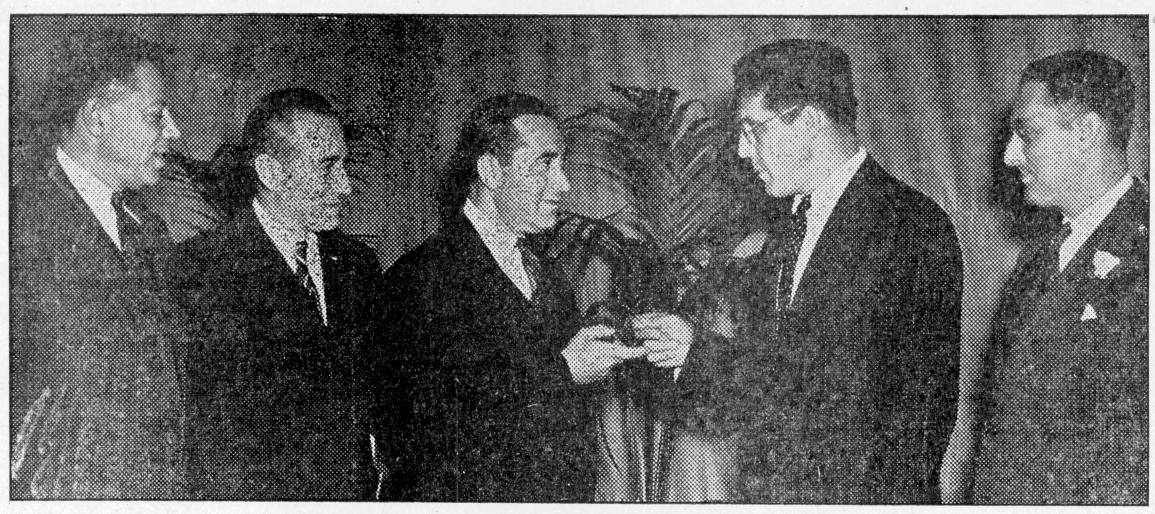

Mrs. Joseph J. Seefer was in charge of hospitality and Edith Abraams was in charge of guides and ushers.
