The new winter series of bingo games sponsored annually by Rhode Island Post, No. 23, Jewish War Veterans, will begin next Monday evening at the Post Ballroom on Niagara St. Valuable prizes will be awarded. The bingo games will be a weekly Monday feature under the direction of Aaron Cohen.

The Post members are rapidly completing plans for the taking over of the deed to their Home which the City Council promised to sell them.

Under the direction of Past Commander Paul J. Robin, the entire Post will participate in the Armistice Day parade and in the memorial exercises which are to be held the previous Friday and Saturday.

Jr. Vice-Commander John J. Rouslin has been appointed general chairman of the Armistice Day ball to be held in the Post Home on the night of November 11. Further details will be announced in the Jewish Herald.

PLANNING HOSPITAL JUBILEE

Hospital Founded 10 Years Ago Festivities on Nov. 10

In celebration of the 10th anniversary of the founding of Miriam Hospital, a dinner and entertainment will be held on the evening of Nov. 10 at the Narragansett Hotel. Under the general direction of Alter Boyman, committees have been appointed to make the occasion a memorable one. It will be unique in that it will mark the first time locally that a public institution has staged such festivities with no thought of solicitation of funds.

Distribution of tickets, Charles Hoffman, superintendent of the Miriam Hospital has announced, is progressing rapidly. "But," he stated, "we are unable to reach everyone that would be interested in attending. If possible, advise us immediately of your intentions for we are limited as to space and can accommodate only 300."

The speakers, of which there is a limited list, have been advised to make it "short but sweet." An orchestra will play during the entire evening and there will be selections by the Temple Emanu-El Choir, under the leadership of Arthur Einstein. Mrs. Sarah Webber will be soloist.

An anniversary book is being prepared and will contain no advertisements or boreome statistics. It will comprise, instead, a collection of interesting articles concerning the Miriam Hospital, and will be distributed to guests attending the dinner.

ALTER BOYMAN

Local authorities throughout Thuringia have reported that it is difficult for them to establish special schools for Jewish children. The new school law, issued by Minister of Education Rust, provides that such schools shall be established only where there are at least 20 Jewish children. In Thuringia, however, the Jewish population is widely distributed and as a result there are only four places in the whole province that number 20 children.

Rheumatism is not a bacterial but racial disease, the convention of German doctors at Bad Rarnbach was told. This assertion was made on the basis of an alleged discovery by German doctors.

Special anti-Jewish meetings were conducted at Ebersdorf and Elmberg in connection with the Jewish Day of Atonement.

SORORITY MEETS

The fifth meeting of the current season was held last night by the Alpha Sigma Delta Sorority at the home of Miss Bernice Strumfield, of 208 Dudley Street. Plans were discussed for coming social events and arrangements were made for the next meeting.

Jewish Leaders to Aid Fund Campaign

State Board Member

DR. MAURICE J. MELLION, selected by Governor Green as a member of the State Chiropraxy Examining Board.

Blew Shofar, Jew is Hailed to Court

JERUSALEM (JTA)—For blowing the Ram's Horn near the Wailing Wall, Shraga Haikin, a newcomer from Kaunas, Lithuania, was arrested here.

Haikin is a member of Brith Trumpeldor, Zionist Revisionist group.

According to a ruling made by the international commission appointed by the League of Nations to draw up regulations for worshippers at the Wailing Wall, believed to be the only remaining wall of the Temple, after riots between Jews and Arabs had occurred there, the blowing of the Shofar, (Ram's Horn) is forbidden.

Last year Chaim Rubes Horowitz, a Zionist Revisionist, was arrested for attempting to blow the Shofar near the Wailing Wall. The year before, Aaron Zuckerman, also a Zionist Revisionist, was arrested for a similar offense.

Scores of Workers to Canvass City in Annual Drive

Bernard M. Goldowsky, chairman of the special prospects group which will work in behalf of the Jewish Federation for Social Service in the coming Prosecco-Cranston Community Fund Campaign, November 12 to 19, has invited the following leaders in the Jewish Community to join him in this most important work:

Benjamin Brier, Dr. Ilie Berger, Arthur J. Levy, Henry Hassenfeld, Hillel Hassenfeld, Charles C. Brown, Max L. Grant, Benjamin H. Trinkel, Sol Rothstein, Harry Myers, James Goldman, Jacob Ernost, Harry S. Beck, Samuel Soforenko, Harry R. Rosen, Samuel Michaelson, Milton C. Sapinsky, Walter J. Sundiun and Jules P. Goldstein.

Upon these men, who will make up a flying squadron, depends the solicitation of a large part of the funds which constitute the life blood of five of the most important Jewish Social Agencies in the city together with 33 other social agencies, many of which serve many Jewish needs as well as others. Assisting Mr. Goldowsky in his efforts are Maurice Stollerman and George Katz of the Jewish Orphanage, who will constitute the secretariat of the division.

Taking a leading part in marshaling their officers and directors into formation for the effort are the presidents of the various agencies; Max L. Grant, president of the Federation and of Miriam Hospital; Arthur J. Levy, vice president of the Federation and president of Jewish Family Welfare Society; Walter J. Sundiun, president of the Jewish Orphanage; Milton C. Sapinsky, president of the Jewish Community Center; Alter Boyman, vice-president of Miriam Hospital; and Mr. Samuel Markoff, president of North End Dispensary. For several years the policy has been established among the Jewish Social Agencies that the president, officers and directors, who are given the privilege of directing the expenditures of these public funds for charity, must devote their efforts during campaign week to raise the necessary money. It is expected that there will be 100 (Continued on Page Six)

Further Restrictions on Jews Reported from Reich

BERLIN (JTA)—"Aryans" maintaining social or business relations with Jews will be deprived of their municipal citizenship rights, the mayors of several German cities announced this week.

In making the announcement the municipal heads stated that they are doing so "in accordance with the Nuremberg law."

"Those who maintain social relations with Jews, are traitors to the nation," the mayor of Hallebach declared, "No traitor may enjoy citizenship rights in our midst."

A number of banks in Bavaria have stopped payment on checks issued to Jews. The banks declare that this action is prompted by the desire to prevent "Aryans" from patronizing Jewish shops.

In Pomerania, every Jewish enterprise has been ordered to display conspicuously the full name of the owner "to ensure that 'Aryans' will not be misled by the anonymity of the enterprise."

The Jewish owners of the famous Belshchowsky linen firm in Breslau, the largest in Germany, have been forced to sell their business to "Aryans" it was reported here today.

A. A. U. Group of New Jersey Opposes Olympics in Berlin

NEWARK, N. J. (JTA)—Falling in line with the precedent set by the South Atlantic Association, the New Jersey Association of the Amateur Athletic Union this week instructed its six delegates to the national A. A. U. convention to oppose American participation in the Berlin Olympic games.

There are 33 regional associations which must hold conventions before the national parley Dec. 6, 7 and 8 at the Hotel Commodore, New York City. With Jeremiah T. Mahoney, national president, pressing for the boycott, all the associations are expected to take some action.

An A. A. U. decision to boycott would virtually result in American withdrawal from the games, since the union controls most of the amateur athletes. Only amateurs may compete in the Olympics.

A movement to prevent college athletes (the only athletes who do not need A. A. U. sanction to participate) from going to Berlin was under way in colleges and universities throughout the country. Officials at Harvard University, Boston College and Columbia University have already voiced objections to allowing athletes to compete in the Berlin games. Fordham University and the College of the City of New York are among the institutions which are scheduled to take action shortly.

The New Jersey Association by an open vote at its state convention adopted a resolution offered by Richard F. Hudson of Newark basing its action in instructing the delegates on "the treatment of various groups in Germany."

Mrs. Samuel Gordon Dies at Hospital

Funeral services for Mrs. Samuel Gordon who died last Saturday at Homeopathic Hospital after an illness of nine weeks were held from her home, 92 Tenth St. last Tuesday morning.

Born in this city, Mrs. Gordon was the former Sophie Hilda Rabinowitz, daughter of William and Annie Rabinowitz. She was graduated from Wellesley College in 1923 and for the following two years participated in social welfare work in New York and Detroit.

Besides her husband and parents, one brother, Sidney Rabinowitz, survives.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

By PAUL A. PETERS

Isserman Has the Last Laugh
Remember that rumpus kicked up last summer when Rabbi Ferdinand Isserman of St. Louis tried to get a visa to Germany and the German Consul in that city said nix cum raus? . . . And how the young rabbi who gained national prominence when he sat on the platform with Father Coughlin at the Detroit judicial justice rally tried to get the visa through Washington diplomatic channels? . . . And how he had to sail for Europe without that visa? . . . Well, Rabbi Isserman, believe it or not, got into Germany after all . . . And he didn't sneak across the border in a trunk with a false bottom . . . He was visaed across . . . And he spent ten days rubbernecking in Berlin, Nuremberg, Munich and other Nazi centers . . . And if the reader promises not to relay this information to Mr. Hitler or any of his satellites over here, we'll give the lowdown on how the rabbi got into Naziland despite his blacklisting.

Arrived in Paris, Isserman got into conversation with some American newspaper correspondents . . . The latter tipped him off that he could get across the border by applying at any one of the tourist offices in Paris . . . "But it'll be tough on you if you're recognized in Germany," they warned . . . Through the Paris tourist office, then, the young pulpiteer got his visa without any difficulties . . . He admits that once on the other side of the Franco-German border he had several attacks of the knee-shakes . . . He's back in St. Louis now and before long Propaganda Chief Goebbels will be reading all about what Rabbi Isserman saw during his stay in Germany and some square-head of an official in the German consulate in Paris will be waking up in a concentration camp and wondering how and why it all happened.

Mystery Story

We're not going to tell you one . . . But, another member of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency staff has written one that has been acclaimed the best of the season by the N. Y. Times book reviewer . . . The story is "Death Cuts a Caper" (a swell title for a thriller, no?) . . . The author is David Margashack, cable editor in the London bureau of the J. T. A. . . . Beckwith in the Times says Margashack's story is "fold in to skilled and fascinating a manner as to gain for it the reviewer's first reference among the Autumn issues, thus far, of detective stories. . . . Here's hoping, though, Dave keeps the mystery stuff out of his tables.

Birthdays Again

Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis will be entering his 80th year November 13 . . . If past performance is any criterion, Mr. Justice Brandeis will not celebrate his 70th birthday . . . There's been a movement on foot to celebrate his 80th birthday next year on a world-wide scale . . . Chances are he'll discourage it . . . The venerable justice is one of Washington's most famous recluses . . . And while you're putting names in your little birthday-card book, jot these down . . . Dr. Abraham Arden Brill, internationally known psychiatrist, will be 61 tomorrow (October 12) . . . The following day, Prof. Richard James Gottheil, noted scholar as the headlines invariably describe him, will celebrate his 73rd birthday . . . And on that same day the irrefutable monologist, cartoonist and before-and-after-dinner speaker, Harry Hershfield, will perch on his half-century milestone . . . The grand old man of the B'nai B'rith, Senator Alfred M. Cohen becomes 76 on October 19 . . . Song-writer Moiss Hart, a mere strapping, chalks up his 31st year on October 24 . . . And the inimitable but oft-imitated Fannie Brice will receive congratulations on her 44th birthday when the calendar gets around to October 29 . . . And our secretary, Harriet Bienenstock, looking over our shoulder butts in to say that we forgot to mention that her 25th natal day fell on October 3.

Odds and Ends

Rabbi Solomon Freehof's sermons, which are printed, are in great demand among Pittsburgh's Gentiles . . . The "Night of Stars" benefit by the United Jewish Appeal netted about $30,000 . . . Fewer Annie Oakleys were distributed for that performance than for any benefit show in recent years, we're informed . . . Harry Sackler, author of the highly praised "Festival at Meron" was at Octopus 24 . . . In the record department of the Z. O. A. . . . He has a marvelous memory and is described by his intimates as

Annual Meeting of Home to be Held on Oct. 27

The Board of Directors of the Jewish Home for Aged at their first meeting last Wednesday discussed the coming year and acted favorably upon several applications for admission. Samuel M. Magid presided.

It was reported by Max Siegal that the interior of the building was being washed and painted. Judge J. Jerome Kahn announced the addition of several memorials and presented the report of the visiting committee. Isaac E. Feinstein, the new superintendent, reviewed his first month's activities and outlined his future course of action.

Mr. Magid then announced that preparations were being made for the annual meeting of the Home, to be held Sunday, October 27. The public is invited to attend.

The High Holidays were spent in the usual atmosphere of solemnity, in which services in the synagogues were impressively conducted. A number of outside visitors attended these services.

In preparation for the Succoth festival, the Succah has been erected in the rear of the main building, in which services will be held during the festival. Mr. Magid has donated an Errog and Lulav for the occasion, and Mr. Korb, Kiddush.

Donations were received from the following: Mrs. Isaac Yaffa, Mrs. I. Rubinstein, Mrs. Rose Smira, Mrs. S. Blase, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rosen, Mrs. George M. Magid, Mrs. Isaac Kirshenbaum, Mrs. Sarah Trinkel, Mrs. R. Fain, Mrs. J. Hochberg, George Samperli, Mrs. M. S. Goldberger, Mrs. Nat C. Cohen, H. B. Leisker, Mrs. Max Deutsch, Mrs. Weisker, Mrs. R. K. Gerson, Mrs. E. Ladd, Mrs. Harry Silverman and A. L. Jacobs.

Haifa Unfortified Reports J. T. A.

HAIFA (JTA) — Rumors circulated abroad about the fortification of Haifa, Palestine seaport, because of the Italo-Ethiopian war, are thus far baseless, a Jewish Telegraphic Agency survey concludes.

Except for a slight economic nervousness, especially in Tel Aviv, the all-Jewish city, Palestine is so far unaffected by the war and is continuing its normal work though it is eagerly watching developments.

Haifa, whose harbor has recently been greatly expanded, is the terminus for the mosul pipe-lines and one of the most valuable oil-shipping ports on the mediterranean.

New Year's Greetings

Judging from the fat Rosh Hashanah issues published by several score Anglo-Jewish weeklies, the wolf should be far, far from their collective doors . . . Which reminds us that the New York Times ran more New Year's greetings than many of the Anglo-Jewish weeklies . . . We counted in the neighborhood of 100 in its Sunday edition.

In Charity's Name

A popular sport these days among social and charity workers is trying to guess who that person is who is giving $50,000 annually to a well-known Jewish charity and is about the only anonymous donor extant to retain completely the cloak of anonymity . . . They don't even know whether it's a man or woman . . . The currently famed guess is that it's a woman who lives in Boston . . . While on the subject of charity, social workers are still working overtime trying to get the sons of the old-line wealthy Jews pepped up on the subject . . . Up until the German business began you could comb the land from coast to coast and fail to find one of the wealthy youngsters who was willing to put both money and time and effort into charitable endeavors.

Star of the Silver Screen

Maybe Hollywood will be offering the aged Mayor Diengoff of Tel Aviv character roles soon . . . In a film depicting Palestine history of the past few decades, the Mayor plays the role of the founder of the first all-Jewish city . . . He is shown first as he appeared 25 years ago, a middle-aged man sporting a mustache and beard and then as he is today, clean-shaven . . . The film is an all-Hebrew talkie.

Just to keep the record straight, we learn that Dr. Maurice J. Karpf will not visit Biro-Bidjan after all.

ITALIAN JEWS ENLIST

RAIONICA (JTA) — A number of Italian Jewish volunteer soldiers left for Ethiopia in the army fighting the Ethiopian campaign. They were under the command of a Jewish officer named Modiano.

OUR FILM FOLK

BY HELEN ZIGMOND

Hollywood—The relative value of being a relative is not so great as heretofore imagined. A cross section of relativity (not Einstein's) revealed: Sylvia Thalberg worked under difficulties at M. G. M., because she was considered just Irving Thalberg's sister. Then she wrote a novel "Too Beautiful," signed up with another studio, and is making good without "connections."

Ruth and Mitzi Cummings, nieces of Louis B. Mayer were put in the relative category and not given much chance on the home lot. So Ruth wrote a book, "Song of the Flesh," which rated good reviews . . . and Mitzi has a writing job on the fan magazine, holding it purely on merit.

Harry Kapf's son, Maurice, did several pieces of good scribbling at Pop's studio, but is now carving out a niche for himself in New York. And the many Mankiewiczes, all writers, do their work independently kin or akin.

Buddy Schulberg, B. P.'s pride, won playwright honors at Dartmouth before taking a try at Hollywood. Now he's writing screenplays . . . but not at the pater's studio.

The San Francisco Chapter of Hadassah is planting an evergreen tree in the George Washington forest of Palestine as a memorial to Will Rogers.

Film fun among the kiddies . . . When Lionel Stander's automobile collided with another car the photograph fiends rushed upon the actor for his signature.

Another day the autograph hounds at the tennis matches trailed Charlie Chaplin to the bar where he ordered a double chocolate ice-cream cone and calmly ate it perched upon a stool.

Did you know that Al Jolson stands second in the Crossly air ratings, led only by Major Bowes and followed by Rudy Vallee? He's that popular!

A little of the lowdown: We met a "fanisman" of Paul Lukas the other day who definitely confirmed the

Kidnaped Jew Believed Dead

HARBIN (JTA) — M. Leenson, Harbin Jewish provision merchant, who was kidnaped by bandits several months ago, is believed to have been killed by his captors, it was revealed here.

His wife, who had been negotiating for his release has had no word from the agent of the kidnapers since July 31, when a ransom of $5,000 was demanded. She agreed to pay this sum but demanded a letter from her husband as proof that he is still alive.

The agent of the kidnaping gang declared that this could not be produced as Leenson had been "bricked into a pit" from which there was no egress. Although food could be thrown in to him, he could not pass anything out, his captors alleged.

Hebraic ancestry of Mr. Lukas. Few people know this . . . and he's been in pictures for eighteen years.

Likewise you can "gut yontey" Francis Lederer . . . and he won't like to be reminded.

Philip Reed, they tell me, also belongs to the Lodge. He was formerly Milton LeRoy . . . and before that probably something more Semitic.

Paul Muni has finished his picture on the life of Pasteur, the scientist and they're searching for a tag. So a few of the scribblers craned their craniums and produced the following suggestions, which you may be sure will be rejected by Mr. Muni: "Anthony Andrus," "Bacterio Bacteria," "Pat and Microbe," and "Don't Bact-It."

Economy in a Hollywood . . . They're building a new stage on one of the major lots . . . So Scotch-like the studio chiefs pushed a sound-recording machine which earshot to garner in the noise for future flickers.

News and Notes: In the "Great Zeigfeld" Fanny Brice will do a parody of Sally Rand's fan dance that has the whole company convulsed during rehearsals. Edward Robinson's sonny uses his Dad's best Dutch amoking pipe to push golf balls around the yard. June Travis will have her RIG change as the lead in "Celine Zero" . . . and she's being coached for the aeronautical role by Amelia Earhart, no less.

Little Jerry Tucker (of the Schatz family) has a fine opportunity to show his talent in "Anything Goes". Abe Lyman and Eleanor Powell sealed it with a colossal sparker. Before the famous boat of Waterloo, a certain agent left for the east with a picture contract in his pocket for Max Baer II he won.

Eddie Cantor says: "A head never bekims to swell until the brain stops functioning!"

It seems a certain supervisor came to work one morning very much wrinkled and rumpled. "Good heavens," exclaimed his boss, Mr. Producer, "you look as though you'd spent in that suit." "I did. I wore it to the preview of your picture last night!"

Home for Aged Auxiliary in Welcome to New Head

A warm welcome was accorded Isaac E. Feinstein, new superintendent of the Jewish Home for the Aged, and Mrs. Feinstein, by the Ladies' Association of the institution at its first regular meeting of the season, last Wednesday. The new superintendent and his wife were honored guests of the afternoon and the former was principal speaker.

In an address which bespoke sincere devotion to his future responsibilities, Mr. Feinstein stamped himself as a type ideally suited to the exigencies of his new post. Expressing his gratification at the opportunity of addressing a group so closely allied with the welfare of the Home, Mr. Feinstein appealed to his hearers "as women and mothers" to "uphold the great recognized tradition of our folk, viz., our love for our parents, for our people, and for our aged."

In recounting some of the problems which daily confront the head of an institution for the aged, the speaker vividly described the tragedy of lives broken physically and financially, as old age takes its toll, and pledged to his new charges in behalf of Mrs. Feinstein and himself, a warmth of sympathy and understanding. In concluding, he voiced the hope that the future, through mutual effort, would bring about the realization of a much-needed hospitalization at the Home.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. I. Low, president. Reports were

Routine Business Transacted and Plans Outlined at First Meeting of Season of Senior Hadassah

Providence Chapter, Senior Hadassah held its first regular meeting of the season last Tuesday afternoon at the Biltmore Hotel. Mrs. A. A. Fain presided and welcomed all members and guests, expressing the hope that the new season would bring continued success to the organization.

She discussed the drive which is being launched by National Hadassah in an effort to attain a 50,000 membership mark by 1937, when it celebrates its Silver Jubilee, and urged each member to do her share toward the realization of this aim.

A discussion of various revisions of the organization's by-laws followed. It was announced that the Hadassah national convention will be held in Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 28 to Dec. 1. Mrs. A. A. Fain, Mrs. Saul Abrams, Dr. Clara Lojtmann-Smith and Mrs. Samuel Michaelson were appointed delegates and Mrs. Benjamin Kane, Mrs. A. Kleinberger, Mrs. M. Sheer and Mrs. J. D. Grossman will serve as alternates.

The following comprise the committee representing local Senior Hadassah in the forthcoming Community Chest Fund Drive: Mrs. Saul Abrams, chairman; Mesdames A. Pilaven, S. Michaelson, J. D. Grossman, Arthur Grossman, S. Grossman, J. Irving, M. Mickler, B. Swartz, J. D. Ernstof, S. B. Flanzbaum, Charles Temkin, Louis Temkin and B. Taber.

WOULD BAR CONVERSION
BERLIN (JTA) — A demand that no Jew be permitted to undergo conversion to Christianity and that all former conversions be annulled, was voiced here by Der Judenkenner, official anti-Semitic organ of the Nazi party. The Judenkenner makes its demands on the ground that the churches are guilty of tolerating "this vilest race-violation."

Carnival Goal Set for $1,000

A goal of $1,000 for the carnival to be staged Oct. 27 and 28 in the High St. Synagogue, Pawtucket, under the auspices of the Ahavath Shalom Sisterhood, was set last Monday night at a committee meeting in the home of Mrs. Martin Curran of Lancaster St. The fund will be turned over to the wards of the synagogue.

At Rabbi Ruckovsky's suggestion, a men's committee was named with Samuel Zarghen as chairman and Morris Cooper, Charles Tesler, Abraham Singer and Martin Curran as co-workers. It was announced there will be a booth at the carnival. Booths will provide novelties, attractions and refreshments.

Mrs. Samuel Cokin, Mrs. Joseph August, ex-officio, Mrs. Samuel Brown, Mrs. Martin Curran, Mrs. Abraham Singer, Mrs. Israel Luber, Mrs. Benjamin Goldenberg and Mrs. Samuel Zarghen were named to a special ticket committee. Mrs. L. Cokin was selected as chairman of the cake sale committee. Mrs. Curran, Mrs. Charles Tesler and Mrs. Alfred Goldenberg are co-chairmen of the affair.

Appeal for New Members Results in 58 Replies

A stirring appeal for new members made last Monday at the Yom Kippur services at the Ahavath Shalom synagogue resulted in 58 new additions to the roster, it was announced today. This increase was particularly significant in that the greater proportion came from the younger element. Immediately after the services the new members were welcomed by Rabbi Bachrach, Rabbi A. Shapiro and Philip Abrams, president of the congregation.

That same evening plans were made to revive the Brotherhood organization which had become inactive during the last year. With a nucleus consisting of Max Borry, Dave Sagarmont, Ralph Fishbein, B. Mann and Benjamin Teitel, first efforts to secure members resulted in 19 new enlistments. Rabbi A. Shapiro will head the advisory committee.

THE LECTURES AT TEMPLE EMANU-EL

Reflected in the list of lecturers selected by organizations affiliated with Temple Emanu-El is the vital thought that only through understanding and rational action can the position of Jewry be improved. The speakers to appear during the coming months are leaders and as such have their fingers on the pulse of human behavior whether it be civilized or an outlet for brutal emotions.

The messages that will be forthcoming will be stirring and timely. A diversity of opinion will be available for discussion and analysis. A new outlook on life with a new tolerance tends to enrich our life and makes for better appreciation and enjoyment of our present surroundings.

This phase of Jewish culture whose torch Temple Emanu-El has proudly borne during the last few years will enable the Jew himself to realize anew that there is a Jewish culture and civilization. However, it would appear from the reluctance Jews have of attending these lectures that they consider Jewish culture to be inferior. Perhaps this attitude may be explained by the lack of knowledge of Jewish history and literature on the part of Jews. Only those who know can appreciate.

The program arranged for this year by Temple Emanu-El is worth while investigating. The cost per lecture is trifling and the scheduled dates are conveniently arranged. Here is something worthwhile. You'll enjoy it and you'll benefit from it. Try it.

A PROBLEM FOR THE WORLD

When the standards of civilized society are lowered and the security of international peace endangered by racial and religious persecution it is imperative that all races protest. It is imperative that all races protest against the continued and intensified program of the German Government for the spiritual and economic destruction of the Jewish people in Germany.

In voicing indignation at anti-Semitism there is no interference with the internal affairs of the German people. The rising hum of criticism reaffirms convictions that the progress of all mankind is hindered whenever any part of this interdependent world forsakes and repudiates the fundamentals of human relationship which civilization has accepted as elementary for its physical and moral preservation.

The world knows that the German Government has barred Jews from a place of honor and self-sustenance; it is well aware that tens of thousands of Jews have been forced to leave their country; and confirmed reports indicate that added persecution has removed all opportunity for economic maintenance.

By her actions, Germany has compelled other nations to take notice of her policies. She has put the burden of her exiled refugees on all other nations. This problem, therefore, which Germany has created requires not only the support of world Jewry but a solution by the world at large.

paintings, 40 water colors, a group of etchings, a group of lithographs as well as a group of linocut and drawings. Mr. Haskin exhibited at Temple Emanu-El five years ago and his art show was highly praised by the local art critics.

All told, the Institute of Jewish Studies presents ten Saturday afternoon lectures, four Sunday evening lectures, an art exhibit and study courses. The members of the entire community are cordially invited to enroll in the Institute of Jewish Studies for Adults.

TEMPLE EMANU-EL

Congregational Succah Party

The first social function of the year in Temple Emanu-El will be held tonight, immediately after the services in the form of a Succah Party and Harvest Festival. A reception will also be tendered to the 40 new families who have joined the congregation.

Mrs. Philip Korb is chairman of the committee, and is being assisted by Mesdames H. Swartz, M. Temkin, J. Berkelhammer, Nat C. Cohen, H. Bernstein, S. Robinson, J. Nottman, C. Strassmich, H. Gilstein, A. Jacobs, J. Koppit, H. Reizen, Sol Cohen and J. Shore.

Bar Mitzvah of Stanley Brier. On Saturday morning, the first day of Succoth, Stanley Brier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brier, will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah. A reception will follow in the vestry. A cordial invitation is extended to relatives and friends.

Floral Offerings. The floral offerings for this Sabbath are the gifts of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brier, in honor of the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Stanley; and of Mr. and Mrs. George Press, in honor of the birth of a son.

Children's Succah Party. A new service is being introduced for the children next Sunday, to be held in the main synagogue. This service includes a number of classes, such as representing the various fruits and vegetables of the harvest season. The vine, the fruit of the earth and the wheat and corn, as well as the distinctly ceremonial objects of the Lulab and Erag will all be represented in a dramatic and poetic form. A beautiful procession.

Rabbi Goldman Slated to Address Jr. Hadassah

With Rabbi Israel M. Goldman of Temple Emanu-El as guest speaker, Providence Chapter of Junior Hadassah will hold their first regular meeting next Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Biltmore Hotel. Miss Bella Rubinstein will preside.

Miss Muriel Halprin will entertain with a group of vocal selections. She will be accompanied at the piano by Miss Bella Goldenberg.

A meeting of the dance committee was held at the home of Miss Helen Pobors, chairman of programs. It was decided to hold the affair at the Hillgrove Country Club on Tuesday evening, October 22.

Around The Town

With JOSEPH M. FINKLE

THE OLYMPIC GAMES
Agitation against the United States' participation in the Olympic games to be held next year in Germany, is growing greater and greater. Our own city of Providence took official action when on Monday night the City Council passed a resolution asking the American Olympic Committee to withdraw our teams from the games.

Councilman Joe Schlossberg presented the resolution which was given immediate consideration and was passed unanimously. This important matter has been given nation-wide thought and publicity during the past year because of the anti-Semitic actions of the Hitler nation violates the essential principles for which the Olympic games were founded. As a writer has said, "Those Jews who are chosen for the Olympics probably will settle the issue for themselves. As self-respecting Americans and Jews they will probably keep out of the Olympics. As Americans they may be expected to say, as we Americans, who honor good sportsmanship, can not make a mockery of good sportsmanship by engaging in games with foul players. As Jews we can not accept the hospitality of foul enemies of our people."

It will be interesting to see what developments the coming weeks will bring forth in this important matter.

IS PROVIDENCE A COLD CITY?

This is a question that has often been asked of me during the past months and I do not mean in regards to the temperature. Many who are making our city their home after living elsewhere, are convinced that it is so difficult to make friends here. They say that the spirit of cordiality is so very lacking and that they are at a loss for the reason. Vaudeville actors have always said that Providence audiences "sit on their hands." I always have known that our city has its own "sets" or "cliques" as is evidenced in our organizations. It seems that the stranger within our gates is at a loss unless he comes to us with a letter of introduction testifying to his character and a hundred other details. I should like to know just what your reaction is as to whether our city is "cold" and what your reasons are in regard to this matter because I know we all want to feel that our city is not lacking in cordiality and friendship.

I SEE

The lecture series committee of the Jewish Community Center outside itself this year in the announcement made last week in regard to the fine list of speakers who will visit Providence this year. I believe the speakers coming to Providence this fall and winter to be the most imposing array of notables ever to come here under Jewish Center auspices. Senator Robert La Follette, Jr., of Wisconsin, heads the list which includes that great Jewish actress, Mollie Picon, and others. . . . Yom Kippur Night was celebrated this year as never before if the great crowds which filled all the night spots are any criterion. . . . and at some places, Jewish songs were played by hands appropos to the occasion.

Among the thousands to get jobs on Works Progress Administration relief projects are 50 New York rabbis. . . . and while on the subject of rabbis it is interesting to note that several have given up the rabbinate for the practice of law, notably Benjamin N. Parker, former spiritual head of the Ochs Memorial Temple in Chattanooga, Tenn. Just graduated from Harvard Law School, this individual still keeps his hand in at delivering sermons, delivering the Rosh Hashonah message at Rabbi William Rosenblum's Temple in New York.

We are so happy to learn that Charles Silverman, the other half of Silverman Brothers, is so much better after that recent illness. — Charlie is one of our foremost citizens, taking a great and active interest in every communal effort and it is a genuine pleasure to send forth this good news. . . . Mrs. Charles Brown took rank as one of the leading woman golfers of the state when she won the Class B tournament last week of the R. I. Women's Golf League. . . . Ben Kane's last addition to his constantly growing stable is certainly a winner — the new horse, "Go Quick," lived up to its name when it won the $5,000 race this week at Agawam, the new track near Springfield, and at the same time set a new course record, which all in all makes Ben a mighty happy man.

RANDOM THOUGHTS AND ACTIONS

We haven't seen Dave Adelman for many a day but nevertheless we miss this very active individual and hope he will put us on his mailing list for his fine Turo-a-gram, that very interesting little paper of the Turo Fraternal. . . . Johnny Silverman will soon be in town to make

Mrs. Sapers to Address Y W H A

Mrs. Ann B. Sapers of Brookline will be guest speaker at the first fall meeting of the Young Women's Hebrew Association to be held next Wednesday evening at the Jewish Community Center.

Mrs. Sapers is well known in educational and philanthropic circles, being president of the Ladies' Helping Hand Home for Jewish Children; vice president of the New England Women's Association of the Hebrew Teachers College; and for many years president of the Women's Scholarship Association, an organization dedicating its efforts to the promotion of higher education for Jewish girls. Her subject, "Jewish Education," is, therefore, very appropriate. It is expected that she will incorporate many of her experiences of the past summer, when she visited Southern Europe.

Miss Ida Rubinstein, who is chairman of the meeting, has also arranged to present an associated music program. Cantor Joseph Schlossberg of Temple Beth Israel will sing, assisted by the Temple Choir. A social hour will follow the meeting affording an opportunity to meet the speaker and the musicians.

Pioneer Club Bridge

A bridge for the benefit of the Jewish Teachers and Peoples University will be held by the Women's Pioneer Club next Monday afternoon in Arcadia Hall, 109 Washington St.

In urging all members to attend Mrs. Bell stated, "This project is of paramount historical importance as an earnest endeavor to unite our youth with the cultural spirit of our people. As such, it deserves support."

Mrs. Harry Chaet as chairman will be assisted by Mrs. Benjamin Hakatansky, co-chairman; Mrs. Israel Sherman, treasurer; Mrs. Morris Golin, chairman of refreshment committee; Mrs. Morris Beeber, chairman of the card committee, and Mrs. Harry Fleischer, chairman of the ticket committee.

Final plans for his great R. I. Food Show which begins on Nov. 18 at the State Armory. . . . this unusual, local young man is now considered one of the leading exposition promoters and managers in the whole country and his last great show closed Saturday in Buffalo where Jack Dempsey and Vincent Lopez were the headline attractions — brother Fred Silverman is assisting him with the local show. . . . Doc Max Biderman feels happy after that recent honeymoon, if that brisk step and smile mean anything.

We learn that our own Gerald Bronstein and Annette Kaufman are set for important parts in the next Players production at the Barker Playhouse. . . . The Repertory Players will hold their next meeting on Oct. 23 when a one-act play directed by Marion Brooks will be the offering. . . . the make-up course being offered on Wed. nights is proving of much interest. . . . Local society will fill the Biltmore next Wed. night when the Men's Club of Beth-El sponsors its annual dinner-dance. . . . this year I am told there will be no speaking, the entire evening being devoted to good cheer, entertainment and dancing. — Sol Rothstein is the chairman of a fine committee.

This year, Yom Kippur services were held in the Cordoba Synagogue for the first time since 1492. Hank Greenberg had the important question of his playing on Yom Kippur answered when injuries kept him on the sidelines. . . . Wonder where Valencia Lapsitz is these days. . . . Two thousand young Italian Jews have already sailed for Ethiopia to join the Italian expeditionary forces. . . . Glad to hear that Frank Golemba's mother is about after that accident last winter. . . . Did you know that the first day of Rosh Hashonah can never occur on Sunday, Wednesday or Friday? . . . Leo Robinson and wife were among the former locals seen in town over the week-end. . . . Rebecca Brenner has closed her Maplehurst Hotel in Bethlehem after the most successful season in years. . . . and this is all for another week.

Field-Marshal to Review Jewish Vets

With reference to the coming campaign, Arthur J. Levy, chairman of the year around educational publicity committee of the Providence Community Fund, made the following statement:

"The process of telling the public, which makes these 38 agencies and their work possible, about the details of that work calls for continuous study of what is happening to the $600,000 and more that is contributed, the people who administer its expenditure and the thousands of fellow-citizens who benefit by it in their hour of need. I am convinced that even a casual examination of these things will prove a revelation to anyone — and will make him increase his contribution cheerfully, confident that he cannot spend his money more wisely or with greater satisfaction.

"I would like to urge every Jewish resident of this city who is interested at all in his neighbors and his city to do two things: visit the Welfare Exposition which will be held on the second floor of the Arcade Building this month and be sure to see the movie "Good Neighbors" which will be shown at numerous organizations between now and the campaign. If every one will do these things, I am willing to rest my case on the generous contributions that will be made when the solicitor calls."

Nazi Demonstrators Beaten up by Jews in Garment District

NEW YORK (JTA) — Five uniformed Nazis who invaded the predominantly Jewish garment district of New York to advertise a Nazi rally received a signal defeat when 2,000 to 3,000 garment workers pulled them off the truck in which they were riding and gave them a thorough thrashing before they were halted by mounted police and crews of radio cars.

One of the Nazis and two of the garment workers were arrested.

Dressed in brown-shirts, and flaunting the swastika, and distributing handbills, the five Hitlerites rode through the crowded streets with signs advertising a rally of the American National Socialist League scheduled for Tuesday night in the Turn Hall, Yorkville.

First signs of imminent disaster loomed when the truck stalled. The crowd, which had been angered by the taunts of the Nazis, now advanced menacingly on the truck. With usual promptness, Police Commissioner Valentine's radio cars arrived in time to prevent serious injury to any of the Nazis.

Brown-Springfield Game Tomorrow

It will be another tight battle tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon when Brown meets Springfield College at the Stadium. For the past three years, Brown has been on the long end of the score; but victory came only after difficulty.

Although the starting line-up is undetermined it is likely that the following will see play: Freeman Love and Bob Johnson, ends; Arthur Sakland and Adolph Sharky, tackles; Luther Stanhope and Leon Payne, guards; Michael Turcone, center; Eddie Neal, quarterback; Bob Reigler and Perry Elrod, halfbacks; and Meyer Greenberg, fullback.
