Open Door for Jews in Palestine Sought by World Jewish Leaders

PAGEANT TO DEPICT RIOT CONDITIONS

Outdoor Spectacle Sponsored by Zionist Groups

A pageant to show the realistic as well as the artistic form of actual conditions of Arab-Jewish relations before and during the Palestinian riots, will be presented at 6 o'clock, Sunday evening, on the grounds of the Mosshays in Bridgewater, Mass. The Camp is located on Route 104 from Taunton, on Lake Nipanicutt.

Nathan Kline, New York artist, and Irving Bookstein, of the Boston Zionists, are constructing on the grounds, replicas of Arab and Jewish settlements. Among the Shomrim there are several who have been to Palestine and know the Arab songs and language.

The costuming will be true to Arab and Jewish dress. Some of these are directly from Palestine, lent for the occasion by Dr. Burnec and other friends of the Shomrim. The wooded situation and the open plain of the Camp lends itself remarkably for the action of the attackers and the heroic defenders.

There will be twelve scenes amongst which will be the daily Arab-Jewish contacts; the scene at the Arab village when the agitators arrive; the daring attempt to burn the forest of the Jews. (Continued on Page 2.)

TRUE'S ACTIVITIES TO BE INVESTIGATED

New York (WNS)—Superintendent Brown of the Washington, D. C., Metropolitan Police has notified the New Masses, radical weekly, that an immediate investigation will be made of the charges of James True, anti Semite agitator, is planning a pogrom for this September, the current issue of the New Mass announces. Investigation of True's activities will be undertaken also by the Black and Dickstein Congressional committees.

In an article by Michael Hale True is quoted as saying that 15 "big Jews who run things here and are part of an international alliance to plan to wreck Christianity and the world" should be "bumped off, then we wouldn't have any trouble." Among the 15 is Felix Frankfurter, regarding whom True is quoted as saying: "He ought to be the first to go."

Aged Negro Searches for Son Who is a "Rabbi"

New York (WNS)—George Lee, Negro centenarian who claims to have been a slave of General Robert E. Lee, Confederate commander, was asked the aid of the police here to help find his son Stephen, who, he says, is a colored rabbi. The elder Lee has been living at Chester, S. C., and has not seen his son for several years. Inquiry in Harlem, where there are a number of so-called Negro Jewish congregations, failed to disclose the existence of any Rabbi Stephen Lee.

REICH VETS BAN MATCH

Berlin (WNS)—That some elements in German Jewry have learned nothing from the tragedy of Nazism was again evidenced by the action of the Union of Jewish War Veterans in forbidding its branches to play soccer matches with the Macabee Sports Club because the latter is a Zionist body. The war-veteran group is under assimilationist influence.

Officers Elected as Congress Adjourns

Denies Rumor

MAURICE SAMUEL

From Palestine Maurice Samuel, noted Jewish writer and lecturer, denied that he intended to remain in Palestine indefinitely. He plans to sail for the United States in October.

Court Blames Jews For Przytyk Pogrom

Warsaw (WNS)—Jews deliberately provoked the Przytyk pogrom of last March in which two Jews and one Christian were killed, it was declared in an official statement issued by the Radom district court explaining its recent verdict in which Jewish defendants received long prison terms and Christian defendants were let off with mild sentences. The court declared that Losko, one of the convicted Jewish defendants, was morally responsible for the death of the Min-kowski couple and charged that all of the Jewish witnesses at the trial had perjured themselves.

Progress of Fascism in America Exposed

A merciless factual exposure of Fascism and anti-Semitism in America! Dr. L. M. Birkhead has just concluded a special investigation tour of the country, examining personally the men and work of anti-Semitic organizations in the United States.

The Seven Arts Feature Syndicate and the Jewish Herald will present Dr. Birkhead's articles on his findings. These articles are copyrighted by the Seven Arts Feature Syndicate. Reproduction in whole or in part is forbidden.

The first of Dr. Birkhead's articles is presented herewith.

The Editor America, Fascism and anti-Semitism are at your door! Movements in the direction of a Hitlerized America are springing up in every section of the country. On every front—economic, political, social and religious—the Fascists and anti-Semites are recruiting their forces for a violent overthrow of all that has been considered the best in American history—tolerance, liberty—social, political and religious—the rights of minorities, and a decent respect for human personality.

Foresight of Lewis

Therefore, it is my considered judgment (after a careful survey of the gathering of the Fascist and anti-Semitic forces) that Sinclair Lewis was no hodge-monger when he wrote "It Can't Happen Here." In fact, he displayed keen prophetic foresight and Geneva (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The first World Jewish Congress in history adjourned in the Assembly Hall of the League of Nations, to reconvene in two years, after laying the foundations for a permanent world organization for the defense of Jewish rights and the rehabilitation of the Jewish status.

After eight days of serious deliberations, close to 300 delegates from 32 countries completed the work begun seventeen years ago when the first Committee of Jewish Delegations was established, and created the framework for a federation of Jewish communities to act in concert on matters affecting the protection of the equality status of the Jew and his economic rehabilitation.

The last official act of the Congress in its closing session was the election of an administration.

Four Americans were elected by acclamation to the highest offices in the grit of the Congress. Judge Julian W. Mack, president of the first American Jewish Congress and Chairman of the Committee of Jewish Delegations at Paris, which was responsible for the incorporation of the minorities rights clauses in the peace treaties, was elected honorary president. There will be no president.

Dr. Stephen S. Wise was elected Chairman of the Executive Committee, Louis Lipsky Chairman of the Central Council and Dr. Nahum Goldmann, Chairman of the Administrative Committee. Louis Sturz, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the American Jewish Congress, is treasurer.

The Executive Committee will act as the governing body between sessions of the Council and the Administrative Committee. The first official act of the World Jewish Congress will be to present its declaration on Palestine to the British Legation in Switzerland.

ASKS WOMEN TO HELP

New York (WNS)—Jewish women of America are asked to help rebuild the forests of Palestine, destroyed by Arab vandals and arsonists, according to an appeal issued by Hadassah to its 30,000 members in response to the request of Henrietta Szold.

unusual social and political insight. The things that his prognosticating and self-satisfied Vermont neighbors said could not happen in America are actually happening and there is serious question as to whether, now that Fascism and anti-Semitism are on the way, they can be halted and suppressed. The Fascist and anti-Semitic move-

Honorary President

JUDGE JULIAN MACK

President of the First American Jewish Congress and chairman of the Jewish Delegations at Paris which was responsible for the incorporation of the minorities rights clauses in the peace treaties, Judge Julian Mack, of the U. S. Circuit Court, was elected honorary president of the World Jewish Congress. There will be no president.

Soldiers, Sailors Obtain Rosh Hashonah Furloughs

Washington, D. C. (WNS)—Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur furloughs for Jews in the United States army, navy, marine corps and coast guard will be given from September 16th to 18th and from September 25th to 26th, according to official orders issued by the War and Navy Departments. The furloughs will permit Jews in armed services either to go home or to go to places where religious services will be held.

STOPPAGE OF ENTRY MANDATE VIOLATION

Delegation Declares Jews Have Right of Immigration

Basle, Switzerland (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The British Government, as mandatory power for Palestine, was called upon to maintain an open door for Jews in Palestine "in the light of the desperate plight in many countries," during an interview with the British charge d'affaires by a delegation representing the World Jewish Congress, headed by Dr. Stephen S. Wise, chairman of the executive committee, and Louis Lipsky, chairman of the Central Council, both of New York.

Referring to rumors of possible suspension of Jewish immigration, due to the current disorders in Palestine, the delegaten insisted that stoppage of Jewish entry into Palestine on "political grounds" would be violation of the spirit and letter of the Palestine Mandate, entrusted to Great Britain by the League of Nations. The delegation declared that "the right of immigration to Palestine is a fundamental right of the Jewish people."

Charge d'affaires T. Shine promised to transmit to his government the Palestine resolution adopted by the Congress and presented to him by the delegation.

JEWISH VETS URGE EQUALITY PLEDGE

New Brunswick, N. J.—(WNS)—Before the United States accepts an invitation to participate in any future Olympic games, the American Olympic Committee should procure from the host country a pledge that all athletes participating will be treated equally and in sportsmanlike manner, regardless of race, color or creed, it was declared in a resolution adopted by the New Jersey department of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States.

This same resolution will be submitted to the 41st national encampment of the Jewish Veterans of the United States to be held in Pittsburgh over the Labor Day week-end.

The resolution condemned "the attitude and action of the spokesmen and representatives of the German government and the Olympic games for their gross lack of sportsmanship and decency in affronting America's supreme colored athletes."

Nazis Blame Refugees for Spanish Violence

Berlin (WNS)—German-Jewish refugees in Spain are responsible for the terror in Spain, it was declared by the Freiheits Kampf, Nazi paper in Dresden. The Nazi paper says that the refugees are utilizing the revolution to revenge themselves on Germany.

England Bars Entry of Foreign Dentists

London (WNS)—Foreign dentists will no longer be permitted to practice in Great Britain because of the fear that German Jewish refugee dentists may imperil the livelihood of Englishmen. Quite a few German-Jewish dentists have been admitted to practice here already.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

Samuel R. Finegold

THE PENALTY DOUBLE

"Double, double, toil and trouble. Partner squirms quite in a muddle. Much perplexed and in grave doubt. Whether to leave it in or take it out."

The above poetic inspiration comes from a recent episode in which a player spent an entire evening trying to differentiate between the takeout and the penalty double.

It's simple: If the double is made at the first opportunity of the doubler and his partner has not bid, this double is meant for a takeout. If at any time a doubler's partner has already made a bid, this double is for penalties no matter how low the contract. If a player passes and then doubles on a succeeding round, it is meant for penalties. Or if the doubled bid is more than two no trump or three in a suit; it is for penalties.

When to Double for Penalties A player should double for penalties only when he reasonably expects to defeat the opponents by TWO tricks. If the contract is under game, this rule must be adhered to very strictly. Do not double on what you expect to find in your partner's hand unless he has already made some bid to denote a certain number of defensive tricks.

Nor is there any such thing as a "free" double. Some players have had habit of doubling all slam contracts and most game contracts, figuring that these are "free" doubles. We spent an evening with one such party recently and the amount we piled up as a result of redoubles was staggering. We hope that they were cured. A skimpy double will do you more harm than good.

In the first place, it advertises the location of the outstanding high cards and, secondly, the percentage is against you. By doubling on a slim chance of setting them one trick, you may gain, if set, 50 points non-vulnerable or 100 points vulnerable; if not set, he gains 120 points in a major or 100 in a minor. If the declarer should redouble and make his contract, he will have gained, in a major, 360 points, or 300 in a minor, without figuring the possibility of overtricks.

"Free" doubles of a slam are even greater boomerangs. You can usually figure that when your opponents have reached a six or seven bid, they've got the goods and the great set will not be more than one trick, or possibly two. Compared with the disadvantage of announcing the location of the defensive strength or against a redouble, it is hardly worth while to double, unless, and this was our first statement in this column, you can reasonably expect to defeat the opponent's contract by at least two tricks.

How to Value Your Hand for a Penalty Double

The following may be considered winners in defense of an opponent's contract, if the opponent's bid is a suit:

1. Honor tricks at their defensive values. But honors in a suit bid by the left hand opponent should not be counted unless you hold the Ace or K-Q.
2. The minimum honor tricks shown by your partner's bidding. Now remember if your partner has not bid, you've no right to expect any defensive trick from him.
3. Trump tricks in their bid suit. If the Adverse Bid Is No Trump

1. Honor tricks of your hand plus the announced honor tricks of your partner.
2. Also playing tricks in long suits. Decide upon the suit you are going to open and estimate the combined length in your's and partner's hand. Deduct possible stoppers in declarer's hand and the balance is the number of long cards you can establish. IF YOU HAVE SUFFICIENT RE-ENTRIES into your hand, counting the opening lead as one entry.

ish settlement; the phlegmatic attitude of the British police when the station received the call for help; and the defense of the settlers. There will be a reproduction of the Palestinian service of Yisroel for the trees.

The whole production with its outdoor effects and the scenic construction promises to be one of the most striking spectacles the Boston Zionists have been privileged to see.

Rubber Money Bounces Amazed Maker into Jail

New York—Amazed and indignant that anyone should attempt to pass his rubber money as the real stuff, Benjamin Wasserman, a great last, Saturday and charged with counterfeiting, vented his feelings in no uncertain words.

Mr. Wasserman, a manufacturer of novelties, said that while his rubber bills of $5, $10, $20, $50, $100, $500 and $1000 denominations were of the dimensions and color of real bills, he could see no possibility that anybody of ordinary mentality would accept them as money.

The word "dollars," he pointed out, did not appear on any bill. Instead, they were inscribed "dollars." Instead of "The United States of America," Mr. Wasserman's money bears the legend "The Unique Skates of America." Instead of having an engraving of one of the presidents on it, the Wasserman bills have an engraving of Uncle Sam. The $1000 bill, to be sure, has an engraving of President Grant on it, but the picture is entitled, "E. Z. Moremoney" and Mr. Wasserman thinks that is pretty explicit.

Instead of bearing the signatures of the Secretary of the Treasurer and the Treasurer of the United States, the Wasserman bills have, in script, "E. Z. Moremoney, Secondary" and "Prezel Bender."

Mr. Wasserman observed that even a blind man could tell that his novelty money wasn't real, because it was made of rubber, similar to that used in the manufacture of bathing caps. interview with the important Nazi leader, went into a huddle. Presently one of them wrote something on a sheet of paper and handed it to me with the following advice: "We are sorry that you did not get to see Mr. Streicher. But he was called to Berlin on important business. I found out later that he went to a dinner party." But if you will go to this address you will secure the information which you want. It is only a short distance from this office—a few blocks. You will notice the sign "Fencing School," over the door of the office, and, if you will go in, your questions will be answered."

I followed the advice of Streicher's editorial assistants and sought out the "Fencing School." I found that office in an old building, on the third floor and in a remote part of the building. When I walked in, a gentleman said rather gruffly to me, "How did you get in here?" When I showed him the piece of paper on which the editor had written the address, he smiled and invited me into an inner office.

EXPOSES FASCISM AT OUR GATES

America whose members wear Nazi uniforms and hold secret military drill and who, when the occasion has arisen, have "protected" anti-Semitic meetings and heckled and attempted to break up meetings of anti-Nazi groups.

Purposes of Groups

Among the purposes and aims of these groups are the following:

- To persuade and to force Germans and German-American merchants to boycott Jewish merchants.
- To represent and defend Nazi Germany and to spread Nazi propaganda into every section of America.
- To combat the boycott of German goods, which, they say, is "designed to inflict hardship and misfortune upon American citizens of every extraction except Jews."
- To create the proper racial pride and combativeness among all persons of Aryan and Nordic extraction.

Streicher Most Effective

According to my judgment, the most effective and the most far-reaching and vicious Nazi and anti-Semitic propaganda is being carried on in America under the personal direction of the notorious Julius Streicher, the world's foremost anti-Semite. I have personal knowledge of his American connections.

When I was in Nuremberg, Germany, recently, I sought an interview with Streicher. For two days I went back and forth between his office in the Nuremberg Brown House and the editorial offices of Streicher's newspapers. His secretary and his editorial assistants informed me that when Mr. Streicher was ready to see me I would be notified. Not, of course, by telephone, because no one in Nuremberg, where Streicher is governor, is allowed to communicate with Streicher by phone.

"Not permitted to confer by telephone with only the governor of a German state?" I asked in astonishment. "That is right," they said. "We are not permitted even to telephone Mr. Streicher's secretary. You see, he is very busy and he must be protected in the important work he is doing."

Meeting Evaded

When I discovered that Streicher had evaded me and gone to Berlin, I stormed into his newspaper offices and said in a rather indignant manner: "Well, I have come all the way from America to find out the truth about Germany. I have read in the American papers that Mr. Streicher is a sex pervert; that he carries a black snake whip which he uses on his opponents; that he has made himself rich by his low-baiting enterprises; that he has been convicted in the German courts of theft, bribery and embezzlement and of slander and libel."

"I shall have to go back to America believing that these things are true. Surely, Mr. Streicher, who could tell me the whys and wherefores of anti-Semitism, should have seen me and set me right, if I am wrong. I shall have to believe that Mr. Streicher is a sadist and that his special gift is the spread of pornography and the hatred of Jews throughout Germany. It must be that Mr. Streicher is afraid; that he has something to hide from American eyes. Am I right?"

After this outbreak of "righteous indignation" the editorial assistants through whom I had been seeking an

A Religious Zioncheck

Schizophrenic as the late Marion Zioncheck in the last few months of his life, when from a brilliant young legislator he was suddenly transformed into a caper-cutting mountebank, is radio's Father Coughlin as revealed at the Convention of his National Union for Social Justice.

At the opening of the convention he eloquently deplored the lack of brotherliness in the Christian treatment of Jews through the centuries.

At the closing session he launched upon a bitter attack upon the Jewish ethics and challenged American Jews to declare their stand on the principle of "love thy neighbor".

But because Christians have long believed that they have a monopoly on the principle of neighborly love it might not be amiss to point out that this very principle, as cited by Jesus in the Gospel, is a quotation from the Book of Leviticus, which contains the many laws of conduct which God promulgated for the people of Israel.

Further, just as Jesus goes on to instruct his followers to love their enemies, Leviticus contains the injunction to love the stranger "as thyself".

So that it is totally unnecessary for Jews to make any formal statement on the subject of neighborly love; believing Jews, like believing Christians, observe this principle as one of the tenets of their faith.

According to Father Coughlin, all the evils of the modern world are to be traced back to what he calls the Jewish "system of a tooth for a tooth and an eye for an eye".

Curiously enough, though he is a modern man, the Reverend Father seems to interpret these phrases literally.

He will then see that even as originally formulated, ten centuries before the time of Jesus, the "system of a tooth for a tooth and an eye for an eye" was merely a way of expressing, in words comprehensible to a primitive people, the principle that the punishment must fit the crime.

A Strong Hand Needed

When Jewish babies are murdered in their beds, when British soldiers are murdered while in bathing and Arab leaders opposed to the Grand Mufti's policies are shot down, even the most short-sighted government must see that the time for drastic measures has come.

The Palestine administration has been confining itself to defensive measures against a terrorist movement which interprets such restraint as cowardice.

Those who have had experience in dealing with Near Eastern peoples are agreed that when matters have reached such a pass as they now have reached in Palestine only a strong hand can command respect.

Violence and sabotage are on the increase in Eretz Israel, and the indications are that they will continue until the British administration takes determined measures which will convince the Arabs that England means business.

In view of all this it does seem that the time has come for Great Britain to doff her velvet gloves and get to work at the unpleasant but necessary task of enforcing order where terrorism is holding sway.

Nazi Spy Arrested On Return from Congress

Berne, Switzerland (WNS)—Herr M. Eiseneger, Nazi leader in Switzerland, was arrested by the Swiss police as he crossed the border from Germany. He was charged with carrying documents instructing him to act as a Nazi spy at the World Jewish Congress in Geneva. Papers found in his possession revealed that he was to receive a large sum of money from the German propaganda ministry. Eiseneger was on his way back from an audience with Hitler.

Charge Rumanian Bishop With Spreading Propaganda

New York (WNS)—The Rev. Policarp Morusca, Bishop of the Rumanian Orthodox Church of America, is using The Herald, weekly organ of the Rumanian Orthodox Episcopate of America, to spread anti-Semitic and Nazi propaganda among the Rumanians in this country. It is charged in an open letter addressed to him by Leo Wolfson, president of the United Rumanian Jews of America.

The letter points out that when the Reverend Morusca first came to this country he told the Rumanian Jews here that he had been requested by King Carol to cultivate friendly relations with them.

In violation of these instructions, the letter states, Episcop Morusca accuses Rumanian Jews here of trying to foment trouble between Rumanian Jews and Rumanian Christians in America and of attempting to convert the latter to Communism.

At the Pier

Came Sunday, and though the skies threatened, we wheeled out our bikes and started pedaling for the Pier. In spite of the rain catching us once or twice on the way down, we arrived a few hundred thousand others and safely and settled on the beach. Jack Greenstein and sister Evelyn were there, the Arthur Peiners, fighting their way out of the rough surf. John Silverman strolling the length of the beach, apparently in deep thought. Joe Levy and his lovely wife, Sylvia. Sam Kennison greeting his friends. Joe Fogel. The Saul Abrams—the missus attractive in her white bathing suit.

With the Vacationists

This has been an exceptionally large year for the vacation resorts. From every part of the New England and New York states came news that all camps, both adult and children, have been running filled to capacity for the past ten weeks. A note from Camp Copake infos that Gertrude Meath, Jean Shepard and Evelyn Hornstein were there. Rosalind Mushlin, formerly of Providence, was glad to say hello. Mrs. Joseph Smith and family are vacationing at their paternal homestead at Nantasket. Mr. and Mrs. Ike Rose visited their son, Sam, at Camp Cobut last week-end. Connie Straus week-ended in New Hampshire.

Transatlantic

There's a fellow (we won't mention his name now) who ran a politico-satiric cabaret in Berlin and who, when Hitler became chancellor, hailed the Nazi revolution as the greatest event of our time—this did not prevent him from being kicked out as a non-Aryan—is coming to this country to establish a similar entertainment venture.

Big Fish

Harry Leach, came back from a fishing trip sporting a five and a half pound striped bass. Freda Lisker is back at her old job as social worker. Harry Goldman is an ardent wrestling fan—never misses a match. The Berman brothers, Ralph and Sam, boast the coolest basement in town at 251 Weybosset street where they maintain their National Supply Company. Norman and Sam Cohen are all smiles—and who wouldn't be! Their organization lead the eastern half of the U. S. in sales on Crosley refrigeration. Poor Archie Smith—his sister and mother have been the recipients of sympathy because of his waywardness in handling his burden of the Tercentenary Committee duties. Apparently all of the Smiths' telephone acquaintances are under the impressions that Archie was the Smith involved. The Howell Street synagogue has engaged a cantor from Chicago for the high holidays, and he is supposed to be the top. The Providence Jewish Council, in conjunction with the Kvaat (forth) will bring in the third week of November, Congressman McCormick, to open the exhibit of Nazi propaganda. The exhibit will last a week.

Personalia

In Chicago, a Jewish-owned bus line has swastikas decorated in the buttons. Rachmiel Fattich, nineteen year old heavyweight from Palestine, is coming to this country soon in the hope of having something to say about the future heavyweight championship. The ace stylist in clothes for American women is Nettie Rosenstein in New York. When pesky Andrew Jackson was in the White House, he refused to give Thanksgiving Day his presidential sanction and blessings, and he said he would "have nothing to do with that damn Yankee holiday". While waiting for her permanent ones to come along, Shirley Temple has a set of false teeth which you will notice in her next picture.

At the Theatre

I counted seven Cohens in a short while at the Albee theatre the other night watching "Three Men on a Horse". With the coming of Zoe Adams Pulitzer prize winning "The Old Maid," the final week of New York productions will be seen in Providence for this season. The reception given these past three weeks is an indication of how starved the Providence people are for anything resembling big theatre shows. Perhaps the best of the four plays will open on Monday. It will be worth your while to see it.

Boycott Note

So far, nothing more has been done or said in regard to the German-made dish incident at the Biltmore Hotel. What a wonderful opportunity for anyone of our local hotels and department stores to publicly announce that they carry no German merchandise. According to one of our daily papers Avery Brundage at one time "threw the hammer"—one commentator accused him of going into practice again when he barred Mrs. Jarrett, and then Jesse Owens. How many of you know that these tours and exhibitions of the A. A. U. were merely to make up the deficit that could not be gathered in the United States, for the Olympiad as they have been in previous years. A note from the Gordons relates that their new service station at Friendship and Dudley streets will be open in a very few days, and, oh, yes—Sam Berman took his vacation last Tuesday. He went to the race track and came back with a brand new white suit, and there's where we'll meet you tomorrow.

TWO FACE TRIAL FOR LIBELING JEWS

Fascists Held for Printing Seditious Libel

London (WNS)—The first attempt to combat anti-Semitic propaganda in Great Britain by means of legal action was taken here when the publisher and printer of The Fascist, organ of the Imperial Fascist League, were arrested here and charged with "unlawfully printing and publishing seditious libel concerning the Jewish people."

The magistrate's court at Bow Street police station committed the two for trial at the Old Bailey. The defendants are Arnold Leese, head of the Imperial Fascist League, and Walter Whitehead, printer of The Fascist.

The charges against them are based on the publication of articles accusing the Jews of ritual murder against Christians, and in other ways libeling the Jews so as to arouse ill will between religious groups and "to create public mischief."

Leese and Whitehead pleaded not guilty and were released on bail. Leese's defense was that his charges against the Jews were not new, having been made in the Old Testament. Whitehead testified that he was solely a printer, and not concerned with the contents of the publication.

The case is creating a sensation throughout Great Britain. It is expected to lead to a trial which will expose the ramifications of anti-Semitic propaganda in England.

Organize National Central Zionist Shekel Committee

New York (WNS)—A national central Zionist shekel committee to enroll hundreds of thousands of American Jews in support of the Jewish Homeland idea was launched here at a conference of representatives of all Zionist parties. Speakers pointed out that shekel buyers will demonstrate their support of the Jewish Homeland in the present hour of crisis. Samuel Markovitch was named chairman and Isaac Hambo secretary.

TRAGEDY IS CLIMAX OF DAYS VIOLENCE

Total Jewish Dead Now Raised to 59

Jerusalem (WNS—Palcor Agency)—Palestine Jewry was profoundly stirred when a bomb explosion in Safed killed a Jewish father with his two children, raising the total of Jewish victims of Arab attacks, since the disorders began on April 19, to 59.

The tragedy marked the climax of a day of renewed violence which resulted in a total of eighteen casualties, including the death of a Jewish watchman, a British corporal and at least two Arabs.

The fourth Jewish fatality of the day was Tuviah Rabinowitz, 32, who was shot and killed from an ambush at Zofia, near Kfar Saba, where he was a watchman. The British corporal was killed and a private seriously injured when they were caught in a road accident near the Arab town of Nablus.

The events at Safed are described as "the worst outrage since the Edison Cinema murders in Jerusalem several months ago." Under cover of a barrage of bullets, Arabs threw a bomb at the home of Alter Uter, a Jew, who was killed together with his baby daughter and son, the first such youthful fatalities since the disorders began. Another daughter is seriously injured. The mother, too, was wounded.

Official Klolus Caster Suggested for Olympics

By Irv Kupcinet

Our friend, Dan Parker of the New York Daily Mirror, who can write a better broken "Yiddish" than even Delancey Street's newest inhabitant can speak, has been advocating a new Olympic event. And in the light of the recent occurrences in Berlin, we think Mr. Parker has something. We'll let him present his own case:

"Vas machst du, Chaim Yankel, mein gebruttener Litvak," explained Yussel Levy, the trainer, as he flopped at a corner table in Korodnick's Phillips' herring conservatory and surprised Hymie Caplan in the act of rending a Litvak turkey in twain.

"I'm all right, arreddy," replied Yussel, picking up a fine, fat herring and going to work on it with a will. "Vus sugst du? Why ain't you in Goinamy like I read you was going, arreddy, with the Olympic team?"

No Herring Contest
"I should go with an Olympic team? For what, ain't it? Is there such a thing like a herring tearing contest in the Olympic games, which I should go, phui!"

"Don't get excited, pavulleh, just because I'm asking you to you a civilized question," said Yussel, a bit testily, as he retrieved a herring bone from the roof of his mouth. "Ain't it such a thing as an official klolus caster for the Olympic team? How are we going to beat this guy Hitler, if we ain't got no good klolus tossers?"

"I was going to say you don't know from nothing, Yussel, my friend, but now I see there's madness arreddy in your methods. Yussel, you hit the head right on the nail. We'll never win the Olympics without someone to cry out the klolus, arreddy, at Hitler, zul bei ihm ah goolyeh in holdz "Ozul a goiter, he should get, yat, in the throat!"

Question of Ethics
But, Hymie, my fraud," said Yussel, with serious mien as he studied a tidbit of herring poised at the end of his knife. "Do you think it's 100 per cent American when you don't send over the klolus, for some one else, arreddy, to pour on Hitler's head?"

"How do you like that!" exclaimed Hymie, angrily. "I should giving gott all my private klolus when the Olympic team ain't gonna pay my (Continued on Page Four)

ARABS SURPRISE TROOPS IN BATHING

Kill One, Wound Three in Hurried Attack

Jerusalem (WNS—Palcor Agency)—A British soldier was killed and three were wounded when an Arab band surprised a group of ten British soldiers who were bathing in a pool near the Jewish settlement Beth Alpha in the Valley of Jezreel.

The Arabs, who were heavily armed, quickly decamped after shooting several rounds at the soldiers. They stole the machine gun and cartridges which the soldiers had brought with them, as well as their uniforms. The soldier who was killed was Lance Corporal Wood of the York and Lancaster Regiments.

Ten Arab casualties, including two known dead, were reported as a result of clashes in various parts of Palestine between Arab terrorists and British troops.

A fine of $25,000 was imposed on the Arab town of Nablus by District Commissioner Edward Keith-Roach on charges of shooting and bombing government forces in and near Nablus during the current disorders.

The Palestine government has suspended the Arabic daily Al Liwa, organ of the Mufti of Jerusalem. No reason was given for the suspension.

Beery A. C. and Eatons Tie for Lead in Jewish Baseball

By scoring one-sided victories in their respective contests last Sunday, the Eatons and the Beery A. C. maintained their combination hold on first place of the Jewish Inter-Club Baseball League.

In the other games, the Kavodians, still a strong pennant contender, swamped the Providence Fraternal Association, while the Orioles scored a 9-5 decision over the O. H. C. nine in the other game.

The standing today shows the Beery A. C. and the Eatons to be tied for the lead with 10 wins and 2 losses. In third place are the Kavodians with 9 wins and 3 losses.

FATHER COUGHLIN'S "CHALLENGE" HIT

"It is Unjust to Jews" Says Monsignor Ryan

New York (WNS)—Resentment of Catholic, Protestant and Jewish leaders against Father Charles E. Coughlin's "challenge" to the Jews was voiced in statements issued here by Dr. Frank Gavin, professor of Church History at General Theological Seminary, Monsignor John A. Ryan of the Catholic University of America, the Rev. R. A. McGowan, assistant director of the Department of Social Action of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, and Professor Louis Finkelstein, professor of theology at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

Professor Gavin said: "It is rather late in history for Father Coughlin to read the Jews a lesson in 'thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.' The Jews were the first to teach that very principle. The 'eye for an eye' doctrine was thoroughly repudiated by the Jews very early in their history, much sooner, in fact, than by any other people, for every nation, without exception, followed that barbarous doctrine in the slow upward climb toward so-called civilization."

"Father Coughlin's reference to 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth' is bad exegesis, bad history and bad argument," said Monsignor Ryan. "It is unjust to Jews and unfortunate in the political campaign."

Father McGowan, who has cooperated with Jewish and Protestant bodies in joint action for social justice, charged Father Coughlin with forgetting "the remarkable work for economic justice done by the Central Conference of American Rabbis during the past fifteen years."

Professor Finkelstein issued a statement reading, in part: "Certainly Father Coughlin must have found time to read the Book of Leviticus, which is part of the Hebrew Scriptures, and in that event he must know that the commandment 'Love thy neighbor as thyself' is found in Leviticus xix, 18."

"The Old Maid" at Albee

Pulitzer Prize Play Comes to Albee for Week's Run

Proudly flying its coveted Pulitzer Prize banner, "The Old Maid," one of the biggest successes which the stage has brought forth in the past decade, opens a week's engagement on Monday evening, August 24th, at the Albee Theatre, following its run of 38 weeks on Broadway and a tour which extended from coast-to-coast.

Violet Hering and Mabel Tahafero are co-stars in the leading roles, in whose support will be found such members of the original Broadway cast as George Nash, Robert Lowes, Luise Huntington, Alex Courtney, Helen Magna, Jackie Grimes, Charles Wiley, Jr., Frederic Voligt and others.

From Edith Wharton's novel of deprived motherhood, Zoe Akins has fashioned a dramatization that is unique and powerful in its femininity, but a play in which a majority of men seem to extract as much satisfaction as do women.

The story of "The Old Maid" reveals the bitter struggle of Charlotte, an unwed mother who is forced to give up her child to a married cousin to conform with the strict moral standards of a hundred years ago. Motivation for hate and bitterness is created as both women love the same man.

The tragically ruinous Charlotte's chances of marriage. With approaching spinsterhood, she still seeks the domination of her child and the play reaches its climax dramatically years later on the eve of the girl's marriage.

Hittlers Happy Since They Became Hitlons

New York (ENS)—A check-up on New York Jews with the name of Hittler who changed their patronymic to Hilton in the last two years because of the embarrassment they suffered, shows that all of them are much happier.

David and Harry Hilton, nee Hittler, are doing lots better as clothing salesmen under their new name. Morris Hilton, who dropped the Hittler on the request of his fiancée, reports he has no cause for regret.

Benjamin Hilton, a furrier, revealed that he no longer has to suffer gibes and insults which were his daily lot when he was known as Hittler.

Only Max Hittler insists on keeping his name. All of the Hitlons and Hittlers are Galician Jews and come from a section of Austria where Hittler is a common name.

HUBERMANN QUILTS HIS VIENNA POST

Will Devote Time, Talents to Palestine Orchestra

Vienna (WNS)—The resignation of Bronislaw Hubermann, world famous violinist, from the faculty of the Vienna State Academy in order to devote his time and talents to the new Palestine Symphony Orchestra which he is organizing has stirred the musical world here.

A popular figure here for years, news of his resignation was received with genuine regret everywhere except in Nazi circles. The Wiener Neueste Nachrichten said that Hubermann's departure would be no loss because recently "he has exchanged his bow for the pen of the political agitator" and has become "an active propagandist for the aims and interests of international Jewry."

Jews Warn They Will Fight Arab Terrorism

PAPERS DEMAND ADEQUATE SECURITY

Bloodiest Week of Riots Provokes Editorials

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Coming in a condemnation of the Palestine government, which is charged with "negotiating with the leaders of murderers" The Hebrew press has published warnings that unless the government provides for adequate security the Jews, in self-protection will be forced to rely on themselves to crush Arab terrorism.

The editorials were provoked by the Arab attacks on Jews during the past week, one of the bloodiest chapters in terrorism since the disorders started on April 19th. "We are for peace, but if we are constrained to fight, we are prepared," it was declared by Haaretz, Hebrew daily of Tel Aviv.

The Jewish Agency has demanded that the Government take steps to assure the non-recurrence of both outrages such as that at Tel Aviv, or that if such assurance cannot be provided, that passenger train service from Jaffa be stopped.

The ancient town of Tiberias, in which Jews have been threatened for several days, was the scene of armed engagements between Arab snipers and troops assisted by an airplane.

Hollywood, Calif.—Some intimate bits about the lives and doings of the great in Hollywood: Nathan Krems in Seattle writes to this column: "Who is the movie star who likes to sleep in his pajama tops? We don't know, Nathan, but we'll try and find out for you and your readers."

Krems also wants to know if Edward Robinson likes herring. Next time we see him, we'll ask him this vitally important question. However, we are able to report a few observations about Robinson. He is an accomplished linguist, speaking German, Yiddish, Hebrew, Spanish, Italian, French and Roumanian.

He tells us that if he decided to give up dramatic work, he would like to be a guide on a round-the-world tour. And, sha, sha, Eddie likes to play cards and shoot dice. He is extravagant when he sees an object which he would like for his home, or when he views some new mechanical musical

JEWISH OLYMPIANS FAIL TO SHINE

Berlin (WNS)—The end of the Berlin Olympic Games found the five Jewish members of the American team in possession of few laurels. Only Sammy Balter of Los Angeles, member of the basketball team, had anything to show for his trip to Germany, having helped Uncle Sam's quintet to win the Olympic championship.

Norman Armitage of the fencing team was eliminated in the preliminary matches. Sam Stoller and Marty Glickman had the unenviable distinction of being the only members of the American track and field team who never saw action at Berlin. Hyman Goldberg, outfielder on the baseball team, participated in an exhibition game which was booed by the German crowd.

Palestine Mayor Killed

Arab Feud Between Parties Caused Fatal Shooting

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Differences of opinion among Arab political parties arising out of the present disorders in Palestine were said to be responsible for the fatal shooting of Nazir Abdul ed Din, mayor of Hebron, south of Jerusalem.

The Arab chief executive, who was 40 years old, was leader of the local opposition to Haz Amin el Hussein, Mufti of Jerusalem, who has been the leading figure in the Arab general strike during the past three months. Police strengthened their patrols in the vicinity of the town in anticipation of inter-Arab clashes during the funeral.

He emphasized that there is enough anti-Semitism in England now without the Jewish bakers adding to it by alienating the good will of union bakers by forcing them to work on Sunday.
