GUTSTADT BANQUET MONDAY EVENING

Anti-Defamation Leader to Address B'nai B'rith

It is expected that the ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel will be crowded to the doors on Monday night when Richard E. Gutstadt of Chicago, famed throughout the nation for his work as National Director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, will speak under the auspices of the B'nai B'rith lodges of Rhode Island. Mr. Gutstadt will be tendered a dinner at 6:30 o'clock at the hotel and will begin his address at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. Gutstadt is originally from San Francisco. In 1917 and 1918 he was President of District Grand Lodge No. 4, which embraces eight Western states and British Columbia. He was elected Executive Director of that same District in 1923, in which office he served for several years, having been drafted by National Headquarters of the Order at Cincinnati to take charge of the Membership Bureau and Special Activities of B'nai B'rith.

He has been interested in every phase of Jewish and civic life of his community, having served for several years as Secretary of the Pacific Coast branch of the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society, as a member of the Board of Governors of the Federation of Jewish Charities, as a trustee of his Temple, and as a member of the Regional Council of the Zionist Organization. He is a close student of the political problems of Jewish life in their various aspects.

Of the work that the Anti-Defamation League has performed, none is more important than the publicity placed on the work of Edward Edmondson, whose recent activities have been halted by New York courts and a six-point Solomon on one court, and a six-point Solomon on the other side, which is supposed to be the Synagogue symbol of world power. Propaganda of this sort which tends to put the Jewish individual to false light, is prevented wherever possible by the efforts of the Anti-Defamation League.

The increasing anti-Semitism which followed in the wake of the Hitler success in Germany impelled the Executive Committee of B'nai B'rith to enlarge the organization of the Anti-Defamation League and to establish its headquarters in Chicago. Mr. Gutstadt was thereupon transferred from Cincinnati headquarters to take charge of this enlarged program of the League.

Baptists, Quakers, Jews Will Hold Special Exercises at Temple Emanu-El

In keeping with the historic traditions of the Tercentenary, the Service will be led by representatives of the Baptists, Quakers, and Jews who were the first three religious denominations to settle in Providence.

Dr. Arthur W. Cleaves, Minister of the historic First Baptist Church, will speak on the subject "The Coming of the Baptist Christians to Rhode Island." The First Baptist Church is the oldest religious organization in the state.

ANTI-SEMITE GETS FIVE DAYS IN JAIL

Los Angeles (WNS)—A fine of $15 or five days in the county jail was the sentence meted out to Henry Allen of Pasadena following his recent conviction on a charge of distributing violently anti-Semitic and anti-Roosevelt literature on the downtown streets of Los Angeles.

Municipal Court Judge Leo Aggeler denied Allen's application for probation because he had failed to report to the probation office and give satisfactory information on which a probation investigation could be conducted. David Braverman and Ben Shapiro, local business men on whose complaint Allen was arrested, reported to the police that they had received threatening letters for testifying.

NORMA SHEARER ILL

Stricken with pneumonia Miss Shearer is now said to be in a serious condition. Her husband died of pneumonia on September 14th.

First American Steamer Docks at Tel Aviv Port

Tel Aviv (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The first American ship to dock at the new Tel Aviv port, the Excalibur of the American Export Line, discharged a large cargo of goods for Tel Aviv merchants after unloading a small shipment at the neighboring port of Jaffa. With this mail steamer the first American ship to use the Tel Aviv port, it is expected that the local dock will now become a regular stopping place for American Export Line boats, indicating the growing importance of this new Mediterranean harbor.

The creation of a new Jewish industry in Palestine was reported here with the discovery of a new use for the recently erected jetty of the Tel Aviv port. Fishing in the Mediterranean has been taken up on a substantial scale, so that Jews are introducing their own fish in the local market. Hitherto the source of supply were the Arab fishermen.

GLASGOW SNUBS TEAM

British football officials attending the game who are sympathetic to Nazi ideals boycotted the reception.

Report Strike Will Continue On New Paths

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—An indication that the 6-month Arab general strike which ended on October 12th may be continued in new paths was seen in the report that the Jerusalem strike committee has decided to declare an economic boycott against the Jews. In order to make the boycott effective, the report has it, the strike committee will be transformed into a boycott committee to direct the Arab campaign against dealing with the Jewish population.

The committee has also determined to organize youth groups which will fight to make the boycott effective by terrorist methods, it is learned, while the Arab press throughout the country continues openly to advocate an anti-Jewish boycott by all Arabs in Palestine.

Fawzi Bey el Kawagi, self-styled "commander-in-chief" of the Arab rebel forces in Palestine, has issued a manifesto to his supporters in the hills instructing them not to disperse or lay down their arms, but to be ready to resume activities when necessary. Kawagi calls upon the Arab bands to terminate terrorist activities for the time being, but to do nothing toward liquidating.

Reports from various parts of the country revealed that most of the Arab gangs which have roamed the country are still in existence and are ranging the hills. None of the Arab authorities has as yet undertaken to disperse them.

New Homes Being Built for Jewish Refugees

Tel Aviv (WNS-Palcor Agency)—All camps in Tel Aviv which have for the past six months housed Jewish refugees from Arab violence in Jaffa will be evacuated on November 9th and the inhabitants will move into new homes being built for them, it is announced here. In a project costing $150,000 the Jewish National Fund, with government co-operation, is constructing 300 houses for the refugees near Tel Aviv and neighboring settlements. The land on which the dwellings are being constructed is owned by the National Fund, and the money has been raised in the current Palestine Consolidation Campaign.

Gay Hallowe'en Setting For Synagogue Carnival

Decked in gala Hallowe'en and harvest decorations, the vestry of the Ahavath Shalom Synagogue, Pawtucket, stands ready to open its doors for the second annual carnival of the Sisterhood. This carnival is to be held on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday evenings. Shaded lanterns, bizarrely draped booths, weird combinations of color—all lend a distinctively oriental atmosphere, and the many friends who will visit this colorful event at the Pawtucket Synagogue, will find a curious and interesting variety of attractions. A constant flow of activity and universal jollity is assured.

The committee has worked hard, and now, after many arduous weeks, preparations are practically complete. Early sales of tickets have far exceeded expectations, and a keen struggle is now going on between committee members for the ticket-selling Championship. Prizes are to be given the man and woman winning the contest.

Flying down the stretch practically neck and neck, are Charles Tessler, John Marks, and Samuel Cokin, who are fighting it out for the beautiful watch that has been donated by Jack Cyril, of Colitz Jewelry Shop, Pawtucket. Leaders among the women are Mrs. Joseph August, and Mrs. Jacob Schinagel. The prize is a Bridge Set donated by the American Furniture Co., also of Pawtucket.

The public is very cordially invited to attend this unique carnival. Each night lucky guests will receive free prizes, and finally, on Tuesday evening, drawings will be made for the grand awards. A good time is assured to all who attend.

The committee for the carnival includes: Mrs. Martin Curran, chairman; Mrs. Israel Lubet, co-chairman; Alfred Goldenberg, co-chairman; Benjamin Frucht, secretary; Mrs. Samuel Brown, treasurer; Samuel Zarchen, ticket chairman; Jack Korenbaum, publicity chairman; and Hyman Cokin, co-publicity.

Louis Zarchen, Harry Frucht, Maurice Friedman, Samuel Cokin, Abraham Fishman, Charles Tessler, Jack Goodman, Jack Schaffer, John Marks, Harry Goldberg and Morris Cooper.

Benjamin Shwadran, principal of the Ahavath Shalom Hebrew School, announces that the school has engaged a bus for the transportation of students who live outside of walking distance of the school. The bus will take the students to school and return them after school hours.

Because of this innovation, registration of the school will be open for two more weeks, after which no new students will be registered. All parents of children living far from the school location may now take advantage of registering their children in the newly organized school with a full staff of well trained and experienced teachers. Office hours for registration are Monday-Thursday from 4 to 8 o'clock; Sunday, from 9 to 10 o'clock. No students will be registered after November 2.

DENIES GOVT. MADE IMMIGRATION OFFER

Story of 8000 Certificates Called an Absurdity

Jerusalem (WNS-Palco Agency)—Moshe Shertok, head of the political department of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, categorically denied the report that the Palestine government had offered 8,000 immigration certificates for Jews on the condition that they be utilized by November. Mr. Shertok denied that the Jewish Agency had refused such an offer.

"The whole story," he said, "is pure fabrication from beginning to end. The alleged condition that the certificates for Jewish immigrants must be used by November is patently absurd. It is disgraceful that a matter of such importance and seriousness as the grant of a schedule for Jewish immigration should become the object of irresponsible sensation-mongering. The Jewish Agency Executive is entitled to expect all responsible newspapers to wait till facts regarding the immigration schedule are available and to beware of misleading the public by reproducing unauthorized reports based on idle speculation which, whether the result of ignorance or malicious intent, are most dangerous to the vital Jewish interests involved."

Anti-Semites Cause Riot in Montreal Streets

SMASH WINDOWS IN JEWISH DISTRICT

Riots Sequel to Weeks of Inciting Oratory

Montreal (WNS)—Inflamed by a barrage of anti-Semitic oratory from six speakers in St. James Market Hall, 500 young French-Canadian students, members of the newly organized Fascist Christian National Party, staged a minor riot in the Jewish district of Montreal, shouting "Down with the Jews," the Fascists smashed windows and destroyed merchandise in shops owned by Jews.

They roamed through Bleury Street bent on mischief until police dispersed them. Speakers at the meeting, who included Adrien Arcand, leading anti-Semite and head of the Christian National Party, accused the Jews of being to blame for all ills of the French Canadians. Alderman Joseph Schubert, Jewish member of the city council, has lodged a protest with the municipal authorities.

The riot was the sequel to several weeks of anti-Jewish incitement. The Jewish population here is reported to be extremely nervous. The appointment of Arcand, a former editor of the notorious "Le Gogli" anti-Jewish publications, as editor of "L'Illustration Nouvelle," organ of the Union Nationale, which controls the government of the Province of Quebec, is also disturbing the Jews, as is the Fascist orientation of French-Canadian members of various trade Unions in which there are large numbers of Jews.

AMERICAN HOSPITAL IN PALESTINE BEGUN

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The largest and most modern hospital in the Near East, financed by Hadassah, Zionist women's organization of America, as part of the medical faculty of the Hebrew University, started on its way to realization when contractors began erecting the $750,000 structure.

Called the Hadassah-University Hospital, the building will occupy 500 workmen for two years as its modern laboratories and rooms rise on the eminence of Mt. Scopus. The building contract was awarded to the contracting bureau of the General Jewish Federation of Labor.

The launching of building operations coincided with the holding at Philadelphia of the 22nd annual convention of Hadassah, which is helping to build the hospital as part of the extensive network of medical and hygienic projects which it has sponsored in the Holy Land since the war.

Comparative Figures

The sum of nearly a million dollars expended by the Joint Distribution Committee in aid of German Jewish refugees from 1933 through 1935 seems rather staggering at first glance.

But the appearance of this sum shrinks considerably when we place it beside the total number of Jews—nearly a hundred thousand—who emigrated from Germany in these three years. Not all of the hundred thousand needed financial assistance, of course, but those who did were numerous enough.

Relief for refugees in countries where they cannot be easily absorbed into the national economic life, vocational training for refugees eager to leave the domain of Luftmensch for productive fields, and transfer of German Jews from their first lands of refuge to lands of permanent immigration—these are the three great tasks which the J. D. C. has set itself.

Of the hundred thousand refugees a third have found homes in Palestine; of the additional hundred thousand expected to leave Germany within the next five years fully half, it is estimated, will go to the Jewish Homeland.

These immigrants represent a great gain for Palestine, which, according to a serious student of the question—Dr. Michael Traub, director of the German Keren Hayesod—is unique among the possible lands of immigration "in that there it is possible to place Jewish capital in the service of the Jewish labor immigrant."

Welcome

This week American Jewry welcomes back two gentlemen on whom it has a definite claim, though it shares them with Palestine.

One is Maurice Samuel, the noted author and lecturer who has for years divided his time between this country and Eretz Israel; the other, Gershon Agronsky, the Philadelphian who has lived in Jerusalem for twelve years, and there founded the only English daily of the Holy Land, The Palestine Post, of which he is the editor.

Maurice Samuel, whose books include a number of illuminating volumes on modern Palestine, knows at first hand just how distressing the last six months have been in that land and what progress the Yishub has none the less made during this period.

Many groups in this country who are interested in Palestine must be bewildered by the recent events in the Homeland. It is to be hoped that these groups will have the opportunity to hear Mr. Samuel's report on the last half year in Palestine, presented in his graphic and fascinating manner. We are sure that this report will clear up many points which have been puzzling American Jewry.

More Jews in Palestine Only Solution to Problem

Editor's Mail Box

Dear Editor:
I read with considerable interest the letter of Dr. Ilie Berger in the last issue of the Jewish Herald, which criticized the appointment of Samuel Kagan "to enlist Jewish voters in behalf of the Democratic Party." In replying to Dr. Berger, permit me to preface my remarks with the statement that I have no doubt whatsoever but that Dr. Berger's letter expressed his sincere thoughts upon the matter, and that he is speaking from a non-partisan point of view. The same cannot, however, be said of some others who have criticized Mr. Kagan's actions purely from political motives. Dr. Berger's sincerity, on the other hand, is displayed by the fact that two years ago he criticized the Republicans for their efforts to form a JEWISH REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION.

Although I respect Dr. Berger's absolute sincerity in this matter, I find myself unable to agree with his point of view, and I feel that through your newspaper, which printed his letter, I should take this opportunity to outline my reasons for disagreeing with him.

In the first place, no attempt is being made to organize a Jewish Democratic organization. What is being attempted, is to enlist in the cause of Roosevelt, as many Jewish persons as possible, to work for the re-election of Roosevelt, and the furtherance of his policies. The question of Roosevelt's opponent is one which transcends all party lines.

Similar Arguments

Why shouldn't Jewish people, as such, work in a harmonious unit for Roosevelt? The arguments of Dr. Berger sound strangely similar to the arguments which Zionists in this country had to meet from the Jewish opponents of Zionism, who, as the Doctor knows, were profane in their opposition to that great movement.

Haven't the Jewish people already learned a lesson from the happenings in Germany? (At this point may I make it clear to all who may read this letter, that I am in no way comparing the Republican candidate for President with the despotic ruler of Germany, nor do I contend that said candidate is unfriendly to the Jewish people; I am merely using Germany and the events which transpired there, as an example of the weakness of Dr. Berger's argument.) The German Jew, prior to the advent of Hitler, felt that they were as safe in Germany as are Jewish people here in the United States. During Hitler's campaign, the Jewish people of Germany NEGLECTED TO ORGANIZE IN OPPOSITION TO HITLER. WHY? Because certain Jewish leaders in Germany, some of them with the same sincerity as displayed by Dr. Berger, and others with but the least semblance of sincerity, the latter being mere stooges for Hitler, preached and shouted against any SOLIDIFIED OPPOSITION TO HITLER.

German Jews Did Nothing

They argued that if the German Jew opposed Hitler, their lot would be an unhappy one should Hitler be victorious, and that he might wreak his vengeance upon them. As a result, the Jews of Germany did nothing to prevent the ELECTION OF THEIR GREATEST ENEMY; they did not vote at all, they stayed at home on election day, AND WHAT HAPPENED? Statistics show beyond any vestige of doubt, that Hitler was first elected and came into power by virtue of a MINORITY VOTE.

It is further shown by such statistics, that had the German Jewry voted, as they should have, AGAINST HITLER, instead of staying at home, HITLER WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN ELECTED.

The Jewish vote could have defeated him, but the unorganized Jewish vote stayed at home, and Hitler walked in. The occurrences since that time are too gruesome to recount, and are known to all. And the blame should be placed upon the shoulders of those who kept the German Jews from voting in mass against their greatest enemy.

Should Organize

Just as the failure of the German Jews to organize has a sad application to their enemy, so also do I believe it would be an error for any group of American Jews to fail to organize for the advancement of one whom they feel has been a friend to them as American Jewry.

Let us not make the same mistake as that made by our now unfortunate brothers in Germany. Let us get behind those whom we feel are our friends as Jews as well as Americans. I trust that the Jewish people who are for Mr. Landon will organize a club in his behalf, and I trust that those JEWISH PEOPLE who are HEART AND SOUL FOR FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT will cooperate with the local JEWISH ROOSEVELT LEAGUE.

SIDNEY I. RABINOWITZ

"More Jews in Palestine is the only solution for the Jewish problem," said Mrs. Archibald Silverman, as she recounted her experiences in Palestine before an enthusiastic group of Zionist members, attending a banquet for Mrs. Silverman and Dr. Berger last Saturday night at Zinn's Restaurant.

"Less than ten per cent of the Arab population are against the Jews in Palestine, but this minority, through the aggressive use of arms, has frightened the remainder of the Arab population into passive action.

"The most wonderful thing of all in the present critical situation is the attitude of the young Jew. It has been a task to keep them from making reprisals for Arab attacks. But they realized the necessity of allowing the British to settle difficulties in Palestine."

Dr. Ilie Berger, who also recently returned from Palestine, made a record of his impressions by use of a travelogue, in which he covered the itinerary of his entire trip.

SCHLOSSBERG HITS KAGAN STATEMENTS

This is in reply to the political advertisement written and signed by Councilman Samuel C. Kagan.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Kagan did not take the time in checking up on the real facts and examine the true position of the Jewish official who held responsible positions in this city and State under the Republican administration. I am surprised that he allowed himself to be dragged into a position of making statements of an exaggerated nature, incorrect facts and imprecisions of misrepresentations.

Mr. Kagan says, "The Jewish People have today not only a greater number of representatives holding state office than ever before, but also we find them in more responsible positions, positions of trust, than ever in the history of Rhode Island."

I am very sorry for Mr. Kagan's grossly erroneous remarks. It would only have taken him a few minutes to check up and find that we have had, under the Republican administration of this state, a greater number of honorees bestowed on citizens of Jewish faith, a greater number of responsible positions, and positions of trust, than under the Democratic administration. I will enumerate to prove my statements.

We have had the highest honor in the judicial branch of this state bestowed on a distinguished citizen, Judge J. Jerome Hahn, a former member of the Supreme Court of the State of Rhode Island. A speaker of the House of Representatives, Philip C. Joslin, who is now holding the distinguished office of Judge in the Superior Court.

We have also had a Judge of the District Court of Newport, Hon. Max Levey, a clerk of the District Court, Samson Nathanson, a recording clerk of the House of Representatives, David C. Adelman, assistant City Solicitor, Walter Adler, supervisor in the Board of Agriculture, Harry Morozovitz, three deputy sheriffs for the county of Providence and a great number of clerks in the State Board of Public Roads, Board of Agriculture, Board of Health, without the State of Rhode Island. A few of the cities of Providence, many of the clerks in the Health Department, Public Aid Department, and other departments, were put on by the Republican Party and are hold-overs.

Mr. Kagan was not frank enough to admit that it took the Democratic Party to oust a deputy sheriff, Herman Paster, after thirty-three years of faithful service. Mr. Kagan does not like to mention that it took the Democratic party to oust Deputy Sheriff Soloway, without a cause, and who was totally disabled and who served the state faithfully for many years, also, Sheriff Albert Rosenberg who was ousted without cause after serving the state for over twenty years.

As to the federal government, we have had three deputy internal revenue inspectors during the Republican administration. In other words, this is not propaganda or brazen attempts to discredit the issues of this campaign. These are true facts which Mr. Kagan could have learned if he only took the time to check up. All the new officials that have been put on by the Democratic party have been at the great cost of the loss of some very fine Jewish officials who served the City, State and Country with great honor and credit to themselves and to our country.

Very truly yours,
COUNCILMAN J. SCHLOSSBERG

DEMOCRATS SAY ONLY FACTS COUNT

Believe Accomplishments Cannot be Refuted

Going into office in 1935 the Democratic Administration immediately undertook to keep its promises made to the people and to recognize their problems, just as Franklin D. Roosevelt had done in 1933.

Here is a partial record of our accomplishments, which we ask you to review carefully and then ask yourselves if we have kept the faith.

Labor
In 1934 labor conditions in this state were not good. Recognition of the working man and woman had been heartlessly and consistently denied for years. Here is what the Democratic Administration did for the working people in Rhode Island.

1. Enacted a 48-hour work week for women and minors.

2. Enacted a child labor law, preventing the employment of children in mills.

3. Enacted a homework law, whereby all such work is now licensed and regulated.

4. Enacted a minimum wage law for women and minors thereby abolishing the sweatshop and cut-throat competition.

5. Enacted an anti-injunction law, protecting organized labor.

6. Enacted the Pick-Lock Act, protecting weavers.

7. Amended the Workmen's Compensation Act in 30 different ways, bringing greater death and sickness benefits to the working people.

8. Enacted an unemployment insurance act to care for persons unemployed through no fault of their own.

State Finances
From 1930 to 1934 with Republicans in control of the State Treasury deficits resulted every year. To wipe out these deficits they advocated additional taxation and curtailment of state services.

Here is what the Democratic Administration did:

1. Balanced the budget.

2. Reduced taxation.

3. Ended the fiscal year 1935 with $1,660,128.48 in the treasury.

4. Ended the fiscal year 1936 with $2,603,128.48 in the treasury.

5. Issued bonds at much lower interest rates than under Republican regimes.

Under Democratic Administration Rhode Island is one of the most financially sound states in the country. Its credit is unlimited.

State Institutions

Under Republican Administrations our state institutions became worse and worse. Rhode Island became a state noted for what little it did for the unfortunate people within its borders.

Conditions at the state institutions were terrible. Patients were crowded into close, unhealthy rooms. There was no segregation of patients. Employees at these institutions were forced to live in dingy, crowded rooms adjacent to hospital ward rooms.

The Democratic Administration refused to allow such conditions to prevail, and therefore a building program in co-operation with the Federal Government, was instituted to remedy such a chaotic and inhuman condition. This building program is now in the process of completion, and deserves a visit by the citizens of this state.

In commenting on the letter inserted in last week's "Herald," Samuel Kagan today said, "that I have already received more than 50 letters commending my action. In fact, the letter signed by Dr. Hie Berger represents the belief of the individual and not of the Rhode Island Jewish Council. I believe Dr. Berger has taken too much liberty with the name of the organization."

Old Age Assistance
Year after year Republican leaders opposed old age pensions in Rhode Island, saying that there was no money for such purposes. This same excuse was made continually, but little thought was ever given to the under-

Weitman Memorial Voted by Montefiore Ladies'

A memorial for the late Anule Edith Weitman, to be established at Temple Beth-El was voted last week at a meeting of the Montefiore Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent Association.

On Wednesday, December 9, the organization will hold a Chanukah bridge in the vestry of Temple Beth-

El for the benefit of the Shoe and Stocking Fund. Mrs. Jack A. Knasin will act as chairman and she will be assisted by the following women: Madames Samuel Deutch, Louis Fink, Adolph Gorman, Benjamin Levin, Louis Port, G. Zeidman, Jacob Ernstoff, Rose Fleisig, S. Grossman, M. Marks, Louis Shore, Edward Finberg, Samuel Foster, Simon Kessler, Joel Pincus and A. Travers, Mrs. George Silverman is in charge of publicity.

TO HOLD BARN DANCE

A regular meeting of the Theta Sigma Sorority was held Monday evening at the home of Lucille Finberg on Gallatin street. Definite plans were made for a mystery ride and barn dance, to be held on Halloween night. Names of pledges were brought up and discussed.

The next meeting will take place at the home of Florence Glantz, 261 Fifth street, on October 26.

"SURE WE'LL WIN" SAYS G O P LEADER

Brereton Points to Trend of Risk Election for Proof

Peirce H. Brereton, chairman of the Republican State Committee, in a statement issued this week, said he felt sure that the Republicans would score a sweeping victory in Rhode Island at the coming election.

He pointed to the victory of ex-Judge Charles F. Risk, who was elected at the special election last August.

"That election," Mr. Brereton said, "was the biggest political upheaval in Rhode Island's history. It was hailed throughout the Nation as the beginning of the end of the New Deal. We have every reason to believe that we will again be victors on Nov. 3."

States Issue

The State Republicans say that the principal issue in this campaign is between those who believe in constitutional government and those who would ruthlessly rule in defiance of law. They accuse the present State Democratic leaders of hypocrisy and brazenness, total disregard of law, the treatment of public office as an opportunity to secure gains for party followers and not as a public trust. They accuse the Democrats of disregard of the sanctity of the courts, adherence to the doctrine that the end justifies the means, and that neither the Constitution nor common decency shall stand in the way of the procurement of party advantage.

Dual Job Holding

They are laying special stress on dual job holding. They declare that Governor Green and Lieutenant Governor Quinn, in an attempt to build up a political machine, bought votes of the members of the General Assembly by giving them jobs, in order to pass their pet measures. They claim some of the legislators got three or four jobs, for which they drew public pay in addition to getting their salaries as members of the General Assembly. They say the Democrats ousted many veteran State employees without cause; that some who had served the State faithfully for a score of years were discharged without notice, simply to make way for party workers.

The Republicans are recalling the record of the General Assembly on Jan. 1, 1935. By illegally refusing to seat two duly elected Republicans, and substituting two members of their own party, the Democrats, they declare, stole control of the Senate. Acting with extreme swiftness, all within a comparatively few minutes, the Democrats on that day ousted the entire Supreme Court, abolished the Providence Board of Safety, changed High Sheriffs for Providence County, ended the office of Finance Commissioner Frederick S. Peck and provided for reorganization of the entire State administrative system. Five new justices for the Supreme Court were chosen in Grand Committee.

Campaign Free from Hokum

The Republicans, waging a campaign wholly free of hokum, are not arraying nationality against nationality; class against class.

They are not rubbing it in on the Democrats by placing too much emphasis on the Providence city Terrentenary fiasco. They simply remind the people that the Democrats, instead of spending the money on the people, bought whiskey at $10 a bottle and otherwise squandered funds at a Providence hotel.

The Republicans recall the deadlock that marked the final night of the regular session of the 1935 Legislature.

Lillian Zeidel Autumn Bride

Married to Nathan Baram of Woonsocket on Sunday

Miss Lillian Zeidel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Zeidel of 54 Pinehurst avenue, this city, and Nathan Baram, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Baram of 454 Wood avenue, Woonsocket, were married Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Mayfair Inn. The ceremony, which was followed by a wedding dinner, was performed by Rabbi David Werner, assisted by Rev. Oscar Dinkin and Rev. Abraham Epstein. During the ceremony Samuel Berditch of this city sang "O Promise Me".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lieberman, was gowned in white lace with a long lulle veil. Jeannette Baram, sister of the bridegroom, who attended as maid of honor, was dressed in gold paisley with accessories, which was followed by a wedding dinner, was performed by Rabbi David Werner, assisted by Rev. Oscar Dinkin and Rev. Abraham Epstein. During the ceremony Samuel Berditch of this city sang "O Promise Me".

The ushers were Samuel Baram of Woonsocket, brother of the bridegroom, Theodore Rosenblatt, Bernard Zeidel, brother of the bride, Albert Lisker, Irving Feldman, Maurice Baram, cousin of the bridegroom, Samuel Horowitz and Samuel Schiffman, all of Providence.

The bride's gift to her maid of honor was a gold evening bag, and the best man received a desk pen set. The gifts for the ushers were gold initiated leather billfolds. More than 300 guests were present from Pennsylvania, New York, Pawtucket, Woonsocket and this city.

After a honeymoon to be spent in New York and Atlantic City, the couple will reside at 474 Wood avenue, Woonsocket.

Have Faith in Vote

The Republicans have great faith in the vote-getting powers of Charles F. Sisson, their candidate for Governor. Mr. Sisson has had much experience in public office. He was assistant city solicitor of Providence and an assistant attorney general of the State. He was elected Attorney General in 1924, and twice re-elected. He resigned as Attorney General to become Assistant Attorney General of the United States.

The Republicans consider Eugene L. Jalbert, of Woonsocket, nominee for lieutenant governor, a strong factor. They have great faith in Louis V. Jackson, candidate for attorney general, and they place perfect confidence in James O. McMannus of West Warwick, candidate for Secretary of State, and Samuel C. Tourtellot of Scituate, nominee for General Treasurer.

The State Republican program urges the election of Governor Landon and Colonel Rioux. It promises real social security, home rule, liberal State aid to education, adequate aid to veterans of the nation's wars, a fair deal for agriculture and fisheries, respect for sanctity of the courts, the end of the dual office holding evil, a sensible highway program, development of State resources, merit system for appointment to public office and clemency reform.

In conclusion, the platform states: "Given the mandate to govern, the Republican party will fulfill the pledges in this platform. It can and it will give to the State of Rhode Island good government within the constitution and the laws. It will keep faith with the people."

"Win!" declared State Chairman Brereton when asked how he thought the campaign would end. "We'll surely win. There is no doubt about it."

At that time, Republican State Chairman Brereton, an observer of the proceedings, declared: "Final adjournment of the General Assembly after an all-night session, marked by continuous wrangling by Democratic leaders on the Providence city Terrentenary fiasco. They simply remind the people that the Democrats, instead of spending the money on the people, bought whiskey at $10 a bottle and otherwise squandered funds at a Providence hotel."

The recent visit of President Roosevelt to Providence, the Republicans say, was the result of the victory scored by ex-Judge Charles F. Risk in the last special election.

Judge Risk was elected to Congress at a special election in the First Congressional District. In November, only nine months before the district had polled 70,507 votes for the Democratic candidate and only 49,107 for the Republican. In August, last year, the upheaval came, and Judge Risk was given a plurality of 13,262.

Judge Risk is again candidate for Congress. The Republicans are fighting hard for him, and they are fighting hard for United States Senator Jesse H. Metcalf, to whom they refer as the "First Citizen of Rhode Island."
