A Duty to Perform

Commenting on the confusion that exists in our community, a visitor this week related the following:

Along a road in a peaceful American town live twenty typical American families in twenty typically American homes. Let us say that you and your little family live in house number seven, and I with my family, consisting of a wife, three boys and a girl, live in house number one. The other houses are occupied by fine friends with their families.

One night a madman breaks into house number twenty, way down the road—kills the entire family—steals everything in the house and then burns it down.

The next night he does the same thing to house number nineteen—then eighteen—seventeen, etc., etc., until house number ten is reached.

By this time, you in house seven realize that you face danger, so you come to me in house one and plead—come and help me—the two of us together can overcome this maniac—and I say to you, "No!—I'll wait until he gets to my house. You take care of yourself!"

Our visitor then continued, saying "I think there is no one in this city who hates politics and the resulting friction and disturbance of peace of mind, more than I do. But when I see that disaster will come to our Jewish institutions, then my concern for the community and my neighbors causes me to lay aside all objections and to assume communal responsibility. For now I have a duty to perform."

If more of our Jewish citizens would take this attitude, the threat to our institutions would speedily dissolve.

Discrimination In Defense

From New York to California the phrase "discrimination in defense" has become a mockery of the sincerity of a country giving all-out aid to democracy.

Countless charges have been brought—and proved—against manufacturers in their policy toward Negro employment. But an indictment is accumulating that in all too many instances Jews with skill and experience are not being hired in defense industries. For many years Jewish leaders have urged economic retraining and occupational retraining. It would be tragic indeed if in this hour of America's supreme need young men and women who have equipped themselves for constructive labor are to be turned aside.

Is it too much to suggest that the American Jewish Congress, which has been a pioneer in the investigation of discrimination trends, should conduct a survey of such discrimination in defense so that the Government and public opinion may have the facts on which to pass judgment?

It is not carping to talk of this as we celebrate the Declaration of Independence. The President's order establishing an OPM unit to prevent discrimination shows that the highest Executive office in the land considers the matter of primary importance in the most crucial of weeks in contemporary world history. The most important of weeks in American history leaves the issue just as paramount.

Returns from England

NEW YORK, (JPS). — George Backer, publisher of the New York Post, and Jewish communal leader, returned last week from a stay in England. He praised the morale of the British people and said that air raids only served to make them more resolute.

Hear Litvinov Is Back in Favor

GENEVA, (JPS). — Maxim Litvinov, former Foreign Affairs Commissar of Russia who was expelled from power when Stalin began appeasing Hitler, is on the way back to favor, it is believed by diplomatic sources here, when Litvinov first made his international reputation as the chief proponent of "collective security."

Litvinov is the one world statesman, aside from Churchill, who fought appeasement steadily. He wanted the powers to fight Hitler before Czechoslovakia was sacrificed. The possibility is that because of his high repute in England he may be made a good-will ambassador.

14 Year-Old Girl Faces Deportation

NEW YORK, (JPS). — Because she arrived in the United States one day after her visa had expired, 14-year-old Esther Fried may have to return to Lisbon and Germany. She was separated from her parents two-and-a-half years ago, and spent the intervening time in Holland and England. Her parents are now in this country.

Dickstein Criticized for his Defense of Generoso Pope

NEW YORK, (JPS). — Congressman Samuel Dickstein is taken to task for his alleged defense of a pro-Fascist publisher, Generoso Pope of New York, in a telegram sent to the New York Representative in Washington by the Fight for Freedom Committee.

Mr. Dickstein had risen in the House to defend the publisher of various pro-Mussolini Italian newspapers as a splendid American after the Committee had returned a $100 contribution to Mr. Pope, saying that it would need "more evidence" than he had already given of his acceptance of the Committee's democratic principles.

"How does your definition of Pope square with your oft-proclaimed anxiety lest Nazism flourish? Haven't you heard that Italy and Germany are on the

Seek Aid For European Scholars

Appeal Issued By Rabbi David Werner

A delegation of rabbis, consisting of Rabbi Jacob M. Sagalowitz, chief rabbi of Brussels, Belgium, Rabbi David Traub of New London, Conn., and Rabbi Aaron Paperman of Plainfield, N. J. are visiting here this week in the interests of the Emergency Appeal for the Immediate Aid to Theological Students and Teachers within the war area of Europe.

The campaign has the endorsement of the entire Jewish clergy of Rhode Island, and the Jewish ministry of the United States and Canada.

Rabbi David Werner, chairman of the appeal in Rhode Island, this week said: "I want my brethren to know that we have deliberately delayed this urgent appeal so as not to interfere with other necessary campaigns that were conducted during the course of the year. In view of the fact that we left the field open at the best time of the year, it is now the solemn duty of all persons to respond generously to this most humane cause. Every dollar contributed will help some struggling scholar."

Checks may be mailed to George Samdperil, treasurer, 70 Calverly street, Providence, R. I.

Workers Approve Aid to Russia Plan

NEW YORK, (JPS). — Without renouncing their previous charges of Communist infiltration in organized labor ranks, the thousands of Jews belonging to labor unions have chosen to back President Roosevelt's decision to support Soviet Russia against Nazi Germany.

This was disclosed in a symposium conducted by the labor editor of The Day, Yiddish daily, following the German attack on Russia.

CONGRESSMAN DICKSTEIN same team? the militant Committee asked of the Jewish Congressman.

Religious Bias In Congress Scored

To Speak in Boston

DR. CHAIM WEIZMANN

BOSTON. — Dr. Weizmann, world famous Zionist leader, in his only visit to New England, will be guest of honor and principal speaker at the 21st annual Convention banquet of New England Zionists, to be held on Sunday evening, July 13 at the Hotel Bradford.

Sacks Asks Halt in Perfidious Practice

Refers to Attack on Jews by Rep. Rankin

WASHINGTON. — Charging that "the ugly issue of racial and religious bigotry has been injected in recent months into the proceedings of this body" Representative Leon Sacks, (D.) Philadelphia, called upon Congress to "halt this perfidious practice."

Although he did not refer by name to any of his colleagues in the House, Sacks made reference to recent statements attributed in the Congressional Record to Representative Robert P. Lambertson, (R.) Kansas, and Representative John E. Rankin (D.) Mississippi. The latter's attack upon Jews drew dramatic nation-wide attention when Representative Michael Edelstein (D.) New York, dropped dead outside the chamber after replying to Rankin.

Citing specific facts of record and quoting from correspondence Sacks refuted assertions by Lambertson that Jewish-owned radio stations in Philadelphia had refused to sell time for the speech of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh in that city on May 29th, and that, in fact, one of these stations broadcast the Lindbergh-American First meeting free.

Congressman Sacks, calling attention to the Nazi propaganda campaigns preceding its attack upon every country it has invaded, declared:

"I feel that the time is past when vague, unsupported charges and misleading innuendo can be permitted to emanate from this floor unchallenged."

Order New Trial For McWilliams

NEW YORK, (JPS). — Joseph E. McWilliams, one this city's leading Jew-baiters, is to have a new trial, according to a decision handed down by the Court of Special Sessions. McWilliams had served twenty-one days of a seventy-five-day workhouse sentence before being released on bail.

The Court held that extraneous matters had been introduced into his trial, at which he was sentenced by Magistrate Edgar Bromberger. McWilliams is charged with inciting his hearers at stump-speech meetings by the use of "offensive, disorderly, threatening, abusive and insulting language."

Banned from Music Hall

LONDON. — Notices that Jews are not admitted have been posted outside the Antwerp Music Hall. Belgian circles here reported.

The notices were put up after a brawl between Flemish extremists and other spectators. The Nazi authorities blamed "Jewish troublemakers" for the incidents, resulting in general indignation against the Nazis.

Refugee Reports Hamburg Blasted

NEW YORK, (JPS). — A German-Jewish refugee recently arrived in this country has prepared for the New York Times a special report in which damage done to Hamburg by R. A. F. raids is detailed. According to the report the warehouse and shipping sections of the city have been first-rate targets, the more so because they are separate from the residential sections.

Air-raid defense in Hamburg, according to the report, has been so poor that a favorite joke has it that a man about to be executed, on being asked how he wanted the execution performed, said: "I want to be shot by an anti-aircraft battery."

AID 104 STUDENTS

NEW YORK, (JPS). — Either through scholarships or through cash loans 104 refugee students were enabled to attend American universities last year, the International Student Service reports.

Hitler's Russian Campaign Gives Yishuv Breathing Spell

JERUSALEM, (Palcor). — The passing days since the sudden Nazi thrust across the Soviet borders have intensified the wave of relief that swept over the Yishuv when the week-end news broke.

Already reassured of Eretz Israel's immunity from immediate attack by the success of the British and Free French invasion of Syria—an action which is now entering its "all-out" phase as hope of Vichy's capitulation without serious bloodshed diminishes, the people here now feel that there is definitely no chance, in view of his preoccupation with his Russian venture, that Hitler will supply to Genral Henri Ferdinand Dentz's forces the sort of aid they would need to enable them to turn the tide and attempt an invasion of Palestine.

For the first time in many months there is the feeling that the continuity of normalcy to which everyone has publicly subscribed all the time has an actual basis in reality.

No Charge For Lawyer's Overtime

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Irving J. Levy, United States Assistant Solicitor, was allowed 45 minutes in Federal Appellate Court to argue a case concerning overtime pay.

When the attorney had concluded, Judge Rufus E. Foster, presiding in the three-Judge Court, leaned over the bench and murmured to Mr. Levy:

"You've had a little overtime here but we won't charge you for it."

Seek Freedom of 780 Balkan Refugees

HAIFA. — Jewish organizations in Palestine have appealed to the Government for release of 780 Balkan Jewish refugees who have been detained aboard their small vessel by British authorities at Haifa harbor since their arrival in Palestine without immigration certificates.

The refugees, gathered from Rumania, Hungary and Poland, left the Rumanian port of Constantza on February 15 aboard the steamer, Darian II, which was flying the Panama flag, after paying excessive fees for transportation. The ship was seized by British authorities when it neared the Palestine coast.

When gangsters work together, honest people might as well co-operate.

19 Alleged Spies American Citizens

NEW YORK, (JPS). — Of the twenty-four men and women taken into custody here by the FBI on the charge of carrying on espionage on behalf of a foreign power, nineteen are either naturalized or native Americans, two have taken out their first papers and three are still German citizens.

This percentage is a clue to the misapprehension that concentrates on refugee circles as centers of espionage.

Jews Can Laugh

BY NATHAN RICARDO

About a year ago, after one of Germany's swift victories, the writer happened to pass a newspaper stand on one of New York's busiest corners. The owner of the stand was a Jew. A customer of his, a non-Jewish business man, came along, put down his three cents, took his paper and said:

"The next thing that fellow Hitler is going to do is to come over here and take your stand away from you."

"That's fine," answered the dealer. "I'm looking for a partner."

Not only can Jews laugh; they have to laugh. Two peculiarities of Jewish humor were implicit in the newspaper dealer's swift answer: tragedy turned to fun and refuge found in the impossible.

The admixture of fantasy and fact, and the sudden leap into the ridiculous, sometimes make Jewish humor elusive to non-Jews. There is the famous story—surely one of the best Jewish stories extant—about the Russian Jew drafted in the Crimean War. He stood in the trench and did nothing.

"What's the idea?" bawled his sergeant. "You've got a gun! Shoot!"

The Jew raised his gun, pointed it toward the sky, and shot. "Idiot!" shouted the sergeant. "Not up! Shoot there—straight ahead!" "Do you think I'm crazy?" asked the soldier. "There are people over there!"

There is also a tale of a philosopher who once stepped into a shop to buy himself a new hat for Passover. He stood before the merchant and rummaged into one pocket after another.

"What is it?" the merchant

asked. "You've lost something?"

"I took the measurements of my head before I left home and wrote them down on paper," said the thinker; "and now, alas! the paper is lost!"

Though this story follows the general line of absent-minded professor yarns, it has a Jewish twist. It deals with the head, and it intimates that half the time a Jew doesn't know whether his head is on his shoulders or not.

Among the stories with an unnamed locale which have been collected in the volume there are also many that already bear the marks of timelessness. Here is one:

"Rabbi," said the unhappy father, "I've just married off my daughter, but she will have to get a divorce. The young man won't do."

"What's wrong with him?" asked the rabbi.

"He can't play cards."

"What? Would to God not a single Jewish young man could play cards!"

"Yes, Rabbi," said the worried father. "But he plays!"

Illustrated here again is the capacity Jews have to adjust themselves to reality. Of course, a son-in-law who was a genius at cards would somehow seem to possess moral qualities to wipe out the slight immorality card-playing might have. The struggle for existence would provide the coverage.

Jews have a way of getting along with life. It has been the despair of our enemies. And while there are some Jews who today counsel race suicide as the solution of the Jewish problem, it is more probable humor will win the day.

Fifth Casualty List Notes 174 Palestinians as Missing

JERUSALEM, (Palcor). — 174 Palestinian Jews are noted as "missing in action" in the fifth official military casualty list.

The list contains altogether 175 names of Palestinian casualties; thus, all but one were Jewish. They were, in the main, sappers. The four previous casualty lists, all issued since May 23rd, mentioned a total of 32 Palestinian Jews who had died in service.

For the first time since the outbreak of hostilities Acre, ancient citadel town whose population is predominately Arab, was subjected to an air attack on June 25th. The bombs that fell did some property damage, but only one slight civilian casualty occurred.

Enemy aircraft also approached Haifa the same morning, the official communique revealed. But the ground defenses, which went into action immediately, drove them off in short order; and the few bombs which were dropped did little material damage. No casualties were reported.

Reform Rabbi Hear Pleas For More Vigorous Judaism

ATLANTIC CITY, (JPS). — Its sessions made notable by the election to its Presidency of Rabbi James G. Heller of Cincinnati, son of the late Rabbi Max Heller, who also once occupied the same post, the Central Conference of American Rabbis held a five-day session at the Chelsea Hotel here to review the effect of the situation abroad and of the emergency here on the development of Jewish life and religion.

The necessity for the adaptation of religion to current community needs and the tradition-alizing of reform Jewish practices to win congregants were two of the principal themes heard at the Conference, attended by about 180 rabbis from coast to coast.

Refugees Enlist In U. S. Army

CHICAGO. — Officers at Camp Grant, Illinois, declare an amazing number of refugees were swelling the ranks of the army.

Among the refugees to enlist recently were the twin brothers, Maximilian and David Weiss, who arrived in the United States a year ago and obtained employment in a department store. Between 1935 and 1938 they served in the Rumanian army and were mobilized twice. They fled during the Rumanian anti-Jewish excesses.

Japan seems very anxious to prevent the United States from getting into war.

Writer's Union Spurs Guild

NEW YORK, (JPS). — The J. L. Peretz Verein (Jewish Writers' Union) has decided to reject all further negotiations with the American Newspaper Guild. This decision was reached after the Guild strike against The Day had been in progress for nineteen weeks.

The American Newspaper Guild still supports the twelve men who walked out on The Day while the Jewish Writers' Union charges the Guild strike is a Communist-inspired attempt to break up the Yiddish press. The New York NLRB Board has refused to prefer charges against The Day.

Mrs. Bloom was known as one of Washington's best hostesses, and had been her husband's companion on many of his survey trips. She was born in San Francisco, and was a musician and an artist.

NOTES OF AN INNOCENT BYSTANDER:

William L. Shirer's Book, "Berlin Diary," is now out. Shirer was CBS correspondent in Berlin for years. He tells of the German mother of an airman who was notified by the Luftwaffe that her son was dead. A few days later, BBC in London (which weekly broadcasts a list of Nazi prisoners) announced that her boy had been captured. Next day she got eight letters from neighbors telling her they had heard by shortwave that her son was alive in England. . . . It is against the law in Germany to listen to foreign broadcasts. . . . The mother had all eight arrested for "breaking the law" . . . When Shirer wanted to use the story on his broadcast the Nazi censor deleted it on the ground "that Americans would not understand the heroism of the airman's mother!"

NEW YORK HEARTBEAT:

The Story Tellers: Chas. Lindbergh, Sr. is profiled in the SEP by his one-time law partner, Walter Eli Quigley, who calls the piece "Like Father, Like Son" . . . Read the senior Lindbergh's speeches in the book, "Your Country at War," and you'll see how "like" they are. The arguments the father made against invasion in 1917 (sensible then, maybe) show up in the son's soapboxing in 1941. . . . Jack Oakie has a good phrase, in Liberty, for those sentimental memories of hard times, "all that," he says, "reads better than it lived" . . . National is a newcomer, taking its name from its chief subject, national defense. It is common-sense-national. Read it and give your brain a break.

Typewriter Ribbons: Zona Gale: He not only could neatly cock an eyebrow—but could also produce in his victim a feeling that he had aimed and fired it . . . A. Devere: Prejudice, which sees what it pleases, cannot see what is plain . . . Jean Richter: Recollection is the only paradise from which we cannot be turned out . . . Oscar Wilde: Unselfishness is letting other people's lives alone . . . Alvin C. York: By our victory in the last war, we won a lease on liberty, not a deed to it . . . Jay Russell: A good test of man's character comes when he's getting ahead without getting one on the way . . . Mark Twain: Don't part with your illusions. When they are gone you may still exist, but you have ceased to live . . . The Akron Beacon-Journal: Fate does its part, yet most of the things we regret or resent could have been avoided if we had tried.

Drama critics aren't always meanies . . . When George Bernard Shaw was a critic a young actress asked him what he thought of her ability . . . Shaw told her to get married, have two children, learn something about life, then she would be able to act . . . She followed his counsel . . . Five years later she returned to the theater and became a great English actress . . .

Sounds in the Night: At the Famous Door: "If you had my brains you wouldn't have anything to worry about" . . . "Gawan, if I had your brains, I would have anything to worry with!" . . . At the Havana-Madrid: "Don't get him angry, he's liable to hit you with his bank book" . . . At the Glass Hat: "She's very good to her folks. Keeps away from them" . . . At the Riviera: "After the horse is stolen—they close up all the consulates!" . . . At El Morocco: "He's popular with kids—they like the rattle in his head."

Recovers from Attack

NEW YORK. — Col. Josiah C. Wedgewood, who collapsed of a heart attack, while waiting to address a United Jewish Appeal meeting in Newark, N. J., has recovered and will appear as scheduled before the N. E. Zionist Convention next week-end in Boston.

Report 4,641,184 Jews in Country

NEW YORK, (JPS). — There are 4,641,184 Jews in the United States, according to the 1941 edition of "The Yearbook of American Churches," issued by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ.

There are 250 different religious sects in the country, with Roman Catholics listed as having 21,284,445 members, while the various Protestant groups have 36,103,984 church members.

The same Yearbook says that there are 21,194 places of Jewish worship, while there are 199,762 Protestant churches and 18,733 Catholic.

Mobilize Jewish Doctors, Nurses

GENEVA, (JPS). — Jewish physicians and nurses in German-occupied territories have been drafted into service to aid in the Russian campaign. The scarcity of medical workers has long been known. Jewish doctors, however, will not be admitted into the regular medical corps and will have to wear special arm bands.

Croatia also has had to accept Jewish physicians for army service.

Judges Accused In Riom Trials

GENEVA, (JPS). — Maurice Ribet, attorney for Eduard Daladier, former Premier of France, has asked for dismissal of the charges against his client. He accuses the investigating judges of having made prejudicial disclosures regarding the defense prepared by Daladier, Leon Blum, General Gamelin and Guy Lachambre.

The material, which should have been in the secret possession of the investigating judges, was published in a Paris newspaper.

Refugees Hard Hit By German Action

NEW YORK, (JPS). — Refugees planning to leave Europe will be among those hardest hit by the Nazi action in closing American Express Company offices in German-held Europe, the company declared here, pointing out that through its eight offices it had been able to provide funds and to arrange transportation.

STARTS MOVEMENT

NEW YORK. — Dr. Chaim Weizmann has started a movement and it is meeting with some cooperation toward perfecting unity in American Israel.

Fascists to Form 3rd Political Party

To Recruit Members From Lindbergh Group

NEW YORK. — Fascist leaders in the United States are working toward the formation of a third party which will recruit its membership among the followers of the America First Committee, it was reported here by The Hour, usually well-informed anti-Fascist weekly.

"The groundwork for the political apparatus will soon be established by the America First Committee," the Hour said. "Orders are about to be issued to A. F. C. locals throughout the country that all branches are to be reorganized according to Congressional districts."

The anti-Fascist publication stated that the proposed movement will be strongly anti-alien, less obviously anti-labor, and will have such nationalistic slogans as "America for Americans."

The Hour added: "At first it will not be openly anti-Semitic; but Jew-baiting will be unofficially encouraged among members and will be an important part of its program."

Promises Square Deal For Jews

NEW YORK, (JPS). — Admitting that Britain had erred against the Jews in its handling of the Palestine situation, Sir Norman Angell, economist and Nobel Prize winner, assured an audience at the Hotel Pennsylvania here that the past would be forgotten and a new era of fair play inaugurated. The meeting marked the close of the Gewerkschaften campaign for Palestine.

"The spirit of the Bible gives the British courage to carry on their fight against Hitler," said Sir Norman. "I know that you, too, will carry on the struggle with the greatness that has made you immortal in history."

If you fail the first time, there is no reason why you shouldn't fail the second time.

Author Demands Jewish Army

Van Paassen Accuses U. S. Zionist Leaders

NEW YORK, (JPS). — Accusing even American Zionist leaders of "appeasement" in their refusal to carry on a more deliberate fight for a Jewish army in Palestine, Pierre van Paassen, author of "Days of Our Years," claimed that failure to create the Jewish army was a betrayal of the British cause.

Speaking at a Friends of Jewish Palestine rally held here Mr. van Paassen maintained that the creation of a Jewish army was the concern not only of the Jewish people, but of the whole Christian world.

Lieutenant Colonel John Henry Patterson addressed the meeting by telephone from Los Angeles.

Sapiro Disbarred In N. Y. Courts

NEW YORK. — Aaron L. Sapiro, who once sued Henry Ford for $1,000,000 and who had practiced law here and in Chicago and California, this week stood disbarred from practice in the state courts under an Appellate Division ruling which held that "his acquiescence in the attempted bribing of jurors constitutes professional misconduct and demonstrates his unfitness to remain a member of an honorable profession."

The opinion, written by President Justice Francis Martin, was based on charges similar to those which led to Sapiro's recent disbarment from the federal courts.

Bazon - Gilstein

The Ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel on Sunday evening was the setting for an attractive June wedding, when Miss Cecelia Gilstein, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Gilstein of 59 Seventh street, was married to Dr. Arnold Lloyd Bazon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bazon of 142 Emeline street. Dr. Israel M. Goldman of Temple Emanuel solemnized the single-ring ceremony, under a bower of white carnations, gladioli, and shower ribbons, against a background of Cedar trees, cibotium fern and palms. White blossoms were used throughout the Ballroom, and the windows were set with Beauty vases and adorned with woodwardia fern. Dinner and dancing followed the ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a bouffant gown of white tissue taffeta, fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves, and a Duchesse lace yoke and inserts. Bow knots were used on the full skirt. Her extremely long veil of tulle fell from a cluster of bouvardia and she carried a bridal bouquet of white orchids and bouvardia.

Miss Evelyn Reesa Goldenberg of Central Falls was in attendance as maid of honor, wearing a frock of yellow tissue taffeta, fashioned after the bride's gown, and carrying a cascade bouquet of Bella Donna delphinium. Miss Lillian Claire Gilstein was her sister's junior bridesmaid, wearing a gown of turquoise blue taffeta and carrying Spring flowers.

Bridesmaids included the Misses Claire Abrams, Shirlee-Ann Leven, Hope Marshak and Elaine Schreiber. Miss Abrams and Miss Schreiber wore frocks of blue and carried bouquets of Bella Donna delphinium and yellow blossoms, while Miss Leven and Miss Marshak were dressed in pink, and carried souvenir roses, with Bella Donna delphinium. Andrew Leonard Gilstein, brother of the bride, was best man, and ushers were Harold Tregar of Holyoke, Milton Jacobs, Warren Schreiber, Irving Strasmich and Dr. Alex Weinberg.

A gown of pink marquisette, applied with black net was worn by the bride's mother, complemented by an orchid corsage. Mrs. Bazon was attired in apple green chiffon, and also wore orchids.

The bride attended Bryant College. Dr. Bazon attended Brown University and was graduated this month from the Massachusetts School of Optometry.

Upon returning from an extended wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. Bazon will take up summer residence at Barrington Beach.

Look your coolest and calmest self

And with a wide-eyed stare—like a woodland elf

Summer street scene... Temperature running a fever... Still, it might have been Christmas in July... These women looked that cool...

Slim and serene, Mrs. Bob Hochberg dressed in cafe black, casual-ity at its very best... A black, cartwheel hat on her blonde hair, and charming glamour gloves as the novel note... You know, they're elbow length and lacey, with uncovered fingers...

Mrs. Ira Green in a fairy-tale dirndl of raspberry-ice checked gingham, with which she wore a large off-the-face straw hat of the same raspberry hue... Water blue chantung, pleated around and about, worn by Mrs. A. Henry Klein, with a tricky navy toque on her coiffure... Daughter Ruth was dressed in brown and white checked material, and wore a cocoanut straw chapeau... Shirley Riback wore a slim frock of navy, fashioned on long torso lines, and on her dark locks a beguiling Dutch cap, also in navy...

Fluent black silk jersey, with white accent used at the neckline, selected as a perfect foil to the heat by Charlotte Rakatansky...

Helen Ross was a stunning portrait in her suit of navy, with which she wore a landscape green hat and bag... Hat was turned up rakishly on one side... Elhel Kessler caused many heads to turn, as she passed in her soignée outfit of saffron yellow and lush purple... A faille suit of black, or was it navy?, with an unusual white hat and rust veil, was fascinating as worn by Mrs. Abe Blackman...

Rumania Voides Jewish Citizenship

Pogrom Kills 500
On Communist Charge

GENEVA, (JPS). — A "subtle" trick has invalidated the citizenship obtained by Jews in Rumania during the last few years. A new decree states that only those Jews who became citizens during the premiership of Octavian Goga may retain the privilege.

Goga's premiership was marked by sharp anti-Semitism, and the Jews who obtained citizenship during his reign probably don't exist.

A report reaching here states that 500 Jews were murdered in Rumania on the charge of being Communists.

Canada Separates Nazis, Refugees

OTTOWA, (JPS). — Following the example set by England, the Canadian Government has decided to make a distinction between Nazis, whether military or civilian, interned in Canada and refugees who have been brought here from England or other parts of the Empire. An entirely different administration has been set up to concern itself with these refugees, with Lt. Col. R. S. W. Fordham at its head.

To Probe Bias In Armed Forces

WASHINGTON, (JPS). — Motivated by alleged discrimination against negroes in the armed forces of the United States, but stressing all racial discrimination, a special delegation representing six organizations has asked President Roosevelt to apply his order about discrimination in defense industries to the armed forces as well.

Among the members of the delegation, which met with Under-secretaries of the Departments of State, War and Navy, were Mrs. Selma Hirsh, representing the Council for Democracy, and James Loeb of the Union for Democratic Action.

Raynham Prepares For Massasoit Derby

RAYNHAM.—Two more weeks of greyhound racing remain at Raynham Park. And then comes the Massasoit Derby, the greatest greyhound race ever contested in Massachusetts. Beyond question the finest aggregation of greyhounds ever brought to this part of the country are kennelled at Raynham and from among their lot the eight best in the land will contest for a handsome trophy and added money two weeks hence.

Taragin to Attend Rabbinical Conclave

Rabbi Nathan Taragin of the Congregation Sons of Abraham will leave on Monday to attend a three-day conclave of the Rabbinical Council of America, to be held in New York City from July 7 to 9.

The convention, to be held at the Riverside Plaza Hotel, will discuss educational problems facing Judaism, unity in the Orthodox ranks and the world situation regarding European and American Yeshivah. About 250 members of the rabbinate are expected to attend from this country and Canada.

Life is very simple if you have sense enough to go for the simple life.

Scene Around Town

BY HENRY DAVIS

With this year's holiday lengthened by an additional day on Monday there is an unprecedented exodus from Providence to the shore and mountain retreats, our vacation editor reports. We heard a cool bit of news about Harry Kaufman this week, who purchased a 32-foot cruiser. Harry won't mind the heat or humidity once he gets on the bay. Samuel Rouslin has also succumbed to the lure of owning a boat. Bella Hodosh was the guest of her brother in law and sister, the Irwin Colitz's in Newport last week-end. Harvey Epstein, stationed at Camp Wheeler, in Macon, Georgia is receiving a medal for expert marksmanship. Esther Goldsmith and Iz Press just made the deadline for June weddings, when they were married in New London on June 27.

Weekly Slate

From Hollywood comes the definition of Hitler as a triple threat Aryan. Totalit-Aryan. Veget-Aryan and Prolet-Aryan. At Barrington Beach, the following have opened their summer homes. The Robert Browns. The Joseph M. Erenfructs. The David Schusters. The Morris Kaplans. The Abraham Adlers. The Louis Alperets. The Herbert Carters. The Herman Briers and Mrs. Bessie Fishbein. Mildred Rubin of Astoria, L. I., sister of Mrs. Harry Licht, visited Providence last week to attend the Licht-Lash nuptials. Spied at Narragansett Pier, Phyllis Luber. Oscar Goldman. Abe Bloom the Samuel Feitels and Pearl Berbill. The Joseph Halpers, his former Tillie Unger, and the Abraham Summers, the Mrs. being the former Charlotte Scherer, are the proud parents of baby girls this week.

Doctor Doings

Dr. Israel Kapnick, is now studying at the Massachusetts General Hospital, with the award of the Louis E. Kirstein Fellowship at Harvard Med School for the summer of 1941. Dr. Stanley S. Freedman has graduated from the Army Medical Field Service School at Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania. Toots Norman is representing Berkshire Country Club at Wingdale, N. Y. Toots is spending the week-end there, and on his return will be able to describe this popular summer resort to his many friends. Edward G. Robinson, film star, has pledged $100,000—his entire salary from his next picture—to the U. S. O. He says it is a "small down payment on the privilege of being an American."

Summer Service

As a reminder, the Herald vacation bureau is at your service with information and facilities to make reservations at any summer resort in the East. Many times our bureau can save you money through the use of due bills, eighty of which are available at the present time. Here's a story that was phoned in this week: An East side mother was terribly worried when she noticed that her boy made a habit of going with non-Jewish girls.

She may not have known her Emily Post but she knew her psychology, so she didn't rebuke him to naggingly. But she hoped her displeasure would be evident. One night, after her son had come home and she was fondly going through his clothes to see if they needed any repairs, she found a lipstick in a pocket. She examined it carefully and read the name, "Helena Rubinstein." She sighed happily. "At last," she soliloquized, "he has started going with Jewish girls again."

Sport Corner

Herman Silverman and his Providence Sheet Metal Baseball Team in the Independent Amateur Baseball League, has been doing right well in the last five games. They've won four, and Herman believes, the team has sufficient power to bring it to the top real soon. Ira Einhorn is the only Jewish umpire in the Jewelers' Soft Ball League and the Prov. Independent Amateur League. We hear that Bernice Koret is interested in acting. That's all for now.

LUCKY - UNLUCKY

LONDON, (JPS). — A run of good luck recently had by Jews holding lottery tickets in Prague has brought a decree forbidding Jews to hold lottery tickets, even in partnership with non-Jewish Czechs.

Jews and Communists

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

(The following article by Westbrook Pegler appeared in the New York World-Telegram, where Mr. Pegler writes the daily column, "Fair Enough.")

I am afraid this one will stir up the animals and set them to snarling and lunging, but I have been observing something lately which puzzles me and doubtless many of you.

Now, of course, we all know that Bolshevism or Communism has been widely identified with Jewishness not only by Adolf Hitler at home and abroad but in our own midst by many citizens, not necessarily hateful but, some of them, just thoughtless or incapable of actual thought.

As to that, even those who most sincerely abhor racial and religious persecution are constantly embarrassed, nevertheless, in their denials of the Hitlerian preaching by the constant recurrence in the news of Muscovite plotting of such names as Gerson, Isaacs, Kaufman, Gitlow, Gold and Weisbord. They make it difficult and, in many cases, impossible to convince those who believe that Jews are, if not necessarily Bolsheviks merely because they are Jews, then, anyway, strongly predisposed to Communism. The Jewish people owe much of their suffering to such. But, very strangely, some of the most evil propaganda and incitation comes from a Catholic priest, Father Coughlin, and one or two others of the same cloth, aided by intemperate publications, and that brings me to the point of my discussion.

For it seems to me that these reverends and the men of militant piety who propagate their stuff in print would do well to weed their own patch and explain how it comes we find such names as Hogan, Curran, Ryan, Canon, Connelly, Dunn, Bridges, O'Connor, Madden, Foster and Quill on the roster of those who are either avowed Communists, of one stripe or another, or so closely associated with Communists and so faithful to the party line as to be indistinguishable from the veriest bol in the Kremlin. These distinctly are not Jewish names; nor are the men who bear them Jews, unless it be argued that a natural-born Dunn becomes a Jew when he adopts Communism as his political faith or vice. Not even Hitler has given us that suggestion, so I think it reasonable to assume that these individuals are still Irish in the racial sense, although American by citizenship—thanks to an exasperating flaw in the Constitution. Men who bear these Irish names are among the most active and militant advocates and fighters on behalf of the Communist program, and the fact that some of them are said to be practicing Catholics only confuses the confusion.

I should like to know whether this indicates an identity of Communism and Irishness and, if not, how it can be argued that the Gersons, Isaacs, Golds and so forth prove by their activities and sympathies that Jewishness is Communism and vice versa.

Now, I do know and hereby recognize that Father Coughlin and his team have made the small concession that a Jew may be a non-Communist or anti-Communist—which is generous of them, to be sure—but the fact remains that they have established a suspicion on the Jew. The burden of proof is on the individual Jew who may never have indicated any interest in Communism—much less a practicing belief.

* I do not understand this recent increase in the number and power of the Irish in the ranks of the Communists and their fellow-travelers; nor do I suggest the parallel thought that because so many prominent Communists and fellow-travelers have Irish names and faces, then Communism and Irishness are one. It is, as I have said, a great puzzle—the more so in view of the well-known conflict of the Church and Communism and of the attitude of the Church toward Fascist Franco in Spain, whose fight was indorsed as a Holy War Against Communism.

That is about all. I just don't get the idea and would like to know why these men of that cloth and their lay propagandists of the same faith and race don't turn to and uproot the evil growth in the area in which they have the most influence.

Zionists to Investigate Palestine Conditions

WASHINGTON, (JPS). — A special commission to investigate conditions in Palestine may leave the United States soon, returning in time to report to the convention of the Zionist Organization of America scheduled for Cincinnati in September.

A resolution calling for the sending of such a commission was adopted at the meeting of the Administrative Council of the Zionist Organization held here last week.

Plan Uniform Policy on Jews

Ask Axis-Dominated Countries to Co-operate

BASLE. — Nazi Germany has sponsored the formation of an international committee, composed of representatives of each Axis-occupied or dominated country, to formulate a uniform European policy toward Jews, according to reports published in Swiss newspapers.

The committee is taking steps, these reports stated, which will preclude the possibility of European Jewry ever regaining social and political equality in Europe. Details of the all-European anti-Jewish program, it was reported, will be made public after the war ends in an Axis victory.

Swiss journalists believed that the Nazi-Fascist committee would explore the possibilities of a mass deportation of Europe's 5,000,000 Jews to Africa. Hitler was reported to be in favor of sending Europe's Jews to the French colony of Madagascar immediately after the war.

Religious School Makes Donations

Keren Ami collections by students of Temple Emanuel's Religious School totalled $387, it was announced this week, and throughout the year contributions were made to the following organizations:

Dr. Gustaf Sweet Ordered to Service

Dr. Gustaf Sweet son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sweet of Camp street this city, a first lieutenant in the Army Medical Corps Reserve since his graduation from St. Louis University School of Medicine two years ago, has been called into extended active duty with the Army Medical Corps. He is attached to the 54th Medical Battalion at Camp Edwards, Falmouth, Mass.

Dr. Sweet was graduated from Classical High School in 1931 and Providence College in 1935. He interned at the Chapin Hospital of R. I., State Mental Hospital, and this month completed an appointment at Pawtucket Memorial Hospital.

Consider Alien Doctors for Jobs

NEW YORK, (JPS). — Setting an example of what might be done to solve the complicated problem created by an insufficiency of physicians and the inability to practice, a bill now before the New York City Council calls for the employment in city hospitals of alien physicians who have taken out their first naturalization papers.

111 Children Greet America

NEW YORK. — From the crowded deck of the Portuguese steamer, S.S. Mouzinho, 111 refugee children greet America, land of sanctuary. These boys and girls, brought to safety by the United States Committee for the Care of European Children and by German Jewish Children's Aid of the National Refugee Service, were among the 735 passengers, mostly refugees, who arrived on the Mouzinho on June 21.

Louisville Synagogues Deny Facilities to Non-Members

LOUISVILLE, KY. — Louisville synagogues have taken the virtually unprecedented action of deciding to deny religious services to Jews who do not join a congregation, unless they cannot afford to do so. The move followed a survey of an inter-congregational committee which showed that there were approximately three Jews unaffiliated with congregations for every four affiliated.

A resolution adopted by the committee, and approved in short order by five of Louisville's six Jewish congregations, would have the effect of denying to the unaffiliated such rabbinical and synagogue services as weddings, "brisses," "bar mitzvahs," funerals, religious school education and High Holidays services. The resolution today was awaiting ratification of Congregation Adath Israel before being put into effect.

Sofa Prevents Bomb Explosion

LONDON, (JPS). — Mr. and Mrs. M. Schneide, Jewish residents of this city, are alive today because a bomb found a sofa in their home so comfortable it decided not to go off. Piercing the roof over their heads the bomb fell right on the sofa. The soft surface prevented the explosion.

The resolution states: "Resolved that the services of a religious institution and its rabbi be available to any unaffiliated, well able to be a member, only by the assumption of his proper obligation as a member of said institution." The inter-congregational committee reported, after a six-month survey, that 1,200 families were congregation members and approximately 900 were unaffiliated.

Industrialists Develop Methods for Monopolies

VICHY. — Elimination of Jews from the business world is frequently proving a disservice to the French people as a whole. This is the implication of an editorial appearing in the Paris newspaper Noveau Tempo.

The editorial charged that many of the administrators appointed to take over Jewish businesses are closing them under the alibi that the businesses are "hopeless," but in reality they kill them to avoid the competition of the old businesses. The administrators coming from the ranks of industrialists are thus given the rights of life or death over firms with which they have been in competition and the elimination of the competition the public must suffer.

The Paris newspaper charges further that no consideration is given to the workers of the once owned Jewish businesses and suggests that the law for expropriation of Jewish property be

Recent Ship Arrivals Confirm Widespread Anti-Nazi Revolt

NEW YORK. — Rumors of growing revolt under the Hitlerian heel in conquered European countries were confirmed in part this week by passengers aboard the Spanish liner Marques de Comillas who told of increasing protests in France, the Netherlands and Belgium.

Two passengers who requested World-Telegram reporters not to use their names for fear of endangering the lives of relatives in The Netherlands said that country recently underwent a general strike involving more than 60,000 steel, factory and transit workers in Amsterdam and Northern Holland.

Interviewed as the vessel docked at Brooklyn, the two, one of whom described himself as an industrialist, said the strike was a protest against the anti-Jewish laws imposed in The Netherlands. The seriousness with which Hitler regarded the strike, they said, is reflected in the hasty manner in which he rushed hundreds of additional troops into the affected areas and declared martial law.

"Warning was published that any one striking in the next 24 hours would be punished," they said. "They wouldn't be put in prison, they would be shot."

Other passengers from Holland reported no general movement to revolt, but said there were indications of unrest on all sides. Other passengers, particularly those from France and Belgium, said the food situation was becoming "so severe" that undernourished citizens were mulling threats.

Support Russia But Watch Communists, Warns League

NEW YORK. — A warning against the Communist Party line in this country was issued this week by the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League which at the same time advocated support for the Soviet Union in its battle against Nazi aggression.

In a statement which outlined the position of the League in view of the changed international situation, Professor James H. Sheldon, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Anti-Nazi League, pointed to the necessity of differentiating between support of the Soviet Union in its present battle against Nazi Germany and cooperation with the Communist Party in the United States.

"The 'party-line' may shift again just as it has in the past,"

The accident occurred on June 29, at Barrington Beach, while Mr. and Mrs. Mayberg, Mrs. Samuel Shaulson and Miss Sessile Shaulson were in Atlantic City, celebrating the Mayberg's fifteenth wedding anniversary.

U. S. and Germany Declared At War on New World Order

BOSTON. — America and Hitler's Germany are today already at war, fighting for the establishment of a new world order which must unite all nations under a single government whatever the outcome of the struggle, Dr. Walter M. Kotschnig, of Smith College, today told the Harvard Conference on Education and the Present-Day Danger To Democracy.

"This war is not being waged essentially between Britain and Germany or Russia and Germany," Dr. Kotschnig said.

Russia will last only a few weeks, Britain would fall in a month without American aid.

"The war is between Hitler's Germany and the United States, for this country more than any other embodies the moral principles upon which the democratic new order would be built."

Only this country has the strength to make its ideas felt over the feudal order . . . master race and slave . . . Dr. Kotschnig said. "That is the reason Hitler insists America must be destroyed."

Four times in the past generation, isolationists have led the United States to the brink of disaster, he said.

"Among the out-and-out isolationists, there is not one who is an expert on international relations," he declared. "I would be as reluctant to accept the verdict of an aviator on the world crisis as I would that of Einstein on the value of kiss-proof lipstick."

"Many of the most ardent interventionists, however, are isolationists at heart, being unwilling in the last analysis to abandon the concept of absolute national sovereignty for that of world government."

"If Hitler is beaten, the United States will be called upon to become the cornerstone of a new world order of freedom and equality," the professor stated. "We are far more unprepared for that task than we have been for waging war."

"Hitler stole a march on the

$11,000 Platinum Fox Fur Auctioned

NEW YORK. — An $11,000 platinum fox, termed "the world's finest fur," has been presented to the British War Relief Society by I. J. Fox and will be auctioned in Hollywood for the benefit of the society.

The presentation was made at the society's office, attended by Lord and Lady Marley, Frederick Gehle, chairman of the society's fund-raising division; Mr. Fox and Phineas Horowitz, vice-president of British Zionist Federation, who had originally suggested the gift.

United States in educating his youth to fight for a German order of conquest and domination. Hitler geared German schools to that purpose from the very beginning, giving young people purpose, drive and enthusiasm for the dole."

"Americans have done a poor job of building democratic loyalty in their schools. But if through a revision of our concept of democratic education, young people can be given a vision of the new world to come, they will more than prove a match for Hitler's youth."

Numerous Men At Triple Lake Ranch

Ann Barish, director of Triple Lake Ranch of Succasunna, near Dover, N. J., this week said, "Dude ranches in general, and Triple Lake Ranch in particular, do not have the shortage of men which seems to be the plague of most resorts."

"We have found that men generally equal or outnumber women. To a great extent this is due, no doubt to Triple Lake Ranch's activities, including the popular horse back riding, excellent food, free golf, swimming, boating championship tennis and handball courts, outdoor dancing, cowboy band and informal entertainment."

Population of Providence, according to the 1940 Bureau of Census Estimate, was 253, 504 in an area of 18.34 square miles.

In a continuation of the governmental reorganization, Admiral Jean Abrial, having just turned over the Governorship of Algeria to Gen. Maxime Weygand,

Meanwhile, 72 persons, alleged to be Communists, have been arrested at Troyes in the occupied zone, and sent to an internment camp in an investigation of subversive activity in which more than 600 persons were involved, it has been learned.

The persons were accused by police of distributing Communist propaganda on a "massive" scale throughout Aube Department.

Refugee Family Reunited After Separation of Month

NEW YORK. — Separated a month ago in Martinique by American passport regulations, a refugee family was reunited here last week when the Evangeline of the Alcoa Line docked in North River.

Mrs. Marcel Lowenstein, one-time resident of Paris and Nice, was met on the pier by her husband and their two daughters, Maxime, 13, and Betty, 10. A slender blonde, she was overjoyed at getting ashore, and told reporters, "It's wonderful to be in the United States and breathe free air again."

The family was aboard the French liner, Winnipeg, when it was captured on May 26 by a Dutch gunboat and taken to Trinidad. The father and two children came on to the United States on French passports, but Mrs. Lowenstein was detained until her American citizenship status was investigated. She explained she was born in Paris of American parents, and had spent most of her life there, but had adopted American citizenship at the age of 21.

Three other war refugees on the boat were Samuel Fiderer, Polish tenor; Otto Manzeir, German lawyer, and Alex Kaz, French journalist. Mr. Manzeir fled Berlin in 1933, but was captured by the Germans in the invasion of France and was in four internment camps before boarding the Winnipeg at Marseille.

Hobbs Alien Bill Faces Opposition

Liberal Groups Fear Concentration Camps

WASHINGTON, (JPS). — The Hobbs Bill, providing the placement in detention camps of all aliens who are ordered deported but who are not deported within 90 days, faces a bitter fight when it comes up before the House, since Labor and other liberal elements see in it the beginning of Fascist concentration camps.

The passage of the bill would create a declassed group of people who might spend years in a detention camp, since Assistant Attorney-General Alexander Holtzoff, its chief sponsor, has referred to it as "permanent" legislation.

It is known that there are a great many aliens in the United States who have been forced, by the lack of immigration visas, to extend their stay illegally. They are therefore subject to deportation and would automatically become subject to detention if the Hobbs Bill is passed.
