Statesmen Or —?

With due allowance for lapses caused by excitement under stress, the American public has the right to demand that those who wish to be regarded as statesmen shall continue to earn that designation by limiting their oratorical blows by the rules of good taste.

We cite four men's recent violations of ordinary good taste, as follows:

(1) Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana is guilty of the following inexcusable lapses:

(a) In a radio attack on the lend-lease bill, Mr. Wheeler said:

"Now we find these same international bankers with their friends, the royal refugees, and with the Sassoons of the Orient and with the Rothschilds and Warburgs of Europe in another theme song . . . 'Our investments in India, Africa and Europe must be preserved. Save democracy!'"

(b) Immediately after passage of the lend-lease bill, the press quoted Mr. Wheeler thus:

"The passage of the bill is a victory for Mr. Roosevelt and the international bankers."

(2) Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio said several days ago that he rather would see Germany win than see the United States enter the war. (Would you revise that statement, Mr. Taft, if the Nazis meant as certain death to your own close circle of relatives and friends as the Nazis mean to certain others of your constituency—Protestant, Catholic and Jewish?)

(3) The former Senator Rush Holt of West Virginia, addressing a Mothers of Sons meeting in Emory Auditorium in Cincinnati Saturday evening, March 8th, said:

"I am getting sick and tired of seeing the refugees enjoying prosperity and life in this country and then trying to involve us and take us over to the war they try to escape. Let's charter a boat for the refugees and let them fight!"

(4) Senator Rufus C. Holman of Oregon, in the lease-lend bill debate, said:

"Adolf Hitler has broken the control of international bankers and traders over the rewards for the labor of the common people of Germany."

The Messrs. Wheeler, Taft, Holman and Holt ought to know the Nazis love them dearly for such beautiful "inside jobs" of turning one group of Americans against another. In fact, eminent Nazis already have predicted that the German capture of America will be an inside job.

But the quartet also ought to know that they automatically forfeit any claim to statesmanship so long as they mouth such irresponsible and inciting words as those quoted heretofore in this editorial. — AMERICAN ISRAELITE.

Noted Propagandist Seized in Mexico

MEXICO CITY. — Adolfo Leon Osorio, one of Mexico's most violent anti-Semites, has been arrested by Mexican police on the charge that he headed a gang which invaded motion picture houses showing American anti-Nazi films and caused disturbances.

Long known as a Nazi propagandist, Osorio has been active for several years in the distribution of anti-Jewish literature. He denied the charges lodged against him and declared that he was "framed."

To Decide Palestine's Roll In War

Four British Jews Cited for Bravery

Honored For Helping Injured in Air Raids

LONDON. — The George Medal was awarded this week to Barnett Lewis of London for conspicuous bravery during an air raid.

A large high-explosive bomb had fallen on three shops under which there were two public air raid shelters containing more than 60 persons. The roofs of the shelters collapsed and water flooded them two-and-a-half feet deep. One man was trapped and in danger of drowning and four others were pinned by their legs under rolled steel joists.

Lewis waded to the first man, who had been injured by large pieces of brickwork and timber, walked up the dangerous roof and forced the brickwork away. Then he found the timber still holding the man down, obtained a saw and freed the man just as the water reached his head.

Three of the first six awards and commendations for civilian gallantry in Hampstead have gone to Jews. Sector Warden Joseph Levy was the first Hampstead warden to receive the British Empire Medal. With a bomb having just exploded and the air so thick with dust that it was difficult to see, he entered a collapsing building and brought out several persons, including some injured. He himself was hurt and trapped.

Gestapo Re-arrest Jewish Leader

ZURICH. — Dr. Otto Hirsch, principal leader of the Jews in Germany, has been arrested again by the Gestapo, and other Jewish leaders have been called up for compulsory labor service, it was learned here this week.

Fearing intensified anti-Jewish measures, threatened if the aid-to-Britain bill passed at Washington, Jews in Berlin were spurring efforts to emigrate. Two groups of German Jews who had succeeded in obtaining visas left Berlin yesterday for Lisbon on sealed trains.

"Mein Kampf" Put On Must List

ZURICH.—Given complete control of the administration of Norway's public libraries, the anti-Semitic Major Quisling party has ordered cleared from Norway's library shelves all books written by Jewish and British authors on the ground they are "immoral." Adolf Hitler's autobiography, "Mein Kampf", has been made a required text book in all Norwegian public schools.

CONFISCATE PROPERTY

PARIS. — By a Nazi decree here, the property of all Jews in Alsace has been confiscated and will be distributed among racial Germans. Jewish houses were sold at "auction" to German immigrants and the "profits" from the sales diverted to the winter relief fund.

Labor Committee to Plan For Campaign at Conference Sun.

Baruch Zuckerman, a member of the Palestine Delegation, and a noted Poale Zion leader, will be principal speaker at a conference of the National Labor Committee on Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, in the Narragansett Hotel, having as his subject, "Palestine At The Present Time."

Mr. Zuckerman has been identified with Jewish communal life in this country for the past thirty years, having served in various capacities in the Joint Distribution Committee, American Jewish Congress and the Zionist organization. At the present time he is touring the country on behalf of the Histadrut, Federation of Jewish Workers and Pioneers in Palestine.

Abraham Hamlin of Boston will also appear as guest speaker at the Sunday Conference, which

Wine Cargo Arrives Here from Palestine

NEW YORK. — After a voyage of over 14,000 miles through Palestine and Syria, across the desert to Basrah in Iraq, then by sea around the Cape of Good Hope, a cargo of wine from Palestine has arrived in New York and will be placed on the market in time for Passover, holidays, according to an announcement by Robert Szold, Co-Chairman and Treasurer of the Emergency Committee for Zionist Affairs.

The loss of European markets for Palestine products, especially oranges and wine, has had an adverse effect on the economy of Palestine, it was stated by Mr. Szold. The shipment of wine and shipments of Palestine products which are expected to arrive in America, will help to remedy the situation.

CALLED "ERRAND BOY"

ZURICH. — The German radio has denounced Wendell L. Willkie for accepting an award of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States, terming him "an errand boy for world Jewry."

Goldman to Tour S. America For Palestine Reconstruction

NEW YORK. — Dr. Solomon Goldman of Chicago, National Co-Chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, will make a six week's tour of South America in behalf of the Palestine Foundation Fund (Keren Hayesod) in order to mobilize greatly increased support for the upbuilding and defense of the Jewish homeland in Palestine, it was announced this week.

In view of the fact that the war has almost completely cut off support for Palestine reconstruction from Jewish Communities in Europe, Dr. Goldman will seek to bring about a wider participation in the program for the maintenance of the Jewish National Home in Palestine on the part of Jewish communities in Argentina, Chile, Brazil and Uruguay. He will leave for South America on April 20th and return to the United States on June 1st.

is being held to plan for the 16th Annual Campaign for Funds, which will be opened at the Third Seder Celebration, to occur on April 13 at the Narragansett Hotel.

The committee arranging for the Conference includes: Solomon Lightman, Morris W. Shoham, Samuel Shprecher, Harry Chaet, Joseph Biller, Israel Resnick, Mrs. Rose Beeber, Arthur Korman and Alter Boyman.

Vichy To Handle 'Jewish Question'

VICHY. — A more strict enforcement of the anti-Jewish restrictions was seen this week in the announcement by the Petain Government of the appointment of a general commissariat to deal with "the Jewish question" in unoccupied France. The move was linked with discussions between Vice-Premier Admiral Darlan and the Nazi authorities.

The news was regarded as an attempt to speed enforcement of the anti-Jewish statute of October 18 which barred Jews from Government posts, armed forces, motion pictures, newspapers and publishing.

Weizmann Coming Here from England

Chemical Research for Britain to be Discussed

NEW YORK. — Dr. Chaim Weizmann, President of the Jewish Agency for Palestine and of the World Zionist Organization, who has been engaged in important war work in a special chemical laboratory at the British Admiralty in England during the past seven months, will fly to the United States from Lisbon by Clipper this week for a brief visit to this country.

Dr. Weizmann, who had on a number of previous occasions planned to come to the United States, was detained in London by his war duties and by vital developments with regard to the role of the Jewish community of Palestine in the defense of the Middle Eastern front.

During his brief stay in this country Dr. Weizmann will confer with leading American scientists regarding his chemical research for the British war effort and will discuss with American Jewish leaders plans for enabling Palestine to give maximum aid to the cause of British in the Middle East. Dr. Weizmann's visit is of special importance in view of the recent developments in Southeastern Europe and in Syria which have placed Palestine in a strategic position in the prosecution of the war by the British in the Eastern Mediterranean. The world-renowned Jewish leader, who served as the Director of the chemical laboratories at the British Admiralty during the First World War from 1916 to 1919, will remain in this country for only a short period, as he expects to return to London as quickly as possible to carry on his war duties.

At the present time the Daniel Sieff Chemical Research Institute in Palestine, of which Dr. Weizmann is the head, is engaged in scientific work to aid the British forces in the Middle East.

1400 Shuttle Between Hungary, Rumania

NEW YORK. — Fourteen hundred Jews, including women and children, have for the last two months been wandering about a thin strip of territory separating Hungary and Rumania, it was reported in Belgrade this week.

The Jewish wanderers were deported from Rumania on the ground that they were born in the Hungarian part of Transylvania and are Hungarian subjects. The Hungarian government rejected the Rumanian contention and left the 1,400 Jews to their fate on the new "no man's land" near Arad on the Hungarian-Rumanian border.

Hold Anti-Jewish Laws for a Month

BUDAPEST. — Jews in Hungary were given a month or two of grace this week before imposition of new anti-Semitic laws, according to Finance Minister Remenyi-Scheller who said Hungary could not "displace 800,000 to 1,000,000 Jews without grave economic consequences."

The first run screen attraction will be "Convoy," starring Clive Brook, with a supporting cast including John Clements, Edward Chapman and Judy Campbell.

No Vacations If You're Not Aryan

ZURICH. — Jewish employees in Germany are not entitled to holidays, according to a ruling of a Cologne court, which is praised by the newspaper Koelnischer Zeitung as "a masterly verdict."

The paper says several Jews sued their employees in Cologne for refusing them the holidays to which they were legally entitled. The court rejected the claim, ruling holidays were only for members of the "Gemeinschaft der Schaffenden" (creative community), to which Jews, by their nature, could not belong.

Urge Labor Peace In Defense Work

Jewish Vets Conference Favors Arbitration Policy

Speaking last Sunday afternoon over WEAN, as part of the New England Regional Conference of Jewish War Veterans, National Commander Fred S. Harris of Meriden, Conn., pointed out that American youth was offering its future, hopes and ambitions "at the altar of liberty at less than a dollar a day," and called on industry and labor involved in national defense output, to voluntarily adopt the policy of arbitrating any differences without resort to strike or lock-out.

Should voluntary action lag, Mr. Harris and the conference expressed themselves in favor of "such federal legislation as will insure continued production of essential needs without strikes or lock-outs."

The conference adopted a policy of co-operating with the Jewish Welfare Board, and with other civic agencies. Plans were discussed for entertainment at Rhode Island and Massachusetts army forts and camps.

Paul J. Robin, national vice-commander, presided at the conference, which was held at the local Post's home, 100 Niagara street. Commanders of N. E. posts, executive committeemen and national officers were in attendance. Commander Harris was honored at a dinner given at the Narragansett Hotel on Sunday night, by delegates of the conference.

Notes of an Innocent Bystander:

The Front Pages: Some of the generals of Lindy's war college took hope that Moscow's note to Bulgaria promised Bolo opposition to the Ratzis in the Balkans. But Arthur Krock chilled the hope in his Washington column. Every time Stalin pouts at his best girl in Berlin, warned Krock, they make up the tiff with a deal at the expense of a weak neighbor . . . Rob't Minor, who replaced Browder as Comrade Big, used to city edit the Daily Worker. Once, when a Rolls and flivver came together, Minor flipped the item to a rewrite man. "Here," he said, "write that from the Class Angle" . . . There is a class angle to the boss tracks, too. Take George F. T. Ryall's account of the opening day at Tropical Park, following the closing of blue-blooded Hialeah. Biggies from Hialeah, reported Ryall, visited Tropical "to see how the other half bets" . . . Irving Hoffman's report to the Hollywood Reporter . . . "Honeychile Wilder went out with Rags Ragland Saturday night, and on Sunday was seen at the Stork with Bob Ritchie. In other words, Honeychile's gone from Rags to Ritchie."

The Story Tellers: William L. Shirer's adventures in Nazifying Germany are running in the Atlantic Monthly, and make very enlightening reading . . . Jan Valtin's "Out of the Night" has set an all-time record at The Book-of-the-Month Club, beating Hemingway's "For Whom the Bell Tolls" by 3,000 copies . . . Phyllis Brooks of Hollywood and "Panama Hattie" is in Screen Guide . . . She avers: "A man is a chump to marry an actress, and who wants a chump?" . . . When Scribner's Commentator reprinted an interview given by Benny Goodman on the radio, it failed to include the maestro's statement that Democracy is necessary if America's type of free improvised music is to live. Goodman made quite a point connecting Democracy and Swing. But Scribner's took pains to blot it out . . . Fortune has a timely article entitled: "Eddie Rickenbacker Looks Ahead" . . . Margaret Case Harriman has been commissioned to write a book on New York wits . . . The only objection to that is Margaret can't include herself. Hers is the kind you can mow lawns with.

New Yorkers Are Talking About:

The sleuths studying the numerous soldiers and sailors who patronize Yorkville grills . . . That Ass't Navy Secretaryship rumored for Thomas G. Food SPECIALS

It's a full-sized problem to re-adjust a family's eating habits for one week of the year, and weeks before Passover, you'll find the average housewife already planning her holiday menu, because once the holiday arrives, she's usually too busy cooking and baking to find time for planning as well.

The care with which she makes her preparations will determine, to a great extent, the success of her favorite Passover dishes, and that's why so many women have come to rely on Manischewitz Matzo Products for full satisfaction. In cooking and baking, for instance, they have found a wide range of uses for Manischewitz Matzo Meal and Cake Meal, and the pleasure derived from a hot fragrant matzo meal pudding, or a light, tender sponge cake often depends as much on these products as on the basic recipe.

More than fifty years of preference have made Manischewitz Matzo Meal a household tradition, passed on from mother to daughter.

The new spout package, introduced this year, has a handy aluminum pouring spout that eliminates completely the mess and inconvenience of torn box tops. Manischewitz Matzo Meal is the only matzo meal packed this modern convenient way, and housewives are unanimous in proclaiming their instant approval.

For a WOMAN'S fancy

BY EDYTHE JAY

The long awaited day arrives at last
Winter's doldrums are things of the past
And now begin those merry whirls
Of shopping for clothes—(if we know girls) . . .

Did a robin waken you this morning? . . . Were you more thrilled to see him than anyone or anything since "The Philadelphia Story"? . . . Did you jump, not crawl, out of bed? . . . Dress in jig time? . . . Ignore your fur coat? . . . Did you order a coke for breakfast instead of coffee? . . . And did you muse all day on getting out to the country this week-end? . . . Of course, you did! . . . IT'S SPRING! . . .

A new mood, definitely, and here's a sketchbook of you conforming with this mood . . . Your newest Spring hat cajoles merriment with dots, dots . . . Pussywillows, soft ones of chenille, to punctuate the magic of your veil . . . Very low V-necked blouses, lit with big fake jewels in headlight buttons . . . Chic suits as urban as traffic lights . . . Suits that are tailored without being mannish . . . important looking without being fussy . . . They fit every occasion from careers to cocktails . . .

You'll be wearing high tension colours that seem to give off sparks . . . Red as the scarlet tanager, or the screaming green of a parakeet . . . Pale purple, the colour of a thrush's feather, or the clear sharp blue of a humming bird's breast . . .

Next to a coat of tan, you'll look best in one of navy . . . Smooth shouldered, bloused, tapering down in the slimmest of the skirt . . . Made with dolman sleeves — so pretty when you gesture . . . Frocks will be whispering with petticoats . . . Petticoats to give you a new dinner-bell shape . . .

Despite bombings and blockades, England continues to send luscious tweeds . . . Scotch ones with the scent of the moors still clinging to their threads, and you buying them like the proverbial intoxicated sailor . . . You'll be mad about lots of lace trimming at necklines and cuffs, to make your frocks look authentic dandy . . .

Your shoes will be made of crocodile . . . Very supple skins designed into winging, bantam-weight shoes . . . Open to air . . . Like nothing on the feet . . . Shown in epaulet yellow, carnation red and brandy brown . . . You'll be very infantile, too, and get a pair of patent baby slippers, with the ultra-rounded toe . . . Comfortable as a child's last . . .

If you get a fur cape, for over your suit, it'll probably be of some bland blonde fur . . . Superbly smart this season . . . Capes are a decree handed down by smart New Yorkers . . . The young things were seen the early part of this month flying around with their coats slung over their two-piece suits, sleeves ignored, just as if they were capes . . . We applaud this over-shoulder look, because it has a carefree casual chic that is indisputably American . . .

Hundreds Receive Unexpected Visas

GENEVA. — A change in its policy with regard to issuing immigration visas under the German quota by the United States Consulate in Berlin has provided several hundred German and Austrian Jews with quota visas to America.

The Jews, it was reported, are already en route to Lisbon on the first leg of their journey to the United States. The Nazis permitted the Jews to take with them 10 German marks apiece. The Joint Distribution Committee and the HIAS-ICA offices will take care of them while they remain in Lisbon.

It was learned that American relatives of the fortunate Jews paid the cost of steamship tickets to American travel agencies.

"Back Street" Stars

BOYER AND SULLAVAN

The sensational situations of Fannie Hurst's novel, "Back Street," have been captured and put on the screen in Universal's film of the same name, now showing at the RKO Albee Theatre, starring Charles Boyer and Margaret Sullavan. It tells of a girl, who is a content to live in the back street of a man's life, demanding nothing but that he love her. Bob Crosby and his Dixieland Band make their debut in "Let's Make Music," the Albee's co-feature.

WINTER GARDEN OF VERSES (With the usual apologies)

In winter, in the snow and sleet,
I long for sizzling summer heat;

Instead of little me!
