Refugee Ship Explodes; 750 Lost

Captain Reported Ship Unseaworthy

VICHY—The small steamer Struma with 750 Jewish refugees from Roumania and Bulgaria was blown to pieces in the Black Sea about five miles north of the Bosphorus, apparently by a stray mine, an Istanbul dispatch to the Vichy news agency said, according to the Associated Press. There have been no reports of survivors, but a search was begun immediately.

The vessel of less than 400 tons was flying the Panama flag and at the time of the explosion was being towed by a Turkish tug. The Struma sank immediately, it was said.

It was reported here that the Turkish vessel Chankaya went down in the same locality under similar circumstances, simultaneously with the sinking of the Struma.

The refugees did not have entry papers either for Turkey or Palestine and the Struma had been ordered to leave the harbor, the dispatch said. The captain of the ship had repeatedly declared the vessel was not seaworthy.

Form Foundation to Aid Underprivileged Children

Home No Longer To Take Children To Extend Use Of Camp Jori

A Jewish Children's Foundation, to manage Camp Jori in Point Judith, R. I., and to assist underprivileged children with opportunities for higher education, was announced this week by Dr. Archie A. Albert, president of the Jewish Children's Home of Rhode Island. Dr. Albert further announced that the Foundation is incorporated within the Children's home, and that in the future, should local, national, and international conditions warrant it, the maintenance of a Children's Home would be renewed.

Under the new plan, The Jewish Children's Foundation will no longer accept children for care.

The author of the plan, details of which follow, is Maurice Stollerman former executive director of the Jewish Children's Home and now superintendent of Miriam Hospital.

The Jewish Children's Foundation will be governed by the same (Continued on Page 2)

On The Alert

For those who believed that the querulous voices of the Nazi sympathizing obstructionists were finally silenced when war was declared, the American Jewish Congress has prepared a summary of Fascists working for disunity while pretending loyalty.

True, the report admits, Rep. Rankin does not intersperse his speeches with anti-Semitic attacks any more; Senator Wheeler has discarded his subtle allusions to the "warmongers" who got us into the war; Senator Nye has forgotten the "Jewish predominance" in the film industry; and ex-colonel Lindbergh has offered his services to the Army Air Corps.

These celebrities among the defeatists and appeasers, prefer, for the time being at least, to take the position of watchful waiting until their "Tag" arrives.

This does not mean that their followers, the professional dispensers of hate and bigotry, have forgotten the fable that this is "the Jew's war." Such disruptive tactics, if successfully applied, are bound to lead to disastrous results.

The fidelity with which anti-Jewish propaganda and pro-Nazi incitement and espionage go side by side should be exposed, even though this is no new thing and is not confined to the Western hemisphere. For in the vanquished countries the peoples were injected on a ruthless scale with the doctrine that the Jew was the enemy, and gullible people were persuaded that the patriotic thing to do was to help the arch-enemies of the Jews, Adolf Hitler and his swarm of myrmidons.

The tragic lesson of this Nazi aggression under its anti-Jewish mask has opened the eyes of some in this country to the fact that the same tricky methods have been and still are being employed here—anti-Semitism is the key to pro-Nazi plans.

Purim

The story of Esther has found innumerable counterparts in the tragic recital of Jewish persecutions. There are any number of supplementary Purims celebrated in various cities of the old world.

But the coming of the festival this year creates two thoughts in the mind of Israel—one, gratitude over the ancient deliverance, and the hope for a speedy deliverance from the present fearful threat created by history's greatest coalition.

Near East Threat

Fear that Palestine may become the battleground of the Near East was heightened this week when Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allan, Washington commentators disclosed that Ambassador William C. Bullitt, reporting to the President, had dis-

Dies Committee Accused of Having Pro-Fascist Leanings

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Dies Committee on un-American Activities has been accused of "pro-Axis leanings," and of having "refused" to expose certain anti-Semitic and Nazi activities, in documents made public this week by the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties and the New York chapter of the Na-

Paper Praises Rostov Leader

MOSCOW—The revelation that the Soviet general, Lev Dovator, famous commander of the Cossack troops who defeated the Germans at Rostov and caused their retreat along the entire Soviet front, was a Jew, is made this week in the Red Star, official organ of the Soviet army.

Reporting that Gen. Dovator "died the death of a hero," the Soviet army newspaper emphasized the fact that under the Czarist regime, the Cossacks were used to carry out pogroms against Jews, while under the Soviet regime they are led by a Jewish general and dealt smashing blows at the enemy. This, the Red Star says, is the sign of the great changes that have taken place in Soviet Russia.

Terrorist Gang Leader is Killed

TEL AVIV—Lawabiding citizens of this community breathed easier with the realization of the full implications of the killing of Abraham Stern, terrorist gang leader, who engineered the fatal mine explosion which on January 20th caused the death of three police officers and the wounding of three more.

Since that time an unrelenting hunt had pursued Stern and the lawless members of his gang; and the posting of policerewards resulted in the arrest of one youth and the surrender of two more last week.

Can Survive as Religious Community, Says Brickner

HARRISBURG, PA.—"The Jew can survive in America only as a religious community under the dome of the synagogue," Dr. Barnett R. Brickner, of Cleveland, told a district convention of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations meeting here.

"This, not only because religion is the dominant character of the Jew and because the American can understand the Jew only in terms of his religion," he said, "but also because the tendency, even in the democratic state like that of all states, is a tendency toward homogeneity. The only possible allowance for differentiation that even free America is likely to make will be for religious differences."

"It is unthinkable that Jews, or for that matter any other white people would be allowed to retain themselves as a racial or ethnic tional Lawyers Guild.

The Guild, which charged Rep. Martin Dies with refusing on "29 different occasions" to expose Nazi activities in this country which had been called to his attention, declared that the Texas Congressman "fills the role of the American Lord Haw-Haw." The Federation charged that the Dies Committee has "aided the Axis in its war on democracy."

Both groups are opposing a resolution now pending to continue the activities of the Dies Committee for another year.

Medical Journal Hits Doctor Ban

NEW YORK—Some 1500 European refugee physicians now in this country and "vegetating in idleness" should be permitted to practice in this country, especially because of the pressing needs for medical men at this time, an editorial in the Journal of the Medical Society of the County of New York declared this week.

Singer Contributes Royalties To Fund

NEW YORK CITY—Dinah Shore, singer from Nashville who has achieved national fame on radio, has decided to contribute all royalties from her recording of the popular "Everything I Love" to the infantile paralysis drive, which annually honors President Roosevelt.

Urges Jewish Army

PIERRE VAN PAASEN

NEW YORK—Rumors about Mr. Van Paasen's resignation from chairmanship of the Committee for a Jewish Army, which overzealous Zionists have been spreading, are without foundation, since Mr. Van Paasen, who projected the public activities in behalf of a Jewish Army before the Zionists took it up, has agreed to remain at the head of that Committee, despite his heavy schedule of lectures and literary work.

Recalling that three years ago The News published 11 pages of the hate-filled comments of anti-Semitic William Dudley Pelley, Roe asserts that the Sept 10, 1941 News editorial which glossed over American anti-Semitism and defended the isolationists who "seemed" to be anti-Jewish was only one indication of the anti-Semitic path taken by Captain Joseph M. Patterson, publisher of The News.

"The Bill of Rights," Mr. Roe quotes the editorial, "does not mean that Americans are forbidden to dislike other Americans on religious or other grounds. Plenty of Americans just now are exercising their right to dislike the Jews."

That the News refused to condemn Charles Lindbergh's anti-Semitic speech at Des Moines until a week after its delivery, and then only to call Lindbergh "mistaken," is assailed by Roe as typical of the policy of the outstanding isolationist paper in the country.

Enemy Aliens Entitled to Insurance

NEW YORK—Refugees entitled to unemployment insurance do not forfeit their right because they are nationals of Germany, Austria or Italy, according to information received this week by the National Refugee Service from the New York State Department of Labor. Aliens entitled to unemployment insurance will receive the full amount to which they are entitled, the NRS was advised.

Jewish General Reported Shot

London—General Moïshe Cohen, called "Mushy-ko" by the Chinese, the rollicking adventurer who swaggered from the tough mining camps of Canada to the position of bodyguard and confidante to Sun Yatsen and Chiang Kai-shek, was reported shot by the Japanese, according to an unconfirmed report in the British press.

Samson, Delilah Wed in New Story

NEW YORK—A new volume of Old Testament stories is to be published in the near future by Elliot Paul, it was reported this week.

Advance notices say that in his book, Mr. Paul has Samson marry Delilah, whereupon someone expressed the hope that Mr. Paul doesn't forget to make some disposition of Samson's first wife, the Philistine woman, lest he cause the Biblical strong man to commit bigamy.

cussed the possibility of Palestine, Syria and the Suez Canal falling into Nazi control.

Another pessimistic note was Prime Minister Churchill's announcement that the Mediterranean is now closed to Allied shipping and that "another serious battle will soon be fought" in the Libyan desert.

These incidents are the weather-vanes of trouble. Before it is another instance of being too late with too little, the resources, in manpower and material, of Palestine, should be mobilized. For Palestine is on the broad pincher highway that leads to union with the Japanese forces moving westward through Burma.

The purpose of the Foundation, Dr. Albert stated, will be to continue as one of its prime objectives the management of Camp Jori and to extend the facilities of Camp Jori each summer to underprivileged children. It will also render financial aid for the purpose of assisting privileged children in all matters pertaining to child welfare. It will continue at all times to receive donations, bequests and gifts.

In concluding, Dr. Albert said, "It can readily be seen that such a plan is double edged. It preserves with a sacred regard the efforts of the past and places itself in a position to be of service to the very beneficiaries for which the contributions have been intended."

Stevens-Port

An attractive late Winter wedding occurred last Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock at Temple Emanuel, when Miss Muriel Phyllis Port, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Port of Edgemoor road, became the bride of Stanford Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Stevens of Sixth street, with Rabbi Israel M. Goldman performing the double-ring nuptials. Calla lilies, cibotium fern, acacia and white candelabra adorned the altar. Wedding music was played by Arthur Einstein at the organ. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel. A sunburst of woodwardia, cibotium fern and white gladioli provided the background for the receiving line.

Given by her parents in marriage, the bride was gowned in traditional ivory satin, Empire Period style, fashioned with a full skirt and long train. From her square-shaped coronet fell a long veil of imported ivory illusion, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids.

Mrs. Harold Silverman, aunt of the bride, was in attendance as matron of honor, wearing a gown of cornflower blue faille taffeta, very bouffant, and carrying a bouquet of gerbera and delphinium. Constance Miller, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Max Meller acted as best man, while the usher corps comprised Dr. J. Caswell Stevens, brother of the bridegroom, Herbert Cohen, Robert Johnson, Harold Levene, Joseph Miller, Morton Port, Sidney Silverstein and Heinz Silverthau.

The bride's mother was attractively dressed in a gown of printed crepe on a light blue background. She wore coral camellias in her hair. Mrs. Stevens wore a becoming frock of grey crepe, complemented by a corsage of orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens are now on a wedding sojourn to New York, after which they will return to this city to make their home.

Former U. S. Attorney Fights Cassidy Admission to Bar

NEW YORK—Gregory F. Noonan, former United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, this week joined the rapidly growing ranks of prominent attorneys and jurists opposing admission to the Bar of John F. Cassidy, Christian Front leader and rabid anti-Semite.

In a statement to the Special Committee of the Brooklyn Character Committee, Mr. Noonan said: "Certainly, more is required for admission to the Bar than an acquittal by a jury for conspiracy to overthrow the United States Government, as is the case of Mr. Cassidy. If the Bar is to remain a profession cloaked with dignity and respect, men of Cassidy's ilk must not be allowed to enter its sacred portals.

"If Cassidy is admitted to the Bar, then I respectfully submit there is no function for a Character Committee. Notice will then have been served on applicants that an academic training is all that is necessary for admission to the Bar and Character is not one of the required attributes of a lawyer."

Cassidy was one of 17 members of the Christian Front who were tried last year on charges of conspiring to overthrow by force the United States Government.

For a Woman's Fancy

By EDYTHE JAY

Crusaders all! ... With increased zeal and unflinching purpose, members of the Jewish Consumptives Relief Society of Rhode Island, by participation in their Auxiliary's work, continue to wage an uninterrupted fight against one of mankind's most dread diseases ... Theirs is a job requiring vigilance, and their creed is derived from the Talmud — "He who has saved one life is considered as if he had preserved the whole world ..."

A highly successful event, under the auspices of the local Auxiliary, was its Sixth Annual Donors' Luncheon held last Tuesday afternoon in the Ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel ... Funds raised at theirs is a job requiring constant vigilance, and their creed is derived from the Talmud — "He who has saved one life is considered as if he had preserved the whole world ..."

When we arrived at the Hotel, the florist was putting the last touches to his sunken garden creation in the center of the Ballroom ... 'Twas really lovely ... A bubbling fountain of aqua, a bird bath with floating carnations, white drecenas, pandana, sensavaria, Southern smilax, huckleberry, and hemlock were used to cover the floor ...

About half after twelve o'clock, the donors started to arrive, and as they passed, we noted: Mrs. Harold Kelman, dexterous chairman, in an unusually stunning frock of cafe black, with a wide ruffle banding the hemline ... Three huge flowers in purple hue were appliqued down the front, and a small hat of black with purple posies poised on her pompadour ... Her corsage was of purple iris ... Mrs. Harry Yuloff, co chairman, was attractively turned out in a costume of black and white shepherd checks, topped by a torso jacket of black crepe ... On her flame-colored locks, a stunning hat of black felt.

Mrs. Si Greenberg looked like an enchanting Mata Hara, in her suave torso dress of black crepe, with a gathered full skirt of chartrreuse and violet print ... Her black silk jersey hat was draped under the chin ... Inserts of tender black lace were used near the neckline of blonde Mrs. Cy Cohen's black frock ... Mrs. Harry Goldenberg, a charmer in a black crepe frock, with epaulets of jet sequins, and a black hat dotted with sequins ... A striking bird of paradise pin of rhinestones blazed near her left shoulderline ... A luxurious mink coat topped Mrs. Saul Gordon's becoming dress of olive green ... Her hat was rich brown ... Delicate petit point embroidery figured over gracious Mrs. William Brown's black dress.

Arriving from the Union Station, the honored guest, Mrs. Mark Harris, who is national president of the J. C. R. S., presented a sophisticated picture in her mink coat and hat, and her dress of sunny beige ... Her corsage of spring flowers was a colorful touch ... Proud as punch of the splendid affair was the local president, Mrs. I. B. Dickens ... Always well-groomed, she was looking wonderful in an outfit of Spring navy, with red scrolling appluqued near and on the shoulders ... A diamond brooch at the V neckline ...

A pretty portrait was Mrs. Adrian Goldstein, in a slim thing of turquoise wool crepe, appluqued on the bodice with silver trim ... Her small black hat was hidden by soft pink blossoms ... An exotic print dress was the choice of Mrs. Harry D. Lipsey, and we loved her green felt coachman's hat, and purse to match ... Mrs. Hyman

Hochman arrived in a striking dress of black, trimmed with ultra white, and her white hat was most becoming ... Mrs. Leo Greenberg was there, wearing a gracefully pleated black frock, and a large black hat, with its crown of black wool mesh — allowing her lovely blonde coiffure to peek through ... Petite Mrs. Hye Holland selected a torso dress of black, with a skirt of printed maize and black ... Her hat was yellow ...

Mrs. Benjamin Yaffee wore an attractive outfit of black, with a green felt hat ... Slim and trim was Mrs. Maurice Greenstein in her navy frock, with its piroette collar of polka dotted taffeta ... Mrs. Milton Levin's choice was a frock of demure navy, with red embroidery on its white cuffs ... Mrs. Charles Horenstein's dress was of silk jersey in a gaily bizarre print ... White polka dots together with a white bowknot design fashioned the print of Mrs. Irving Peskin's black dress, and it had a fragile lingerie collar ...

Mrs. Louis Sweet's pretty dress of powder blue, was made with a large Bertha collar, edged in du-bonnet ... Mrs. Eske H. Windsberg was stately in a tailored dress of grey and wine plaid, and an up-turned grey felt hat ... Mrs. Irving Jacobs entered in a stunning coat of Persian lamb, and a hat of luscious raspberry red ... Mrs. Irving Goldstein, big as a button

Buries Brother For Second Time

Discovers Mistake After Ten Years

BROOKLYN—For the second time in 10 years the family of Mrs. Leona Buchberg is preparing to bury her brother, Abraham Polinsky. And this time there is no mistake.

In June, 1932, Mrs. Buchberg was informed that her brother, an inmate of a state institution, had died in Central Islip (L. I.) Hospital. Funeral services were held in Brooklyn and the body buried in Baron de Hirsch Cemetery on Staten Island. At least once a year since that time members of the family have visited the grave and left flowers.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Buchberg received a wire from the Newark State School, Newark, N. Y., near Buffalo. It informed her that her brother had died that day. A sister went to the school to identify the body.

This week she notified another brother, Samuel Polinsky, that the man who died last week was Abraham. Nobody knows how the mistake was made 10 years ago.

Union Upholds McWilliams Ban

No Infringement of Civil Liberties

NEW YORK CITY—Conviction of Joe McWilliams, New York leader of the American Destiny Party, for disorderly conduct in addressing a street meeting in New York City last July involved no issue of free speech, the American Civil Liberties Union finds in adopting a report submitted by its New York Committee.

Use New Type In Telephone Directory

A new style of type for listings, new abbreviations for some names and addresses, and a new name—Bayview—for the Warwick Neck central office, will be introduced in the next issue of the Providence and Vicinity Telephone Directory, scheduled for delivery early in March, it was announced today by James A. Williams, district manager of the N. E. Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The new type face will give listings increased legibility, Mr. Williams said, and new abbreviations will apply to given names of individuals, to certain words in the names of business firms and to the longer street names. It is felt, he said, that the combination of shortened listings and clearer type will improve general readability and help make any one listing easier to find.

The Union found Mr. McWilliams' arrest and conviction "a proper exercise of the state's duty to preserve the public peace," and adopted the following statement of policy:

"We do not consider it an infringement of civil liberties when a speaker at a public meeting is convicted of disorderly conduct, despite the absence of any overt acts of actual disorder, if the language he used was so abusive, vilifying, or threatening and so exceeding the reasonable bounds of orderly discussion as to create a clear and present danger that acts of violence would be committed by persons in the audience against the persons who were the objects of the speakers' abuse.

"The Union takes the position that the burden of proving that there had been a clear and present danger rests upon the prosecution at the time of trial."

Mrs. Henry Markoff chose a frock of black, with black and aqua grosgrain ribbon banding the hemline and the suplice neckline ... Outstandingly lovely was Mrs. Joseph Kaminsky ... Her brown velveteen skirt was contrasted by a torso jacket of jade green velveteen with brown scrolling used on the sleeves ... Her small chapeau was a garden of flowers, encased in misty, wispy veiling ...

Scene Around Town

By HENRY DAVIS

Local Zionists have joined the parade of organizations that are purchasing Defense Bonds and Stamps ... Incidentally, the feud between the Zionist and non-Zionist leaders is now being negotiated ... Among those basking in the Southern sun these days are Mrs. Isador Low, Irene Benjamin, and Mrs. David Shore, while back in town after three weeks on the Miami sands are the Milton Israeloffs and the Moe Grables ... A story is going the rounds concerning the optimist and the pessimist in Italy ... Said the hopeful one, "You know we're going to lose this war." ... Answered the sour one, "Yes, but when? ...

Purim Pieces
Did you know? That the Book of Esther prescribes no religious service for the observance of Purim? ... That Esther, the heroine of the Purim story, was originally known as Hadassah? ... That in Italy, Purim was often used as a family name by the Jews? ... And finally, that Purim is unique in Jewish religious history by virtue of the fact that it is devoid of religious spirit in its origin ... Leo Jacques, local attorney, leaves on Monday for Fort Devins, we learned this week ... And from the army camps comes word that Laurence Suvall is now a staff sergeant, Paul Goldberg a corporal, and Bernard Rubin a sergeant ... Rubin is stationed in Hawaii, and from that land of pineapples we hear that Leo Roy has been awarded a Purple Heart for wounds received during the December 7 bombardment ... Leo is the son of Mrs. Israel Roy ...

Late News
Too late for our news columns was the item that Young Judaea and Samuel Berditch will help entertain the folks at the Home for Aged at the annual Purim party on Tuesday nite ... The School for Jewish Women is planning a luncheon and program at the Naragansett Hotel on March 12 ... And from the Lying-In Hospital comes word that Norma and Len Goldman are the proud parents of a baby daughter, Meryl Sue, born on February 18 ...

Lines for Memory
There's the story about the palm reader in Germany who was reading a certain Ayran's hand ... "This line shows that you love our Fuhrer and are in favor of our war effort." ... He continued reading every line in his palm with similar interpretations ... Next day the palm reader had his client arrested as a traitor to the Reich ... "But yesterday you said I was a true Nazi," cried the bewildered client ... "Quite true," said the palmist ... "But, in your case, I didn't like what I read BETWEEN the lines." ... That's all for now.

Louie's Delicatessen Has Fresh Meats

It is sound policy to care for your health during the present period of stress and strain, and one of the best guides to certain health is to eat the proper fresh foods.

When you sink your teeth into those delicious-looking sandwiches that make up the best part of your lunch at Louie Sandler's Delicatessen, at 21 Douglas avenue, you can be sure that the meat used is fresh; for on its freshness, tastiness and tenderness, Louie has built a wide patronage.

Germany Admits Killing Prisoners

Argue Jewish Guerillas to Blame

STOCKHOLM—Attempting to justify their killing of Jewish war prisoners, the Nazis in a radio broadcast this week from Berlin alleged that "Jewish units from Biro-Bidjan now fighting on the Crimean front are ignoring the rules of civilized warfare and shooting wounded Germans."

The Nazi broadcast also asserted that Jewish guerillas are sniping at German soldiers. In the Minsk district Nazi military units are still being attacked by Jewish guerillas, the broadcaster said. He disclosed that a German regiment was recently engaged in a fight with the guerillas in the Minsk section, and that as a result of this battle "twenty-two guerillas were killed and sixteen Jews were executed in the city of Bobruisk for assisting the guerillas."

The Moscow radio this week reported that hundreds of bodies of frozen Jews who the Nazis drove to the Soviet front for compulsory labor are being found every day by the advancing Russian troops.

We'll take a bow—with our fingers crossed. . . . These are tense times in the telephone business.

Every day—believe it or not—an average of 123,287 people request information about numbers that are listed in the telephone directory. Takes us 30 seconds to oblige, each time, which means 3,698,610 seconds. . . . 61,643 minutes. . . . 1027 hours practically lost—every day. . . . We can employ more operators, but we can't do much about crowded switchboards, what with priorities on copper, zinc, aluminum, rubber!

The young lady you know as "Information" would never mention these things. Neither would we—in normal times. But these aren't normal times!
