

The War This Week

Manpower Mobilization

Federal Security Administrator McNutt was made Chairman of a nine-man War Manpower Commission to "bring about the most effective mobilization and the maximum use of the nation's manpower." Mr. McNutt said the Commission will establish a labor priorities system to allocate manpower on a voluntary basis.

Foreign Relations

The White House reported Lend-Lease aid amounted to more than $3 billion by the end of March. War supplies sent to Russia in March were two and a half times as great as those sent in February. The State Department said three American ships scheduled to carry food and clothing to France and North Africa are being held here pending clarification of the Vichy situation.

Army and Selective Service

The War Department said organization of 32 new divisions this year is being carried out on schedule. The Department said the Army Medical Corps strength will be doubled to meet demands of the expanded Army. Physicians under 45 years and dentists under 35 will be eligible for commissions as first lieutenants. The Department also announced formation of a new combat force, the Tank Destroyer Command, which will begin training in Texas early this summer.

The Department said it will grant furloughs of 10 days to inductees after their processing at reception centers, if local boards recommend such action for men who need the time to clear up personal affairs. Selective Service Director Hershey said the supply of men classified as 1-A probably will be exhausted by the end of summer and the calling of men of 1-B classification probably will start in the fall.

War Bonds And Stamps

The Treasury said a campaign will be opened May 1 to secure voluntary pledges from all persons in the U. S. to purchase War Savings Bonds and Stamps with at

Discrimination

Although the government has ordered ten industrial firms engaged in the manufacture of war products to cease discriminating against prospective help because of color or race, two outstanding facts are revealed by this command. First, that the United States is still far from having built a solid internal moral front for the principles of democracy and secondly, that in this country, too, the Jews are among the minorities which are made to carry more than their share of the burden for winning the war.

Time and again, the American Jewish Congress Bulletin, reveals, the President has warned against the practice of discrimination in war industries. At present the production of weapons is of greater importance than any other consideration. Cannons manufactured in factories practicing discrimination will shoot with precision; the airplanes will fly and the bombs will explode.

But if such imponderables as morale count in war, the very fact that the industries producing the arms are guilty of crime against the principles which the arms are to defend — this fact is a disheartening commentary on the state of the internal front.

Figures of the last war testify to the contributions of the Jews in blood beyond their proportion in the general population. The same will be true in this war as well. But the young Jewish citizen of America has a right to ask that he be sent to the front without the pain of knowing that the weapons which he is to use are made in factories where he is discriminated against.

The Foreign Language Press

The report that the Government is planning restrictions on foreign-language publications has evoked some little discussion. Of the 1,600 publications there are said to be some 400 appearing in the German, Japanese and Italian languages. The report added that some officials are considering the banning of all publications printed in these three enemy languages.

The reason for such action would be to do away with the

Kansas City Jews Abandon Own Drive; Join Local Fund

KANSAS CITY — One of the most important developments in Jewish communal activity since America entered the war occurred here with the decision by the Kansas City Jewish Welfare Federation to join the city's War Chest for the campaign to be held here in October, abandoning the fundraising effort that would normally have been held in May.

The pressure to unify all drives into one especially those related to war purposes, has been raised by most Jewish communities, with the exception of Lancaster, Pa., in the East. The movement has the official sanction of the Community Chests and Councils, the organization unifying the community chests of the nation.

The Jewish Welfare Federation of Kansas City includes the usual nation and overseas causes such as the United Jewish Appeal as well as the local Jewish center and old aged home. It is understood that its normal goal of $225,000 will be accepted in full toward the quota for all causes, which will include the community chest and Russian, Chinese, and similar relief causes. Kansas City is the first major Jewish community in the nation to combine its Welfare Fund drive with the local War Chest.

Dies at Sea, Just Before Rescue

PHILADELPHIA—Death parted Mrs. Sara Etter and her three-year-old daughter, Miriam, after they had drifted for 13 days in a water-logged lifeboat with 10 other survivors of a torpedoed American cargo-passenger ship. Mrs. Etter, en route to New York from Johannesburg, South Africa, to join her husband, died several hours before a Navy rescue ship reached the U boat victims.

Samuel Etter, a New York restaurant operator, took the child and the body of his wife to the home of his father, Rabbi M. Etter, of Harrisburg, Pa. Navy officials said that Mrs. Etter had died from exposure.

Demand Banning of Social Justice From N. Y. Stands

NEW YORK — Prohibition of the sale of Social Justice at news stands licensed by the city was demanded this week in petitions filed with the Park and License Depts.

Although the weekly, founded by Father Charles E. Coughlin of Detroit, was barred from the mails on April 14, the petitions said, it is still displayed and sold at many news stands.

The petitions were served on officials of the two departments by former Magistrate Joseph Goldstein, on behalf of himself and several others, including Herman Hoffman, grand master of the Independent Order B'Rith Abraham; The Brighton Beach Chamber of Commerce and Civic Assn.; two Baptist ministers and the Conqueror Lodge of the Knights of Pythias.

Social Justice, the petitions assert, contains treasonable and seditious statements and has published incitements to violence against the Jews. Not only is it displayed at many licensed newsstands, the complaints said, but newsstand owners hawk it in a loud, boisterous, provocative manner, insulting and offensive to others."

The departments were asked to issue orders directing the owners of licenses to stop immediately the sale of the magazine "or by any subterfuge, permitting any other person to expose, offer for sale" or in any other manner participate in circulating the publication.

N. Y. Court Rules On Sweeney Case

It's Libel to Call Official Anti-Semitic

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court this week upheld a decision of the Circuit Court which interpreted New York State law as holding it libelous to charge a public official with anti-Semitism. The high tribunal issued no written opinion and was divided 4 to 4 with Justice Jackson not participating. Under such circumstances the action of the court appealed from its confirmed.

New Regulations Curb Profiteering

JERUSALEM — New anti-profiteering defense regulations were issued here this week by the Palestine Government with a view of checking speculation in a large group of commodities.

The regulations provide that no commodity needed by the public or for the efficient prosecution of the war can be sold at a price exceeding "reasonable profit" as compared with pre-war prices. The population is invited to cooperate by notifying the authorities of any case of profiteering.

Utility Fires Five Pro-Nazis

NEWARK, N. J. — Public Service Corp., a powerful utility in New Jersey, has fired five frank supporters of Hitler in this country. Workers of the firm went to the F. B. I. for action — and got it. The plant, one of the largest of its kind in the land supplies gas to a large section of Jersey's war industry.

One of the five men, Herman von Busch, was formerly state secretary-treasurer of the German-American Bund. The others all of whom held significant posts, were: Wilhelm Koehne, chief still operator; John Wilkins, a blower-room operator; George Haag, chief purification operator; Fritz Kunze, general foreman.

Turn Synagogue Into Swimming Pool

ZURICH — The Nazi authorities in Poznan, in the German-annexed section of Poland, have established a swimming pool for Hitler youth in the quarters of the Great Synagogue of Poznan, the Ostdeutscher Beobachter reports this week. Bathing facilities for the general population have also been installed in the synagogue.

Detroit Diocese Refutes Coughlin

Bar Sale of Social Justice

DETROIT — A number of distributors of the anti-Semitic magazine Social Justice were barred this week from their posts in front of many churches, where they usually sold the publication every Sunday, as a result of the announcement by the Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit disavowing the mouthpiece of Father Coughlin.

In order to make clear that Social Justice, which is formally owned by the parents of the radio priest, is not a Catholic paper, the Catholic Archdiocese published an editorial in its organ The Michigan Catholic in which it disassociates itself from the anti-Semitic publication. The editorial reads:

"A Catholic paper is, by definition, one that is published under the supervision of proper church authority. Social Justice is not under such supervision and is, therefore, not a Catholic paper."

Vichy Orders Arrest of Mayor

VICHY — The mayor of the town of Arrovay in occupied France has been arrested on the charge of failing to report to the authorities that three foreign-born Jews were living in his district, it is reported in the Pariser-Zeitung reaching here this week.

The mayor, whose name was not given, was dismissed from his post some time ago because he allegedly "protected" the three Jews.

Report Finns Let Jews Alone

ZURICH — A report from Finland states that the position of the approximately 2,000 Jewish inhabitants of that country has not deteriorated in spite of the anti-Jewish campaign conducted there by new publications started with financial support from Germany. Jews are serving in the Finnish armed forces, and many of them have fallen on the Russian front.

Risk Nazi Ire By Admitting Jews

STOCKHOLM — Despite its precarious position Sweden is showing a bold face to the Nazis by admitting elderly Jewish refugees from Germany at a time when the Nazis have begun new mass deportations of Jews to the East.

Also on the Met stage will be Doc Wheeler and his Sunset Orchestra, as well as Red and Curley sensational dancers, and Moke and Poke.

Do Jews Give? Survey Says Yes

NEW YORK—Data showing the extent of Jewish contributions in America for relief in belligerent countries and for refugees driven out of these countries, as compared with the general contributions raised in America for the same purpose, was made public here this week by Dr. H. S. Linfield, director of the Statistical Bureau of the Synagogue Council.

The data, based on official tabulations released by the State Department in Washington, shows that a total of $60,147,000 was collected in the United States between Sept. 6, 1939 and Nov. 30, 1941. This sum included $6,916,000 received by Jewish organizations, or 11.5 per cent as compared with the fact that Jews constitute 5 per cent of the total population of the country.

But it hardly seems fair to take away the right of expression from people because their language is alien. We all know that many of these papers printed in the language of the enemy is doing a great and loyal job for America.

The Aufbau in New York, printed in German for German refugees, is as anti-Axis and pro-American as the most patriotic English-language newspaper. It seems near-sighted to set language above loyalty.

And as the New York Times added in an editorial this week, there are dozens of papers printed in English which are openly flirting with sedition. From the recent studies of William Dudley Pelley's newspaper and, Coughlin's sheet, one could go further and say there are many English-language papers which are openly seditious.

Why then prohibit the right of expression on the basis of language?—Leader.

Nazis Minimize Ghetto Epidemics

ZURICH — The dreaded typhus epidemics, which took thousands of lives in Jewish ghettos in Poland and the Baltic countries last winter, were dismissed as unimportant by Dr. Conty, highest ranking medical officer in the Nazi army, who stated in an article in the "Voelkischer Boeobachter" that only 3,200 Jews had died during the year as a result of the epidemics.

Apparently the article was written to minimize the extent of the epidemics and to justify the Nazi refusal to take steps to combat the epidemics.

NOTES OF AN INNOCENT BYSTANDER:

The Story Tellers: Because of war-time economic difficulties, some mags have ceased publishing. One of the regrettable casualties is The Living Age ... The Nation's In The Wind Dep't is its zippiest feature ... World Digest reports there are five thousand press agents in America ... And twice as many wastebaskets thank goodness ... Back in June 1931, Gen'l MacArthur wrote a piece for a vet's mag suggesting a draft of 4 million men for army training. Naturally, nobody listened. Hoover was President ... Wm. B. Ziff's new book, due in June, is called "The Coming Battle of Germany." We hear it is dynamite, designed to tumble an avalanche of brass-hat thinking. Duell, Sloan and Pearce will publish. Ziff is the one responsible for the reinstatement of the late Billy Mitchell ... "The Murder That Rocked Broadway" (the Arnold Rothstein affair) in the current True Detective is our favorite murder story.

The Editorial of the Week: (From the Memphis Commercial-Appeal): "Sedition laws need immediate re-examination for the purpose of giving them teeth. There is desperately needed a policy of government which will lump all traitors, seditionists, and subversives, whatever their citizenship status, into one category ... In a total war where internal attack is a chief technique we cannot expect survival from the incongruous and piddling policies the Government now follows in dealing with those who seek its defeat or overthrow ... George Christians (of Chattanooga) a crackpot and a fool? Once they said that of the Nazi paperhanger, who has engineered the greatest revolution and bloodiest conflict in all history ... Let's swap the kid gloves for a pair of brass knuckles!"

The Front Pages: Editor & Publisher's thumbnail editorial: "If it's anything we can't print, you shouldn't be talking about it!" Newsman who used to see convicted Nazi agent Viereck in Washington say that he acted as though he were above and beyond arrest, that he rated himself invulnerable.

A notorious Sixth Columnist argues that writers who pen malicious things about women in public life deserve to be shot... What a fraud! That from the American-counterfeit, who has made a career out of malice. He has written dozens of dishonest pieces about persons in public life, including Mrs. Roosevelt, whose politics his boss opposes. Like a shady lady, he can be hired for an hour or a weekend. Every one of his attacks on Axis enemies in the U.S. is repeated over the short-wave circuits from Berlin, Rome and Tokyo ... If he had any intellectual honesty—he'd shoot himself...

SCRAMBLED EGGS

No matter how little you have you're rich if you envy nobody ... the Indians who sold Manhattan for $21 weren't such goons. It didn't belong to them! The island had to be bought back again from the real owners ... If I owned the paper I'd tell my editorialists, columnists and staff: "Before you write anything always ask yourself the question—'Will it be anything Hirohito, Hitler and Benito would enjoy reading?' ... A scholar tells that the style Time uses is part so modernistic. That some one's literary acrobatics are patterned after Homer's 'Iliad.'

The friends who are most deserving of your favors are those who were your friends before you were in a position to do them any ... Nobody's ever perfectly content. The poor man is often bored, the rich man blasé.

Next time anyone complains about cuffless trousers remind him that they don't wear 'em in the Army and Navy either ... The only actual talent possessed by many celebrities is the knack of getting their names in the papers ... If the late William Rhodes Davis, the oil promoter (he tried to interest the State Dep't in a peace with Hitler) were alive—would he be in the headlines? ... Whatever became of Verne Marshall, the Cedar Rapids editor, who said Davis was his backer in "The No Foreign War Committee" gag? One report had him in a sanitarium—mentally upset, etc.

Joan Edwards says that what the country needs most right now to win the war is a blockade around Japan and fewer blockheads around Washington ... Comes the real blackout what happens to guys carrying torches? ... Nifty cracky draftee: "Well, s' long. Any messages for MacArthur?" ... What we need, too, are more editors like Jack Carley of the Memphis Commercial-Appeal. The way he laid it on that Chattanooga Co. who patterned himself after Hitler ... Boy, how they are being dealt with.

Genuine Thief Steals Coats
In Mock Crime Exhibition

NEW YORK — In cool defiance of science, a thief stole three coats two hats from the cloakroom of the Temple Adath Israel, Bronx, one night last week — during the demonstration of a lie detector machine by M. E. Muniz.

The lights in the basement auditorium were darkened so that the audience of 300 might watch on an enlarged meter, the reactions of the participant in a mock crime. The thief entered the cloakroom under cover of darkness and escaped before the lights were turned up.

Muniz, it might be noted, picked out the guilty person from a group of three who took part in the mock crime. The crime was stealing an object from a bag in full view of the audience, during Muniz's absence from the room.

Post Regrets Offending Jews

To Print Apology In May 16 Issue

Statement Made By New Editor, Hibbs

PHILADELPHIA — The Jews of America were told this week by Ben Hibbs, new editor of the Saturday Evening Post, in advertising space bought by his publication, that he regretted they had been offended by the recent article, "The Case Against the Jew," which was published under the regime of his predecessor, Wesley Winans Stout.

Stout, whose resignation was announced shortly before the article appeared on March 28, was en route to the West and could not be reached. But the advertisement, an editorial by Hibbs which will appear in the May 16 issue, said the magazine had no anti-Semitic prejudice. It added that Stout's purpose in printing the article, written by Milton M. Mayer, had been misunderstood.

Hibbs, without mentioning Stout by name, said that the "former editor" hoped that a frank airing of the Jewish question "would serve to clear the atmosphere in his country and perhaps help prevent anti-Semitism from gaining a foothold here."

"Unhappily," he said, the Mayer article brought the magazine "several thousand letters from people—both Jews and Gentiles—who sincerely believe the article was intended as an attack on the Jewish people."

The magazine, he said, "is not anti any group ... We have always believed that a good American is a good American regardless of race or creed. That this is still our policy will be demonstrated during the months to come by material some of which is already in the process of being written."

Hibbs added that it "is a matter of very real sorrow to the new editor" that "one misunderstood article in the Post could have caused so much anxiety. He regrets, above all, that some hurt may have been done to America at a time when national unity is needed as it never was needed before."

VICTORY SERVICE

At the second in a series of "Victory Services" conducted last Sunday at the Ahavath Shalom Synagogue, special prayers were offered by Private Sidney Cantor for men in the U. S. armed forces. Rabbi Morris G. Silk officiated, while Abraham Smith led the congregation in morning prayers, and Maurice Greenstein conducted the singing.

What's Your Substitute for Thrift

In wartime, substitutes turn up for almost everything.

Even aluminum has a competitor—a new non-metallic material, known mysteriously as Formula C-102, that resists ripping or shattering when struck by bullets. It's one-third lighter than aluminum, and intended to replace the light metal for certain uses.

But never during the history of the human race has there been a substitute for thrift. There's no getting around this fact: to enjoy full value from today's earnings, you should set aside a portion to meet future needs.

Old Colony has a savings program to suit your need, whatever your financial circumstances may be. Find out how you can save as you earn on a weekly, monthly or save-as-you-can basis—while regularly compounded dividends increase the total.

For a Woman's Fancy

By EDYTHE JAY

Pretty soon—some summer day
From routine work, you'll turn to play
And as you shed every everyday care
You'll don yourself with gay things to wear....

For the days when war work and other duties are replaced by the annual summer vacation, Brignance, New York designer, solves the problem of looking smart on every occasion. His summer collection of play clothes, shown last week, outshines any shown to date...

Styled in the native colours of Central America and Mexico, each and every piece is a combination of native costume theme, functional cut and picturesqueness... Mexican wild violet colour is used throughout as solid colouring for fitted linen shorts and wrap-around skirts, in slack suits and in plaid shirts and bathing suit skirts... Tortoise tans and browns are combined with Aztec black and royal blue... Eyelet embroidery is featured as neck and midriff decor, appearing again in cotton shantung to serve as full skirt for a plaid topped bathing suit, or as complementing blouse for black and white striped waffled shorts.

A shawl wrapped bodice, adapted from Guatemalan styles, exists in a three-piece playsuit of rayon sharkskin in yellow and tortoise tan-plumed serpent print...

Scanty bathing suits—bra and shorts — were delicately treated with Pareo draping, this time adapted from the famous suits worn by the Acapulco natives... One is designed in Mexican wild violet for shorts, topped with plaid gingham shawl-wrapped top... Another in green and white scroll print of cotton shantung...

Inspired by the spectacular feats of Mexico City's famous woman bullfighter is Muleta draping... This was shown in a bathing suit hip length top of ground flower print in rayon crepe and skirt of royal blue rayon Celbrook over matching shorts...

Marimba Rhythms, as Brignance

Bizarre prints in vivid hues are the keynotes of swim suits for the approaching season... Ann Rutherford here provides a pretty perfect picture of how to keep cool in a pool...

has titled his collection, are sincerely exciting... They stress bold, uninhibited native colourings, as well as free and easy motion for playtime...

The authentic matador play shoes in red, tan or black were shown with the costumes, along with a variety of chichicastenango sandals made for the designer by a native cobbler...

This collection is the last by Brignance for the "duration," as he has enlisted in the armed forces...

Scene Around Town

By HENRY DAVIS

Carnivals, as a means of raising funds, have become a war casualty ... Temples Emanuel and Beth Israel have given up their annual affairs ... We hear this week that in forthcoming issues of the Saturday Evening Post, the magazine will publish articles by eminent Americans, stressing the contributions of all our minority ... The war story of the week is about the Japanese spy who sent a message back to Tokyo reporting that Americans were becoming pessimistic, "Things Very Bad In U. S." the spy hopefully assured ... "Big Food Shortage. Shortage So Bad, Everybody Walk Around, and Say 'What's Cookin'?" ...

Localia

The Harold Golden's of Woonsocket have a second son, born last Friday at Lying-In Hospital ... The mother was formerly Evelyn Bernstein ... The number of young men around town is dwindling rapidly ... This week, Philip Shaulson was inducted into the army ... The Benjamin Medwinsky are proud parents of a baby girl born on Tuesday night at Miriam Hospital ... Selma Schlossberg, daughter of the Joe Schlossbergs was the only Jewish girl presenting a paper on biology at the Third Annual Biological Conference of Eastern New England Colleges, held last Saturday at Brown University ... Temple Beth El's Brotherhood Bowling League is planning a dinner dance to conclude their season, on May 5 at the Narragansett Hotel ...

Arm of The Law

The Washington Grand Jury, which has called Father Coughlin, will issue indictments shortly against Rev. Winrod, Baxter, Hudson and others of the hate group ... And here's the most recent story about that sinister figure, Laval ... A newcomer from France tells the incident of Pierre Laval's "favorite" who asked him to buy her some silver foxes ... Laval expressed regret, and said he didn't have enough money for the foxes ... "But you can get the money," she reminded him, "from that Special Fund the Government has set aside for you ..." "That Special Fund," said Laval, tapping his chest, "is only for this fox" ... his hat brim turned up in the front if he's married, down at the back if he's a widower and tipped down at the side if he's a bachelor ... Our stock of news is slim this week, so we'll close with the following instance of wartime humor: A southern lady, one of the 200% Americans, wanted to show off her contributions to the war effort ... "I want to entertain a number of soldiers at my home," she wrote to the commander of the local military camp, "but please send me no Jews." ... On the appointed evening ten Negro soldiers appeared in the lady's waiting room ... The Southern society lady was taken aback ... "There must have been some mistake," she wailed ... "Oh, no, lady," one of the Negro soldiers said, "Col. Ginzberg never makes any mistakes" ... That's all for now ..

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

May 1, 1942

TO THE CITIZENS OF AMERICA:

This month a new campaign for the sale of War Bonds and Savings Stamps is under way throughout the Nation. It is the War Bond Quota Campaign.

It is urgently necessary that you double the rate at which you are buying War Bonds and Stamps. This will mean the sale direct to individual Americans of War Bonds and Stamps to the amount of not less than one billion dollars every month.

One billion dollars a month is the National quota. It is equal to one-tenth the combined incomes of all Americans.

This money is needed to buy the tools of war for your fighting forces. It will not pay for all of them. Our war expenditures now are at the rate of about 700 MILLIONS a month, and they are growing daily. But a billion dollars a month direct from the people will make all-out production possible. Without it we cannot do our best; without it we cannot put forth our full effort.

It is desperately needed for another reason. We can't fight a war and at the same time live and spend as usual. There are not enough goods to go around — the things we buy with money. If we go on spending at the 1941 scale, we'll be robbing the fighting men to add to our own comfort or pleasure. We'll be driving up the cost of living for all of us. We'll be imposing dire hardships on our neighbors.

What is asked of you is ten per cent of your earnings — a little for liberty. It is not a tax; it is not even a contribution; it is a loan at interest, for your use and protection later.

Dear Government asks you to cut down your expenditures, DO BUY — your boys on the firing line and in the training camps, through your Government, ask you to save so that they may have what they need to win OUR WAR for you — America asks you to save; to SAVE TO WIN THE WAR; to buy War Bonds and Stamps up to not less than ten per cent of your income.

Is liberty worth 10¢? Is Democracy worth 10¢? Is America worth 10¢? I think I know your answer.

Sincerely,

H. Morgenthau Jr.

The above letter was sent to this newspaper by Secretary Morgenthau in Washington. We publish it in the interest of the War Bond Quota Campaign and earnestly recommend that all our readers do their share in the tremendous job ahead of financing the War effort.

Vote Slackers

The Illinois primary should be a warning to Rhode Island citizens. Preoccupation with war work, with spring farming, with still other things, resulted in a startling decrease in the Illinois vote. Although there are more than 4,000,000 eligible voters, only about 1,800,000 went to their polling places. This was 500,000 fewer than in the primary two years ago and 700,000 fewer than in the 1938 primary.

This is the period for registration of voters in our state. The response has been apathetic. Our citizens would protest violently if the right of voting were taken from them. Yet what right have they to it, if they do not use it? It's every citizen's duty to see to it that he can vote in the November elections. Register today!

Do You?

When someone says: "It's Roosevelt's fault we're in this war"—do you say: "That's what Hitler claimed in his speech that announced the Nazi declaration of war on the United States?"

When someone says: "We ought to get out of the Far East, anyway, instead of sending our soldiers over there"—do you point out that that is exactly what the enemy wants the United States to do?

When someone says: "Britain is fighting an imperialist war and has managed to drag the United States in for British interests"—Do you remind him that the Nazis told France that this was Britain's war, and then conquered France?

Whenever anyone relays rumors, spreads allegedly humorous stories or sayings, or asks questions designed to arouse suspicion of the Government or America's allies—do you spike the rumor, uncover the nefarious intent of the seemingly harmless joke, point out the innuendo in the question, and show how all these are subtle devices of the

Dennis Refused Army Commission

WASHINGTON — Lawrence Dennis, who published a book in 1936 advocating a Fascist government in the United States and who has since been associated with various Fascist movements, has been refused commission by the U. S. Army, it was disclosed here by the War Department.

Publisher of the pro-Nazi and anti-Semitic "Weekly Foreign Letter," Dennis applied for a commission in the Army's special police force shortly after Pearl Harbor and was declared eligible by Army officials two months later. Nation-wide condemnation followed the news that the Army was considering the Fascist leader for a commission.

Cite Reverend Curran as Example

NEW YORK — The creation of a central Government Bureau for the purpose of coordinating and stimulating the investigation of American subversive agents and movements in the United States and of conducting a militant defense of the institutions of Democracy, undermined as a result of nine years of totalitarian propaganda, as yet uncurbed, was urged as a preliminary to winning the peace, by the American Jewish Congress at a dinner at the Hotel Astor, marking the 25th anniversary of its founding.

Lack of such coordination is responsible today, it was stated, for the fact that American agents of the totalitarian powers are still at large and to be found in essential defense industries, and for the fact that a serious depletion of man power in defense industries is the result of economic discrimination brought about by this propaganda.

Reverend Edward Lodge Curran, of Brooklyn, Father Coughlin's representative in the East, was cited as an example of a powerful subversive agent who is being permitted to continue his propaganda, even among those groups who are entrusted with the defense of our people, and particularly the Police Department of New York City.

KUIBYSHEV—A Jewess named Kaganyeva is the latest heroine of the Soviet press, which has, since the beginning of the war, singled out Jews and Jewesses for praise and heroism against the Nazis.

The woman, a member of a rifle detachment on the Russian-German front, has been proclaimed the finest rifle shot in her regiment. She had distinguished herself first when she was a member of an anti-air-raid Civil Defense group.

INNOCENT BYSTANDER:

Haw! Phil Baker tells about the six-year-old who was tugging a suitcase down Central Park West. The corner cop stopped her and asked where she was going.

"My Daddy and Mummy were having a fight," explained the child. "Mummy told Daddy to go to Timbuctoo, and Daddy told Mummy to go some place else. So I left home—nobody's sticking ME with any two-year-lease!"

Forecast for 1942: From Jay Franklin's column in Richmond, Va.; "Walter Winchell will cease to write about Cafe Society because it won't exist. Walter Lippmann will write the best columns of his life and nobody will read them. Mark Sullivan will be drafted into Government service to help administer the nationwide food-stamp plan. Dorothy Thompson will fight it out with Clare Boothe Luce for the role of Julia Ward Howe or Florence Nightingale. David Lawrence will continue to do his stuff so long as he can find papers to print it, after which he will join the USO and work in a canteen. Raymond Clapper will gain in courage and, breaking with Roy Howard, will emerge as a real columnist."

Morning Mail: "Dear Walter: So chorus girls never become famous—just notorious, eh? The Winchell you say! How about Ruby Keeler, Barbara Stanwyck, Virginia Bruce, Gladys Glad, Ina Claire and Joan Crawford? Go stand in a corner, but don't get me wrong. I'm a former Hellzapoppin' chorine, and I have good reason to be nuts about W.W.—Margie Young, Banjo Eyes."

THERE ARE MANY examples of clever headline-writing. We think this is one of the best: When John Masefield arrived here from England where he was poet laureate, he refused to grant newspaper men an interview ... So one evening paper ran this streamer: "King's Canary Refuses to Chirp"—which made a better story than the interview could have been.

From the editorial page of the N. Y. Post: "If Adolf Hitler captured Our Town, which are the first ten New Yorkers he would hang? ... Certain names will spring to your mind at once. Dorothy Thompson? Walter Winchell?"

Ladies first, of course.

Capt. Patrick Smith, whose articles on Japan were of great benefit to the U. S., is now an American and ready for any service the country wishes ... Salute to the National Maritime Union: The one Union whose members do more than work for the country. They die for it! Banjo Eyes": Leona Olsen of the chorus and Ben Bernie's boy, Jason, have called the whole thing spinach ... J. Dorsey's manager and the chief arranger bare-fisted it this week ... A foreign playboy, who told the El Morocco, Stork, Fife's and other debbies he was from Holland, was collared by the FBI as a Berliner ... Spring is really here. All 3 handcheck gals at Iceland became brides last week.

Gosh, Yes! Al Bernie says you hear so little of John Nance Garner you'd think he was still Vice-President!

Journalism's biggest laugh in a long time came when Sec'y Knox's paper published a competitor's personal letter to a reader. In which the rival boasted of many things he claimed he did in the interest of the nation ... Knox's paper played up the concealed letter with the headline: "Whatta Man!" ... When Knox saw it he was disappointed ... "The sing 'Whatta Man!' was not so good," he said ... "It should have said: 'And On The Seventh Day He rested!'"

Sounds in the Night: At La Goga: "A bore is a guy who wraps up a two-minute idea in a two-hour vocabulary" ... At Iceland. Since we have MacArthur and so many Yanks there, why don't they call it U.S.A.?" ... At Roseland: "Hey, where has Ripley been all your life?" ... In the Cub: "He's gotten to a point in his career where the only way you can insult him is to ignore him" ... At La Martinique: "Frustrated? She's practically strangling from her halo" ... At Spivey's: "It's one of those improbable things. Like Tallulah getting stage fright" ... In the Hickory House: "She uses her eyebrow pencil to draw little question marks over her eyes" ... In the 1-2-3: "The gay life's worn her out—like a piece of used confetti" ... In Versailles: "You can't have everything. Even a friendly slap on the back has its sting."

Tee-Hee: Elsa Maxwell, the nicest blimp in town, approached a Rainbow Room table group. Maestro Leo Reisman greeted her with: "Where have you been all these weeks?"

"Helping the Gov't design some new tanks," explained Elsa.

"Really?" meow'd a deb, "I didn't know you'd taken up modeling."

Jimmy Walker says: "The Freedom of the Press is too often confused with the freedom of the publisher."

Baltimore Man Spends Own Money to Sell Bonds

BALTIMORE, MD.—Novel ideas aplenty have been evolved to stimulate the purchase of war bonds and stamps, but LeRoy Lipman, member of Baltimore Menorah Lodge of B'nai B'rith is probably the first man to give away $2,500 of his own money in 25-cent war savings stamps as part of a one-man campaign that is expected to net Uncle Sam $187,500 in war bonds.

Last week Ben B'rith Lipman bought 10,000 25-cent war savings stamps which he has distributed free to people with a war savings stamp book. All that he asked in return was a promise that each person who received a stamp would fill up the book and convert the stamps into an $18.75 bond.

Junior Hadassah
To Honor Mothers

Mother of Junior Hadassah members will be honored at a regular meeting of that organization to be held on Monday evening in the Castle Room of the Biltmore Hotel.

At that time, Mrs. Morris Sheen, past president of Senior Hadassah, will appear as guest speaker. During the evening, entertainment in song will be presented by Mrs. Gertrude Hirschberg Rotenberg, accompanied at the piano by Miss Pearl Wasserman.

Arrangements are being furthered by Junior Hadassah for its annual Donor Dinner, to be held on June 11. Miss Ruth S. Cohen and Miss Bella Kanopy are co-chairmen.

Mount Rainier has snow all the year round.

KOVOD SOCIETY MEETING
David Tanger, president of the Kovod Society of the Jewish Community Center, has called a special meeting of the group for next Wednesday night, at which time outstanding young people at the Center, and adults in the community will be selected for membership in the honor society. Preliminary plans for next season's program will be outlined.

For a Woman's Fancy

By EDYTHE JAY

They don't want a vacation
They've a job that must be done
College girls are an inspiration
They're all-out for victory — every one! ...

Young America likes to work, especially when there is need for service ... This department, champion for women, went on an information tour t'other day, to discover what local college girls are going to be doing this summer in a world that invites and needs help from everyone with good purpose ...

Well, here's the story ... Most of the girls, busy with volunteer war jobs that fill what used to be leisure time, have little more than a month to go to the end of the spring term and the beginning of a three and a half month summer holiday ... But they don't want it ... They want to stay on the job this summer, continue their war work and concentrate on courses that will prepare them to be more efficient citizens ...

They want to be ready to give more effective contributions to the war effort ... The change in their attitude has been amazing; each is much more serious minded ...

They will study the marketing and preparation of food and the elements of nutrition ... Business courses will include speed-writing ... Typing also will be taught ... Financial guidance will make clear all those mysteries of business practice, explain how to handle the family income and keep the bank account straight ...

Among other courses in one school will be interior decorating from a budget basis, another on radio speaking ... French and Spanish have been suggested, will be included if there is sufficient demand ... The standard Red Cross first-aid course will be available at various summer schools...

Said one of the instructors: "It is my hope that out of this wartime summer studying will grow a permanent year-round school year ... I don't minimize the importance of vacations for health's sake and would not abolish them, merely shorten them ... But I believe that if young people engaged in longer periods of study, they would be healthier in body, spirit and mind."

In tune with the times, numerous married students, wed to men in the service, are returning to school ... Admirable, this ... It shows how serious they are about their work ...

And so you see, all is not glamor that glitters ... Their hair may be long and dripping over one eye, their mouths may be flashes of the newest lipstick red, but girls this year are not skylocks ... They're not flying away high or trying to escape a thing ...

Colleges right now may seem to be brooding sleepily in spring sunlight, making ready for a fabulously lazy summer of inactivity ... The ivy may climb undisturbed, blinding windows to the green fire of other new leaves ... Pigeons, busy on the roof, may seem unaware that there's a new world.

Little do they know how different will things be this summer 1942 ... Behind the stretch of those brick walls, there'll be no hushed, shadowy summer gloom, ... replacing the summer ghosts of students, will be honest-to-gosh real people, adjusting themselves to a new era ...

Estimate Hitler's Income, 80 Million

LONDON — Hitler has an income of 200,000,000 Reichsmarks ($80,000,000), the British estimate, derived from royalties on "Mein Kampf," profits from the Verlag Zentral publications and the "Adolph Hitler contributions."

What interests the British most, however, is the tax Hitler would have to pay on this income if he were a British subject. Lindley Fraser, a BBC commentator, figured it out at 97 per cent.

"But there is no comparable tax return in England," Fraser said, "because there is nobody here with even a twentieth of the income Hitler enjoys."

Scene Around Town

By HENRY DAVIS

A Providence lass, who has more than a luke-warm interest in a lad serving with the U. S. Army in Australia, has been piqued about the news dispatches from that continent about the soldiers' interest in Australian girls ... She therefore sent the following radiogram to him: "Just what have the Australian girls got that I haven't got?" ... The soldier replied, "Nothing ... Only, they've got it here" ... Now for something more serious, Maurice Stollerman spoke on "The Child in the Community," before the Lions Club this week. The Jewish Family Welfare Society will make an important announcement some time this month.

Local looks

Evelyn Fowler is flying to New York this week-end for a visit ... The Samuel Finegolds are resting from it all at the Ambassador at Atlantic City ... Irving Brainson and Joe Roberts were inducted into the Army this week.

First notice of summer vacations arrived this week with the announcement that Morty Zietz will represent the Berkshire Country Club in Wingdale, New York ... From Bill Bajar comes the story about one of his assistant air raid wardens in the last black-out, who noticed that one of the houses in his district wasn't blacked out. "But it's the smallest light I've got," the tenant protested "What do you want me to do—sit in the dark?" ...

No Dull Moments

Joe Finkle has been on the go for the past few weeks on behalf of B'nai B'rith ... Last Sunday evening, he installed officers of the new Atteleboro lodge ... The week before, he officiated at the installation of officers of the Kent Lodge at the West Warwick Country Club ... This weekend, he and Dr. Carl Jagolinzer will attend the Spring conference of the Central New England B'nai B'rith lodges and auxiliaries at the Hotel Bancroft in Worcester ... Here's another story, as told by Leonard Lyons, about a newcomer to Washington, who has been confused by the maze of activities there ... He phoned his hotel and told the clerk: "At 5:30 P. M. I want you to get me a blonde, a violin, a piece of wood and a book of Enigma stories" ... "But why such an assortment?" asked the clerk ... "Because by the time I get through a day in Washington," he signed, "I don't know whether I want to fiddle, whittle or riddle" ...

Purse Verse

From the office of Price Administration, comes the following advice in verse:

Mrs. Hoarder
You're out of order

It doesn't pay
To hoard away
It's best to buy
From day to day
Our Harbor

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the Jewish Welfare Board was observed at the chapels of Fort Adams and Fort Wetherell on a recent Saturday night ... Services were conducted by Rabbi Morris Gutstein of Newport, in cooperation with the chaplains of the Harbor Defenses of Narragansett Bay ... The Jewish War Vets did a nice job locally in raising their quota for the pursuit planes, the National organization is presenting to the Army ... Bill Matzner has been nominated for the presidency of the Beth El Brotherhood ... That's all for now
