

The War This Week

Progress of the War

Admiral William D. Leahy, the President's Chief of Staff, in a radio broadcast August 9 marking the first anniversary of the Atlantic Charter, said "This war will probably be long. It will be the toughest, hardest, most merciless war we have ever fought. It calls for the united power of every American, in uniform and out of uniform, on the firing line and on the production line... I have no doubt of America's decision."

In a general review of the war situation, the Office of War Information said June production of military planes fell slightly behind schedule, despite the fact that the U. S. made more planes than any other country in the world. The same was true of tanks, of most types of artillery, and of Naval vessels, the OWI said. Because of enemy submarine activity, the Office said, it probably will be well into 1943 before we equal merchant shipping as of December 7, 1941.

Transportation

The Office of Defense Transportation said approximately 4,000,000 school children who ride daily in 93,000 school busses will be affected by ODT's order to reorganize all school bus services. The plan calls for staggered bus schedules and denies special bus service for students who have less than two miles to walk to school (with certain exceptions) and where areas are serviced by public carrier routes.

The WPB approved the proposal of Henry J. Kaiser, shipbuilder, to construct 500 70-ton cargo-carrying planes, patterned after the flying boat "Mars" built for the Navy. The program is contingent, however, "upon our being able to do it without interfering with the present combat plane program," WPB Chairman Nelson said. Army Air Forces Commander Arnold said at present 21 percent of all Army Air Forces multi-engined plane production is being devoted to transport planes, and the program calls for this proportion to be raised to 30 percent in 1943.

Payroll Plan

The Payroll War Savings Plan, inaugurated and supported by the United States Treasury Department and now being installed throughout Rhode Island, is a worthy project. Realizing its importance in the United States Government's "all-out" war effort, the Herald recommends highly its installation wherever possible. It has the endorsement of labor and management alike, is easy to administer, and is a very important patriotic duty.

Over twelve hundred firms in Rhode Island have the plan in operation at this time, with every degree of success. Indications that the plan is sweeping the nation are evident from a Washington report showing that seventy thousand firms, large and small, with a total of twenty-five million employees, have it in vogue. The number is swelling hourly. It can be applied and adapted to every reputable business concern in the country. It is our hope that the concerns in this city which have not yet enrolled will subscribe without further delay. Its objective is at least 90% participation by employees and 10% of the gross payroll.

The Payroll War Savings Plan is a convenient and systematic method by which wage-earners of America may regularly purchase War Savings Bonds. In short, it is simply a bookkeeping arrangement whereby an employee authorizes his employer to withhold a definite amount from his wages each pay period, the deductions being accumulated to the credit of an employee for the purchase of a bond, arrangements are made for obtaining the bond and delivering it to him.

The Rhode Island War Savings Staff, committed to the installation of this plan, is doing a splendid job in the State, and the Herald advocates its every support.

War breeds many investigations. But here's one probe that we'd like to start—that of Magistrate P. Levis, of New York. Rumanian Jews Forced into Army ZURICH — Certain categories of Jews in Rumania will be forced to serve with the Rumanian Army under new instructions issued this week by the Ministry for War, it was announced this week on the Bucharest radio.

The Rumanian broadcaster stated that the Minister of War had directed that all Jewish doctors, pharmacists, engineers and architects in the country will henceforth be required to serve ninety days in a "civilian capacity" with the army. Heretofore, all Jews in Rumania have been excluded from serving in the army and have been forced to pay a large tax in lieu of service.

Refugees to Get Lease-Lend Aid

LONDON — A promise that Polish refugees in Russia — among whom are many Jews — will continue to receive food, clothing and medicine on a lease-lend basis from the United States has been given to Jan Stanczyk, Polish Minister of Social Welfare by Edward Stettinius, American Lease-Lend administrator, it was announced here this week in Dziennik Polski, official organ of the Polish Government in Exile.

Pope's Appeal Will Help French Jews

BERNE, Switzerland — Leading Catholic clergymen in France with the support of the Pope, have made a serious appeal to the Vichy government in an effort to alleviate the condition of the Jews and curtail an anti-Semitic program, it was reported this week, but indications in reliable foreign quarters were that deportations to the East, at least of foreign Jews, would continue.

The Papal Nuncio himself was said to have seen Chief of State Petain, and a delegation of French clergy appealed to Chief of Government Laval and Fernand de Brinon, Vichy emissary in Paris, their efforts being spurred by the

Calls British Step A Polite Diversion

NEW YORK — Announcement by the British Secretary for War in London that Jewish infantry battalions are to be organized as part of a Palestinian regiment was welcomed here as "a marked advance" by the American Emergency Committee for Zionist Affairs, on behalf of the organized Zion movement in this country.

In the statement the Committee stated that "the Jews of Palestine and the Jewish Agency will continue their efforts to ensure that all available Jewish manpower there is utilized, equipped and trained on the basis of equality with that of other peoples fighting the Axis powers."

The statement approved the fact that "the Jewish infantry companies which had been previously mobilized on a restricted and irregular basis will now be incorporated into battalions" and that "the limitation that Jewish companies may be raised only to the extent that Arabs enlist, is now discarded". Hope was also

Biro-Bidjan Jewish Workers Drilled for Russian Army

KUIBYSHEV — Thousands of Jewish workers in the Jewish autonomous region of Biro-Bidjan in the Far Eastern section of the Soviet Union are training feverishly awaiting the call to battle, according to information reaching here this week.

Immediately after the normal day's work is completed the Jewish workers gather at the training fields where experienced Red Army instructors drill them in the tactics of defensive and offensive warfare. Those tactics which have met great success in fighting at the front are studied carefully and practiced by the trainees. They are being hardened to meet all eventualities that might be encountered when they arrive at the front. As one instructor put it, they are being trained not only to be good soldiers but to perform heroic exploits.

The terrain of Biro-Bidjan furnishes many advantages for the training of soldiers. There are vast expanses of level fields, hilly country, steep mountain trails and many rivers. Outside the limits of the capital city of Biro-Bidjan, itself, hundreds of young Jews can be seen drilling daily in the open ground and marshes along the Taiga river.

The double responsibility that faces the Jews of Biro-Bidjan—as citizens of a nation at war with Germans and as Jews upon whom the Nazis have visited their worst atrocities—was emphasized in an address delivered to the trainees by Col. Boris Heyman, one of the officers in command.

Polish Jews May Serve United Unit

LONDON — The emigre Polish National Council has amended the National regulations that affect Polish citizens, including hundreds of Jews, to serve in the Governments or the armed forces of any of the United Nations.

The order affects favorably hundreds of Polish Jews in England who sought enlistment with the British armed forces. The amendment stipulates that a Polish national who wishes to serve in a military unit of one of the United Nations, must secure permission from the exiled Polish Government, releasing him from his obligation in the Polish Army.

Jews Banned From Paris Main Streets

GENEVA — Paris newspapers reaching here this week report that Jews will no longer be allowed to appear on the main streets of the city, especially on Champs Elysees and the Grand Boulevards. Similarly, they will be forbidden to enter certain large department stores and moving pictures houses in Paris.

A number of cafes in the Jewish section of Paris near the city hall have been ordered to put out a sign "For Jews Only" in order to make it clear that no "Aryan" is to enter there, the French press reports.

Sen. Mead Joins Jewish Committee

NEW YORK — U. S. Senator James M. Mead of New York has joined the Committee for a Jewish Army of Stateless and Palestinian Jews, it was announced this week by G. A. Wechsler, National Secretary of the Committee.

Senator Mead, in joining the Committee, said, "For years we made the mistake of trying to compromise with our democratic ideals. Today, we are repeating that mistake. We are not fully mobilizing our moral resources... Less appeasement and more vision, less fear and more courage—these are the urgent needs of the moment. And there in Palestine is one vital instance where we can demonstrate such statesmanship and vision and courage."

Send $10,000 For Defense Work

NEW YORK — The Pioneer Women's Organization this week cabled $10,000 to the Working Women's Council in Palestine for immediate defense measures necessitated by the emergency situation on the Middle Eastern Front. The funds will be utilized for the protection of children, their removal to safety zones, the support of agricultural training farms for women and assistance to the families of men in the armed services.

Brewery Employees Hit War Bond HighR. F. Haffenreffer Issues Report

Rising at the rate of well over a million dollars monthly, a swelling tide of war bond purchases by the country's 55,000 brewing company employees reached a total of $13,390,429 by July first. The total has just been announced by R. F. Haffenreffer, chairman of the board of the Narragansett Brewing Company, Cranston, R. I., who is Chairman of District No. 1 of the industry's War Savings Committee. His district, embracing Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, and New Hampshire, has contributed $396,101 of the total.

"We feel," said Mr. Haffenreffer, "it can be said, in view of this magnificent record, that brewing industry workers, for the most part, are exceeding the Government's request for war bond subscriptions equalling at least 10 per cent of their wages and salaries. On a per capita basis, $13,390,429 represents an average contribution of $253 per worker. "It would not surprise me at all," stated Mr. Haffenreffer, "that the record of nearly 13½ millions in war bond subscriptions thus far credited to the wage earning and salaried personnel of 344 breweries, leads the entire field of American industry with respect to the average amount of bonds acquired by the individual worker."

 recent arrests in the Paris area of about 3000 Jews.

The Nuncio conveyed, it was said, a Papal expression of regret at sweeping measures under which Jews are deported, presumably for the German work program.

Pétain was reported to have sought the assurance of the German occupation authorities that only non-French Jews would be deported, as has been the general practice thus far.

Foreign observers thought it likely that this policy would continue, with arrests of French Jews being avoided for the most part.

expressed that "the failure to give the Jewish units full training and equipment will now be remedied".

"At the same time it is impossible to understand," the Committee's comment continued, "that the battalions, when formed, should not be organized into the normal military brigade formations; also that the 10,000 Palestine Jews at present scattered in various military service companies (apart from the infantry companies) are not to be included in the new Jewish battalions that will remain as scattered and unrelated units. Essentially the refusal to grant to the Jews of Palestine proper recognition and status remains," it concludes.

Rationing

The OPA said it is planning a universal ration book to be put into the hands of every American, as part of its machinery to handle rationing of many commodities, which do not require rationing at present. The Office said traveling salesmen will not be permitted more than a B ration book in addition to their A books.

Army

The Army announced formation of two completely airborne divisions, consisting of about 3,000 men each, to be stationed initially at Camp Clairborne, La. The War Department said more than 7,000 Volunteer Officer Candidates (men classified as 3-A who volunteer for officer training) have been inducted into service. The Department said in a short time it will place orders for large quantities of wool cloth which will call for most of the domestic wool clip now available.

The content of Elisberg's discourse didn't bother the F.B.I., so it probably was harmless — merely blowing off steam. The principle involved is more important than Elisberg's 30 day term. Magistrate Levis should explain his stand.

This Is the Army!

(A contribution by the all-soldier cast of Irving Berlin's great show at the Broadway theater—for the army emergency fund.)

When one of the boys gave his regimental pin to a girl she demanded to know what the motto "Volens et Potens" meant. He explained: "Willing and able" ... She returned it pronto ... The 33rd Armored Regiment at Camp Polk call their tanks "Hitler Hearses" ... The Yank of 1942 isn't called a doughboy ... He's "Red Legs" ... There's a 50-Year-Old Club at Camp Roberts. The men in it are over 50—all volunteers since Pearl Harbor—going in as buck privates, although many were former officers and non-coms.

Soldiers purchase lots of finger-nail polish—but not for their nails ... It keeps their buttons shiny and is the perfect remedy for chigger bites ... At the Indio Desert training center the lads are often rationed only one gallon of water daily for all purposes, including drinking, washing, bathing. To condition them for the real thing.

Contrary to popular legend, it is against Army regulations to give a soldier K. P. duty as punishment ... At Camp Berkeley the chap who instructs in the art of jujitsu is Harry Morimoto, an American-Japanese ... In the Army nurses are as Snow-whites ... Soldiers insist that uniforms come in only two sizes—too large and too small.

Personal checks cannot be cashed in the Army without the company commander's okay ... When Paul, the son of the late financier, Andrew Mellon, went to the c. o. at Fort Riley to get approval for a $100 check, the c. o. said: "This is a pretty big check for a private to write. How do I know it is good?" ... "It oughta be," said Paul, "I own the controlling interest in the bank."

The Indians have supplied more volunteers to the Army than any other racial group ... When they first learned of selective service they came to register with their own weapons ... The average soldier drinks four cups of coffee a day ... G. W., who fathers the "Our Fighting Men" dept in Collier's, calls the U. S. Armored division the Anzers ... Because they are the answers to Hitler's Panzers ... A jeep is also a nickname for a rookie.

Field Marshal Herman Goering's kin is Werner George Goering of the U. S. Army ... Can't wait, he says, to drop a bomb on his relative ... In our Army a private can prefer charges against a colonel, and if a corporal sees a captain conducting himself in a manner "unbecoming an officer and gentleman" he can have him put in the guard-house ... The name for woolen underwear is "superman drawers."

When a private at Randolph Field comes to a non-com with a complaint he is handed a mourning-bordered card which says "Your trials and tribulations have broken my heart. They are unique. I have never heard of anything like them before. As proof of my deepest sympathy, I give you this card which entitles you to one hour of condolence."

Fort Riley's newspaper, The Guidon, has an advice-to-the-lovelorn column. "Betty Lou" signs it. Betty Lou is the nom de plume for a pair of privates ... For every fighting man in the Army there must be five other soldiers to feed, clothe and supply him ... Unless a rookie is smart, he can be trapped into volunteering for unpopular chores. The big gag in the Army concerns the sgt. who approached a bunch of men at play and asked them if any were good at shorthand ... A dozen newcomers, angling for soft snaps, eagerly stepped forward ... "Fine," said the sarge, "report to the kitchen, we're short of K. P's!" ... The phone number of the Negro Enlisted Men's Service Club at Camp Bowie is, oddly enough—711.

Army men always titter derisively when in the movies a sentry says: "Halt! Who Goes There?" ... The correct challenge is: "Halt! Who's There?" ... A letter from a girl is called "a sugar report" ... There's no favoritism in the Army ... Even chaplains must undergo five weeks of training at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana.

Soldiers do not rate preferred treatment over civilians. They cannot buy shaving cream or toothpaste at their post exchanges without turning in a used tube ... At Camp Davis the mimeographed directive given to men in the 96th Coast Artillery (for handling of the wire cable winch on army trucks) warns that the apparatus is "as temperamental as Greta Garbo, and treating it carelessly is like asking Lana Turner, to scrub the kitchen floor" ... The men treat it with great affection and care.

Find List of U. S. Jews on Nazi Alien

PHILADELPHIA — A list of names of noted American Jews was found in the possession of one of the 150 German aliens seized by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation here this week.

Hundreds of names were listed including occupation, any public office, each name held and the names of close friends or associates. The list found on a chart in the home of one of those arrested indicated criminal intentions, inasmuch as next to some of the names words had been scraped off with a sharp instrument. The FBI announced that it may be able to restore some of the deletions to legibility.

Scores Commit Suicide Daily

BERN — The Velodrome d'Iver, a bicycle track near Paris, is so tightly packed with arrested Jews that the internees find it impossible even to stretch their legs, the Paris correspondent of the Social Democratic Bern newspaper, Tagwacht, reported this week. The Swiss correspondent writes: "The famed Velodrome d'Iver is now packed with the most miserable human beings of both sexes. It is impossible for them to stretch their legs, nor have they room to lie down and sleep. They must stand in line for hours when they wish to use the lavatory." He confirmed the reports that scores of Jews committed suicide when Gestapo agents came to seize them. "Between July 15 and 25 we went through hell," [the correspondent states. Many cases came to my knowledge where women and their children jumped from windows. But this did not deter the Nazis. The arrests continued.]

"SRO" Signs Take Over At All Maternity Hospitals

Have you ever seen a "Standing Room Only" sign waving in the breeze outside a hospital? Well, apparently, it's the vogue. Filled to capacity, maternity hospitals have taken reservations as far as eight months in advance. Statisticians believe that there will be 2,500,000 babies born in 1942. That is around a quarter million over the mark for 1939, when World War II began. This rate is expected to drop markedly when the men go "across" in large numbers.

As myth has it, there are more boy babies born during "la guerre", but that is purely coincidental. Foreign affairs have no say in the matter. The ratio varies, from time to time, but not with the war, and the overall ration is strikingly steady... 106 boys to 100 girls.

The dresses that we can start wearing now through fall, are being shown to us in over fussy styles. Satin bows, and much spaghetti looping put them in a class that offers comparably little wearing possibilities.

Smart shopping, particularly these days, means looking at clothes from a long-range point of view. Simple styles aren't as tiring as fancy ones, and not only that, they can be worn on more occasions than the very dressy styles, and they provide a simple back-ground for changes.

"Now, aren't you sorry you went without stockings? Your brand new shoes, completely ruined on the inside. Serves you right, why, when I was a girl..." On and on mother raves, but the damage is done. What to do about perspiration-soiled shoes?

In New York, a clinic has been opened recently, and among other things, it has a special service to the stockingless.

Over 200 sun or lotioned-hosed patriots have limped in since the service was installed about 8 weeks ago.

The firm will take the linings out of any shoes and replace them with complete fabric linings which absorb perspiration, and are easy on the feet.

Fabric linings made of cotton drill or satin, white or pale blue, soft, are smooth and pliable. They will not corrode or rub harshly against the feet, this firm declared.

The remodeling takes from five to six days, and costs about $4 to $5.00 a pair of shoes.

I thought when I heard about priorities affecting women's clothes, "Woe is me, here's where I walk around in a barrel". But it really isn't bad at all. "Say Lady, don't throw those scraps away, you'd be surprised what you can do with them. What's that? Yes, I know that patch-work quilts have had their way, but look at the new wardrobes. That's right, 'Something new has been added'. I saved all the scraps I could salvage, and in a surprisingly short time, I had enough to sew them together to make a full, gathered at the waist-line, skirt. It's amazing how easy it is, and is it practical!!! I have about every color in the spectrum sewed up, and now I can wear it with all my sweaters and colored cotton blouses."

At one time, quilted materials were restricted to bedjackets, puffs, and pot-holders. It is agreed, however, that quilt is unusually warm, and with the fuel shortage and all, I can see just what will be tops on my "must have" list this winter, wether it be in quilted mittees, quilted velveteen dutch cap and matching bag, quilted skull-cap of wool jersey, or, lest we forget, the ensemble of polka-dot pajamas with a quilted knee-length housecoat.

British Workers Demand Reprisals

Hope Action Will Halt Nazi Cruelty

LONDON — The British Labor Party has decided to launch a large education campaign among British workers designed to win the utmost support for measures by the United Nations which would bring a halt to the atrocities being perpetrated by the Nazis upon the civilian populations of occupied countries — including hundreds of thousands of Jews — it was learned here this week.

This decision by the national executive board of the Labor Party follows the recent conference of leaders of European Socialist parties on the subject of Nazi atrocities, which requested that the Labor Party take some action.

A joint resolution by the national executive of the Labor Party and the general council of the Trade Union Congress issued this week calls upon the governments of the United Nations "for solemn assurances that all who have taken part in the organization and perpetration of these outrages from the highest to the lowest shall be brought to stern justice at the close of the war."

JERUSALEM — The Palestine Government's Statistical Bulletin, which was issued this week, reveals that 200 new companies engaged in war production have been established in Palestine since the beginning of January this year. They are part of the estimated 2,000 Palestine enterprises filling orders for the British armed forces. Included among the 200 new firms are three ship-building yards.

Scene Around Town

By HENRY DAVIS

Chester Chin, manager of the Mee Fong restaurant on Hope street, called at the Herald offices this week ... It's not his visit that's important but what he had to say ... "The Chinese and the Jews have been persecuted for many years," he said ... "I want to know what progress the Jews are making against their persecutors, so enter my name for a subscription to the Herald..."

When members of the Chinese military mission visited this country they voluntarily submitted to a reduction in rank for the duration of the mission ... They, in their strange Chinese wisdom made this gesture in honor of their Allies ... They felt that it might be impolite if they arrived here with military rank equal to those of their American hosts!...

Major Litchman

Dr. David Litchman has been awarded a Major's commission in the U. S. Army and will report on Tuesday at Hot Springs, Arkansas ... This is the first time, we've been told, that a Rhode Island civilian, without previous army or navy training, has been granted such a high commission ... Dr. Litchman was formerly toxicologist for the state of Rhode Island ... He was feted at a farewell party, last Monday night by a group of friends ... Here's a story we heard Phil Baker tell of two rabbits who were watching a long and busy assembly line on which thousands of tanks were being made ... The rabbits watched this for an hour... Then one of them turned to the other and said: "Don't think I'm jealous — but they must've started with more than two!"

Odds and Ends

Sylvia Katz has been awarded a scholarship at the New England Conservatory of Music ... At present she's a counselor at a summer camp but will return to town shortly to rehearse with the Ahavath Shalom Synagogue choral group for the high holidays ... The David Osters and the David Bellioves will spend the weekend in Boston with the Abraham Bellioves ... From New York comes word that Elayne Schwartz and Irma Goldberg are vacationing for a week at the Barbizon Plaza ... The Mathew Segools and daughter, Dorothy, were at the Massasoit Hotel at Narragansett last weekend ... Also at the Pier are Mrs. Moe Silverstein whose host was Mrs. Barney Silverstein, and Mrs. Sidney Goldstein and daughter, Hannah, who were the guests of Mrs. William Goldstein ...

Stocks and Strips

Lou Holtz who is a veteran Wall street plunger, had the following to say this week: "Hitler can't win. With so much land on margin, he's got to lose!" ... Ann Corio's new picture, "Jungle Siren," will have its premiere in Providence — the one city where the strip-teaser was never permitted to work because of the Censor's objections ... Betty Plotkin, a counselor at Camp Pembroke sent us the following note: "Barbara Ann Bazar of Providence, was chosen queen of beauty to reign over the camp Mardi Gras ... She was the recipient of many floral tributes and gifts. That's all for now..."

Irving Berlin, Songsmith, Has Two Hits on Broadway

NEW YORK — Who said, "You can't be in two places at once"? I'd like to state, right here and now, that Irving Berlin just disproved that theory by viewing his first commercial venture in a long time, "Holiday Inn", and his riotous stage play, "This is the Army" also premiering in New York.

Berlin is extremely enthusiastic about his new movie, "Holiday Inn", and he goes so far to say that he thinks that it is as good for morale as anything he's been connected with.

Besides having a delightful plot, this new screen success has 13 songs about different holidays, and needless to say, if they are written by Berlin, each will have a share in fame and fortune.

Probably the reason that Irving Berlin is so self-critical, is his being the proud possessor of hundreds of hit songs. In fact, his hits have so far outshone those of his contemporaries, he is not content with some little ditty such as an ordinary composer would publish. On the contrary, it must express Berlin's mood and his every emotion.

Thinking that they were not worth publishing, Berlin filed dozens of songs away, and labeled them, "N. G." Once a business associate dug up two such songs out of the file and insisted on their publication. They were, "How Deep is the Ocean" and "Say it isn't So". Berlin, evidently didn't know his own strength.

Berlin is like a parent when it comes to his songs, and he worries about their fate in this "cruel" world. And that's why his face lights up when he hears the slightest bit of praise, and from the looks of things, after "Holiday Inn", his face will be glowing perpetually.

Let the fact that he plays the piano with all 10 fingers and with all the rich harmony of the finished emposition destroy that old myth that Berlin writes a new song by picking out a tune with one finger and then having some anonymous genius ("whom I keep hidden under the carpet", he says) transform it into a symphony.

Berlin admits that he can't read music, but he composes by ear. The rest is just a technical job for the fellow who puts it down on paper.

"The melody may die, but the memory lingers on," and so it is with Berlin. Although a very few of his songs died, the memory of some of the most beautiful words and lyrics will always be synonymous with the name Irving Berlin who will live forever.
