

The War This Week

Comparison of Planes

Lt. Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of the Army Air Forces, said American airplanes generally are superior to those of the enemy. He said that in the Pacific theater since the war started 1,110 Army planes have battled with 1,459 Japanese aircraft and have shot down 190 with loss of only 104. These figures do not include planes destroyed on the ground, those shot down by anti-aircraft fire, Navy and Marine Corps action, or the work of the American volunteer forces in China.

Gen. Arnold said the goal of a 2,000,000-man air force with 185,000 fighting planes would be met. He said the recruitment and training of pilots, bombardiers and navigators is progressing perfectly. There is, however, a growing demand for gunners, various enlisted technicians, radio operators and glider pilots. Gen. Arnold said American planes are arriving in Britain every day in preparation for the aerial offensive against Germany in union with R. A. F.

Rationing

Sugar ration stamp No. 8 will be good for 5 pounds of sugar in the 10-week period beginning August 23 and ending October 31, the Office of Price Administration announced. While not changing the basic ration of one-half pound per person per week, it will enable consumers to make purchases in larger units and facilitate the disposal of 5, 10 and 25-pound packages.

Price Administrator Henderson and Petroleum Coordinator Ickes announced jointly that fuel oil rationing on the east coast may be unavoidable next winter. All Eastern motorists were told by the OPA to display their gasoline ration stickers immediately, because "it is illegal for any serv-

Fish Story

Despite the voiced opposition of Republican and Democratic leaders, Hamilton Fish, reactionary isolationist and confrere of axis propaganda representatives, has won the nomination for Representative in the Dutchess County primaries.

The renomination of Fish turns out to have been a mere test of the strength of a partisan machine. This should have been a rallying time for those who believe in an all out war against Nazism and against the people who brought us into a weakened position in our war against Hitler.

Instead, only about one in four of the enrolled Republicans in Mr. Fish's district bothered to vote, and he seems to have been returned to the ballot by an unflattering support of the voters on whom he could have counted without any issues at all, as constituting the residue of a political machine built up during the 22 years the people of the district have allowed him for the construction of such a machine.

The Herald-Tribune has suggested, editorially, that it will support the Democratic candidate that will oppose Fish. Here is an opportunity for a candidate to become bi-partisan—to throw politics out of the window and defeat Mr. Fish on the issues involved.

Americans must awake to the fact that this is a war which must be fought in factories and election booths, as well as in airplanes and battleships.

New York "Machers"

The following editorial in the Chicago Jewish Chronicle caught our eye and we are reprinting it in the belief that it expresses the opinion of thousands of Providence residents.

"We have said it before and we say it again. Some 'Professional Jews' in New York are always busy creating new 'Kleizlachs' and new 'Torbes.' And when that is done they send out men to 'cavass the country' for contributions—and get them.

"New York with its two million Jews cannot, or does not, support its own cultural and religious institutions, but must rely on the Jews from the 'provintz' to supply the sinews of war. Chicago organizations never dream of sending to New York emissaries or collectors, for any of their institutions no matter how

Rumania Conducts Wide-Spread Raids

GENEVA — Rumanian police have launched systematic raids on Jewish homes to "check up" against violations of the various anti-Jewish decrees, according to private advices reaching here.

An official police communique stated that the police will check to see whether Jews possess illegal merchandise, are trying to avoid compulsory labor service or have failed to sign over their homes to "Aryans." Those found guilty of violating any of these restrictions will be deported to Rumanian-occupied Soviet territory and their possessions confiscated, the announcement said.

Deport Converts To Catholicism

STOCKHOLM — All Jewish converts to Catholicism in Holland have been deported in reprisal for intervention by the Catholic clergy on behalf of Dutch Jews, it was revealed today with the arrival of Dutch newspapers.

Representatives of the Catholic and Protestant churches had tried to stay deportation of Dutch Jews through an appeal to Reichs Commissioner Seyss-Inquart and Gen. Christiansen, commander of the occupation forces.

When the appeal was turned down, a letter of protest was read in Catholic and Protestant churches, and the German countered by deporting all the converts.

Soldiers at Wailing Wall

TEL AVIV — Jewish soldiers and officers of South Africa at prayer at the Wailing Wall, Jerusalem. The above photograph, released through the Zionsist Organization of America, was received from the Jewish Agency for Palestine, under whose supervision soldiers of United Nations stationed in Palestine are visiting Jewish colonies to view the wonderful work done by Jewish pioneers.

Countries of Crucial Near East Pro-Axis in Sentiment

NEW YORK — With the exception of Palestine, the attitude of the Near Eastern countries to the cause of the United Nations ranges from "tepid neutrality to open hostility." Such is the conclusion of an article entitled "Arab Alignments In The Near East" which appears in the current number of "Free World". The author of the article is Dr. Emanuel Neuman who spent many years in Palestine in the promotion of economic enterprise.

Dr. Neuman devotes considerable space to Egypt which, at the moment, highlights the war in the Near East. Despite the Anglo-Egyptian treaty of alliance, and despite the fact that its territory has been invaded, its cities bombed and its citizens killed and maimed, Egypt has refused to declare war on the Axis. Its court and ruling caste are notorious for their fascist sympathies, and a former Egyptian Prime Minister and Chief of Staff has been discovered in treasonable communication with the enemy.

At the other end of the Near Eastern arc is Turkey, also bound to England by a formal treaty of alliance, but clinging to a neutrality which, as a result of the Von Papen brand of diplomacy and the Nazi victories in Russia and Egypt, threatens to become transformed into a pro-Axis orientation. The Moslem population of Syria, wrested from Vichy control, has proved "disappointingly lukewarm" to British advances, while Christian Lebanon, afraid of Moslem domination, was only prevented from throwing in her lot with Italy by the emphatic assurances that came from General Charles de Gaulle.

Haifa Dedicates New Town Hall

HAIFA — This harbor city, scene of feverish activity in preparation of defense measures, took on a temporary festival atmosphere as the new Town Hall was dedicated by High Commissioner Sir Harold MacMichael as "a worthy symbol of the coming glory."

"Law of the Land" Governs Blackout

Sabbath Candles Must be Snuffed

NEW YORK — Orthodox and reformed Jews are engaged in a controversy over whether Sabbath candles should be snuffed out during a blackout, but Magistrate Morris Rothenberg feels the question is settled by an old Hebraic saying: "The law of the land is the law that governs."

He dismissed a complaint against Israel Goldstein, 32, a translator, who received a summons for refusing—on religious grounds—to extinguish candles in his home.

Louis I. Finklestein, Jewish Theological Seminary head and a reformed Jew, said he didn't think it would be a sin to put out the candles, but the Board of Orthodox Rabbis disagreed with him in an article published in The Jewish Day.

The Magistrate declared there was "considerable rabbinic authority for the view that a failure to observe a law may result in loss of life is a violation of Jewish religious law as well." Mr. Goldstein, who had taken steps to comply with the law, was cleared.

Unofficial Looting Peeves Nazi Chief

GENEVA — Because, according to the Nazis, the homes of deported Jews now belong to Germans who had been "cleansed" of their own homes, all non-Jews found in homes will be shot.

The constant looting of the homes of Jews now in the Polish ghettos has so "upset" Baldur von Schirach, Nazi Governor of Vienna, that he has announced the death penalty for all looters. The Vienna Voelkische Beobachter, in offering the reason for the death penalty, reported that 5,000 Jewish homes had been looted during the past half year.

Sulzberger Inspects British Red Cross

LONDON — Arthur Hays Sulzberger, publisher of the New York Times, is on a tour of inspection of Red Cross facilities in Great Britain, it was revealed at a press conference here with the publisher. While in London, Mr. Sulzberger, who will remain about a month, met with Lt. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Admiral Harold R. Stark, American Army and Navy heads for Europe.

The Tables Turn—Wife Must Explain

NEW YORK — Twelve of the girls were whooping it up at a Brooklyn poker party over the week end when the police dropped in to kibitz. It seems the girls had been talking too loudly.

Eight of them spent Saturday night in jail after being taken into custody at the home of Mrs. Sadie Lapidus, Magistrate Surplus in Week-End Court suspended sentence.

Said one husband, Barney Leibowitz while he was waiting for the little woman:

"Boy, oh boy! Wait till she tries to explain this one!"

These are some of the men historians will remember when the final story of the conflict is written. They are the American fighters of Jewish faith who sunk battleships and submarines, fought the enemy in the skies, held out heroically at Bataan and on Corregidor. For Lieutenant Henry Mark and Private Louis Schleifer, the fighting is done. They were killed in the early days of the war—Mark while rushing across an open rice field with a load of hand grenades intended for an enemy machine-gun nest, and Schleifer while attempting to wheel a plane into a hangar during the attack on Hickam Field, Hawaii. But while there are soldiers like Levin to hammer Jap battlewagons from the heavens, and sailors like Caplan to fight them on the seas, Mark and Schleifer did not have died in vain.

These are only nine. There are many others. Fighters like Sergeant Mitchell Cohen, who earned the Order of the Purple Heart for bravery under fire; Radioman David Goodman, winner of the Oak Leaf Cluster for his part in the mosquito-boat escape of General MacArthur from Corregidor to Australia; Ensign Ira Jeffrey, who gave his life while maintaining, by hand, an ammunition supply to the anti-aircraft guns of the USS California.

The roll of honor is long. American fighting men of Jewish faith are piling up a record of heroic service, some receiving distinguished service awards for bravery under fire, others losing their lives in action—all fighting staunchly in the service of their country.

hard pressed they may be for funds. But the 'machers' in New York always rely on the country Jews to 'come across' whenever they make an appearance.

"It is high time that New York leaders left the country Jews work out their own destiny, take care of their own needs, and support their own religious and cultural institutions and create for themselves a spirit of independence and self-reliance. The money contributed by them to New York 'Kleizlach' and 'Torbes' can be put to much better use right at home."

The rationing regulations for new passenger automobiles were amended to make members of the U. S. armed forces eligible to purchase new cars upon proof that a car is needed for transportation between residence and post of duty or on official military business where no military vehicle is available.

Stabilization of Wage
The National War Labor Board granted an increase of 7½ cents an hour to 61,000 workers in 40 New England and 11 Southern textile mills. The Board denied any wage increase, however, to 2,000 employees in 10 plants of the Aluminum Company of America and 900 workers in the Buffalo (N. Y.) plant of the American Magnesium Company because these workers "had received hourly rate increase sufficient to compensate for the 15 percent rise in the cost of living which had occurred between January 1, 1941, and May 1942." The Navy, acting under orders from President Roosevelt, took over the strike-bound plant of the General Cable Company in Bayonne, N. J. The strike occurred at the plant, working exclusively on production of war materials, after the NWLB had refused a request for a general wage increase.

The Armed Forces
The Army announced an intensive recruiting campaign to enlist 100,000 skilled mechanics and technicians for service in the Army Air Forces, the Signal Corps and the Ordnance Department. All applicants must be male U. S. citizens between the ages of 18 and 44, inclusive, and all must obtain clearance from their Selective Service Boards.

Warsaw Jewish Leader Ends Life

LONDON — A Polish government source said this week word had been received that L. M. Czerniakov, Mayor of Warsaw's ghetto, had committed suicide, presumably because he feared for the lives of 100,000 Jews: whose names he had been asked to list for deportation to an "unknown destination in the East."

Jewish Plight in Unoccupied France Increasingly Worse

NEW YORK — The situation of the Jewish population in unoccupied France is growing increasingly worse, it was disclosed here this week in an announcement that Dr. Joseph J. Schwartz, European chief of the Joint Distribution Committee, had returned to his post in Lisbon from the unoccupied zone, where he consulted with Jewish welfare leaders on new problems which have arisen in connection with the administration of relief.

In making the announcement, Joseph C. Hyman, the J. D. C.'s executive vice-chairman, said that the recent Vichy decree establishing a Union of Jews in France represented a serious development insofar as rendering aid was concerned. This body, he explained, has been made responsible for all Jewish welfare activities.

"The establishment of the Union means," Mr. Hyman declared, "that all French Jewish organizations are to be liquidated and their funds pooled into a central treasury."

Mr. Hyman pointed out further that Vichy laws providing internment or compulsory labor for Jews who entered France after 1935 if they showed no means of support, the exclusion of large numbers of Jews from numerous professions, and other discriminatory measures, were creating greater and greater hardships for foreign and native Jews alike.

By JUDY GARLAND
Young Screen Star

You don't have to sing or dance to entertain the soldiers. All you have to do is talk. Just pull up a chair, sit down and be prepared to answer a lot of questions. That's one thing I found out during my tour of the Army camps. All the fellows want to know about Hollywood and the motion picture stars and I wanted to know all about them.

If the soldiers asked me questions, it didn't compare with the quiz I put them through. All my life I've wanted to travel throughout the United States, staying a week or two in each town. I wanted to meet people from different parts of the country. When you live in one town, your scope is narrowed.

Of course, a trip like that would be impossible for a working girl, boys from every city and state in each camp I met and talked with boys from every city and State in the Union. It was everything I expected and more than an education, I had to know about each one, where he came from and what he did. The thing that touched me most was that they were equally interested in me. If it hadn't been for the boys at Camp Robinson, I would never have had a wedding cake.

WEDDING CAKE DONATED TO ME BY SOLDIERS

The day we played there was my wedding anniversary. My husband, David Rose, who accompanied me on the trip, and I were talking about it. The boys overheard and that night we were given a surprise party. The highlight of the evening was a huge wedding cake topped by a tiny bride and groom. A wedding cake was the one thing I felt cheated of when we were married. Now I had that, thanks to a bunch of swell people.

The first time I sang for the soldiers I was scared to death. My knees shook and my voice trembled with a severe case of stagefright. It seems silly now, as I look back on it. Every performer dreams of stopping a show, but believe me, no show was ever stopped with the thunderous applause and appreciative response that greets an entertainer playing to a group of soldiers.

TOURING CAMPS LIKE 'OLD HOME WEEK'

In a way, touring the camps was like my old vaudeville days. Making overnight jumps on milk trains and playing four-a-day instead of the usual two. It was like "old home week." Many of the performers were people with whom my mother and father, as well as my sisters and I, played in vaudeville.

It was wonderful to see these people, headliners twenty-five years ago, return to bring the house down in Army camps all over the country. One of the troupers told me he never hoped to experience a greater moment than the day he opened at the Palace Theater eighteen years ago. But he did when, with the same act, he received an even greater ovation at Fort Knox in Louisville, Kentucky.

A NEW CRADLE FOR TALENT

Willie Shore, the "Abba-Dabba Man," who was my favorite comedian when I was a little girl, played with us at one camp. He does an act with a seltzer-water bottle and I used to sit out front with the soldiers and watch him. It never failed that when he squirted the water it would land on me. This often resulted in my appearing on the stage in a slightly wet and bedraggled condition, but it was wonderful.

These performers were all my old friends and it was grand to see them back in front of an audience where they belong. Camp shows have not only brought entertainment to the soldiers, they have revived vaudeville and opened a new field for young young hopefuls who up to now have had no opportunity to appear before an audience. A new cradle for talent has been found.

We did four shows a day. One at the reception center where the newly inducted boys gather, one in the hospital and two in the auditorium. At each show I sang two set songs and then did request numbers. It seems the boys favor the old songs and in my case the two outstanding requests were "Over the Rainbow" and "Dear Mr. Gable."

The first time they asked for the "Gable" song I was stumped. It had been a long time since I had sung it, but after ad-libbing the lyrics a few times, the original ones came back to me. The shows were all at night and my days were spent touring the camp.

There's one thing about the army. It has a swell sense of humor. When I started out I couldn't tell the difference between a private and a general. I was introduced to a colonel one night and to the great amusement of all the boys I acknowledged the introduction with a "I'm very happy to meet you, Corporal!"

They howled and when I arrived home they sent me a huge chart listing all the insignia and what each stood for. Just to keep me straight, they wrote.

Three Universities Benefit From Will

NEW YORK — Columbia, Princeton and Harvard University will each receive $30,000 from the estate of the late Mrs. Ludwig Stross of New York, it was announced here by the executors of the estate. Mrs. Stross, who died on July 18th, left an estate valued at some $310,000. Her bequests to the universities were largely for cancer research.

NAZI EXPECTATIONS

LISBON — The expulsions of Jews from the Nazi-occupied Holland has been accelerated to such a degree that it may be expected that the Netherlands will be completely "judenrein" by the middle of 1943, it was reported this week by the Dutch Nazi newspaper "Storm Weekblad."

Temple Announces Selichos Program

Goldman Describes New Type Service

"Because this is a time of trouble for the household of Jacob, we must utilize religion and prayer to the very fullest extent so that we may derive the many spiritual benefits which the Synagogue and the Holy season offer to us," Rabbi Israel M. Goldman stated this week when he announced plans for a new type of midnight service based upon the traditional Selichos service to be introduced at Temple Emanuel on September 5.

Rabbi Goldman will be in charge of the service which will begin at 11:30 o'clock and be concluded one hour later. The Rabbi will deliver a short message pertaining to the beginning of the High Holiday season. A new musical program by Cantor Jacob Hohenemser, assisted by the Temple Emanuel choir, under the direction of Arthur Einstein, music director, has been arranged.

In previous years, Selichos services were held in the morning. "This new type service" said Rabbi Goldman, "will enable many more people to attend."

On the evening of Selichos services, the Sisterhood has arranged a reunion of Congregation members. From 10 to 11:30 o'clock light refreshments will be served and during this period members of the Congregation will have an opportunity to greet each other after the separation of the summer months.

The Selichos service is open to all.

Boake Carter Adopts Judaism

NEW YORK — "It may be said, that the 'Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Judaic' people are not winning the war against Hitler-Satan" because they are not observing the Mosaic laws" stated Boake Carter, commentator, after converting to Judaism.

Carter said he observes most rituals and dietary laws of Judaism, observes Saturday as the Sabbath, and celebrates some Jewish holidays.

Mr. Carter, of British, Irish and Welsh ancestry, discloses that his adopted religion is really a Hebraic fundamentalism. "It is," he went on, "a Biblical Hebrew faith based on a true interpretation and clarification" of the old fundamental laws handed down on Mount Sinai. Carter hopes that his new religion will be the answer to the world's ills.

8,000 S. African Jews With Army

JOHANNESBURG — More than 8,000 South African Jews, about nine percent of the total Jewish population of the Union of South Africa, are serving with the British forces, of which 3,000 are on the Middle Eastern front, it was reported this week at the fourteenth biennial congress of the Board of Deputies of South African Jews, which opened this week.

Phony Cammando Bewitches Hollywood But Not The F. B. I.

HOLLYWOOD — Morton M. Bernstein, former boys' indoor tennis champion who thrilled Hollywood with tales of his exploits in Commando raids, found today that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was less gullible. The former tennis star was charged with impersonating a navy officer after five months of being lionized by movie folk.

The only Commando raids in which he participated, investigators reported, were raids on the icebox.

Bernstein, 39, now a haberdasher, used his knowledge of clothes to advantage. There wasn't a flaw in his uniform. Bill Tilden, the tennis professional, said Bernstein turned up about five months ago and announced he was a lieutenant commander.

"I knew Morty so well," Tilden said, "it never entered my head to doubt it."

Using his friendship with Tilden, Bernstein established a base at the Beverly Hills Tennis Club and played with Charles Chaplin, Alfred G. Vanderbilt and other Hollywood notables.

"About two months ago," Tilden said, "I invited him to play some tennis and he said:

"I can't; I've been nicked in a Commando raid."

Hostesses vied for the honor of having him grace their tables.

High point in the comedy was played when Prince Mike Romanoff, phony "member of the Russian royal family," and Bernstein, the dry goods Commando ace, indulged in a few sets of tennis.

Bernstein, shorn of his uniform but at liberty of $1000 bond, refused all comment.

In an effort to remind all citizens that no democratic government will run unless the people run it, the R. I. League of Women Voters this week began an educational campaign to acquaint voters with the rules and operation of the caucus. It was emphasized by a League spokesman that it neither endorses nor works against any candidate, but encourages every citizen to participate in the important task of nominating men for public office who represent what he wishes in character and belief.

A broadside "How to Nominate

Candidates for Congress" was distributed for use by members and friends of the League throughout the State.

Special meetings are being arranged to which the public will be invited for the purpose of studying the broadside in the belief that wider understanding of the caucus system will enable voters to use its facilities in expressing a preference for their candidates before election day.

1,908 Palestinians Enlist During July

TEL AVIV — In the month of July the record number of 1,908 Jews enlisted in the British force, according to a report made public by the Jewish Agency for Palestine, which is responsible for the recruiting campaign. Of this number, 309 were women, making a total of 1,500 women now serving with the Palestine Auxiliary Territorial Service. Some 15,000 Palestinians are today in the service.

The Jewish Agency for Palestine has asked the United Palestine Appeal, through which funds for Palestine are raised, to make available the additional sum of $81,000 which is needed for soldiers' welfare and for aid to the families of soldiers and for disabled ex-servicemen returning to Palestine from the various Middle Eastern fronts.

Jewish Schools, Hospital Seized

ZURICH — The vast network of primary and secondary schools which were maintained in Bucharest by both the Ashkenazi and shephardic communities have been taken over by the Antonescu Government, under the decree announced last week which placed all Jewish-owned property "at the disposal of government," the Bucharest radio reported this week. The schools were housed in modern well-equipped buildings.

For a Woman's Fancy

After taking a vote, the majority won, and the necks have it this year. They won the election, and we can expect to see a clean-up job this time. This reforming party is starting a campaign to think of novel ways that neck-wear can be worn without old fall dresses.

Of the many high-lights, I'll stake my life that a starched red and white Buster Brown collar, with cuffs to match, to be worn with your navy wool jersey dirndl dress, will be the next addition to your cabinet. It has that individuality, that electric quality that rivets attention from the crowd to you.

Other jaunty newcomers were white pique, and grosgrain and faille for afternoon wear . . . They are without a doubt, the perfect accompaniment to your first fall dresses.

Now, eyes are focused on the shoulders . . . What can we do to liven the ordinary shoulders that no one thought too much about. Well, one tricky little design is the acorn trim. It's decorated with little puffs that resemble acorns, and is just the thing for a dress with a "V" neck, and simple lines.

We don't know what scents Circe and the Lorelei used to get their men, but we'd bank on Tabu anytime . . . It's that deep, husky scent that reacts like dynamite.

Someone described perfume as "Magic potions in a bottle," and that it is. Especially "White Phlox" . . . It's cool and invigorating as a waterfall that splashing over a wooded dell . . . Splash it generously on yourself, and keep fresh as mint.

Another hint for a refreshing feeling, and just the thing for angels to dab behind their halos is Dorothy Gray's "June Boquet." After a shower, I can't think of anything nicer than "June Boquet," really, it can't be praised too generously!

I don't believe that there is going to be a radical change in hair styles this season, but my firm conviction is that there will be fluffy bangs worn on the forehead, so it will do justice to your new Cloche hat. The "cherub" hair-do, yes, that's the one that doesn't disturb the back-length, is cut like a shining cap of springy curls from the rear, it defies slumber, winds and winter wettings.

Since so many women are engaged in war work, the accessory department can be classified into four words, . . . Large hand-bags and sensible shoes. The hand-bags are enormous because they're gonna' have to carry anything from knitting to Red Cross bandages. The shoes have to be sensible, for all these patriotic women will be on their feet all day long, and doctors believe that fatigue is partially due to faulty shoes. And now more than ever, the women have to be vivacious and lovely because their main duty on the home front is to please their men, and a tired, drawn out woman hasn't a chance.

One more thing, about woman's war uniform. Don't wear flashy jewelry, just sensible things like a watch and your wedding band. Don't wear vivid nail polish, it detracts from the manish quality of a uniform. And above all, don't wear a uniform . . . unless you deserve it.

Pittsburgh Family Makes Record-10 Sons in Service

PITTSBURG — If things work out according to schedule with the Grossman family here they soon will have established a nationwide record: ten sons in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Grossman have five boys in uniform now, and the other five are on their way. First of the Grossmans to go was Hymie. He is stationed at Fort Sill, Okla. His brother Moe, followed suit by joining the navy. Right now he's at Centerline, Mich. Carl and Leonard went next, to Orlando Beach, Fla., and Hamilton Field, Calif., respectively.

The most recent Grossman contribution to the army is Saul, 32, who lately left home for life in the dental corps at Fort Custer, Mich. With five more sons about to wear Uncle Sam's uniform, the Grossmans are beginning to wonder where to hang the service flags. Pittsburgh is proud of them.

Anti-Semitic Riot in Canada—Result of Racial Propaganda

CRYSTAL BEACH, Canada — Outbreaks between Jews and anti-Semites in this summer resort have resulted in property damage and several arrests, Chief of Police Floyd Gerrard announced this week.

Chief Gerrard said that the violence was a result of racial propaganda spread by anti-Semitic factions. On Thursday evening of last week, he said, a crowd of at least 3,000 people was attempting to congregate at main intersections of this village, apparently anticipating some sort of action. Violence was avoided by keeping the crowds in motion, and refusing to allow the troublemakers to assemble. A similar situation existed on Friday and until about two o'clock on Saturday morning, when one man was arrested on the charge of resisting an officer.

Early this week, however, plate glass windows of a Jewish-owned store and a hotel were kicked in and the place invaded by a mob of men and boys from the late teens to about 30 and 35 years. Shelves were wrecked and demonstrators danced on the counters. Jewish youths at the resort offered considerable resistance to the hooligans, but were outnumbered, the police chief stated.

K. of C. Launches N. Y. Post Boycott

In Retaliation For Walsh Story

NEW YORK — Knights of Columbus, Catholic organization, has launched a boycott against the New York Post for alleging that Senator David Walsh of Massachusetts was linked to a Brooklyn "house of degradation" frequented by Nazis, according to Variety. Catholics have been asked to stop reading Dorothy Schiff Backer's paper and not patronize Post advertisers. And advertisers have been asked to discontinue.

No Jewish organization has yet suggested the boycotting of the 2,000,000-circulation New York Daily News (3,000,000 on Sunday) which last week plastered the anti-Semitic issue all over its editorial page with crocodile tears to the effect that Governor Herbert H. Lehman had been denied a fifth term as Chief Executive because he is a Jew. That issue was dragged in to besmirch the candidate of President Roosevelt for New York's Democratic gubernatorial nomination, Senator James Mead, who also has Lehman's O. K. Vying with the Chicago Tribune for the most virulent anti-Roosevelt editorials, the Daily News lives on its Jewish advertisers.

Fought On And Limped Home With U.S. Marblehead

NEW YORK — Irving Greenberg signed on for a six-year hitch in the navy two years ago. He wanted to see the world. In February, he saw the Macassar Straits. He saw it from the top deck of the U.S.S. Marblehead. By way of providing an extra filip, thirty-seven Jap planes flew overhead, showering the Marblehead with tons of bombs. Irving, 23 years old, was part of an ammunition-handling party that day. The Marblehead rocked and reeled under the impact, but managed to escape. Then began a three-month odyssey back to the United States. En route, the ship touched at India, South India and South Africa before limping into "an east coast port."

"It was the most badly-damaged United States ship ever to make a home port," Irving says, and its commanding officer was promoted to the rank of rear admiral for his feat of bringing the vessel safely home.

Before Pearl Harbor, Greenberg saw part of the world at least. He attended Jewish religious services in Surabaya, India, and in the South African cities of Durban, Port Elizabeth, and Capetown. On these occasions he was accompanied by two Jewish shipmates, Lieutenant Commander Morris Smellow and Seaman First Class Morris Borden.

About that Macassar Straits encounter, Irving says, "None of the fellows felt a bit of nervousness until it was all over. Under fire, we didn't have a chance to think. But afterwards we realized what we had gone through, and all the way home we knew there was a chance of further attack. Yes, I'll admit I was a bit jittery, but I was prepared for anything, and so were the others."

No matter when the war ends, Irving intends to finish that six-year hitch.

"I'll probably see most of the world before we lick the Axis, but that isn't the way I wanted to see it. I want to visit all those places I've always read about to see how they look in peace-time. And I'll do my darndest to see that peace comes in a hurry."

Describes Native Fascists As Worst Enemies of U. S.

NEW YORK — Following the round-up of the 28 pro-Nazis and anti-Semites charged with conspiring to impair the morale of the country's armed forces. Casey Longmire, radio commentator, warned this week that native Fascist "are the worst enemies this country has."

"They hate President Roosevelt. Many say he started the war by 'threatening' Hitler and Hirohito. They hate Jews, Negroes, labor unions and a lot of other things. They claim they hate Hitler, too, but they're working for him, even if they may not know it.

"Suppose Hitler smashes on to victory over Russia. He can organize all Europe to work for him. The war might be in a sort of stalemate for years. What would our home-grown Fascists be doing then? Just the same as the French Fascists did. They'd start saying: 'Why not make a deal with Hitler? He'd probably let us alone.'

"That's exactly the kind of talk Hitler wants to hear. He'd make any promise to get peace. Then he'd try to get thousands of Nazi agents working inside of America, and when he felt the time was ripe, he'd stab us in the back so quickly we might not be able to strike back."

League Deplores Voters' Inertia

NEW YORK — Deplores the failure of many Americans to "wake up to the fact that this is a war which must be fought in factories and election booths, as well as in airplanes and battle-ships," Prof. James H. Sheldon, Administrative Chairman of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, this week asserted that the League would press the fight for the election this November of supporters of President Roosevelt's foreign policy.

A. O. G. Corp. Gets Army-Navy Award

Given for High Production Record

The Army-Navy award "for high achievement in the production of war equipment" was presented to the A. O. G. Corporation, of Pawtucket, last Friday by Capt. G. F. Hussey, Chief of Production Division, Bureau of Ordnance, U. S. Navy.

In his talk to workers of the plant Capt. Hussey said, "You have just turned out the first 20 mm. gun in the Western Hemisphere—one of our most potent anti-aircraft weapons."

High ranking officers of the Army and Navy, a representative of the British Admiralty, State, municipal and civic leaders were present at the ceremonies.

The award was accepted by Ralph A. Ostberg, vice-president and general manager of the A. O. G. Corporation. The naval officials presented to Alonzo E. Goodwin the employ award pin which will be given to each worker as "a symbol of their permanent contributions to human freedom."

Sgt. Levin Scores Again—This Time a Fat Cargo Ship

BROOKLYN — "I'm not sure whether or not I sank any ships but I got a beautiful hit!" This modest report concerns action somewhere in the Pacific. The recipient of that "beautiful hit" was a "big, fat, 12,000 ton, two stacker passenger cargo ship" and was attacked right in the center of a convoy.

Who scored this direct hit? Well, none other than Sgt. Myer Levin, the bombardier who escaped from the blazing inferno that killed Colin Kelly.

Sgt. Levin said that his Flying Fortress ran into heavy weather returning to Australia and that after the fuel had run low and two engines quit, the Captain ordered the crew to bail out. "It was pitch dark," Levin said, "and as I floated down my chute just cleared a tree, but I hit it and scraped off a few branches before I finally made a painful landing right on top of a big ant hill."

This episode reminded Sgt. Levin's father of the time his son bailed out of the flaming fortress in which Kelly was killed in the Philippines.

Meyer, who is 25, received the Distinguished Service Cross for the Haruna sinking.

The last time Meyer's folks heard from him was two weeks ago. He just said everything is OK and that he's feeling very prosperous.

The War This Week

Comparison of Planes

Lt. Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of the Army Air Forces, said American airplanes generally are superior to those of the enemy. He said that in the Pacific theater since the war started 1,110 Army planes have battled with 1,459 Japanese aircraft and have shot down 190 with loss of only 104. These figures do not include planes destroyed on the ground, those shot down by anti-aircraft fire, Navy and Marine Corps action, or the work of the American volunteer forces in China.

Gen. Arnold said the goal of a 2,000,000-man air force with 185,000 fighting planes would be met. He said the recruitment and training of pilots, bombardiers and navigators is progressing perfectly. There is, however, a growing demand for gunners, various enlisted technicians, radio operators and glider pilots. Gen. Arnold said American planes are arriving in Britain every day in preparation for the aerial offensive against Germany in union with R. A. F.

Fish Story

Despite the voiced opposition of Republican and Democratic leaders, Hamilton Fish, reactionary isolationist and confrere of axis propaganda representatives, has won the nomination for Representative in the Duchess County primaries.

The renomination of Fish turns out to have been a mere test of the strength of a partisan machine. This should have been a rallying time for those who believe in an all out war against Nazism and against the people who brought us into a weakened position in our war against Hitler.

Instead, only about one in four of the enrolled Republicans in Mr. Fish's district bothered to vote, and he seems to have been returned to the ballot by an unflattering support of the voters on whom he could have counted without any issues at all, as constituting the residue of a political machine built up during the 22 years the people of the district have allowed him for the construction of such a machine. The Herald-Tribune has suggested, editorially, that it will support the Democratic candidate that will oppose Fish. Here is an opportunity for a candidate to become bi-partisan—to throw politics out of the window and defeat Mr. Fish on the issues involved.

Americans must awake to the fact that this is a war which must be fought in factories and election booths, as well as in airplanes and battleships.

New York "Machers"

The following editorial in the Chicago Jewish Chronicle caught our eye and we are reprinting it in the belief that it expresses the opinion of thousands of Providence residents.

"We have said it before and we say it again. Some 'Professional Jews' in New York are always busy creating new 'Kleizlachs' and new 'Torbes.' And when that is done they send out men to 'canvass the country' for contributions—and get them.

"New York with its two million Jews cannot, or does not, support its own cultural and religious institutions, but must rely on the Jews from the 'provinz' to supply the sinews of war. Chicago organizations never dream of sending to New York emissaries or collectors, for any of their institutions no matter how

GENEVA — Rumanian police have launched systematic raids on Jewish homes to "check up" against violations of the various anti-Jewish decrees, according to private advices reaching here.

An official police communique stated that the police will check to see whether Jews possess illegal merchandise, are trying to avoid compulsory labor service or have failed to sign over their homes to "Aryans." Those found guilty of violating any of these restrictions will be deported to Rumanian-occupied Soviet territory and their possessions confiscated, the announcement said.

Deport Converts To Catholicism

STOCKHOLM — All Jewish converts to Catholicism in Holland have been deported in reprisal for intervention by the Catholic clergy on behalf of Dutch Jews, it was revealed today with the arrival of Dutch newspapers.

Representatives of the Catholic and Protestant churches had tried to stay deportation of Dutch Jews through an appeal to Reichs Commissioner Seyss-Inquart and Gen. Christiansen, commander of the occupation forces.

When the appeal was turned down, a letter of protest was read in Catholic and Protestant churches, and the German countered by deporting all the converts.

Children's Service Appoints New Child Care Worker

Miss Lillian Brill has been appointed child care worker for the Jewish Family and Children's Service it was announced today by Jacob S. Temkin, president. Miss Brill, a native of Bridgeport, Connecticut, has been working in the field of child care in New York City for several years. She will assist the Jewish Family and Children's Service in developing its program for the foster home care of children in need of placement.

Miss Brill received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Arizona in 1936, following which she received a certificate from the William and Mary School for Social Work in Richmond, Virginia, which she attended as a graduate student. She was then employed as a case worker at the Foster Home Bureau in New York City where she has been working for the past five years. The Fos-

Soldiers at Wailing Wall

TEL AVIV — Jewish soldiers and officers of South Africa at prayer at the Wailing Wall, Jerusalem. The above photograph, released through the Zionist Organization of America, was received from the Jewish Agency for Palestine, under whose supervision soldiers of United Nations stationed in Palestine are visiting Jewish colonies to view the wonderful work done by Jewish pioneers.

Countries of Crucial Near East Pro-Axis in Sentiment

NEW YORK — With the exception of Palestine, the attitude of the Near Eastern countries to the cause of the United Nations ranges from "tepid neutrality to open hostility." Such is the conclusion of an article entitled "Arab Alignments In The Near East" which appears in the current number of "Free World." The author of the article is Dr. Emanuel Neumann who spent many years in Palestine in the promotion of economic enterprise.

Dr. Neuman devotes considerable space to Egypt which, at the moment, highlights the war in the Near East. Despite the Anglo-Egyptian treaty of alliance, and despite the fact that its territory has been invaded, its cities bombed and its citizens killed and maimed, Egypt has refused to declare war on the Axis. Its court and ruling caste are notorious for their fascist sympathies, and a former Egyptian Prime Minister and Chief of Staff has been discovered in treasonable communication with the enemy.

At the other end of the Near Eastern arc is Turkey, also bound to England by a formal treaty of alliance, but clinging to a neutrality which, as a result of the Von Papen brand of diplomacy and the Nazi victories in Russia and Egypt, threatens to become transformed into a pro-Axis orientation. The Moslem population of Syria, wrested from Vichy control, has proved "disappointingly lukewarm" to British advances, while Christian Lebanon, afraid of Moslem domination, was only prevented from throwing in her lot with Italy by the emphatic assurances that came from General Charles de Gaulle.

Commenting on her appointment, Joseph Galkin, executive director of the Jewish Family and Children's Service, said, "Miss Brill's background and experience should be of real service in the program of our agency and to the Jewish community of Rhode Island. It will be her job to find and develop adequate homes with private families for those children who are in need of placement."

Miss Brill will assume her duties at the agency on Monday.

"Law of the Land" Governs Blackout

Sabbath Candles Must be Snuffed

NEW YORK — Orthodox and reformed Jews are engaged in a controversy over whether Sabbath candles should be snuffed out during a blackout, but Magistrate Morris Rothenberg feels the question is settled by an old Hebraic saying: "The law of the land is the law that governs."

He dismissed a complaint against Israel Goldstein, 32, a translator, who received a summons for refusing—on religious grounds—to extinguish candles in his home.

Louis I. Finklestein, Jewish Theological Seminary head and a reformed Jew, said he didn't think it would be a sin to put out the candles, but the Board of Orthodox Rabbis disagreed with him in an article published in The Jewish Day.

The Magistrate declared there was "considerable rabbinic authority for the view that a failure to observe a law may result in loss of life is a violation of Jewish religious law as well." Mr. Goldstein, who had taken steps to comply with the law, was cleared.

Unofficial Looting Peeves Nazi Chief

GENEVA — Because, according to the Nazis, the homes of the deported Jews now belong to the Germans, all non-Jews found in homes will be shot.

The constant looting of the homes of Jews now in the Polish ghettos has so "upset" Baldur von Schirach, Nazi Governor of Vienna, that he has announced the death penalty for all looters. The Vienna Voelkische Beobachter, in offering the reason for the death penalty, reported that 5,000 Jewish homes had been looted during the past half year.

Sulzberger Inspects British Red Cross

LONDON — Arthur Hays Sulzberger, publisher of the New York Times, is on a tour of inspection of Red Cross facilities in Great Britain, it was revealed at a press conference here with the publisher. While in London, Mr. Sulzberger, who will remain about a month, met with Lt. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Admiral Harold R. Stark, American Army and Navy heads for Europe.

The Tables Turn—Wife Must Explain

NEW YORK — Twelve of the girls were whooping it up at a Brooklyn poker party over the week end when the police drooped in to kibitz. It seems the girls had been talking too loudly.

Eight of them spent Saturday night in jail after being taken into custody at the home of Mrs. Sadie Lapidus. Magistrate Surplus in Week-End Court suspended sentence.

Said one husband, Barney Leibowitz while he was waiting for the little woman: "Boy, oh boy! Wait till she tries to explain this one!"

Lieutenant Morris N. Friedman

"Saved Crew of USS Utah"

Lieutenant Gabriel Frumkin
"Downed Five Jap Planes"

Private Louis Schleifer
Silver Star
"Tried to Save Plane"

These are some of the men historians will remember when the final story of the conflict is written. They are the American fighters of Jewish faith who sunk battleships and submarines, fought the enemy in the skies, held out heroically at Bataan and on Corregidor. For Lieutenant Henry Mark and Private Louis Schleifer, the fighting is done. They were killed in the early days of the war—Mark while rushing across an open rice field with a load of hand grenades intended for an enemy machine-gun nest, and Schleifer when attempting to wheel a plane into a hangar during the attack on Hickam Field, Hawaii. But while there are soldiers like Levin to hammer Jap battlewagons from the heavens, and sailors like Caplan to fight them on the seas, Mark and Schleifer will not have died in vain.

These are only nine. There are many others. Fighters like Sergeant Mitchell Cohen, who earned the Order of the Purple Heart for bravery under fire; Radioman Dayid Goodman, winner of the Oak Leaf Cluster for his part in the mosquito-boat escape of General MacArthur from Corregidor to Australia; Ensign Ira Jeffrey, who gave his life while maintaining, by hand, an ammunition supply to the anti-aircraft guns of the USS California.

The roll of honor is long. American fighting men of Jewish faith are piling up a record of heroic service, some receiving distinguished service awards for bravery under fire, others losing their lives in action—all fighting staunchly in the service of their country.

hard pressed they may be for funds. But the "machers" in New York always rely on the country Jews to "come across" whenever they make an appearance.

"It is high time that New York leaders left the country Jews work out their own destiny, take care of their own needs, and support their own religious and cultural institutions and create for themselves a spirit of independence and self-reliance. The money contributed by them to New York 'Kleizlach' and 'Torbes' can be put to much better use right at home."

ice station attendant to sell gasoline to a vehicle unless the sticker corresponding to the type of book is conspicuously displayed on the car." The rationing regulations for new passenger automobiles were amended to make members of the U. S. armed forces eligible to purchase new cars upon proof that a car is needed for transportation between residence and post of duty or on official military business where no military vehicle is available.
Stabilization of Wage

The National War Labor Board granted an increase of 7½ cents an hour to 61,000 workers in 40 New England and 11 Southern textile mills. The Board denied any wage increase, however, to 2,000 employees in 10 plants of the Aluminum Company of America and 900 workers in the Buffalo (N. Y.) plant of the American Magnesium Company because these workers "had received hourly rate increase sufficient to compensate for the 15 percent rise in the cost of living which had occurred between January 1, 1941, and May 1942." The Navy, acting under orders from President Roosevelt, took over the strike-bound plant of the General Cable Company in Bayonne, N. J. The strike occurred at the plant, working exclusively on production of war materials, after the NWLB had refused a request for a general wage increase.

The Armed Forces
The Army announced an intensive recruiting campaign to enlist 100,000 skilled mechanics and technicians for service in the Army Air Forces, the Signal Corps and the Ordnance Department. All applicants must be male U. S. citizens between the ages of 18 and 44, inclusive, and all must obtain clearance from their Selective Service Boards.

Warsaw Jewish Leader Ends Life

LONDON — A Polish government source said this week word had been received that L. M. Czerniakov, Mayor of Warsaw's ghetto, had committed suicide, presumably because he feared for the lives of 100,000 Jews: whose names he had been asked to list for deportation to an "unknown destination in the East."

Jewish Plight in Unoccupied France Increasingly Worse

NEW YORK — The situation of the Jewish population in unoccupied France is growing increasingly worse, it was disclosed here this week in an announcement that Dr. Joseph J. Schwartz, European chief of the Joint Distribution Committee, had returned to his post in Lisbon from the unoccupied zone, where he consulted with Jewish welfare leaders on new problems which have arisen in connection with the administration of relief.

In making the announcement, Joseph C. Hyman, the J. D. C.'s executive vice-chairman, said that the recent Vichy decree establishing a Union of Jews in France represented a serious development insofar as rendering aid was concerned. This body, he explained, has been made responsible for all Jewish welfare activities.

"The establishment of the Union means," Mr. Hyman declared, "that all French Jewish organizations are to be liquidated and their funds pooled into a central treasury."

Mr. Hyman pointed out further that Vichy laws providing internment or compulsory labor for Jews who entered France after 1935 if they showed no means of support, the exclusion of large numbers of Jews from numerous professions, and other discriminatory measures, were creating greater and greater hardships for foreign and native Jews alike.
