

THE WAR THIS WEEK

Acting at the suggestion of the President and the request of the War Department, the House passed and sent to the Senate legislation to reduce the minimum draft age from 20 to 18. The bill provides that those who are in high school or college may finish the present school year, but after next July educational deferments would be forbidden. The bill would also make mandatory the policy of calling all single men in a State before calling married men, and then calling all childless married men before men with children.

If the draft age is lowered to 18, a 7,500,000-man Army can be built up in 1943 without calling married men with children. Selective Service Director Hershey reported. Induction of married men with wives only will begin immediately to fill the Army's call for 1,100,000 by January 1, he said.

Rationing

The Office of Price Administration ruled that after next January 31, all motorists holding a mileage rationing books must have their tires inspected every four months and those receiving books allowing them supplemental mileage must have their tires inspected every two months. Original inspection of tires on all passenger cars must be made between December 1 and January 31, while commercial vehicle tires - which must be inspected every two months or every 5,000 miles, whichever comes first - may be checked any time after November 15.

Price Administrator Henderson set November 9 as registration day for gasoline rationing in the States where rationing is not already in effect, while motorists in the present rationing area must file a tire inspection certificate with their lo-

On Immigration

From England's great American dominion, came an interesting report this week showing the response being made by the Canadian Jews with regard to service in the army. And in Canada, there is much talk now of the Dominion after the war, adopting a more liberal immigration policy.

Both Canadian and Australia are beginning to see the Light in this respect. If Australia had more people, she would not be in such great fear of a Japanese invasion. Israel Zangwill once made an apt comment about such lands as Australia and Canada. He spoke of "continents who in their modesty have mistaken themselves for countries."

But immigration is not only of benefit to a country in providing soldiers, but equally a boon in times of peace. Without the great immigration to the United States, the industrial development of America would not have occurred. All these things are apparent, yet probably never in history has any group been really hospitable to new immigrants.

At no time, for instance, could you have gotten American Indians to favor immigration of the whites. They were forced to accept it by the tide of circumstances.

What They Forget

Nazis and fascists work best in the dark. They have a "Passion for anonymity." A recently-distributed card is a good case in sneak punch.

The anonymous composer of this scurrility conveniently forgot to mention Meyer Levin, Colin Kelly's gallant bombardier, whose exploits in the Southwest Pacific have become legendary. This is a point illustrating the methods Nazis favor to do their work of fostering disunity. THE FIRST MAN TO CAPTURE A JAP - Pat Murphy; THE FIRST MAN TO SINK A JAP BATTLESHIP - Colin Kelly; THE FIRST MAN TO SHOOT DOWN A JAP PLANE - ED O'HARA; THE FIRST MAN TO GET FOUR NEW TIRES - Abe Cohen.

Americans would do well to be aware of it and its kind.

Demands Palestine As Commonwealth

Scores Discussions Of Bi-National State

NEW YORK—A demand for establishment of Palestine as the Jewish Commonwealth and an attack on the reported plan of the Iehud Party advocating a bi-national state in Palestine were made last week end by Judge Louis E. Levinthal of Philadelphia, president of the Zionist Organization of America.

"We are talking in terms of an independent and unfettered Jewish Commonwealth, bound only by those reservations which the postwar world may determine to apply to all nations", Judge Levinthal told 1000 persons at the annual convention of the organization, held at the Hotel New Yorker. "We shall not willingly permit the Jewish homeland to be constitutionally inferior to all other national homelands".

ARCHIBALD SILVERMAN

"While plans are going ahead for a second front to defeat Hitler, American Jews must do their share in maintaining a third front of saving the lives of his victims so that they, too, may enjoy the benefits of an Allied triumph."

Delegates Meet Here To Study JDC Work

Schedule Luncheon Conference at Biltmore

The enormous task of bringing aid to millions of overseas Jews, whose plight was recently highlighted by the deportation of thousands from France to the East, will be discussed at a luncheon conference of the Joint Distribution Committee on Sunday, October 25, at the Biltmore Hotel. The meeting was announced today by Archibald Silverman, Rhode Island state chairman. Jewish community leaders from Rhode Island and Southern Massachusetts will participate.

The Joint Distribution Committee, founded in 1914, is the chief American agency for aid to Jews overseas. Since the outbreak of war in 1939, the J. D. C. has brought direct help to an average of 928,000 persons annually, at a total expenditure of nearly $20,000,000.

Serving as co-sponsors of the meeting with Mr. Silverman are David S. Schneerson, J. D. C. Zone chairman for Fall River, and Judge Samuel Barnett of New Bedford.

Mr. Silverman pointed out that the J. D. C. is continuing to give large-scale assistance to war victims and refugees in many parts of the world despite America's entry into the war. Since Pearl Harbor, he said, the J. D. C. has made possible the emigration of more than 7,300 people from Europe. To Asiatic Russia it is shipping medical supplies which are distributed on a non-sectarian basis.

Refugees Settled On Canadian Farms

TORONTO—Hundreds of Jewish refugees have been successfully settled in cities and on farms in Ontario, paving the way for post-war immigration to Canada. A. B. Bennett, president, told the Canadian Jewish Congress at its recent meeting.

He added that the problems of all but 150 of the thousands of interned Jewish refugees brought from Britain had been solved.

Nahum Goldman, Zionist leader, asked that Jews be given places on the United Nations commission to gather evidence of Nazi atrocities and to try those guilty. He asked that the Jews be recognized as one of the fighting United Nations and urged a Jewish army in Palestine.

Summon Weizmann Back to Palestine

JERUSALEM — The executive of the Jewish Agency for Palestine this week cabled Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of the Agency, who is now on a visit in the United States, urging him to proceed to Palestine as soon as possible, it was learned here today.

The cable points out that Dr. Weizmann's presence in Palestine is important for the "final drafting of the Zionist policy."

Danish Jews Panicky as Nazis Exert Pressure on King Christian for Co-operation

BERNE—Increased Nazi pressure on King Christian of Denmark, the only Nazi-controlled country which has heretofore refused to introduce an anti-Jewish program, for closer collaboration with Hitler's New Order, has created a feeling of panic among the Jewish population of Denmark, according to information received here this week.

Past attempts by Nazi officials to introduce the Nuremberg anti-Jewish laws in Denmark were strongly resisted by King Christian who was reported to have threatened to abdicate his throne on two different occasions when pressed by the Nazis for a strict anti-Jewish program. On both occasions the Nazis yielded to the wishes of the King.

Current reports indicate, however, that the Nazis are now determined to Nazify Denmark and will tolerate no opposition. One report received here said that many Jews in Copenhagen had besieged the Swedish Consulate seeking visas to Sweden. Many others Jews were reported to have liquidated their enterprises, hoping to be able to emigrate before the Nazi storm breaks. A number of small boats carrying Danish Jews to Sweden were intercepted by Nazi patrol vessels and returned to Denmark.

Awarded Medals for Bravery by Russians

KUBYSHEV—Lieut. Max Lev, son of the well-known bibliographer, Abraham Lev, and a close friend of the late Morris Witskevsky, Yiddish writer, has been awarded a medal for bravery on the battlefield, it is reported by the Soviet Press.

Another Jew, Josef Steinberg, expert sniper, was also mentioned for bravery. He had killed 110 Germans singlehanded.

Sema Uzpolska, sister of a noted Jewish professor of Minsk, was lauded by the Soviet press for her heroism in the Red Army unit with which she serves.

France to Send 5,000 Jewish Children to U. S.

VICHY—The French Government has accepted an offer by the United States State Department to remove to America for the duration 5,000 Jewish refugee children up to 18 years of age, most of them orphans or concentration camp inmates whose identification papers were lost. It is understood that Canada may take about 1,000 children and San Domingo 500.

Religious May Register For Fuel Oil Next Week

Through a petition of the Orthodox Rabbis of Providence and the Waad Hacashruth, citizens who observe the Sabbath on Saturday, will be allowed to register for fuel-oil rationing on any day during the week following October 24.

The rabbis of the Orthodox Jewish Community publicly wish to thank Director Christopher Del Sesto for the extension of time.

Einstein Joins Benny on the Radio

An unusual team of guest stars appeared on the March of Time program last night over NBC when Albert Einstein (left) world's No. 1 mathematician-philosopher, and Jack Benny (at wheel of his Maxwell last week) famed Hollywood comedian, joined forces in the show to promote America's war program. Professor Einstein discussed the war role of the Jewish people, while Benny spoke in behalf of the scrap metal drive.

Outline Principles of Child Care Program

Problem of Working Mothers Discussed

Essential policies of the Jewish Family and Children's Services' Child Care program were outlined last Monday night by Dr. Banice Feinberg at a meeting of the Board of Directors. Jacob S. Temkin, president, presided.

The summary of policies include (1) the welfare of the individual child is to be the guiding principle; (2) the program is to be humane, flexible and practical; (3) the organization is not committed to any one form of child care - foster home, institutional or child guidance; (4) success of the program is to be measured not by the number of placements made, but rather by how satisfactory are the plans worked out for each individual child in question.

Dr. Feinberg stressed the fact that a reserve of suitable foster homes is required so that there can be some selection of the type of home to best suit the needs of the individual child.

The problem of working mothers who are being drawn into war industries was discussed by Joseph Galkin, executive director of the organization. Mr. Galkin pointed out that the problem is just beginning and that in the months to come the situation will become critical unless preparations are made in advance. "Adequate facilities," he said, "are being arranged for the care of children of working mothers."

Keenly Disappointed

The British rejection of the proposal for a separate Jewish army, Judge Levinthal said, was painful to him as a "sincere admirer of the British people to be compelled to record our keen disappointment, our deep chagrin at the humiliating manner in which the British government demand for the right to organize a distinct Jewish military force."

He urged Zionists to embark on a program of public education to bring American opinion to bear in behalf of Zionist aspirations.

Radio Portrays Refugee Problem

NEW YORK—Only three days after the State Department had announced that it would provide haven in the United States for 5,000 refugee children from France where they have been separated from their families through deportations and oppression, the American radio audience was deeply moved by the first authentic radio dramatization of the terrible plight of Jews in France facing expulsion to ghettos and concentration camps in Eastern Europe.

Significantly entitled, "Goliath Again," the radio drama starring Henry Hull, the distinguished actor of stage and screen, was presented last Sunday under the auspices of the United Jewish Appeal.

Car rationing boards by November 22. Car owners in the latter area must list the serial numbers of all their tires, and if there are more than five per car, the owner will be denied gasoline ration books until he has disposed of the extra tires. Maximum Prices

A specific price ceiling for women's rayon hose will be issued soon, the OPA said, and in the meantime, buyers should carefully compare prices with those of last March to make certain they are not being overcharged. "There is no excuse for any increase in prices of rayon hosiery," the Office said. The OPA placed dried eggs under price control at the highest levels at which distributors did business during the September 28-October 2 base period. The Office also set up a method for retail dealers to determine their ceiling prices for fresh grapefruit.

Stabilization of Wages

Director Byrnes of the Office of Economic Stabilization said the War Labor Board will regulate all salaries under $3,000 and those up to $5,000 which are covered in wage agreements. He said the Treasury Department is preparing regulations for salaries of more than $3,000 other than those handled by the Board as part of wage regulations. The WLB ruled individual wage adjustments may now be made by employers without prior Board approval providing they are "incident to the application of the terms of an established wage agreement or to established wage rate schedules covering the work assignments of employees" and are made as the result of certain established practices.

The Wireless: March of Time's dramatization of the four fliers who bombed a Jap airport with "borrowed bombs, a stolen transport and a bottle of scotch" was three times as exciting as it appeared here. Deft scripting, gentlemen, paced swiftly and loaded with zing.... Arthur Hughes' trouping in "Just Plain Bill" via NBC is one reason that program starts its 11th year this week.... Add Puzzles: Why Helen Hayes hasn't a sponsor. Each time the star guests for someone—she perfumes your receiving set with her rare talent.... Kay Kyser's gripe is echoed here, too: "Why such snappy slogans as 'Slap the Jap!'".... Then there's the headline writers who call them "Nips"!!!

One of the local drama critics referred to a certain ham as a "bum actor." The critic received a sharp note from the victim demanding an apology. The critic replied: "I am pleased to explain and apologize—for our proofreader. Believing I had omitted the word 'actor' he inserted it. A grievous error, which I assure you won't happen again!"

There have been some complaints about the number of de luxe burlesque shows playing around Broadway, but John Mason Brown doesn't think it is a matter for calling in the police.

"Dullness in the theater," he quipped, "is the perfect censor."

The gin-rummy craze has reached all the way down to the Bowery, where two bums found a deck of cards in the gutter. They started playing gin for $1 a point—imaginary dough, of course. After an hour the bum owed 38,000 imaginary dollars said he was quitting. "Oh, come on, let's play some more," he was coaxed.

"No," was the stiff retort, "that's as far as I want to go."

Notes of an Innocent Bystander:

They are telling the silly about the tough hombre who went into a saloon in Wyoming with a mountain lion on a leash. After the stranger drank some whisky he crushed the glass into dust and demanded a bigger one.

Suddenly a rattlesnake started to crawl out of the fellow's vest and he pushed it back, saying: "Don't you come 'out of there until I send for you, you hear?"

"Where you from?" asked the bartender.

"Alaska, where they're too tough," was the reply. "They ran me and two other swishes outta there last week."

A reader forwards the late Arthur Brisbane's thesis: "How to Be a Better Reporter." In it is this counsel: "Learn to edit your copy. Strike out most of your adjectives, remembering the Frenchman's remark: 'The adjective is the enemy of the noun. Strike out 'very' always!'"

Very, very good.

Quentin Reynolds says some American troops in England go to extremes to impress the girls. One lass urged Reynolds to give her a good report with one soldier's father. "Tell him I'm a nice girl, please!" she asked. "He owns the biggest orange groves in America!"

"In what city?" asked Reynolds. "Utica," was the reply.

The Magic Lantern: There's isn't much among the film entries. "Panama Hattie" is the best of the newcomers, but inferior to the stage version. The film is refined, minus the blue tinge. Ann Sothern and Red Skelton caper through the quips and melodies, some of Cole Porter's score lingering.... "Manila Calling," another war fable, is full of ack-ack and bombs. It's hard to tell a story with so much noise going on, so they do not worry much about the yarn. Lloyd Nolan heads the fighters and Carole Landis drops in to give the battle some oomph.... "Counter Espionage" is more war.

Typewriter Ribbons: Anon: You can never get ahead of anyone as long as you are trying to get even with him.... This Week: Diplomacy—the art of letting someone else have your way.... T. Riggs: She was oblivious to the attention she created as she walked down the stairs.... Celia Cole: As relaxed as twilight.... D. T. Lutes: The sky was so blue you wished you could wear it.... Martin Lorrin: You never waste time; time wastes you.... Ernest Bucklet: Her face was smuggled with fatigue.

Ban Exit Permits For French Jews Visas Only Allow Return to Germany

BERN—The Vichy Government will refuse to issue exit visas to Jews in France "who wish to emigrate to places other than Germany," even though they may have visas for other countries, Chief of Government Pierre Laval announced this week, at a press conference in Vichy. Laval added that the ruling—which will affect several thousand Jews in France who possess visas for the United States and South American countries—applies only to foreign Jews who have been naturalized or have entered France since 1936.

Meanwhile, the Union Francaise, published in Lyon, in the unoccupied zone, stated that a campaign has been launched to confine all Jews under Laval's rule in a ghetto-like reservation outside of Vichy.

Laval said that his reasons for not granting exit visas to Jews who entered France since 1936 were, firstly, "because they might take up arms against Germany, which would be contrary to the Armistice agreement," and, secondly, "there is a suspicion that they would work against the interests of the French Government as soon as they reached another country," the Paris radio stated. At the same time, Laval reiterated his determination to continue the deportation of Jews from France, despite criticism from Catholic circles and the open opposition of the French people.

For a Woman's Fancy

*At a meeting of the National Council of Jewish Women held last Monday at the Biltmore Hotel, Miss Gertrude Pinsky, field secretary of the Council, spoke about the role Council was playing in the war effort.

Miss Pinsky stated that activities of different sections of the Council depended largely upon locality and community needs; international relations; social welfare; contemporary Jewish affairs; and service to foreign born. In regard to the last, Miss Pinsky brought attention to the fact that Council boats are still serving in that capacity and are appearing throughout the United States in every port of entry.

Spied at the meeting were: Mrs. John J. Rouslin, chairman of the affair, wearing a pretty shade of brown with a pale blue top and little tucks all over. Mrs. Al Saltzman in a silver fox coat and a suede hat of pale blue, fuchsia and black. Mrs. Rothchild who took care of arrangements chose a black crepe with four colorful applique roses.

Mrs. Louis Horvitz looked sweet in a two piece brown velvet. Mrs. Moses Mickler bubbling over with her usual enthusiasm in a tri-colored of pale green, red, and black.

Miss Pinsky, guest speaker, wore a pale blue shirtwaist. Mrs. Nathan Perlow, president of the organization, sported that very turkish "fez" with several loopings, and a black crepe dress studded with sequins. Mrs. Shirley Glass, Koppelman wore an adorable two piece taffeta with a solid navy top. Her hat consisted of the same blue crown with the plaid taffeta backdrop.

Mrs. John Silverman looked cute in a gay plaid suit with hat to match. Mrs. Morris Leuz attracted attention in a rare coral colored suit. Mrs. Blotcher wore re a simple black outfit with a large black chapeau. Mrs. Bernard Abedon wore brown with a tiny hat that just about sat atop her head. Mrs. Phil Marcus looked her usual attractive self in a green suit with wine accessories. Mrs. David Pollack chose a plaid coat with a cute l'il hat to match. Mrs. Colitz favored pale green while Mrs. Nelson who is leaving for Miami shortly, appeared in a red suit with a matching hat.

There are plenty of heret styles, among them the little Basque, the large and flat pancake, the chunky pin-cushion and the pompadour, or off-the-face hat.

Buys are available in that price range where workmanship is good and material fair. Although the felts are not of fine quality, many of the hats are well-styled and suitable for school and casual wear.

In soft wools, look for the close weave and resiliency. A limp, loosely woven material loses its shape.

It was only last year that the American women wanted to give their old silk stockings to the war effort, but the Government didn't want 'em. Now a way of using them in the manufacture of powder bags has been devised, and the Government has changed its mind.

Frank I. Welton, deputy WPB textile chief, is anxious now that women do not throw any more of their old silk or nylon hose away. "Until announcement of the start of the collection campaign, I want to ask all women to save their old and discarded silk and nylon hosiery in order that it will be available when the campaign gets under way."

Scene Around Town

How to Make Friends

The Dutch government-in-exile has released this story of the loyal Mayor of the village of Hippolytushoef, near the Zuyder Zee.... There, recently, a German soldier was attacked by a group of men who escaped.... The Nazi occupation officers arrested burgomaster Kolf, and demanded that he furnish the names of three hostages who could be held responsible for the correct behavior of the townsfolk.... The burgomaster supplied the three names, then was freed but quickly rearrested.... For the three names he had given were those of the two village idiots and the local collaborationist leader....

Here and There

Comment of a committee member who attended the customary pre-arranged and planned meeting - "I came, I saw, I concurred!"... Mrs. Lee Bergman has returned from a trip to Montreal.... She visited her parents there.... Sign of the times: the number of women, especially Jewish, who are now lunching daily at the Waldorf on Westminster street.... The Jack Seits and the Samuel Grossmans are receiving congratulations on the birth of sons at the Miriam Hospital.... Jack Mossberg is in the Navy now and is stationed at Newport... Velma Kramer leaves tomorrow for a week's visit to Washington....

Song Titles

If you hope some future son of yours will grow up to be President of the United States, you'd better arrange for the stork NOT to deliver him in either May or June.... For no person born in these two months has been elected Chief Executive.... Fussy we call it: marriages in England are legal only when performed between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. on a week-day.... Milton Berle's new song, "Who's Guarding the Coast Guard's Daughter While the Coast Guard's Guarding the Coast?" may sound like a bright idea to some, but to old-timers it reminiscent of a tune of a tune of a generation ago entitled "Who Paid the Rent for Mrs. Rip Van Winkle While Rip Van Winkle Was Away?"

We Heard

Archie Smith, newly-chosen assistant attorney general tells us he knows a Harvard man now in the army who sends letters for "Free" and writes "Gratuitously" in the right hand corner.... Thank Bill Bojar for "the joke has hair on its jest".... Paul Bergman is of the opinion that the main difference between the draft boards of the last war and this is that current boards became immediately interested in you - if you're still warm.... A visitor said he would dub those Hitler mouthings to the German populace: "Fuhr-erside Chats."

Hebrew Schools

Rabbi Carol Klein did a bang-up job in getting a Hebrew School underway at his Synagogue.... The Congregation will have its school in a building on Oakland avenue.... A group of Cranston Jews residents have banded together for regular meetings, with their children, so their offsprings will have an opportunity to meet other Jewish children.... The parents hope to establish a Hebrew School in the near future.... Employment of Jews In 1942 Increases According to Survey

NEW YORK—The ratio of the placement of Jews by Jewish employment service agencies in the United States and Canada was higher during the first six months of 1942 than in the corresponding period of last year.

A report on the status of Jews in employment was reported by Eli R. Cohen, executive director of the Jewish Occupational Council. In the year 1941, nearly 450,000 was spent by 20 Jewish vocational adjustment service agencies in the United States. The agencies filled a total of 18,508 jobs in 1942 as compared with 20,195 in 1941, but the reason the ration was placed higher for 1942 is because there were more registrations in 1941.

"Of significance," the Occupational Council says, "is that regular placements in jobs offering more or less permanent employment actually were more numerous in the first half of 1942 than in the previous year."
