

WAR THIS WEEK

French Sabotage

Sabotage continues in France, a dispatch from Lyons to the Geneva Tribune telling of a powerful delayed bomb that blew up a number of buildings used by the Germans as a shipping depot for war material.

British Induction Rule

Allied nationals of military age in Britain who have not joined their own forces within two months will be liable to induction into the British forces unless exempted by their Governments. This order does not apply to

United States citizens, the Ministry of Labor said.

Rumanian Edict

All Jews in Rumania between 18 and 50 will be drafted for public works projects, especially those of military interest, according to the Berlin Radio.

Must Pay in Advance

Housewives must pay their points in advance for home deliveries of butter and cheese by dairymen or salesmen. This was provided in an OPA amendment intended to permit deliveries during a housewife's absence from home.

On Labor Draft

War Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt said it would be impracticable to conduct nationwide campaigns to recruit either men or women for war work, and that campaigns confined to areas needing the workers are most effective.

To Draft Fathers

A conference of state Selective Service directors was called for next week amid reports that changes in regulations are impending to clear the way for drafting of fathers when other classes are exhausted.

War Profits

War profits trimmed to a size "which can clearly be defended in the court of public opinion" are recommended to contractors by the Senate Truman Committee as paying most dividends "in personal satisfaction and in dollars."

French Front

Complete agreement between French factions within 10 days is predicted as a result of preliminary talks between Gen. Catroux and Gen. Giraud, with Gen. de Gaulle likely to be recognized as the leader for metropolitan France.

Bulgaria Begins Mass Deportations

BERNE, Switzerland — After three months of relative quiescence, anti-Semitism flared again in Bulgaria this week with mass deportations to the Reich from Bulgaria and occupied Thrace and Macedonia.

An official report from Sofia tonight announced that "the first 10,000 of an estimated 40,000 eventual deportees "had arrived in Germany.

Deride Dickstein for Urging Ban On Pro-Axis Mailings

WASHINGTON — Heckling from Rep. Clare Hoffman of Michigan and suggestions from Rep. Frank Keefe of Wisconsin that Mr. Dickstein take his complaints to the Post Office Department greeted a speech by Rep. Samuel Dickstein of New York urging House action to ban pro-Axis and other fascist material from the United States mails.

After declaring that he could submit to the House Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads "a hundred publications which I believe are being used to undermine the faith of our people in some of their friends and neighbors", Mr. Dickstein was interrupted by Rep. Hoffman who inquired, "What does the gentleman mean by 'our people'?"

"The American people, of course," he replied. "What does the gentleman think I mean?" "I did not know, the way he was talking," was Mr. Hoffman's re-

Temple to Ratify ZOA Enrollment

Elihu D. Stone
Guest Speaker

Elihu D. Stone, member of the executive committee of the Zionist Organization of America, will be guest speaker this Monday night at a meeting of Temple Beth-Israel organizations called together to ratify the recent action of the Board of Trustees enrolling all members of the Temple in the ZOA. Mr. Stone will be introduced by Rabbi Morris Schussheim.

Participants in the meeting include the Congregation, Sisterhood, Daughterhood and the Men's Club. Irving Brodsky, president of the Men's Club, will officiate at a business session which will precede the ratification ceremonies. He will appoint a nominating committee for his organization.

On Radio Program

Maurice Stollerman, superintendent of Miriam Hospital, who will speak over station WPRO this Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock on the subject "War Challenge to Hospital Administration." The talk is under the auspices of the R. I. Medical Society.

Delegates, Time To Be Announced

Hull Lists Four Points on Agenda

WASHINGTON — The United States and Great Britain have agreed on Bermuda as the scene of the forthcoming conference on the refugee problem.

The State Department, which made the announcement said the date of the meeting would be announced shortly, as well as names of the representatives. The meeting is expected to take place within the next few months.

In proposing the conference to the British Government, Secretary of State Cordell Hull suggested on Feb. 25 that it be held in Ottawa. No reason for the transfer to the Atlantic island was given.

Spanish Morocco Gets Nazi Demands

TANGIER — The German ambassador to Madrid has submitted to General Franco a request of the German government for the deportation of all the Jews from certain cities in Spanish Morocco, it has been learned here. The number involved is approximately 16,000. The memorandum declared that the Jews of these cities are pro-Allied and therefore constitute a threat to the Axis powers and to Spain.

Loot Deposited In Turkish Banks

ISTANBUL — Axis leaders, fearing a United Nations victory, are depositing in Turkish banks large sums of money, jewelry and shares of stock looted from the Jews subjected to their authority, it was revealed here. The Turkish press reports that since the Axis defeats in Russia, ministers and other high officials in Rumania, Croatia, Slovakia and Bulgaria have been attempting to save the money and property they have confiscated by depositing it abroad.

Similarly, Rumanian officials are hastily selling confiscated Jewish property and transferring the money to Spain, according to the London News Chronicle's correspondent in that country.

First U. S. Rabbi Loses Life in War

YORK, PA. — The first U. S. Rabbi to lose his life in World War II was recorded with the death of Rabbi Alex D. Goode, of Beth Israel Congregation of this city. Details of his death, for official reasons, were not made public. He was lost early last month, and is survived by his wife and child.

Rabbi Goode graduated from Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati, in 1937.

Black Market Problem

Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown's disclosure that court actions were started against 1,025 individuals in a drive against illegal operators in meat between January 15 and March 11, gives fair warning that one of the grave problems which the United States may have to face shortly on its Home Front will be that scourge of countries in the War Zone—the "Black Market."

The United States is just beginning to hear about this problem because it batters on scarcities of commodities, and there's no place for it in times of plenty. The moment there is a serious shortage of any prime necessity, however—meat, for instance—the war profiteers come into action.

Wartime operators of "black markets" are in the category of those who are working against the country. They damage national morale by withholding supplies from the regular markets, thereby imposing suffering on the masses. They foster inflation by encouraging thoughtless and selfish people with money to pay exorbitant prices. They deprive the national treasury of bond investments to finance the war effort.

The moral of the experiences abroad seems to be that the way to handle the "black market" is to go after it right at the start and soak it with every weapon the law provides. Fines don't do much good, because the profits of the market are too great, but long terms of imprisonment at least put the operator out of commission for the duration of his incarceration.

At Long Last

We have been told that this is a mechanized modern war—that there cannot be any comparison to World War I. It is fitting therefore that modernization should extend through all branches of the service including the most unpopular one—the bugler who wakes the boys in the dawn.

Pvt. Clarence Zylman through his own arrangement "swings" reveille. Soldiers and even grouchy sergeants like his hot and sweet trumpeting. So it's not surprising that the rank and file—the boys who've "gotta get up, gotta get up this morning"—should appreciate the swing tempo. The thing that rings the bell for Zylman is that Headquarters approves and is sending the boogie-woogie bugler on a tour of Great Britain to demonstrate his arrangements of one of the most unpopular tunes in history.

So at long last the bugler has emerged from the doghouse, his reputation made solid by swing.

Communal Life Pre-War And Today To Be Studied

Working in co-operation with the National Conference of Jewish Social Welfare, a representative group of Providence individuals, under the direction of Joseph Galkin, executive director of the Jewish Family and Children's Service, have undertaken a survey of Jewish communal life before the war and today and the manner in which the community has met its new problems.

Those who have been invited to serve on the study committee are Alter Boyman, Charles C. Brown, Archibald Silverman, Joseph Finkle, Dr. Carl Jagoliner, Rabbi Morris Schussheim, Rabbi Israel M. Goldman, Jacob I. Cohen, Maurice Stollerman and Isaac Feinstein. In addition to the above men, other leaders in the community will be consulted individually in order to obtain their opinions on certain aspects of the study.

A meeting of the study group will take place on April 8, at the Carpenter Memorial Building, 100 North Main street, at 3:30 o'clock.

Material from the discussions will be pooled with surveys in other cities and presented at the annual convocation of the Conference to be held in Cleveland in May.

Kurt Peiser, president of the Conference, in a letter to Mr. Galkin requesting that he sponsor the study revealed that "it was recognized that basic to the concept of a common program was that the current problems of Jewish communal life, social service and education should be approached from the standpoint of the whole Jewish community rather than from the point of view of specific agencies or fields."

Nazi Ransom Swindle Blocked

WASHINGTON — The Treasury Department has reported the disruption of an international Nazi-sponsored scheme to extract ransom from relatives of persons in Axis territories with the promise of emigration as the reward.

The Department revealed that an order issued last November barring money transfers to buy exit visas for persons in enemy territory had been effective in halting the German swindle which attempted to extort large sums from victims who did not realize that the person on whose behalf the plea was made was dead.

RUSSIAN UNDERSTANDING

NEW YORK — America must understand Russia, declared Gardner Cowles, Jr., of the OWI, as well as Russia's place in the scheme of things to follow.

Need 2 Months to End Vichy Laws

WASHINGTON — It will be two months before all the anti-Jewish and other Vichy laws abrogated this week by Gen. Giraud are completely wiped out, it was stated this week in a Morocco broadcast heard by the Federal Communications Commission monitors. This gradual cancellation of the decrees is necessary "in order not to disturb the economic and social life of the people and to avoid the possibility of anarchy," the broadcast stated.

Announcing that "all distinctions affecting the status of Jews have been abolished," Radio Morocco added that "measures will be taken by the governors and the resident-generals for the restoration to Jews of their offices and rights." The broadcast emphasized that the Cremieux decree has been abrogated by Gen. Giraud because "this decree favored Jewish natives as compared with Moslems as far as securing French nationality was concerned."

Auxiliary Joins Serv-a-Camp Project

Mrs. Arthur Kaplan discussed Serv-a-Camp at a meeting last week of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Rabbinical College of Telshe held at the Jewish Community Center. In the absence of Mrs. Delaty, Mrs. Abraham Horowitz presided.

Following Mrs. Kaplan's talk, Mrs. Harry Orenstein was appointed chairman of the Auxiliary's Serv-a-Camp committee.

Scholars Demand Action for Jews

NEW YORK — Two hundred eighty-two scholars have petitioned President Roosevelt "to apply hitherto unused methods to save the millions of European Jews doomed by Hitler."

The scholars, affiliated with 83 colleges or universities and 16 research institutions, were signers of a petition initiated by the Yiddish Scientific Institute—Yivo, an institution for research and training in Jewish social studies.

What Cheer Corps Sells War Bonds

Members of the What Cheer Military Corps, under the direction of Mrs. Max Rapoport, sold $61,225 in War Bonds at 18 bowling alleys throughout the state. During the week the R. I. Bowling Alley Association sponsored the appearance of Tony Santini, national duck pin champion. The Corps also sold $58,384 in War Bonds for the Jascha Heifetz concert.

Assisting Mrs. Rapoport were the Misses Sally Gordon, Esther Travis, Janet Travis, Thelma Rimnick, Vera Blake and Betty Rice.

858 Children Come Home

TEL AVIV — The odyssey of 858 Jewish children stranded in Teheran for many months has come to a rightful end. They ranged in age from two infants born en route to sturdy 19 year olds. Pictured above (top) the 858 boys and girls begin to feel the firm earth of Palestine; (left) two 8-year olds lug their wanderers' pack the last few steps; (right) a nurse helps one tired youngster off the train.

Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity Has Annual Pledge Dance

Rho Chapter of the Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity held a pledge dance at their chapter house on the Rhode Island State College campus last week-end. Maurice Shore, of Providence, and Edgar Barwood, of Boston, were in charge of arrangements. Pledges, brothers and guests that attended were Alvin W. Pansy, Pawtucket, and Mary Silverman, Providence; David Wilkes, Providence, and Florence Goldfarb, Pawtucket; Leonard Decof, Providence, and Betty Orkin, New York; Burton Botvin, Providence, and Thelma Hershman, Littleton, Mass.; Leonard A. I.; David Horowitz and Maida Shaw, Providence; Richard Paster and Evelyn Sherman, Providence; William Gertz and June Gordon, Providence; Raymond Gertz and Minnie Gurwitz, Providence; Harold Krasner and Annette Wintman, Providence; Alfred Litwin and Gloria Friedlander, Fall River; Moe Shore and Miriam Levin, Fall River.

Select Bermuda as Conference Site

(Continued from Page 1) for inter-governmental relief in behalf of persons fleeing from persecution for religious, racial and political reasons, particularly Jews who have been persecuted by the Hitler regime in Germany, Secretary Hull suggested that the meeting be an informal "preliminary exploration of ways and means." He listed four points for the agenda as follows:

"The refugee problem should not be considered as being confined to persons of any particular race or faith."
"Wheresoever practicable, inter-governmental collaboration should be sought in these times of transportation difficulty, shipping storage, and submarine menace, to the end that arrangements may be determined for temporary asylum for refugees as near as possible to the areas in which those people find themselves at the present time and from which they may be returned to their homelands with the greatest expediency on the termination of hostilities."

"The possibilities for the temporary asylum of the refugees, with a view to their repatriation upon the termination of hostilities, in countries other than neutral, and their dependencies, should be explored, together with the question of the availability of shipping to effect their movement from Europe."

Obituary

BARNEY SENTLER

Funeral services for Barney Sentler, 72, one of the earliest Jewish settlers in Pawtucket, were held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Israel Cohen, 27 Hilton street, Pawtucket, last Monday morning. Rabbi Aaron Golden and Cantor Joseph Schlossberg officiated at the ceremonies. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Mr. Sentler came to Rhode Island from Russia 50 years ago and for many years was in the retail shoe business in Central Falls. He was one of the founders and organizers of the Pawtucket Ahavath Sholem Synagogue and was also a member of the Providence Fraternal Association and the Hebrew Free Loan Association.

Besides Mrs. Cohen, Mr. Sentler is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Samuel Goldstein, of Pawtucket; three sons, Michael of Pawtucket, and Charles J. and Albert of Providence; eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

BENJAMIN MAZO

Funeral services for Benjamin Mazo who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Fain, 15 Astral avenue, were held from the Max Sugarman Funeral Home last Wednesday afternoon. Rabbi Israel M. Goldman officiated at the ceremonies and burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Mr. Mazo, retired for the past 15 years, was formerly a glass worker. He was born in Russia and came to this country 51 years ago. His wife, Bessie (Salk) Mazo, died 29 years ago.

He was a member of the Rhode Island Fraternal Association and the South Providence Hebrew Synagogue.

Surviving him besides Mrs. Fain are two sons, Nathan Mazo of Providence and Max Mazo of Hartford, Conn.; three other daughters, Mrs. Benjamin Seltzer of New York, Mrs. George Rice of Providence and Mrs. Isadore Plotkin of Bridgeport, Conn.; nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

HARRY WINE

Funeral services for Harry Wine, of 100 Moore street, were held last Wednesday afternoon from the Max Sugarman Funeral Home. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Mr. Wine is survived by his wife, Lena Wine; 3 sons, David of Providence, Leo of Portland and Rudolph of Boston; 4 daughters, Mrs. Charles H. Levy, Mrs. Ruben Lipson, Mrs. J. Bronski, all of Providence and Mrs. Julius Levin of Muskogee, Okla.; 11 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

For the convenience of phone workers, but common folks like the rest of us are admitted... For a whiff of British atmosphere take a walk along Thames Street. It is where ye olde chop houses and taverns are located, as well as architecture patterned after London's side streets. (And don't forget to bring your monocle, Mr. Jessel)... The green door at the top of the left-hand stairway on the mezzanine in Madison Square Garden leads to the most exclusive club in town—for the Garden's owners, stockholders and friends... It also has a library, a taproom and a cocktail lounge... The large pew in St. Paul's Church on lower Broadway has the coat of arms of the U. S., because it once was occupied by General Washington and his family. But you may sit in it.

Our town doesn't produce one thing to feed, clothe or warm us. Everything we use is shipped in... You can get the best view of the majestic steel poetry of the G. Siamese Consulate has the softest snap. Never has to take care of more than a half dozen Siamese nationals... The Hapsburg Restaurant on 55th Street, until recently, featured a hat-check girl who gave you a dime with your hat... It's an interesting city, Our Town... Which out-of-towners allege is a nice place to visit, but not to live in... But more people live in New York City than anywhere in the world.

It happened during the recent FBI raid on Tough Touhy and Basil Banghart in Chicago... John Edgar Hoover, leading the raid in the pitch black night, gun in hand, accidentally stepped on a sleeping cat... The G-Man's surprise—you can well imagine—was as startling as the pussy's.

But what we started out to report was a comment of Banghart, who said: "Mr. Hoover, please send me to Alcatraz. I hate where I was!"... Mr. Hoover asked: "What's wrong with it? It has a nice, big, stone wall, to keep out the riff-raff!"... To which Banghart whined: "I don't like it there. Too many thieves. They are the worst cardcheats of all!"

You've probably read it before. That's how we got it. But it belongs here, we think. It's too good for the opposition, anyhow.

It's the one about the cook on a destroyer who was sooooo seasick. The Captain, on the bridge, was cold and hungry. He sent a Lt. below to bring back a couple of ham-and-egg sandwiches... The officer found the cook prostrate across a table... "A couple of ham-and-egg sandwiches for the Captain, pronto!" he barked.

"Ohhhh" groaned the agonized cook. "I'm sooooo sick. I just couldn't look at food. Please go awawawawaw!"

"Don't you know what will happen if you don't?" asked the Lt.

"What can happen—what can happen?" groaned the cook.

"The Captain will come down here and shoot you!"

"Ohhhh," was the retort, "I WISH HE WOULD!"

The reason the National Press Club again did not hold its annual dinner for FDR was that the Secret Service nixed it. Tradition demands it be held in that building... Several newspapers are offering fancy salaries to scribes over 38, but require signing of a waiver to all job rights 60 days after the Armistice... OPA men are visiting swank spots to inspect food stocks and "hoarding, if any"... Averell Harriman may inherit Winant's London post if Winant enters the Cabinet.

Palestine Studies Post-War Security

JERUSALEM — Preliminary investigations designed to provide for Palestine a social security plan resembling in some particulars the plan proposed for Great Britain by Sir William Beveridge have been announced in Jerusalem.

It has been pointed out that the problems arising in Palestine as regards its post-war development are many and complex, and that any plan must aim at paving the way for desirable additions to public services, developing municipal activities, promoting the welfare of the rural population, covering industrial development and reorganization, and select for perpetuation those industries that can be assured of survival in the face of foreign competition under peace-time conditions.

PLAN BUS ROUTE

TEL AVIV — A direct omnibus route overland from Palestine to Persia is now being planned, according to a report in the Hebrew Daily Haaretz.

Center Lecturer

Maurice Hindus, foreign press correspondent for the New York Herald-Tribune who has just returned from the battlefields of Russia, will speak on Sunday evening, April 11, at the Jewish Community Center. Much of Mr. Hindus' time in the Soviet Union was spent on the Rkhey front where he interviewed scores of German prisoners and examined papers found on the bodies of Nazis. He forecast that Russia would fight and check the Nazis.

Mothers Alliance To Support Refugee

Members of the Jewish Mothers Alliance this week voted an appropriation of $180 to support one of the 858 children recently rescued from Teheran. Mrs. Alter Boyman, representative of the Women Pioneers, made the appeal on behalf of the child refugees. Other contributions voted included $25 for the Jewish National Worker's Alliance; $5 for the Passover Fund for Servicemen; and $10 for the Red Cross.

N. Y. Police Start Drive To End Temple Vandalism

BROOKLYN — A wave of unorganized Hitler hoodlumism has broken out with about 40 to 50 attacks against 17 different synagogue buildings reported to police since January 1.

Officials consider the situation worse than at the height of the pro-Nazi Christian Front in 1938-1940, when organized groups of these Hitler helpers openly precipitated anti-Semitic street riots in Brooklyn.

Last week Commissioner Valentine issued special orders to Brooklyn police to stop the attacks. Special plain-clothes details with instructions to use "drastic action" already have been assigned.

First Arrests

Their first arrests were reported last week. Two 17-year-old boys confessed to four separate attacks on the Olsh Zedek Congregation building.

It was in Flatbush where the Christian Front concentrated its activity, particularly in the Kings Highway vicinity, where it held frequent street meetings.

It was not uncommon to hear these frankly pro-Nazi speakers shout that Hitler methods should be used in the U. S. A. Federal indictments, public opinion and the war ended these organized anti-Semitic activities.

Police reported that the recent work of hoodlums usually consisted of smashing synagogue windows, which, in some cases, were irreplaceable stained glass memorials. In other cases the buildings, and the interiors were smeared with Swastikas and religious objects smashed.

BE READY For Any Emergency!

When you really need money, you need it fast. If you borrow from others—you'll have interest to pay. If you have been forehanded and built up a savings account, you don't have to borrow—there's not even a service charge.

It's wise to build up a cash reserve at Old Colony by saving as you earn—on a weekly, monthly or irregular interval basis. Your savings grow steadily, and regularly compounded dividends increase the total.

In time, you can have on hand a sizable sum for the down payment toward some ownership, for business opportunity, for special advantages for your children. And meanwhile, your savings are always available in full to meet any emergency.

Ask an Old Colony representative for a personal savings plan based on your own particular needs. Helpful leaflets free on request.

For a Woman's Fancy

Maternity Wardrobe

A maternity wardrobe, even more than others, needs to be planned and thought through. Going out and impulsively snatching a few dresses that you think will do, won't do. For one thing the practical planner wants to think ahead and buy clothes that, with simple adjustments, will prove useful and enjoyable after the new comer arrives.

With the average age of the parttime mother only 22 years, there is a particular demand now for young and pretty maternity clothes.

Most Popular Design

Front fullness in the silhouette is the most popular design for early maternity wear. As front fullness is also much used in ordinary dresses, this gives a perfectly natural look to your clothes and the transition is almost imperceptible. The secret of the maternity clothes, however, lies in the adjustable waistlines, developed by a series of hooks and eyes or buttons at either side. There is no government limitation on yardages for maternity clothes, either, so they may be reasonably full and still quite right with WPB.

Accessories for Change

First choice is generally in a dark color—navy or black—a basic dress which may be lightened up with accessories, frequently lingerie touches at the neck and cuffs. Being removable, these allow for plenty of imagination and frequent changes. One navy sheer with a bolero jacket looks exactly like a regular dress. Its skirt is softly full at front, but deep folds of material at the sides, though hidden, stand ready to care for broader waistlines. The front fullness remains intact and allows the skirt to hang gracefully, without looking skimpy in the least.

Match Them Up

Everything isn't as bad as it seems. Your stocking situation, for example. If you have several odd ones clattering up your drawers, get them out and match them in pairs by dyeing them a dye-bath. You can still longer life to faded hosiery the same way. It's as simple as matching them since tinting requires no boiling.

Baby Shoes

Don't buy a baby his first pair of hard-soled shoes until he has stopped crawling and learned to walk.

Until that time, sock-type foot coverings, such as leather slippers should be worn for protection against drafts and splinters.

Shoes should be soft and flexible. But even more important than quality of leather and the construction of the shoes is proper fit. An ill-fitting shoe can't let you know how it feels on his foot, so you must make every effort to follow the principles of correct fit for him.

Check Shape of Foot

Study the shape of your child's feet before buying his shoes. Bony feet will require shoes built on a

Official Table of Consumer Point Values for Kosher Meats

The same point value per pound shall be charged for an item whether it is fresh, frozen, cured, or smoked.

This table contains most of the Kosher items usually bought by consumers. Some of the items not shown here, but occasionally bought by consumers, may be bought at the point values listed in your dealer's copy of the Official Table of Trade Point Values.

Points may be charged only for items shown on either the Official Consumer or Trade Point Value Table. No foods covered by Ration Order 16 may be sold or transferred without points.

Your dealer will weigh and determine the point value of your purchase. The point value will not be figured again if you have him change the form (such as boning, grinding, dicing) of the item you bought.

Palestinian Oil May End Shortage

Haifa Line Will Serve U. S. Forces

NEW YORK — Oil from Palestine may relieve the current shortage on the East Coast of the United States, according to the current issue of Ethyl News, published by the Ethyl Corporation. As soon as the forces of the United Nations clear the sea lanes of the Mediterranean the trade organ points out, it will be unnecessary to ship oil from New York to Algiers, a distance of 3,600 miles, when the short route of 1,200 miles from Haifa to Sfax, in Tunisia, is available.

The modern Haifa refinery, which processes crude oil carried by pipeline from the Kirkuk fields in Iraq, will thus become a significant source of aid to the United States, as it has been to the British in the Eastern Mediterranean since the outbreak of war.

During the Axis-fomented Arab disturbances in 1936-39, Jewish volunteer units guarded the pipeline to Haifa night and day, preventing acts of sabotage and quickly repairing breaks in the line.

Returns from Trip To Central America

MRS. ARCHIBALD SILVERMAN
 Mrs. Archibald Silverman, who in 1942 raised record-breaking sums for the Keren Hayesod in England, has returned from a Central American trip embracing Jamaica, Curacao and Panama, where a total of $60,000 was raised in the Jewish communities. It is reported that Mrs. Silverman was forced to cut short her visit to the other Central American countries upon receipt of an urgent call for a repeat visit to England.

It Happened This Week

Meat Rationing

It will take a week or two before housewives begin to realize that a ration board isn't necessary to figure out the point rationing of meats... One of our local butchers beat the gun this week when he insisted that his customers turn over this week's coupons for the meat they were purchasing... The ladies had little choice... They had to promise or no meat... There are lots of wrinkles that will have to be ironed out... For instance, if you go to a delicatessen and buy sandwich meat, you have to give him ration coupons... But if you have the meat made up into sandwiches—and it is part of his regular business to make sandwiches—you don't have to give up coupons...

Up The Ladder

Bernard Seiber, son of the Morris Seibers, of Quannam street, graduated this week from Columbia University with the commission of Ensign in the Naval Reserve... After a 10 day tour through Ensign Seiber will entrain for Ohio State University in Columbus for further training... He's a graduate of Hope High, class of 1926... He then travelled to Los Angeles and some years later entered USC from which he graduated in 1942 with a degree in law... Ensign Seiber came up from the ranks having enlisted as an apprentice seaman... This column wasn't the only appreciator of the Center Purim dance... B. Aler, writing in his column for the Yiddish press, was enthusiastic about the affair... He commented that the 100 servicemen present participated in the fine program and he got quite a kick when he saw and heard a red-headed Italian soldier and a husky Irish sailor singing Purim songs...

Ruben Lipson was one of two commissioners named this week to the Commission on Interstate Cooperation... He will serve a two-year term... The appointments were made by Governor McGrath... Justin Beck, gunner's mate, 3rd class, is home on furlough... He dropped into the Center this week to say hello... Florence Kwasha is impatiently awaiting her call to embark for training as a WAVE... Irving and Morris Satloff departed Thursday for Springfield where they will attend radio school... The senior game room just won't seem the same without them... Marvin Rodinsky, star forward on the Center basketball team, tells us he is having no trouble getting adjusted at the Coast Guard training station in Manhattan Beach, Brooklyn... Ethel Sydney Lipet, songstress, who has done so much at socials to help entertain servicemen stationed in this area is off to join her husband in Fort Warren, Cheyenne, Wyoming... Robert Klitzner and Sydney Gregerman were inducted into the Navy this week...

We heard Oscar Levant tell this one about the minister in New York who telephoned a minister in California... "Is this a station-to-station call?" queried the operator... "No," replied the reverend... "It's parson-to-parson..." A wag called to say that he had a fight with his grocer this week but that his grocer out-pointed him... He also said his girl's so ugly that her rationing board has stationed her in restaurants to spoil appetites... And he further alleged that he's seen a new kind of B picture—shouldn't B... That's all for now...

HONOR ROLL

Distinguished Service

Lt. Norman Segal, 23, of New York City, is the second American Jewish serviceman recorded in The Honor Roll as the holder of five decorations. He is the recipient of the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal, and three Oak Leaf Clusters. Lieutenant Segal, a navigator, is a member of what has been described as "the most experienced light bomber squadron in the American air force."

In service two-and-a-half years, Lieutenant Segal has been on active overseas duty since July 1942 and has participated in at least two-score operational sorties against the enemy on the North African front, and before that over occupied Europe. It was this squadron, under command of Major Charles C. Kegelman of Oklahoma, which delivered the first American air blow against the Nazis in the July 4th raid last year.

Corp. Alexander Zaretsky, 20, of Cincinnati, joins the ranks of thrice-decorated American Jewish airmen, with the announcement that he has received the Distinguished Flying Cross. Previously he had been awarded the Silver Star and Air Medal. Corporal Zaretsky received the D.F.C. for "extraordinary achievement while participating in air flights."

Corporal Zaretsky's combat experience goes back more than two years. He has seen action at Pearl Harbor, Midway and other areas and is now in New Zealand.

Pvt. Edward Schlessel, 22, of Cleveland, was killed by enemy gunfire in the Solomon Islands fighting while manning a position at an advance post. Private Schlessel enlisted in the Marine Corps and had been in service seven months.

T/Sgt. Saul Suskind, 21, of New York City, was killed aboard a Flying Fortress while on a bombing raid over Germany. A graduate of Stuyvesant High School, Sergeant Suskind had been in service three-and-a-half years.

Michael Schwartz, Merchant Marine, of Brooklyn, lost his life when his vessel, the Indian Arrow, was torpedoed 100 miles off the Atlantic coast. He was the son of Max Schwartz of 2344 Ocean Parkway.

Capt. Jerrold I. Goldberg, 27, of Rochester, N. Y., has been wounded in the North African fighting. He sustained his injury in a furious tank battle, when his tank was badly hit and put out of action; emerging, he was felled by a rifle bullet, but after a time began his return to the American lines. It was a slow, tortuous ten mile trek in knee-deep mud. When he reached the American lines an Army doctor extracted shrapnel from his scalp, with a flashlight for illumination and a moth-eaten tent for an operating room.

straight last, whereas fleshy or chubby feet need shoes that are built on a wide last. (Lasts are the wooden forms on which shoes are molded. They determine the shape of the shoes.)

Have your child stand up with his weight squarely on both feet so that the length and the width can be measured accurately. Allow no more than a half-inch margin in length for three to four months' growth.

A first pair of shoes should have pliable leather uppers and lightweight soles. The thickness of the sole should be increased as the child becomes more proficient in walking. The uppers should always be pliable leather for maximum comfort. Stiff leathers may be durable, but they do not permit enough foot flexibility in walking.

To Further Relief For Refugees

NEW YORK — In order to coordinate programs of relief and rehabilitation on behalf of 125,000 refugees from Nazism who have found asylum in Latin American countries, the Joint Distribution Committee, major American agency for aid to Jews overseas, is dispatching a trained social worker for permanent representation in that area, it was announced this week by Joseph C. Hyman, executive vice-chairman of the committee.

Louis H. Sobel, a member of the J. D. C.'s overseas staff, flew to Miami. Mr. Hyman said, where he will embark for Venezuela on the first lap of a tour which will cover the South American republics. Mr. Sobel, who is a prominent social worker and vocational guidance authority, is on a leave of absence from his post as executive director of the Federation Employment Service of New York.

Navy's Only Woman Ensign Weingrun Teaches Navigation

WASHINGTON — Step right up and see the United States Navy's only woman Ensign (she's not in the WAVES)—Ensign Lucile Weingrun, blonde, pert and pretty. Not only does she teach two regular navigation courses at Vanderbilt University, but, when one of her students whistled as she entered the classroom on the first day of the term, she put two fingers in her mouth and emitted a piercing whistle that shocked him into silence.

"If you must whistle," she said to the offender, "you should learn the right way to do it—the Navy way."

She hasn't had any trouble with her students since.

Lucile decided to become an Ensign before the death of her husband, a Coast Guard man who had been taking a course which would have graduated him an Ensign. Lucile studied along with him and won her present rating.

"My husband and I always sailed together," she explained. "I adopted his hobby, sailing. We owned a racing-sloop, the Jo-Jean, and entered her in competitive races. We won four cups between us!"

Last year Ensign Weingrun's students numbered 44, all of whom are now in the service. One of them, she'll tell you proudly, is leading his class of 2,100 boys in a midshipman's school.

Ensign Weingrun is not completely satisfied with her present position, however. Her real ambition is to be a navigator on an eight man bomber. "My hopes of ever actually being one are low, though," she says, "because the Navy just won't allow it...and just because I wear skirts, darn it!"

Hadassah Joins Bomber Campaign

Announce $25,000 "Unofficially" Raised

Providence Chapter of Hadassah has joined the national campaign to provide funds for the purchase of a fleet of bombers which will be known as the "Hadassah Air Armada," it was announced this week. At a board meeting members of the local Chapter purchased more than $25,000 in War Bonds. The campaign will officially open on April 13 at a general meeting of the organization to be held in the Biltmore Hotel.

Guest speaker at the meeting will be Prof. Bessie Bloom Wessel, sociology professor at Connecticut College for Women. Prof. Wessel formerly taught at Pembroke College.

Chapters throughout the country have been informed that the Treasury Department will name a medium bomber for the organization for every $175,000 worth of "E" Bonds sold by its members. For every $300,000 sold a heavy bomber will be inscribed with Hadassah's name.

5400 Immigration Certificates Issued

JERUSALEM — The Palestine Government has made available to the Jewish Agency for Palestine a total of 5,400 immigration certificates for the three-month period which began January 1 of this year and ends March 31, it was announced this week.

The immigration schedule provides also, the Official Gazette reported, 100 certificates for non-Jews.

The 5,400 immigration certificates include 4,000 which have been earmarked by the Palestine Government for the use of Jewish refugee children from the Balkan country and from France, leaving only 1,400 for distribution by the Jewish Agency.

Suggest Latin America For Jews

NEW YORK — A Buenos Aires dispatch to the newspaper PM, written by Ray Josephs, speaks of "a vast plan for resettling thousands of Jews and other refugees in South America." According to Mr. Josephs, the plan "is being studied in several important Latin American capitals as one of the most important points in the United Nations' post-war program."

Boy Scouts of Troop 20 Receive Merit, Star Awards

Members of Boy Scouts of Troop 20 conducted a special Parent's night last Tuesday evening, under the direction of Milton B. Levin, scoutmaster.

Members of the Troop committee were announced. They are E. Max Weiss, chairman; Saul Sadow, budget director; Arthur Kaplan, advancement director; Simon Lesser, liaison director; Joseph Ross, camping director; and Charles Emers, public health and safety director.

Assistant scoutmasters are Bernard Clorman, Norman Robinson, Herbert Bander and Arthur Klitzner. The Moose Patrol, in charge of Marcus Pearlman, was named Honor Patrol. Murray Goldberg was introduced as Mayor of Troop 20.

Merit badge awards were given to David Rothman, Marcus Pearlman, Edward Fink, Murray Goldberg and Eugene Eckoff. Star awards were given to Marcus Pearlman, Eugene Eckoff, Edward Fink and Murray Goldberg.

Arthur Klitzner, on the eve of his enlistment into the Navy, presented a bugle to the Troop.

The evening ended with the showing of movies.
