

WAR THIS WEEK

To Reduce Meat Prices

The Office of Price Administration announced that reduced meat prices, averaging three cents a pound below current prices, will be effective at retail on June 21 on all meat except cured and processed pork, for which the new prices will start July 5.

Russia's War Loan

Soviet Russia's second war loan of 12,000,000,000 rubles was oversubscribed in the first 24 hours by 2,561,000,000 rubles. The ruble has roughly a nominal foreign trade value of 19 cents. At this rate 12,000,000,000 rubles would amount to $2,280,000,000.

Remove Ban

Handbags, dress gloves, brief cases and other civilian leather products, whose production was prohibited after June 1, may be produced through the rest of this year out of manufacturers' inventories of leather, the War Production Board ruled.

Post-War Relief

Relief and rehabilitation in areas liberated from the Axis will be the subject of a United Nations conference which it is expected will be held during the later summer in the United States, probably near Washington.

To Investigate Subsidies

A Senate Committee inquiring into the Administration's authority to pay subsidies to compensate for a roll-back in the retail prices of meats and butter was informed that the Office of Price Administration next intends to depress fresh vegetable prices.

Fascist Purge

More Fascist Party leaders have been expelled, as the Party shake-up continues. The Rome Radio reports that 14 have been ousted in this latest move, among them an employee of the Ministry of Foreign Exchange, expelled for "neglect of duty."

Turkey Policy

President Inonu of Turkey declared that his Government's policy is to keep the nation at peace in an address at the opening meeting of the sixth annual Party Congress at Ankara, reported by the Berlin Radio.

Editorials

At the Crossroad

A tragedy, affecting 25,000 Bulgarian Jews, has been temporarily averted. Some weeks ago it was revealed that these Jews were to be deported to occupied territory to be used as forced laborers. As 4,000 of them were being marched to the station groups of Bulgarian demonstrators, shouting "seditious slogans" clashed with police and prevented half of the 4,000 from being exiled. Troops had to be called out to restore order. Expulsion of the remainder had to be temporarily postponed.

The demonstration in Sofia was unmistakably a triumph for the cause of the United Nations. Germany, however, cannot permit signs of weakness among her satellite allies and will insist upon resumption of the deportations.

A long struggle, therefore, between Axis and United Nations sympathizers in Bulgaria is reaching a climax. The lives of thousands of Jews in Sofia and surrounding provinces hang in the balance.

Resistance in Warsaw

The heroic resistance of the Jewish men and women of the Warsaw ghetto, many of them fighting with their bare hands, others with arms smuggled into the ghetto by the Polish underground, has been "liquidated" according to the secret radio station SWIT. The bitter, uneven battle, which raged for more than two weeks, has been an inspiration to the occupied peoples of Hitler's Europe.

It may be assumed that the overwhelming majority of those gallant Warsaw Jews now are dead, but their action will live forever in the hearts of all who love freedom.

Advantage of Failure

How the Nazis are using the results of the Bermuda Conference in their propaganda is shown in the following short-wave broadcast, beamed on May 20 from Berlin to Latin America:

"London—England doesn't like the Jews either. This has been shown by the debate in the House of Commons on the conference on immigrants in which the representatives proposed Argentina. (Continued on page 2)

Eden Reviews Refugee Problems

Says Palestine Has Room for 30 000

LONDON — Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, told Commons last week that there was room for 30,000 more refugees in Palestine, but that British efforts to move children there from occupied countries failed because it was impossible to get Axis permission.

He said the British War Cabinet had approved the recommendations made by the Bermuda Refugee Conference and had taken steps to put them into effect.

But Maj. Osbert Peake, reporting to Commons on the conference, declared that the United Nations could do little at present to help conquered peoples because "Hitler is determined not to let them go." He said Britain has received 63,000 refugees in the past few years, in addition to 400,000 others who have gone to India

Rumania Levies Huge Fine on Jews

LONDON — A collective fine of 4,000,000,000 lei, to be paid before Sept. 1, 1943, has been imposed on the Jews of Rumania, according to reports reaching here. Those who fail to pay their share will be deported to Russian-occupied territory, it is stated.

Willkie Urges War Council; Backs Jewish Commonwealth

NEW YORK — A proposal for the immediate establishment of a United Nations War Council from which the instrumentalities of peace can grow has been put forth by Wendell L. Willkie, as a result of his conviction that we win in the peace only what we win in the war.

This proposal was contained in a letter addressed to the Grandmaster of the Order Sons of Zion, Harry A. Pine, in reply to a query concerning Mr. Willkie's views on the contribution of the Jews in Palestine to the United Nations War Effort.

Mr. Willkie's letter was accompanied by a copy of a special statement he prepared recently stressing his endorsement of the aspirations of the Jewish people to establish their national home in Palestine, the case for which, he declared, has always rested upon historic rights and international law.

Hitler's program of extermination of the Jewish people, Willkie, said, has made their effort to re-establish Palestine a case for the conscience of mankind. Due to the exigencies of time when submitting his report to the people of the United States upon return from his worldwide tour, Mr. Willkie could not discuss, as fully as he would have liked, Jewish Palestine's contribution to the United Nations War Effort.

Forbid Inquiries On Workers' Creed

WASHINGTON — Following investigation of charges that some of the biggest war plants in the New York area have been checking on the race, creed and color of applicants for employment through private investigation firms, the office of the Provost Marshal-General has inserted in war contracts a clause forbidding any inquiries into or report of race, creed or color of any investigated person except with the permission of the President's Commission on Fair Employment Practice at whose request the clause was inserted.

Voted Brooklyn's Number One Citizen

BROOKLYN, N. Y. — Edward Lazansky, retired presiding justice of the appellate division of the Supreme Court, has been designated "Brooklyn's Number One Citizen" by the Men's League of Brooklyn. Born in Brooklyn 70 years ago and a lifelong resident of that borough, Mr. Lazansky declared that this constituted the greatest honor he has received.

Naming of Haller Puzzles Liberals

JERUSALEM — Jewish leaders as well as Polish liberal circles here are greatly surprised that the Polish Government has appointed Gen. Josef Haller as Minister for the Middle East to succeed Prof. Stanislaw Kot. A resolution protesting Gen. Haller's appointment was adopted at the 28th session of the Supreme Committee of the Revisionist Party.

Many Jews from Poland remember "Haller's Army" which terrorized the Jewish population in Poland after World War I. It is pointed out that his past anti-Jewish activities may make it difficult for him to secure the confidence of the Jews in Palestine.

Organizations Urged to File Delegate, Candidate Name

Organizations were urged this week by Archibald Silverman, chairman of the R. I. section of the American Jewish Conference, to file the names of their delegates and to nominate three candidates to represent them and the State at the national Conference to be held next month. Rhode Island is entitled to three representatives.

Accredited delegates will vote for the representatives Sunday afternoon, June 27, from 1 to 5 o'clock, in the headquarters of the Conference, 203 Strand Building.

The purpose of the national American Jewish Conference is:

(1) To consider and recommend action of problems relating to the rights and status of Jews in the post-war world.

(2) To consider and recommend action upon all matters looking to the implementation of the rights of the Jewish people with respect to Palestine.

(3) To elect a delegation to carry out the program of the American Jewish Conference in cooperation with the duly accredited representatives of Jews throughout the world.

WASHINGTON — General Giraud has taken action to put an end to all racial discrimination in North Africa with respect to the professions and with respect to positions in the personnel, military or civilian, of the armed forces, it was revealed by John J. McCloy, Assistant Secretary of War in a message to Dr. Stephen S. Wise, president of the American Jewish Congress.

In a communication to Dr. Wise, Secretary McCloy declares:

"In the Ordinance of March 14, 1943, general measures were taken abolishing all racial discrimination in admission to, and exercise of, the professions, and a further order of May 5 stipulates that government employees and agents who had been dismissed because of their Jewish origin are to be restored to their full rights. Finally, a note emanating from the Major General (similar to our Adjutant General) of the Army was sent on May 15 to Army, Navy and Air Forces specifying that 'all racial discrimination in matters affecting recruiting, promotions to all grades, classes and echelons, and assignments and transfers of military or civilian personnel of the armed forces be discontinued immediately.' This note further emphasizes that these instructions apply not only to Jews of French origin but also to native Algerian Jews who were French citizens before the recent abrogation of the Decret Cremieux. Thus all distinctions between French and native Jews in the armed forces have been completely abolished."

Say Nazi Red Cross Blocks Aid

LONDON — The British Red Cross accused the German Red Cross this week of deliberately blocking communication between Jews in the ghettos of the Nazi-occupied countries and their relatives in England. At the same time the British Red Cross advised Jews in the democratic countries not to send letters to relatives in Nazi-occupied countries when they know that these relatives have either fled or have been deported elsewhere.

Pointing out that the German Red Cross "is unwilling to help in this particular work," the Red Cross of Great Britain stated that "whatever can be done to maintain contact between Jews in the ghettos and their relatives in Britain is being done."

Set Month for Zionist Conclave

NEW YORK — The 48th Annual Convention of the Z.O.A. will be held early in September according to a tentative date set by the National Administrative Council of the Zionist Organization of America at its quarterly meeting held last week at the Hotel New Yorker, with over 120 members from all parts of the country in attendance.

Magazine Stops Jokes About Jews

LONDON—Taking into consideration the great Jewish tragedy in Nazi Europe, the popular London humorous weekly "Tid-Bits" this week announced that it will no longer publish jokes about Jews. The announcement adds that its decision is motivated also by the desire of the publishers not to furnish any material to anti-Semites in view of the growing anti-Jewish propaganda in England.

German War Plant Chemist Jailed for Seditious Mailing

WASHINGTON — A postal card addressed to a Pittsburgh inductee and bearing anti-Jewish and anti-Allied statements has resulted in the arrest in Pittsburgh of Dr. Franz Erns; Paul Fiedler, 59-year-old decorated German veteran of World War I, it was announced here by Attorney General Francis Biddle.

He was charged with mailing an unsigned postal card containing seditious statements to Harry W. McMurty, the day following publication in Pittsburgh newspapers of a list of inductees on which McMurty's name appeared. Fiedler, a chemist, worked in an important capacity for Pittsburgh war plants.

The postal card, turned over to postal authorities by McMurty, said: "Now you are in the Army, not an American soldier but a British legionary fighting for British Empire, for Jewish world domination and Russian Bolshevism".

Mr. Biddle revealed that Fiedler had been identified as author of a letter sent to John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers, under the alias of "The Irish-American Club, John McCarney". The letter had declared that the "unwarranted murder of white people, that is Christians", must be stopped through "strikes, violence, boycotts (no Christians should patronize Jewish stores, doctors, and so on)".

Tripolitania and Cyrenaica as possible future homelands for the Jews, but did not recommend any part of the British Empire."

At this late date, the United Nations must at length make an effort to reach the heart of the problem. Specific threats of retribution, calculated to deter the Germans and their accomplices from further crimes against the Jews; an effort to feed the ghettos; and an energetic campaign to remove Jews from the satellite states which, in the present situation, are susceptible to pressure and where the fate of the Jews still hangs in the balance—these lines of policy require of the Allied governments only goodwill and a more daring imagination.

Palestine Jews In Work Stoppage

JERUSALEM — A complete stoppage of work from noon until evening on June 15 will be observed by Palestine Jewry "as a sign of mourning for the persecuted Jews in Nazi-occupied Europe and as a sign of protest against insufficient rescue measures," it was announced here.

Mass meetings and prayers are to be held in synagogues on the same day. The demonstration was decided upon by the Jewish National Council, the Jewish agency and the chief rabbinat.

Erect Monument to Aged Jew Who Defied Nazis

KUIBYSHEV — A monument is to be erected at Goluhaya, in Stalingrad province, to an aged Jew who defied Nazi torture and refused to disclose where valuable electrical generating equipment and farm machinery had been hidden before the Russians were forced to retreat.

When the Nazis came to Goluhaya they seized Joseph Weisman, a 62-year-old watchman at the local machine and tractor station and demanded that he tell them where the station's dynamo had been hidden and also harrows, which they needed to disguise their gun emplacements from Soviet aerial reconnaissance. The Germans stripped Weisman naked and beat him with twigs, and when he still refused to give them any information, they gouged out both of his eyes with bayonets. Finally, they shot him.

MONTHLY MAGAZINE
LONDON — A new illustrated monthly magazine, "Liberal Judaism," published by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, has made its appearance.

Washington Picture Postcards:

The visual poetry of the Lincoln Memorial that warms your spirit and finds a home among your memories . . . Modern Federal buildings displaying their best architectural manners, overlooking slum areas bruised by poverty . . . Cherry trees wearing dainty blossoms . . . Firing squads of reporters shooting sassy queries at public officials during press conferences . . . Homeless rumors racing from place to place about town . . . The sun wrapping its beauties around the long stone finger of the Washington Monument . . . Lobbyists greeting those who can do them favors as though they meant it.

The majestic atmosphere of the Supreme Court edifice where people converse in soft whispers for fear of scratching the varnished silence . . . Nervous fingers of typewriter keys drumming out details of the Government's business . . . Pretty gals who came to the capital for glamour and excitement, hemmed in by hard work during the day and surrounded by loneliness at night.

Legislators who crossed swords during public debate, ping-ponging friendly words in cloakrooms . . . The Capitol Dome white-washed with moonlight, the star among the city's sights . . . Swan-ky old mansions reeking of history, now serving as ordinary boarding houses for government workers.

Nerve centers of war agencies sprinkled with lights all night, because war is a 24-hour job . . . Human pell-melling through hotel lobbies . . . The well-manicured tussles among social leaders to get important guests . . . The Library of Congress drenched with culture, while people in buildings around it are sweating to protect everything it stands for.

The best-dressed men in town—Hoover's G-men. They are also the hardest punchers and the strictest shooters . . . Uppity-embassy parties which provide a showcase for good manners and stale gossip . . . A soldier and a girl holding hands on a park bench, while a few blocks away decisions are made that will affect their whole future . . . Tots calmly strolling into schools to learn history, as it is being made all around them.

Alleged secrets being hushed about from place to place. Most of them are slices of bunk that start from nowhere and end in the same place . . . The exclamation point excitement around war agencies, where decisions are made that affect Americans everywhere today, and history tomorrow . . . Horn-blowing motorists in traffic jams giving your nerves a toothache.

Tails of parked cars growing at every public building . . . Movie theaters, jukebox joints, saloons, dancehalls, giving the entertainment sector a whiff of Broadway's atmosphere. But all gaiety simmers down to a whisper at midnight . . . Uppity salons where intellectuals gather to twiddle their opinions and juggle yawns . . . The many thriving palmists, astrologers and other members of the crystal-ball brigade.

Crowds waiting for tables in entries, waiting in the clogged traffic, waiting for interviews, waiting for rooms. While natives of the Capital City wait for the war to end so that they can fit themselves into normal lives again . . . Politicos, treated like pleasant thoughts when they had power, being ignored like a cigarette butt as soon as they lose their jobs.

The sign: "Washington, The City Bureaucratic" . . . Twilight's velvety glow coating the city with its natural cosmetics, which most people are too busy to notice . . . The out-of-time symphony of sounds that starts in the morning, snowballs into an avalanche by mid-day, begins to evaporate as evening piles shadows in corners and buries itself in the silence of midnight . . . The unbuttoned atmosphere of week-ends, when humans get a chance to catch their breath.

Trains coughing out mobs arriving in town, and gobbling those about to leave . . . Small patches on the seat of government eager to grab publicity (spotlight crazy) and impress constituents back home . . . Empty chairs in the House and Senate, because legislators do most of their work in committee rooms when they're not doing things they shouldn't be doing.

Falla with his wind-blown coiffure romping along the White House lawn—the most famous dog since Rin-Tin-Tin . . . Biggies at private parties, still nibbling on public debates between mouthfuls of food . . . The hardest worker in town—the President . . . The sour grapevine system of public servants who are always ready to pass the buck or give an excuse, instead of trying to rectify their mistakes . . . The many historical sights all over the place, making the city itself a dramatic museum.

Maurice Schwartz To be at Playhouse

Maurice Schwartz, renowned and distinguished actor-director of the New York Yiddish Art Theatre, who just returned from a South American tour will make his appearance this season in Providence, Saturday evening, June 12 at the Playhouse.

Mr. Schwartz is scheduled to appear for one performance in the hilarious comedy, "Hard To Be A Jew", by the classicist of Jewish humor Sholom Aleichem, with a troupe of actors which include Leon Gold, Esther Saltzman, Rose Greenfield, Yudel Dubinsky and many others.

In pursuance with his theory that public interest in the drama could be reawakened in the older generations and kindled in the new, Mr. Schwartz has constantly tried to introduce the greatest master craftsman in the Yiddish Art productions, and to keep the most outstanding writers of the day theatre-minded. A good plot, good direction and good acting are the three things guaranteed to win even the most fanatic abstainer back to the theatre.

"Hard To Be A Jew" is being presented by the New York impresario, Edwin A. Relkin.

Receives Own Notice of Being Missing in Action

BROOKLYN — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heischober's doorbell rang the other day. Standing in front of their apartment was a Western Union messenger.

A red-haired youth took a telegram from the boy, then handed it back to him.

"Read it," he told the boy. It was from the Navy Department.

"Gee," said the messenger, "I'm sorry."

"Sorry!" the red-head exclaimed, "I'm the son, Lester Heischober, the guy it says is missing in action."

Lester, who enlisted in the navy last year, had been torpedoed in the mid-Atlantic, picked up by a British destroyer, taken to England and returned to his home in Brooklyn.

Sweden Admits Political Refugees

Denies Entry to Racially Oppressed

BOSTON — Jewish refugees from Nazi-held countries are admitted to Sweden when they can prove that they actively participated in political activity for which they might be punished, but are denied entry if they only claim that they are fleeing racial persecution, Charles E. Gratke, foreign editor of the Christian Science Monitor, who is now touring Sweden with a group of American journalists, reports in a cable from Stockholm.

"Jews seeking entrance to Sweden on the general basis of racial persecution are not permitted entrance visas," Mr. Gratke cabled. "This restriction was tightened up after the invasion of Norway, but was modified in the fall of 1941 for the benefit of Norwegians who were being subjected to harsh treatment at the hands of the Nazis. The actual humanitarian effect of these most recent changes was small since the Germans soon began refusing Jews exit permits from Norway."

For a Woman's Fancy

A well-seasoned dressing, or one filled with cheese, egg, tomatoes, or other additions can turn salad greens into a tantalizing side dish or a hearty main course.

There are three basic salad dressings: mayonnaise, commercial salad dressing which is similar to homemade boiled dressing, and French dressing. There are dozens of variations which will quickly change the body and flavor of these dressings.

Boiled salad dressing is less expensive than mayonnaise. It contains less oil and more filler. Either boiled dressing or mayonnaise may be used with any of the following variations. Proportions given are to be added to half a cup of prepared dressing. Quantities given will yield approximately one cup of dressing.

These are particularly good with hearty salads and cold cuts.

PICKLE DRESSING: Add 2 teaspoons ketchup, 1 teaspoon minced parsley, and 1 1/2 tablespoons each minced sweet pickles and pickled beets (or 3 tablespoons Indian relish).

SHARP DRESSING: Add 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard 1/4 teaspoon paprika, 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

QUICK RUSSIAN DRESSING: Combine salad dressing with equal amount of prepared chili sauce.

RUSSIAN DRESSING: Add 1 tablespoon chili sauce, 1 tablespoon ketchup, 1 teaspoon vinegar, 3-4 teaspoon paprika, and 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento.

Here are some dressings recommended for vegetable salads:

CHEESE DRESSING: Thin 1/2 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise with 1 tablespoon top milk, fold in 1-3 cup grated American cheese, and season with salt, paprika. Cottage cheese, or pimento cheese with a chopped, hard cooked egg may be used in the same way. Roquefort and cream cheese (4 oz. each) are another possible combination.

SOUR CREAM DRESSING: Mix salad dressing half and half with sour cream.

SWEET DRESSING: For fruit salads combine 1/2 cup mayonnaise or boiled dressing with 1/2 cup of sweetened light whipped cream. Add 2 teaspoons of fruit juice to mayonnaise first if desired. Make up only as much as will be used at one time.

Dirndls for Summer

Combine a gay peasant skirt with a sheer cotton blouse for an inexpensive hot-weather outfit. But keep practicality in mind, as well as appearance, when shopping one of these skirts. Choose a washable cotton fabric.

Make sure the skirt is really washable. Many have no colorfastness and shrinkage tags. In that case ask the store for definite information.

Generally, it's best to wash the skirts separately in case the colors are not fast. Don't soak them. Dry in the shade.

What Cheer Military Corps Sells Million in War Bonds

The first million dollars is the hardest! That goal just attained by the What Cheer Military Corps, a volunteer War Bond and Stamp sales group, has been marked as just a milestone on the campaign road for ever increasing war savings sales for the duration.

Roderick Pierhie, State Administrator of the Rhode Island War Savings Staff, in complimenting Mrs. Max Rapoport, leader of the group, on her achievement, stated that What Cheer sales have figuratively "purchased" for the armed forces: a flying fortress; 5 two-ton bombs; 2 dive bombers; 10 jeeps; 4 anti-aircraft Bofors; 2 light tanks; 2 PT-Boats; and enough gasoline to run a destroyer 50,000 miles.

The organization working through the Women's Division of the War Savings Staff, first started two years ago and is comprised of the following group of young uniformed salesgirls: Sally Gordon, Dorothy Cohn, Evelyn Clarey, Charlotte Pepper, Florence Holland, Esther Travis, Jeanette Travis, Sylvia Kerzner, Thelma Rimmick, Evelyn Noehbar, Vera Blake, Freda Jacobson, Carofine Gordon, Mary Adelman, Lillian Skolnick, Betty Rice, Sophie Jenkins, Sylvia Weiner, Edith Jacobson, Edith Reffkin, Charlotte Jenkins, Mrs. Charlotte Fishbein, Mrs. Sara Lieker and Mrs. Max Soren.

Massacre Ends Ghetto Revolt

Secret Radio Reveals Details

LONDON — Thousands of Jews in the Warsaw ghetto have been shot or carried off to death camps and many were burned alive during the uprising against the Nazis, the Polish Telegraphic Agency here declared on the basis of reports from the secret radio SWIT.

"The ghetto's heroic fight has almost ceased, except at some isolated points," the Agency said. "Some 1,000 Jews still remain in ghetto cellars and sheds, but they, too, are being annihilated one after another.

"The German cruelty is appalling. The Germans are burning down whole blocks of houses as well as bombarding them. In some part of the ghetto one can hear isolated explosions.

Medical Field Unit for Russia

NEW YORK—Expressing their gratitude for the expression of friendship by American Jewry, the Government Purchasing Commission of the Soviet Union in the United States has acknowledged the receipt of funds from the United Jewish War Effort for the first shipment of 25 Medical Field Units to the Russian front.

A Professional Saboteur- And the Army Backs Him

WASHINGTON — Staff Sergeant Leroy O. Zimmerman is a "saboteur"—and the army is encouraging him. As a matter of fact, they're paying him $60 a month for it. Indeed, if his sabotage work improves, Sergeant Zimmerman will probably be promoted to Technical Sergeant and have his pay boosted to $114 a month.

Before that, anonymous, bespectacled gentleman reading over your shoulder starts any rumors, it had better be explained that the Zimmerman variety of vandalism, or "professional gremlinism" as it is sometimes called, is in the interests of a worthy cause. Uncle Sam wants Zimmerman to wreak havoc on used aircraft radio equipment so that cadets taking the Radio Communications course at Yale University can learn how to repair them.

You should see Sergeant Zimmerman in class every day at the Army Air Force Technical School. With a Mephistophelian glitter in his left eye, he cuts up wires, puts bad tubes where good ones stood before, and short-circuits everything he can lay his pliers on. When he gets through with a set, (the Technical Training Commandos call it "putting trouble" in a set) he hands the remains to a cadet, who checks with electrical equipment to locate the sabotage, and tries to get the thing working again. Such training will prove invaluable later in combat.

SEIZED AS HOSTAGES

LONDON—One hundred prominent Jewish refugees in Shanghai have been seized as hostages by the Japanese authorities there, while many others have been arrested as anti-Axis elements, a reliable report reaching here discloses.

zones, where the rapidity with which an expert can repair aircraft radio equipment may mean the difference between life and death.

Sergeant Zimmerman is haunted by the memory of a cadet who once challenged the sergeant to do his worst with a certain set. "I went to work and blitzed his set fifty-seven different ways," Zimmerman says, "when I got through with it I would have sworn that Thomas Edison, Marconi and Einstein would have given up in despair at the thought of trying to repair it. That cadet fixed it in six minutes flat.

"But," the sergeant keeps reminding himself, "I later found out that he had been an expert radio maintenance man in civilian life."

Victory Garden Weekly Calendar

Continue weed eradication.

Attempt to control ants where they seem to be feeding on seedlings. Commercial ant baits stocked by hardware stores usually give the best results. Dusting Pyrethrum or rotenone along the rows or on the hills also gives some protection. Tent caterpillars will be feeding on vegetable plants. Hand picking is the best remedy for these worms.

Protect cucumbers and other wine crops from the striped cucumber beetle by using cheesecloth tents or dusting the plants with nicotine preparations.

A new type of cutworm is working on cabbage plants. These worms clip off the leaves and seemingly make no attempt to cut the stem. Dig out and destroy the worms in the soil about two or three inches from the stem.

It Happened This Week

Action Needed

Apathy and underestimation of the importance of the American Jewish Conference has resulted in too few delegates and candidates . . . Organizations, in order to make the procedure as democratic as possible, should ascertain that their delegates and the names of three persons whom they prefer as representatives, be sent to local Conference headquarters in the Strand Building . . . At the Hadassah conclave last week-end at Sunset Lodge in Sharon, there were three Providence delegates—Mesdames Harold Sydney, Saul Abrams and Nathan Temkin . . . The Providence chapter received numerous pats on the back for their excellent work in fulfilling quotas, the American Affairs program, on Palestine supplies and innovating the foodless luncheon . . .

Miscellaneous Items

The Navy this week released the names of the following youths who have been inducted . . . They are Jerome Cohen, Arthur Krasnow, Bernard Harrison, Frederick Blazer, Sheldon Horenstein, Leonard Cohen, Arnold Odesky, Donald Zeman and Abraham Gershman . . . Here's another note on 2nd Lt. Harold Goldenberg . . . He's engaged to Charlotte Finkler, daughter of the Louis Finklers . . . When Harold finds a suitable spot in Oklahoma City, they will be married . . . Touro Synagogue will soon mark the 25th year of the first settlement of the Jews in Newport; and the founding of the Congregation . . . A special program is being arranged for July 4th . . .

Recognition

The hospital at West Point's air-base, Stewart Field, will have a day-room named after an enlisted man who never went to West Point . . . The U. S. Military Academy, in recognition of his heroism, while working under the command of West Pointer Colin P. Kelly, Jr., will name its day-room for enlisted men "The Sergeant Meyer Levin Room."

Success Story

The annual bazaar at the Congregation Sons of Jacob raised $3,500 . . . This sum, added to the money raised at the appeal last Yom Kippur will permit the Congregation to release the entire mortgage on the Synagogue . . . Max Richter and Jack Glantz, who directed the appeal and the bazaars, respectively, deserve credit for their efforts . . . Rabbi Carol Klein told us this week that a P-40 bomber will carry the name of the Congregation Sons of Jacob as a result of the recent successful War Bond Sales . . .

Vital Statistics

Irving Zaidman and Doris Cohen were married recently . . . Helen Cohen and Nathan Trostnoff will middle-aisle it next Tuesday . . . The Morris Friedmans have announced the engagement of their daughter Ida to Fred Zisquit, son of the Max Zisquits . . . The couple plan to say "I do" on July 11 . . . Another engagement that reached our ears is that of Barbara Gershman to Aron Goldstein . . . The Sam Labushes marked their 25th wedding anniversary recently while the Mitchell Shulkins reached the 35th wedding milestone . . .

Time for Victory

Following the Service this evening at Temple Beth-El, the alumni of the last decade of the Congregation, will present a special pageant in honor of Dr. William G. Braude, to mark his 10-year ministry at the Temple . . . "Time for Victory" is one of the contests now being publicized in New York—a contest to which all war stamp purchasers are eligible for a $2500 War Bond prize to the person guessing the exact time of the defeat of Germany . . . Department stores and retail jewelers are distributing the entry blanks . . . Not all of the entrants are arm-chair generals . . . One entry, which arrived some days ago, was from Gen. John J. Pershing . . . That's all for now . . .

Spanish Refugee Attitude Changed

Permit Interned to Continue Journey

NEW YORK — That the Spanish government is extending its cooperation to the Consular Service of the United Nations and to the representatives of philanthropic organizations working on the Iberian Peninsula for the rescue of refugees, is the report brought to this country by Dr. James Bernstein, American social worker and the European representative of the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigration Aid Society (HIAS), who recently returned from Lisbon, Portugal.

Pointing out that since the occupation of Southern France by the Nazis in the summer of 1942, the number of refugees in Spain and in Switzerland rose considerably due to the flight of thousands of men, women and children across the Franco-Spanish and Franco-Swiss borders, Dr. Bernstein emphasized the change for the better in the attitude of the Spanish government in relation to the evacuation of refugees who have been confined in Camp Miranda. "Step by step, Camp Miranda is being evacuated and those released are enabled to continue their journey across the Atlantic."

Have 100 Visas But No Children

TEL AVIV — The Jewish Agency recently made available 100 Palestine immigration certificates for Jewish children in Vienna, but was advised by the Jewish Council there that these were not needed since there were not 100 Jewish children left in Vienna, it was revealed here at a press conference addressed by Eliahu Dobkin, head of the Agency's immigration department.

Jewish Children Present Pageant "Rally of Hope"

NEW YORK—Some 6,000 children participated in the pageant "Rally of Hope," staged last week at the Madison Square Garden. Most of them were Jewish, representing public and religious schools, singing choruses to traditional and special music in a program designed to manifest the "solidarity between Jewish children of free America and those of enslaved Europe who 'have to find a country free.'"

This phrase occurred in the pageant, "The Golden Doors," by Erwin Piscator, which symbolized the plight of Jewish children in Europe from the time of Munich until now, and setting forth their efforts to get to Palestine, which they had been told is to be their own land.

The incidents were acted by a group of 30 youngsters in pantomime, while words expressing their emotions were spoken from a booth at the side of the arena by various persons.

Stella Adler, actress, was the narrator. Eddie Cantor spoke by way of telephone connection to the loud-speakers from Hollywood, and William Langer, United States Senator from North Dakota, delivered an address. Natalie Bodanyan of the Metropolitan Opera led the general singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner."

JAIL SYMPATHIZERS

LONDON — The Vichy government has ordered the detention as hostages of Jewish families residing in France whose members joined the armies of De Gaulle and Giraud, it is learned here. The property of such persons has been confiscated.

Frieda Miller is Appointed To Special Job in London

NEW YORK — Frieda Miller's new London job for Uncle Sam may well result in a worthwhile contribution to postwar reconstruction.

Miss Miller, the former Industrial Commissioner of New York State, is going to London soon as special assistant to John G. Wiant, United States Ambassador to England.

After graduation from college Miss Miller did four years graduate work in economics at the University of Chicago. Spent a year studying labor conditions abroad. Worked later as a New York factory inspector in the ladies' garment industry. Served as director of the Division of Women in Industry and Minimum Wage of the New York State Department of Labor.

Puts Jobs First

She was asked what she considered the outstanding task of post-war reconstruction.

"Providing jobs," she said quietly. "We must all put our heads together to give people jobs after this war. People won't live again through what they suffered in the thirties. I believe the international situation can be taken care of if men and women have a chance to earn a living."

Miss Miller is not inclined to overtalk concerning her appointment. But while discussing her work in London, she said, "It will be in the industrial field."

Won't it have anything to do with reconstruction, Miss Miller?

"Industry is a part of reconstruction," Miss Miller replied. "The British Embassy here has an advisor on industrial relations, who is a permanent member of the British Ministry of Labor."

Steady Jobs Provided

"The British have already done some things which interest me very much. For instance, they have 'decasualized' certain types of labor. The British, being a shipping nation, need dock labor to load and unload ships. But they had trouble keeping it on hand — especially in wartime — because work came only a few days at a time and was paid for by the day."

"England solved the problem by hiring men by the week, and using them to clear streets and do other odd jobs, when they were not needed to load or unload ships."

SISTERHOOD MEETING

The Sisterhood of the Robinson Street Synagogue will hold its last meeting of the season on Monday afternoon, 2 o'clock, in the home of the president, Mrs. Harry Tanenbaum, 115 Sackett street. Committee chairmen will present reports. Following the meeting, a social hour will be held.

How'd you like to carry home 500 POUNDS OF CANDLES?

YOU: What on earth for? What would I do with all those candles?

YOU: They'd light your home for a month.

YOU: Light my home? But I've got electricity!

Yes, but if you didn't have it, you'd need about a quarter-ton of candles to do the same job.

YOU: A quarter-ton? That's a lot of candles!

It's a lot of money, too. It would cost you about $200.

YOU: Wow! I couldn't afford that. My monthly electric bill now is only three dollars or so.

Well, that's just about average. But remember that only about 85¢ of it goes for light. The rest runs your radio and refrigerator—

YOU: Say, electricity's pretty cheap when you come to think of it.

Yes sir! Cheaper than it's ever been. You're getting about twice as much electricity for your money today as you got fifteen years ago.

YOU: How can that be? My bill hasn't changed. But think of the appliances you've added. Fifteen years ago, did you have an electric refrigerator?

YOU: No.

Radio? Electric mixer? Electric clock?

YOU: No. . . . Say, how come I do get more electricity now?

That's easy. Experience—efficiency—sound business methods—

YOU: I don't get it.

It's simple. The electric companies under business management know their job. That job is to give you the best possible service at the lowest possible price. And they're doing it! Today—with many other prices going up—ELECTRICITY IS STILL CHEAP!
