Warns Jewry

RICHARD E. GUTSTADT

"American Jewry must rally its support to the pro-democratic agencies fighting anti-Semitism and safeguarding our traditional American liberties," warned Richard E. Gutstadt, national director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, at a meeting held recently in New York City in behalf of the Joint Defense Appeal.

Boy Scout Week

Nearly two million Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Senior Scouts, and their adult leaders throughout the United States will commemorate Boy Scout Week, which begins today. The theme of the observance, which marks the 35th anniversary of the founding of the movement in America, is "Scouts of the World—Building Together."

The Boy Scout Movement merits the unstinted support of every American who wants to make his country and his world a better place in which to live. Its emphasis on community service and tolerance and world friendship promotes a speedier attainment of the enduring peace among men for which we all strive.

By developing among its members both a spirit of sturdiness, self-reliance and a realization of the need for cooperative effort in every major enterprise, the Movement is a prime force in preparing tomorrow's men for their duty to themselves, their country and their world.

Colonel's Clique

There are colonels and colonels. There is Colonel Peron for instance, the odious little subalternatorial piant who may bloom forth as a major peril, should our Government and other Western Hemisphere democracies fail to take pre-cautionary measures. And there is Colonel Lindbergh, recipient of many awards, including a medal from Adolph Hitler still unreturned.

Speaking at a function on the occasion of the 42nd anniversary of the first flight of the Wright Brothers, Lindbergh, after those anti-Semitic Des Moines speech even Lenox Rosenwald felt constrained to resign from the America First Committee, deplored the "complicity with" (Continued on Page 2)

Split Palestine, Suggests Amery

Jews, Arabs Would Accept Partition

LONDON — Leopold S. Amery, former British cabinet member, whose long experience with the Palestine problem goes back to participation in the original Balfour Declaration, in which Britain favored setting up Palestine as a Jewish homeland, told the Anglo-American Palestine Committee that in his opinion the only solution to the current Jewish-Arab question is partition of Palestine.

"Both Jews and Arabs actively oppose partition because they are hoping to get all of Palestine," Amery said. "But I am convinced that both would acquiesce to partition. I am also convinced that partition can be worked out, although I am familiar with the various studies of the problem that hold such a solution to be administratively impossible."

Briefly, Amery advocated allotting to a Jewish state the strip of land along the coast of the Mediterranean which is largely inhabited by Jews at this time and which incorporates such major ports as Haifa, Tel Aviv and Jaffa.

Persons Least Secure Have Most Prejudice

CAMBRIDGE — Persons who feel least secure in their surroundings have the greatest amount of racial and religious prejudice, while the least amount of prejudice toward any group is to be found among persons having the most contact with it, Dr. Gordon V. Allport, chairman of the psychology department at Harvard University, stated at a meeting here of sixty leaders in education, welfare, business and other fields under the auspices of the Commission of Community Interrelations of the American Jewish Congress.

Dr. Allport said that his findings were based on a survey made among 437 students attending Harvard, Dartmouth College and Radcliffe. The survey, he said, also disclosed that prejudices and dislike acquired during the ages between two and eleven and those acquired after seventeen are strongest. He urged, therefore, that care be taken to secure unprejudiced teachers, especially in the elementary grades.

Gerald Smith and Rankin Get Along Fine at Hearing

WASHINGTON — Gerald L. K. Smith stands unchallenged as the only National figure who has converted harsh, sharp-tongued Rep. John Rankin (D. Miss.) into a gentle man.

Smith's appearance before the House Committee on Un-American Activities—at his own request—was notable chiefly for the amiable, uncontroversial nature of the interrogation of a witness suspected of un-American activities.

Smith looked astounded but not displeased when Rankin professed complete ignorance of Smith's "American First Party."

Truman Confers With War Vets

Jewish Artists Beaten by Gang in Greenwich Village

NEW YORK — Benjamin Zernach, of the original troop of the Hebrew theatre Habimah and choreographer for Broadway productions, and three colleagues, Brett Warren, a stage manager of "Deep Are the Roots"; John Warren, Hollywood director, and Etore Rella, playwright, were badly beaten up by a gang of eight anti-Semitic hoodlums led by a man in uniform, in New York City's Bohemian Greenwich Village.

Zernach, confined since the attack with concussion of the brain, contusions of the jaw and bruises all over his body, was alone when assaulted by the gang which pushed him into a hallway and accompanied each punch with epithets such as: "Little Jew bastard." He lost consciousness, and when he revived went to the apartment of his friend Brett Warren, who, accompanied by Rella and Berry set out into the streets to look for the hoodlums.

When they ran into the gang, the three were outnumbered 3 to 1. Police arrived after the hoodlums had fled, and Zernach was interviewed by the police only some eight hours later. The detective assigned to the case flippantly explained that "it was just a free-for-all.....We don't have anti-Semitism in the Village."

Hillman Gloomy About Germany

BERLIN — "There is no doubt," said Sidney Hillman, "in my mind that the German nation can develop any standard of living it sets out for. Their genius for industrial organization will compensate for material losses."

Touring Germany with a fact-finding commission of the World Federation of Trade Unions, the president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America said Germany will remain a potential war menace no matter how her industries are levelled. He said the German people are showing too little sense of war guilt.

Gen. Eisenhower Presents Citation To B'nai B'rith

WASHINGTON, D. C. — General Dwight Eisenhower, Army Chief of Staff, last Monday expressed his "personal satisfaction at the opportunity of paying tribute to the war service contributions" of B'nai B'rith when he presented to the organization's national president, Henry Monsky, of Omaha, Neb., the special citation awarded B'nai B'rith by the War Department.

In the presence of members of B'nai B'rith's national executive committee, which was holding its annual meeting in Washington, General Eisenhower, in his office in the Pentagon Building, said he knew all about B'nai B'rith's services on behalf of the morale and welfare of Army personnel antedating Pearl Harbor. He said he was particularly gratified to learn that "B'nai B'rith was continuing its service into the postwar era because it was especially important that the men in the armed forces know that the American people have not forgotten them."

Council Rejects Invitation to Testify

NEW YORK — The Synagogue Council of America has turned down an invitation to appear before the Anglo-American Inquiry Committee on Palestine "because we feel that the institution of this Committee will only result in further delay in the work of rescue and rehabilitation."

Soviet Magazine Hits Commission

Lists Own Solution To Racial Prejudice

NEW YORK — The Soviet magazine New Times, in the first Moscow comment on the Palestine issue, asks: "What legal foundations are there for the existence of the Anglo-American Committee? Who empowered it to solve the Palestine problem without the participation of the parties directly concerned?"

The magazine adds: "It is hardly possible to justify the necessity for an Anglo-American Palestine Commission, especially when the machinery of the UNO has begun to function."

The article adds that Britain and the U. S. A. are not "really concerned" with solution of the Jewish problem in Europe; a solution does not depend on immigration to Palestine but on "decisive extermination of Fascism and liquidation of racial persecution."

Truman Confers Medal on Roseman

WASHINGTON — In a surprise ceremony this week, President Truman conferred the Medal of Merit on Judge Samuel I. Rosenman, who resigned as of February 1.

Mr. Truman paid high tribute to Judge Rosenman, saying that some day, when an accurate history is written, Rosenman would receive the credit which is his due. He called Rosenman's services to two presidents and to his country "as able and as devoted as it has been self-effacing."

The President revealed that Rosenman had sought to resign in April, 1945, and that he had persuaded him to stay. Truman said he would frequently call on Rosenman for help as President Roosevelt had done.

Red Cross Seeks To Raise $387,987

The Providence Chapter, American Red Cross, and its eleven branches will seek to raise $387,987 in the 1946 fund campaign to be conducted here during the month of March, it was announced this week by Mrs. Ashbel T. Wall, general chairman of the campaign.

In 1945 the combined goal of the six Rhode Island Red Cross Chapters was $1,150,900. Of this amount, $816,000 was allocated to the Providence Chapter for its own use and for its share of the National goal of $200,000,000.

Center to Sponsor Nursery School

To Have 2 Sessions Daily; Enrollment Limited to 18

BOYCOTT IGNORED
TEL AVIV — Despite the boycott of Jewish-made goods from Palestine proclaimed by the Arab League, many representatives of local and foreign Arab firms as well as of South African firms have visited and placed orders at the fashion show, which opened here recently.

The Women's Association of the Jewish Community Center will sponsor a model nursery school, conforming to the highest standards, according to an announcement by Mrs. Joseph E. Adelson, president. The decision was made by unanimous vote at the last board meeting of the group.

Mrs. Raymond G. Franks has been named as chairman of a committee to work with the executive director of the Center to establish the school. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Al Shore, in charge of selecting equipment for school; Mrs. Ernest Nathan, enrollment; Mrs. Walter Adler, treasurer; Mrs. Samuel H. Workman, Mrs. Milton Scribner, Mrs. Burton Finberg, Mrs. Samuel Resnick, Dr. Dora Luise Cockerell, Mrs. T. F. Driscoll and Dr. Clara Lofman Smith.

The school, which will be at the Center on 55 Benefit street, will run in two sessions, a morning session from 9 to 12 o'clock and an afternoon session for a second group of children from 1:30 to 4:30 o'clock. The maximum number of children will be eighteen in each session. The fee has been set at $15 a month plus transportation cost. Children will be drawn from the various economic levels to insure a cross sectional group in conformity with the democratic ideals on which the Jewish Community Center is based. The school will start operation some time this month—as soon as equipment and facilities are ready.

Miss Priscilla Cranston, who holds a diploma in Education from Wheelock College in Boston and a B. S. from Columbia, where she majored in Educational Psychology, has been named as teacher in the school. Miss Cranston has had extensive training at various schools in Boston and has been employed as nursery school teacher in the Emma Bradley Home and the Helen Leah Nursery School of the Washington Heights (Y. M. H. A.) in New York. Pending completion of the staff, she is planning with the Committee, which includes representatives from the Rhode Island Nursery School Association, the setting up of the facilities of the school.

USO Club Marks Fifth Anniversary

Local Organizations Receive Citations

USO clubs of Providence celebrated the fifth anniversary of the national organization last Monday with a program and awarding of citations to local organizations which participated in the USO activities.

Indicating a continuing need for the services of the club, Paul J. Robin, chairman of the Rhode Island committee said the USO services "probably will continue through most of this year, while any considerable number of men remain in training schools, camps and bases."

Use of the Washington street club during 1945 was only slightly less than in 1944, the heaviest war year, Robin said. He pointed out that the use of dormitory beds and personal services far exceeded any other year. "USO is still needed in Newport, Jamestown and East Greenwich," he said. "Supplemental programs in less volume should continue at Pawtucket, Woonsocket and Westerly. Budgets for the work in Rhode Island have been assured for three months."

Mrs. Harold B. Tanner, chairman of the Providence USO, presented certificates of award to the following organizations: Daughters of Temple Emanuel, Daughters of Temple Beth-Israel, Jewish Welfare Board, Ladies Auxiliary Post 23, Jewish War Veterans, Ohave Shalom of Providence, Ohave Shalom of Pawtucket, Providence Chapter of Junior Hadassah, Providence Chapter of Hadassah, Providence Fraternal Association, National Council of Jewish Juniors, Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women, R. I. Post 23, Jewish War Veterans, Roger Williams Auxiliary, B'nai B'rith, Sisterhood Temple Emanuel, Sisterhood Temple Beth-El, Young Women's Hebrew Association and War Activities, Temple Beth-El.

by "a certain type" of Jewish bureaucrat.
Newspapers cannot be free as long as they are dependent on department store advertising and while 75 per cent of the department executives are Jews.

The questioning was turned over to Committee Counsel Ernie Adamson, but before Adamson got a word in Rankin yanked the sleeve of Chairman John S. Wood (D, Ga.). Wood looked as if he resented it. But he ended up agreeing that several Congressmen, including Rep. Emanuel Celler (D, N. Y.), had no right to appear and ask the Committee any questions.

Ahavath Sholom Spokesman Discusses Jewish Education

When questioned this week on the reasons for emphasizing the importance of the Hebrew School in the building program of the Ahavath Sholom Congregation, a spokesman of the School said, "Since the Sunday School has natural limitations, the only desirable development is a good Hebrew School.

"First, a Sunday school, psychologically, is relatively unimportant in the mind of the pupil and parent, due to its infrequent meeting. Secondly, the laws of learning and forgetting prove that the six-day lapse between sessions is an almost insurmountable barrier to achieving the desired goals in Jewish education. Thirdly, the growing emphasis on content, knowledge, and information seems to be an erroneous one. The stress should be placed on values, attitudes, feelings, with the subject matter being merely the means to an end.

"Through the employment of able teachers and the encouragement of a sympathetic home environment, we believe our idea of Jewish education will grow into an effective instrument."

Meanwhile the current drive to raise $250,000 for the new structure, to be built at Rochambeau avenue and Camp street, is making good progress, Archie Smith, campaign director, said this week. Mr. Smith issued an appeal to workers to turn in their cards so that a proper record may be obtained of everyone's activities.

In conjunction with the concert, which is under the direction of Mrs. Harry Sklut, the organization is conducting a drive to encourage Golden Book Inscriptions, Sofer Hayaed Inscriptions and trees for the Jewish National Fund.

THE FUNNIES

At the White House reception for entertainers the President chatted with several. "This is my first visit to Washington," said Peter Donald of the radio, "and instead of looking for a good restaurant, here I am at the White House!" "You're lucky," said Mr. Truman. "I was in Washington five years before I was invited to dine here".....Vincent Sheehan told it: Churchill once visited famed actress Maxime Elliott at her residence. "My dear Maxime," he panted, "you have no idea how easy it is to travel without a servant. I came here all the way from London alone and it was quite simple!".....Maxime (putting on her best tolerant smile) gravely intoned: "Oh, Winston, how brave of you!"

THINGS YOU KNEW

ALL ALONG:
(But which dopey me just found out)

President Truman is not ill, but the Army has completed plans for a Presidential suite at Walter Reed

Hospital. FDR and other gov't officials invariably used the Naval Hospital at Bethesda, Md. Since Mr. Truman served in the Army (in World War I), the Army has no intention of turning over its prize alumnus to Naval medics, should he need a doctor. (Mr. Truman discovered that trying to be a middle-of-the-roader means you get slogged from both sides.)

In Berlin the Nazis (civilians, too) gather in front of U. S. PXs and beg the Yanks "for chawklott, choongum" and other goodies, even ciggies. The Americans often share with them. When the Nazis are a safe distance away they make "cracks," thumb nose, etc. Nurses just back also report the Nazis practically dare the Yanks to hit them with their vehicles or bikes as they cross streets. But when they see the Russians coming in cars, they flee. (Because the Russkys run over them! They respect THEM!)

"Fala at Hyde Park" is the title of an unusual short released on FDR's birthday, Jan. 30th.

Six thousand of the 82nd Airborne Division (who marched up Fifth Ave. the other day) will re-enlist.

During the war ammunition was manufactured in the House of Lords, London.

JERUSALEM — Capt. Itzhak Ben-Ahron this week went on trial before a British military court at Sarafand for a speech he delivered before a meeting of the Jewish National Assembly in November.

The Palestinian Jewish officer told the assembly that British troops had not been fired upon by Jewish colonists during the invasion of five Jewish villages in a search for illegal immigrants, during which nine Jews were killed and many wounded.

Although he was on terminal leave at the time of the address, Ben-Ahron was arrested by the military authorities and has been in custody ever since. The Jewish officer was captured by the Germans in Crete.

A definition of a good "balabusta" was once given as a woman who can make a "milchig" meal look and taste interesting. To all who would qualify for this classification, the Heinz Home Institute offers the readers of this publication:

Three Delicious Milchig Soup Mergers

Reports from our soup-kitchen correspondent state that mergers of canned condensed soups are high-style stuff. They're practical, too! And easy, nutritious and tasty. For something new in "Milchig" soups try these:

1. *Condensed cream of tomato soup
+ *Condensed cream of mushroom soup
= Tomato Bisque.
2. *Condensed cream of green pea soup
+ *Condensed cream of tomato soup
= Vegetable Potage.
3. *Condensed cream of mushroom soup
+ *Condensed cream of green pea soup
= Cream of Mushroom and Pea Soup.

*Made by Heinz—endorsed by the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregation of America.

JEWISH LINCOLNIA

Things You Never Knew About Lincoln

By BERNARD POSTAL
Director of B'nai B'rith Information

That Lincoln was the first President to appoint a Jewish army chaplain, Dr. Arnold Fischel of New York getting the appointment in 1862 after Congress passed special legislation making it possible.

That the last photograph of Lincoln, taken on the Sunday before his assassination, was made in the Washington studio of Adolphus

Solomons, later president of the B'nai B'rith in Washington, showing the President sharpening a pencil for his son.

That the first pulpit utterances in connection with the death of Lincoln were heard in the synagogues because Lincoln died on a Saturday.

That C. H. Lieberman, Washington Jewish physician, was one of the nine medical men at Lincoln's death-bed and that his portrait is among the 47 persons in the famous painting, "The Last Hours of Lincoln."

That Lincoln was the first President to appoint a Jew a full-fledged minister to a foreign power, the post of minister of Italy having been offered to and rejected by Sigismund Kaufman of New York.

That Lincoln appointed a Jew by the name of Einstein United States Consul to Nurnberg, Germany, once the world capital of anti-Semitism.

That Edward Rosewater, later founder and editor of the Omaha Bee, transmitted to the world from the telegraph office of the War Department in Washington Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation.

That the Lincoln penny, the first coin bearing the head of a President, which was issued on August 2, 1909, was designed by a Jewish artist, Victor D. Brenner, whose initials, VDB, appeared on the first 28,000,000 of these coins.

That Abraham Jonas of Quincy, Illinois, a member of B'nai B'rith, was the first man to suggest Lincoln for the Presidency.

That Lincoln was the first President to scotch an attempt at official anti-Semitism in the United States, having countermanded an order expelling the Jews from the Department of Tennessee during the Civil War.

That Lincoln asked a Jew, Abraham Jonas, to deny in his behalf, that he had ever been a member of the Know Nothings, an early Ku Klux Klan.

Center Teams in Two Games Here

The first basketball double header of the season will be played tomorrow night at the Jewish Community Center when both Center teams engage two teams from Lynn. In the first contest, starting at 8 o'clock, the varsity teams of the New England YMHA League will battle to improve their standings, while the Lynn and Providence Alumni teams will fight it out in the second game.

One of the biggest crowds of the season was treated to some fine basketball last week when Bridgeport defeated the Alumni, 46-36. Although the fans didn't know it then, Weiner, center for the visitors, plays for the CCNY team in New York.

Coming attractions at the Center are teams from Fall River, Malden and Hecht House and the league opponents of the varsity squad. Dancing till midnight follows all games.

Chaplain Lipman sends as many as 500 letters a month to the New York office of the NRS which then tries to find the addresses here. He also handles hundreds of packages addressed to inmates of D.P. camps.

Form Vet Post In Pawtucket

Blackstone Valley Post 406, J.W.V., was instituted last Tuesday evening in the vestry of the Ohave Shalom Synagogue, and the following officers, who will be installed in March, were elected: Sydney Feldman, commander; Abraham H. Snyder, senior vice commander; Leslie August, junior vice commander; James V. Jenkin, quartermaster; Major Joseph Zucker, surgeon; Martin Zucker, judge advocate; Joseph Elovitz, Dr. Harold S. Hillman and Israel Kovenbaum, trustees; Harry Smith, chaplain; Norman London, adjutant; Joseph Elovitz, officer of the day; Frank Block, officer of the guard.

The post will be named at the next meeting.

Deal to Bring Back Upton Close Fizzles

NEW YORK — The deal to bring Upton Close back on the air fizzled when negotiations with the new Associated Broadcasting System wound up in mutual rejection of terms. The chain was not satisfied it would have proper control over the broadcaster's format and material.

Close and Merwin W. Hart, his backer, walked out for unstated reasons, chief one presumably being the certainty of losing New York outlet WMCA, whose president Nathan Straus would unquestionably exercise his 60-day cancellation privilege in the event of such tieup.

Earlier, Variety reported that the Close-Hart campaign, which is supposed to have collected $300,000 in the drive revealed by PJ last December 20, reached the dizzy heights of trying to buy into the network. There was no official confirmation, but that bubble too, is reliably said to have burst. Presence of Eugene L. Garey, counsel for the 1943 Dies type FCC investigation, as network attorney lends plausibility to Variety's story.

Fascism Is Not Dead, Says Rogge

Reconverting To U. S. Pattern

NEW YORK — O. John Rogge, special assistant to the U. S. Attorney General and prosecutor in the 1945 sedition cases, last Sunday told the 39th annual meeting of the American Jewish Committee at the Waldorf-Astoria:

"International Fascism, though defeated in battle, is not dead. Fascism is not dead in England, nor is it dead in the United States... It is simply reconverting.

"But even in reconversion, American Fascism has been unable to avoid falling into a readily recognizable pattern... Mere word substitution—such as Nationalist for Fascist—is a poor disguise."

Rogge said the "Nationalists" of America are promoting racism and striving to fix the blame for World War II on "Roosevelt, Communists and international Jewry." He singled out for attack among these "Nationalists" Gerald L. K. Smith, ex-Senator Robert R. Reynolds, Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling, Joe McWilliams, Gerald Winrod, Eugene N. Sanctuary and several others.

Half of Public Know Little of Palestine Issue

Seventy-six per cent of the voters in this country, who have followed the discussions concerning the Palestine questions, are in favor of allowing Jews to settle in Palestine, while only seven per cent are against the idea, according to a Gallup poll. However, these numbers include only slightly more than half of the people since, despite the fact that there has been wide publicity on this subject, many have not followed the discussion at all.

Ninety per cent of the Jewish population are in favor of the settlement of Jews in Palestine. At present the number of Jewish immigrants into Palestine is limited to 1500 a month.

Ahavath Sholom Sisterhood Meets

Mrs. A. Cleiman was installed as president of the Sisterhood of the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue at a recent meeting of the organization. Among the newly-elected officers, who were installed by Mrs. Morris G. Silk, assisted by Mrs. C. Adler, was Mrs. I. Grossman, who was named an honorary vice-president in recognition of her work.

During the meeting Mrs. M. Lecht, recording secretary, read the annual report, and Mrs. C. Adler, chairman of the victory breakfasts, gave a report on the first breakfast. Following a report by Mrs. M. Silk on the last Oneg Shebat, it was decided to hold another Oneg Shebat.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. I. Chernick, hostess for the afternoon, served refreshments in honor of her son's homecoming.

Sweeden Refuses To Admit Children

STOCKHOLM — The Swedish Alien Commission has turned down a proposal that 1000 Jewish children from Poland and other European countries be permitted to enter Sweden.

The commission said it could not act until Swedish officials in Warsaw investigated the need for such action and until it was determined whether the children would remain in Sweden.

ELEMENTARY, my dear Watson!

Here's a problem for you, Watson. What living cost has DECREASED while nearly all other costs have gone right on rising?

Are there any clues, Holmes?

My dear Watson, the answer is at your fingertip. What else gives you twice as much for your money as it did 20 years ago? What else is ready day or night, winter or summer, to lighten your tasks and make life more comfortable for you? What else gives you so much service for just a few pennies a day? What else, my dear Watson, but Electric Service?

Yes, Holmes—but WHODUNIT?

Elementary, my dear Watson. Electric service—dependable and cheap—is the result of hard work and experience on the part of the men and women of your electric company—under sound business management.

Key Figures on Store Ownership

Charges Made At FEPC Hearing

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — State members by State Representative Thomas T. Gray, a Republican, that "87 per cent of the Main street stores are owned by Jews," have drawn a sharp denial from Attorney Harry M. Erlich, one of the leaders in Springfield's Jewish community.

"Those claims are misleading and untrue," Erlich declared. "I say that 90 per cent of those stores are in non-Jewish hands. I'm not interested in who drew the stores; I say that Jewish ownership is in a definite minority."

Gray's charges, which he failed to substantiate, were made at a public hearing by a Legislative commission relative to a Fair Employment Practices bill in Massachusetts—a measure which Gov. Maurice J. Tobin, in his recent address to the General Court cited as one of the most important pieces of legislation which would be laid before the government body at the current session.

Leo Miller radiated plenty of confidence when single handed he faced Miles Goldberg's Cubs for several boxes before his capable assistant Dr. Leo Skone arrived but all in vain as his Indians lost four. At that it took a strike by Miles in the last box to eke out a two pin advantage. Where is the rest of your team Leo? Morris Kramer led his Giants to a three game win over the Browns while Eddie Korb spearheaded his lowly Athletics to take three from the Dodgers who lost a swell opportunity to gain in the pennant race.

Henry Markoff had a three string total of 339 to top off an evening that saw plenty of good scores. M. Waldman's 137 was high with Morris Kramer hitting 122, Leo Miller 115, Barney Fradlin 116, Bernie Myers 118, Hyase 116 and S. Gordon 117.

The 14th meeting and match of the league took place Monday evening. The outcome of several games was in doubt until the last ball was rolled. Baker, Brodsky, M. Marcus, Nelson, Nemerow and Rosenberg entered the exclusive 300 plus circle for the evening. To Max Lustig a word of praise for his efforts in keeping things humming smoothly like the good sport he is even the unable for the time being to actively participate in the sport. Brodsky (on the promise of seeing his name in print if he got a strike) sparked Yale to a win over Brown and a new record for team high single. The second place Dartmouth team, led by Nelson plus a five game played by M. Marcus, genial president of our Men's Club, defeated first place Howard and took over the top spot, Navy moved up in the standing by defeating Army. The team standings are as follows:

It Happened This Week

To the many stories of narrow escapes, here's an experience of Henry Markoff's that occurred last week.....While waiting for an elevator on the sixth floor of a local building, Henry suddenly remembered that he wanted to write a check for the General Jewish Committee.....While he was filling in the data, the elevator arrived but the operator wouldn't wait..... A few moments later Henry took the next elevator.....When he arrived on the street floor he learned that the first car had an accident and had plummeted the floors to the bottom of the elevator shaft.....The occupants, fortunately were not seriously injured.....So, the next time you decide to do good, don't wait.....It might be a lucky thought.....

Zionist Ambassador

A Providence resident, vacationing in New Orleans, sent us a newspaper clipping telling of a speech Mrs. Archibald Silverman gave in that city last month..... Apparently Mrs. Silverman is making a tour of that region, for we have another note from Mrs. Matt Gold, formerly of Providence, saying that she heard Mrs. Silverman give a marvelous talk in Oklahoma City....."You could have heard a pin drop during her entire speech," she said.....

Out for Winchell

The subpoenaing of the scripts of radio commentators by the Rankin Committee on un-American activities is part of a scheme of "gunning for Winchell." Winchell's ears on Capitol Hill disclose that "last week Representative Rankin in the Congressional cloakroom said to a confederate 'Martin Dies was wrong in going after Winchell directly. The way to do it is to get some of those other fellows and set a precedent for getting Winchell!'".....Incidentally, Winchell's anti-hateists' broadcasting will be heard over an additional 38 coast stations, making a total of 215.

Himmler Wanted American Jews

NEW YORK — The surrender of all American Jews to Germany was the first stipulation formulated by the Nazis in case of America's defeat in the war, according to Felix Kersten, physician to Himmler. The information was sent to the World Jewish Congress by Dr. Samuel Margoshes and Louis Segal, now in Sweden, where they interviewed Kersten. Dr. Margoshes and Mr. Segal saw documentary proof of this in letters from Himmler which are now in the possession of Kersten, who was instrumental in saving the lives of many European Jews.

New Mortgage Plan Aids Old Colony

Loans in 1945 Show Increase

An increase of $2,314,032 in mortgage loans during 1945, in contrast to a decrease of $159,860 in that department in the previous year, was reported last week to shareholders of Old Colony Co-operative Bank at their annual meeting by the bank's president, Edward H. Weeks.

The increase was described as "very gratifying" inasmuch as a year ago the bank did not anticipate being able to make much of any increase in its mortgage business.

At that time, Weeks said, it seemed probable that there would be very little new building during 1945. A few months later, he added, priorities for about 600 new housing units were assigned to the greater Providence area and Old Colony did the financing "for the greater part of these new houses."

Also having an effect upon the enlarged mortgage business, he said, is the bank's new 12-point mortgage plan adopted during the year.

Strange Disappearance of Boston Synagogue is Solved

BOSTON — The strange disappearance of the Beth Jacob Synagogue has finally been explained—but not to the satisfaction of the parties concerned.

The edifice, for many years popularly known as the Wall Street Synagogue, vanished from its West End site, leaving officials of the Cape Ann Savings Bank of Gloucester, which holds a $25,000 mortgage on it, mystified and irritated.

What happened to the building was that the city of Boston had it torn down last July because it was in a dangerous condition. The edifice had fallen into disrepair and has been abandoned by its former supporters. The Jews of the West End, once the centre of New England Jewish life, have moved to other parts of the city and those who still remain have joined the only remaining large synagogue in the district.

Building Commissioner Joseph T. Shea was the one who finally cleared up the mystery. In fact, he didn't regard the disappearance of the building a mystery at all. He was however surprised that anyone was looking for the building. He was even more surprised to learn that a prospective buyer had come around to look the building over before deciding on the purchase. The prospective buyer had returned to John T. Burns of Newton, agent for the bank, with the news that the building had vanished.

The bank now wants to recover its investment. And the city wants someone to pay the cost of removing the building. Nobody is happy.

Center Players Hold Tryouts
