Providence Women Urged To Support Hadassah Work

At a tea held recently launching Providence Chapter of Hadassah's annual donor luncheon, which will be held at the Biltmore Hotel on Wednesday, May 1, the guest speaker, Mrs. Miriam Granovsky, of Palestine, who is on a three month's tour to this country, urged Providence women to support the work of Hadassah by becoming donors or patrons for this essential affair.

"The Hadassah University Hospital which was constructed at a cost of $750,000 and maintains 340 beds," she said, "is a beautiful edifice dedicated to healing and is a tribute to the American Jewish woman. To save costs, the marble for the exterior and all possible materials, were obtained in Palestine. It is estimated that a comparable hospital built in the United States would cost at least three times as much.

"As part of its post-war plan," Mrs. Granovsky continued, "Hadassah is expanding all hospitalization, public health and child welfare activity, thus continuing its share of the rebuilding program. We are now working to establish higher standards in district medical work, occupational therapy and convalescent care. I want to emphasize that Hadassah's work in Palestine will never end while disease is an enemy of mankind, while children must yet be fed and prepared for constructive lives, while social inequalities create unequal opportunity for health and happiness. Hadassah's health program, the road back for so many thousands of refugees, is also the road ahead. It is part and parcel of the Zionist program of national building."

War Veterans Favor Price Control, Housing Program

NEW YORK — Maintaining that the continuance of price control legislation is necessary for the stability of the Nation's economy, and keeping of prices within the range of the recently discharged veterans, the Jewish War Veterans of the United States have dispatched the following telegram to President Harry S. Truman and members of the Legislature:

"The stability of our nation's economy requires the retention of price control. If we are to avoid inflation and keep prices within the reach of veterans and their families, no relaxation of control can be permitted. The Jewish War Veterans strongly urge you to expend every effort to extend the present form of price control beyond June 30, 1946."

A similar message was sent in regard to the all important Patman Veterans Housing Bill which is due in the Senate, after passing through the House, in a modified form, having its much needed $600,000,000 subsidy removed. The Jewish War Veterans are strongly urging the reconsideration of this bill and its passing in its original form, for the maximum benefit of all veterans.

No Successor For Judge Rifkind

FRANKFURT — The Army is not contemplating the appointment of a successor to Judge Simon H. Rifkind, who has just completed a five-month tour of duty as advisor on Jewish affairs to the Commanding General of the European Theatre, the office of the Chief of Staff of the USFET said this week.

Pointing out that Judge Rifkind came to Germany to advise and assist Gen. Eisenhower, and later Gen. McNarney, in establishing basic policies and plans for the care of the displaced Jews, the Army spokesman said that "general theatre policies with which Judge Rifkind was concerned are now well established. The procedure to care for the DP's of persecuted races is well organized and the situation is generally satisfactory."

Friends of Mrs. Schussheim To Fete Her on Anniversary

The Sisterhood of Temple Beth-Israel and friends of Mrs. Morris Schussheim will hold a luncheon this Tuesday afternoon at the Biltmore Hotel in honor of Rabbi and Mrs. Schussheim's 25th wedding anniversary. Mrs. William Bojar, member of the Sisterhood, heads the committee in charge of the affair, at which Mrs. Israela Ross, daughter of the Schussheims, will play piano selections and Mrs. Albert Cohen and Mrs. Barney Kenner will also entertain.

Other members of the committee are: Mesdames Jack Katz, Abraham Bertram, Harry Greenspan, Barney Kenner, Oscar Klemer, James Goldman, Pearl Ernstof, Leo Bojar, Aaron Cohen, Irving Arnoff, program chairman, and Irving Kovitch, ex-officio.

Catholic Priest Rescues Fifty Jewish Children

Jewish Group Interested in Establishing Middlesex U.

NEW YORK — Dr. Israel Goldstein issued a statement this week to clarify reports regarding the interest of a Jewish group in Middlesex University. Dr. Goldstein's statement is as follows:

"A Jewish group has been organized which is interested in establishing a university to be supported primarily by Jewish funds, to be open to Jews and non-Jews without any quotas, on merit only. There are scores of colleges and universities in the United States which have been established by Protestant and Catholic denominational groups. It would be consistent with these precedents for a Jewish group to undertake a simi-

Churchill Declares He Will Not Desert Zionism

Discloses Views To Dr. Silver

Favors Joint Trusteeship

NEW YORK — Declaring that he is not one to desert a great historic cause, Winston Churchill gave assurance that he has always been a Zionist and he is still a Zionist, Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, president of the Zionist Organization of America, disclosed following a conversation he had with the British war-time Premier on the eve of his return to England.

Speaking before the members of the national executive of the ZOA, Dr. Silver, who was presented to Churchill by Bernard Baruch, reported that the British Conservative leader reaffirmed his support of the Jewish National Home in Palestine and free immigration to the fullest absorptive capacity of that country, and favors a joint trusteeship of Great Britain and U. S. A. to bring about this end.

Setting forth his position on Zionism, Churchill stated that he is ready to stand alone on this issue in his own party, if necessary. He recalled that he was one of those who backed the Balfour Declaration and that he still stands by the commitments contained in that historic pledge to the Jewish people. He referred time and again to the achievements of the Jews in Palestine who, he said, have made a "desert bloom like a rose." Churchill paid tribute to the role played by members of the Palestine Jewish Brigade, the formation of which he sanctioned during the war.

Hamilton Fish Plans New Party

NEW YORK — Former Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., defeated for reelection in up-state New York in 1944, has moved to Queens County, New York City. He plans to start a new "isolationist" party, to which he has tentatively given the name "The American Party."

Principally associated with Fish in this new project is Robert M. Harris, formerly an advisor of Charles E. Coughlin, and one of the founders in 1941 of the American Rock Party which received Coughlin's indorsement.

Fish, who now is a tenant of an apartment house owned by Harris in Queens County, stated that Harris would give a dinner for "40 or 50 leaders" in the near future, and that a proposed all-veteran slate of American Party candidates was under consideration.

Lehman Receives Brotherhood Award

NEW YORK — Herbert H. Lehman, retiring Director General of UNRRA, received the annual Human Brotherhood Award of the League of Fraternal Organizations of the Jewish Education Committee at a ceremony at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, attended by more than 1,200 Jewish leaders.

Editorials

Hard to Fathom

Columnist George E. Sokolsky must be ambidextrous in the sense that he can write with both hands. This inconsistency grows out of his attempt to be impersonal in his treatment of his subjects.

Two recent columns make a case in point.

The column on Rosenman dealt with the "Rosenman technique" and contained expressions such as "the ubiquitous Sam the Rose in Miami, sunning himself in the leisure of the elite who govern us." The Rosenman technique seems to mean a system of getting Congress so confused that the people think it queer. This takes attention away from the Executive which can then apparently get away with absurdities. By indirection, he blames Rosenman for various things. The article leaves a bad taste.

The other column reminds a boy named Leon Arden Sussman to give up any idea of becoming Leon Arden, Einstein didn't change his name! Sokolsky didn't change his name! And in this connection he reminds us (and himself) of his paternal grandfather, the Rabbi of Kusnetz. And what a plea he makes for the glorious heritage of the name Cohen—a kingdom of priests, etc. And through blinding tears we reach the end of the article: "The man who takes a single step to cover up his ancestry has nothing in his soul." Tak! Tak!—Outlook.

Council to Sponsor Thrift Shop to Aid Needy Families

Mrs. John J. Rouslin, president of the Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women, has announced that the Council Thrift Shop whose purpose is to aid in filling the needs of families with modest incomes who cannot afford to buy at retail prices, but who, nevertheless, covet the brightness of a luxury beyond their means, will open April 1, at 474 Westminster street. She requests all those who have articles which they no longer need, or want, to contact Mrs. Joseph Goodman, who will arrange to have the articles picked up.

The following steering committee was named at a tea held last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lionel Albert: Mesdames Lionel Albert, temporary chairman of captains; Archie Albert, temporary chairman of daily schedule; I. S. Low, store supplies; Samuel Markoff, store furnishings; Max Viner, window posters; Jack Davis, merchandise; Joseph Goodman, motor corps; Theodore Kolb, window dressing; Samuel Fabricant, temporary secretary; Nathan Perlow, treasurer; Joseph Smith, temporary publicity chairman; John J. Rouslin, ex-officio.

Mrs. Albert, issuing a call for salesladies, asks those who can offer their services to call Mrs. Archie Albert, who will arrange their voluntary working time.

We Must Strengthen Our Forces, Says Dr. Berger

Leaders and workers in the current membership drive of the Providence Zionist District will meet next Wednesday night at the home of Frank Lecht, publicity director, at 344 Taber avenue, to present reports and discuss the progress of the campaign, it was announced this week by Benjamin Feinstein, drive chairman.

Meanwhile, from Florida, where he is vacationing, a message of encouragement was received from Dr. Ilie Berger, veteran Zionist. "We must strengthen our membership," he wrote. "By joining the Zionist Organization of America, the individual throws his weight into the fight for a Jewish Commonwealth in Palestine—the only practical solution to the pressing problem of one and a half million homeless, fear-ridden Jews. Don't stand by passively at this fateful hour of history. I urge you to act now! Join the Z.O.A. It's the best way to enter the fight on the side of right and justice."

Jewish Group May Buy College

to leave no doubt regarding the approval of authorities in the field of medical education.

"The sponsorship and support must be broadly represented, not limited to any one ideological group in Jewish life nor to any geographical area. The good-will and cooperation of leading non-Jewish educators throughout the country will be sought. It is to be a project in the best American tradition as a constructive contribution to American education at a time when there is a desperate need of adequate facilities in the field of higher education and training for professions."

Appoints Chairmen For J.D.C Drive

Mrs. Morris Lecht, president of the South Providence Chapter, Women's Mizrahi, appointed Mesdames Samuel Woolf, Harry Orenstein and Fred Spigel in charge of contributions for the J.D.C. drive for canned foods and clothing, at its meeting last Monday. The first shipment of goods will be sent to New York this Monday.

The organization has contributed $25 to the national office for the Moses Chitlin Drive and $5 to the Cancer Drive.

To Present Jazz Concert Here

Eddie Condon, the Indiana boy who took American jazz music out of the back room and put it on the concert stage where it belongs, brings his famous hot musicians to the Metropolitan Theatre next Monday night. These are the same jazz artists that Eddie has presented for the past five years at his sellout concerts in Town Hall and Carnegie Hall in New York City.

This year's tour will bring Eddie's music to every big city west of the Mississippi. Just a couple of weeks ago Condon's jazz concert drew a capacity audience at Boston.

In September, providing the necessary visas are approved by the State Department, he and his soloists will clipper across the Atlantic for concerts in Dublin, London, Stockholm, Moscow, Copenhagen, Brussels and Paris.

Center Volleyballers To Play in Tournament

The annual New England Y. M. H. A. volleyball tournament will be held at Brockton, Mass., next Sunday, March 31, with two local teams representing the Jewish Community Center.

The teams are being selected from the group which attends Sunday morning gym classes at the Center.

ADL Field Men To Visit R. I.

Clarence Q. Berger, executive director of the New England Regional office of the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League, announced this week that a survey is being undertaken by his office for the purpose of launching a field service program in every community in New England. Representatives will be in Rhode Island from May 6 to 10, inclusive.

This activity is part of a plan to expand field service, as announced by Richard E. Gutstadt, national director of the Anti-Defamation League at its annual convention last November. At this time, Mr. Gutstadt stated that a plan had been formulated to extend the projects and specialized services of the Anti-Defamation League in cities of every size through the means of inter-group community public relations activities.

NAMES OFFICERS

Mrs. Louis Chester, president of the South Providence Ladies' Aid Association, has announced that the following officers were also elected at the organization's annual meeting: Mesdames Nathan Wasserman, vice-president; Jacob Hazman, sunshine chairman; Samuel Millman, publicity chairman.

New Building Necessary, Says Abrams Honor Saul Feinberg for Leadership in Enrollment

Saul Abrams, president of the Jewish Community Center, addressing workers at the final rally of the membership campaign in which nearly 1,000 new members were enrolled under the leadership of Saul E. R. Feinberg, stated that the increased membership make it urgent that a modern and larger Jewish Community Center building be erected to take care of the social, recreational and educational needs of the community.

Paying tribute to Mr. Feinberg as chairman of the drive, Mr. Abrams, on behalf of the board of directors, presented him with an engraved certificate, framed in leather, which read, in part, "to Saul E. R. Feinberg, for his outstanding accomplishment as general chairman of the 1946 membership enrollment, which established a record in Center annals and for his sincere devotion to this task, the energy, enthusiasm and resourcefulness of his leadership, and his personal generosity, this Certificate of Merit, is given in grateful appreciation."

Simone Kinsley, executive director of the Center, stated that an expanded offering of activities for all age groups is being planned to meet the needs of the increased membership.

Yeshiva Nezach Israel Engages Prominent Rabbi

Rabbi P. Hamburger, of Boston, has been appointed by the Yeshiva Nezach Israel as Rosh Yeshiva, it was announced by Rabbi David Werner this week. Rabbi Hamburger studied for more than thirteen years in the "Central Universal Yeshiva" of the late Palestinian Chief Rabbi A. I. Kook. He is a member of the "Agudas Horaborim", Union of Orthodox Rabbis of the United States and Canada.

Jack Levy, student of the Hebrew Teachers Seminary of the Yeshiva College, and Miss Sylvia Werner, have been appointed instructors of the elementary and Hebrew courses in the "Rose of Sharon Institute". Another instructor is expected from New York.

Those wishing to enroll in the Institute should communicate with Rabbi D. Werner; Frank Swartz, 14 Forest street; Jacob Frank, 23 Ruskin street; or call at Central High School evenings between 5 o'clock and 9:30 o'clock.

ARE YOU ONE OF THE SATISFIED
2,326 CUSTOMERS?

We have had that many new coal customers since 1945. Multiply that number by the average amount of coal you use per year and you'll begin to realize how much coal we have delivered in the past three years to new customers alone.

Why Did That 2,326 Come To Us?

Their coal dealers were unable to supply them with the size and quality of anthracite they needed. They were asked to accept soft coal and reclaimed coke as substitutes, poor fuels for household use. We were able to deliver the correct type of high quality anthracite and SUGGESTED NO SUBSTITUTE OF ANY KIND.

What About The Coming Coal Season?

That is up to you. We can now take on only a limited number of new customers. It will be difficult, if not impossible, to accept new customers in the middle of the heating season. If you are one of our regular customers, or wish to become one, give us your order immediately. We will offer you only quality anthracite in exactly the size you specify. Write or telephone.

CRANBERRY TARTS
2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup shortening
ice watter
1 No. 2 can cranberry sauce
Mix flour with salt and sift. Cut in shortening until mixture looks like coarse meal. Add water, a little at a time, until all the flour is moistened and dough will hold together. Roll out on a lightly floured board to about 1/8 inch thick and cut into six equal parts; fit dough into tart or muffin pans. Fill about 3/4 cup cranberry sauce into each tart shell. Bake in a hot oven about 25 minutes or until pastry is done. Cool and serve with whipped cream or vanilla sauce.

Masada, Hadassah Form Local Board

Providence was chosen for the establishment of a joint local board of Masada and Junior Hadassah at a meeting of the New England Regional Groups of the two organizations held last Sunday at Boston. The purpose of the board, in which the local Young Judean Leaders' Council will be invited to participate, will be to integrate the activities of the General Zionist Youth groups.

As a preliminary step representatives of the three groups have been invited to participate in the study course to be given by the cultural committee of Masada under the direction of C. Calman.

Pupils Present Purim Program

A Purim program, held at the Congregation Sons of Abraham last Sunday afternoon, featured an original operetta, with a cast and chorus of 50 students of the Talmud Torah and Sunday School, which was written and directed by Louis N. Gilbert. Dance arrangements were by Jack Hollander, and Mrs. Eugene Freedman accompanied on the piano. Costumes were by Mesdames E. Scherz, J. Hollander, M. Posner and L. Gilbert. Students also presented a short play entitled "The King Chooses a Queen," which was directed by Mr. and Mrs. David Cohen.

Angel Of Pie Alley

By KENNETH FORCE

Reprinted from
The Dallas News

(This is one of the many stories that have appeared in papers throughout the South and Southwest concerning Harry's visitation to servicemen that were assisted at his restaurant.)

Dallas has many a visitor swinging by from East Coast to West. But the most unusual in months is the Angel of Pie Alley.

Harry Mincoff is his proper name, a balding Mr. Five-by-Five of 47, with a cluster of three big diamonds on one hand, long green in his wallet and, say Dallas ex-servicemen, gold in his heart.

The Angel of Pie Alley has a properous cafe, Harry's Delicatessen, at 90 Clemence street, just off the main drag. Here he offers kosher food, barbecued turkey and generosity to servicemen.

Of the 30,000 servicemen formerly stationed around Providence, none ever went hungry or broke from his place if Harry knew it. Whenever he saw a sailor or soldier nursing a glass of beer or making food last as long as possible—beer or food he couldn't afford—or looking at a telegram or a picture of his wife and kids, Harry oozed over, sat down, began to talk, ordered more beer or coffee or food on the house, asked casual-seeming questions. Pretty soon the sailor or soldier opened up. If there was homesickness and the man was single and nice, Harry beckoned some nice girl from a nearby business office, introduced them and provided show tickets. If there was homesickness in a married man, he dealt out humor and kept him to dinner. If the man with the telegram was wondering how he would get home and pay day long off, Harry advanced it. They offered watches and valuables as collateral and were waved off, although he kept many a watch and bank roll for those who were going out on a party, giving receipts, most of which were torn up as quickly as he wrote them. A receipt from the Angel of Pie Alley? Phooey. But the continued offers of collateral produced an idea. One day with a handful of change after breaking a $1 bill, Harry tinkled it into a three-gallon whisky-advertising bottle.

"What's that for?" asked a sailor. "A pot for servicemen. You drop in your change, too. Then when anybody needs any money he can draw on it."

Thereafter, they dropped in their change, pennies mostly, some nickels some dimes. And when a serviceman needed money, Harry, who sealed the bottle save for a coin slot, pulled out his purse and advanced it. He would take it out of the bottle later. Loans increased. He overheard five sailors say, "What're we gonna do on a 56 (36-hour furlough) wit' $10?"

Harry had the answer, three $10 bills. They had never kicked in, said they didn't know if they could pay it back. "If it don't hurt your conscience, it don't hurt mine," said Harry. The five tipped off six others.

In time many a ten-spot went out of Harry's pocket. Many came back. Some in bills, some in money orders from Europe, Iceland, Africa, Guam, Japan and the ports of the seven seas. "I am the long boy from Texas," "I want to pay the only man worth knowing in Providence," "Swell fellow," said most. "Mr. Golden Rule," said many. Some never came back—from those with easy consciences and some because borrowers have paid off with their lives.

And the big three-gallon bottle, whose copper, silver and nickel line inched toward the top until there was around $1096 by Christmas, what of it? One letter from the Rev. Charles C. Curran, director of Catholic activities of Providence, shows what happened to some of the contents. Wrote Catholic priest to Orthodox Jew, "That the merciful Father in heaven will be as kind to you as you have shown mercy to others is my prayerful wish in this joyous season."

How much did he lose? He shrugged it off. But apparently a lot—and gladly. Why? In the last war Harry was on the U. S. S. Henderson, Navy transport, hauling Marines to France. Many a time after a ship crap game, he said, he found himself in a strange port and broke. So when World War II started, he constituted himself a one-man USO. There was more than money. Many a WAC and WAVE he introduced to nice soldiers and sailors, became best man, gave the best wedding present—cash—and then a wedding breakfast or dinner.

Which called to his mind, his chief objection to the thousands of Texans who thronged his place. "I couldn't keep a waitress three months," he complained. "Your Texas boys married 'em."

What was he doing in Dallas? Well, in 1943 he decided those boys worth knowing would be but faces unless he got some names. So he got a visitor's register, had 4,000 of them sign. In January he left his place in the hands of a nephew and niece for a trip to every state of the Union to look up his wartime friends. He wants to renew great acquaintances, see how they are getting on. But, it has not all been pleasant. He found some in hospitals, one legless at home and when he called another's home, the mother cried.

He wanted more than to merely see the boys. If they're not doing well he wants to put those his canny judgment says are good into business on his money and at no interest. Isn't he liable to go broke? "I can tell human nature. Besides I've done well. I have no family and want to go out with what I had when I came in. The only thing you've got in your cold hand is the good you leave."

Emanuel Bowling

By MAXWELL WALDMAN
 Frank Goldstein led his Browns down the home stretch to blank Miles Goldberg's Cubs while Leo Nussenfeld's determined Dodgers kept pace with the league leaders by taking four from the piteous Pirates. Morris Kramer's Giants with Sonny Sandperl in the starring role took four from Eddy Korb's Athletics, while in the biggest upset of the evening Mickey Cohen's Indians took three from Adrian Goldstein's Yanks.

Spot-Lites
 Two regular 20 bowlers surprised everyone present when Herman Lazarus blasted out 125 and Phil Levine hit 111. Ed Lang, bowling with a sprained wrist, came thru with 115 to win a game for the Braves. Lou Chase had a respectable 345 while Lenny Schoenberg and Mickey Cohen hit 127. Elmer Chester, Lenny Young, Eddy Lavine and Sol Grossman hit 118. Nat Weiss won the first game for the Browns with his 115.

 The Symphony of Strings under the capable conducting of Maestro Eduardo Deutsch has come to its closing aria.

We take this opportunity to publicly apologize to our teammates for all advantages taken; to whom it may concern for all plagiarisms; to the Jewish Herald for having to wait each week; and to our readers (you three grand people) for wading thru this week after week.

 Nemerow's Pennsylvanians, rolling in high gear, defeated Steiner's Cornell team and took four points which increased their hold on the top spot of the league. Bromberg's Harvard team in the match with Nelson's Dartmouth Indians won three points to the Indians one point. Epstein's Army mules got all tangled up with the Navy goat and when the battle was over Navy was the victor of three points to Army's one point. In the final match of the evening the Yale bulldog led by Greenstein went hunting Krasnoff's Brown bears and managed to get one bite while the bear clawed 3 points out of the bulldogs. Who-done-it: A Strike—cheers from his teammates; then 4 pins on the strike; 6 pins in the box cheers from his opponents—tears from his mates? The hot 300 boys for the nite: Nemerow, 339; Gorman, 331; Stamp, 324; Bromberg, 320; Levinson, 316; Epstein, 308; M. Marcus, 306; Steiner, 306; Marcowitz, 305; Roberts, 303; Regen, 300.

Preparations are proceeding smoothly on the inter-Temple match. Watch this and other Temple columns for the complete details. The Herald is to be congratulated for its fine spirit in promoting this affair which is helping to bring together the many splendid fellows of the several Temples in the city and promoting the foundation of a better and friendlier relationship among all of us. This is a start in the right direction and should be followed thru in other ways.

The Funnies: Speaking of dramatic critics, as some of us have all week, one of them was asked what he thawt of a new play..... "Very refreshing," he said..... "That's swell," responded one of the authors. "You really found it refreshing?"....."Yes," said the reviewer, "I felt like a new man when I woke up!"

Critics usually have the last word and the last laugh. But there have been times when make-believers have flattened their belitters.....Some years ago a player was roasted by a Philadelphia play reporter. He promptly called him and snapped: "How do you expect to hurt me with your review when your whole paper couldn't hurt Roosevelt?"

Quotation Marksmanship: I. Morals: He goes around with a far-away look in his eyes.....Disraeli: The defects of great men are the consolation of dunces..... D. L. Moody: Character is what you are in the dark.....I. Elinson: I spell it ArgenTNTina.....Rex Stout: She opened her handbag and dug into it like a terrier..... John Moore: A bee was busily scolding a flower.....A child's definition: My memory is the thing I

Fall River Rabbi

DR. SAMUEL RUDERMAN
Former Chaplain
Sabbath Lecturer

Dr. Samuel Ruderman, a former chaplain in the U. S. Navy, who recently returned to his pulpit in Temple Beth-El, Fall River, following service with the Third and Fourth Marine Divisions in Hawaii and Guam, will speak at the Sabbath Eve service next Friday evening at Temple Emanuel. His topic will be "Can We Meet the Challenge of the Returning Serviceman?" Rabbi Israel Goldman will introduce Dr. Ruderman, and F. Harold Dick and other members of the Men's Club will also participate in the Service.

forget with.....P. Brito: How about calling it Hunter UNOver-sity?.....Anon: Ignorance and Intelligence both start with I.....G. Drake: Of course time flies. You would, too, if someone was trying to kill you.....Anon: Experience makes a man wiser but leaves a woman a complete wreck.

The producer of a flop once button-holed Bob Benchley and demanded: "Who do you think you are?"

Benchley quietly replied: "I am a critic. Which means that like every man and woman I can express an opinion. The difference is that I express my opinions publicly and get paid for it."

Critic baiting is an ancient sport. Rub a sensitive ego the wrong way and you're bound to ignite an explosion.....But few performers have been gifted with Paderewski's wisdom and tolerance. After the great pianist's first recital in this country, several critics panned him. An editor graciously offered the columns of his newspaper so that Paderewski could reply. But the eminent musician turned down the offer.

Parochial School
Has Open Meeting

Explain Need
Of New Building

Approximately one hundred members and guests of the Lubavitcher Hebrew Day School attended an open meeting last Tuesday evening at the Biltmore Hotel.

Frank Swartz, president of the organization, extended greetings to the guests and explained the great need of a new building to accommodate parents wishing to have their children attend the Lubavitcher Hebrew Day School.

Irving Koffler, campaign chairman, gave a report on the maintenance and building fund campaign, and announced that it was going along satisfactorily but stated the necessity of the continued efforts of the members.

Rabbi Joshua Werner spoke of the importance of the Lubavitcher Yeshiva. He stated that only the Day Schools will promote Judaism in America.

Rabbi Morris G. Silk emphasized the importance of the teaching of the Torah to our children. He explained that today, at this time, and in this age when the great sources of Judaism have been destroyed, it is imperative that we educate our children in order to rebuild the foundation of our Jewish people.

Rabbi Isidore Groner, executive director, announced that after a short period of six months, the people of Providence now understand the beneficiary factors of a Hebrew Day School.

Mrs. Isaiah Segal, vice-president of the Ladies Association, also addressed the group.

Refreshments were served by the Ladies' Association.

saying: "It is best that they write against me—and I play against them."

Nylons are no longer the top black market item. A $5 white shirt in many spots brings 20 bux.....Lili St. Cyr of the night clubs can't wear nylons. Allergic!..... W. Z. Foster, chief of the U. S. Communist Party, issued a rebuke to a headline writer on the local commy paper for "stupid journalism".....Doris Lilly (no dunce, she) inserted a classified ad in a paper advertising for an apartment and got 30 replies next day. And an apt!.....Sgt. Chet Skreen observes that the legend about British women having no sex appeal took a terrible debunking when H'wood hired two British actresses to film the most amorous women—Amber and Scarlett!

SECURITY?

UNCERTAINTY?

Security Is Yours
with an Old Colony Mortgage

"Will my rent be raised? Will I have to move? Will my family have a good home?" These are only a few of the uncertainties that can bring constant worry to the house renter.

But the home owner, under Old Colony's 12-Point Mortgage Plan, has security and peace of mind because:

- ✓ His monthly mortgage payments are like rent—but only he can increase them.
- ✓ His loan can never be called when payments are up to date.
- ✓ He reduces his outstanding debt and interest with each monthly payment.
- ✓ He knows the date when the home will be his, free and clear.

Let Old Colony show you how the 12-Point Mortgage Plan is the road to security through home ownership.
