REV. WILLIAM C. KERNAN

Noted Preacher To Speak Here

Reverend William C. Kernan, of New York City, famous radio preacher who is heard weekly over Station WEVD, New York, will address the Roger Williams Lodge, B'nai B'rith next Tuesday evening, January 28, at Churchill House. His subject will be "Anti-Semitism in America Today."

Reverend Kernan, who is the executive director of the Institute for American Democracy, is noted for his replies to Father Coughlin's radio talks. Following his address there will be dancing to the music of Carl Tatz' Orchestra. The meeting is open to all lodge members, their wives and friends, and to the members of the Roger Williams Chapter, their husbands and friends.

Announce Closing Of Lubavitcher

The Lubavitcher Yeshiva Achel Tmimim, located at 47 Orms street, has discontinued its school, it was learned this week. Parents of pupils were informed of the school's closing with the suggestion that the children be placed in other schools.

The Lubavitcher Yeshiva opened its doors in September 1945 and was under the supervision and co-operation of several Providence Rabbis.

Editorials

Democracy in Fact

American democracy has a code—the Bill of Rights in the Constitution. So long as the civil rights of citizens are protected, just so long are we carrying out the letter of our law.

Condemning "a tendency in this country" toward revival of bigotry and intolerance, President Truman this week called for legislation to implement the Bill of Rights and protect the civil rights of citizens in those local areas from which Federal enforcement agencies have been excluded.

The President asks for implementation of the Bill of Rights "in fact." In this he rightfully demands respect for rather than lip service to the tenets of our democracy.

Hospital Names Service Chiefs

The board of directors of the Miriam Hospital today announced the names of physicians who will act as chiefs of their respective services at the hospital. It was also reported that the Hospital is now associated with the Institute of Pathology of the Rhode Island Hospital.

Heads of services are: Dr. Eske Windberg, chief of surgery; Dr. Joseph Franklin, acting chief of obstetrics and gynecology; Dr. Louis Kramer, chief of medicine; Dr. Nathan Bolotow, chief of ear, nose and throat; Dr. William Cohen, chief of dermatology; Dr. Roland Hammond, chief of orthopedics; Dr. Archie Albert, chief of dental; Dr. Eugene Field, chief of x-ray; Dr. Meyer Saklad, chief of anesthesia; Dr. Herman P. Grossman, chief of eye; Dr. Nathan Chaset, associate surgeon of urology, and Dr. B. Earl Clark, chief pathologist.

Zionist Meeting To Feature Report on World Congress

Elihu D. Stone, of Boston, vice-president of the Zionist Organization of America, who has just returned from the World Zionist Congress at Basle, Switzerland, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Zionist District of Providence, which will be held this Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Crown Hotel. Judge Stone, who organized the New England Zionist Region, will present a confidential report on the recent congress, the attending personalities and the impending implications. He will also discuss the reason for Rabbi Stephen Wise leaving the Z. O. A. A former member of the Massachusetts Legislature, Judge Stone instituted and secured passage of resolutions in favor of Palestine as a Jewish Homeland, thus putting Massachusetts on record as the first state of the union to favor this matter. It was through his efforts that the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge became interested in bringing about the passage of the famous Lodge resolution in 1922, favoring the establishment of the Jewish Homeland in Palestine.

The program for the evening will include entertainment by Gladys Chernack Kapstein and a discussion of "Hamisha Osar B'Shat" by Rabbi Morris Schusheim. Aaron Klein, who is in charge of the program, will also participate.

Children Speak To Mother Living in France

Two children, now residing in Rhode Island, had a thrilling quarter hour last Sunday when, for the first time in more than three years, they spoke to their mother who is living in Metz, France.

The two refugee sisters, Jeanette and Marie Berkovic, ages 12 and 16 respectively, in November, 1943 said farewell to their mother who was then in Creuse, France. Their father was a victim of the Hitler regime. Arrangements had been made for the girls to come to the United States and then, through the assistance of the local Jewish Family and Children's Service, Marie took up residence with Mr. and Mrs. Morris Goldstein, of 2 Wilcox avenue, Pawtucket, and Jeanette went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin

GJC Allocation Committee to Meet

List Schedule Of Meeting Dates

Archibald Silverman, president of the General Jewish Committee, announced this week that, now that the campaign is completed, the allocations committee, consisting of 15 members of the board of directors, will begin its job. Meetings have been scheduled for Wednesday, January 29; Tuesday, February 4, and Thursday, February 6. The first meeting will be devoted entirely to hearings of representatives of various organizations that have requested the opportunity to appear before the General Jewish Committee. A detailed allocations workbook, in which there is full information about the activities and financial requirements of the 54 agencies which are now beneficiaries, has been prepared by Joseph Galkin, executive director.

The recommendations of this committee will be presented to the entire board of directors for their final approval. Members of the committee to decide on distribution of the funds raised in the 1946 campaign include: Alter Boyman, Dr. Ilie Berger, Max Berman, Benjamin Brier, Irving I. Fain, Joseph M. Finklestein, Henry Hassenfeld, Max Kestenman, Mrs. Samuel Michaelson, Albert Pilavin, Joseph W. Ress, Milton C. Sapinsky, Irwin Silverman, Alvin A. Sopkin and Archibald Silverman, ex-officio.

Matusow, of 36 Milk Street Providence.

About a year ago, word was received that Mrs. Berkovic was alive and living in Metz. The girls and their mother corresponded. Last Sunday, as both girls were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Goldstein, the former casually asked if the girls would like to speak to their mother. The children, of course, were delighted.

The call was placed at 2 o'clock and Mrs. Berkovic was reached at 3:15 o'clock. Marie, who spoke first, had to repeat her name constantly because her mother would not believe it was her daughter to whom she was speaking. The excitement was so intense, Mrs. Goldstein later said, that there was not a dry eye in the house. Mrs. Berkovic then spoke to the foster parents and thanked them for the care they had given her children. She also expressed her gratitude to the Jewish Family and Children's Service for their interest in Jeanette and Marie.

Affidavits have been prepared for Mrs. Berkovic, and it is hoped that before long she will rejoin her children in this country.

Ahavath Sholom Synagogue To Resume Building Drive

The Congregation Ahavath Sholom will soon resume its campaign for a modern Talmud Torah and Synagogue, it was reported this week. The drive will be conducted by a reorganized committee, consisting of Colonel Walter Adler, honorary chairman; Arthur H. Feiner, chairman, and Benjamin J. Winicour, director.

Colonel Adler, who has served as an assistant city solicitor, was the Republican candidate for attorney general in the last election. In accepting the post, he pointed out that his family has long been associated with the Ahavath Sholom Congregation and that he welcomed the opportunity to be of service to it.

Mr. Feiner, a Rhode Island attorney, and a former assistant city solicitor, in accepting the chairmanship stated that his family has always played an active part in the affairs of the Synagogue. He said that he was particularly impressed by the support already given the drive by persons outside the immediate Congregation and that this indicated a growing consciousness on the part of Jewish people of their joint responsibility for providing facilities for the education of Jewish youth.

Mr. Winicour, who is associated with the liquor control administration of Rhode Island, is the present secretary of the Congregation.

In his acceptance, he commented upon the over forty years of service of the Synagogue to the Jewish community and expressed the gratitude of the Congregation to those who had already contributed.

London Will Press For Palestine Solution

LONDON — A high government source said this week that the British Cabinet was convinced the time had come for Britain to take the initiative in securing a political settlement of the Palestine problem.

The Cabinet was known to favor partition into Arab and Jewish states

The two refugee sisters, Jeanette and Marie Berkovic, ages 12 and 16 respectively, in November, 1943 said farewell to their mother who was then in Creuse, France. Their father was a victim of the Hitler regime. Arrangements had been made for the girls to come to the United States and then, through the assistance of the local Jewish Family and Children's Service, Marie took up residence with Mr. and Mrs. Morris Goldstein, of 2 Wilcox avenue, Pawtucket, and Jeanette went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin

Doctors, Dentists Offer Supplies

Mrs. Jacob S. Temkin, chairman of the S.O.S. supplies collection, reported this week that the doctors and dentists of the city have given excellent cooperation in supplying medicines for the drive. Mrs. Herbert Cohen, chairman of the committee handling this phase of the collection, indicated that every doctor and dentist that has been contacted to date has turned over large quantities of items such as vitamins, tooth paste and related useful medicines. Others of the medical profession who have not yet been contacted and who have supplies may get in touch with Mrs. Cohen, at PE 1002.

Mrs. Temkin again appealed to all in the community to bring their clothing and other items to the various collection depots so that they can be prepared for shipment as soon as possible.

Curriculum for Day School Is Announced by Principal

Rabbi Morris Pickholz, principal of the Providence Hebrew Day School, which will open for the second school term on Monday, February 10, this week announced the curriculum which will be followed at the school.

"The secular subjects for the first four primary grades include, for the first grade, fundamentals in reading, vocabulary building, simple art work, songs about holidays in the U. S., simple writing, and stories of history. In the second grade pupils will study reading from text books, vocabulary building, writing, spelling and grammar, simple arithmetic, history, art, dramatics, songs and music. Third grade subjects are reading from textbook, vocabulary and grammar, English grammar, spelling, composition, arithmetic, history, arts and crafts, dramatics, music, and physical training. The fourth year studies are the same as in the third year but, of course, will be more advanced." The Hebrew courses include language study, translation of simple prayers, stories from Talmud, reading and laws and customs.

Registration is now taking place daily, Monday through Friday, 9 o'clock to 5 o'clock. A special registration session is scheduled for this Sunday from 11 to 4 o'clock. Parents are urged to visit the school where they may inspect the facilities and obtain information about the school's program.

Bus transportation will be provided daily for the children. Hot lunches will be served at noon.

Billbo Exposed To Tolerance

NEW ORLEANS — Sen. Billbo, while having a jaw operation in a Jewish hospital, is being attended, some of the time, by Jewish physicians. He is reading Margaret Trahey's "Color Blind" and Stetson Kennedy's attack on the Ku Klux Klan called "Southern Exposure."

Hillel Comes
To Providence

By BERNARD SEGAL

With the opening of the new semester in February, a new student service agency will begin to function on the campus of Brown University. The national Hillel Foundation sponsored by B'nai B'rith will establish a chapter on the hill. Two representatives of Hillel visited the campus recently and outlined a program of work before a student gathering. The university authorities are wholeheartedly behind the project. The local B'nai B'rith will act on the matter at the next meeting, and approval is certain. The student steering committee is in the meantime busy preparing for the opening of the chapter.

We note with great pleasure the birth of this new cultural and social force in our community. We hope to report on the activities of Hillel on the campuses in Providence and Kingston, as the chapters adapt themselves to the needs of the students.

History of Hillel

To introduce Hillel to the readers who are not familiar with this students organization, here is a brief sketch of its history

Asks for Workers For Hadassah "Shopper's Guide"

Mrs. Abraham Wexler, chairman of the annual "Shopper's Guide," a publication which is issued to all contributors to the donor affair of the Providence Chapter of Senior Hadassah, this week requested that all women who are interested in soliciting ads for the "Guide" contact her. She reported that anyone who collects $50 in ads automatically becomes a donor. A meeting for members who are interested in working on this project will be held at the home of Mrs. Maurice Robinson, 191 Eighth street, at 2 o'clock this Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Jacob Temkin, Hadassah radio chairman, has announced that the broadcast on Thursday, February 6, will feature Reverend Earl Hollier Tomlin, secretary of the R. I. Council of Churches.

A board meeting of Hadassah will be held this Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Biltmore Hotel. Members are urged to come promptly.

din, of Pawtucket, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Evelyn Gerstenblatt was the soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her parents, was attired in a white satin gown with a nylon skirt and a sheer beaded yoke. She carried a prayer book adorned with white roses and sweet peas.

Miss Shirley Weintraub, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a pink nylon gown and a matching hat and blue gloves and carried a Colonial bouquet of pink roses, blue delphinium and pink carnations.

Hilton Rosen was the best man for his uncle, who was given in marriage by his mother and brother, Max Fishman. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fishman, brother and sister-in-law of the groom, were also in the bridal procession.

The mother of the bride wore a black dress with rose-jeweled buttons and a corsage of red roses. The mother of the groom was also outfitted in a black dress, which was adorned with silver sequins. Her corsage was of white roses. Mrs. Harry Fishman selected a black dress, trimmed with colored sequins and a corsage of red and white roses.

The bride is a graduate of Classical High School and Bryant College. Mr. Fishman, who graduated from Pawtucket High School, served in the U. S. Army for three and one-half years, two years of which were spent in the Pacific Theatre of Operations. Upon their return from a wedding trip to Washington, Maryland, Virginia and New York, Mr. and Mrs. Fishman will reside at the Niagara Apartments, on Niagara street.

Beth-El Bowling

By JACK FLEISIG

I'm back, I'm back, joy reigns unconfined,
Many thanks to the boys, who have been so kind.

I tried to get Adams, Kiernan and Winchell,
But Alper, Applebaum and Sonsky did just as well,

Edgar Guest as we know has passed away,
So Geo. Dann came thru, with rhyming did sway

The column appeared each Friday without fail,
While I was out arranging bail?

All the boys helped and did their share,
Except Kilroy, and he wasn't there.

And now for some news. Doing a yeomans job of keeping his team in first place is Frank Melton, but I'm serving warning to him that Al Gordon's team with no help from me is breathing down his neck. Maurice Fleisig and D. Feinberg started their respective strings off with three strikes and for a while it looked as the high single of 160 was going to be topped, but the boys cooled off, and Feinberg wound up with a nice 157 to Fleisig's 135. Where did M. Botvin get the fireman's underwear?

Olympic Bowling

By SYD COHEN

The Olympic League is now down to its last seven weeks and the handwriting is on the wall. Class is beginning to tell and there is an air of resignation among those clubs that realize they are gradually dropping out of contention.

For the second week in a row, a first place tie exists between the Levines and the Cohens.

Congrats to Lennie Chernack whose 316 marked the first time he has made the 300 class. Captain Irv Levine personally paced his team to victory with some very hot clutch bowling. Howie Cohen also led his team, even though he couldn't bowl because of an injury. Howie's 108 season's average entitled him to take a 103 for each string. Merlyn Rodyn took advantage of that to climb a little nearer the top in the race for individual honors with 320. Frank, Aven and Wolff also were 300 keglers; while Snyder, Lobel and Gordon just missed the boat with 299, 297 and 295, respectively.
