GJC Sets Stage For Historic Campaign

Leaders Discuss Drive Strategy

With a record-shattering 1948 quota of $1,350,000 set for this area, the stage has been set for one of the most crucial and historic campaigns ever waged by the General Jewish Committee of greater Providence.

Playing perhaps the most important role in the campaign—although its name does not appear on the list of performers in bold type—is the new State of Israel, the concrete realization of hundreds of years of hope and prayer by Jewish people everywhere.

The vast bulk of the proceeds of the coming GJC drive will be allocated to the United Jewish Appeal which, in turn, finances the activities of the Joint Distribution Committee, the United Palestine Appeal and the United Services for New Americans.

But little doubt exists in the minds of even the most casual observer that the real drama is centered within the war-torn confines of the new State. Upon it, for example, are focused the anguished eyes of tens of thousands of Jews in DP camps throughout Europe who see in Israel the threshold of a new life for them.

Here in Providence the many—

First Pictures of Complete Israeli Cabinet

ISRAELI CABINET studies the problems involved in admitting an estimated 30,000 Jewish immigrants within two months. In connection with the truce, the Provisional Government of Israel made the observation that it will regard as unjustified any attempt to interfere with the normal flow of Jewish immigrants. Seated in session around the table clockwise starting at the lower left are: Mordechai Bentov, labor, public works; Aharon Zislig, agriculture; Fritz Bernstein, trade and industry; Moshe Shapiro, immigration; Rabbi J. L. Fishman, education, religion; David Ben Gurion, Premier, defense; unidentified man; Felix Rosenbluth, justice; B. S. Shitrit, police; Eliezer Kaplan, treasurer; David Remez, communications. Not shown are Moshe Shertok, foreign minister; Itschaq Gruenbaum, interior; and Itche Meir Levin, health.

Israelis Officially Skeptical of Peace

Consultations Not a Peace Conference

CAIRO—Count Folke Bernadotte arrived at his peace headquarters in Rhodes to begin the attempt to set a basis for a permanent Palestine settlement.

The UN mediator, in conferences in Cairo and Tel Aviv, was given assurances that Arab and Israeli experts will be sent in the role of consultants to help him shape a peace plan.

No Round Table

The Count said he did not expect he would have a proposal ready for Israeli and Arab consideration before a week.

"There is no question of any kind of round table conference yet," Bernadotte said in Rhodes.

In Tel Aviv, Israeli officials emphasized that the Rhodes consultations will be in no way a "peace conference." The Arabs have declined to attend any formal round table conference which would amount to tacit recognition of Israel as a state.

Israelis Skeptical

Grave doubts were expressed in the Israeli capital that the truce would last more than another 10 days. Preparations were going ahead in Israel for any eventuality.

(A UP Tel Aviv dispatch said some high Israeli leaders strongly oppose any extension of the Palestine truce which would delay a final decision of the Holy Land beyond the American Presidential election.)

Women's Division Organizes Fund Drive

The wheels for the 1948 General Jewish Committee campaign were set in motion at a luncheon meeting held last week at the home of Mrs. Albert Pilavin, Women's Division chairman.

The meeting was held for General Solicitations. A meeting for the Special Gifts Committee is planned for early September.

Since it was decided that planning meetings would be held to a minimum, much of the organizing work was accomplished at this session. Officers and chairmen were divided up into individual groups. Area commanders and squadron leaders were grouped at separate tables to discuss the most effective methods of solicitation.

Mrs. Pilavin announced that on the basis of such thorough canvassing, the Women's Division expects to roll up the largest total of contributions so far.

The chairman also made known the following appointments of area commanders in Providence. They are the Mesdames Israel Mandell, Edwin Soforenko, Daniel Miller, Harry Schleifer, Joseph Adelson, Martin Posner, Samuel Chernov, J. I. Cohen, Sidney Weinstein, Maurice Musler. Mrs. Louis Rosenstein was named for East Providence, Mrs. Alfred Levy for Warren and Bristol, Mrs. Max Margolis for West Warwick, and Miss Ruth Silverman for East Greenwich.

Approve Hebrew School Course

ALBANY, N. Y.—The State Board of Regents today approved Modern Hebrew as a course of study in New York State high schools. The action is considered recognition of the increasing number of students of the language.

Israel Army, Irgun Clash Over Arms

TEL AVIV—An armed clash between Israel's regular army and the extremist Irgun Zvai Leumi organization was reported tonight in a government communique. The communique said a boat had landed on the coast of Palestine carrying Irgun arms.

Auction Sale of Nazi Loot Aids Victims

NEW YORK—Gold and jewels the Nazis stripped from their victims before they sent them to gas chambers are being auctioned all this week at the Parke-Bernet Galleries.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to rehabilitate and resettle the "non-repatriables" among the Nazi victims—persons unable to claim assistance of any government receiving reparations from Germany.

The property on sale includes non-monetary gold, jewelry, precious stones, silver, glass, and porcelain. Parke-Bernet officials estimated its value at approximately $150,000, but most of the items sold yesterday went at prices higher than had been expected.

The sale is being handled on behalf of the Preparatory Commission of the International Refugee Organization of the United Nations and the property is part of the vast quantities recovered by the Allied armies.

Republican Platform Pledges Full Support to New State of Israel

PHILADELPHIA—The Republican committee has voted a plank which would grant de jure recognition to the new State of Israel and would guarantee its borders as established by the United Nations.

Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the Platform Committee, supported the plank with other influential Republicans who feel that the de facto recognition granted by President Truman is not sufficient.

Efforts to get the Republicans to adopt a strong plank on Israel were pushed last Friday by The American Zionist Emergency Council whose representative, Harold P. Manson, appeared before the foreign policy section of the Resolutions Committee.

The GOP plank on Israel follows: "We welcome Israel into the family of nations and take pride in the fact that the Republican Party was the first to call for the establishment of a free and independent Jewish commonwealth. The vacillation of the Democrat administration on this question has undermined the prestige of the United Nations. Subject to the letter and spirit of the United Nations Charter, we pledge to Israel full recognition, with its boundaries as sanctioned by the United Nations and aid in developing its economy."

Boycott Movement Against Britain

(Editor's Note—The following is a summarization of an editorial in The New Palestine discussing the advisability of a boycott movement against British goods.)

The New Palestine has received hundreds of letters from ZOA members calling for a boycott on English goods in protest to Arab warfare upon Israel that is British inspired, British financed and British armed and led.

While a boycott might express the bitterness of the American Jewry, would it be effective unless it had the support of the non Jewish population?

This side of the question has been aired by The New Palestine. Would a boycott, even an official one, harm Israel?

"One must carefully think through the use of such a weapon that has the habit of boomeranging and can do more harm to friends than to enemies," S. Dingol, expressing views of those against boycott, recently wrote in The Day as quoted by The New Palestine.

We are constrained from taking any action in regard to Israel without the approval of the Jewish State. Moshe Shertok, in the name of the Israeli government

Uniform Death Certificates Asked

LAKE SUCCESS—The World Jewish Congress asked UN today to initiate an international agreement on issuing death certificates for millions of missing persons, thus clearing the way for restitution of property to their heirs.

Dr. A. Leon Kubowitzky, Secretary General of the Congress, and Dr. Robert S. Marcus, acting political director, submitted a memorandum to UN Secretary General Trygve Lie asking that the Economic and Social Council discuss the problem at their meeting in Geneva next month.

The memorandum said the wholesale extirpation of European Jewry created a problem on legal status of millions who must be considered dead, with the problem complicated by families who died in different countries.

Only an international convention could solve the problem, the memorandum said.

ISRAEL'S MILITARY BUDGET

TEL AVIV—The military budget of Israel is $16,000,000 a month. About $1,000,000 is earmarked for support of soldiers' families.

GJC Campaign

faceted divisions of the GJC already have swung into action. To even the most casual observer, it is evident that preparations for the forthcoming campaign are considerably more advanced than in previous years at this date.

Sept. 14 Inaugural Officially, the drive opens with the major Initial Gifts Dinner, slated for the Ledgemont Country Club on Sept. 14. But already the local GJC has heeded the desperate plea of the UJA for emergency funds to finance the tremendous new demands made of it since the establishment of the new State on May 14.

At the June 16 goal-setting dinner, Archibald Silverman, president of the GJC, revealed that approximately $200,000 already has been forwarded to national offices of the UJA as an advance on the 1948 Providence quota.

The pre-campaign advance was made possible only by borrowing from private sources and by asking, and receiving, substantial advances on their 1948 pledges from several of the larger contributors, Mr. Silverman brought out.

SOS Drive Indicative
Alvin A. Sopkin, chairman, pointed to the recent highly-successful SOS drive for food and clothing in this area as an outstanding example of the potentialities of the community when it works as a smooth-functioning unit, after being aroused to the responsibilities facing it.

Percentages Bypassed
Donors in the smaller brackets this year will be asked to disregard percentages entirely when they make their 1948 gifts. The local GJC's goal of $1,350,000 is, itself, approximately $350,000 greater than the entire total raised in last year's drive.

is negotiating with Britain for recognition and what right have we to make more difficult his meeting and negotiations with England through a boycott against them, Dingo declares.

His main argument is that a boycott would hit all the English people and many English sympathize with Palestine and are fighting for Jewish rights.

Only recently in the House of Commons, a Jewish member of Parliament, Sidney Silverman, stood up and fought Bevin, and he was supported by many non-Jewish MPs. Furthermore, in England, some of the major newspapers have attacked Bevin for his stand toward Israel.

Another person was quoted in the editorial as pointing out that cancellation of insurance policies with English companies might instead prove to be a financial benefit to the insurance companies, and cause a considerable financial loss to the policyholder or beneficiary.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, include three sons, Jack, Peter and Julius Phillips; three daughters, the Misses Anna and Gertrude Phillips and Mrs. Faye Hurwitz; a sister, Mrs. Bessie Kelstein, and five grandchildren. All are of Providence.

Louis Fishbeins Observe Golden Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. LOUIS FISHBEIN, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fishbein of 139 Lancaster Street observed 50 years of marriage last Saturday and attended services at Ahavath Sholom Synagogue.

The couple has eight sons, all grown up, who in honor of their parents planned to give an elaborate formal dinner to celebrate the joyous occasion marking one of the highlights of their married life.

Instead of light-hearted merry-making, however, the sons and the parents decided that the money that was to have been spent in a gala evening Sunday should be contributed to charity. The amount was $2300.

The contributions were made to the following: New Ahavath Sholom Synagogue $1000; New Beth David Synagogue $100; Home for the Aged $100; Jewish Convalescent Home $100; other contributions $400. Mathew Fishbein pledged $100 to the Jewish National Fund to inscribe the names of his parents in the Golden Book. Dr. Jay N. Fishbein pledged $500 to the United Jewish Appeal.

The Fishbeins' eight sons include three doctors. Their sons are Dr. Jay N., Nathan, Ralph, Mathew, Dr. Joseph, Samuel, Dr. Arthur and Morris.

The sons presented their parents with a new electric range, refrigerator and freezing unit. The daughters-in-law gave each a gold wrist watch, and neighbors and friends presented the couple with a silver service and a set of china.

Hadassah Board Appoints Chairmen

Possible techniques to be used in the intensive fund-raising campaign to be launched next Fall were considered at an executive board meeting of the Senior Hadassah, Providence Chapter, held this week at the home of Mrs. Irwin N. Silverman.

Mrs. William Bojar, membership chairman, announced that the following Mesdames will serve as district chairmen during the membership drives next season: Samuel Chernov, South Providence; Simon Weintraub, North Providence section; Theodore Rosenblatt, East Side. Mrs. Chernov is co-chairman of the membership committee. Mrs. Maurice Hendel will be its secretary.

Mrs. Boyman Wins Trip To Palestine

Mrs. Alter Boyman of 169 Reynolds Avenue, one of the founders of the Pioneer Women's Organization in this city and a prominent Zionist, is one of five winners of a free trip to Israel offered by Pioneer Women, the women's labor Zionist organization of America, to spur their membership drive.

Mrs. Boyman, it was announced by the national headquarters in New York, will be given the opportunity to see at first hand the realization of the Zionist dream—a Jewish state in Palestine—for which she has labored for many years.

To be eligible for the competition, she had to bring in at least seven new members this past year.

Many prominent Palestinians have been guests at the Boyman home when they visited this city. Among them have been Goldie Myerson, now deputy foreign minister of Israel; Yehudith Simchoni, Elisheva Kaplan and other leaders of the Working Women's Council in the Jewish homeland. Was President 5 Years

Mrs. Boyman was one of seven women who organized the Providence club 22 years ago. Its membership is now nearly 700. She served as its president for five years and is an honorary president now besides heading several of its fund-raising activities including the Child Rescue and the Moatzot Hapoolot Fund.

Other organizations in which she is actively interested are the General Jewish Committee, the United Jewish Appeal, the Miriam Hospital and the Jewish Home for the Aged. She has lived in Providence for 28 years.

"Getting members for Pioneer Women has always been a work of love and a favorite duty with me," Mrs. Boyman said on learning her good fortune. "I've signed up scores of members long before prizes were offered for this work. In fact, on every occasion—weddings, parties, wherever people gather—I've never missed an opportunity to enroll new members to help in the important work Pioneer Women are doing for the Jewish State."

Mrs. Regensteiner Installed In Office

Rabbi Morris Schusheim installed the new officers of Beth Israel Sisterhood at the annual luncheon held recently in the ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel. Mrs. S. Charles Miller was chairman for the afternoon.

Mrs. Ludwig Regensteiner took office as president for the coming year, and in addition the following Mesdames were seated: Oscar Klemmer, first vice-president; S. Charles Miller, second vice-president; Irving Beranbaum, treasurer; Harry Goldenberg, financial secretary; Lawrence Solomon, recording secretary; Samuel Chernov and Saul Hodosh, corresponding secretaries and Boris Nelson, auditor. Mrs. Benjamin Kane is honorary president, and Mrs. Samuel Deutch, honorary vice-president.

Workers Alliance To Install Monday

At a special meeting of the Jewish National Workers Alliance to be held on Monday evening at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel, the following officers will be installed:

Arthur Korman, chairman; Solomon Lightman, vice chairman; Harry Richman, financial secretary; Isadore Wurafitic, recording secretary, and Martin Gross, treasurer.

Alter Boyman, Charles Lappin and Dr. P. M. Phillips comprise the new cultural committee.

Executive committee members include Nathan Izeman, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Max Berman, Dave Billou, Joseph Biller, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Alter Boyman, Barney Buckler, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chaet, Abraham Grebstein, Charles Lappin, Harry Levine, Harry Finkelstein, Nathan Ostrov, Dr. P. M. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. I. Perler, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Schwartz, I. A. Segal, Samuel Shprecher, Benjamin Schuster, Max Rotman, Harry Waxman and Eli Wein.

The annual report will be given at the meeting.

Plans are being made for an outdoor meeting to be held at the Narragansett Pier estate of Perler-Denmark during July.

Old New Yorkers:

A Brooklyn newspaperman once enjoyed roaming through Broadway from midnight to dawn. He haunted saloons and theaters and hobnobbed with the inhabitants of the show world to gather material for yarns. He did what B'way columnists are now doing. His name: Walt Whitman ... About a century ago, a New York scrivener turned out a novel that was a financial failure. As a result, he gave up writing and took a job as inspector of customs on the Gansevoort street pier. He held this job for two decades. Herman Melville never lived to see his novel become one of the great classics—"Moby Dick." ... One of the struggling poets in Greenwich Village (at the turn of the century) managed to live by scrubbing the floors of a saloon. Years later he scaled the heights and became the English poet laureate—John Masefield.

W. C. Fields started on a bender in Hollywood and wound up with a hangover in New York. He was surprised to see John Barrymore at the Stork club.

"What's the matter," asked Barrymore, "didn't you know I was in town?"
"I didn't even know I was" was the retort.

Jim Crouch recalls the time Ernest Truex played the title role in "Rip Van Winkle," and a killjoy critic gave the star only this much space: "Ernest Truex excelled in the sleeping scene."

The Press Box: The un-American activities committee announced a year ago it would investigate Fascist groups in the U. S. Nothing, as you suspected, has happened. They can't even decide what they should do about Gerald L. K. Smith, the notorious soandso. ... Stassen complains that Taft and Dewey are teaming up against him. The ones who really should worry are Jack Benny and Fred Allen. ... Collier's (which points out your inaccuracles) spells Alice Faye's name "Fay." It isn't an easy mistake to make, either. Her name's been in lights for a dozen years—since "Wake Up and Live" was filmed in 1936. ... The creators of the comic strip, "Superman," settled their case out of court for over $100,000. They will introduce an idea in strips never done before.

Intelligentsia: The magazine set has the giggles over the jokester who had the New Yorker's movie critic as his chump. John McCarten (of that mag) was summoned to the phone the other Sabbath evening, told to move his radio closer to the receiver—and was asked silly questions for a quiz contest, which it wasn't. Insiders (who pulled the gag) still are in stitches!

At the National Press club a porter thought things never would look any cheerier until we came up with another FDR.

"When Roosevelt was alive," sneered a Repub, "everyone in Washington was miserable."

"I know," said our hero. "But the rest of the country was happy."

Masada Delegates At Regional Convention

Alvin T. Hall of Dorchester was elected president of the New England Region of Masada, Young Zionists of America, in the concluding sessions of the organization's third annual convention held in Millis, Mass. last Sunday. A large group from the Providence chapter attended.

A resolution that both the republican and democratic conventions go on record favoring assistance for Israel was adopted by the 200 delegates. The Zionist Youth also adopted a resolution rejecting any attempt at the truce conferences in Rhodes to further dwindle the area of Israel.

Rabbi Israel M. Cantor David Einstein assisted.

The bride was attired in a gown of traditional ivory satin, designed with a fitted bodice of chantilly lace and satin, and with a full skirt with inserts of chantilly lace, en train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a seeded pearl tiara and her Bible was marked with an orchid and streamers of staphanotis. She was given in marriage by her parents. Her attendant was her sister, Miss Thelma Klitzner, who was dressed in pink chantilly lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses with a matching tiara. SYD COHEN:

Reports on Sports Bigotry

Anti-Semitism exploded on the sports pages of the nation last week when reliable journalists reported that Dean Cromwell, Californian track coach who will head the U. S. Olympic delegation this year, is a bigot and an anti-Semite.

The magazine "Salute", following a tip about the track coach of the University of Southern California, conducted an intensive investigation and came up with the alleged facts that over the past several years Cromwell openly has made derogatory remarks about Negroes and Jews, thereby creating many enemies. It is said to be for this reason that a good part of the nation's sports press did not greet the news of his appointment as coach of America's Olympic track team with enthusiasm and open arms.

Several Incidents Reported
Among the reported incidents are these:

Jesse Abramson of the New York Herald Tribune quotes Cromwell as having said during the 1936 Olympic games in Berlin: "We should not have Negroes on our team; they discredit our country". This at a time when a fellow named Jesse Owens was piling up victory after victory for his country on the cinder paths.

A Los Angeles reporter charged that Cromwell five years ago signed a restrictive covenant petition to keep Negroes out of his neighborhood. The track coach is alleged to have defended, not denied this action.

Dislikes Negroes
Owens himself says Cromwell, speaking of the Negro star in 1936, said: "...There is not a single colored person in Germany today. They have all left for some reason or another and I don't object to that".

The United Press quoted him as follows in a speech delivered before the German-American Alliance in Los Angeles: "New York newspaper accounts of the unpleasantness in Germany in the reception of the American team were written by boys of the wrong nationality."

And again: "Only one in seven New Yorkers is American-born. Oh, if I could only be that handsome Hitler in New York for one hour!"

Cromwell's Side

Because of these and other alleged remarks there is a concerted drive under way to force the dismissal of Dean Cromwell as Olympic coach. However, there is another side to the story, led by Cromwell supporters, including one prominent Jewish writer in California, that says the coach is really not anti-Negro or anti-Jewish but merely speaks with his "tongue in cheek". In other words, he does not mean what he says.

That may very well be true, except for one thing. We have not noticed any public denial of the above-quoted statements on the part of the 68-year-old coach. We must assume he made the statements, then. And if he did, there certainly can be no "tongue-in-cheek" excuse for them.

It would appear from here, from what we have read on the story to date, that Cromwell is guilty as charged, and that is a shame; for we have always tried to keep our beloved sports world above the forces of racism and intolerance. It is a troublesome circumstance that should be corrected.

Gob Shop Rates Edge

Down the stretch comes the Softball League toward its final playing date on Sunday with a new face at the top of the standings. Gob Shop, one of the pre-season favorites, finally gained the top by whipping Mal's Baby Shoppe in two games. The Olympics of Jake Kaplan and Berry Clothing climbed into second place with twin triumphs, the Mal's team sliding several notches down the ladder.

Gob Shop must now be considered the probable league champion insofar as the standings are concerned. The leaders now face Sackin-Shocket which has caused no trouble to date and does not figure to do so now. At least, it would be the upset of the year if Gob Shop should lose this week. Berry Clothing should win from the Blazers and the Olympics should edge East Side Pharmacy. That leaves Arden Mfg and Mal's sharing the game of the week—two strong teams fighting for what may be the last playoff spot.

"House in the Desert" a documentary film on the dramatic story of reclaimed land in Palestine, has been adapted for the "Eternal Light" program and will be broadcast this Sunday afternoon over Station WJAR from 12:30 until 1 o'clock.

The story is of Beth Ha'Arvah, a "House in the Desert" of the Dead Sea. For 40 centuries this land stood barren and desolate. Then, more than 25 years ago, a group of determined young men and women came to drain the land of salt... a feat once rejected by science as impossible. They remained to build the flourishing settlement of Beth Ha'Arvah, symbol of an heroic people who defied logic to make the desert bloom.

Windup This Sunday

The Senior division of the Centre Softball League goes down to the wire this Sunday with as close a race as could be wished for. No less than four teams are grouped within one game of the top while even the fifth place club has a chance to finish at the top of the pack as a result of Sunday's games.

Gob Shop, one of the pre-season favorites, virtually clinched first place by virtue of their twin trouncing of Mal's Baby Shoppe which slid all the way from first to fifth place as a result.

The second place triplets, Berry Clothing, Arden Caps and Olympics, all moved up a notch by posting twin wins.

With three of the league leaders meeting weaker opposition the battle of the week will be that between Mal's Baby Shoppe and the Arden Caps. An even break is all the Caps need to qualify for the playoffs while Mal's, with one game more to be played off, must win two and hope for the Berrys or Olympics to get no better than a split in order to remain in the running.

Zettel-Factor

The wedding of Miss Eleanor Factor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Factor of Detroit Avenue and Coleman Zettel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zettel of Elmore Street, Woonsocket, was held last Sunday by candle-light in the Crystal Ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel.

The couple exchanged rings in the ceremony performed by Rabbi Felix Aber.

A Victorian off-the-shoulder gown of organza, trimmed with embroidered Swiss eyelet, was worn by the bride who was given in marriage by her parents. She had a finger-tip veil which fell from an embroidered eyelet crown and carried an old-fashioned bouquet.

The maid of honor, Miss Freida Shapiro, was dressed in a gown of peacock blue, carrying sweet-heart roses and blue delphinium with a head-dress of matching flowers. The matron of honor was Mrs. Louis Butterman, sister of the bridegroom, who was attired in an ice blue gown, carrying Talisman roses and larkspur.

Louis Butterman was best man. The flower girl was Marsha Goodman and Joel Matzner and Kelvin Franks were the ring bearers. The ushers included Max, Alfred and Abe Factor, Albert and Harry Katzman, Myer Malin, Rudy Schneider, Jonah Sirkin, Thomas, William and Sam Berk and Jack Lerman.

A reception was held after the ceremony. The couple went to Atlantic City for their wedding trip.

Week of Engagements

This was a big week for Dan Cupid! Dexter Cohen gave Lois Shatkin a diamond engagement ring a week ago and the couple celebrated at the Cabana Saturday night with a group of friends.

Jerry Goldstein became affianced to Joan Efros last week and they, too, were at the Cabana with their folks, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Efros and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Goldstein.

In fact, the Cabana was the haunt for many engaged couples that night, Joan Rosenfield and Bruce Jacober among them.

Wedding Anniversary

Congratulations and many more happy years to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Green who celebrated 15 years of marriage Tuesday.

Luncheon

Barbara Shreiber was entertained at a luncheon in honor of her approaching marriage to George Bressler at the Ledgemont Country Club. Mimi Goldstein arranged the affair.

What! Another?

Oops! Pardon me, but I just remembered another engagement. Bernie Pollack and his fiancée, Debbie Brin of Brookline.

Banquet

Last week the class of '47 of Redwood Lodge Chapter, Masons, held a banquet at the Narragansett Hotel. The highlight of the evening was when number 60 was drawn as the winner of the portable radio which had been donated. The crowd laughed uproariously. The joke was that Morris Bromberg of Benny's, the donator of the radio, had drawn the winning ticket.

Morris generously refused the prize and Julius Licht was the next lucky number holder.

Visiting

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Zeman, formerly of Providence and now residents of Chicago came home for a short visit. Mrs. Zeman is the former June Gordon.

Better than a Horse

One teenager I know is pretty sharp riding around in an orchid-hued bantam car. How about a ride, Bert Goldstein?

Belated Gift

Although Mr. and Mrs. Ben Resnick of Jewett Street celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on June 17, it wasn't until two days later that they received a special anniversary gift in the form of a grandchild. Born on June 19, Janis Sima is the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Resnick.

House Guest

Sally Glantz had a charming guest, Pat Hilton of Shrewsbury, N. J., spending last week with her. Pat and Sally became friends at Emerson College.

Graduate

Congratulations to Bob Green who recently graduated from Boston University where he studied law. He is now clerking with Sam Workman.
