Action Now

Count Bernadotte, UN Mediator in Palestine, has been defied by the Egyptian government. It attacked a Jewish food convoy in the Negev. It fired on a UN observation plane. If, during the truce in Palestine, the authority of the UN is thus flaunted, the world may rest assured that, at its end, the Moslem dominated States of the Middle-East will attempt to resume their acts of aggression against the Republic of Israel. For that reason, the statement of Dr. McDonald, our special representative to Israel, takes on added importance. Dr. McDonald said that "close and friendly ties between our country and Israel will, I am confident, contribute not only to the advancement of the new State, but also to stability and progress in the Middle East."

President Truman has been more successful in handling the Palestine problem than any member of his Administration. It is important enough to keep in his own hands.

The next few weeks are crucial.

The authorized statement of Dr. McDonald undoubtedly reflects what is in the President's mind. "Close and friendly ties between our country and Israel" are strong words. Promptly implemented by acts, they can mean peace in the Middle-East. Abdullah, Farouk, and Ibn-Saud, well schooled in the double talk of the Levant, need only to be convinced that we mean what we say. The key to peace in the Middle-East and in the world is in the hands of President Truman. The time is now.

A group of happy youngsters left this week on a two week vacation at Camp Jori, Point Judith, Rhode Island. This camp is sponsored by the Jewish Children's Home and Foundation, and will provide vacation opportunities this summer for approximately 300 children. The construction of two new bungalows makes it possible for additional children to be accommodated. Registration is taken at the Jewish Family and Children's Service, 100 North Main Street, DEXter 1244.

JWV to Hold State Convention This Weekend

Members of eight Jewish War Veterans posts from Providence, Pawtucket, Woonsocket and Newport will converge on the Narragansett Hotel tomorrow evening to begin the third annual State Department convention of the JWV.

The conclave will be attended by representatives of the city and state governments in addition to department commanders and presidents of other veterans' groups throughout this state. The guest list will be headed by Brig. Gen. Julius Klein, national JWV commander, who will lead the grand march at the military ball scheduled for tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock in the hotel ballroom.

The first business of the convention will be conducted Sunday morning. Rabbi Abraham Chill, past national chaplain, will officiate at an 11 o'clock memorial service to be broadcast over Station WHIM.

Sunday afternoon the remaining business, including the consideration of resolutions and the election of state department officers for the coming year, will be concluded. The newly elected slate, including that of the auxiliary, will be honored at the annual banquet on Sunday evening.

Philip Davis, general chairman of the convention planning committee, is assisted by the following committee chairmen: Eliot Shill, ball committee; Nathaniel M. Bodner, registration; Leonard Levin, treasurer and credentials; Saul Friedman, distinguished guests; Eugene Mabel, publicity; Martin Zuckov, resolutions, constitution and by-laws; Benjamin J. Pulner, badges, and David Baratz, banquet. Everett Levinson, state department commander, will preside over the business sessions.

Enthusiasm Marks Planning Meeting of GJC Trades and Industries Division

A spirit of enthusiasm and cooperation was evidenced at a planning meeting of the Trades and Industries Division of the General Jewish Committee held Monday night in the Narragansett Hotel.

Emphasis was placed on complete coverage in the shortest possible time. Each group was asked to continue to meet during the Summer to complete preparatory work for the Fall campaign.

Speakers included Alvin A. Sopkin, general chairman, who opened the program; Joseph W. Ress, chairman of the Trades and Industries Division, and Archibald Silverman, GJC president.

The following chairmen and co-chairmen of the divisions were called upon for brief talks: Charles Rothman, chairman of the

See British Plot On Israel Economy

LAKE SUCCESS—A British plot against Israel's economy, forced on a war footing from the day of its birth, was reported at the UN today.

According to these reports the British controlled Iraq Petroleum Co. will shut down its Haifa refinery with their annual output of more than 4 million tons of oil, and will divert oil from the Mosul oil fields to a small refinery in Kirkuk, Iraq from where about 6,000 tons monthly will be piped to Mafruk, Transjordan.

This would have a double effect—depriving Israel's oil refinery workers of employment, and feeding Abdullah's oil machine.

jewelry division, and George Gerber, Harry Blacher and Max Kestenman, co-chairmen; Abe C. Fine, textile division; Benjamin Brier, chairman, and Sydney A. Kane, co-chairman, initial gifts; Jules P. Goldsmith, advertisers' and printers' division; Henry Levaour, automotive division; Benjamin Ruttenberg, hardware and electric division; Samuel Rosen, chairman, and Charles Temkin, co-chairman, food division; Louis Nass, liquor division; Edward Kossove, drugs division; Lester Emers, real estate and insurance division; Bertram Bernhard, associate chairman and Alter Boyman, area chairman, miscellaneous trades division; Dr. Ilie Berger, dentists; Dr. Nathan A. Bolotow and Dr. Herman Grossman, physicians.

Egyptian Attack Influences Decision

TEL AVIV—Irgun Zvai Leumi will order its men "within the next few days" to rejoin the Army of Israel according to an announcement today from Irgun headquarters, Palcor, semi-official Israeli news agency reports.

Reason for the new order—just three days after Menahem Beigin, Irgun commander, said his men would go underground and no longer swear loyalty to the Government—was the Egyptian attack Friday on an Israeli convoy to settlements in the Negev desert. This was termed a serious truce violation by UN Minister Mediator Count Folke Bernadotte.

New Dangers

Irgun sources said the new dangers confronting the Republic of Israel made urgent Irgun's revision of policy. It is not yet clear, however, whether the Irgunists will be told to rejoin the army as individuals or as separate units.

Before the Irgun-Israeli clash last week, resulting from an Irgun attempt to run arms into Israel in violation of the UN truce, the Irgunists were in the army as separate units.

Israel's Galilee, Army Chief of Operations, told a United Labor Party (MAPAM) rally recently that the Irgunists would not be readmitted to the army simply as non-affiliated individuals. Irgun, he stressed, will also have to give up its arms dumps.

Anti-Semitic Charge Thrown at Fraternities

KANSAS CITY, MO.—Two fraternities in the law school of the University of Kansas City were charged with Anti-Semitism by the university's student newspaper, according to the Kansas City Jewish Chronicle.

"The ugly head of Anti-Semitism has reared itself in our law school," the paper said. "The time has come to take it out from under the covers."

The story said that "We should be men enough to call a spade a spade. The fact that two of our law fraternities are Anti-Semitic cannot be refuted."

The paper warned that "indifference aids and abets the deadly plague."

Gob Shop in Lead

Just when they thought they had clinched first place with a double header win over luckless Sackin-Shocket, the Gob Shop nine was brought up short with news of the extension of the season by seven games, play to recommence on September 12.

Failing to win the title at this time Gob Shop at least has the satisfaction of knowing it is the team to beat when the competition starts again. The leaders had no trouble knocking off the vets, piling up a lopsided 20-2 score in the opener and copping the second 11-5. Every man hit for the winners in the opener, with Jerry Miller getting five for six and Herb Weintraub four for five. Myer Jarcho twirled a 6-hitter. All the second game scoring was crowded into the third, fourth and fifth innings.

Jacobvitz Wins Two

Berry Clothing, leading 9-1 at the end of four, was forced to extra innings as the Blazers came off the floor to score seven times in the seventh. An eighth inning tally finally put out the Blazers. Big innings also told the tale in the nightcap, the Berrys' 5 and 8 outlasting the Blazers' two 5-run frames. Jacobvitz won both games, his seventh and eighth of the year.

The floundering Olympics went to pieces in the seventh inning of their opener with the East Side Pharmacy, two outfield and one infield misplays letting in the tying and winning runs. Previously they had overcome a 5-1 Pharmacy bulge to lead 8-7. The nightcap was all East Side Pharmacy after Joe Teverow blasted a tremendous 4-run-homer in the 6-run first inning. The ball, a line shot to left, was the hardest drive seen by either club this year.

Bouncing back from their double defeat last week the Comets of Mal's Baby Shoppe upset the high-flying Arden Caps by lopsided scores. Warren "Red" Foster twirled effectively in both games and was backed up by a heavy attack on the part of his mates. The Comets took the lead in the first inning of each game and were not headed. Seymour Goldin's 2-run homer clinched the opener while a third inning spree of 12 runs settled the nightcap. Mal's led by 20-0 in five innings.

Halt Funds to Irgun, Says Morgenthau

NEW YORK—Attempts by Irgun Lavi Leumi to land arms in Israel in violation of the UN truce did "more to shatter the authority" of the Israel state "than all the preceding attacks from the Arab League," Henry Morgenthau, Jr., former Secretary of the Treasury, said this week.

Morgenthau, general chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, now conducting a campaign for $250,000,000, urged American Jewry to halt all financial support to dissident groups in the Jewish republic.

"Stab in the Back"

"Let us face the facts," Morgenthau said. "There is a body of people in this country, small to be sure, which, either out of sincerity or false heroism, is supporting the dissidents in the State of Israel with funds.

"Whatever may have been the virtues of this activity before May 15, we should recognize that now such financial support, intended to weaken the internal authority of the state, is a stab in the back of Israel."

He said a number of American Jews are contributing funds "to the destruction of the state of Israel out of a mistaken notion that support for any fighting group in Palestine means strength to Israel."

Zionist Conclave Opens Today

Dr. James G. McDonald, newly-appointed U. S. diplomatic envoy to Israel, in his first public address since his appointment, will be one of the guest speakers at the 51st annual three-day Zionist convention in Pittsburgh opening today.

Other prominent Americans invited to speak include: Major Gen. John H. Hilldring, Senator Claude Pepper, Bartley Crum, Major Aubrey S. Eban, and Henry Morgenthau, Jr.

The future program of the ZOA will be presented for consideration by Dr. Emanuel Neumann in his presidential address.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, chairman of the American Section of the Jewish Agency for Palestine and chairman of the American Zionist Emergency Committee, will review the political situation in Palestine.

Teacher Quits In Bias Case

NEW YORK—Thomas R. Cook, Great Neck High School English instructor under charges of anti-Semitic and anti-Catholic discrimination in the classroom, resigned last week. His resignation was accepted by the Board of Education at a closed hearing.

Charges against Cook were then withdrawn under agreement with the board, according to Andrew D. Weinberger, attorney for one of the three mothers who filed charges. Cook's resignation becomes effective a year from now, but he goes on terminal leave at half pay immediately. Weinberger said the petitioners were satisfied with the arrangements as a compromise.

In-Town Day Camp In Elmwood Area

A new in-town day camp will be inaugurated this summer at Joseph William Park on Elmwood Avenue at Carlisle Street for children from 6 to 12 years of age, it was announced this week by the South Providence Recreation Committee of the Jewish Community Center.

Among the activities to be conducted will be dramatics, arts and crafts, folk dancing, volleyball, badminton, trips, hikes and swimming.

Information may be had by calling Minna L. Dorn, Center extension activities director, at Dexter 6730 or Dexter 6175. Miss Dorn will be assisted in directing the camp by Fredlyn and Seena Kovitz and Irving Glatt, all serving as counselors. There will be other assistants present to help with the children.

The camp is being sponsored by the South Providence Recreation Committee in cooperation with Temple Beth Israel, Sons of Abraham Synagogue, Center Parents' Association, Women's Association of the Center, Council of Jewish Women, Temple Beth El, Chester Avenue Talmud Torah and Jewish War Veterans Post No. 23.

Saul Shockett Branch Will Hold Outing

Plans for an outing were completed at a meeting of the Saul Shockett Branch No. 254-E, Workmen's Circle, held at their center, 29 Snow Street, last week.

The outing will be held Sunday, July 11, at the Workmen's Circle camp in Ashland, Mass. Games, swimming, a weenie roast and dancing are some of the events that will be offered, it was announced by the committee that includes Saul Kroll, Ruth Carner and Israel Schwartz.

Batrice Feldman, Ruth Carner and Eleanor Rottenberg were appointed delegates to attend a seminar that will be held at the camp in August.

Forecast of Death

Dame May Whitty lived in an apartment house on DeLongpre avenue in Hollywood and had to climb a long flight of stairs from the street to her front door ... The lamps lighting the stairs had been broken for months ... She kept complaining that they ought to be fixed so she wouldn't have to make the precarious climb in the dark ... One day she wearily told a neighbor: "By the time they have those lights fixed I'll probably be dead!" ... The day she died the lights went on again.

Vic Carlson offers this sequel to our recent paragraph titled "The Wail of the Emcee": "An audience like this can be instrumental in keeping actors out of work" ... "Is this an audience or a jury?" ... "If I don't get a laugh soon, I'll be the best dressed layoff in Lindy's" ... "I can do better in the wax museum" ... "When I was in the army I used to dream of coming home. This audience makes me wish I was back in the army."

Photo Story of Women's Division General Jewish Committee Luncheon-Meeting

Joseph Galkin, executive director of the General Jewish Committee, summed up the meeting with a challenge to women to make each contribution a creative and independent effort.

Mrs. Harold C. Sydney, Mrs. Arthur J. Levy and Mrs. Bertram L. Bernhardt, general solicitations chairmen, each emphasized the importance of carrying out pre-arranged plans with a maximum of efficiency. Mrs. Max L. Grant was busy taking her notes as Recording Secretary for the Women's Division.

Because the sun played hide-and-seek all morning the luncheon was held indoors. Mrs. Alvin A. Sopkin, Mrs. Samuel Michaelson and Mrs. Nathan Samors, Initial Gifts chairmen, poured under the direction of the hostess, Mrs. Albert Pilavin, chairman of the Women's Division.

Time for a recess! The cameraman is here to snap area commander Mrs. Martin Posner and squadron leaders Mrs. Samuel Woolf, Mrs. Samuel Rosen, Mrs. David Baratz, Mrs. Alter Boyman, Mrs. Joseph Gold and Mrs. Max Greenbaum. Area commanders Mrs. Joseph E. Adelson, Mrs. J. I. Cohen, Mrs. Alfred Levy, Miss Ruth Silverman, Mrs. Max Margolis and Mrs. Edwin Soforenko were not on hand for picture-taking.

THE PROVIDENCE JEWISH HERALD, FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1948

At last the sun broke through and the group went outdoors to meet in the garden. Workers Mrs. M. Ressein and Mrs. H. Dittelman, squadron leaders Mrs. Maurice Lecht, Mrs. Louis Mirman, Mrs. Jack Melamut, Mrs. Howard Presel and Mrs. George Basok, together with area commanders Mrs. Louis Rosenstein and Mrs. Harold Schleifer, step out to organize their districts.

The hedge bounds a lively get-together of the Broad-Elmwood district leaders. Shown here making plans are Mrs. Samuel Chernov, area commander and squadron leaders Mrs. Ida Troob, Mrs. Irving Gordon, Mrs. Martin J. Bernstein and Mrs. Max Millman.

Here the busy Cranston and Warwick groups make plans under the guidance of area commanders Mrs. Maurice Musler and Mrs. Sidney Weinstein (standing). Seated are squadron leaders Mrs. Morris Baruch, Mrs. Max Jagolinzer, Mrs. Louis Efros and Mrs. Archie Finkle.

Mrs. Israel Mandell, area commander of the Smith Hill group, gathers her squadron leaders for a picture in the shade. They are squadron leaders Mrs. Samuel Shprecher, Mrs. David C. Dressler, Mrs. Thomas H. Goldberg (also an area commander) and Mrs. Daniel Miller.

14 Mrs. Arthur Lesser On Radio Program

Mrs. Arthur Lesser of 141 Porter Street made her radio debut last week, and it was hard to tell whether she or her proud husband was the more excited.

"She sounded wonderful, just like herself," Mr. Lesser exclaimed after the event. He then tried to call his wife from his downtown office, but her line was busy for more than an hour after the broadcast as she received congratulations from her friends.

Mrs. Lesser admitted that before she made the recording she was "nervous as a cat" but she carried it off so well that she was complimented by the station engineer afterwards for her poise and assurance.

The reason for Mrs. Lesser's celebration was the fact that the set of silver she had used daily all during her married life was used daily by her mother before her and is over 100 years old.

Mrs. Lesser wrote to the company manufacturing the silver, that last year celebrated its 100th anniversary. She was the only woman in the United States to write to the company telling them of the durability of their product, and they appreciated her information and sponsored her broadcast which related the history of her eating utensils.

It is believed that the Lessers own one of the first silver sets ever manufactured by the company in 1847 and it is, of course, one of the earliest patterns.

MORE ELECTRIC POWER FOR NEW ENGLAND INDUSTRY means MORE Production, MORE Jobs

NOW BUILDING!

More Electricity — 834,000 KILOWATTS more — coming from New England's electric plants by 1952! This expansion program will bring total resources of our six state neighborhood up to more than FOUR MILLION KILOWATTS — ample safeguard for a bright electrical future.

One thing industrial New England can count on is plenty of electricity for future needs. Right now a vast expansion of generating capacity is being built into the electric light and power companies of our six state neighborhood, and by 1952 an increased capacity of 834,000 kilowatts will be in service. This added power feeding into New England's industrial and commercial structure will nourish production, increase employment and buttress prosperity in the years to come.

SYD COHEN:

The Windup--Not Yet

While all aspirants for first division spots in the Centre Softball League were jockeying for position in the belief that the season would end last Sunday, team delegates met with Commissioner Tex Rabinowitz and decided to extend the regular playing season by seven games—starting in September. The 14 contests on the original schedule were completed last week except for one game that must be replayed between Mal's Baby Shoppe and the Blazers.

The decision of the delegates calls for a resumption of play on September 12, with the same teams and rosters. Double headers again will be the vogue but with one important change. Since the extension is only for seven games, or once around the league, each team will play two different opponents each week; in this way only four playing dates should be needed before the playoffs are begun.

That gives new hope to several of the teams and keeps the issue entirely in doubt since no club is far enough ahead now to brag about it.

A Brief Analysis

The two and a half month period before play is resumed comes as a welcome respite to the Olympics, Arden Caps, Blazers and Sackin-Shocket, all of whom will try to regroup their forces and get their clubs in better shape when the pennant drive is resumed.

The Gob Shop, serenely nursing a full game lead, still figures to be tough in the fall. The team has class and its strong points far overshadow the weak.

The Comets of Mal's Baby Shoppe rallied nicely after a near-disastrous defeat at the hands of Gob Shop. The result is not alone that they climbed back to the upper brackets but that they proved they can take it and bounce back.

Berry Clothing also belongs in the top brackets. The club plays a steady, sound brand of ball that wins games. The Olympics need pitching and Mal's has to come up with a few wins against the league leaders. Outside of these five, only East Side Pharmacy appears to have a chance for the first division.

Protest Disallowed

Unofficially and belatedly we learn that the protest lodged by Sackin-Shocket against a win by Mal's Baby Shoppe was not upheld, after all, which adds a full game to Mal's record and takes away the vets' only win. That places Mal's in a spot where they can tie the Berries for second place by winning that cancelled game with the Blazers.

Junior Playoffs Begun

The playoffs in the junior division began last Sunday with Windsor Rhodes and Grenadiers competing in the best of a seven game series.

This column has received many protests over the lack of coverage of junior division games. We have said before that we cannot print what we do not have. Until these teams submit reports of their games to the Herald we can't be held responsible for their lack of publicity. Box scores that could not be read, box scores that never arrived and scores that arrived 10 days after the games were played are a few of the troubles we have had with the juniors.

Congratulations to Ruth Tanenbaum, recently re-elected president of the Temple Beth Israel Daughterhood. Ruth was the one who suggested the column on women's bowling and we forgot to credit her with the idea.

Fighters-Are-Changing Department: Time was when a winning or losing boxer, when addressing a microphone after a match, would come out with something like this:

"It was a tough fight. I want to say hello to the folks back home."

And Joe Louis used to give out with several assorted "yassah's".

Now we find the retiring heavyweight king trying to ignore the announcer's interruptions and attempting to make the interview the "Joe Louis Show." And Walcott, supposedly punch drunk after a vicious beating, talks about retiring and devoting his time to helping kids to grow up right.

Verily, we are witnessing a revolution in the field of sports announcing.

Israel May Send 50 Athletes to London Games

Israel hopes to have a battle-hardened team of about 50 men and women at the Olympic games in diplomatically hostile England.

They now are being rounded up from the warfronts of the New Jewish state carved out of Palestine. Like all Israelis between 17 and 55 they are in military service under conscription.

The Israeli trainer-coach, Emil Weitz, a native of Poland who has sparked Palestine's amateur athletics for 15 years, expects no troubles over physical condition among the war survivors. He thinks their fighting against the Arabs under the blazing Eastern Mediterranean sun will take care of that.

Weitz' biggest worry is over how many may have fallen in battle and how many of the 50 nominated can be on hand for the Olympics in the London environs.

The coach is in the United States on a semi-official tour to study what he calls new methods of sports training. He hopes to join his team in London shortly.

Weitz, and presumably his protégés in Israel also, are encountering difficulties over visas permitting their entry into England. The British visa office here says, however, that special consideration is being given to Olympic people—even those from behind the "Iron Curtain"—and indicates the difficulties will be straightened out.

Progressive Party Has Campaign Director

Edwin S. Smith, former Commissioner of Labor and Industries in Massachusetts, and President Roosevelt's first appointment to the National Labor Relations Board, has been appointed executive director of the Progressive Party in R. I., it was announced this week by Mrs. Harriet Crooker, chairman. He will direct the local Wallace campaign starting Tuesday.

For the last year, Smith has been a teacher of history at the Putney School in Vermont. A Harvard graduate of 1915, he has been employed as a newspaperman, researcher and employment manager, and is the author of magazine articles and a book "Reducing Seasonal Unemployment."

Providence Leaders Appointed to Nat'l PTA

Mrs. Isaiah A. Segal, (left), president of the Ladies Association and one of the founders of the Providence Hebrew Day School, attending the convention of Torah Umesorah held in Baltimore, was appointed to serve on the Constitution Committee of the National Parent Teacher's Association which includes 94 Day Schools throughout the country affiliated with Torah Umesorah. At a meeting held at Hotel McAlpine in New York last Wednesday, Mrs. Lewis Korn, first vice-president of the Ladies Association and also a founder of the school, and Mrs. I. A. Segal were made permanent members of the executive board of the National PTA where plans were formulated for a national conference to be held in New York during September.

IT HAPPENED THIS WEEK

June was a quadruple-celebration month for the family of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Rosen of Arnold Avenue, Edgewood ... Most important family event, from the standpoint of longevity, was Mr. and Mrs. Rosen's 31st wedding anniversary ... Their son, Louis Saul Rosen, received his master's degree from Brown University ... and daughter Myrna Hope was graduated from Norwood Avenue Junior High and was confirmed at Temple Beth El.

A hearty Mazeltof to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fishbein who recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary ... And congratulations to their eight sons who made such a magnificent gesture in the observance of the event.

Most impressive display made by the Fishbein sons was the gifts to various agencies and Jewish institutions in honor of their parents ... These gifts took the place of an anniversary dinner that was earlier planned ... A very fine tribute.

One of the busiest and best known of the delegates at the GOP convention in Philadelphia last week was Frank Lazarus, city councilman from the second ward ... Lazarus, an alternate delegate, was one of the more active of the floor lieutenants in and around Convention Hall ... Besides having some important interviews with Thomas E. Dewey, Republican standard-bearer, Lazarus was helpful in corralling delegates and inducing them to join the Dewey cause ... Frank served as president of the Republican Club of Rhode Island for four years, at the end of which time he refused renomination.

Signs of the Season: Organizational and group activity fading from the local scene as the weather man and the calendar finally patch up their quarrel and get together ... Parents shopping for the kids' camping outfits ... Changes of address for the summer ... Local merchants announcing the opening of branch stores at the resorts ... The welcome sight of people in the downtown area with sweat, not rain, pouring from their brows (well, not too much rain, at least) ...

The Herald office becoming abruptly quiet after more than nine busy months as most communal activities are suspended for the summer ... Complaints about the heat, where only a week ago there were complaints about the lack of heat.

Joke of the Week—A clever man is one who earns more money than his wife can spend. A clever woman is one who finds such a man.

Fame of the highest order has come to Henry Morgan, the pride and joy of radio unorthodoxy. Henry proudly announces he has been made an honorary Marx Brother ... and he is now shopping around for a suitable name to go along with the time honored Groucho, Chico, Harpo and Zeppo.

Beth David Resumes Work on Synagogue

Full construction of the new Beth David Synagogue is now under way, Henry Brill, building fund chairman, announced at a special meeting of the committee this week.

Authorization for the building fund committee to hold a carnival some time in November was voted at the meeting. William Greenfield was appointed chairman and Max Resnick co-chairman of the event by Mr. Brill. The entire building fund committee, plus representatives of the Ladies Auxiliary and the Men's Club, will work with the co-chairmen. Net proceeds will go towards construction of the Synagogue.

A check for $1000 was turned over to the building fund by Mrs. Esther Resnick, president of the Ladies Auxiliary. The group was commended for the excellent work done by them during the past few years.
