Pepper Advocates Lifting of Embargo

Neumann Warns Against Meddling in Political Activities Within Israel

"Why we are called upon to do so much for Britain and are unable to get Britain to do so little for us," is something Senator Claude Pepper of Florida told the 51st annual Convention of the Zionist of America Organization at Pittsburgh he is unable to understand.

It is the right and duty of our government to give the government of Israel the privilege, at least, of purchasing arms for its defense, he added. We also have the right and obligation to make loans to that government to assist it in its struggle for survival, he said.

Tribute was paid by many of the speakers to Dr. Abba Hillel Silver. His name was proposed for presidency of the World Zionist Organization.

Neumann Re-elected

Dr. Emanuel Neumann who was re-elected president of the ZOA declared that Dr. Silver remains as the ranking head of the Jewish Agency and the World Zionist Organization.

Substantial financial support to bring hundreds of thousands of immigrants to Palestine will be needed, it was emphasized by Henry Morgenthau, Jr., general chairman of the UJA. Millions of dollars will be needed in the next few years, he said.

The results that have been achieved in bringing Israel into existence since last November—a period of only seven months—is nothing short of amazing, General John H. Hildring declared. Compared with the difficulties which are besetting the establishment of India and Pakistan, the achievements today in Israel constitute a near miracle, he said.

Much to be Done

"There is much yet to be done," General Hildring pointed out. "For instance, there is the matter of the de jure recognition of Israel, the lifting of the arms embargo and the questions arising out of the truce negotiations."

Dr. Neumann in his presidential address warned that there should be no attempt on the part of the Zionist movement to intervene in the political activities of Israel. "If there is to be a Jewish State asserting its sovereign rights, then, under universally accepted rules and practices, none but citizens of that state are entitled to speak and act on its behalf and represent it politically to the outside world," Dr. Neumann said.

Editorials

The Irgun Threat

The Israeli government acted in the face of its recent crisis as any other constitutional and democratically elected government could have acted: — (a) It asserted the authority of law, order and of the principle of the majority. (b) It upheld its own promised word and the honor of the Jewish people. (c) It demonstrated to the world at large and to its own people that it is a real government which can, and does enforce its decision. (d) It proclaimed, that in the same manner as it asked other governments and people to recognize it, it demands recognition from its own people. (e) It repudiated the belief that the Jews had been so long without a Government of their own that they were not capable, morally and actually, of conducting a government. In short, the Israeli Government has shown its fitness to govern, just as the Haganah, its military arm, has shown its fitness to fight.

It was known that a show-down between this insignificant, fanatical group and the large majority of liberal and progressive-minded Jews was bound to come. It has come now by a military act on the beachhead of Tel-Aviv and by a political crisis in the Israeli Cabinet. Both of these were probably unavoidable and they may clear the air once and for all and help the Israeli Government emerge stronger and more solidified from this internal ordeal as it did from its encounter with the enemy from without.

Ben-Gurion Warns of Battles Ahead

TEL AVIV—A call for every Israeli to stand united behind the army in the latest phase of the Palestine war was issued here this week by Premier David Ben-Gurion at a meeting of the 37-member provincial state council.

The premier, who is also defense minister, warned that the most decisive battles of the war were yet to be fought and that the engagements would become more intense and casualties and suffering greater. Pointing out that Arab units are stronger than they were before the cease-fire, he added that the Israeli front has been lengthened by the British evacuation of Haifa which, he said, was likely to become the most decisive battlefield of all.

Next Week: 2 Pages of 'Our Younger Set'

Ever since the HERALD began its popular weekly feature, "Our Younger Set", almost a year ago, pictures of babies and children have poured into the office faster than they could be published.

As a result, we have accumulated a backlog of photographs, while several parents have hinted darkly that, at the rate we are going, their offspring might well be fully grown up before we got around to showing how they looked at the age of six months or so.

In order that we may clear up the greater part of the backlog of pictures, and in order to show that we still want our readers to submit pictures of their children, the HERALD next week will publish a complete two-page layout devoted exclusively to "Our Younger Set".

Watch for this added HERALD feature in the issue of July 23.

Aid to Israel, DPs, Is Democratic Plank

The Democratic Party at their national convention in Philadelphia this week included planks in their campaign platform for repealing the arms embargo to Palestine, and increasing the number of displaced persons allowed to enter this country. They asked for economic aid for Palestine, and complete recognition as well.

Rep. Emanuel Celler of New York, a member of the platform group, claimed the platform writers "snapped their fingers" at the policy of the State Department and "gave them a shellacking" in the Palestine plank.

The plank on Palestine calls for revision of the arms embargo to permit shipment of arms to the new State of Israel; immediate and full recognition of its territorial integrity; economic aid to Israel, and the internationalization of Jerusalem.

Admission to the U. S. of 400,000 DP's also was urged.

Finkle Named To B'nai B'rith Post

The appointment of Joseph M. Finkle as director of publicity for the District Grand Lodge of B'nai B'rith, encompassing the New England area, New York State and Eastern Canada, has been announced by Max J. Schneider, president of the National Safety Bank of New York City and president of District Grand Lodge 1.

Norman Alper (right), SOS chairman, receives on behalf of the Providence community, the SOS certificate of merit for taking in more than double the quota of food and clothing. The award was presented by Moses A. Leavitt, JDC vice-chairman and executive secretary, at the Hotel Commodore in New York at the SOS-JDC northeast regional meeting last month.

Says Both Sides Violated Truce

LAKE SUCCESS—Following are some of the principal questions put by Security Council delegates and Count Folke Bernadotte's answers, in the discussion which followed the oral statement given the Council by the UN Mediator.

ANDREI GROMYKO (USSR)—Please give a clear reply. Who is guilty of the resumption of hostilities in Palestine?

BERNADOTTE—I need a minute to answer. (Pause) During the truce there were violations on both sides, but I think that the party which refused to prolong the truce has to take the responsibility for the fighting.

FARIS EL KHOURY (Syria)—During the truce, with which side did the military advantage lie, and where would it lie if the truce were prolonged?

BERNADOTTE—As I said in my written report, certain advantages for the Jews are inherent in any truce, but I am convinced that no substantial military advantage was gained by either side.

SIR ALEXANDER CADOGAN (Britain)—With reference to the question of the Syrian delegate, what, in the mediator's opinion, was the long-run effect of the truce on the military strength of both sides?

BERNADOTTE—During the truce we permitted 265 Jews of military age into Palestine. We did not bar any; that was all that arrived. I do not believe these 265 have been of any substantial advantage to the Jewish forces. In the case of the landing of the Irgun ship Altalena, my opinion is that even if all the rumors were true concerning the amount of men and material landed from this ship, there was still no real change of the situation in favor of the Jews. Palestine, of course, was easier to control than the Arab countries with their enormous borders and the small number of observers at my command.

AUBREY EBEN (Israel)—Was the British action in holding back immigration from Cyprus done at your request or recommendation?

BERNADOTTE—I at no time recommended or requested the British to ban immigration from Cyprus. Whatever they did in this respect they did on their own.

DMITRI MANUILSKI (Ukraine)—You mentioned that certain states proposed to you the demilitarization of Haifa. Which states were they?

BERNADOTTE—I received requests from the British, French and U. S. A. to try and do something about getting the Haifa oil refineries back into operation. I proposed demilitarization of the refineries, which the Jews rejected and the Arabs did not oppose.

movie star ... Monte Proser, in H'wood casting "Heaven on Earth," kept her waiting in the outer office for three hours one day ... When he finally sent for her to audition she flipped an arm at him in the "oh, nuts" manner and fled ... She returned the next day, however, did her Lily Pons stuff and won the leading lady role ... "Now tell me something," said Monte after signing her up. "Why did you dash out of here yesterday that way?" ... "Because," she explained, "I live at the Studio club where if you're not in by six you don't eat!"

Sallies in Our Alley: Some actors dining at Lum Fong's wondered how drama critic George Jean Nathan spends his summer holiday. "He goes to the country and takes long walks," someone offered ... "Really?" said a listener. "Where does he find the aisles?" ... Lana Turner, the papers said, had bought a farm and Irving Hoffman inquires: "What's she gonna do—raise her own rice?"

BERLIN—The Provisional Gov-conduct trade with the zones of Germany or a united Germany,

Dr. Karl Liebstein, its representative here, declared last week.

He pointed out that restitution to Jews victimized by the Hitler regime, made in nearly worthless Reichsmarks, would serve little purpose for those Jews who had managed to escape from Germany to Palestine during the Nazi regime, leaving their property behind. It would, however, be extremely useful, he stated, if this restitution could be made in the form of shipments of much-needed industrial goods to the new state.

Israel Seeks Huge Loan from U. S.

WASHINGTON—Efforts of the new State of Israel to obtain a $75,000,000 to $100,000,000 loan from the Export-Import Bank, largely to resettle Jewish refugees from Europe, are making slow progress.

A series of informal meetings has been held between representatives of Israel, the State Dept. and officials of the Bank. The Bank has asked for additional information on specific projects and is awaiting this material before taking further steps. At the State Dept. it was said that the loan application was getting "active consideration." Officials refused to hazard a guess, however, as to how long it would take.

Discuss DP Needs

Palestine officials involved in the negotiations would go no further than to say that conversations are proceeding and that they had reason to believe that in time something would come of them.

Most of the loan discussions have centered on the needs of the displaced persons who are anxiously awaiting the chance to enter Israel. There are now about 225,000 Jews in displaced persons camps in Germany and Austria, 28,000 on the Island of Cyprus, an unknown but sizable number of Jews in Poland, France, and Italy who want to go to Palestine.

Need for Private Funds

Originally, it had been hoped that about 100,000 Jews could be absorbed into Palestine annually. This estimate has been cut to about 75,000 a year by Israel officials who face the huge task of providing transport, shelter, food, training and general care for them.

The amount requested by Israel of the Export-Import Bank can provide only a part of the money needed to get the future immigrants on their feet and integrated into the life of the country. Total estimates have run as high as $400,000,000. Private funds also will be needed. Some of these are expected to come from the United Jewish Appeal which is seeking to raise $250,000,000 in the U.S.A. this year.

American Men, Material, Money Aid Israel

TEL AVIV—American soldiers of fortune. American dollars and American merchandise are pouring into the new state of Israel.
 American adventure seekers lounge in the bar of the Gat Rimmon Hotel in Tel Aviv, waiting to fly the planes the Israeli Air Force is hoping to get from several sources. Today the Israeli Air Force consists of several Spitfires and Messerschmitts. The latter were brought from Czechoslovakia, which salvaged them from German planes and stores of parts left in that country after World War II.

Reorganization Plans
 A non-Jewish former American Army Colonel from Alabama sits beside you drinking Bourbon whisky. He outlines the military mistakes of both Arabs and Israelis in the first 28 days of fighting. He tells you of the plans of former American officers, now soldiers of fortune, for reorganizing the Israeli Army and training new units.

The mystery man of the moment is a six-foot four-inch Nicaraguan whose large stomach droops over his belt. He wears four rows of medals and a big grin. He tells you in Spanish, English and French that he has fought in many wars, and still likes to fight.

Taxi, Luggage Stolen
 He arrived in the middle of the night. A guest was moved out to give him a room. While he was registering, someone stole his taxicab and luggage. He laughed, told the cab driver that he would get his car back in the morning, made a telephone call, bought a round of drinks and went to bed. The taxicab was returned the next morning with the luggage intact. The rumors are that he came to sell ammunition. These soldiers of fortune are watched closely by Israeli security officers to see that they don't talk too much.

There are rumors that Communists have infiltrated the new Israeli Army.
Former Bolshevik
 No evidence of it could be found. A three months search for Russian-speaking Army officers uncovered two. One of them was a former Bolshevik officer who came to Palestine 27 years ago. His name is W. C. Grodecki. He is a radio distributor in Tel Aviv and a major in the Home Guard.

The second is Henry Hanneaux, 51, who left Russia when he was one year old, entered Jerusalem with Allenby's army in the first World War and decided to stay. He was a brigadier in the British Army in the last war, was released in January, 1947, and immediately joined Haganah.

No concern is found among the other 800,000 Jews for the 3000 Communist Party members in the new state. Arab Communists criticized the Israel Communists bitterly when the latter endorsed partition in violation of the Communist credo of no nationalistic lines.

There are no large quantities of American arms. But equipment is being bought with money raised in America. American goods are replacing British products on store shelves.

The waiter at the Gat Rimmon Hotel gives you a book of matches and tells you they are the only ones in Palestine that will light. They bear the stamp of the Jersey Match Co., Elizabeth, N. J.

Mediator Says Make War Unprofitable

LAKE SUCCESS—Count Folke Bernadotte, UN mediator for Palestine, brought with him by plane from his Rhodes headquarters a cautiously worded 17-page report to the UN Security Council on his mission to the Holy Land.

Without at any point presenting any recommendations, the report nevertheless suggested, in a closing passage, that 'the Council should take action to make war "prohibitively unprofitable" to the Arab States.

Any other course, the report states, must lead to a settlement of the Palestine issue "on the field of battle."

"If armed force is forbidden in the settlement of the problem," Bernadotte wrote, "and it is made prohibitively unprofitable for the Arab States to employ it, there will be in Palestine a Jewish State whose strength and prosperity and capacity for economic and social development, by the admission of its own leaders, must largely depend on its ability to cultivate friendly relations with its Arab neighbors.

"If the employment of armed force is not forbidden, the issue of the Jewish State in Palestine will be settled on the field of battle. In this vital regard, the decisions of the Security Council on the matter will be controlling."

Pioneer Women Plan Bridge At Pier

N. Y. Post Refuses Irgun Ad Appeal

NEW YORK—Ted Thackrey, editor of the N. Y. Post, in an editorial this week explaining why the paper refused to accept a paid advertisement appealing for funds for the Irgun Zvai Leumi, declared that "although I have attempted to follow as free a policy as possible in permitting conflicting points of view to be aired in paid space identified by signature of a responsible organization, I simply did not feel that I could accept an appeal, couched in the most violent terms, for funds to promote the civil war in Israel between the government and the Irgun." Asserting that he mourned "deeply and bitterly" the Jews who died in Haganah-Irgun clashes, Mr. Thackrey stated that he would "mourn the death of Israel even more." "I cannot," he said, "deliberately assist in a course which I am convinced would promote that monumental graveyard."

Reserves Right to Hate Jews or Catholics

"If I want to be prejudiced against a Catholic or Jew, I think it is my inalienable right to be." That is the opinion of a spokesman for a group of Cleveland manufacturers who argued last week against passage of an FEPC ordinance. "You can't make somebody not hate a Jew or a colored man if he wants to hate them," Max Gustin, attorney, said at a public hearing. He added, "This type of legislation is inherently wrong."

THE PROVIDENCE JEWISH HERALD, FRIDAY, JULY 16, 1948

Headlines and Franchises
The news headline said that the owner of the St. Louis Browns had issued a press blast at that city's fandom complaining about the lack of patronage and threatening to move the franchise elsewhere unless business picked up at the gate.

I wonder how many baseball fans realized that the situation mentioned has a remote connection with Providence. You may recall that the last time there was talk of the Browns leaving St. Louis to the Cards, the leading city mentioned for the major league franchise was Baltimore—and the leading city to replace Baltimore in the AAA International League was—Providence.

The prospect now is even more remote than it was then, for now Baltimore is no longer mentioned and the Pacific Coast is again after the Browns. Should the Browns go to the Coast Provi-dence's possible bid for the AAA franchise would, of course, go out the window. However, as long as Mr. Muckerman, president of the so-called Red Sox Jayvees, is considering offers and prospects, there is hope—and I am hoping that when the move finally comes, this city, which annually spends a sizeable sum on ball games, both major and minor league, will be in on the deal and move up a few notches in league rating.

That Golf Tournament

We keep getting queries here and there regarding the formation of a golfing tournament this summer. It seems quite a few of the boys are out on the links Sunday mornings, in the evening after work and even on an occasional weekday morning.

We are more than willing to get the tourney underway and even did a little survey a few months ago to scout out the field. The trouble is that many of the fellows dislike to be the first to come forward. They do not run up scores that can compare favorably with those of the nation's best and so they hesitate. The wrong attitude, of course.

A few names are in my possession now. But more men must signify their desire and willingness to compete before we can get the tournament rolling. As has been said here before, the invitation is a standing one. Call GA 4312 or drop a card to the Herald and we will get to work on it. Fair enough?

From Ruth Tanenbaum, president of the Temple Beth Israel Daughterhood, comes word that the group's bowling league will operate as usual in the fall and that the girls would appreciate having a little competition this year. Since Mesdames Harriet Gordon and Adele Snyder are trying to form a new women's league for the fall, there is a strong possibility that we may have organized competition among the ladies. The column will be happy to relay messages on this subject hither and yon.

What Price Loyalty

Greater Loyalty Hath No Man, etc.: Now it can be told—why the Herald's weekly reports of the softball league games often were so sketchy and incomplete. While some clubs just assumed that the information would find its way to the paper as a matter of course, there is one team that had a different reason.

Sherman Price, impresario of the East Side Pharmacy, which sponsors the team of the same name, says he just refuses to submit the scores when his team loses (doubleheaders).

"When my boys win I'll be the first to tell you about it," says Sherman, "but when they lose you can find out for yourself."

I suppose that, for journalistic reasons, the Herald should wish the Pharmacy team well and a twin victory every Sunday, except that the idea might prove contagious. The point is, did you ever hear of such devoted loyalty between sponsor and team?

On a serious note, it cannot or should not be forgotten that while the season (first half) was on the Mal's of Mal's Baby Shoppe attended every game played by their team and often provided refreshments for the boys... And Jake Kaplan put aside a ten dollar bill every time the Olympics won, the money to go toward a celebration at season's end.

Dance At Barrington By Welcoming Group

A Summer dance will be held by the Welcoming Group of the new Ahavath Sholom Synagogue Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Peck Community Center, Washington Road, West Barrington, opposite Haines Memorial Park. Music will be furnished by Ben Kauff's orchestra.

Mrs. Max Resnick, chairman, and Mrs. Rubin Cohen, co-chairman, have the assistance of the following Mesdames on their committee: Abraham H. Bliviss, Abraham W. Foster, Jacob Gershovitz, Ben Kaufman, Irwin Priest, Samuel M. Price, A. Louis Rosenstein, Edward C. Spencer and Samuel L. Kasper, ex-officio.

Sackin-Shocket Post Will Picnic Sunday

The second annual picnic of Sackin-Shocket Post 544, JWV, will be held at Goddard Park Sunday starting at 12 o'clock noon at fireplace 9, a short distance from the main entrance. We Also Must Supply Half of 1948 Needs

NEW YORK—Jews in the U. S. A. contributed more than 75 per cent of the $125,172,517 spent in Palestine during 1946 and 1947 for immigration and national development, Dr. Israel Goldstein, national chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, announced this week.

Unprecedented needs of the current year will involve expenditures in Israel for more than $100,000,000 for immigration alone, Dr. Goldstein said.

The total budget of the UPA agencies will amount to $283,000,000 in 1948, he said, at least half of which will come from the U. S. A. The United Jewish Appeal is conducting a nation-wide campaign for $250,000,000. The UPA is a constituent body in the UJA. The balance needed by UPA is to be raised by campaigns in other countries as well as in Israel itself.

Private capital totaling $1,000,000 was invested in 88 Jewish-owned companies in Palestine during the two months of December, 1947 and January, 1948, the UPA chairman disclosed.

Almost one-fourth of these new enterprises are industrial, with leather goods, textiles, tools, machinery, bakelite ware, fountain pens and canned goods among the products.

Two Negroes Study Hebrew In Boston

BOSTON—Leroy Watts and George White, Boston Negroes, are among the students in the Hebrew classes at the Zionist House here.

The Center of Jewish studies for Adults has several hundred students and none are more eye-and-ear catching than the two Negroes, both 22, when they stand up and recite from their textbooks in pure Hebrew.

Watts operates an elevator in the building which houses the Associate Jewish Philanthropies and decided he wanted to know more about Jews. White just went along "for the ride," and both are devoted students.

List Made of Full- Length Jewish Movies

NEW YORK—A mimeographed listing of 25 full-length Jewish motion pictures in Yiddish, English, and Russian, together with a brief description of each, rental sources and rental fee, has been issued by the Audio-Visual Materials Section of the Jewish Center Division of the National Jewish Welfare Board.

The listing contains 19 titles of Yiddish films with English titles, two titles with Russian dialogue and English titles and four with English dialogue. All but one of the titles are 16mm films. The other is 35mm.

ARABS FIGHT WITH ISRAEL

GALILEE—Arab tribes in Galilee are actively fighting in the armed forces of Israel. They are commanded by a Jewish farmer from Rosh Pinah. Their first action was an attack on the Lebanese outpost at Amrah. In Transjordan 16 Palestinian Arabs were arrested on charges of helping the Jews.
