ZOA-Hadassah Split Reported Healed: Browdy Sees Ben-Gurion

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—Settlement of a dangerous rift which tore World General Zionist ranks on the eve of the 23rd World Zionist Congress in Jerusalem two weeks ago was reported here this week in reports reaching top Zionist officials.

The end of the two-week-old controversy between Dr. Abba Hillel Silver's faction and Hadassah and the Israel Progressives was reported amid disclosures of a strong bid by pro-Silver forces to seat the Cleveland rabbi as president of the World Zionist Congress Actions Committee.

Hotspot in the split within the World Confederation of General Zionists was the issue of seating 60 members of the Israel General Zionist Party which had boycotted the Israel shekel elections. Hadassah and the Progressives opposed the seating in pre-Congress conferences. Silver and his followers insisted that they be represented. Both sides claimed the other had "disrupted" and "walked out" of the Confederation.

The agreement reached between the arguing factions, cables from Jerusalem reported, included the re-election of Dr. Israel Goldstein as chairman of the Confederation and the naming of Dr. Emanuel Neumann and Rose Halprin as vice-chairmen. Also agreed upon by the General Zionists was a streamlined operational plan under which a single office in the United States, instead of offices in the U. S., Israel and Europe, would carry out primary administrative activities of the General Zionist Movement. The New York office would be empowered to make major decisions under the new plan.

The peace settlement, doubted some weeks ago by Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver and others when tempers flared after the split, was seen as strengthening the General Zionist position considerably at the World Zionist Congress.

American Violinist Marries In Israel

TEL AVIV — A two-week romance culminated last week-end in the marriage here of Isaac Stern, famed New York concert violinist, and Miss Vera Lindenholtz, formerly of New York, who recently settled in this city.

Mr. Stern, who is 30, has just completed a series of concerts with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra and was to have left by air for a European concert tour. He cancelled his passage suddenly on Friday and the newlyweds will leave for Europe on Monday. The bride, who is 24, lived for many years in the same house in New York as Mr. Stern's accompanist, but they met for the first time two weeks ago in Tel Aviv.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, JR.

To Open Women, YAD Campaigns

U. S. Representative Franklin Delano Roosevelt Jr., distinguished son of the late President, and chairman of the National Christian Committee of the United Jewish Appeal, will be guest of honor and principal speaker at the Initial Gift affairs of the General Jewish Committee Women's and Young Adults Divisions on Tuesday, September 11, it was announced at GJC headquarters this week.

Roosevelt will address the Initial Gifts luncheon meeting of the Women's Division at 12 noon at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel, and in the evening will address the opening dinner of the Young Adults Division, which will start at 6:30 P.M. at the same hotel.

A recent visitor to Israel as a staunch supporter of the Jewish cause, Roosevelt conferred with government leaders and observed at first hand the great achievements and pressing needs of the Jewish State.

In announcing Roosevelt's acceptance of their invitation to visit Providence to participate in the launching of the annual drive in behalf of the United Jewish Appeal and 60 other national agencies, Alvin A. Sopkin, GJC president, and Joseph W. Ress, campaign chairman, in a joint statement declared this week, "We, and all members of the Jewish community, are highly honored that so distinguished a person as Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. will be with us in Providence on September 11. Despite a very crowded schedule of legislative and other duties, Mr. Roosevelt once again has demonstrated his great friendship with our people by promptly accepting our invitation."

For the first time, the Women's Division of Pawtucket and Blackstone Valley will join with the Providence women at their Initial Gifts luncheon. Mrs. Archie Fain, chairman of the GJC Women's Division, stated this week that "The leaders in the Women's Division are delighted that they will have so distinguished a guest at their opening $100 minimum luncheon." Harold Ratush, chairman of the Young Adults Division, said, "The Young Adults have hit the jackpot this year in obtaining so distinguished a young man to address their opening dinner." The minimum gift at the YAD event is $25.

Chairman of Initial Gifts of the Women's Division is Mrs. Nathan Samors, and Leon Mann is Initial Gifts chairman for the Young Adults. Mrs. Mitchell Glick is chairman of the Women's Division, Pawtucket and Blackstone Valley, and Mrs. Leo Marks is Initial Gifts chairman.

Crum To Address BV Initial Gifts

Bartley C. Crum, a member of the Anglo-American Commission of Inquiry on Palestine and a leading figure in numerous humanitarian causes, will be featured speaker at the Initial Gift meeting of the Blackstone Valley United Jewish Appeal on Tuesday, September 11 at the Narragansett Hotel.

The local drive is part of the nationwide United Jewish Appeal which seeks to raise funds for Israel, overseas relief and rehabilitation and refugee adjustment in the United States.

A close friend of the late F.D.R. and of President Truman and an outstanding attorney and author, Crum recently returned from a visit to Israel where he saw at first hand the enormous tasks confronting United Jewish Appeal agencies there. An attorney in private life, he maintains law offices in New York and Tel Aviv.

Officers of the local drive are: Harry A. Schwartz, chairman; Mrs. Mitchell Glick, chairman, Women's Division; Morris Espo, Alex Rumpel, Herbert Pansy and Leo Marks, vice-presidents; William Goldberg, financial secretary; Max Alperin, treasurer; Benjamin Sinel, Auditor, and David Chernaack, executive director.

Appointed in 1946 by President Truman to the Anglo-American

BARTLEY C. CRUM

Commission of Inquiry on Palestine, which recommended the admission of 100,000 Jewish refugees to the Holy Land, Crum has been an outstanding spokesman for the rights of refugees and the ideal of a Jewish State. His book, "Behind the Silken Curtain", achieved wide acclaim as a first-hand report of the international maneuvering which so long delayed the establishment of an independent Jewish commonwealth.

SUNDAY'S SCHEDULE

(Tentative schedule, subject to change at league meeting tonight)

Mathewson Toggery vs Richards; Richards vs Natcor; Mathewson Toggery vs Waldorf. These are postponed games having a direct bearing on the fourth playoff spot.

M & F Insurance secured a playoff spot as the regularly scheduled league play ended last Sunday, with a double win over Mathewson Toggery, the latter thereby losing a chance to clinch a playoff spot for itself. Aon Rosenbaum and Syd Jacobson homered in the tying and winning runs for the insurance men. Jake Chaiken and Jim Leonti also homered in the 9-8 overtime win. Nocky Rappoport of Mathewson hit the books for 4-for-4 at the plate.

In the second contest it was Sheldon Golden's big two run triple that gave M & F the 8-6 win. Harold Warren, with three hits for M & F, and Bruce Rogers and Gerry Gordon for Mathewson, were the batting standouts.

Broadway Auto forced Richards into a fourth place tie with Mathewson via a twin-bill win over the Clothiers. Thirteen-year-old Jimmy Steiner, son of Jack (Old Timer) Steiner, single-handedly put the Automen on the top side of the 7-3 contest. Banging out a single and a triple, Jimmy pushed across four runs. Bob (Slats) Goldis again sparkled at shortstop. Joe Joyce and Erwin Summer hit well for the losers.

In the nightcap the senior member of the Steiner firm came through, with Jack hurling and

Qualifying Round For Golf Tourney Closes Today

Today—Friday—is the deadline for would-be contestants in the Jewish Herald 1951 Golf Tournament. This is the last day on which qualifying round scores will be accepted at Ledgemont Country Club, scene of this year's tourney. But the committee emphasized that because of vacations, applicants who have not yet registered may still get into the competition—provided they get their rounds in by tonight.

As the qualifying round began on Monday, Harry Platt and Murray Trinkle estimated that between 60-70 players will participate in the match play that is scheduled to start next week, right after Labor Day.

Because of this large turnout, the first round of match play must be completed next week, Platt said, and the committee will notify the golfers by post card as winning his second game of the day. Murray Kerzner and Herb Goldis chipped in the winning bingles. Len Rodman's bat was not enough to overcome the Broadway power.

Lincoln Woods continued its late season spree with a double win over Natcor. Harold Hirsch and Chuck Nelson homered for the winners, while Ev Santagata poked a homer for the losers. Manager Gene Silverman of the Dairy outfit and Henry Grzyck of Natcor turned in dazzling fielding plays. Hirsch had a little the better of a mound duel with Buzzy Labush.

Nelson continued his heavy hitting in the nightcap, slugging 3-for-3, but Silverman paced the winners' attack with two homers and a triple. Lincoln Woods piled up a huge early inning lead, but Natcor rallied in the late frames and just fell short of catching up.

Waldorf and Arden's split but their league standings were unaltered as they ended up in first and second place, respectively. For Waldorf it marked the second straight pennant. Carl Lefkowitz turned in a fine hurling job as Arden's took the opener 6-5. In the second game George Lieberman pounded out five hits and Waldorf went on to take the 3-1 win, one of the tightest and lowest scoring games of the season.

Playoff plans will be listed next week.

to their pairings, so that they may arrange with their partners to play their initial matches. It is hoped to complete the tournament by the end of September.

Match play will be conducted in three divisions, with a separate prize being awarded the winner of each. There will also be additional prizes. East Side Pharmacy this week contributed a trophy for the tournament.

Prizes for the qualifying round, or kicker's tourney, will be announced as soon as the committee finishes compiling this week's results.

It's later than you think—and if you delay too long, the holidays will be upon you. Solve one problem by arranging for a family greeting in the Rosh Hashanah edition of the Herald. Call GA 1-4312.

Book Reveals How Truman Differs With State Dept.

Dr. James G. McDonald, the first U. S. Ambassador to Israel, is confident that the Jewish State's future is substantially assured. He says so emphatically in his book, "My Mission in Israel" (Simon-Schuster), the closing words of which are: "The future of Israel as a spiritual force is not without danger but it is pregnant with splendid hope. After two-and-one-half rewarding years, I close this account of my Mission, confident that Israel will triumphantly vindicate the faith of its builders."

The entire story of his stay in Israel, the dark and the pleasant days, the periods during which there were conflicts between Jewish leaders and the State Department, is marked by a deep-rooted interest in the country.

Of special importance, however, is the tension that was created at the outset by the attitude of the State Department. It is the first problem touched upon by the noted friend of Israel and it is referred to time and again throughout his book.

It is clear from Dr. McDonald's story that President Truman often acted "against his experts' advice." The State Department wanted to reduce the American office in Israel into a small Mission. Nevertheless, it grew into an Embassy.

Given "inadequate briefing," Dr. McDonald never was given a chance to learn fully what the State Department's attitude towards Israel actually was.

From the story of his Mission we learn who were the good friends of Israel and who were the hesitant or the obstructive. Later in the volume, in his report on the regional conference of the U. S. Chiefs of Missions at Istanbul, some old fears are confirmed, fears about enemies in Arab countries who conspired against Israel.

In the course of his report, Dr. McDonald refers to the anti-Zionism of U. S. Ambassador to Turkey, George Wadsworth, and states that "in comparison to

Playschool Children Entertain Parents

Children of the Jewish Community Center Summer Playschool played host to their mothers at the new field house on Sessions Street last Thursday afternoon. Refreshments were served and the usual play-day pattern was followed. Group activities included songs and a concert by the rhythm orchestra.

Thirty children within the 3-5 age range were enrolled in the Playschool program which ran for eight weeks and was concluded the day following the party.

Mrs. Benjamin Lewis and Mrs. Leo Borenstein discussed with the guest parents the role of the Parents Association in helping the Center plan creative progressive programs for children in all age groups for the coming year. Parents who are interested may call the Center, DE 1-6730.

Fruit Shortage Hits Holy City

JERUSALEM (AJP) — Milk-short Jerusalem had more food troubles this week when a sharp drop in the supply of fresh fruits and vegetables hit the city's markets.

Fresh milk for adults has not been available for several weeks and only children, the aged and the sick have been getting milk.

Fast-growing Jerusalem has never had adequate supplies of fruits and vegetables but in recent days even tomatoes and peppers, which had been available irregularly, disappeared from the market.

Poor crops were blamed for the shortages.

America's First Zionist Had Backing Of U. S. 2nd President

The second president of the United States, John Adams (1735-1826), was a Zionist. He also was a philo-Zemite, an ardent student of comparative religion, with special interest in Jewish history and the gifts Jews have made to the civilization of the world.

To Thomas Jefferson, John Adams once wrote: "... in spite of Bolingbroke and Voltaire I will insist that the Hebrews have done more to civilize men than any other nation. If I were an atheist, and believed in blind eternal fate, I should still believe that fate had ordained the Jews to be the most essential instrument for civilizing nations."

In his 90th year, John Adams wrote a letter to the first American Zionist, Mordecai Manuel Noah. In his discourse on the need for the re-establishment of Jewish nationhood, Noah quoted from this letter which, he said, was written "with all the fervor, sincerity and zeal he exhibited in the early scenes of our Revolution."

"I really wish the Jews again in Judea, an independent nation, for, as I believe, the most enlightened men of it have participated in the amelioration of the philosophy of the age; once restored to an independent government, and no longer persecuted, they would soon wear away some of their character..." And to indicate that he desired complete freedom for Jews in the world, the second president of our land wrote: "I wish your nation may be admitted to all the privileges of citizens in every part of the world. This country has done much; I wish it may do more, and annul every narrow idea in religion, government and commerce."

Opera Star of The '80's Dies

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—A brilliant Jewish singer, one of the few Americans to become a Metropolitan Opera star, in the early days of the Opera House, died here this week. Mrs. Sophie Traubman was 85.

Beginning in 1887 when she sang for ten seasons with the Metropolitan, Mrs. Traubman won acclaim as a leading American opera star. Starting at 18 with a recital at Steinway Hall, Mrs. Traubman later studied in Europe, making her debut with the National Opera Company at the Academy of Music. She appeared on the opera stage throughout Germany and France.

Sabbath Observers To Get State Aid

MONTREAL—Jews refusing to work on the Sabbath because of religious convictions are entitled to receive unemployment insurance, it was officially ruled here by a judicial umpire in an appeal from an earlier adverse ruling by the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

The action against the first ruling was taken by the Canadian Jewish Congress in the case of Benny Shapiro and Samuel Zeidenberg of Toronto, who were denied the benefits of Canada's unemployment insurance program because they refused to work on the Sabbath. The Unemployment Insurance Commission has now amended its regulations so as to avoid future hardship in such cases.

Day School Registration Starts

The Providence Hebrew Day School announces that registration for the fall semester of the school year 1951-1952 to the kindergarten class, ages 4½-5½, and to the first grade, 5½-6, is now in full swing. Classes will begin September 10.

The Providence Hebrew Day School is the only Hebrew School of its kind in Rhode Island, which offers a fully accredited Secular Department under the supervision of the Providence Board of Education; a complete program of Hebrew studies in small and homogenous classes; integrated program of extra-curricular activities; supervised recreational activities (indoor and outdoor); bus transportation; hot lunches and a complete Jewish environment and atmosphere.

The office is open daily Monday through Friday from 9 A.M. to 4 P.M., and Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9. For further information call DEXter 1-5327.

Urges Un-American Group Probe Anti-Jewish Slur Link With Reds

WASHINGTON (AJP)—A hate peddler capitalizing on Jewish names in the current round-up of Communist party members came under the fire this week of a California congressman who asked for an investigation by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Representative Samuel W. Yortey, Calif. Dem., asked the House Committee to extend its inquiry into the activities of Robert H. Williams of Santa Ana, California, a collaborator of Gerald L. K. Smith.

Acceptance of the request from

Council Women Give Camp Scholarships

All during the summer play school sessions held by the Jewish Community Center at the Field House at Sessions Street, from July 2 to August 24, five children coming from families of New Americans were given taxi scholarships. These scholarships, given by the Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women, enabled these children to enjoy a season of fun and health.

Added to other scholarships previously announced was a scholarship given to a twelve year old boy who is a newcomer to this country. This enabled him to go to Camp Centerland at Hope, Rhode Island, for a month.

the committee would be its first formal inquiry into anti-Semitic hate peddling. In a letter to John S. Wood, committee chairman, Yortey said that Williams published "Williams Intelligence Summary" and a pamphlet "Know Your Enemy."

Yortey said that the central ideas of the Williams' publication are that "Jews are a threat to the security of the United States." His entire attack stems from one scintilla of evidence that a number of Communists are happy to be Jews.

Yortey said that Williams' "character assassinations" included Sen. Herbert Lehman of New York, Gen. Mark Clark and Benjamin Cohen, advisor to the U. S. Delegation to the United Nations.

Sundlun Heads R. I. Crusade for Freedom

General Lucius D. Clay, national chairman of the Crusade for Freedom, and Harold E. Stassen, national chairman of the 1951 Crusade Drive, this week announced jointly the appointment of Walter I. Sundlun, prominent Providence lawyer, as Rhode Island State Chairman for the Crusade for Freedom campaign, which will be conducted from September 3-30 throughout the nation.

Give Your Child
The Chance You
Might Have Missed

In planning to give your children all the economic, social and educational advantages your means will allow (and sometimes even beyond your means) please remember your children are Jewish. See that this fact is not a source of conflict, confusion or unhappiness to them—but a source of strength and security giving them firm emotional roots in the wisdom, morality and beauty created by the Jewish people over a span of 3,000 years.

Give them a modern effective Jewish Education which will relate their spiritual and cultural heritage to the world of today.

Parents! Plan Your Children's Jewish Education!

You certainly want them to get a good Jewish education, to prepare them for living as warm and positive Jews who know the MEANING and the VALUE of our heritage to help them grow into happy, well-adjusted and constructive members and leaders of the Jewish community.

You can help your children develop their inner strength and emotional security by enrolling them in the Providence Hebrew Day School.

1) Enroll your child in our Kindergarten so that his education will be based on a firm foundation built in his most impressionable years.

2) Give your child an intensive schooling—to make it a living experience, by learning the richness of the Hebrew language and literature; the ideas and ideals of the Bible, Jewish Ethics and religion; the customs, practices, traditions and observances of the home and the synagogue; the Jewish history, music, art, etc.

Prepare your child for his place in Jewish life by sending him to the Providence Hebrew Day School, the proper Jewish surroundings filled with Jewish contents, thoughts, and experiences with positive Jewish attitudes.
